

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	page x
Table of cases	xii
Introduction	1
Part I Rights	11
1 The classic conception of rights: the “democratic deficit”	13
2 Reflexive rights: jeopardizing freedom, equality, and democratic debate	24
Part II Justification in theory	39
3 The turn to justification	41
4 A theory of justification: specifying the appropriate legislative purpose	60
5 Rejecting rights	93
Part III Justification in practice	119
6 Rejecting the constitutional rights to property and religion	121
7 Rejecting the constitutional right to privacy	145
8 Equal protection and judicial review	165
Conclusion	189
Bibliography	191
Index	202