

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

Index

- age of leaving home for boys, 226 for girls, 225–6 agency–structure problem, 4 agricultural techniques, 74 agriculture
 days of labor in, 88
 labor productivity in, 90, 92 participation of women in, 206 work intensity in, 110 alcohol, 100, 164–7 consumption in Sweden, 233 consumption in twentieth century, 261 decline in consumption of, 233–5 allocation of time model, 29 allowance, 230
 Alter, George, 218 American Revolution, role of consumers in, 173, 261
amour-propre, 59. See also self-love Amsterdam contract dates in, 174
 pawn bank of, 176
 probate inventories in, 152
 street lighting in, 128
 Anderson, Michael, 102, 226 anthropology, economic, 76–7 of consumption, 33 of the family, 230–31 of gift exchange, 175 antibiotics, 262
 Antwerp, 140 coffee in, 151
 probate inventories in, 152
 Arkwright, Richard, 137
 Asian tiger economies, 112
 Augustinians, 58
 Augustus, Elector of Saxony, 131
 Australia, heights of female convicts transported to, 232
 Austria
 ceramics in, 132
 days of labor in, 88
 backward-bending labor supply curve, 115 bacteriology, 195
 Baltic region, as market for colonial groceries, 161
 Bank Holidays, 92
 Barbon, Nicholas, 60, 65
 bargaining model, 215–16, 224, 227, 236
 basal metabolism, 117, 119
 Baulant, Micheline, 125
 Bayle, Pierre, 59
 Becker, Gary, 8, 26–7, 30–31, 33, 45, 60, 111, 148, 241, 258–9 acolytes of, 242
 beer, 165
 Belgium, budget studies in, 219, 224
 Berg, Maxine, 146, 147, 170, 206
 Berkeley, Bishop George, 67

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

316

Index

- Bianchi, Maria, 21, 24 birth cohorts, labor market behavior of women by, 248–51
 Blondé, Bruno, 152
 Blumer, Herbert, 52
 Booth, Charles, 203 boredom, 21
 antidote for, 24
 Bosanquet, Helen, 203, 225, 227, 236
 Boserup, Ester, 74–8, 79
 Boston Tea Party, 164
 Bourdieu, Pierre, 148
 Bourke, Joanna, 199
 Bowden, Sue, 263–4 brandy, 165
 Braudel, Fernand, 168 bread, 167–9 breadwinner–homemaker household, 187–9 children's earnings in, 223 convergence of material cultures in, 266 a creation of participants, 204, 214 demand for electrical appliances by, 264 diminished bargain power of wife in, 227 diminution of resource differentials within, 236 importance of specialization to, 201 an imposition of patriarchy, 204 income pooling in, 216, 229 Indian summer of, 240 loyalty of children to, 225 a moment in Western history, 237 patriarchal character of, 214 questioned, 238 supported by trade unions, 208 two models of, 210
 breakability, 129, 145, 149 in relation to fashion change, 147 breakfast, 20–21
 Breen, T. H., 172, 261
 Britain child labor in, 260
 decline of alcohol consumption in, 234
 demand for servants in, 198
 labor force participation of students in, 255
 labor force participation rates in, 251 limitations on cotton importation, 136 public revenues of, 164
 soap consumption in, 197
 sugar consumption by, 159 tea consumption by, 159 value of home-produced consumption in, 259
 See also England budget studies, 102, 168–77, 186, 202, 207, 216, 235 in Belgium, 218
 in developing economies, 154 of English agricultural laborers, 107 burial insurance, 231
 calicoes, printed, 134
 Calvinism
 as interpreted by Schama, 53 consumer culture of, 56–7 theory of the consumer of, 58
 Calvinists, material culture of, 172
 Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure, 8
 Campbell, Colin, 23
 Canton, tea trade of, 156
 capitalism, 214
 impact on women, 205–6, 207
 Carr, Lois Green, 151
 Carson, Cary, 150
 Cartwright, Edmund, 137 cast-iron range, 197 ceramics, 130
 Chartism, 208
 T. B. Smith, Chartist, 229
 Chartres, 140
 Chayanov, A. V., 211
 Chesapeake region, probate inventories in, 125, 151
 Child Allowance, British, 262 child default, 225
 child labor, 86, 260

