

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information

INDEX

Act of state doctrine, 233–4African Charter on Human and Peoples’*Rights (African Charter) monitoring procedures, 276

Aliens

compensation for war damage

HRC view, 264–5

fingerprinting

ICCPR and, 260–1

Alternative dispute resolution

conciliation, 214

national human rights institutions, 214,
215American Convention on Human Rights
(ACHR)See also Inter-American Commission of Human Rights (IACHR); Inter-
American Court of Human Rights

breach failure to cooperate in fact-finding visit, 343

communications and individual petitions

effectiveness, 343, 346

friendly settlement, 336, 339–41;

IACHR reporting obligation, articles 48–9, 339–40; —, articles 50–1, 340–1

economic, social and cultural rights

article 42 reporting obligations and, 338–9

San Salvador Protocol, 338–9

fact-finding visits, 343

effectiveness, 346

obligations

legislative measures to give effect to treaty, 336, 345–6reporting obligations. See reporting obligations below

reporting obligations, 335–46

amendment, need for, 341, 344 article 42 obligation to copy to

IACHR copies of reports to other inter-American Committees, 337–9; economic, social and cultural rights and, 338–9; —,
IACHR request for such reports,
338; —, ineffectiveness, 337–8article 43 power to request reports on implementation of Convention, 337article 50 confidential report on failure to reach friendly settlement transmission to individual, 341article 51 report on failure to reach friendly settlement publication,
341dependence on request from IACHR, 336division between states parties and IACHR, 344

effectiveness, 343

IACHR, friendly settlement of communications and individual petitions, 339–41

limited role, 342

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexAmnesty legislation

legality

Peru, 176–9

South Africa, 285

Anti-Racism Information Service, 72*Apartheid

CERD and, 59, 75

violation of international treaty norms, 282

rule of law, 282

Australia

aborigines in custody

CAT Committee's lack of interest, 184

Human Rights and Equal Opportunity

Commission (HREOC), 210

economic, social and cultural rights,

215 n40

limitations on, 210 n22

mandate, 212, 214 n38

NGOs, 184

Bangladesh

racial discrimination, 77

Barbados

death penalty, 10 n17

withdrawal from ICCPR Optional

Protocol, 10 n17

Bayefsky, Anne, 501–22*Bosnia and HerzegovinaSee also* Emergency situationsCEDAW Committee's recommendations, 446

CERD Committee:

concluding observations, 445–6;

decisions, 449–51; special report,

441–2

compliance with human rights

obligations

obstacles to, 456–7

CRC Committee

recommendation, 452

reluctance to act, 458–9

GFA

compatibility with CERD, 75–6, 450, 457 human rights obligations, effect on capacity to comply, 457 role of UN human rights instruments and treaty bodies, 454–7

HRC

special report, 441, 446

NGOs

training, 456

technical assistance, 456

Burden of prooftransfer as result of NGOs' evidence, 186–7Burundi

racial discrimination, 77

Canada

legislation, interpretation aids, non-binding international instruments, 267–8

strike, right to, 267–8

CAT (Convention Against Torture)

accessions, 147

applicability

acts of individuals, 386

complaints

by individuals, 145

by states parties, 145

optional nature, 145

implementation

visiting system, draft Optional

Protocol, 146–7

inquiry on basis of well-founded indications of systematic practice of torture, 145–6, 166–7, 169–72

See also CAT Committee, inquiry procedure

jurisdiction

acts committed by non-nationals abroad, 325

extension to acts committed within country, 326

implementing legislation, need for,
325*non-refoulement*, 146, 325

reporting obligations, 145

Committee's right to act in absence of report, 148–9, 173effectiveness of periodic reporting, 164

non-compliance, 147–9

special reports, 164, 165–6, 185–7

reservations

USA, 324–6

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexCAT Committee

Chair's powers

decisions to promote compliance with Convention, 166

concluding observations, 153–4, 155–6, 172

See also general comments below

compliance with, 162–3

recommendations for improvement:

accuracy in dealing with legal issues, 159–60; —, closer reflection of discussion, 158–9; —, inclusion of counter arguments, 158–9; —, Secretariat involvement in drafting,
160–1; —, self-containment, 157–8;
—, specificity, 156–7, 158

usefulness, 144

ECHR organs compared, 146

effectiveness

in absence of interest in subject-matter, 184

expulsion, return and extradition, 146

follow-up, 172

fact-finding visits following discussion of report, 174

NGOs' role, 163, 182

general comments

See also concluding observations above
publication, 173

recommendation for greater use, 173

role, 156

treaty interpretation and, 155–6

Hong Kong (1995), 297

HRC and action in respect of same situation, 165

practice compared, 135

inquiry procedure

follow-up, 168–9; reporting procedure
as, 168–9

limited application, 165–6, 169–72

NGO information as basis, 170

optional nature, 146, 166–7

problems relating to, 165–6, 169–72 procedure, 166–7; cumbersome nature, 170–2

request for special report and, 165–6, 168–9

shortcomings and recommendations

for reform: easing of request to visit procedures, 172; —, establishment of, bureau to work interessionally, 172; —, working group, 172; —, streamlining of procedures, 172, 173; —, time limits, 171

visits: difficulty of getting agreement to, 169–70; —, NGO information as alternative, 170, 174; —, value of observations in absence of,
170 n88; —, visits by Special Rapporteur on Torture compared, 170, 174

meetings

duration and frequency, 149

publicity, 182–4

membership

predominance of lawyers, 418–19

quality, 151–4

requirements: failure to achieve, 416
n39; —, geographical diversity, 414;
—, nationals of nominating states, 412; —, recognised competence in the field of human rights, 21, 28, 420; —, 'usefulness . . . of persons having legal experience', 414–15, 418–19

NGOs and, 150–1

alternative reports: Russian Federation, 181–2

follow-up to Committee's concluding observations, 162

Hong Kong, 297

information about potential violations, 150–1, 172, 183–4, 185–7

inquiry procedure and, 170

Israel, 185–7

Northern Ireland prisoners, 182–4

reports

Committee's ability to act in absence of, 148 critical and informed approach to states parties' reporting, 181–2, 183–4

overdue reports, measures to deal with, 148–9

periodic reports, Guidelines, 162

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- shortcomings and recommendations
  - for reform, 149–54: greater consistency and conceptualisation, 151–4; —, greater use of special reports, 173; —, improved guidelines for drafting reports, 153–4; —, improved preparations for meetings, 154; —, tailored/thematic reports, 70–1, 154
- special, 165–6, 185–7: Chair's right to request between sessions, 166; —, Committee's power to request, 164; —, 'extraordinary circumstances', need for, 169–70; —, inquiry procedure and, 165–6; —, Israel (1997), 185–7
- statistics, 147–8, 149
- role
  - 'comments and suggestions to states parties', 2 n2
  - consideration of reports, 145: effectiveness, 150–4
  - examination of complaints from states/individuals, 145
  - general comments, 153–4
  - inquiry on basis of 'well-founded indications', 145–6
  - more active exercise, need for, 172, 173
- Secretariat, enhanced role, need for, 173
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - assimilation of report and inquiry procedures, 174
  - clearer indication of what is expected from states parties, 173
  - concluding observations. See concluding observations, recommendations for improvement above
  - enhanced role for Secretariat, 173
  - follow-up, 161–3, 168–9, 172: fact-finding missions, 163; —, role of NGOs, 163; —, role of Special Rapporteur on Torture, 163; —, substance and form distinguished, 161
  - improvement in quality of debates, 172
  - increased resources, need for, 154
  - more active exercise of Committee's powers, 172, 173
  - technical assistance, recommendations for, 220
  - urgent matters, 164–6
  - workload, examination of reports, 149
- CEDAW (Convention for the Elimination of Discrimination against Women)
  - accessions, 79
  - communications, absence of provision for, 74, 80–1: Optional Protocol, 80–1, 110
  - Optional Protocol, NGOs' contribution to, 105
  - ratifications, USA, 326–7
  - reporting obligations: Committee's right to act in absence of report, 110; —, cycle, 80; —, NGOs, 80; —, IWRAW guide, 105; —, specialised agencies, 80
  - reservations, 109, 397–8
  - special report, former Yugoslavia, 442
  - UNHCHR Technical Assistance Programme and, 223–4
- CEDAW Committee
  - administrative support. See Secretariat below
  - concluding comments
    - realism, 446
    - role of: country rapporteurs, 93–6; —, pre-session working group, 96; —, Secretariat, 94–6
    - structure, 94, 95
    - timing, 95–6
  - cooperation and coordination with other UN bodies, 98–104, 467
  - Commission on Human Rights, 99
  - Commission on the Status of Women, 99
  - Committee on the Rights of the Child, 99–100
  - constraints, 100
  - Glen Cove Roundtable, 100, 475
  - interchange of information, 99
  - special rapporteurs on relevant issues, 101–2: Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women, its Causes and Consequences, 101, 102–3

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- Sub-Commission on the Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, 101
- general recommendations, 96–8
  - formulation, 97–8: role of NGOs, 97, 105, 107; —, specialised agencies and other UN bodies, 97
  - harmonisation with those of other human rights bodies, 97–8
- low profile, 79, 192
- meetings
  - duration and frequency, 81–3: proposed change, 82–3
  - location, 82
  - participation: NGOs, 80, 105–8; —, specialized agencies, 80
- membership
  - diversity, 436 n85: gender imbalance, 413 n27, 417, 437
  - independence and NGOs' role, 106
  - lawyers, 419
  - requirements: competence in the field covered by the Convention, 420; —, 'equitable geographical distribution', 80, 412, 416; —, specialisation, 91, 92
- monitoring of work by International Women's Rights Action Watch (IWRAP), 105
- NGOs and, 97, 105–8
  - enhancement of role, responsibility for, 108
  - guidelines, need for, 108
  - inclusion in government delegations, 191 n29
  - involvement in preparation of states parties' reports, 191
  - Secretariat role in respect of, 107–8
- proceedings:
  - pre-sessional working group, 89–90; NGO participation, 107
  - private decision on concluding comments, 95
  - reform. See shortcomings and recommendations for reform below
  - reports. See reports below
- reports, 84–5
  - Committee's ability to act in absence of, 110
  - concluding comments. See concluding comments above
  - country rapporteur, role, 90, 92–6
  - identification and refinement of issues, 87–8; timing, 88–9
  - overdue, 84; measures to deal with, 110
  - procedure: initial reports, 90, 91, 92; —, periodic reports, 91
  - reform of proceedings. See shortcomings and recommendations for reform below
  - special report on Zaire, 187
  - updates, 86–7
- role, 2 n2
  - consideration of reports, 80, 84–93
  - examination of reports, 80
  - monitoring of integration of gender perspectives into work of other institutions, 100–1, 223
  - reluctance to remain within, 85, 97
  - 'suggestions and general recommendations', 80, 217 n43
- Secretariat, 81–2, 83–4
  - proposal for change, 467; from Division for the Advancement of Women to the Centre for Human Rights, 83–4, 107–8, 470
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - answers to questions to serve as next report, 87–8
  - concluding comments. See concluding comments above
  - consolidation of reporting obligations, 84–5, 86–7; updates and, 86–7
  - continuous need for, 110–11
  - cooperation and coordination with other treaty bodies, 98–108, 192
  - facilitation of dialogue, 91–2
  - general recommendations. See general recommendations above
  - improved guidelines for drafting reports, 93
  - information technology, 108
  - NGO involvement. See NGOs and above
  - pre-sessional working group, specialisation, 92
  - Secretariat. See Secretariat above

