Contents

List of illustrations
List of tables
Chronology
Glossary

Map 1
_Saudi Arabia, main regions and cities_

Map 2
_Saudi Arabia, main tribes_

---

Introduction
1 Society and politics, 1744–1818 and 1824–1891
   - The origins of Al Saʿud (1744–1818)
   - A fragile Saʿudi revival (1824–1891)
   - The Rashidi emirate in Ḥaʾil (1836–1921)
   - The Sharifian emirate in Hijaz
   - Hasa in the nineteenth century
   - Emirate formation in Arabia

2 The emerging state, 1902–1932
   - The capture of Riyadh (1902)
   - The First World War and Ibn Saʿud (1914–1918)
   - The capture of Ḥaʾil (1921)
   - The capture of Hijaz (1925)
   - The _mutaʿawwaḍa_ of Najd
   - The _ikhwan_
   - An alliance not so holy: Ibn Saʿud, the _mutaʿawwaḍa_ and the _ikhwan_
   - The collapse of the _ikhwan_ rebellion

3 Control and loyalty, 1932–1953
   - Marginalising Saʿudi collateral branches
   - Consolidating Ibn Saʿud’s line of descent
   - Power and pomp in the pre-oil era: the _majlīs_
   - State affairs
   - The oil concession (1933)

---
Contents

- Oil in commercial quantities 93
- Oil and society in the 1940s and 1950s 95
- Saudi Arabia and Britain 100
- The end of an era 105

4 The politics of dissent, 1953–1973 106
   - The reign of King Sa’ud (1953–1964) 106
   - Saudi Arabia and the Arab world in the 1950s 114
   - Saudi Arabia and the United States in the 1950s and early 1960s 117
   - The reign of King Faysal (1964–1975) 120
   - Faysal and the Arab world 128

5 From affluence to austerity, 1973–1990 135
   - Affluence: the oil embargo (1973) 136
   - Vulnerabilities: Sa’udi–American relations in the 1970s 140
   - The reign of King Khalid (1975–1982) 143
   - Austerity: the reign of King Fahd (1982–) 149
   - Saudi Arabia and the Gulf context in the 1980s 155
   - Sa’udi–American relations in the 1980s 160

   - Sa’udi responses to the Gulf War 168
   - State responses: the reforms of March 1992 172
   - The Islamist opposition 176
   - Succession 186

7 Narratives of the state, narratives of the people 188
   - Official historiography 189
   - Political speech 196
   - The historical narrative challenged 199
   - The centennial celebrations: the capture of Riyadh revisited 204
   - The centennial celebration challenged 215

Conclusion 218

Appendix I: Al Sa’ud rulers in Dir’iyyah (1744–1818) 224
Advertisement
Appendix II: Al Sa’ud rulers in Riyadh (1824–1891) 225
Advertisement
Appendix III: Ibn Sa’ud’s sons (1900–1953) 226
Advertisement
Notes 227
Bibliography 235
Index 247