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More informationIndex

317

- importance to breadwinner
 - household, 200
- increased importance of, 188, 219
- monetary importance of, 217
- reduction of, 223
- child care, 265
- children
 - earning capacity of, 108
 - labor force participation rates of, 252–5
- China, tea and sugar consumption in, 155
- chocolate, 152, 153
 - in Antwerp, 152
- cigarettes, 157
- Clark, Anna, 178, 203, 209
- Clark, Gregory, 90, 93, 193, 196
- clay pipes, 157
- clocks, 151, 153
- closed range, 197
- clothing demand, gendered character of, 141–4
- clothing, role of fashion in, 134
- coal gas, 129
- coffee houses, 156, 261
- coffee, 100, 151, 153, 156, 160
 - European consumption of, 158
 - North American demand for, 163
 - sweetened, 31
- Cole, W. A., 85
- colonial groceries, 161
- comfort food, academic, 214
- comfort, 178
 - demand for, 21–4
 - domestic, 127
- confessionalization, 56
- consumer aspirations, 189, 268
 - convergence of, 199
 - for the future, 271–2
 - origins of, 46
- consumer behavior, changed by retail shops, 170
- consumer choice, in Dutch Republic, 149
- consumer culture, plebian, 178
- consumer demand
 - new interpretation of, 58
 - transformation of, 123
- consumer desire, new objects of, 189
- consumer expenditures, for tropical products, 158
- consumer goods, as a store of value, 145
- consumer preferences, stability of, 36
- consumer revolution, 4, 47, 122, 243
 - real wages during, 83
 - role of women's earnings in, 143
- consumer sovereignty, 20
- consumer theory, standard, 7, 20–21
- consumerism, 5
 - cultural critique of, 243, 245
 - frenetic, 269
- consumption capital, 25, 36, 45, 60, 115, 123, 148, 194, 200, 270
- consumption clusters, .
- consumption technologies, 26, 27, 111, 192–3, 199, 200, 201, 236, 238, 260, 266
 - increased choice among, 122
- consumption time, 245
- consumption, as a shared experience, 173
 - cultural interpretation of, 243
 - postmodern interpretation of, 6
 - social interpretation of, 5
 - value of home production in, 259
- convenience food, 169
- cooperative conflict, 215
- coordination problem, 71–2, 97, 273
- Corfe Castle, Dorset village, 217
- cotton, raw, importation of, 137
- cotton cloth, 134–5
 - imports from India of, 136
- cotton spinning, mechanization of, 137
- Crafts, Nicholas, 85, 180
- craftsmanship, 146
- creamware, 131
 - in Weesp, 133
- credit, 174–6
- creditworthiness, 175
- Crompton, Samuel, 137
- cultural lag, 12
- Cunningham, Hugh, 260

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

318

Index

- daily meal-system, 32
 Davies, Reverend David, 216 days of labor, 87–92
de gustibus non est disputandum, 21, 36
 de la Court, Johan and Peter, 59
Fables, Moral and Political, 62
 Deane, Phyllis, 85
 Defoe, Daniel, 107–8, 176
 as a high-wage advocate, 66
 Delft, taste groups in, 149
 delftware, 55–6, 131, 153
 in Weesp, 133
 demand patterns, historical development of, 25 demographic transition, effect on household structure, 240 depreciation rate, 145, 148 desire, new force of, 60, 65
 Diderot, Dennis, 33
 Diderot effect, 33 dinner plates, 130
 discipline, of the factory system, 115 distilled spirits, 165 division of labor, 71, 72
 new benefits to, 201
 Douglas, Mary, 33
doux commerce, 61
 Drogenham, Gerrit, 1–2
 Dutch East India Company (VOC) as importer of porcelain, 130 tea imports by, 156
 Dutch Republic
 consumer innovation in, 52–8 demand for paintings in domestic comfort in, 54 importation of cotton to, 137 new consumer culture of, 54–5
 sumptuary laws in, 134
 theory of decline of, 53
 See also Netherlands
 Dyer, Christopher, 87

