CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

Index

abreactions, permitting through debriefing 167, 168 abuse risk of traumatized people 308 accreditation of debriefers 323–4, 334 accumulative loss phenomena 264 acquired immune deficiency syndrome see AIDS active component identification 356 acute interventions, necessity 313–14 acute stress disorder
  diagnosis 308
  motor vehicle accidents 147
acute stress reaction, military personnel 169, 170 adolescents 83
  CISD 216
  cognitive distortions 220
  critical life-threatening events 213–14, 215–16
  effectiveness of debriefing 220–1
  group debriefing 216–17
  individual debriefing 217
  late-stage debriefing 11
  peer group 198
  preventive role of debriefing 220 process of debriefing 217–19
  psychological interventions 215–16
  PTSD 215
    risk factors 215
  school bus crash 217–18, 219 school shooting 221
  ship sinking 218
  shooting of parent 217
  significant event response 198 timing of debriefing 219 trauma reactions 214 adverse outcomes of debriefing 174 adverse stress outcomes 1 adversity, normal reactions 249 affective overload 311

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

after-action review process 228
age
  children 201, 202
  health care workers 258, 260
  patients of health care workers 259 aid agencies 338
AIDS
  helper volunteers 263
  see also human immunodeficiency virus (HIV)
alcohol abuse 331
  Australian Aboriginals 247
alcohol use
  body handling 116
  motor vehicle accidents 149
  palliative carers 258, 260
  police in body recovery 126
  for self-regulation 331 altruism 354
anger
  motor vehicle accidents 149
  survivors 345
anomie 282–3
antenatal classes 274–5
anticipation of body handling 109–10 anxiety
  childbirth 274
  motor vehicle accidents 147
  phobic 148
  separation 343–4
  travel 148
  see also state anxiety scores apatheia 47 application of debriefing techniques 2, 325 arousal 3
Assaulted Staff Action Program 284–8 assault rate 286 flexibility 287
  hospital costs 286–7 philosophy 284
  services 285–6
  structure 284–5
attachment behaviours 329 attachment formation 343
attachment–bonding system 343–4, 346 attenders at debriefings 32, 35–6, 39 compelled 312, 313
Australian Aboriginals
  alcohol abuse 247
  contemporary issues 246–7 incarceration 246, 247
  mental health 246–9
  PTSD 246–7
  responses to acute trauma 250–1 stolen generation 251 substance abuse 246, 247
  suicide 246, 247
  traumatization 242, 243–51
autakeia 47
avoidance coping strategy 178, 298 awareness of stress responses 179 battle fatigue 306

behavioural disorders, primary prevention 231 behavioural therapies 331 beliefs, driving debriefing movement 354–5 bereavement 7–8
  management 330–1
  massive road trauma 138
  traumatic 8, 64–5
body bags, opening 111
body handling 108–9
  accidental mutilation 111 anticipation 109–10 children's bodies 111
  disclosure 108–9
  effectiveness of debriefing 166–7
  glove wearing 111
  grotesque remains 111
  identification with deceased 111–12 looting 112
  military personnel 183
  morbidity minimization 112 opening body bags 111
  police officers 118–19, 183
  recovery 108
  retrieval from massive road trauma 132 sensory stimulation 111 stress measurement 110
  stressors 109–10
  war graves team study 112–16 see also war graves duties bond rupture responses 343–4 brain damage, head injury 149 briefing 2
  definition 59
  linkages to debriefing 357 buddy support 33, 43, 52
  war graves duties 116

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

buddy support (cont.)
burn victims 82, 351
burnout 255
group stress debriefing 54
health care workers 261, 263, 266
palliative care/serious illness care facilities 258

cancer care 255
patient mental illness 260 caregivers, expectations 261 catastrophic memory 11, 17 category fallacy 249
catharsis 331–2
Catholic Church 47–8 certification see accreditation
childbirth
anxiety 274
death 274
dissociation during delivery 276
education 274–5
helplessness 274
hormonal changes 273
obstetric interventions 273 pain 273, 274
physiological changes 273 postnatal depression 272, 275, 276–7 pre-existing psychopathology 273–4 psychological outcome 275–7 psychosocial stresses 273 routine 275
stressor 273
childbirth, traumatic 272–3
debriefing 276
exposure to death/serious injury 274 father's presence 274
psychosocial intervention 272
PTSD 272, 274, 275–6, 278
children 10, 195–7
abduction of indigenous 244 adults with responsibility 199–200 age in trauma response 214 age-appropriate strategies 201–2 appropriateness of debriefing 197
CISD 199
CISM 208
clinical group debriefing 206–8 communication methods 206 conceptual development 221 debriefing process 202–9 developmental context 201–2 developmental level 222 disasters 199
group debriefing 206–8
techniques 209
group intervention 196
group process 202
handling of bodies 111
hostage 204–5
hurricane disaster 236
immaturity 200
incident group cohesiveness 199 individual interventions 206
late-stage debriefing 11
leadership of debriefing process 208–9 longer-term psychological recovery 236–7 parents in management strategies 201 patients of health care workers 259
peer group 202
post-incident process 200 psychological first aid 203–5
psychological impact of incident 208 psychological triage 209
PTSD 198
responsibility within incident 199–200 sense of safety 200
significant event response 197–8
small-group psychotherapy 197 stressed 197–8, 206
support services 76
Task Force Report interventions 219 traumatic experiences 195 traumatic reactions 198 traumatized 3 civilian disasters
body recovery 118–19
volunteer body handlers 119 civilian studies, effectiveness of debriefing 165–6 classroom interventions 196
CISD 216
clinical debriefing 10 group for children 206–8 clinical supervision, health care workers 266, 267
Cochrane Collaboration review 334, 351 cognitive appraisal 58
cognitive distortions
adolescents 220
exposure to stressful events 231 psychological risks for development of symptoms 231