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- stock-taking, 109–10
- tailored/thematic reports, 87–8
- timing of pre-session meetings, 87–9
- working methods: increase in number
  - of reports per session, 85; —,
  - limitation of number of questions, 89; —, refinement of issues, 92; —,
  - shorter time-scale for answering questions, 89; —, specialisation of Committee membership, 92; —,
  - time limits on interventions, 92–3
- specialised agencies and, 97
  - CEDAW guidelines, need for, 104
  - consideration of initial reports, 104
  - oral submissions, 103–4
  - written submissions, 103
- technical assistance, recommendations
  - for, 219
- web site, 94
- workload
  - factors likely to lead to increase, 85–6
  - measures to control, 84–93, 110
- Centre for Human Rights
  - CEDAW and, 83–4
- CERD (Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination)
  - applicability
    - apartheid, 59, 75
    - ethnic cleansing, 75–8
  - General Recommendations: VIII
    - (self-identification of racial or ethnic group), 77; —, XIX (patterns of residential segregation), 76; —, XXI (territorial integrity/political unity), 76; —, XXII (refugees), 76; —, XXIII (indigenous peoples), 76
  - racial discrimination as defined by
    - ILO Convention Concerning Discrimination in respect of Employment and Occupation, 76
  - dispute settlement provisions
    - states parties' failure to deploy, 73
  - implementation
    - national human rights institutions
      - and, 209 n17
    - reporting obligation/communications, relative importance, 72
    - sanctions, 72
  - obligations of states parties
    - reports on discharge of treaty obligations, 58
  - reporting obligation
    - on discharge of treaty obligations, 58
    - states parties: capacity to meet, 58; —, misunderstanding of implications, 68–9
    - two-yearly cycle, importance, 74
  - sanctions
    - See also CERD Committee*
    - absence, 72–3
- CERD Committee, 60
  - admissibility
    - joinder with merits, 489
  - concluding observations
    - Bosnia and Herzegovina, 445–6
    - collective view, 67
    - comments by reporting state, 60
    - drafting, 60
    - publication in CERD Annual Report, 51
    - refinement of issues, aid to, 67
  - decisions
    - 1986–96 record, 65–6
    - Bosnia and Herzegovina, 449–51
    - continuity of membership and, 68
    - non-CERD business, 67
    - procedure, 66
    - rules of procedure amendments, 67
  - difficulties in reaching agreement, 64, 68
  - establishment, 3
  - evidence
    - NGOs, 59
    - personal experience, 59
  - general recommendations
    - See also CERD (Convention for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination)*, applicability
    - 1986–96 record, 64
    - development of effectiveness of CERD
      - and, 70
    - difficulties in reaching, 64
    - ethnic cleansing, 75–6
  - Hong Kong (1996), 297–8
  - judicial or quasi-judicial body
    - factors affecting development as:
      - accountability of membership, 56–7; —, language difficulties, 56; —, size of committee, 56

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- legal approach to consideration of communications, 55
- jurisdiction
  - declaration accepting competence, 55
- meetings
  - absences from, 61
  - cancellation, 7
  - frequency and duration, 60, 74–5
  - management of business:
    - responsibility of Chair, 61–3; —, scope for improvement, 74–5
  - participation: national human rights commission, 216 n42; —, national of reporting state, 67
- membership
  - absences from meetings, 61
  - constraints on commitment, 71, 74–5
  - continuity, 68
  - equality, 57
  - prevalence of diplomats and foreign policy specialists, 58–9
  - requirements: ‘equitable geographical distribution and . . . representation of the different forms of civilisation as well as of the principal legal systems’, 57; —, ‘honourable, faithful, impartial, and conscientious’ discharge of duties, 57; —, independence of government, 57; —, nationals of nominating state, 412
- national human rights institutions and recommendation for establishment, 209 n17
- NGOs and, 69–70, 72, 297–8
- obligations: report based on
  - ‘examination of the reports and information received from the States Parties’, 59, 66–7; —, ability to act in absence of, 66–7
- overdue reports, 60
  - frequency of obligation, importance, 71
  - measures to deal with, 4, 66–7
- proceedings
  - communications, 57; adversarial nature, 57; —, legal representation, 57; —, privacy, 55
  - consensus, 59
  - explanations of vote, 65
  - private consideration of communications, 55
- reporting obligation
  - alternative reports, 297–8, 301
- reports, 57–60
  - country rapporteur, role, 60
  - examination: NGOs, 70
  - identification and refinement of issues, 58
  - participation by non-reporting states, 73
  - reform. See shortcomings and recommendations for reform below
- role
  - at political/legal interface, 73
  - consideration of reports and communications, relative importance, 63
  - definition of issues, 59; reluctance of states parties to concede, 59
  - deployment of preventive procedures, 73
  - examination of reports, 73
  - issue of opinions on communications, 73
  - racial discrimination and characterisation of conflicts distinguished, 78
  - reluctance to remain within, 59, 62–3, 450
  - review of implementation in case of overdue report, 73
  - ‘suggestions and general recommendations’, 2 n2, 217 n43
- Rules
  - role of Chair, 63
- sanctions
  - exclusion from elections, 72
  - failure to report, 72
  - non-payment of dues, 72
  - states parties’ reluctance to support, 72–3
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - advance notice of questions to reporting states, 70
  - General Assembly support for, 66, 69
  - improved publicity, 449–50, 451

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- increased frequency or length of meetings, 74–5
- information technology, 71
- intersessional authority, 451
- intersessional meetings, 70
- lack of resources, 482, 483
- tailored/thematic reports, 70–1
- transfer of responsibility for preliminary work to professional staff, 75
- translation delays, 71
- special reports
  - Bosnia and Herzegovina, 441–2
- technical assistance, recommendations for, 219, 220, 458
- workload
  - effect of emergency situations, 453
  - examination of reports, 73–4
  - measures to control, 64–5
- Children. See CRC
- China
  - See also* Hong Kong
  - reporting obligations in respect of Hong Kong, 300, 312–13
- CHR (Commission on Human Rights)
  - national human rights institutions
    - participation in meetings, 208 n14
  - recommendations
    - source of international law, 264
  - role
    - 1235 and 1503 procedures, 20 n5
    - expansion, 20
  - Special Rapporteur on the situation in the former Yugoslavia, 443–4
  - status, 2 n2
  - willingness to take firm stance, 194
- Ciskei
  - international law
    - primacy, 282–3
  - legislation, interpretation, Universal Declaration of Human Rights and, 283
  - Universal Declaration of Human Rights
    - legislation, aid to interpretation, 283
- CITES
  - drafting
    - International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN), 375
- NGOs
  - importance of role, 375–6
  - International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN), 375
  - involvement in review of states' reports, 377
  - reports, status of, 375–6
- non-compliance
  - sanctions, 371, 373
- procedural obligations, 369
- reporting obligations
  - compliance, 361 n3, 373
  - review of reports, performance of individual states, 371
  - varying cycles, 374
- Secretariat
  - role, 375–6
- Climate Change Convention
  - financial and technical assistance, 373, 376
  - implementation and compliance, 371
  - reporting obligations, 368 n24, 370, 376
    - compliance, 376
    - encouragement of dialogue, 377
    - in-depth review of reports, 376–7; country visits, 377; —, procedure, 376–7
  - resources, 376
- Commission on Human Rights see CHR
- Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights see ICESCR Committee
- Committee on the Rights of the Child see CRC Committee
- Communications and individual petitions
  - See also* Communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol)
  - absence of provision (ICESCR, CEDAW, CRC), 74, 80–1
  - CEDAW Optional Protocol, 80–1
  - CERD
    - declaration recognising Committee's competence, 55; statistics, 72
    - procedure, legal approach, 57
  - complaints distinguished, 22
  - effectiveness, 343–4

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- environmental organisations, 362
  - NAFTA Side Agreement, 362 n5
- ESC, 359
- inter-American system. See American Convention on Human Rights (ACHR)
- Optional Protocol/CERD take-up
  - distinguished, 72
- shortcomings and recommendations for
  - reform, 8–9, 468
  - delay between submission and consideration by committee, 3–5, 8–9
  - resource implications, 468
  - submission in UN official or working language, 490
- views
  - adjudicatory nature, 257–8
- Communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol), 22–4
  - See also* HRC
  - adjudicative nature of proceedings, 23–4, 29–30
    - HRC's interpretation of Covenant and Protocol, 30
  - admissibility, 23
    - examination under another international procedure, 23
    - exhaustion of domestic remedies, 23, 27
    - joinder with merits, 489
    - recommendation for stricter criteria, 45–8, 492; facts outside HRC's reach, 46; significance of case, 46–7; ECHR compared, 47; —, US Supreme Court compared, 47
    - right of refusal, 32, 34
  - categories of rights admissible
    - fairness in judicial proceedings, 25
    - freedom of belief, advocacy and association, 25
    - individual physical integrity, 25
    - non-discrimination, 25
    - political participation, 25
  - facts
    - difficulty of determining, 35
  - family related rights, 26
  - liability to increase, 34
    - desirability of encouraging, 34
    - resource implications, 482
  - minority rights and, 26
  - procedure
    - legal approach, 29–30
    - privacy, 22, 29
  - ratification
    - southern Africa, 276
    - statistics, 72
  - reform of procedure. See admissibility, recommendations for stricter criteria above; HRC, shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - regional institutions, preference for, 31 n32, 38 n42
  - remedies
    - compensation, 37
    - effect on state behaviour, 36–7
    - legislative change, 37
    - release of prisoner, 37
  - sanctions, 37
  - self-determination and, 25
  - states parties' reluctance to provide for, 23–4
  - statistics, 32–3
- Complaints procedures
  - See also* Communications and individual petitions
  - regional systems, 2–3
  - resources for, 483
  - UN system
    - decline, 3
- Conciliation, 214
  - advantages, 214 n39
- Concluding observations or comments
  - See also* under individual committees
  - consistency of approach, need for, 389, 452
  - divergent interpretations
    - children's rights, CRC/HRC, 391
    - cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment, CAT/CRC, 390
    - political rights, ICESCR/HRC, 392
    - racial discrimination: CERD/CRC, 393; —, CERD/HRC, 390, 392; —, CERD/ICESCR, 393
    - violence against foreigners, CERD/HRC, 391
    - women's rights: CEDAW/HRC, 391–2; —, CEDAW/HRC/CAT, 391–2

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - comprehensive approach, 394, 401
  - coordination between committees, 394, 400
  - need to keep to mandate, 393–4, 445–6
  - publicity, 446–7, 453, 468, 514
  - realism, 446
  - time constraints and need for consensus, 394
  - variation in style and treatment, 393, 400, 401
- Constitutional review
  - economic, social and cultural rights and, 236
  - exhaustion of domestic remedies and, 230–1
  - human rights treaties, by reference to, 239
  - southern Africa, 276–7
- Corporal punishment, 277–8, 279–80
- Council of Europe
  - reform of human rights machinery, 3 n3, 20
- Courts. See International law, domestic courts, role
- CRC (Convention on the Rights of the Child)
  - applicability
    - acts of individuals, 386
  - communications, absence of provision for, 74
  - implementation
    - CRC Committee's role, 115–16, recommendations, list, 116
    - equality of provisions, 126
    - general comments and, 126
    - increase in funds, 473–4
    - national human rights institutions and, 209 n16
    - provisions relating to, 115–16
    - structures, importance, 116
  - interpretation
    - right to refer to more favourable or clearer provisions in other international instruments, 386
    - thematic approach, limiting nature, 117–18
  - national system
    - partnership with, 114–15
  - obligations
    - harmonisation of legislation and policy with Convention, 116
    - promotion of Convention, 116
    - publication and distribution within own country of country report, 116
  - ratifications, 113, 481
    - USA, 326–7
  - reporting obligations
    - See also* CRC Committee, reports cycle, 113; importance, 125
    - publication of reports in own country, 113, 114–15
  - rights
    - integration of civil and political with social, economic and cultural rights, 117–18
  - technical assistance, 218 n44
  - underlying principles
    - best interests of child, 116
    - non-discrimination, 116
    - right to participate in decisions affecting them, 116, 117
    - rights to life, survival and development, 116
  - US and, 328
- CRC Committee
  - Bosnia and Herzegovina, reluctance to act, 458–9
  - concluding observations, follow-up
    - NGOs' role, 121–2
  - effectiveness, 116
  - general comments
    - importance, 126
  - General Guidelines
    - preparation of reports, 114
  - Hong Kong (1996), 299
  - Meetings, duration and frequency, 113
  - Membership requirements
    - competence in the field covered by the Convention, 420
    - diversity of legal systems, limitation to, 414
    - nationals of nominating state, 412
  - national human rights institutions and recommendation for establishment, 209 n16

