

Index

---

- AIDS/HIV
 anchoring of concept, 94–5 conspiracy theories of, 27, 47–50 defensive projections related to, 81–2 distancing identity from, 44 fear of contagion from 'other', 23 gay men's responses to representations of, 45–6 material basis of, 34
 optimistic bias regarding risk of, 40, 58, 61–3 responses to, 37–8, 39–42, 43, 44, 50–3, 131, 143–4 spoiled identity of marginalised groups, 44–7 theories of origin and spread, 39–44, 47–53 anchoring, 94–5
 anthropology
 approach to 'the other', 76–7
 on changing representations, 126–7 study of emotion, 117 anxiety LeDoux' theory of, 123
 splitting response to see splitting attribution theory (AT), 64–8, 70 attributions, and social representations, 91 Averill, J.R., 112–13
- Baker, G.W., 31
 Beck, U., 5
 biological approach to emotion, 108–12, 116 critiques of, 112–13
 blame for epidemics, 25
see also conspiracy theories; 'not me-other' response to risk; responsibility; scapegoating Bowlby, J., 114
 Chapman, D.W., 31
 choice, 66–7
 cognitive approach
 attribution theory, 64–8, 70
 critiques of, 70–1, 101–2, 138–9 nature in psychology of, 12 optimistic bias theory, 60–2, 63–4 to emotion, 61, 108–12
 to risk, 7–8
 compassion for 'other', 129–30 conspiracy theories, 27, 47–50 contagion, fear of 'other', 23 control in attribution theory, 65–7 impact on risk perception, 30, 31, 32 link with emotion, 116–17 link with optimistic bias, 58–9 lost by 'other', 24–5
 of representation, 29
 of risk, 3–5
 scapegoating as form of, 26–7 shared meanings as form of, 31 Western concept of, 24–5, 59, 65–6, 116–17 see also intentionality Crawford, R., 15, 24–5
 Crossley, N., 113
 culture see sociocultural approaches to emotion; Western culture
- danger, meaning of term, 4 defensive projections, and AIDS, 81–2 defensiveness, and optimistic bias, 61–2, 63 denial, and optimistic bias, 60 deviant practices, and representations of AIDS, 40–1, 43–4, 49 disasters link with sin and sexuality, 23–4 manmade and natural, 142 in modern world, 16
 discourse analysis, 10
 discursive theory, 86

162 Index

- disgust, 82–3
 Douglas, M., 76–7, 126–7
 Drown, D., 67
- economic crisis, 22
- emotion
 biological approach to, 108–12, 116
 critiques of, 112–13
 cognitive approach to, 61, 108–12 existential approach to, 113, 114–15 link with control, 116–17 manipulation of, 118–19 neglected in psychology, 12, 100
 postemotionalism, 118–20 psycho–dynamic approach to, 114–15, 123 research approaches to, 110–12, 115 in response to risk, 6–7, 100, 109–10 social constructionist approach to, 113–14 sociocultural approaches to, 116–22 views of, 107–8
- epidemics
 link with 'other', 23, 25–6
 material basis of, 32–3, 34
see also AIDS/HIV
- exhibitionism, 120
- existential approach to emotion, 113, 114–15
- experts
 assessment of risk by, 3 mistrust of, 3, 5
 role of, 5–6
 transformation of ideas of, 92–6 see also scientists
- fairy tales, 31
- Feldman, D.A., 57–8
- Flin, R., 30
- foreign nations, origin of AIDS in, 39
- Freud, S., 84, 87, 127
- gay men
 responses to representations of AIDS, 45–6 spoiled identity of, 44–7 see also homosexuality
- Geertz, C., 101
- genetic testing, 3–4
- Gilman, S., 14–15
- globalisation of media messages, 121
- Gobineau, J.A. de, 20
- Greenwood, G.D., 113–14
- groups
 identification with, 80–1 representations and identity of, 97, 100
- shared meanings in, 31 and splitting, 79–81
- hazards, compared with risks, 142
- health
 and concepts of control, 24–5, 66 effects of optimism on, 68–9 optimistic bias regarding risk to, 56–7 role of genetic testing, 3–4 see also illness
- health campaigns, related to AIDS, 51–3
- Heider, F., 12
- Henriques, J., 9
- HIV see AIDS/HIV
- Hollway, W., 84–5
- homosexuality
 and medical responses to AIDS, 42–3 see also gay men
- Ichheiser, G., 65
- identification, with media messages, 121–2
- identity
 distancing from AIDS, 44 link with response to risk, 6, 104 of marginalised groups spoiled, 44–7 representations to protect, 34, 97, 100 role of comparison in, 18–20 social and personal, 80–1
- illness
 'other' and sources of, 28 and self–control, 66
see also AIDS/HIV; epidemics; health
- illness representations model, 106
- industrial accidents, 30
- intentionality
 and attribution theory, 64–5
see also control
- introjection, 75
- Jefferson, T., 84–5
- Jodelet, D., 105
- judgement and decision–making model, 7–8
- 'just world hypothesis', 67
- Klein, Melanie, 73–6, 77, 78, 87–8, 114, 128, 132
- knowledge
 impact on perception of risk, 30 material basis of crises, 33–4 scientific production of, 93 transformation of scientific, 92–6
- lay knowledge, transformed from scientific, 92–6

