Contents

Contributors page ix
Biographies xi
Acknowledgements xvi

Section 1 Introduction

1 Why this book?
Gavin Mooney and Di McIntyre 3

Section 2 Equity in general

2 Health and health inequalities in a neo-liberal global world
David Coburn and Elaine S. Coburn 13

3 Governing the market in health care: the social and political requirements
Amiya Kumar Bagchi 36

4 Equity in the context of diversity of culture and diversity of economic systems
Gavin Mooney 59

5 Beware of the libertarian wolf in the clothing of the egalitarian sheep: an essay on the need to clarify ends and means
Alan Maynard 77

Section 3 Health service access

6 Exploring the dimensions of access
Michael Thiede, Patricia Akweongo and Di McIntyre 103

7 Acceptability, trust and equity
Lucy Gilson 124
Contents

Section 4 Equity and health systems

8 International migration and extreme health inequality: robust arguments and institutions for international redistribution in health care
Maureen Mackintosh

9 Pay the piper and call the tune: changing health care financing mechanisms to address public–private health sector mix inequities
Di McIntyre

Section 5 Lessons from individual countries

10 Equity in health financing, resource allocation and health service utilization in Brazil: past, present and future
Silvia Marta Porto, Claudia Travassos, María Alicia Domínguez Ugá and Isabela Soares Santos

11 Improving health-related information systems to monitor equity in health: lessons from Thailand
Viroj Tangcharoensathien, Supon Limwattananon and Phusit Prakongsai

Section 6 Future action

12 Where now with equity?
Di McIntyre and Gavin Mooney

Index  