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- NGOs and, 108, 118–22
  - critical and informed approach
    - to states parties' reporting, 119–20
  - expert advice, 118–19
  - follow-up to Committee's concluding observations, 121–2
  - participation in pre-sessional working group meetings, 190, 299
  - right to request reports from, 118
- Optional Protocol, shortcomings, 386–7
- proceedings
  - pre-sessional working group, NGO participation, 119
- recommendations
  - Bosnia and Herzegovina, effectiveness, 452
- reports
  - General Guidelines, 114
  - guidelines, 114
  - overdue, 6 n5; measures to deal with, 125
  - periodic guidelines, 118
  - procedure: initial reports, 114; —, periodic reports, 114
  - reform. See shortcomings and recommendations for reform below
  - thematic: difficulties, 117–18; —, initial/periodic reports, value of distinction, 118; —, list of themes, 115, 127–8
- role, 2 n2
  - comprehensive understanding of situation of all children, 113–14
  - facilitation of dialogue, 114
  - implementation of Convention, efforts to secure, 115–16
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - administrative support, 125
  - continuous need for, 126–7
  - cost, 9
  - country rapporteurs, reintroduction, 123–4
  - membership numbers, 125
  - pre-sessional meetings: timing, 124; —, working methods, 124
  - refinement of issues for discussion with reporting state, 123
  - specialised agencies, 118, 119
  - technical assistance
    - recognition of need for human rights framework, 223
    - recommendations for, 220
    - UNICEF and, 224
  - workload, measures to reduce, 125
- 'Cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment'
  - ICCPR reservation, 320–1
  - objections to, 321–2
- Customary international law
  - enforcement, HRC, 25
  - ILO reports and conventions, 254
  - status, 246–7
    - part of domestic law, 265–6, 271, 275–6, 276
  - successor state's responsibility to prosecute human rights violations by predecessor, 285
  - Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 238, 249
- Death penalty, 283–4, 328
  - communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol) in respect of, 34 n31
  - ICCPR reservation, 10, 320–2
  - objections to, 10, 321–2
- Death row, 278–9
- Delay, 4–6
  - causes
    - increase in workload, 5
    - lack of resources, 5, 6–8
- Demographic information, inclusion in CERD reports, 66–7
- Denmark
  - European Court of Human Rights
    - Decisions, domestic courts and, 232–3
  - rule of law
    - administrative discretion, international norms and ('rule of instruction'), 239
- Deterrence theory
  - HRC views and, 36–8
- Dispute settlement
  - alternative dispute resolution, 214, 215
  - CERD provisions
    - states parties' failure to deploy, 73
  - environmental treaties, 371

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexDiversity

- coordination of treaty bodies and, 435–6
- criteria

- guidelines, need for, 424–6, 437

- of focus, 405

- importance, 406–11

- membership of treaty bodies. See

- Institutions (UN system),

- membership

- UNHCHR, role, 405–6, 423–37

- See also* UNHCR (UN High

- Commissioner for Human Rights)

Domestic jurisdiction

- See also* National law and practice, effect of UN system on

- declining relevance of argument, 18

Due process requirement

- See also* Fair trial

- hearing within reasonable time

- ICCPR, 6 n6

- proceedings before an international tribunal, 6 n6

Economic, social and cultural rights

- ACHR

- article 42 reporting provisions and, 338–9

- San Salvador Protocol, 338–9

- constitutional review and, 236

- definition

- USA dissent, 327

- integration with civil and political,

- 117–18, 223–4, 292–3

- legislative provisions, 235–6, 273

- justiciability, 236–7

- national human rights institutions and, 215

- treaties

- effectiveness as ‘soft law’, 237–8

- incorporation, 236–7

- self-executing, 235–7

ECOSOC

- Role, expansion, 20

Emergency situations, 164–6

- administrative support, inadequacy, 453–4

- concluding observations or comments, 441, 445–8

- dissemination: ad hoc basis, 446, 448, 459–60; —, general public, 447; —, UN bodies, 446; —, warring parties, 447

- reporting procedures

- alternatives, CERD Committee

- Decisions, 449–51

- effectiveness, 440, 447–8, 459; creation

- of documents of record, 447; —,

- legislative impact, 447; —, support

- to local groups, 448; —, treaty

- interpretation, 447

- improvements in, 459–60

- inconsistency in handling, 442, 459–60

- interactions between monitoring

- mechanisms, 440–1, 443–4, 448

- interlocuteurs, 440, 442–3

- reporting cycles, 440, 441–2

- state responsibility and, 442–3

- special reports

- content, relevance, 442

- time-lag, 441–2

- workload, effect on, 453, 459–60

- Eminent Persons Group (EPG), 423–4, 426

Environmental treaties

- See also* Montreal Protocol

- compromise nature, 364–5

- dispute settlement, 371

- human rights treaties, areas of difference, 363–5

- compliance machinery, 364

- expert/political nature, 364–5

- legalistic nature of human rights

- treaties, 364

- private conduct as target, 363–4

- reciprocal nature of obligation, 363

- respect/protect dichotomy, 363–4

- specificity/general nature of

- obligations, 368 n23

- implementation and compliance

- dispute settlement, 371

- monitoring: country visits, 371, 377;

- , EMEP, 365–6; —, ground-based

- or satellite monitoring systems, 369;

- , international inspections, 366;

- , NGOs. See NGOs below

- mutual reassurance value, 363, 367

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- non-compliance, Climate Change Convention, 371
- procedures: LRTAP Sulphur Protocol, 371; Montreal Protocol, 371–2; —, state responsibility and, 372; sanctions, CITES, 371, 373
- reporting obligations. See below
- willingness to admit failure to meet commitments, 366
- NGOs
  - importance of role, 375–6
  - involvement in review of states' reports, 377
  - monitoring, 366, 371
    - Climate Action Network, 374
    - Greenpeace, 374–5
    - TRAFFIC, 371, 375
    - World Conservation Monitoring Unit, 375
  - reports: status, 374–6; Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes, 374; CITES, 375–6; —, International Whaling Commission, 375
- procedural obligations
  - See also* reporting obligations below
  - provisions of
    - CITES, 369
    - Ocean Dumping Convention, 369
- reporting obligations
  - See also* procedural obligations above
  - 'communication of information', 367
  - compliance, 361–2; measures to ensure, 372–3
  - effectiveness and value
    - incompleteness of information, 371
    - vehicle for examining compliance, NGOs' role, 366
  - functions
    - collection of information relevant to determination of new norms, 367, 370–1
    - encouragement of dialogue, 377
    - evaluation of compliance, 365–6
    - policy reform, 366–7
  - in-depth review of reports, 371–2, 376–8
  - Climate Change Convention, 376
  - country visits, 377
  - procedure, 376–7
  - lessons for the UN system, 372–4
  - ad hoc* teams to relieve pressure on standing committees, 378
  - comprehensive approach to review, 378
  - financial and technical assistance, 373, 524–5
  - flexibility of review process, 377–8
  - penalties for non-compliance, 373
  - political pressure on delinquent states, 373–4
  - precise deadlines, 372–3
  - publicity, 378
  - varying reporting cycles depending on capacity to meet, 374
- methodology, 370
- provisions, 379–80
  - Barcelona Convention for the Protection of the Mediterranean Sea Against Pollution, 368 n22
  - CITES: compliance, 361 n3, 373; —, varying cycles, 374
  - Climate Change Convention, 368 n24, 370, 376; Convention on Wetlands of International Importance, 369–70; —, International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships, 369 n26; International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling, 369 n26; —, Kuwait Regional Convention for Cooperation on the Protection of the Marine Environment from Pollution, 368 n22; LRTAP Sulphur Protocol, 368; —, Ocean Dumping Convention, 369; —, Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer, 368
- review of reports: focus on aggregate performance, 370–1; —, performance of individual states, CITES, 371
- specificity, value, 368, 369

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexEquality of states

constraint on monitoring process, 71, 74

Estonia

human rights

constitutional protection, 238

international law

domestic courts, role, 231–2

treaties

incorporation, constitutional provision, 238

self-executing, requirements, 235

Ethnic cleansing

CERD and, 75–8

European Commission on Human Rights

abolition, 3 n3, 35, 488 n13

European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)

Committee of Ministers

failure to discharge functions, 38 n40 support offered by, 26 n13, 37

individual petitions, 343–4

just satisfaction, provision for, 29 n20

obligations of states parties

compliance with judgments of court, 29 n20remedies. See just satisfaction, provision for above

states parties

homogeneity, 27 n14; inclusion of east

European states, effect, 27 n14

sensitivity, margin of appreciation

and, 27 n14

UN Conventions, primacy, 455–6

European Court of Human Rights

CAT and, 146

chambers, 488

decisions

domestic courts and, 45, 232–3,

280–1, 283–5, 299; limiting effect on independent development of human rights norms, 232–3

HCR and, 40

ICCPCR and, 259–60, 261–2

implementation, 26 n13

discretionary jurisdiction, 47

judges

election: as appointments procedure,
412 n19; —, pre-screening proposal,
427; —, shortcomings andrecommendations for reform,
421–2, 432 n80

gender imbalance, 421–2

limitations on other simultaneous employment, 29 n20

nomination of candidates, 9 n13

period of office, 29 n20

requirements, 421; judicial standing, 29 n20

proceedings

public, 29 n20

European Court of Justice (ECJ)

jurisdiction

interrelationship with that of member states, 28 n15European Social Charter (ESC)collective complaints procedure, 358–9 reinforcement of reporting system, 359Committee of Independent Experts (CIE)Governmental Committee and differing standards, 353, 355

membership, 351; part time, 356

role, interpretation and application of ESC standards to national reports, 355

compliance

economic recession and, 354–5

Governmental Committee, nature of membership, 348warnings in case of failure to provide information necessary to judge, 348

European Trade Union Federation, 353

Governmental Committee

See also Committee of Independent Experts (CIE) above

advantages of, 348, 355–6

nature of membership, 348, 355 role, 354–5; advice to Committee of Ministers on action to be taken, 355; —, examination of CIE's conclusions on compliance, 355