- lay people
 impact of media on, 51, 92 mistrust of experts, 3, 5 perceptions of risk, 3
 responses to AIDS, 39–42, 43
 role of, 5–6
 understandings of science, 9–10
- LeDoux, J., 108, 111, 123
- Lerner, M.J., 67
- McCulloch, J., 19
- Manstead, A.S.R., 109
- Mearns, K., 30
- media
 experience of emotion via, 120–2 manipulation of emotions, 119 portrayal of risk by, 2 role in linking individuals, 80 role in shaping thoughts on AIDS, 50–3 role in transforming knowledge, 92–3
- medical scientific responses to AIDS, 42–4
- mental health, effects of optimism on, 68–9
- Mestrovic, S.G., 118, 120
- moderation, ethics of, 26
- modernism, 136
- morals, and risk reduction, 4
- Moscovici, S., 80, 90–1, 92, 93
- natural science model, 139–40
- Nazi texts, 'other' in, 22
- neuro-psychology, 123–4
- Ngubane, H., 28
- 'not me–other' response to risk
 attribution theory, 64–8, 70
 early research on, 29–32
 material basis of, 32–5 mechanisms of, 132–5 optimistic bias, 56–64, 70 splitting as origin of, 73–9, 88
see also 'other'
- nuclear war, 31–2
- Oatley, K., 115
- object relations approach, 11, 15, 73–9, 87
- objectification, 95–6
- optimism, effects on health, 68–9
- optimistic bias (OB), 7, 56–64, 70, 91, 135 regarding AIDS, 40, 58, 61–3
- Orient, Said's theory of, 18, 27–8
- 'other'
 anchoring of AIDS and, 94–5 at times of crisis, 22–9 changing representations of, 128–32, 134–5
 ongoing concept of, 18–22 and projective identification, 75–6 how regarded by non-powerful groups, 27–9
 in responses to AIDS
 deviant behaviours, 40–1, 43–4, 49 foreign nations, 39
 out-groups, 39–40, 42–3 role of representations of, 34, 97–8 see also 'not me–other' response to risk;
 out-groups
 out-groups
 blamed for epidemics, 25–6 and conspiracy theories of AIDS, 47–50 and protection of self identity, 34 and spread of AIDS, 39–40, 42–3
see also 'other'
- paranoid-schizoid position, 74
- Phillips, A., 77
- physical health, effects of optimism on, 68–9
- postemotionalism, 118–20
- postmodernism
 approach to subjectivity, 8–9, 12 features of, 136
- preventability, 58–9
- projection, 75, 78, 81–2
- projective identification, 75–6, 133
- psycho-dynamic approach
 to emotion, 114–15, 123
 to risk, 11, 83–8, 127
 social representations – psycho-dynamic approach, 99–105
 and sociohistorical processes, 79–83
- psychoanalysis
 on changing representations, 127–8, 129–30, 132
 critiques of, 136–7, 139
 subjective approach, 85–6 and theories of emotion, 123 theory of development, 128–9
- public see lay people
- Public Understanding of Science (PUS), 9–10
- race, and concept of 'other', 18, 20–1
- Radley, A., 129
- reflexivity, 130–1
- religion, and concepts of disaster, 23–4
- representation
 control of, 29
see also social representations
- research, approaches to emotion, 110–12, 115
- responsibility
 and attribution theory, 64, 67–8
 and spoiled identity, 46

