Index

Aaron, Henry, 31, 36–7, 55, 93–5, 98
Advisory Council on Social Security (ACSS): individual supplementary accounts (IA) advocates, 11–12, 15; maintenance of benefits (MB) advocates, 11, 13–14, 47, 53–5, 95–7, 101–3; opposition of some members to individual accounts, 117–22; personal security accounts (PSA) advocates, 11, 14, 92–3, 96–7, 112–15; proposed supplemental individual accounts (IAs), 125–30; recommendations for existing PAYGO Social Security, 53–5; reform plans submitted by (1997), 6, 10–11; Social Security Act requirements related to, 111 annuities: from proposed IA accounts on retirement, 129; voluntary, 95–6
Auerbach, Alan, 58, 85, 111, 156
Bakija, Jon M., 16, 153–4
Ball, Robert M., 16, 117, 154–5 benefits: financing under proposed funded system, 10, 22–3; means testing of existing system, 7; under PAYGO Social Security, 7; of proposed funded plan financed by payroll tax and portfolio investment, 3–10; requirements for, 3; see also maintenance of benefits (MB) benefits, Social Security: protected from inflation, 120
Bethell, Thomas N., 117
Bipartisan Commission on Entitlement and Tax Reform (1995), 15–16, 149 bonds: investment of Social Security trust fund in, 163; PAYGO investment in special, 127; yield on corporate and government, 37–43
Bokin, Michael, 16
Bosworth, Barry, 31, 35–6, 46–7
Breaux, John, 140
Burtless, Gary, 31, 156–7
capital fund: accumulation of social Security, 31; accumulation under proposed funded system, 21; Feldstein’s proposed (1975), 27–9; proposed funded system, 12, 21
Cavanaugh, Francis, 48–51, 93, 142–4, 170
Cohen, Wilbur J., 154
Congressional Budget Office report (1998), 96
cost, administrative: for central trust fund, 106–7; in privatized system, 107; of proposed IA supplements, 106, 129
Index

current Social Security system: see Social Security, existing PAYGO

Danforth, John, 149
Diamond, Peter, 23–4, 52–3, 57, 96, 97, 105–7, 115–17, 126–7, 131, 133–4
Dicks-Mireaux, Louis, 41

earned income tax credit, 31, 33, 163

Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, 48, 50–1, 53
Feldstein, Martin, 26–31, 34–5, 41–2, 60–1, 88–91, 109–10, 111, 119, 145, 155–6, 168
Ferrara, Peter, 85
financing: differences in PAYGO and funded Social Security, 4–10, 21–3; of existing system, 44; under proposed funded system, 3–10, 22–3; see also investment; payroll tax; portfolio
Friedland, Jonathan, 105
Friedman, Milton, 108–9
Friedman, Rose D., 108–9 fund accumulation: function of, 5; portfolio diversification without, 5; requirements of, 3–5; with and without portfolio diversification, 5 funded Social Security: see Social Security, proposed funded Geanakoplos, John, 58
Gramlich, Edward, 125, 130

IAS: see Advisory Council on Social Security (ACSS); individual accounts (1As), supplemental individual accounts (1As), supplemental: ACSS advocates of, 11–12, 15; advocates of, 135–6; criticism of proposed, 131, 174–5; defined, 174; differences from privatization and PSA plan, 128–9; differences from proposed MB plan and funded Social Security, 130, 175; Feldstein’s favoring of, 89–91; Kerrey–Simpson proposal, 125–6; proposed publicly held, 125–30; recent proposals for, 138–44; views on management of, 112–17
investment: of current Social Security portfolio, 127, 162–3; Federal Reserve and TVA pension funds, 55; firms managing Social Security trust fund portfolio, 3–4; by individuals in personal security accounts, 112–17; maintenance of benefits proposals, 53–5; personal security accounts, 112–17; pooled risk in proposed funded system, 3, 10, 66, 162; proposals related to Social Security trust fund, 48–55; proposed funded system, 3–10; in proposed personal security system (PSS), 98; of state and local pension plans, 49; stock index funds, 49–51; Thrift Savings Plan, 50–1

James, Estelle, 103
Judd, Senator, 140
Kerrey, Bob, 125–6, 138, 140, 149
Kerrey–Simpson individual accounts plan, 125–6, 140
Kingman, Eric R., 157–8
Kotlikoff, Laurence, 58, 59, 80, 97–9, 115