 Earle, Peter, 101, 125 economic growth, relationship to well-being, 120, 271

 Eden, Sir Frederick Morton, 105, 176, 216 electrical appliances, 263–5 rate of diffusion of, 263 electricity, 129
 Elias, Norbert, 47
 emulation, 63, 122, 149, 199
 as source of consumer demand, 46–51
 Engels, Frederick, 186
 Engel's Law, 90
 England age at which children leave home in, 226 bread consumption in, 167
 budget studies in, 217 consumption of linen in, 136
 days of labor in, 88
 life expectancy in, 190
 pauper inventories in, 151
 probate inventories in, 125, 153
 retail shops in, 170
 spirits consumption in, 166
 sumptuary laws in, 134
 valuations of probate inventories in, 148
 See also Britain
 English East India Company, tea imports by, 156, 159
 epidemiology, 195
 Europe, labor force participation rates in, 244
 Evans, Richard J., 11 excise taxes, 164
 expert knowledge, 194

 Fairchild, Cissie, 145, 149 families, external support over the life cycle, 239 family composition, 79 family decomposition, 13, 187 family de-institutionalization, 241, 270
 family economy, 11, 98–101, 102, 187, 210–14 family economy, undermined by capitalism, 206

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

Index

319

- family labor, reallocation of, 211
- family sociology, 186
- family structures
- complex, 17
 - nuclear, 15–18
- family, 10–18
- as a black box, 215
 - middle-class, economic pressure on, 269
 - obsolete values of, 12
 - as realm of altruism, 215
 - realm of irrationality, 212
 - relative autonomy of, 14–18
- fashion, 46, 145
- pace of change in, 140
- fashionable shops, 170
- Feinstein, Charles, 84
- female labor, rise in demand for, 269
- female wardrobes
- value relative to male wardrobes, 235, 261
 - value relative to male wardrobes in Britain, 142–4, 235, 262
 - value relative to male wardrobes in France, 142
 - value relative to male wardrobes in the United States, 235, 262
- feminism, 14, 236, 269
- as the highest stage of capitalism, 14
 - importance of separate spheres to, 210–14
 - and national income accounting, 28–9
 - place of proto-industry in, 103
 - role of family economy in, 98
- five-day work week, 87
- focusing devises, 138
- Fogel, Robert, 117–20, 190
- food distribution, by income group, 119
- food production, 120
- food, income elasticity of demand for, 118, 191
- food-value multiplier, 118
- France
- bread consumption in, 168
 - ceramics in, 132
 - coffee cultivation by, 157
 - demand for servants in, 198
 - probate inventories in, 125
 - relative value of female wardrobes in, 139
 - retail shops in, 171
 - soap consumption in, 197
 - stature in, 232
 - sumptuary laws in, 134
- Frankfurt School, 41, 43
- Fridlitzius, Gunnar, 233
- full income, 28–30, 111
- furniture, 130
- Galbraith, John Kenneth, 41–2
- garment production, 95–104
- Garnot, Benoît, 140
- gas cooker, 197
- Genesis 3:19, 76
- genteel grace, 56
- germ theory of disease, 195
- Germany, demand for servants in, 198
- Ghent, 219
- gin age, 166
- gin, 166
- Glasgow, 229
- gleichzeitige Ungleichzeitigkeit*, 12, 99. See also cultural lag
- Glennie, Paul, 151
- Goldin, Claudia, 223
- Gouda, 157
- Grantham, George, 93–5
- Gray, Jeffrey, 268
- Guilds
- control of retailing by, 170
 - lose control of garment production, 106
 - mercens, 170
- habitus, 148
- Hajnal, John, 8, 16–18
- Hargreaves, James, 137
- Harley, C. Knick, 85
- Hartmann, Heidi, 208
- Hayami, Akira, 78
- health, in relation to economic growth, 190