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

survival-mode specific 234 cognitive grip, motor vehicle accidents 150 cognitive processing
psychological debriefing component 163
traumatic events 62
cognitive reconstruction of events 26–8 cognitive reframing, permitting through debriefing 167, 168 cognitive therapies 331 colonization, traumatization of Australian Aboriginals 242, 247 combat
PTSD 161–2
self-esteem 52
stress 51–2, 161–2, 170
support 24
combat stress reaction (CSR) 161–2, 169, 170 commander role 43 communication
initiation 43
skills of health care workers 266–7 community
cultural history 232
groups and CISM 94
massive road trauma 133, 138–9
trauma 249
trauma membrane 329–30
comorbidity, health care workers 255
compensation
CISM 85, 99
motor vehicle accidents 149 components of debriefing 33 comrade support 52
concensus 321–5
conceptual development, children 221 conceptualization of debriefing 355–6 confidence, repair 55 conflict 9
conflicts of interest, underlying 196 contraindications to debriefing 168 coping 23–4, 81
mechanisms 3, 4, 34
overwhelming of skills 95
police in body recovery 126, 127
receiving information 105–6 coping strategies adaptive 54
personal 187
transcultural aspects 48
coping styles 9, 58, 317
adaptive 333
core debriefing issues 3–7 cortisol production in traumatic stress 310 cost-effectiveness studies, CISM 98–9 counselling, motor vehicle accidents 155–6 counsellors
child debriefing 197
outreach peer 235
creative debriefing 196 crisis 23–4
education 81
psychological 72
crisis intervention 5–6, 59
broader social context 105 core principles 84
debriefing relationship 352 development 94–5
diversity 72
emergency workers in massive road trauma 141–2 factors 61
goals 72, 95
immediate environment 104–5 individual 75
loss 7–8
management support 105
military psychiatry 330
model 1
motor vehicle accidents 151
multicomponent 73–4, 84–6
person 104
suicide prevention programmes 73 targeted processes 63
timing 103, 104
criteria defining successful debriefing 65–6 critical event matrix analysis 60 Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD) 2, 5–6, 54, 59, 71–2, 196
adolescents 216
benefits 60
children 199
in CISM 76
classroom setting 216
common problems 196
components 73, 74
conceptual basis 94–6
definition 92
effects 102–3
emergency services 91–2, 164
evaluation studies 98–102

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD) (cont.)
health care workers 255, 264–6
human resource response to traumatic organizational experience 307
motor vehicle accidents 150, 151
procedure 228
risks 103
Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) 2, 58, 59, 65–6, 71–2 breadth 179
CISD 76
community groups 94
compensation 99
components 74–7
conceptual basis 94–6
coping 81
cost-effectiveness studies 98–9, 102 crisis education 81
debriefing as part of 105 debriefing studies 81–4
definition 92
defusing 75–6
demobilization after disaster 75
development 308
early intervention 79–80
effectiveness 78–9
effects 102–3
emergency services 86, 91–2, 96–7
evaluation studies 98–102
evidence definitions 102
expectancy 81
expected outcomes 93–4 expression opportunity 80
factors in success and failure 79 financial benefit-to-cost ratio 86
follow-up services 76–7
historical foundations 72–4 history of development 93
individual crisis intervention 75 intervention timeline 77 interventions 74
key factors for success 78 mental preparedness training 74–5 models 101
multicomponent 73, 84–6
multidimensional 84–5 negative outcome studies 81–2, 100–1 on-scene support services 75
ongoing for children 208 peers 95–6
support programmes 101 positive outcome studies 98–102
preincident training 74–5
process variables 95–6 professional referrals 76–7 psychosocial support 80
putative mechanisms of action 78–81 reported value 98
research 81–6
residential programme 85–6
risks 103
sick leave 99
support services for families/children 76 training of debriefers 95–6 training programmes 98
critical incidents 309–10
stress trauma relationship 310–11 stresses 254
support progamme 85
critical life-threatening events, adolescents 215–16 cruelty, exposure to inexplicable 345 cultural attitudes, acceptance of trauma 96 cultural change, life experience management 229 cultural circumstances of environment 232–3 cultural frameworks, indigenous populations 241–3 cultural interpretations, psychological traumatization 337 cultural issues in psychological debriefing 232–3, 354–5, 357 cultural rituals 9–10, 43 cultural theory of Durkheim 282–3 culture-blindness 339 customer, angry 282

