Tables

|   | Summary of adjective endings | Four translations of ALL | The three translations of BOTH | Comparative constructions | The conditional | The conditional perfect (full form) | The conditional perfect (contracted form) | Conjunctions which send the verb to the end | Days of the week | Months | Demonstrative pronouns | Functions of er | The future | The future perfect | Use of articles according to gender and number | Translations of ‘it’ and ‘they’ (non-human) | Position of niet | The passive with worden | The passive with zijn | The simple past | The perfect tense with hebben | Past participles | The perfect tense with zijn | The pluperfect tense with hebben | The pluperfect tense with zijn | Possessives with van | Possessive pronouns used independently as nouns | Possessive pronouns used in spoken and written Dutch | Verbs used in spoken and written Dutch | Verbs with prepositions | Adjectives with prepositions | The present tense of werken ‘to work’ | The present tense with spelling changes | Pronunciation of Dutch consonants | Pronunciation of Dutch vowels (and diphthongs) | Reflexive pronouns with the verb zich wassen ‘to wash oneself’ | Verbs that are always reflexive | Verbs that can be used either reflexively or with other direct objects | Summary of relative pronouns | Common separable verbs |
|   | page 4 |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |   |
List of tables

42  Spelling changes with vowels 101
43  Summary of verb tenses 108
44  The position of the finite verb 113
45  The relative position of finite and non-finite verbs 114
46  The relative position of modal and non-modal infinitives 114
47  Expressions of time, manner and place 114
48  Word order used for emphasis 115