Contents

Acknowledgements
1 x

Introduction: Wittgenstein on explanation and self-clarification
2 1

1 Information, contemplation and social life
2 Aesthetic explanation and aesthetic perplexity
3 Wittgenstein and the Fire-festivals
4 When do empirical methods by-pass ‘the problems which trouble us’?
5 Explanation, self-clarification and solace
6 Wittgenstein on making homeopathic magic clear
7 Wittgenstein and obscurantism
8 Wittgenstein on Freud’s ‘abominable mess’
9 Congenital transcendentalism and ‘the loneliness which is the truth about things’

AFTERWORD
10 Explanation and self-clarification in Frazer
11 Explanation and self-clarification in Freud
12 Conclusion: two cheers for the coroner’s report

Index
ix