Index

0-station, 75, 79, 183
41 week inductions, 203
42 week term of pregnancy, 118, 159 abnormal labor. See also dystocia definition, 91

acceleration phase Friedman doctrine, 70
acidemia/acidosis, 210 blood lactate concentration, 219 diagnosis, 213, 218
fetal distress diagnosis, 212, 219 fetal heart monitoring, 210
fetal scalp blood sampling, 218–19
hypoxic brain injury, 213
meconium relationship, 213, 217, 218
perinatal asphyxia, 226, 228
ACOG. See American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists action potentials, 62
activation of the myometrium, 61 active labor
establishing, 24
active management of labor, 96–7, 111, 253–6 acupuncture
pain relief, 153
addiction opioid effect on child, 165 admission to delivery unit labor onset criteria, 72
adrenalin
effects in labor, 57
adverse effects. See side effects American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) augmentation duration limit, 144 American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists

(Cont.)

- birth asphyxia definition, 226
- cesarean sections, 10, 46, 47, 198, 216
- fetal heart monitoring, 221
- Friedman curve, 71, 73
- amnion-infusion, 221
- amniotic sac pushing on cervix, 63
- amniotomy, 138–40
- active management of labor, 96, 97
- advantages to mothers, 128
- augmentation of labor, 63, 64, 67, 99
- current confusion, 138
- evidence-based use, 140
- in dysfunctional labors, 127
- indications, 139
- induction of labor, 67
- meconium detection, 217
- normalizing labor, 91
- parous labor, 147
- primary ineffective labor, 178
- reluctance, 72
- routine, 97, 138–9, 254
- safety, 139
- secondary arrest of dilatation, 179
- selective, 91, 138, 139–40
- analgesia. See epidural analgesia; opioids; pain relief
- antenatal classes, 157–8
- antenatal ward
  - false start, 117
- antiemetics
  - opioid co-use, 165
- anxiety
  - effects in labor, 57, 58
  - pain relationship, 150
  - psychological harm, 28, 29
  - stress response, 131
- Apgar scores, 138, 146, 226
- applause phenomenon, 42
- around the clock services, 21, 23, 24, 231
- artificial rupture of membranes. See amniotomy
- asphyxia. See fetal hypoxia
- asynclitism, 180, 190, 196
- audit, 241–3
- dystocia diagnosis, 188
- fetal hypoxia, 222
- importance, 102
- inductions, 207
- mechanical birth disorders, 199
- augmentation of labor. See also amniotomy; oxytocin
  - advantages, 67
  - advantages to mothers, 128–9
  - attitudes, 24
  - controlled trials, 253, 254
  - current confusion, 138
  - delayed, 186
  - early intervention, 127–9
  - evidence-based approach, 141–5
  - fetal effects, 32
  - induction distinction, 140, 144, 186–7
  - methods, 63, 64, 67, 138–48
  - oxytocin, 141–5
- auscultation
  - fetal heart rate monitoring, 215
  - average dilatation curve
    - Friedman doctrine, 70
  - avoiding diagnosis of labor, 115
- bathing
  - pain relieving, 153, 154
- bear down reflex
  - delayed after full dilatation, 76, 181
  - first stage/second stage labor transition, 75, 76, 79, 90
- beginning of labor. See onset of labor
- behavioral responses
  - pain reactions, 151
- bias
  - clinical evidence, 102, 140, 253, 254
  - patient information, 43–4, 45
  - perceived preferences, 247
- biochemistry
  - prelabor preparation, 60, 61
- biological factors, 55–8
- biophysics of birth, 59–68, 141
- birth asphyxia. See perinatal asphyxia; fetal hypoxia
- birth buddies. See doulas
- birth canal
  - right angle curved shape, 79, 80
- birth experience
  - important factors, 154–5
- birth partners. See also doulas
  - fathers/family/friends, 136
- birth plans
  - importance, 98
birth process
comprehension, 11
birth weight shoulder dystocia relationship, 198 birthing stools, 82, 184 Bishop scores, 67, 203, 204 black cloud psychology. See negative psychology bloody show
diagnosing labor, 111, 112, 116
Braxton Hicks contractions, 61
definition, 85
labor pain distinction, 112, 114 breast feeding endorphins, 56
breech births, 46, 147, 184
brow presentation, 198

