Teaching adult second language learners
CAMBRIDGE HANDBOOKS FOR LANGUAGE TEACHERS

This is a series of practical guides for teachers of English and other languages. Illustrative examples are usually drawn from the field of English as a foreign or second language, but the ideas and techniques described can equally well be used in the teaching of any language.

In this series:

Drama Techniques in Language Learning – A resource book of communication activities for language teachers by Alan Maley and Alan Duff
Games for Language Learning by Andrew Wright, David Betteridge and Michael Buckby
Discussions That Work – Task-centred fluency practice by Penny Ur
Once Upon a Time – Using stories in the language classroom by John Morgan and Mario Rinvolucri
Teaching Listening Comprehension by Penny Ur
Keep Talking – Communicative fluency activities for language teaching by Friederike Klippel
Working with Words – A guide to teaching and learning vocabulary by Ruth Gairns and Stuart Redman
Learner English – A teacher’s guide to interference and other problems edited by Michael Swan and Bernard Smith
Testing Spoken Language – A handbook of oral testing techniques by Nic Underhill
Literature in the Language Classroom – A resource book of ideas and activities by Joanne Collie and Stephen Slater

With thanks to our colleagues and students who have taught us so much.

With thanks also to Penny Ur for her determination to make this book the best that it could be. Any remaining shortcomings are of course our own.