ILO and, 358

interpretation, ILO standards, 355

meetings

participation, ILO, 355

membership, 347 n2, 355

NGOs, limited role, 356

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- Obligations, international nature
  - applicability by domestic courts, 236–7
- proceedings
  - interpretation, 353 n17
- ratification
  - à la carte* basis, 347 n3
- reporting system, 347–60
  - compliance, 359–60
  - comprehensiveness of review, 352
  - independence of committees from government, 351
  - lessons for the UN system, 349;
    - compliance problems in absence of legally binding obligations, 359–60;
    - , frequency and duration of meetings, 352 n16; —, length of cycle, 349; —, method of election of membership, 351; —, non-confrontational approach, 354;
    - , predominance of written proceedings, 353; —, reinforcement with complaints/petitions procedure, 359; —, special as opposed to periodic reports, 349–50;
    - , thoroughness of review, 352; —, working parties/chambers, 352–3
  - reporting record, 348
  - shortcomings, 359
  - special reports, 349–50
  - two/four-yearly cycle, 347
- Secretariat
  - contribution to work of CIE, 356
  - role, 356
  - staffing, 7, 356
  - technical assistance
    - prospective new membership, 357–8
- European Trade Union Federation
  - European Social Charter (ESC), 353
- Exhaustion of domestic remedies
  - courts' power of constitutional review, relevance, 230–1
- Expulsion
  - CAT (Convention Against Torture) Committee and, 146
  - ECtHR and, 233
- Fair trial
  - See also* Due process requirement
  - Peru, 177–8
- Finland
  - constitutional review
    - economic, social and cultural rights, 236
    - exhaustion of domestic remedies and, 230–1
    - human rights treaties, by reference to, 239
  - economic, social and cultural rights
    - integration with civil and political legislative provisions, 236
  - justiciability, 236
  - treaties, effectiveness as 'soft law', 237–8
  - European Court of Human Rights
    - decisions, domestic courts and, 232–3
  - HRC
    - follow up to decisions, 241–2
  - human rights
    - constitutional protection, 238, 239
  - legislation
    - HRC decisions as basis for, 241–2
  - ombudsman
    - 'soft' law, application by, 238
  - treaties incorporation
    - relevance, application of treaty norms, 237
- Gender imbalance in international institutions, 413 n27, 417, 421–2, 424–5, 437
- General comments
  - See also* Concluding observations or comments; and under individual committees
  - adjudicatory nature, 258
  - divergent interpretations, 395–6
    - measures to resolve, 396
  - general nature, 22
  - importance, 52, 126, 261–4
  - legal effect, 52, 247–8
  - origin and development, 257
  - procedure, 3, 18
  - publication, 51, 173
  - role, 156
    - implementation of treaty obligations, 126
    - interpretation of treaty, 395

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - comprehensive approach, 354
  - concluding comments or observations compared, 395
  - consistency of approach, 395, 396, 400, 452
  - enhanced role for Secretariat, 469
  - formulation, 52–3
  - gender perspective, 192–3
  - greater use, 173
- subject matter
  - interpretation of treaty provisions, 18, 21, 22, 262
  - procedural issues, 22
- Genocide Convention
  - ratification
    - USA, 319
- Germany
  - treaties, incorporation
    - application of treaty norms, 237
- Glen Cove Roundtable, 100, 475
- Hong Kong
  - CAT hearings (1995), 297
  - CERD Committee
    - alternative report, Home Affairs Panel of the Legislative Council, 297–8, 301
  - concluding observations
    - follow-up, 302–3
  - CRC Committee, 299
  - economic, social and cultural rights
    - integration with civil and political, 292–3
  - HRC, 296, 300–1
    - request for supplementary report, 296, 300
  - human rights
    - international monitoring, importance, 289
    - legislation, 288
  - Human Rights Commission
    - NGO training, 294
  - human rights treaties, extension to, 287–8
  - ICCPR
    - incorporation, 292
    - reporting obligation, China, 300
  - ICESCR Committee, 293–6, 300–1
    - alternative report, Constitutional Affairs Panel of the Legislative Council, 294
    - concluding observations, 301
    - country rapporteur, role, 294–5
    - government response, 295–6
  - municipal courts
    - concluding comments and views, application, 303
  - NGOs
    - CAT hearings, 297
    - CERD hearings, 297–8, 301–2
    - CRC hearings, 299
    - follow-up, 302–3
    - following transfer of Hong Kong to China, 314–15
    - HRC hearings, 291–2, 296
    - ICESCR, 293–6
    - participation and dissemination of reports, 306
    - usefulness of participation in reporting process, 304
  - racial discrimination, 298 n46, 301–2
  - reporting obligations
    - alternative reports, 294
    - China, 300, 312–13
    - effectiveness and value, 303–15; long-term nature, 306–8
    - following transfer to China:
      - procedure, 313–15; —, responsibility, 300, 312–13
    - national human rights institutions and, 208, 305
    - publicity, 290–2, 302 n68, 306–7:
      - government's failure to publish report, 291 n19, 302 n68
    - reports examined between November 1994 and March 1997, 289
- HRC (Human Rights Committee)
  - achievements
    - establishment of its mandate as norm, 18
  - applicable law
    - opinions of: municipal courts, 40; —, other international organs, 40
  - concluding observations, 21, 22, 50–2
    - See also* general comments below
  - consensus, 51

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- legal effect, 50–1
- political effect, 51–2
- publication in HRC Annual Report, 51
- views distinguished, 51
- confidentiality, 29
- facts
  - acceptance of petitioner's account, 35
  - difficulty of determining, 35–6
- failure to
  - develop civil and political rights, 19
  - persuade states to end systematic abuses, 19
- follow up to decisions, 241–2
- general comments
  - See also* concluding observations above
  - development, 52
  - general nature, 22
  - legal effect, 52
  - potential value, 52, 261–4
  - purpose, 22
  - shortcomings and recommendations
    - for reform, 52–3; enhanced role for Secretariat, 469
  - subject matter: interpretation of
    - provisions of ICCPR, 18, 21, 22; —, procedural issues, 22
  - views distinguished, 52
- Hong Kong (1995), 296
- human rights movement,
  - marginalization, 19
- individual complaints. See
  - Communications and individual petitions
- judicial or quasi-judicial body, 2 n2, 22, 29–30, 31–49
  - legal approach to consideration of communications, 29–30
  - recommendation for enhancement of legal role, 48–9
- jurisdiction
  - See also* Communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol), admissibility
    - discretionary, recommendation for, 46
- membership
  - employment by governments, 28
  - known human rights activists, 428 n74
  - limited expertise on any given issue, 181
- mixed quality, 42
- replacement in case of death, 417 n44
- requirements, 21; expert character, 21; —, geographical diversity, failure to achieve, 416–17; —, independence of government, 21, 28; —, nationals of nominating state, 412; —, recognised competence in the field of human rights, 21, 28, 420; —, regional group system, 415 n38; —, 'usefulness . . . of persons having legal experience', 21, 28
- term of office, 28
- turnover, 28
- NGOs and
  - critical and informed approach to states
    - parties' reporting, 180–1, 183–4
  - evidence from, procedure for
    - handling, 176–9
  - Hong Kong, 290–2, 296
  - Peruvian amnesty law, 176–9
- obligations
  - examination of communications 'in light of all written information available to it', 23, 28
- orders
  - status, 24
- proceedings
  - communications, 23, 29–30; privacy, 22, 29
  - consensus, 22
  - hearing within reasonable time,
    - absence of provision, 6 n6
  - oral, 23, 29
  - private: decision on concluding
    - observations, 22; —, examination of communications, 22, 29
  - public discussion of states parties' reports, 22
  - reform. See reform below
- remedies. See Communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol)
- reports
  - special: accession to ICCPR, relevance, 441; —, Bosnia and Herzegovina, 441; —, Chair's right to request between sessions, 166; —, former Yugoslavia, 187, 441

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- role
  - challenge of, 27
  - concluding observations. See concluding observations above
  - consideration of: communications, 21, 22–4; See also Optional Protocol (ICCPR); —, complaint, 16; —, implementation of treaty regime, 20–1; —, periodic reports, 18, 21–2, 217 n43
  - development of Covenant, 39, 41, 262
  - development of process, 30
  - exposition of Covenant, 39, 41–2, 53
  - facilitation of dialogue, 18, 41, 46, 52–3
  - fact-finding, 35–6
  - follow-up on implementation of views, 30 n21
  - ‘forward views’ to state party and individual concerned, 2 n2, 23, 217 n43
  - general comments. See general comments above
  - ICCPR and protocols, limitation to matters covered by, 20–1, 31
  - integral approach to human rights issues, 40
  - interaction, 21, 50–3
  - judicial review, 41
  - justice in individual case, 32–6, 41
  - limited nature, 24–5, 31
  - as part of broader international system, 21
  - recognition by states parties, 30 n22, 50
  - under: ICCPR, 21; —, Optional Protocol (ICCPR), 16, 21
  - ‘views’. See views below
- sanctions
  - communications, 37
  - views, 37
- separate opinions, 29
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - See also* role, recommendations above; Communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol), admissibility
  - development of legal role, 48–9
  - lack of resources, 482
  - limited nature, 20
  - linking of admissibility and merits, 33, 46, 489
  - panels, 33
  - prospects of success, 49 n37
  - tailored/thematic reports, 87 n20
  - working methods, 464–5
- status
  - advent of states with no remedies to exhaust, effect, 34
  - constitutional/cassation courts compared, 31, 41
  - independence of state system, 28, 31
  - judicial or quasi-judicial. See judicial or quasi-judicial body above
- technical assistance, recommendations for, 220
- urgent matters, 164–5
- USA report (1995), 322–4
- views, 2 n2, 16
  - compliance: annual reports on delinquent states, 37; —, other institutions compared, 37–8; —, sanctions, 37; —, statistics, 30 n22; —, support from General Assembly or Security Council, 37
  - deterrence theory and, 36–8
  - dissenting/concurring views, 29; value, 44
  - drafting, 29; recommendations for improvement, 42–5
  - follow up, 30 n20; fact-finding visits, 163
  - legal effect, 23, 29; binding force, 30, 37
  - municipal courts and, 38, 257–68
  - publicity for, 36, 38
  - status, normative and institutional legitimacy, 30, 39
- workload
  - factors likely to lead to increase, 34
  - measures to reduce, 45–8
  - modest level, 33
  - supply and demand, non-correlation, 33–6; fact-finding problems, 35; —, mandatory jurisdiction and, 32, 34, 45–8; —, screening process, absence, 34–5