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

320

Index

- health services
 - consumption of, 194–6, 262
 - effects of knowledge revolution, 195
- hedonism, 23
- Higgs, Henry, 202
- Hill, Bridget, 206
- Hirschman, Albert, 36
- Hoffman, Philip, 94
- holy days, 87–92
- homemaking
 - inadequacy of working-class women in, 203–4
 - undervaluation of, 202
- honey, 155
- Horrell, Sara, 108–9, 217
- household, 10–18, 36
 - absorption of labor in, 78, 79–80
 - allocation of time of, 26–7
 - changing views on, 270
 - decision making within, 215
 - disorder within, 179
 - money income of, 111
 - as producer of consumed goods, 26, 262
 - reallocation of time within, 111, 193
 - redistribution of income within, 30–31, 71, 259–60
 - specialization of, 71, 72
 - state role in redistribution of income within, 239
 - strategizing by, 103
 - transforms economic growth into well-being, 237
- household earnings, equalization of, 219
- household economy
 - endurance of, 243
 - functional interpretation of, 187
 - state involvement in, 238
 - tattered remains of, 242
 - two basic forms of, 168–77, 186
- household efficiency, 28–9
 - variability of, 202
- household income, 82
 - adult male earnings in, 216, 217
 - contribution of women and children, 107
 - effects of multiple earners on, 108
 - threshold level of, 199
- household labor
 - definition of, 265
 - high value of, 220
 - regarded as a dead loss, 209
- household production, role of specialization in, 271
- housing, quality of, 193, 196
- Hubor, Victor, 193
- Hufton, Olwen, 192–3
- Human Development Index, 180
- Hume, David, 45
 - as a high-wage advocate, 67
 - response to Mandeville of, 64–5
- Humphries, Jane, 108–9, 204, 217
- Hundert, Edward, 47, 48
- Hunt, Margaret, 50, 206
- Huygens, Christiaan, 1
- hygiene, popular attitudes toward, 192
- Iberia, as market for colonial groceries, 162
- illegitimate births, rate of, 179
- illumination (lighting), 128–9
- incentive goods, 122, 180
- income distribution, inequality of, 266–7
- income inequality, influence of social sorting on, 257
- income pooling, 229–31, 238
 - role of children in, 226
- indivisibilities in consumption, 31
- Industrial Revolution, 6
 - causes of, 74, 77
 - ingenuity the essence of, 112
 - leading sectors in, 81
 - macroeconomics of, 7, 85, 112
 - need for women's labor, 207
 - perspiration the essence of, 112
 - real wages in, 84
 - role of women in, 103
 - textile mechanization in, 137