danger, group seeking 49
death
childbirth 274
confrontation 64–5 exposure to 22
health care worker attitudes 264 immersion 64
social attitudes 264 violent 109, 217
debriefers 309
accreditation 323–4, 334 positive feedback 180
training 95–6, 323–4, 334
see also facilitators; leaders decolonization processes 251

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

defence forces see military personnel
defusing 75–6, 103, 306
  peace-keeping soldiers 191
delayed use of debriefing 234
  disasters 227–8, 352
  hurricane disaster 235–6
demobilization 306
  after disaster 75
dependence, disguised 198 depression
  motor vehicle accidents 147
  postnatal 272, 275, 276–7 developmental crises 72 disaster relief workers 184–91
  exit debriefing 296 informal meetings 296
  long duration 291
  multiple stressor debriefing 290–1, 291–300 positive experience 309–10 pre-disaster briefings 296 see also emergency workers; rescue workers
disasters 8, 9, 66, 182
  behaviour 328
  children 199
  CISM perceptions 83, 84
  complexity 32–3
  delayed debriefing 227–8 demobilization after 75
  duration of event 314
  education 184
  emotional experiences 50–1
  follow-up 175–7
  mass and group debriefing 164
  psychiatric interventions 33 psychological impact assessment 309 reactions 184
  recovery in community 233
  rescue workers 64
  response 352
  stress 185
    reactions 50
  survivor families 64 talking about 37–8, 39
  training 184
  types 182–4 unprepared for 59
disclosure
  body handling 108–9
  group debriefing 311
  topics 312
disfigurement, motor vehicle accidents 149 disharmony resolution 232
dislocation 8
disorder of extreme stress not otherwise specific (DESNOS) 249 displaced people 338, 339 dissociation 23
  during delivery 276
dissociative reactions, peritraumatic 191 distancing 23
distraction, active 311–12
distress 3
  levels in military personnel 167
  motor vehicle accidents 149
  prolonged 17
documentation process 329 domestic violence 282
duration of debriefing 179 duration of psychological debriefing 168

early intervention 79–80
earthquake disaster workers 175–7, 187–9, 192, 352
  multiple stressor debriefing 293–5
eating disorders, prevention 179 eclectic model of debriefing 332
education 6
  childbirth 274–5
  crisis 81
  disaster reactions 184
  family debriefing 293
  health care workers 262
  school culture in longer-term psychological debriefing 237–8
  stress 95
effectiveness of debriefing 175
  evaluation of multiple stressor debriefing 297 efficacy of debriefing 18, 66, 229 evaluation outcomes 197 ego-defences 64
elements of debriefing 322–3 confrontational 323 essential 103–5
emergency departments 255
emergency services 10
  CISD 91–2, 164
  CISM 86, 91–2, 96–7
    history of development 92–3
  Mitchell model 93–4, 97

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

emergency settings, studies 353–4
emergency workers
  appropriateness of debriefing 323
  exposed to repeated events 333 group debriefings 135–7
  massive road trauma 132–3, 135–7
  positive perceptions of debriefing 82, 83 stress reactions 83
  trauma 110
  trauma reduction 307
  see also disaster relief workers; rescue workers emergency workplace stressors 7 emotion
  gender differences in expression 47 processing and exposure to stressful events 231 suppression 228
emotional attachment, police in body recovery 127 emotional distress, peritraumatic 183 emotional experiences in disasters 50–1 emotional information provision 177 emotional processing, cognitive theories 220–1 emotional reactivation in military personnel 166 emotional support for health care workers 261–2 emotional ventilation 33, 34, 52 feelings 66
  forced 312
  motor vehicle accidents 150
  psychological debriefing component 163 emotional well-being of health care workers 266 employees, violent 282 employer's obligations 333–4 entrapment 344–5 ethics 355
  child debriefing 209
  of debriefing 315
  trauma work 308
Ethics (Aristotle) 47
evaluation of debriefing 33–4, 357 efficacy outcomes 197 event reviewing by groups 27–8 evidence for debriefing 324–5 evil, exposure to inexplicable 345 evolution theories 244
existential–meaning system 345, 347
expanded use of psychological debriefing 230–4 expectancy 81
exploitation risk of traumatized people 308 exposure
  aids in trauma 152–3 cumulative 39
  scales 36, 38
expression, opportunity 80