CAPS. See contraction-associated proteins caput formation, 185
caput succedaneum, 73, 75, 127 cardinal movements
fetal head, 185
cardiocography (CTG), 210, 215, 216
cord compression, 211
fetal distress, 212
interpretation, 218
normal, 212 care providers. See professionals catastrophic complications subsequent pregnancy after cesarean, 13 causal diagnosis
fetal distress, 220
dystocia, 176
central direction organizational reform, 232
cephalic presentations abnormal situation distinction, 190 cephalopelvic disproportion (CPD). See also mechanical birth disorders; fetopelvic disproportion
definition, 190
dilatation relationship, 74
misconceptions, 180
overdiagnosis, 191
prelabor prediction, 192
rarity, 77
cerebral palsy, 9, 212, 225–6
cerebrospinal fluid
spinal puncture, 167
certified doulas. See doulas cervix
accessibility versus dilatation, 85, 112 cervical edema, 171, 181 dilatation patterns, 70–4 effacement, 60, 71
effacement-dilatation process, 85–6 prelabor transformation, 60–1 priming, 67, 118, 204
resistance to uterine force, 62, 63, 65 ripeness assessment, 203, 206 ripening, 60
cesarean sections
after full dilatation, 76, 183
economic damage, 14
epidural effects on rates, 168 excessive use, 9–10
failed augmentation, 144
induction relationship, 202, 206, 207 meconium/fetal distress, 217 parity in future labors, 106 perinatal mortality, 13, 27
physical harm, 12
pre-operative tocolysis, 221 preventing emotional trauma, 127 rates, 9, 246, 250
subsequent pregnancies, 12, 106
third world countries, 15
clear amniotic fluid
fetal assessment, 217
clinical ambiance, 30–1 clinical errors, 109, 112, 115, 220
diagnosing labor, 115–16
hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy, 228 preventing, 228
clinical evidence, 3
actively managed labor, 128
assessment of systems, 39
augmentation, 141
evidence-based versus concept-based approach, 49
grading, 3
resistance, 46–7
use and misuse, 49, 102, 253–6
coaching approach, 100, 115, 126 co-drugs
opioids, 165
comparative biology, 55–8 complete dilatation. See full dilatation Computed Tomography, 192 concept-based approach versus evidence-based approach, 49 conceptual flaws, 11
consultative outpatient care midwife-led hospital birth, 148 consumerism
maternal attitudes, 43
continuous electronic monitoring. See cardiotocography continuous support, 131–7 best practice, 133–6
birth experience relationship, 154 coping with pain, 154 current practice, 131–2
doulas, 135–6
duration of labor relationship, 131, 133
importance, 100
prelabor information, 160 contracted pelvis, 191. See also pelvic deformity; cephalopelvic disproportion contraction-associated proteins (CAPS), 61, 141 contractions
assessment, 64
behavioral responses, 151
biophysics, 62
definitions, 84
efficiency, 63, 66, 68, 88 fetal oxygenation effects, 65 surveillance during augmentation, 145
controlled trials
misuse, 253, 254–5
convenience
cesareans, 45
cooperation between professionals, 132 coordination
uterine contractions, 62–3
cord. See umbilical cord costs. See also economic issues failure of normal labor, 11–15
CPD. See cephalopelvic disproportion
CTG. See cardiotocography cultural issues, 4, 36–7, 152 cytokines cervical ripening, 60
disorganized uterine action, 66
daily morning report, 241 dark cloud psychology. See negative psychology debriefing