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More informationIndex

321

- weak links to consumer demand, 180
- industrialization, labor-intensive form of, 79–81
- industrious revolution, 268
 - asset-function in, 146
 - Beckerian definition of, 27
 - broad social base of, 154
 - consumer demand's role in, 123
 - critique of leisure, 43
 - definition of, 10, 72
 - in East Asia, 78–81
 - end of, 187
 - geographical limits of, 18
 - importance of alcohol to, 165
 - a meta-historical concept, 9
 - new consumer behavior of, 177
 - plebian version of, 180
 - prevented by malnourishment, 116
 - relationship to the Industrial Revolution, 111
 - sources of money income in, 86
- infant mortality, 191
- innovation, as source of consumer demand, 52
- intertemporality, 69
 - Hume's view of, 70
- Ireland, weak consumer demand in, 68
- Isherwood, Baron, 33
- Jansenism, theory of the consumer of, 58–61
- Janssens, Angélique, 188
- Jeffersonian myth, 95
- jenever* (Dutch gin), 166
- Jingdezhen, 131
- Juster, F. Thomas, 258
- Kamermand, Johan, 124
- Kent, probate inventories in, 125
- kerosene, 129
- Keynes, John Maynard, 26
 - on leisure, 42
- King, Gregory, 134, 167, 170
 - estimated value of textile consumption by, 141–2
- King, Peter, 151
- kitchen equipment, 193
- Knotter, Ad, 103
- Krimpenewaard, probate inventories in, 124
- Krugman, Paul, 112
- labor force participation rates
 - influence of childbearing, 249–50
 - of men, 243, 245
 - state influence over, 238
 - of women, 246
- labor time, reallocation of, 258
- labor intensification, reflecting the needs of capitalism, 114
- labor–leisure tradeoff, 78
- Lemire, Beverly, 104–7
- Lancaster, Kelvin, 25–6, 33
- Landes, David, 138
- Lane, Robert, 261
- Le Play, Frederic, 102, 186
- Lees, Lynn Hollen, 235
- leisure, 37, 40–41, 269
 - enforced by malnutrition, 117
 - in fifteenth century, 91
- leisure-rich society, 40–41
 - economic foundations of, 43
- leisure time, 76–7
 - loss of, 73, 87
- Levine, David, 99
- life cycle
 - family composition over, 211
 - family income during, 108, 109, 224
- life cycle, family
 - consumption smoothing over, 80
 - income sources in, 220
- life cycles, of fashion, 130, 145, 148
- lifestyle, 13, 34, 37, 40–41, 196, 199
 - class differences in, 127
- lifetime labor hours, 244
- lighting, reduced cost of, 129
- linen undergarments, social importance of, 135
- linen, 134–6
- literacy rates, 256
- Loane, Margery, 196

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

322

Index

London

- bread consumption in, 168–77, 186
- criminal court of, 91
- fashionable shops in, 170
- female workers in, 101
- gin shops in, 166
- labor time in, 91–2
- mantua makers in, 104
- metropolitan libertine culture of, 178
- probate inventories in, 125
- real wages in, 83
- street lighting in, 129

Low Countries, furniture in, 130

luxury, 44–5

- Hume's view of, 65
- modernization of, 149

Main, Gloria, 126

Main, Jackson, 126

majolica, 130

male default, 179

Malthus, Thomas Robert, 73–4

Mandeville, Bernard, 48, 61–5, 68–70, 166

- views on manual workers, 66

mantua, 104

Marcuse, Herbert, 41

marginal productivity of labor, 76

marginal productivity of women's labor, 200

Maria Theresa, 88

market labor, hours of, 255–6

market revolution, 95

markets, in East Asia, 80

- role of in Boserup model, 77 marriage, specialization within, 267

marriage premium, 267–8

married women

- labor force participation rate of, 247, 252
- market labor of, 109, 224
- money income of, 217