Lewis, Kenneth A., 63, 111 life-cycle growth model: comparison of no Social Security, existing PAYGO, and proposed funded Social Security, 73–82 maintenance of benefits (MB): ACSS advocates of, 11, 13–14, 47, 53–5, 95–7, 101–3; criticism of individual supplemental accounts, 131–4; exclusion of Social Security funds

186
Index

from budget, 47; plan, 211; proposals related to investment policies, 53–5
MB: see maintenance of benefits (MB)
MB advocates: see Advisory Council on Social Security (ACSS); maintenance of benefits (MB) means testing: advocates of, 149–52, 175–6; defined, 149; of existing Social Security benefits, 7; opponents of, 152–8, 175–6; as potential alternative for funding Social Security, 15–16, 149
Mitchell, Olivia S., 58, 92, 95
Moynihan, Daniel Patrick, 138
Munnell, Alicia, 16
Myers, Robert J., 16

National Commission on Retirement Policy (NCRP) report, 140–1 PAYGO Social Security, U.S.: benefits under current program, 7 payroll tax: argument for raising, 57–64, 168–9; earmarking under proposed funded system, 176; under existing and proposed funded Social Security, 71–3; for existing Social Security system, 26, 44; to fund part of proposed funded Social Security, 9–10, 21, 37–8, 46, 66; increase (1983), 127; Moynihan–Keerrey proposed increases, 138, 140–4; in proposals for supplemental individual accounts, 138; under proposed Keerrey–Simpson individual account plan, 125–6; under proposed phasing out of Social Security, 108; Social Security system (1940–80), 7 pension plans: investment of federal employees' Thrift Savings Plan, 50–1; investments of Federal Reserve System and TWA, 53; investments of state and local, 49 pension plans, defined-benefit: difference from defined-contribution plan, 24; existing PAYGO system as, 4, 10, 125; proposed funded Social Security as, 4, 10, 22–4, 65, 162 pension plans, defined-contribution: benefits under, 23, 65–6; difference from defined-benefit plan, 24; proposed government-held individual accounts, 125; shift of risk in, 23–4 pension systems: Chilean privatized, 94–5, 104–6; in countries other than United States, 89–90; World Bank recommendations, 103–7 personal retirement accounts (PRAs), proposed, 145 personal security accounts (PSAs): ACSS advocates of, 11, 14, 92–3, 96–7, 112–15; benefit provisions for dependents and survivors, 96–7; choices with, 95–7; criticisms of, 93–5; individuals' management and investment of, 112–17; opposition of advocates to funded Social Security, 99–103; proposed by ACSS, 11, 92–3, 112–15
personal security system (PSS), proposed, 97–9 Peterson, Peter, 149–52
portfolio: conditions for selling funded Social Security stocks, 164; investment income as part of proposed funded Social Security, 9; investments of proposed funded system, 3–10; investment strategy of current Social Security trust fund, 127, 162–3; investment to finance proposed funded Social Security, 4–10, 37–8; management of Social Security, 170; of proposed funded Social Security, 37–8, 42; Social Security trust fund, 3; see also bonds; investment; stock market; stocks; trust fund, existing Social Security portfolio diversification: function of, 5, 34–5; fund accumulation without, 5; of proposed funded system, 4–12; risk in, 44–5; in Social Security trust fund, 3–5; without fund accumulation, 5
Index