after birth, 161
deceleration phase fallacy, 73
Friedman doctrine, 70, 72
decision-making importance to women, 154 defensive medicine, 227
definitions, 20, 84–92
deflexion attitude
fetal head, 180
delayed augmentation refractory uterus, 141, 146
delayed rotation expulsion failure, 185
delivery ward
function, 231
obstetricians’ experience, 47–8
organizational reform, 230–2
volume, 231
demerol. See pethidine descent of fetus
completing dilatation, 73
first stage / second stage labor transition, 75
descent phase. See wedging phase
first stage labor, 73
diagnosis
labor disorders, 20 screening distinction, 214 diagnosis of labor, 72, 110–19
diagnostic techniques overuse, 28
dilatation assessment of progress, 64, 67
definition, 85–6
descent of fetus, 74
diagnosing labor, 112
normal patterns, 70–4, 89 dilatation curve, 70, 71 dilatation rate average, 123
monitoring, 123–6
normal labor, 72
recognizing dysfunctional labor, 127
discontinuous care
during labor, 22
midwife-centered systems, 38 modern trends, 131–2 negative effects, 151
disorganized uterine action
causes and effects, 66
exhausted uterus, 64 division of professions, 35–40 documentation, 31, 123–5
audit, 241
labor diagnosis, 113–14
legal issues, 228
Doppler auscultation, 215
doulas, 100, 133, 134, 135–6
drug-free pain relief, 153 Dublin, 95, 97, 255
due date
problems, 118, 159
duration of labor
advantages of shortening, 128–9 amniotomy relationship, 139, 140
cesareans, 144
consequences, 105–6 continuity of care relationship, 131, 132, 133
definition, 122
epidural analgesia, 171
fetal distress, 105
Friedman doctrine, 71
long labor prevention, 121–30
normal labor, 72, 121, 122
nulliparous versus parous labor, 105
other mammals, 55
pain relationship, 151
prelabor information, 160
problems assessing, 72 prolonged labor effects, 122 quality assessment, 246
time limits, 100
Dutch system. See also Netherlands midwifery-centered care, 36–9 dynamic dystocia, 19, 175–89 early recognition and correction, 177
importance, 23
nulliparas, 107
nulliparous versus parous labor, 65, 105
prevalent non-management of early problems, 177 primary ineffective labor, 176–9 types, 176
dynamic phase
first stage labor, 73
dynamic versus mechanical factors in labor, 77 dystocia. See also mechanical birth disorders; dynamic dystocia
cesareans, 10
early intervention, 127–9
early recognition, 99
incorrect diagnosis of labor, 116 meaning, 19, 20, 175
need for definitions, 84 nulliparas, 65
oxytocin resistant, 64
stress effects, 57, 58
early assessments of labor
importance, 125
early support
one-to-one care, 134
economic issues
cesareans, 14, 46, 135
continuous care, 135
epidural analgesia, 169
proactive labor support, 234 professional liability insurance, 227 ectopic pregnancy, 14 education. See also prelabor preparation; personal education; antenatal classes medical, 205
medical professionals, 47–9 public, 44
effacement of cervix, 60, 65, 70
definition, 85
diagnosing labor, 71, 86, 87, 112
dilatation relationship, 86–7
prior to labor, 71 effective contractions
definition, 88
elective cesareans, 10
convenience, 45
demand, 43–4
preventing pelvic floor damage, 43 subsequent pregnancies, 106
electrical aspects contractions, 62
electrical vibration
cervix, 63
electromechanical coupling
action potentials, 62
electronic fetal heart rate monitoring. See cardiocotography
index