face validity of debriefing 175
facilitators 309
  multiple stressor debriefing 298
  pressures 314
  see also debriefers; leaders
family
  childhood debriefing 199
  disaster behaviour 329
  massive road trauma 132
  multiple stressor debriefing 291–3, 299–300
  protective cocoon for child 200
  psychosocial debriefing 166
  support role 178
  support services 76
father, presence at traumatic childbirth 274 fear, historical understanding 47 females, emotion expression 47 ferry capsize disaster 189–91, 192–3 fetal monitoring, stress 274 financial benefit-to-cost ratio, CISM 86 fire brigades, training programmes 191–2 First Nations 241, 250
  see also indigenous populations first-line responders, emotion suppression 228 fiscal restraint, health care setting 263
follow-up services 76–7
forgiveness 348
formal debriefing 34, 40 forward psychiatry principles 54 Frederick Reaction Index 83
friends
  motor vehicle accidents 151–2
  support role 178
front-line treatment
  effectiveness 169–70
  PTSD 169

genocide 66
gestalt formation 104
glove wearing 111
grief
  leadership 47
  normalizing 330–1
grief counselling 330–1
  loss 7–8

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

group cultural rituals 43
group debriefing 4, 164, 313
  adolescents 216–17
  children 199, 206–8
  composition for adolescents 219–20
  development 307
  disclosure 311
  elements 323
  emergency workers 135–7
  fact phase 216
  information phase 217
  introduction 216
  multiple stressor debriefing 291–2, 293–5, 299
  self-reflection 311–12
  thoughts about trauma 216–17 vulnerability induction 312
group intervention
  children 196, 199, 202
  massive road trauma survivors 139–40 group psychological interventions 43–4 group psychology training 50 group psychotherapy 329–30
  military personnel 330
group stress debriefing 12, 43, 44, 52–3
  mental health professionals 54–5 military use 53–4 natural groups 45
  professional team 44–5 random groups 45–6 rationale of group settings 49 reserve team 45
  timing 54, 54–5
  traditional 48
  transcultural aspects 48
  victims groups 46–7
groups
  formal sessions 164
  incident for children 199 narrative sharing 4–5
  natural 45
  police cohesiveness in body recovery 126 random 45–6 rationale for settings 49 stress resistance 49–50 treatment of children 196, 199, 202 victim 46–7
gruesomeness factor, police in body recovery 127 guilt-provoking causal attributions 220 Gulf War Graves Registration Team study 112–16 harm possibility with debriefing 168–9 head injury
  brain damage 149
  motor vehicle accidents 148–9
healing of injustice 348 healing work, traumatization 250
health care workers
  administrative issues 263
  age 258, 260
  Assaulted Staff Action Program 284–8
  assaults by patients 281–4
  burnout 261, 263, 266
  cancer patients 260
  child patients 259
  CISD 255
    models 264–6
  clinical supervision 266, 267 communication skills 266–7 comorbidity 255
  distress aggravation by interventions 265–6
  education 262
  emotional support 261–2 emotional well-being 266 expectations 261
  HIV patient care 258, 259, 260 interpersonal relationships 261 job satisfaction 263
  marital relationships 261
  mental illness 262
  motivation 260
  mutual support 265
  patient characteristics 260 patient suicide 260
  personality 260–1
  psychiatric patients 283–4 psychological morbidity 262
  PTSD 255
  self-esteem 263
  shiftwork 261
  social attitudes to death/dying 264
  stress
    external factors 263
    factors 259–60
    protective factors 262–3 sociocultural issues 264 type of illness 259
  stressors 254
  suicide 262
  support groups 265

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

health care workers (cont.)
  team membership 263
  training 262
  trauma 255, 257
  volunteers 263
  workplace stress 255
help, imperative 327–8
helpfulness perceptions of debriefing 4, 354 helping, altruistic 354 helplessness, childbirth 274 heroic appraisal 23
historical descriptions 47 historical group debriefing 1, 27–8, 163–4 holistic framework 13
Holocaust survivors 22, 23 hormonal changes, childbirth 273 hostages, children 204–5 human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) psychiatric illness 260
  stress 258, 259
  treatment units 255 human rights violations 344, 345
humour
  'black' 109, 123, 126, 127
  police in body recovery 119, 123, 126, 127
hurricane disaster 232–3, 234
  delayed use of debriefing 235–6
  PTSD 236
  school culture in longer-term psychological debriefing 237–8 hypothalamus–pituitary–adrenal gland (HPA) reaction 310

