1 Connectivity conservation: maintaining connections for nature 1
KEVIN R. CROOKS AND M. SANJAYAN

PART I Approaches to connectivity research 21

Introduction: Connectivity research—what are the issues? 23
JOHN A. WIENS

2 Landscape connectivity: a return to the basics 29
PHILIP D. TAYLOR, LENORE FAHRIG, AND KIMBERLY A. WITH

3 Connectivity and metapopulation dynamics in highly fragmented landscapes 44
ATTE MOILANEN AND ILKKA HANSKI

4 Genetics and landscape connectivity 72
RICHARD FRANKHAM

5 Connectivity at the land–water interface 97
DREW M. TALLEY, GARY R. HUXEL, AND MARCEL HOLYOAK

6 Influence of natural landscape fragmentation and resource availability on distribution and connectivity of gray wolves (Canis lupus) in the archipelago of coastal British Columbia, Canada 130
PAUL C. PAQUET, SHELLEY M. ALEXANDER, PATRICIA L. SWAN, AND CHRIS T. DARIMONT

7 Migratory connectivity 157
PETER P. MARRA, D. RYAN NORRIS, SUSAN M. HAIG, MIKE WEBSTER, AND J. ANDREW ROYLE

8 Connectivity in marine ecosystems: the importance of larval and spore dispersal 184
CLAUDIO DIBACCO, LISA A. LEVIN, AND ENRIC SALA

9 Connectivity and wide-ranging species in the ocean 213
AUTUMN-LYNN HARRISON AND KAREN A. BJORNDAL

10 Hydrologic connectivity: a neglected dimension of conservation biology 233
CATHERINE PRINGLE

11 Connectivity and ecosystem services: crop pollination in agricultural landscapes 255
TAYLOR H. RICKETTS, NEAL M. WILLIAMS, AND MARGARET M. MAYFIELD

PART II Assessing connectivity 291

Introduction: Evaluating and quantifying the conservation dividends of connectivity 293
PETER KAREIVA

12 Quantifying connectivity: balancing metric performance with data requirements 297
WILLIAM F. FAGAN AND JUSTIN M. CALABRESE

13 Assessing connectivity in salmonid fishes with DNA microsatellite markers 318
HELEN NEVILLE, JASON DUNHAM, AND MARY PEACOCK

14 Individual-based modeling as a tool for conserving connectivity 343
JEFF A. TRACEY

15 Linking connectivity to viability: insights from spatially explicit population models of large carnivores 369
CARLOS CARROLL

16 Impacts of corridors on populations and communities 390
NICK M. HADDAD AND JOSH J. TEWKSBURY

17 Exploring the functional connectivity of landscapes using landscape networks 416
DAVID M. THEOBALD

PART III Challenges and implementation of connectivity conservation 445

Introduction: Don't fence me in 447
THOMAS LOVEJOY

18 Hyperconnectivity, invasive species, and the breakdown of barriers to dispersal 451
JEFFREY A. CROOKS AND ANDREW V. SUAREZ

19 Disease and connectivity 479
HAMISH MCCALLUM AND ANDY DOBSON

20 Maintaining and restoring connectivity in landscapes fragmented by roads 502
ANTHONY P. CLEVENGER AND JACK WIERZCHOWSKI

21 Where to draw the line: integrating feasibility into connectivity planning 536
SCOTT A. MORRISON AND MARK D. REYNOLDS

22 South Coast Missing Linkages: restoring connectivity to wildlands in the largest metropolitan area in the USA 555
PAUL BEIER, KRISTEEN L. PENROD, CLAUDIA LUKE, WAYNE D. SPENCER, AND CLINT CABAÑERO

23 Incorporating connectivity into broad-scale conservation planning 587
REED F. NOSS AND KATHLEEN M. DALY

24 Escaping the minimalist trap: design and implementation of large-scale biodiversity corridors 620
JAMES SANDERSON, GUSTAVO A. B. DA FONSECA, CARLOS GALINDO-LEAL, KEITH ALGER, VICTOR HUGO INCHAUSTY KARL MORRISON, AND ANTHONY RYLANDS