164 Index

- responsibility (cont.)
see also blame; conspiracy theories; 'not me–other' response to risk; scapegoating - risk
 changing representations of, 126–32, 134–5, 143–4
 control of, 3–5
 experienced via media, 120–1, 122 internalised by marginalised groups, 46 responses to: affective dimension of, 6–7, 109–10; approaches to, 7–13, 14–16; cognitive approach, 7–8; features of good theory, 139–41; overarching theory, 141–3; psycho–dynamic theory, 11, 79–88, 99–105, 127; social representations theory, 9–11, 99–105; subjectivity in, 8–9; see also AIDS/HIV; 'not me–other' response to risk; optimistic bias scientific assessments of, 60–1 risk society, nature of, 2–7 risks, compared with hazards, 142
- Said, E.W., 18–19, 27–8 scapegoating, 26–7, 32–3 science
 lay people's understanding of, 9–10, 51
 natural science model, 139–40 representations of crises, 33 values in, 93
 scientific knowledge, transformation of, 92–6 scientists
 assessment of risk by, 60–1
 as focus of AIDS conspiracy theories, 47–9
 responses to AIDS, 42–4
see also experts self-report data, 110–12, 115 sexual practices, and representations of AIDS, 40–1, 43 sexuality and blame for epidemics, 25 and concept of 'other', 20–1, 35
 link with disaster, 23–4 and social representations, 91 and women as cause of illness, 28 women's optimistic bias and, 62–3 see also gay men; homosexuality Shaver, K.G., 67
 sin
 link with disaster, 24
 and representations of AIDS, 40–1, 43, 49, 76 Sobo, E.J., 62–3
 social constructionist approach to emotion, 113–14 Social Identity Theory (SIT), 80 social psychology, good theory in, 139–41 social representations changing, 105–6, 126–32, 134–5, 143–4 environmental influences on, 133 motivation for formation of, 34, 96–8
 nature of, 91
 processes in formation of, 92–6 role in risk response, 133–4 social nature of, 98–9 social representations theory
 critiques of, 137–9
 nature of, 9–11, 90–1, 127–8 social representations–psycho–dynamic approach, 99–105 social science application of psychodynamic theory to, 83–8 assumptions of, 140–1 sociocultural approaches to emotion, 116–22 sociohistorical processes, and psycho–dynamic theory, 79–83 sociology, study of emotion, 117–18
 'spinning', 119
 spirit possession, 28
 splitting
 nature of, 11, 73–9, 88, 99, 132–3 role of social forces in, 79–81 stage following, 128–9, 134 Stimson, G.V., 63
 subjectivity
 study of, 86, 110
 in study of emotion, 108–9, 110 in study of risk, 8–9 symbolisation, 95–6
 responses to risk, 6–7
 syphilis, 25, 33
 Tuskegee Study, 49, 50
 Taylor, S.E., 61–2
 Tester, K., 120
 theory, features of good theory, 139–41 Theory of Planned Behaviour (TPB), 109 threat, experienced via media, 120–1
 Tuskegee Study, 49, 50
 Ursano, R.J., 31
 war
 and AIDS conspiracy theories, 49 perceived risk of, 31–2 symbolisation of, 96
 Weinstein, N.D., 60, 61

Index

165

- Western culture
  and AIDS conspiracy theories, 47–50
  concept of control in, 24–5, 59, 65–6, 116–17
  concept of 'other' in, 19–21, 27–8, 29 representations of good and bad, 77–8
- women
  optimistic bias and sexuality of, 62–3 as 'other', 20, 25, 28
- Wynne, B., 5–6
- Zimolong, B., 30