identity/role system 345, 347
illness-susceptibility factors 316 imagery, traumatic 221 imaginal re-exposure 235 immediacy concept 328–9 incarceration, Australian Aboriginals 246, 247 incident group cohesiveness, children 199 indigenous populations 241–3
  management 243
  traumatization 243–51, 357
individual debriefing
  adolescents 217
  childhood 199
  multiple stressor debriefing 291–2, 299
individualized interventions, studies 351–2 injustice, healing 348
institutional settings 10 instrumental debriefing 162–3 integrated intervention 12–13 integration, military personnel 166 internal–external controllability 222 interpersonal bonds 343 interventions
  factors 61
  spectrum 61–2
  timing 54–5, 79–80
  vulnerability stage 179 introversion 178
intrusion phenomena 11
intrusive nature of debriefing 311 intrusive thoughts, negative 220, 221 job satisfaction, health care workers 263 justice system 344–5, 346–7

knowledge dissemination about debriefing 357

late-stage debriefing 11
leaders
  childhood debriefing 203–4
  multiple stressor debriefing 295–6
  rescue workers 186
  see also debriefers; facilitators
leadership
  debriefing process for children 208–9 grief 47
  preventive interventions 328 stress management 53–4
  training 50
  war graves duties 116
learning 6
  process of debriefing 355
legal issues beliefs in debriefing 355
  child debriefing 209
  liability 307, 333
life threat exposure 342 life-threatening events, response 234 liminality 345
loneliness 23–4 looting, body handling 112
loss 256
  massive 343
  stressors 7–8

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

uncertain fate 343

males, emotion expression 47 management process of debriefing 178 management support, crisis interventions 105 mandatory debriefing 312–13 marginality 345
marketing strategies 307, 308 Marshall's historical group debriefing 163–4, 329 mass deaths 52
mass trauma 9, 337–8
see also violence, intentional mass massacre, anniversary debriefing 196–7 medical care personnel, attenders at debriefings 35–6 medical expertise 51 medical settings, trauma 255 medicalization of life 306 medico-legal pressures 178–9 megalopsykhia 47
memory
cellular 80
revival of hurricane disaster 235 men, coping styles 4
mental health
Australian Aboriginals 246–9
problem predictors 50, 51
mental health professionals
group stress debriefing 54–5
status 314
mental illness
cancer patients 260
health care workers 262
mental processing 21 military debriefing 307–8 effectiveness studies 166–7
military personnel 161
appropriateness of debriefing 323
body handling/recovery 108, 183 combatants 18, 20 distress levels 167
evacuation procedures 51–2
group psychotherapy 330
interventions with spouses 166 narrative use 329
naval helicopter rescue crews 189–91, 192–3 peace-keeping 191, 193 post-combat intervention 170–1
PTSD 329
military psychiatry 330
military psychology 306 military service settings 353–4 miscarriage, debriefing 277–8, 351
Mitchell model 82–3, 84
CISM programmes 98, 101
emergency services 93–4, 97
modifications for nonemergency service workers 94 specificity 93
modalities of debriefing 313 model of psychological debriefing 60 models of debriefing 1–3, 65–6 moral reasoning 18
morale management, preventive interventions 328 morbidity
health care workers 262
risk identification 168–9
war graves team study 114, 115
motivation, human 327
motor vehicle accidents 145–6, 351, 352
acute responses 147
acute stress disorder 147
adverse effects of debriefing 158
alcohol use 149
analogue studies 152–7
anger 149
anxiety 147
CISD 150, 151
cognitive grip 150
compensation 149
counselling 155–6
crisis intervention 151, 153–4
debriefing 150–1
depression 147
disfigurement 149
distress 149
emotional ventilation 150
friends 151–2
head injury 148–9
impact extent 151
incidence 145
intervention delayed 155
delivery 152
early 153–7
framework 151–2 outreach 154–5
late group debriefing 155

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

motor vehicle accidents (cont.)
  pre-accident psychiatric problems 146 psychiatric consequences 146–7 psychological debriefing 156–7 psychological victims 151
  PTSD 145, 146, 147–8, 149
  relatives 151
  rescuers 183–4
  social consequences 149
  survivors 145
  trauma level 151
  travel anxiety 148, 149 victims 151–2
  witnesses 151
  see also road trauma, massive mourning
  rituals 344
  traumatic bereavement 64–5
multiple stressor debriefing 290–1
  coordination with management 297 coping strategies phase 294 disaster relief workers 291–300 disclosure of events phase 294 effectiveness evaluation 297
  facilitators 298
  family 291–3, 299–300
  feelings and reactions phase 294 fine tuning guidelines 295–6
  goals 291
  group 291–2, 293–5, 299
  individual 291–2, 299
  leaders 295–6
  mandatory/optional 298
  misuse 299
  multi-session 298–9 participant feedback 298 post intervention 297
  research 297–8
  single-session 298–9
  termination phase 295 training for debriefers 298 mutilation, accidental 111 mutual support, health care workers 265 mutuality 40