Marshall, Alfred, 7

Marx, Karl, 114

material possessions

- cultural meanings of, 148
- growth of, 124, 126

McCants, Anne, 152, 175

McCloskey, D. N., 112

McCusker, John, 167

McKendrick, Neil, 50–51, 143

McKeown, Thomas, 190

meals, joint consumption of, 261

Medick, Hans, 99–100, 178, 211

Mediterranean region

- as market for colonial groceries, 162

- tobacco markets in, 161

Meissen, 131

Mendels, Franklin, 99

merit goods, 240

middle-class homes, development of, 127

Ming dynasty, 130

Mintz, Sidney, 31

mixed farming systems, 81

Mokyr, Joel, 138, 194–5, 262

Montesquieu, Baron de, 48–9, 61, 65–6

moral economy, 113, 116

mortality, sex differentials in, 233

Mui, Ho-Cheung and Lorna H., 169, 170

Mun, Thomas, 44

Mundy, Peter, 54

national income accounting, 28

neoclassical pooled household model, 215–16

Netherlands

- child labor in, 260

- coffee consumption by, 160

- coffee cultivation by, 157

- days of labor in, 88–9

- decline of alcohol consumption in, 234

- demand for servants in, 198

- labor force participation of students in, 253

- mantua makers in, 104

- retail shops in, 170

- working hours of college educated in, 257

See also Dutch Republic

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

Index

323

- New England, probate inventories in, 125
- New Household Economics, 8, 26
- New Luxury, 44–5 characteristics of, 57–8
Hume's view of, 65
- newspapers, 172
- Nicholas, Stephen, 232
- Nicole, Pierre, 59
- nondurable consumer goods, 154
- North, Sir Dudley, 66
- North America
imports of British goods by, 172
as market for colonial groceries, 162 market orientation of, 96 material culture of, 150, 172
retail shops in, 171–2
See also United States
- novelty, 23
- nutrition allocation within family, 232 diversion from children, 232 insufficient for steady work, 117
- nutritional quality correlation to income, 119 deterioration of, 177, 190
- nutritional science, 195
- O'Brien, Patrick, 164
- occupational structure, 94
women's place within, 109
- Offer, Avner, 263–4
- Ogilvie, Sheila, 246
- Old Luxury, 44–5, 70
Hume's view of, 65
as interpreted by de la Courts, 59
- open hearth, 197
- opportunity costs, 202, 211
- optimists, 84
- organic economy, 76–7, 95–104
- Overton, Mark, 125, 144, 148
- Oxley, Deborah, 232
- paintings, 153
demand for, 54–6
- Pardailhé-Galabrun, Annik, 127
- Pareto, Vilfredo, 20, 36
- Paris beds per person in, 127
coffee consumption in, 161
days of labor in, 88
mantua makers in, 104
relative value of female wardrobes in, 139
street lighting in, 128
sugar consumption in, 159 value of possessions in, 145 wine consumption in, 167
- parlor, 196
- Pascal, Blaise, 59
- path dependence, 273
- patriarchy, 44–5, 188, 204, 205, 208–10, 214, 216, 230 compared to European monarchy, 236 wounded pride in, 220
- peasant economy, Chayanov's theory of, 211
- peasant households, discipline of, 76, 79–80
- peasant sector, impact of women's labor, 213
- peasant society, decomposition of, 99–100
- peasants, 73–4
French, 102
in Japan, 78–80
- peddlers, 169
- penny capitalists, 106
- periodic markets, 169
- periodization, limitations of, 103
- Perkins, Harold, 50
- Persson, Gunnar, 115
- pessimists, 84–6, 232
- Pfister, Ulrich, 102
- Philadelphia, child labor in, 223
- Plato, 43–4
- pleasure, demand for, 21–4
- pocket globe, 1
- pocket watch, 1–3 production of, 2
- politesse*, 49–50
- Pollexfen, John, 134
- pooled income, 260

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

324

Index

- pools of local attraction, 36 population density, 79
 populuxe goods, 145, 147 porcelain, 130–31
 importation of Asian, 130
 in Weesp, 133
 Port Royal School, 59–60
 positional goods, 22
 Postlethwayt, Malachy, 146 postmodern consumer, 242
 prenuptial pregnancy, rate of, 179
 Prescott, Edward, 246 primary poverty, 203 principal–agent problem, 204, 265 privacy, 178
 private sphere, 12, 202, 211, 236 probate inventories, 123–6 declining valuations of, 144 development of tableware revealed
 in, 132
 in declining towns, 153 limitation of, 126
 nondurables invisible in, 154 representation of lower classes in, 150–54
 the stock-flow problem of, 147–8 timepieces in, 3 treatment of clothing in, 133 prodigality
 Mandeville’s view of, 63
 Smith’s view of, 69 product innovation, 136 productivity growth, before nineteenth century, 82
 proletarianization, 99–101 Protestant Reformation, influence on days of labor, 87
 proto-industry, 96
 as form of labor intensification, 104 as a mode of production, 100 role of women and children in, 97 theories of, 97–103
 prudence, 70
 public goods, demand for, 192 public health, 191–2 public sphere, 49, 205
 genteel leisure within, 173