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndexHuman rightsSee also Economic, social and cultural rights; International law; Rule of law; Treaties

compliance

See also Communications and petitions; Reporting obligations (UN system); Treaties; Treaty implementation and compliance methods, interrelationship, 333, 345–6

constitutional protection, 238–9

definition

mandate of national human rights commissions and, 210; by reference to international agreements, relevance, 210–11, 275 development, HRC and, 39 importance of national role for protection of, 285–6

information technology and. See Information technology informed public debate, absence, 48–9 institutions. See Institutions (national); Institutions (regional systems); Institutions (UN system); and individual committees integrated approach, need for, 346 international norms, importance, 327–8 law enforcement agencies and, 221–2 legislation

sources, 206

plurality of organs and treaties, 245 value, 243

preventive measures

role of committees, 73–4

primacy of norms

rule of law and, 232, 240

self-executing treaties and, 235

private sphere abuses

NGOs' contribution to identification of, 193 problems in compliance, 37–8

determining, 26

violations

amnesty in respect of, legality, 285

obligations of successor state, 285

Human Rights Commission see CHR (Commission on Human Rights)*Human Rights Committee see HRC*ICCPR (International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights)See also* HRC (Human Rights Committee)

aliens

applicability to, 251

fingerprinting, 260–1

American Convention on Human Rights distinguished, 35

drafting, 17

enforcement. See HRC

European Convention on Human Rights (1950) distinguished, 35 juridical nature of process, 29

extraterritorial scope, 179–80

general comments. See HRC

illegitimacy, 261–4

interpretation

aids and ECHR, 259–60, 261–2

Body of Principles for the Protection of All Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment (1988), 385; 'subsequent practice', whether, 250 responsibility: HRC, 42; —, municipal courts, 42

obligations of states parties

compliance with views of HRC, 30

'necessary steps . . . to give effect to' rights under Covenant, 24

reporting obligations. See below

'to ensure effective remedies' and their enforcement, 24

Optional Protocol

See also Optional Protocol (ICCPR) proposed Third Optional Protocol, shortcomings, 387–8 political compromise, 24–5

reporting obligations

China in respect of Hong Kong, 300 effectiveness, periodic reports, 164 measures taken to give effect to rights, 21

progress in enjoyment of rights, 21

special reports, 164–5, 166, 296, 300

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- reservations
  - compatibility with object and purpose of the Covenant, 322
  - ‘cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment’, 320–1; objections to, 321–2
  - death penalty, 10, 320–2; objections to, 10, 321–2
  - US, 318–19, 321–2, 322–4
- withdrawal
  - North Korea, 10
  - requirements, agreement of all states parties, 10 n16
- Iceland
  - European Court of Human Rights decisions and domestic courts, 232–3
- ICESCR (International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights)
  - communications, absence of provision, 74
  - implementation
    - See also ICESCR Committee*, role
    - ICESCR Committee’s role, 135–42
  - obligations
    - ICESCR Committee’s role in enforcing, 135
  - ratifications
    - USA, 326–7
  - reporting obligations
    - implementation of treaty obligations, substitute for, 131
  - reservations, 252
  - technical assistance, 218 n44
  - violations
    - determination of, 135
    - NGOs’ role in identifying, 137–8
- ICESCR Committee
  - concluding observations
    - Hong Kong, 301
    - judicial nature, 134
    - usefulness, 144
  - country rapporteur, role, 294–5
  - Hong Kong
    - 1994, 293–6
    - 1996, 300–1
  - as judicial or quasi-judicial body, 134
- membership
  - predominance of lawyers, 419
  - requirements, 412–13; competence in the field of human rights, 420
- NGOs and, 133–4
  - alternative reports, 119–22, 132–4, 190
  - circulation of NGO reports as official UN documents, 190
  - critical and informed approach to states parties’ reporting, 119–20, 294–6
  - information about potential violations, 137–8
  - involvement in preparation and dissemination of states parties’ reports, 191 n29, 294
- reports
  - alternative reports, 119–22, 132–4, 190, 294
  - effectiveness as monitoring device, 129–33
- resources, inadequacy, 133
- role
  - determination of violations of Covenant, 135
  - encouragement of: implementation of legislation, 137; —, new legislation, 136; —, NGOs’ involvement in national policy-making, 138–9; —, repeal of legislation, 136–7
  - limited nature, 129–30
  - specific recommendations for fulfilment of treaty obligations, 139–40
- Secretariat
  - size, 133
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - concluding observations, identification of treaty violations, 144
  - follow-up action, 143–4
  - guidelines for recommended legislation, 136
- technical assistance
  - recognition of need for human rights framework, 223
  - recommendations for, 220; UNHCHR Technical Assistance Programme and, 223

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexICJ see International Court of Justice

Decisions, binding force domestic courts, 256

Illegitimacy

ICCPR, 261–4

ILO (International Labour Organisation)

ESC and, 355
overlap with treaty bodies, 474 reports and conventions
customary international law, 254
domestic courts and, 251–6, 281–2

India

Human Rights Commission deficiencies, 207 n11, 208 n15
government motivation, 205
independence of government, 206–7
role: educational, 207 n11, 213; —, monitoring implementation of and compliance with treaty obligations,
207 n11, 212
human rights legislation
sources, 206, 210
racial discrimination
caste system, 77

Individual claims against states

See also Communications and individual petitions

against own state, 15–16 development of right, 15–16 enforcement of decision, 16 non-self-executing treaties, 320

Indonesia

Human Rights Institution
government motivation, 205–6
independence of government, 204–5 mandate, 205, 211–12
resources, 205

Information technology, 7, 71, 108

cooperation with academic institutions, 494 recommendations for increased use,
142–3, 466, 469, 493–4
UNHCR web sit, 94, 108, 142–3, 493

Institutions (national)

See also Institutions (regional systems);

Institutions (UN system); NGOs

alternative dispute resolution, 214, 215 basis

constitutional, 204 statutory, 204

decentralisation and democratisation of human rights standards, 202, 203
definition, 202

countries in which established, 202–3 independence of government, 204–7

government motivation, 204–5
power to initiate investigations,

importance, 214–15

resources, 204–5, 205, 478–9

role advisory (government policy and practice), 204, 207 n12

dissemination of information,
207 n12, 212

economic, social and cultural rights, 215 educational, 204, 207 n11, 207 n12, 213 increasing recognition, 207–8;

International Coordinating Committee of National Human Rights Institutions, 207–8; Principles Relating to the Status of National Institutions ('Paris Principles')
(1993), 207; World Conference on Human Rights (Vienna, 1993), 207 investigation and resolution of treaty

violations, 204, 213–15

monitoring implementation of and
compliance with treaty obligations,
202, 207 n11, 209 nn16 and 17,
211–12, 216

ombudsman's role distinguished, 203 states parties' reports: follow-up on treaty body recommendations, 208;

—, preparation, 208

training programmes, 213

shortcomings and recommendations for reform, 207 n11

alternative reports, 217

coordination, 208

database of institutions, 216 elections to treaty bodies: judicial review committee, 432–5; —,

NGOs' role, 431–2

guidelines for contribution, 478

increased educational effort, 217

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- involvement in preparation and dissemination of reports, 216–17
- treaty bodies and, 208–27
  - participation in meetings: CERD, 216 n42; —, CHR, 208 n14
  - recommendations and general comments as vehicle for promotion of national institutions, 209
  - shortcomings and recommendations for reform, engagement of national institutions in dialogue, 215–16
  - treaty bodies' lack of interest, 208–9
- Institutions (regional systems)
  - See also* European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR); Institutions (national); Institutions (UN system); Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR)
  - consolidation, 2–3
  - political support, 26 n13, 27 n14
  - reporting obligations, limited role, 334, 342
- Institutions (UN system)
  - See also* Institutions (national); Institutions (regional systems); International organisations; Shortcomings and recommendations for reform of UN system; and individual committees
  - contribution to development of human rights, 53
  - 'dialogue'
    - effectiveness, 360, 512
    - increasing encouragement of, 217
    - pro-state bias, 132
  - diversity
    - See also* Diversity; and membership, requirements below
    - consolidation, implications, 404–6, 436
    - disciplinary expertise, 417–22
    - experience, 405
    - expertise, 404–5
  - effect on treaty bodies of inaction or ineffective action, 453
  - effectiveness
    - See also* Emergency situations
    - by offering legal basis, 179, 184
    - lack of: binding authority, 427 n70; —, operational basis, 194, 217
    - measure, 508–9
  - judicial nature. See Judicial or quasi-judicial body
  - membership
    - constraints on effectiveness: See also Shortcomings and recommendations for reform of UN system; absences from meetings, 61; —, continuity of membership, 68; —, employment by governments, 28, 188, 197, 221, 351; —, inadequacy of information, 108, 181; —, lack of expertise, 80, 181, 188–9, 225–6; —, male dominance, 225; —, mixed quality, 42, 423 n62; —, multiplicity of commitments, 71, 74–5, 189, 464–5, 470; —, numbers, 125; —, prevalence of diplomats, lawyers and foreign policy specialists, 58–9, 225–6, 418–19; —, rivalry, 100; —, specialisation, 91, 92; —, term of office, 28; —, turnover, 28
  - diversity: disciplinary expertise, domination of lawyers, 417–20; —, disciplinary expertise, objections to, 425; —, election constraints, 412–13; —, social experience, 413
  - equality, 57
  - gender imbalance, 413 n27, 417, 437
  - horse-trading over election, 188–9, 427–8
  - independence and NGOs' role, 106
  - quality, 131–2, 151–4
  - regional group system, 415–16
  - replacement in case of death, 417 n44
  - requirements, 21; competence in the field covered by the Convention, 420; —, diversity, 411–22; —, diversity. See above; —, 'equitable geographical distribution and . . . representation of the different forms of civilisation as well as of the principal legal systems', 57, 80, 225, 413–17; —, expert character, 21, 188–9; —, 'honourable, faithful, impartial, and

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- conscientious' discharge of duties, 57; —, inconsistency in application, 415; —, independence of government, 21, 28, 57, 189; —, limitations on numbers from any one state, 412–13; —, nationality of nominating state, 41; —, 'usefulness . . . of persons having legal experience', 21, 28, 414
- states' interest in maintaining strong presence, 428–9
- national system
  - partnership with, 114–15
- NGOs and. See NGOs
- non-treaty bodies
  - effectiveness, 193–5
- political independence, 514–15
- rapid development, 3
- resources. See Resources
- status
  - independence of state system, 28
- validity of underlying assumptions, 502
- views
  - binding nature, 247–8
  - workload, measures to control, 64–5
- Inter-American Commission of Human Rights (IACHR)
  - See also* American Convention on Human Rights (ACHR); Inter-American Court of Human Rights
  - development, 20 n5
  - economic, social and cultural rights, references in Annual Reports, 339
  - enforcement of obligation to ensure Convention is given effect in domestic law, 336–7
  - Amnesty Laws* cases, 336
  - fact-finding visits, 342–3
  - applicability, OAS membership, 342
  - effectiveness, 346
  - failure to cooperate as breach of Convention, 343
  - reporting obligations and, 343
  - reports, effect of publicity, 343
  - HRC (Human Rights Committee) distinguished, 35
  - OAS and, 342
  - reporting obligations
    - fact-finding visits, 343
  - friendly settlement of communications and individual petitions: articles 48–9, 339–40; —, articles 50–1, 340–1
  - IACHR request for article 42 reports, 338
  - possibility of greater use of article 43 power to request reports on implementation of Convention, 337
  - shortcomings and recommendations for reform
    - development of jurisprudence, 337, 345–6
    - follow-up procedures, 345
- Inter-American Court of Human Rights
  - See also* American Convention on Human Rights (ACHR); Inter-American Commission of Human Rights (IACHR)
  - enforcement of obligation to ensure Convention is given effect in domestic law, 336–7
  - facts
    - difficulty of determining, 36
  - political support, 27 n14
  - shortcomings and recommendations for reform
    - development of jurisprudence, 337, 345–6
    - follow-up procedures, 345
- International Coordinating Committee of National Human Rights Institutions, 207–8
- International Court of Justice (ICJ)
  - decisions, binding force in domestic courts, 256
  - elections to
    - NGOs' role, 431–2
- International Criminal Court
  - judges
    - election, 9 n13
  - Statute, rejections, 317 n1
  - US and, 317 n1, 323 n19
- International Labour Organisation (ILO)
  - see* ILO (International Labour Organisation)
- International law
  - See also* Customary international law; Treaties