narrative 3–5
  exploring 17
  group 27
    sharing 4–5
  tradition 329
  see also talking natural debriefing 32, 34, 36–8, 39, 40 natural talking 32
naturalistic study design 176–7
naval helicopter rescue crews 189–91, 192–3 negative automatic thinking 220 neurological excitation, threshold in trauma 80 normalization, cognitive/emotional distortions 231 normalizing framework 13
numbing 23
nurses
  CISM perceptions 84
  critical incidents 86

objective domain 200
obstetric interventions, childbirth 273 obstetric trauma, debriefing 276 occupational health, psychological debriefing development 228–9
on-scene support services 75
oncology care 257–8
  pain relief 260
  stress 259
  treatment effects 260 operational debriefing 1 origins of debriefing, theoretical 328 origins of psychological debriefing 228–30 outcomes
  assessment process 332–3 Cochrane Collaboration review 334
  data for debriefing 327 expected of debriefing 324 long-term 324
  mass violence 340
  research 332–5, 352
  short-term 324
outreach peer counsellors 235

paediatric services 255
pain
  childbirth 273, 274
  relief in oncology care 260
  transcultural aspects 48
palliative care alcohol use by carers 260 facilities 257–8 parents
  child debriefing 197

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

child hostages 204–5
child management strategies 201 hospitalization of child hostages 205 permission for child debriefing 209 protective cocoon for child 200 reconciliation of issues 201 role 195 shooting witnessed by adolescent 217 surrogate 200
participants, endorsement of debriefing 180 pathogenesis, paradigm shifting 315–16 pathogenic framework 308–9 pathological norms 306 patient characteristics, health care workers 260 peace processes 339
peace-keeping soldiers 193
defusing 191
peer group
adolescents 198
child support 200
children 202
peer support 34
outreach counsellors 235
peace-keeping soldiers 191
programmes 101
peers
assistance in healing 163 CISM programmes 95–6
support role 178
training programmes 98
perceived validity of debriefing 175 persecution fleeing 340
protective factors 340–1
survivors 344
personality
facets 9
health care workers 260–1
personnel groups 44–7
phobic anxiety 148
physical illness 9
physiological arousal, reduction 21 physiological changes, childbirth 273 pictures of event, partial/incomplete 26 play, repetitive 3
police
debriefing 307–8
appropriateness 323 psychology 306
settings 353–4
police in body recovery 118–19, 183
coping 126, 127
defusings/debriefings 120 emotional attachment 127 follow-up of officers 120–1, 124–5 group cohesiveness 126
gruesomeness factor 127
humour 119, 123, 126
psychiatric involvement 119–20 psychiatric presence 128 reponse to work 121, 122, 123
self-esteem 127
sick leave 124
skill acquisition 126, 127 value of work 126
popularization of debriefing 307–8 positive regard 80
post-combat intervention 170–1
post-concussional disorder 149 post-conflict situations, PTSD 339–41 post-event stress management support 229 post-incident process, children 200 post-trauma period
morbidity 12
stresses 340
understanding 315
post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) 20–1
adolescents 215
Australian Aboriginals 246–7 avoidance of seeking help 114
childbirth 272
children 198
chronic 170
combat 161–2
criticism of concept 338–9 development 169
exposure scores 38
group stress debriefing 54
health care workers 255
hurricane disaster 236
mass violence risk 341
metabolizing incident 21
military personnel 329
motor vehicle accidents 145, 146, 147–8, 149 natural recovery curve 340 new criteria 308 outcome 38
post-conflict situations 339–41

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) (cont.)
prevention 322
prior risk factors 20 survival-mode theory 234 symptoms 3
talking 38
traumatic childbirth 274, 275–6, 278 traumatic exposure 64
post-traumatic stress reactions, rescue workers 183, 185 post-traumatic stress syndromes, interactional paradigm 62
pre-accident psychiatric problems 146 predictors of mental health problems 50, 51
preincident training 74–5
prevention/preventive interventions 328
debriefing 162–3
aspects 12, 351
eating disorders 179
leadership 328
morale management 328
secondary 76
stress reactions 162
stressful events 95
professional status
rescue workers 188, 189
war graves duties 116
professional teams 44–5, 49–52 Protestantism 48
proximity to event, psychological debriefing 230 pseudo-maturity 198 psychiatric patients, assaults on staff 283 psychiatric staff presence, police in body recovery 128 psychic distress reduction 21 psycho-education 6, 331
psychological first aid 10
children 203–5
psychological triage, children 209 psychological vulnerability 9 psychologists, child debriefing 197 psychology, body of knowledge 96–7 psychopharmacology 331
psychosocial debriefing 2
psychosocial interventions 352
childbirth 272
psychosocial stresses, childbirth 273
psychosocial support 80
psychotherapy 11–12
small-group for children 197 purpose of debriefing 179–80 quality assurance, health care setting 263 rage 344, 345