 Quakers, material culture of, 172
 Quetelet, Adolphe-Lambert, 106

 radio, 264
 ready-made clothing, 105 in England, 141
 real wages, 28–9, 82–5, 120 in nineteenth century, 189 recognition, 59. See also regard recognizability, 155 regard, 59–61, 63
 remittances, 229 republican thought, classical, 43
 Dutch, 50, 58, 59
 respectability, 22, 178, 189, 196, 199 restaurants, 261
 retail shops, 106, 169 retailing networks, 169 retailing revolution, 169 retailing system, 175, 180 retirement, 244, 250
 Revolt of the Early Modernists, 7
 Ricardo, David, 74
 Richards, Eric, 206
 Riehl, Wilhelm Heinrich, 186
 Ringen, Stein, 259
 Robertson, John, 63
 Roche, Daniel, 128, 135, 139, 142
 Rorabaugh, William, 167
 Rose, Sonya, 208
 rotation systems, 82
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 64
 Rowntree, Seebowm, 203, 235 rum, 166–7

 Saint Monday, 92
 saints’ days, 87–8
 Saito, Osamu, 79
 Samuelson, Paul, 20
 Sandgruber, Roman, 132
 Schama, Simon, 53 school enrollment rates, influence on labor force, 253 school leaving, mean age of, 245
 Schor, Juliet, 42
 Schumpeter, Joseph, 13
 Schuurman, Anton, 127

- Scitovsky, Tibor, 21–4
- Scotch stores, 171
- Scott, Joan, 11, 100, 211
- Secombe, Wally, 204, 205, 207
- second industrious revolution, 238–41, 268
- application to Europe, 245
 - demographic setting of, 240
 - explanations of, 268–70
 - income inequality in, 256–8
 - motto of, 245
 - reconstituted servanthood in, 266
 - role of television in, 265
- secondary poverty, 203
- secondhand clothing, 140
- secondhand goods, decline of, 144
- Segalen, Martine, 102
- self-love, 59–61, 62–4, 68
- Sen, Amartya, 215
- separate spheres, 101, 103, 205, 209, 214
- servanthood, reconstituted, 266–7
- servant-keeping household, 186
- servants, domestic, 263
- as agents of emulation, 51
 - demand for, 128, 180, 198, 213, 225
 - essential for comfort, 178
 - primary users of household appliances, 263
- shadow prices, 14, 28, 211, 258
- Shammas, Carole, 144, 169
- Sharpe, Pamela, 101
- Shaw, Sir Charles, 193
- Simmel, Georg, theory of fashion, 46
- Smith, Adam, 6, 25, 41, 68–71, 72
- Smith, Woodruff, 22, 32
- on concept of taste, 45
- Snell, Keith, 206, 226
- soap, consumption of, 197
- sociability, 172, 178, 260
- commercialized, 173
- social capital, 194
- erosion of, 261, 264
- social comfort, demand for, 22
- social sorting, 256
- social stratification, 99
- socially provided private goods, 49
- sociology, explanations for family weakness, 241
- Sombart, Werner, 47
- Sound Toll Registers, 161
- Southern Netherlands, retail shops in, 170
- Spanish chair, 130
- Stafford, Frank P., 258
- Staffordshire, potteries in, 131
- Stale Bread Act, 168
- Stalinist growth, 112
- Stamp Act, 173
- standard of living debate, 84, 86
- stature, 110, 190, 232
- in United States, 180
- Steckel, Richard, 180
- Steuart, Sir James, 65, 67, 154, 176
- street lanterns, 128
- strong pooling system, 228
- structural–functionalism, 11, 241
- students, participation in labor force, 251
- Styles, John, 142, 144, 153, 176
- sugar, 151, 155, 159
- European consumption of, 158
 - North American demand for, 163
- Sugihara, Kaoru, 79–80
- sumptuary legislation, 46, 134
- Sung dynasty, 155
- sustainability, 272
- Sweden, consumption of alcohol in, 233
- Szreter, Simon, 191
- taste groups, 149
- taste
- concept of, 44, 60
 - as fashioned by elites, 149
- tea, 100, 151, 153, 156, 159
- in the Chesapeake region, 151–2
 - European consumption of, 158
 - North American demand for, 162
 - sweetened, 31–2
- Tea Act, 173
- technological innovation, role of demand in, 138
- television, 264–5