Poterba, James, 41, 61
PRAs: see personal retirement accounts (PRAs) privatization: proposal to terminate existing Social Security system, 108–9; proposed personal security account (PSA); 11; of Social Security (Feldstein, 29–31, 89–91, 145
privatized individual accounts (PSAs), 104
PSA advocates: see Advisory Council on Social Security (ACSS); personal security accounts (PSAs)
PSAs: see personal security accounts (PSAs); privatized individual accounts (PSAs)
Quinn, Joseph F., 95
Raskob, John, 38–41
Rippe, Richard, 41–2, 61
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 153
Sachs, Jeffrey, 97–9, 119
Samwick, Andrew, 41, 60–1, 88, 111, 119, 145 saving rate, national: argument for, 31–3; importance of raising, 169; with proposed funded Social Security, 46; under proposed IA plan, 126
Schultz, James H., 157–8
Seidman, Laurence S., 8, 26, 32, 33, 61–3, 69, 85, 111, 135
Siegel, Jeremy, 38–41
Simpson, Alan, 125–6, 140
Smetters, Kent A., 59, 119
Social Security: ACSS principles regarded as basic for, 117; funding of, 161; life-cycle growth model without, 74–7; means testing, 149; middle positions on reform of, 6, 125–45, 165; proposed phasing out of, 108–9
Social Security, existing PAYGO: advantages of and arguments for, 33, 55–6; annuity provided by, 95; compared with proposed funded Social Security, 7, 22–3, 69–73, 117–22, 162; conversion to proposed funded Social Security, 46; criticism of proposed funded Social Security, 64–7; financing through payroll tax, 44; funds included in federal budget reports, 45–6; investment in special government bonds, 127; labor supply distortion created by, 109–11; life-cycle growth model with, 77–9; potential effect of privatized system on, 173–4; principles met by, 117–22; proposed phasing out of, 108; protection from raid, 55–7, 170–1; recommended adjustments to, 48; recommended exclusion of funds from federal budget report, 46–8, 169–70; transition to proposed funded system from, 31–3, 44–5, 57–64; yield on, 25–6, 33–4, 67–9
Social Security, privatized, 66; advocates of, 118; compared with proposed funded Social Security, 85–122; described, 171–2; Feldstein’s preference for (1998), 29–31; Feldstein’s proposal (1996), 89–91; Ferrara’s proposal for, 85–9; personal security accounts proposed by ACSS, 92–3; philosophy of, 121, 177–8; potential for adherence to ACSS principles, 177; proposed personal security accounts (PSAs), 92–7; proposed personal security system (PS), 97–9; see also personal security accounts (PSAs); individual accounts (IAs), supplemental
Index

Social Security, proposed funded: administration of, 172–3; advocates’ view of individual accounts, 137; advocates’ view of payroll tax increases, 139–40; advocates’ views of privatization, 137; benefit payment commitment, 98–9; compared with privatized Social Security, 85–122; converting from PAYGO system to, 4, 46; criticism by PAYGO advocates, 64–7; defined, 5, 17, 21–2; as defined-benefit plan, 4, 65; differences from ACS5 maintained benefits plan, 166; differences from ACS5 reform plans, 12–15; differences from existing PAYGO system, 7, 69–73; differences from privatized Social Security, 167; differences from supplemental individual accounts, 167; diversified portfolio as part of funding for, 4, 9, 44–5; financing benefits, 4–10, 37–8, 44–5, 64–7; life-cycle growth model with, 79–82; opposition of PSA advocates to, 99–103; payroll tax increase to generate saving, 126; philosophy of, 121–2, 177–8; pooled investment risk for, 3, 10, 66, 162; potential for political interference in, 173; potential for raids on, 66–7; principles of and differences from existing PAYGO system, 117–22, 162, 176–7; proposed requirements for funding, 65; recommended exclusion from federal budget, 46–8; stock index funds as investment alternative, 51–2; transition from existing system to, 31–3, 44–5, 57–64; yield and real return on, 25–6, 33–4, 165

Social Security Act (1935), 111

Steuerle, C. Eugene, 16, 153–4

stock index funds, 49–51

stock market: criticism of proposed reliance on, 64–5; risk in, 23, 43–4, 164; view of proposed funded Social Security system, 9–10

stocks: GAO analysis of returns on (1998), 43–4; investments of Social Security trust fund in, 163; as long-term investments, 38–41; yield and long-run real return on, 37–43, 165

Thrift Savings Plan (TSP): absence of political interference in, 52–3; administration of, 53; investments of, 50–1 transition: from PAYGO to proposed funded Social Security, 44–5, 57–64; payroll tax increases, 88; to privatized system, 87

trust fund, existing Social Security: accumulation of, 34–7, 163; management of portfolio of, 3–4; pay-as-you-go financing (1940–80), 7; portfolio diversification, 3–5, 34–7; proposals related to investment of, 48–55; protection from raid, 35–7, 170–1; recommended management agency for, 55

Walliser, Jan, 59, 119

welfare system, reform proposal, 108

Westenbroek, Brian, 61–2

World Bank report (1994), 103–7

Zeldes, Stephen P., 58, 92

189