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- domestic courts, role, 231–9
  - monist/dualist divide, relevance, 231–2, 275–6
  - sources, ECHR decisions, 232–3, 277
- impact on national law
  - See also* primacy below
  - as aid to interpretation of. See Legislation, interpretation
  - Japan, 245–68
  - Namibia, 270, 279–80
  - South Africa, 269–76, 281–5
  - Zimbabwe, 270, 277–9
- implementation
  - See also* domestic courts, role above;
  - Treaty implementation and compliance
  - act of state doctrine, 233–4
  - lex posterior derogat legi priori*, 234–5
  - political question doctrine, 233–4
  - variation in interpretation and standards, 233
- obligation to observe, 247
- primacy, 246–7, 266–7, 282–3
- reflective of states' interests and behaviour, 26
- sources
  - acts of NGOs, 250
  - decision of the ICJ relating to the interpretation of a convention, 256
  - decisions of international bodies. See International organisations, decisions
  - declarations and resolutions: Body of Principles for the Protection of All Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment (1988), 250, 265; —, Declaration on the Rights of Disabled Persons (1971), 249–50; —, Declaration on the Rights of Disabled Persons (1975), 249–50; —, ILO/UNESCO Recommendation Concerning the Status of Teachers (1966), 250; —, UNGA resolutions, 247; —, Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 238, 248–9, 282–3
  - 'soft' law, OSCE documents, 238
  - Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners (1957), 250, 265, 282
  - treaties. See Treaties
- International Law Commission
  - elections
  - NGOs' role, 432
- International organisations
  - See also* ILO (International Labour Organisation); Institutions (regional systems); Institutions (UN system); and individual committees
- acts
  - comments, general comments and views, 258–60
  - source of international law, 246–68; aid to interpretation, 250; —, norm-creating and adjudicatory acts distinguished, 247–8
- International tribunals, decisions
  - binding nature, 247–8
- International Women's Rights Action Watch (IWRAW), 105
- Israel
  - NGOs, 185–7
  - racial discrimination, 77
  - torture
    - CAT request for special report, 185–7
- Jamaica
  - communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol), 32 n26, 34
  - death penalty, 34 n32
  - Optional Protocol (ICCPR)
    - denunciation because of HRC's failure to handle individual complaints sufficiently quickly, 488
- Japan
  - aliens
    - compensation for war damage, HRC view, 264–5
    - fingerprinting and ICCPR, 260–1
  - customary international law
    - ILO reports and conventions, 254
    - status, 246–7; part of domestic law, 265–6

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 249
- ICCPR
  - aliens, applicability to, 251
  - interpretation
    - aids
      - ECHR, 259–60, 260–1
- ICESCR
  - reservations, 252
- ICJ decisions
  - binding force in domestic courts, 256
- ILO reports and conventions
  - domestic courts and, 251–6
- international law
  - obligation to observe, 247
  - primacy, 246–7, 266–7
  - sources: acts of NGOs, 250; decisions
    - of international bodies, 247–8;
    - declarations and resolutions, 248–51
- international organisations
  - acts as source of international law, 250
- legislation
  - amendment: HRC decisions as basis
    - for, 261–4
- NGOs
  - acts as source of international law, 250
- strike, right to, 251–5
  - Dreyer Report, 252
  - public employees, 253–5
- treaties, status
  - constitutional provision, 246
- treaty interpretation
  - aids
    - comments, general comments and
      - views of treaty bodies in case of
        - non-ratification, 259–68
    - non-binding acts of international
      - organisations, 251
    - subsequent practice
      - Body of Principles for the - Protection of All Persons
          - under Any Form of Detention
            - or Imprisonment (1988),
              - whether, 250
      - ILO reports and conventions, 256
  - Universal Declaration of Human Rights
    - binding nature, 248–9
    - customary international law, 249
- ICESCR/ICCPR and, 249
- Peace Treaty (1951) and, 248
- Judicial independence
  - southern Africa, 276–7
- Judicial or quasi-judicial body
  - See also individual committees*
  - determining features
    - binding nature of jurisdiction, 2 n2
    - nature of process, 2 n2
    - nomenclature, 2 n2
  - regional systems, 2–3
  - rule of law and, 31
- Judicial review. See Constitutional review
- Justiciability
  - economic, social and cultural rights, 236–7
  - human rights, 270, 271
- Latvia
  - human rights
    - constitutional protection, 238
  - Human Rights Commission
    - mandate, 212, 214 n38
  - treaties, incorporation
    - constitutional provision, 238
- Legality principle. See Rule of law
- Legislation
  - amendment
    - HRC decisions as basis for, 241–2, 261–4
- Legislation, interpretation
  - See also Constitutional review*
  - aids
    - ECHR decisions, 277–9, 283–5
    - foreign law, 274
    - HRC decisions, 284
    - human rights treaties, 281, 283–5
    - international human rights norms, 280, 281
    - international law, 274, 277
    - non-binding international
      - instruments, 266–8, 279; Universal
        - Declaration of Human Rights, 283
    - treaties, 266–8, 280–1
  - guidelines
    - lex posterior derogat legi priori*
      - human rights treaties and, 234–5
  - presumptions
    - consistency with international law, 274, 277

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexLiberia

Human Rights Commission
government motivation, 205 n5

Lithuania

human rights
constitutional protection, 238
international law
domestic courts, role, 231–2
sources of 'soft' law, Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 238

Margin of appreciation limiting role, 233, 239 n38

state sensitivity, response to, 27 n14

Mexico

Human Rights Commission, role, 204 n4

Migrant Workers' Convention Committee

establishment, 3
membership
requirements, 413 n28

Minority rights

communications and individual petitions
(ICCPR Optional Protocol) and, 26

Montreal Protocol on Substances that*Deplete the Ozone Layer

financial and technical assistance, 373
Implementation Committee
membership, 364 n10, 372
implementation and compliance
non-compliance procedure,
371–2; Russian Federation, 372 political pressure, 373–4
reporting obligations
compliance, 361, 373
Technological and Economic Assessment
Panels (TEAPs), 364 n10

Municipal courts

concluding comments and views, application, 38, 303
decisions
HRC's use of, 40
ECHR decisions and, 45
interpretation of ICCPR, 42

Namibia

Bill of Rights
international conventions, influence, 270 justiciability, 270

corporal punishment, 279–80
customary international law
part of domestic law, 271, 276
economic, social and cultural rights
constitutional provision, 236
human rights treaties
participation in, 271
international law
impact on national law, 270, 279–80
part of the law of, 271
legislation, interpretation aids: international human rights norms, 280, 281; —, treaties, 280–1

National law and practice effect of UN system on, 11, 241–2, 261–4, 447, 508–9

Netherlands

treaties, incorporation
application of treaty norms, 237

New Zealand

Human Rights Commission
mandate, 212, 214 n38
judicial or quasi-judicial body determining features: binding nature of jurisdiction, 2 n2; —, nature of process, 2 n2; —, nomenclature,
2 n2

law of

Legal Service Act 1991, 2 n2

NGOs (non-governmental organisations)

See also Institutions (national); under individual committees

acts of

source of international law, whether,
250 coalition at national level, 120–1, 177 environmental treaties and, 366, 371,

374–6, 377–8

ESC and, 356

evidence from

admissibility, 59
procedure for handling, 176–82 transfer of burden of proof, 186–7

good practice

alternative reports, 119–22, 132–4, 176–9, 181–2, 190, 478 attendance at press conferences, 190–1
separate NGO briefing, 191

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- circulation of NGO reports as official UN documents, 190
  - participation in pre-sessional working group meetings, 190
- Hong Kong, 290–3
  - following transfer of Hong Kong to China, 314–15
- ICJ elections, 431–2
- ILA elections, 432
- involvement in UN system, 3, 9, 175–98
  - usefulness to NGOs, 193–5, 304
  - usefulness to UN, 177, 304, 478–9
- national policy making and, 138–9, 140–2
- participation in work of committees
  - dangers: imbalance, 309; —, loss of focus, 309–10
  - duplication of effort, 310, 478: rigidity of response, 310–11
  - effect on independence of experts, 106
  - governments' concerns, 309–11
- reporting obligations, usefulness, 181, 242–3
- role
  - development of, 289–90
  - encouragement to national NGOs to participate in UN proceedings, 181–2
  - general recommendations/comments, 105
  - identification of: abuses in the private sector, 193; —, violation of treaty obligations, 137–8
  - implementation of treaty obligations, 118–22: critical and informed approach to states parties' reporting, 119–20, 294–6, 298, 304; —, follow-up to committees' recommendations, 121–2, 163, 182, 302–3
  - involvement in preparation and dissemination of states parties' reports, 191 n29, 294, 306, 478
  - publicity, 182–4, 190–1, 514
  - shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - continuous involvement with treaty bodies, 197–8
  - coordination, 478–9
  - guidelines for contribution, 108, 479
  - inclusion in government delegations, 191 n29
  - involvement in: gender issues, 192–3; —, preparation and dissemination of states parties' reports, 191–2
  - timeliness, 194 n38
- South Africa
  - pre-1994 role, 281–3
- training of, 478–9
  - Bosnia and Herzegovina, 456
  - Hong Kong, 294
  - USA, 328–9
- validity of information, 509–12
- western bias, 434–5
- North Korea
  - withdrawal from ICCPR, 10
- Northern Ireland
  - CAT and, 182–4
- Norway
  - constitutional review and exhaustion of domestic remedies, 230–1
  - economic, social and cultural rights treaties, effectiveness as 'soft law', 237–8
  - European Court of Human Rights decisions
    - domestic courts and, 232–3
  - human rights
    - constitutional protection, 238–9
  - international law
    - domestic courts, role, 231–2
  - treaties
    - self-executing requirements, 235
- Ombudsman
  - human rights institutions distinguished, 203
  - 'soft' law, application by, 238
- Optional Protocol (ICCPR)
  - accession to, 16–17
  - communications. See Communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol)
  - denunciation
    - HRC's failure to handle individual complaints sufficiently quickly, 488

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- drafting, 17
  - avoidance of adjudication style language, 22
  - political compromise, 22, 24–5
- ICCPR, relationship with, 23
- purposes, 17–18
- remedies, 23, 29
- views. See UN Human Rights Committee
- withdrawal, 10
- Papua New Guinea
  - Human Rights Commission
    - mandate, 212, 214 n38
- Peru
  - amnesty laws, 176–9
  - fair trial, 177–8
  - NGOs, 176–9
- Philippines
  - Human Rights Commission
    - Human Rights Instruments
      - Monitoring Division, 211
    - limitations, 211 n27
    - role, 211
    - training programmes, 213
- Poland
  - Ombudsman, role, 204 n4
- Political question doctrine, 233–4
- Preventive measures
  - role of committees, 73–4
- Publication
  - general comments and concluding observations, 173
  - in Annual Report, 51
  - reports
    - in own country, 113, 114–15, 116
- Publicity and transparency
  - concluding observations, availability on Internet, 514
  - importance, 290–2, 302 n68, 306–7, 322, 378
  - language of documentation, 513
  - level of interest, 505–9
    - measure, 506, 507–9
    - media, 506–8
    - NGOs, 506
  - need for, 449–50, 451, 453
  - NGOs' contribution, 121–2, 181–2, 183–4, 184 (2), 514
  - press releases, 513–14
    - decline in quality, 514 n33
- Racial discrimination
  - change in conception, 58, 75–8
  - definition
    - ethnicity, 75–8
    - ILO Convention Concerning Discrimination in respect of Employment and Occupation, 76
  - direct/indirect discrimination
    - distinguished, 77–8
  - in
    - Bangladesh, 77
    - Burundi, 77
    - Hong Kong, 298 n46, 301–2
    - India and caste system, 77
    - Israel, 77
    - political motivation and, 77–8
- Regional group system
  - shortcomings, 415–17
- Regional systems
  - complaints procedures, 2–3
  - development of standards, method, 2
  - institutions
    - consolidation, 2–3
    - judicial/quasi-judicial character, 2–3
    - preference for, 34 n32
- Remedies
  - Optional Protocol (ICCPR), 23, 29
- Reporting obligations (UN system), 1–3
  - See also* American Convention on Human Rights (ACHR); Communications and individual petitions; Environmental treaties; Inter-American Commission of Human Rights (IACHR); and under individual committees and treaties
  - adversarial nature of proceedings, 57, 304
  - basis
    - treaty, 334
  - China, 300, 312–13
  - country rapporteur, role, 60, 90, 92–6, 123–4, 294–5, 467, 468
  - cycle
    - emergency situations, 440, 441–2
    - importance, 71, 125, 242–3
    - length, relevance, 349