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More information

326

Index

- Thirsk, Joan, 97
 Thomas, Janet, 206
 Thompson, E. P., 113, 186 threat points, 215, 236 threshold model, 219
 Tilly, Louise, 11, 100, 208, 211 time-use studies, 91, 258 tobacco, 153, 157–8, 161
 European consumption of, 158
 Tokugawa Japan, industrious revolution in, 78
 Townshend Duty, 162, 173 trade unions, 208–9 transaction costs, 71, 122, 176 tropical products consumption levels by region, 159
 European demand for, 155
 Ulysses, 115
 United States Commissioner of Labor, 220 United States alcohol consumption in, 167, 234
 demand for servants in, 198
 employment of married women, 248–51
 labor force participation of students in, 253
 labor force participation rates in, 243
 working hours of college educated in, 257
 See also North America unpurchasability, 189
unterbauerliche Schichten, 99 urban society, as stimulant to emulation, 48
 urbanization, 90, 93, 128 utility, 20–25, 30, 69, 199, 202, 215–16, 259, 265 of cash income, 164 utility of poverty doctrine, 66, 116
 Valenze, Deborah, 207
 Van Ceulen, Abraham, 1–2
 Van den Eeckhout, Patricia, 219
 Van der Heijden, Jan, 128
 Van der Werf, Ysbrand, 90
 Van Effen, Justus, 50
 Varlez, Louis, 219
 Veblen, Thorstein, 22
 Viardi, Liana, 101
 Vickery, Amanda, 206
 Vienna
 coffee consumption in, 161
 sugar consumption in, 160
 Vincent, David, 231
 Vorarlberg, 178
 Voth, Hans-Joachim, 89–92, 112, 119 wage labor, 102 importance of, 82
 Walsh, Lorena, 127, 151
 water supplies, 197
 Watson, John Fanning, 150 weak pooling system, 228 wearing apparel, demand for, 133–44
 Weatherill, Lorna, 125, 150
 Weber, Max, 15, 23, 41, 99
 Wedgwood, Josiah, 132
 Weesp, probate inventories in, 132
 Weir, David, 232 welfare state, 239
 West European Marriage Pattern, 8, 16–19, 81 whaling, 129 whiskey, 167
 Whittle, Jane, 125 wife's wage, 230–31
 Wijzenbeek, Thera, 149
 Winch, Donald, 70 wine, 165 women bargaining power of, 179 exclusion from market labor, 205–10 leading role in luxury consumption, 47, 48 married, deployment of labor of, 212–13, 219 withdrawing labor from market, 199 women's earnings, nonwage sources of, 223

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71925-4 - The Industrious Revolution: Consumer Behavior and the Household Economy, 1650 to the Present

Jan de Vries

Index

More informationIndex

327

- women's labor force participation rates, 103, 207, 213
- women's market labor, supply of, 251
- women's work, golden age of, 98, 103, 211, 214
- work intensity, 110
- work week, decline of, 244
- working hours, relationship to earnings per hour, 256–8
- working-class family, 186
 - change in, 188
- working-class women, need to civilize, 207
- Wrigley, E. A., 106
- Yemen, 156
- York, budget studies of, 235
- Young, Allyn, 72
- Z-commodities, 26–31, 36, 40, 122, 145, 169, 189, 192, 194, 201–2, 223, 236, 246, 263
 - in fifteenth century, 91