randomized controlled studies 324–5 reasonable care standards 313 reconciliation 348 recovery course, traumatic events 175 recovery environment 32–3 recovery phases, psychological tasks 233–4 recovery work, traumatization 250 refugees 8, 9, 338, 340 relatives, motor vehicle accidents 151 religious beliefs 47–8, 340–1, 345 rescue operations 183 failure 50, 52
rescue workers
design of debriefing 185–7
disasters 182–3, 184–91
earthquake 175–7, 187–9, 192 effectiveness of debriefing 165
follow-up 185
leaders 186
motor vehicle accidents 183–4
nonprofessional 185, 188, 189 post-traumatic stress reactions 183, 185 professionals 188, 189
stressors 186
see also disaster relief workers; emergency workers research into debriefing 356 evaluation 357
implementation 356–7
reserve teams 45, 49–52
resistance factors 316
response to traumatic incidents, routine 322 responsibility, rescue professionals 52 risk levels 66
rituals 48
group cultural 43
mourning 344
use in war graves duties 116 road trauma, massive 131–2 bereaved 138
body retrieval 132
community members 138–9 coordinated psychological intervention 138 effects 132–4
emergency workers 132–3, 135–7

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

psychological debriefing 141–2
family members 132
follow-up 137–9
local community 133
psychological interventions 134–9 psychological sequelae 133–4 support provision 131–2
survivors 132, 133, 134–5, 137–8
group intervention 139
injuries 137
psychological debriefing 139–41
systematic review 138 types of support 137
victim ambivalence 134
see also motor vehicle accidents role use, war graves duties 116 ruminative thought 311

safety child's sense of 200 group environment 49
mass violence 342–3, 346
salutatory consequences of sorrow 317 salutogenesis, paradigm shifting 315–16 school bus crash, adolescents 217–18, 219
school culture in longer-term psychological debriefing 237–8 school teacher, child support 197, 200 science of debriefing 351–4 screening for subsequent problem development 178 secondary prevention 76 security see safety sedatives 331
self-disclosure 177–8
emotional 177–8
self-efficacy 17, 24
experience 314
self-esteem 44, 55
combat 52
health care workers 263
police in body recovery 127
self-reflection 311–12
self-reported helpfulness, validity 175 sense of coherence 316 sensory stimulation, body handling 111 separation 8
anxiety 343–4
service personnel see military personnel service provision of debriefing 178–9 shiftwork, health care workers 261 ship sinking, adolescents 218 shooting, school 221
sick leave
CISM 85, 99
police in body recovery 124
siege at kindergarten 204–5 escapees 204
situational crises 72
skill acquisition, police in body recovery 126, 127 sleep, healing qualities 331 social class 10
social cohesion 317 social consequences, motor vehicle accidents 149 social context, broad 105 social disorganization 283 social environment 104–5
social structures 10 social support 32, 33, 34, 40 crisis response 80
psychological debriefing component 163
psychological outcome in adversity 256 traumatic stress exposure moderation 232 see also support
soldiers see military personnel standardization of debriefing procedures 176 state anxiety scores, debriefing 24, 25 status, mental health professionals 314 stoics 47
story, premature closure 24, 26
stress 2
adaptive response 256 adaptive systems 342–5
age-specific in children 198
children 197–8, 206
combat 51–2, 161–2, 170
critical incident 254
debriefing outcome 165 disaster 185 domains 342–5
education 95
fetal monitoring 274
group debriefing 12
group resistance 49–50
health care workers 254
HIV care 258
inoculation
antenatal classes 274–5
training 108
maladaptive response 256

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

stress (cont.)
measurement in body handling 110 medicalization 6
mitigation 307–8
models 255–6
omnipresence 316
palliative care facilities 258
post-trauma period 340
reactions
disasters 50
naval helicopter rescue crews 190–1 reduction programmes 307 trauma and critical incident relationship 310–11 workplace 257
see also traumatic stress
stress management 6–7, 17
CISM 85
coping 23–4
early interventions 18
group stress debriefing 44
leadership 53–4
premature closure of story 24, 26
training 306
traumatic events 22–3
stress response syndromes 7, 59
stressful events
cognitive distortions 231
disequilibrium 5–6 emotion processing 231
preventive programmes 95 stressor–stress response relationship 55
stressors
body handling 109–10
childbirth 273
chronic 8
dislocation 8
generic dimensions 64
health care workers, chronicity 254
loss 7–8
rescue workers 186
separation 8
traumatic 22, 59
traumatic event impact 64 subjective domain 200
substance abuse 282, 331
Australian Aboriginals 246, 247
palliative care facilities 258
suffering human response 17 reduction 18
transcultural aspects 48
suicide
Australian Aboriginals 246, 247
health care workers 262
patients of health care workers 260
Superman reaction 184
support comrade 52
process 34, 40
services for families/children 76
see also social support support groups, health care workers 265 survival mode 9 theory of PTSD 234
survivors
anger 345
identity 345
massive road trauma 132, 133, 134–5, 137–8, 139–41
motor vehicle accidents 145 partial/incomplete pictures of event 26 systematic time-extended approach to psychological debriefing 232