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- treaty amendment required for change, 74
- delay between submission and consideration by committee, 3–5
- effectiveness and value, 50, 129–33, 334
  - in countries well-disposed to implementation of human rights obligations, 242
- emergency situations. See Emergency situations
- Hong Kong, 303–15
  - long-term nature, 306–8
  - NGO doubts, 308
  - periodic reporting, 164, 242–3
  - vehicle for examining compliance
    - NGOs' role, 181, 349
- guidelines, 114
- implementation of treaty obligations,
  - substitute for, 131, 365
- interlocuteurs, 440, 442–3
- involvement of federal, state and local authorities, 322
- national human rights institutions and, 208, 305
- NGOs and, 80, 181, 191–2, 242–3, 287–315
- novelty, 58
- objectives and functions, 131 n4, 334–5, 365–7
- overdue reports, 4, 5 Table 1.2, 60, 84, 148–9
  - measures to deal with, 4, 66–7, 110, 125, 148–9, 372–4
  - time needed to process, 6 n1
- publicity
  - Hong Kong, 290–2, 302 n68, 306–7
  - USA, 322
- reports
  - periodic/special distinguished, 333
  - states parties, 333
  - supervisory organs, 333–4
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - administrative support: enhanced role for Secretariat, 173, 467, 470–1; —, financial and technical assistance, 373, 524–5
  - Commission on Human Rights Resolution 1995/92, 71
  - compliance: country visits, 468, 509–12; —, follow-up, 161–3, 168–9, 172, 468, 512–15; —, penalties, 373; —, political pressure on delinquent states, 373–4; —, precise deadlines, 372–3
  - country profiles to be replaced by alternative reports or use of country data available to UN, 490
  - publicity, 378, 468
  - reporting cycles: consolidation of reporting obligations, 71, 84–5, 86–7, 196, 243, 388, 497–8; —, coordination, 243; —, frequency of reports, 349–50; —, tailored/thematic reports, 71, 87–8; —, variation depending on capacity to meet, 374
  - review process: ad hoc teams to relieve pressure on standing committees, 378; —, comprehensive approach, 378; —, flexibility, 377–8; —, non-confrontational approach, 354
  - working methods: advance notice of questions to reporting states, 70; —, analysis prepared by country rapporteur, 467–8; —, clearer guidelines for drafting reports, 93, 173; —, improvement in quality of debates, 172
  - special rapporteurs' role, 443–4
  - specialised agencies, 80, 118, 474–5
  - state responsibility, 442–3
  - states' capacity to meet, 73–4, 226–7, 373, 374, 376–7, 520
  - states' misunderstanding of implications, 68–9
  - US Senate funding prohibition, 323
  - variation between treaties, 73–4

Resources

- Climate Change Convention, 376
- countermeasures
  - Fellowships in Human Rights, 477
- information technology. See Information technology
- interns/junior professional officers (JPOs), 467–8, 469, 471, 476–7, 486–7

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- NGOs' contribution, 177, 434 n81, 478–9
- private funding, 476
- specialised agencies, cooperation with, 474–5
- states parties' apathy, 10–11, 479
- voluntary funding, 9, 474, 484; Plans of Action, 484–6
- funding arrangements, 472–4, 482–4
- dedicated budget, desirability, 474
- direct funding by states parties, 474; special projects, 474
- implications of recommended changes to system, 9, 100, 465, 466, 468, 469–72, 491–2
- increase in
  - for implementation of CRC, 473–4
  - World Conference on Human Rights (Vienna) (1993), 473
- institutions (national), 204–5, 205
- lack, 5, 107–8, 132–3, 194, 226–7, 461–79
  - cancellation of sessions, 7, 462, 482, 483–4
  - cooperation funds, 7
  - documentation restrictions, 7, 462, 482
  - emergency situations, 453–4
  - failure to respond to increased workload, 481–2
  - information available to committee membership, 181, 222
  - secretariat/personnel, 7, 132–3, 154, 356–7, 465, 470–1;
    - overspecialisation, 7, 494–5; —, short-term recruitment, 7
  - translation delays, 7, 71, 462, 490
- requirements, 462–5
- technical assistance recommendations, implications, 471
- Rule of law
  - administrative discretion
    - international norms and ('rule of instruction'), 239
  - apartheid as violation of, 282
  - application of treaty norms in absence of incorporation
    - human rights, primacy, 232
  - requirements
    - independent judicial system, 31
    - rights of individuals and public authorities distinguished, 239–40
- Russian Federation
  - NGOs, 181–2
- Self-determination
  - communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol) and, 25
- Shortcomings and recommendations for reform of UN system, 522–5
  - See also* Institutions (UN system), membership, constraints on effectiveness; Reporting obligations (UN system); and individual committees
  - ad hoc* structure, 19, 40
  - administrative support, 81–2, 83–4, 107–8, 125, 160–1, 173, 198, 463–4, 465, 470–1
  - See also* Resources
  - admissibility
    - enhanced Secretariat role, 493
    - linking of admissibility and merits, 33, 46, 489
    - stricter admissibility criteria, 46–7, 489, 492
  - complaints/petitions procedure, 359
  - compliance
    - See also* Reporting obligations (UN system); Treaty implementation and compliance
    - follow-up, 224, 240–2, 463–5, 512–15
    - international court or monitoring body, 240–2, 472
    - legally binding obligations, need for, 359–60
    - sanctions, 37, 371, 373; economic sanctions, 521
  - comprehensive approach, 352, 378, 394, 401
  - consistency
    - proceedings, 452
    - treaty reservations, 401
  - consolidation, 403–6, 436, 465
    - diversity, risk to, 404–6; See also diversity above
  - resource implications, 465, 466, 470

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- constraints
  - limited political support, 27–8, 37
  - resources. See Resources
  - states parties' reluctance, 10–11, 19–20
- continuous need for reform, 110–11
- coordination, 3, 75, 98–104, 192
  - consolidation distinguished, 243
  - diversity and, 435–6
  - HRC's role, 40
  - means: incorporation of CEDAW into
    - same structure, 83–4, 107–8, 467, 470; —, joint working groups, 197, 466; —, participation in one another's meetings, 466; —, partnership of committee bodies under consolidating umbrella, 406, 425–6; —, thematic working groups, 466–7
  - of concluding observations or comments, 394, 400
  - of general recommendations/ comments, 97–8, 396, 401
  - of information, 400–1
  - of regional and UN systems, 456, 497
  - of reservations to treaties, 398–9
  - of technical assistance agencies, 223–5
  - of treaty bodies and Secretariat, 471–2
  - UNHCHR, role, 405–6
- electoral process, 9, 422–37
  - EPG. See Eminent Persons Group (EPG)
  - judicial review committee, 432–3
  - location, 435
  - NGOs' role, 434–5
  - UNHCHR role, 433–4
- improved publicity, 449–50, 451, 453
- inclusion of experts in government delegations, 226
- information
  - better, 71, 181, 222
  - better management, 394
  - coordinated approach, 400–1
- information technology. See Information technology
- mandates
  - observance, 59, 62–3, 85, 97, 393–4, 401, 450
  - overlapping, 465
- marginalisation, 175–6, 198
- meetings
  - duration, 187, 352 n16
  - place, 198
- NGOs. See NGOs
- professionalisation, 195–8
  - appointment of members on full-time basis, 189
  - creation of permanent unified treaty body, 197–8
  - independence of governments, 197, 351
  - transfer of responsibilities to professional staff, 75, 131–2, 463–4
- proliferation of distinct institutions, 3
- Renewing the United Nations: A Programme for Reform*, 195–6
- reporting obligations. See Reporting obligations (UN system)
- resources. See Resources
- translation and interpretation
  - languages to be confined to UN official or working languages, 490
  - proceedings without interpretation or translation, 492
- working methods, 464–5
  - avoidance of duplication, 491
  - drafting groups, 491
  - increased opportunity for dialogue and consultation, 187–8, 189–90, 217
  - intersessional authority, 451, 492–3
  - intersessional work
    - limitations, 5, 70
  - majority voting, 488–9
  - performance norms, 75
  - prioritisation of work, 116;
    - concentration on states willing but lacking the resources to improve, 226–7
  - working groups/chambers, 352–3, 488, 491–2; resource implications, 491–2
  - written proceedings, 353
- workload, 33–6, 45–8, 84–93, 110, 149
  - emergency situations, effect, 453, 459–60
  - factors likely to lead to increase, 85–6
  - measures to control, 84–93, 110

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More information*IndexSouth Africa

amnesty legislation

legality, 285

Constitution

Draft Constitution (1996), 272–3

Interim Constitution (1993), 272–3

customary international law

status, part of domestic law, 275–6

death penalty, 283–4

economic, social and cultural rights

integration with civil and political

legislative provisions, 273

Human Rights Commission

mandate, 212, 214 n38, 274–5;

omission of reference to international human rights law, relevance, 275

human rights treaties

participation in, 276

ILO (International Labour Organisation)

reports and conventions and domestic courts, 281–2

international law, 273–6

domestic courts, role, and relevance of monist/dualist divide, 275–6

impact on national law, 269–76,

281–5

legislation, interpretation

aids: ECHR decisions, 283–5; —, foreign law, 274; —, human rights

treaties, 281, 283–5; —,

international law, 274; —, non-binding international instruments,

274 presumptions, consistency with international law, 274

NGOs

pre-1994 role, 281–3

rule of law

apartheid as violation of, 282

treaties

need for incorporation, 275–6

UN Charter

domestic courts and, 276, 281

Special reports

CAT, 164, 165–6, 169–70, 185–7

CEDAW, 187

HRC, 166, 187

value, 187

Specialised agencies

CEDAW and, 80, 103–4

CRC and, 118, 119, 475

overlapping responsibilities, 474–5

State responsibility

non-compliance procedures and, 372

reporting obligations and, 442–3

State succession

responsibility to prosecute violations of human rights law by predecessor,

285

Strike, right to, 251–5, 267–8

ICESCR, 252

ILO, 252

public employees, 253–5

Sweden

European Court of Human Rights

decisions

domestic courts and, 232–3

human rights

constitutional protection, 238–9

international law

domestic courts, role, 231–2

treaty implementation

‘transformation’, need for, 237

Technical assistance, 520–1

bodies offering

CERD, 458

Climate Change Convention, 373, 376

ESC, 357–8

ILO, 218, 220

Montreal Protocol Multilateral Fund
(MLF), 373

role of treaty bodies, 456

UN Office for Drug Control and Crime Prevention, 220

UNDP, 218

UNESCO, 220

UNHCHR Technical Cooperation

Programme, 218, 220

UNHCR, 220

UNICEF, 218, 218 n46, 220, 224

World Bank, 218

Bosnia and Herzegovina, 456

CAT, 220

categories

data collection and analysis, 219 educational curricula, 219

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- establishment of national monitoring, coordinating and investigatory institutions, 219
- legislative review and incorporation of treaties into national legislation, 219
- organisation of public awareness campaigns, 219
- preparation of reports, 219, 357, 373
- professional training programmes, 219, 456
- reform of judiciary and administration of justice systems, 219; law enforcement agencies, 221–2
- translation and dissemination of international instruments, 219
- human rights, relevance to, 218
- lessons from the environmental treaties, 373, 524–5
- resource implications, 471
- shortcomings and recommendations for reform
  - ESC practice, 357–8
  - follow-up, 224
  - human rights framework, need for, 224–5
- inadequacy of information, 221, 222; misunderstanding of causes of human rights problems, 221–2
- inadequate specificity or recommendations, 220–1
- inappropriate timing, 446
- lack of coordination between treaty bodies and technical assistance agencies, 223–5
- specificity, need for, 220–1
- treaty provision for, 218 n44
- Torture
  - See also* CAT (Torture Convention)
  - jurisdiction, 325–6
- Treaties
  - See also* Treaty implementation and compliance; Treaty interpretation
  - amendment
    - difficulties, 74
  - effectiveness
    - adequacy of documentation, 87
    - by conferring legal basis, 179
    - democratic accountability and, 183–4
  - environmental. See Environmental treaties
  - human rights treaties
    - compromise nature, 384–5
    - increasing participation, 481
    - US record, 317–29
  - implementation. See Treaty implementation and compliance
  - incorporation
    - See also* self-executing above
    - constitutional provision, 238–9
    - definition, 229–30
    - need for, 271, 275–6
    - relevance, 210–11; aid to interpretation of domestic law, 266–8; —, application of treaty norms, 230, 236–7; —, exhaustion of domestic remedies, bench mark, 230–1; —, increased awareness of international law, 230
    - status as ordinary law, consequences, 234–5: lex posterior derogat legi priori, 234–5
  - interpretation. See Concluding observations or comments, divergent interpretations
  - non-correspondence with states' interests and behaviour, 26
  - obligations
    - to give effect to protected rights, 213
    - to provide effective remedy for violations, 213
  - overlapping provisions, problems posed by, 383–401, 497
    - See also* Concluding observations or comments, divergent interpretations
    - differences of interpretation, 384
    - discrepancies between obligations, 384; binding and non-binding texts, 385; —, reflection of circumstances at time of drafting, 384–5
    - measures to avoid, 400–1; participation of existing bodies in drafting of new instruments, 386–8, 400
    - measures to redress, consolidation of reporting obligations, 388
    - related provisions, 388
    - reporting obligations, 384

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- reservations, effect, 384, 397–9;
  - See also* reservations below
- reporting requirement, effect on
  - establishment of treaty norms, 50
- reservations
  - See also* under individual treaties
  - differing practice: general/specific
    - conventions, 397; —, new/original parties, 397
  - HRC General Comment No. 24, 69, 318–19, 323, 398
  - inconsistency, 396–7; committees'
    - willingness and ability to explore rationale for reservation, 398; —, exchange of information, need for, 397–8; —, failure to make same reservation to related provisions in different conventions, 397–9; —, reservation to subsequent protocol, 399; —, responsibility for, 401
  - USA, 318–29
- role in standard setting, 48
- self-executing
  - economic, social and economic rights, 235–7
  - human rights conventions, exclusion, 268, 319–20
  - non-self-executing: distinguished, 235, 240; —, effect of provision, 320 n6; —, individual's right of action and, 320
  - requirements, 235
  - Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, 318
- status
  - constitutional provision, 246
- Treaty bodies. See Institutions (UN system) and individual committees
- Treaty implementation and compliance
  - See also* Environmental treaties; Treaties; Treaty interpretation; and individual committees and treaties
  - consistency, 232–3
  - inclusiveness versus integrity, 8, 10, 68–9, 72, 518–25
  - individual's right of action
    - non-self-executing treaty, 320
  - international obligations, 320
  - monitoring procedures
    - African Charter, 276
    - expert participation, importance, 364
    - international court or monitoring body, need for, 240–2
    - Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer, 364 n10
    - recommendation for establishment of national institution, 323
  - national human rights institutions' role, 202, 207 n11, 209 n16, 211–12, 216, 323
    - investigation and resolution of violations, 213–15
  - NGOs' role, 118–22, 163, 182–4, 190–1
  - reporting obligations. See Reporting obligations (UN system)
  - responsibility for, 240
    - national role, 201–27, 229–43, 285–6, 466
    - treaty bodies, 258–9
  - sanctions for non-compliance, 373
  - states parties' apathy, 10–11
  - 'transformation', need for, 237
  - UN and regional systems distinguished, 1–3
    - judicial/non-judicial role, 2–3
    - single/multiple supervisory body, 1–3
    - state reporting obligations/individual or state-to-state complaints
      - procedures, 1–3
  - US record, 317–29
    - See also* United States of America (USA)
- Treaty interpretation
  - See also* Concluding observations or comments, divergent interpretations; Treaties; Treaty implementation and compliance
- aids
  - comments, general comments and views of treaty bodies, 258–68; in case of non-acceptance of jurisdiction, 259
  - non-binding acts of international organisations, 251
  - subsequent practice: Body of Principles for the Protection of All

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- Persons under Any Form of Detention or Imprisonment (1988), whether, 250; —, ILO reports and conventions, 256
- consistency
  - measures to achieve, 98, 241
- guidelines
  - right to refer to more favourable or clearer provisions in other international instruments, 386
- Trinidad and Tobago
  - death penalty, 10 n17
  - withdrawal from ICCPR Optional Protocol (ICCPR), 10 n17
- UN Charter
  - domestic courts and, 276, 281
- UN General Assembly (UNGA)
  - resolutions
    - binding nature, 247
  - support for reform of monitoring process, 66, 69
- UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
  - establishment (1994), 3
- UN system
  - complaints procedures
    - ‘communications’ distinguished, 22
    - decline, 3
  - cooperation between willing parties as basis, 7–8
  - environmental bodies distinguished, 8
  - institutions. See Institutions (UN system)
  - national law and practice, effect on, 11, 241–2, 261–4, 447, 508–9
  - NGOs. See NGOs
  - reporting obligations. See Reporting obligations (UN system)
  - treaty regime
    - participation, 3, 4 Table 1.1
    - rapid development, 3
  - US distrust, 317–18
- UNDP
  - human rights approach
    - ‘Sustainable Human Development’, 219 n46
- UNHCHR (UN High Commissioner for Human Rights)
  - diversity, role in maintaining, 405–6
  - criteria, establishment, 424–6, 437
  - Eminent Persons Group (EPG), 423–4, 426
  - resources, 483
  - restructuring of Office, 472, 495, 496
  - Technical Cooperation Programme
    - shortcomings, 223–4; gender perspective, 223; —, integration of economic, social and cultural rights, 223–4
- UNICEF
  - technical assistance
    - human rights approach, 218 n46
- United Kingdom
  - legislation, interpretation
    - aids, non-binding international instruments, 266–7
- NGOs
  - alternative reports, 119–22
  - coalition at national level, 120–1
  - follow-up to CRC Committee’s work, 121–2
  - Northern Ireland, CAT and, 182–4
- United States of America (USA)
  - CAT (Torture Convention)
    - jurisdiction: acts committed by non-nationals abroad, 325; —, extension to acts committed within country, 326; —, implementing legislation, need for, 325
  - non-refoulement*, 325
  - reservations, 324–6
- CRC
  - Parental Rights and Responsibilities Act 1995 and, 327 n29
  - popular distrust, 318, 326–7
  - ‘cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment’
    - ICCPR reservation, 320–1; objections to, 321–2
  - death penalty
    - ICCPR reservation, 10, 320–2; objections to, 10, 321–2
  - National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty, 328

Cambridge University Press

0521645743 - The Future of UN Human Rights Treaty Monitoring

Edited by Philip Alston and James Crawford

Index

More informationIndex

- economic, social and cultural rights
  - definition and USA dissent, 327
- human rights
  - international norms, importance, 327–8; National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Legal Defense Fund, 328; —, National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty, 328
  - Lawyers' Committee for Human Rights, 321, 325, 326
- ICCPR
  - extraterritorial scope, 179–80
  - reservations, 318–19, 322–4;
    - compatibility with object and purpose of the Covenant, 322;
    - , 'cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment', 320–1; —, death penalty, 10, 320–2
- International Criminal Court
  - objections to, 317 n1, 323 n19
- NGOs, 328–9
- reporting obligations
  - funding prohibition, 323
  - undertaking to: involve federal, state and local authorities, 322; —, publicise, 322
- Supreme Court
  - discretionary jurisdiction, 47
- torture
  - jurisdiction, 325–6
- treaties
  - human rights, US record, 317–29:
    - pressure for effective implementation and monitoring, 328–9
  - ratification of Genocide Convention, 319
  - reservations: HRC General Comment No. 24, 318–19; —, ICCPR, 318–19
  - Reservations, Understandings and Declarations (RUDs), 319–22:
    - consistency with Constitution, need for, 320; —, implementation by states except where a federal matter, 320; —, no change to US law or practice where below international standards, 320
  - self-executing: human rights
    - conventions, exclusion, 268, 319–20; —, non-self-executing provision, 320; Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, 318
  - undertaking to review, 322
- treaty implementation and compliance
  - Executive Order 13 (Implementation of Human Rights Treaties), 318, 323–4; requirement to respect and implement human rights treaty obligations, 324
  - individual's right of action, 320
- Inter-Agency Working group on Human Rights treaties, 324:
  - mandate, 324 n21
- international obligations, 320
- recommendation for establishment of institution to monitor, 323
- Vienna Convention on Consular Relations; Breard, 318
- UN
  - distrust, 317–18
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights
  - binding nature, 248–9
    - See also* 'soft' law status below
  - customary international law, 238, 249
  - ICESCR/ICCPR and, 249
  - legislation, interpretation
    - aid to, 283
  - 'soft' law status, 238
- Urgent matters. See Emergency situations
- Uruguay
  - communications and individual petitions (ICCPR Optional Protocol), 32 n26, 34
- Voluntary funding, 9, 474, 484–6
- Women
  - See also* CEDAW (Convention for the Elimination of Discrimination against Women); Institutions (UN system), membership
  - inattention to gender issues, 192–3, 223
  - NGOs' role, 192–3
  - Special Rapporteur for Violence against Women, its Causes and Consequences, 101, 102–3

Index

- unified UN programme for their advancement, 83, 98
- monitoring of progress, 100, 105
- Words and phrases
  - ‘any administrative tribunal or judicial authority’, 2 n2
  - ‘birth’, 261–4
  - ‘descent’, 77
  - Drittwirkung*, 240
  - ‘hearing within reasonable time’, 6 n6
  - ‘incorporation’, 230–1
  - lex posterior derogat legi priori*, 234–5
  - ‘multilateral consultative process to resolve questions regarding implementation’, 371
  - ‘rule of instruction’, 239
  - ‘systematic practice’, 169 n85
  - ‘well-founded indications that torture is being systematically practised’, 145–6
- Yugoslavia, former
  - See also* Bosnia and Herzegovina;
  - Emergency situations
  - CHR
    - Expert on Internally Displaced Persons, 444
    - Special Rapporteur on the Human Rights Situation, 443–4
    - Special Rapporteur on Summary Executions, 444
  - special reports
    - CEDAW, 442
    - HRC, 187, 441, 446
- Zaire
  - CEDAW’s request for special report, 187
- Zimbabwe
  - corporal punishment, 277–8
  - customary international law
    - part of domestic law, 271, 276
  - death row, 278–9
  - Declaration of Rights
    - international conventions, influence, 270
    - justiciability, 270
  - human rights treaties
    - participation in, 270
  - international law
    - impact on national law, 270, 277–9
  - legislation, interpretation
    - aids: ECHR decisions, 277–9; —, non-binding international instruments, 279
  - treaties
    - incorporation, need for, 271