talking 3–5, 32, 39, 104, 352
about disaster 37–8
natural 32
scores 37, 38, 39
see also narrative Task Force Report interventions, children 219 teachers
child debriefing 197
child support 200
team membership 263
terminology 306
theories of debriefing 355–6 therapeutic alliance absence 314 therapeutic flexibility 23 time-bound applications of debriefing 230 time-extended approach to psychological debriefing 232
timing
crisis interventions 103, 104
debriefing
adolescents 219
for children 206
interventions 10–11
psychological debriefing 229, 229–30
torture 9, 339, 345

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

training
debriefers 323–4, 334
for CISM 95–6
disaster reactions 184
health care workers 262
minimization of long-term trauma 334
training programmes
CISM 98
fire brigades 191–2
peers 98
trauma
abuse risk 308
acute in aboriginal settings 250–1 application of knowledge 96
bereavement 8
briefing linking with debriefings 61 chronic exposure 256–7
community 249
complex/complexity 151
conceptualization 338–9 counselling 2
cultural attitudes to acceptance 96 cultural sensitivity of experts 233 delayed response 100 emergency service workers 110
ethics of work 308
experience
children 196
formal response 317 positive value 316–17
prior 168
exploitation risk 308 exposure
aids 152–3
PTSD 64
generic dimensions 64
health care workers 255, 257
indigenous populations 242
individual personal 315 medical settings 255
membrane 80, 329–30
military 66 positive growth from experience 311
prevention 228
psychiatric interventions 33
psychic 46
psychobiology 313–14
reactions
adolescents 214
children 198
person–environment model 62–3 receiving information 105–6
recovery 95
simple 151
survivors 344
moral/social attitudes 328–9 terminology 92, 93
threshold for neurological excitation 80 verbal expression 80
traumatic events
classification of types 63 cognitive processes 62
complexity 22–3, 63
diversity 66
duration 314
individual responses 22–3 recovery course 175
self-directed efforts to resolve 314 stressor impacts 64
traumatic imagery 221
traumatic incidents appropriateness of debriefing 323
impact 308
traumatic responses, risk 22 traumatic stimuli, sensitization 39 traumatic stress acute events 11
consensus seeking in debriefing 321–5 cortisol production 310
exposure 61
moderation and social support 232 models in health care settings 256–7 programme funding 339 syndrome comorbidity with psychiatric syndromes 255 theoretical framework 62–3 traumatic stressor classes 63
traumatization 3–4
chronic 8
collective 249
effectiveness of debriefing on individuals 312–13 healing work 250
indigenous populations 243–51
psychological 337
recovery work 250
secondary 196–7
traumatization of Australian Aboriginals 242 abduction of children 244 alienation 244, 245, 246

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-64700-7 - Psychological Debriefing: Theory, Practice and Evidence
Edited by Beverley Raphael and John P. Wilson
Index
More information

traumatization of Australian Aboriginals (cont.)
appropriateness of Western debriefing models 251 collective 243–5
colonization 247
cumulative 243–5
dispossession 243–4, 245 exploitation of survivors 243–4 health status 245, 246 legislation 244, 245
mental health responses 247–9 protection policies 244 self-determination 245–6
social change 245
theoretical framework 249–50
travel anxiety, motor vehicle accidents 148, 149 treaties, formal between colonizing and indigenous populations 243 uptake of debriefing 352

value of debriefing 18–19
ventilation see emotional ventilation verbal expression, trauma 80 verbalization 104
veterans' clubs/groups 43, 46 victim status 4
victims
ambivalence in massive road trauma 134
groups 46–7
negative consequence validation 311 violence 9 intentional mass 337–8, 357 acute interventions 346–8 adaptational framework 341
attachment–bonding system 343–4
existential–meaning system 345
identity/role system 345
justice system 344–5
model for survivors 345–8
outcomes 340
protective factors 340–1
PTSD risk 341
safety system 342–3
workplace 281–4
violent death 109, 217
volunteers, health care workers 263 vulnerability induction, group debriefing 312 vulnerability stage, intervention 179

war graves duties
professional status 116
psychological morbidity 114
soldier training 115–16
team study 112–16
see also body handling welfare workers, child debriefing 197 witnesses, motor vehicle accidents 151 work environment 104–5 work groups 313
workplace stress 257
health care workers 255
workplace violence 281–4 causes 282–3 psychiatric assaults 283–4 psychological aftermath 283

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org