Elisabeth Hospital in Tilburg, The Netherlands, 250 embarrassment, 184
emotional behavior
  pain reactions, 151
emotional impact labor experience, 12
emotions
  home births, 237
endocrine systems
  prelabor preparation, 60
endorphins, 56, 150
environmental factors, 56, 57, 132, 152
epidural analgesia, 166–72
diagnosis of labor, 118
direct adverse effects, 167 effectiveness, 166
improper use, 171
indirect adverse effects, 168
opioid comparison, 152
patient demand, 43
prelabor commitment, 160, 161, 170 push-reflex relationship, 181 rates of use, 166
risks, 167
timing, 171
usage rates, 160
use in long labor, 24
equipment
  emergency precautions, 167 nonpharmacologic pain relief, 153 estrogen levels
  prelabor preparation, 60, 61
ethical issues, 45–6
ethnicity issues, 192
evidence-based approach
  assessment of systems, 39
augmentation of labor, 141–5
bias and distortion, 102 evidence grading, 3
misuse, 49
proactive support of labor, 97
resistance, 46–7
use and misuse, 253–6
versus concept-based approach, 49 exhaustion. See maternal exhaustion; refractory uterus expectant approach
  first stage labor, 22, 24, 107
expectations
  antenatal classes, 157
  labor experience, 155
expulsion reflex
  delayed after full dilatation, 76, 181
  first stage/second stage labor transition, 75, 76, 79, 90
expulsion stage
  failure, 196
  failure in nulliparas, 183–5
  failure in parous labor, 185 full dilatation relationship, 181, 182 expulsive forces fetal head movement, 81, 185 overcoming soft tissue resistance, 80, 81
  second stage labor, 77
failed augmentation
  definition, 144
failed labor
  iatrogenic causes, 19–25 failure to progress
  after full dilatation, 76
  cesareans, 10
  late first-stage labor, 74 meaning, 19
false negative diagnosis labor, 115
false positive diagnosis labor, 116
false positives
  fetal heart monitoring, 210
false start to labor, 71, 116–18 family
  labor support, 136
  family practitioners, 5 fathers
    labor support, 136
faulty internal rotation misconception, 81
fear
  after traumatic first labor, 104
  effects in labor, 57
  of isolation, 133
  pain relationship, 150
  stress response, 131
feedback. See audit female companion
  labor support, 131, 136
fertility
cesarean effects, 14
fetal adaptations descent, 75
fetal assessment
hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy prevention, 228 opioid effects, 164
fetal care
intrapartum, 210–22
fetal care versus maternal care, 31 fetal compromise
inductions, 207
fetal deflexion attitude, 190, 196
fetal distress
amniotomy, 140
causal diagnosis, 220
definition, 212
disorganized uterine action, 64, 66, 68
interventions, 220–1
normal stress distinction, 211
nulliparous versus parous labor, 105
oxytocin, 146
screening versus diagnosis, 214
fetal effects
epidural analgesia, 167
opioids, 164–5
fetal head
assessing position, 127 extension, 80
floating, 139, 192
malposition, 108
pushing on cervix, 63 rotation, 79, 80–1
sinciput attitude, 81
fetal head descent
completing dilatation, 73–4
first stage /second stage labor transition, 75
fetal heart rate
cardiotocography, 210, 216
cord compression, 211
intermittent auscultation, 215
monitoring, 215–16
ominous patterns, 218
surveillance during augmentation, 145
fetal hypoxia. See also hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy cord compression, 212
diagnosis, 218–20
fear of causing, 32
inter-contraction uterine hypertonia, 66, 106
monitoring, 210
normal labor, 211
fetal intolerance
oxytocin, 146
fetal lactate concentration, 219 fetal macrosomia
induction, 192, 203
parous labor, 106, 108, 180
prediction, 29, 193
shoulder dystocia, 198
fetal malposition, 190. See also mechanical birth disorders obstetric rarities, 198
parous labor, 108
secondary arrest in parous labor, 180 fetal monitoring, 214–18
diagnosis distinction, 214 disadvantages, 30
during augmentation, 145
epidural analgesia, 169
fetal obstruction
expulsion stage, 185
oxytocin, 147
fetal occiput position assessment, 126 fetal oxygenation
during labor, 65–6
fetal pulse oximetry, 219 fetal scalp blood sampling, 213, 218–19, 228
fetal stress normal, 211
fetal trauma
hypoxia versus instrumental delivery, 32 oxytocin risks, 146–7
fetal trigger uterine transformation, 59 fetopelvic disproportion. See also cephalopelvic disproportion dilatation relationship, 74
nulliparous labor, 181 time of effect, 82
fetoplacental assessment labor onset, 215
fever
epidural analgesia, 168
first labor. See nulliparous labor first labors
proactive support of labor, 99
Index

first-stage labor, 70–8
- arrest after full dilatation, 181
cord compressions, 211
dynamic dystocia, 176–83
dynamics/mechanics, 73–5 ever intervening for problems, 127–9 monitoring progress, 125–7 normal dilatation patterns, 70–4 occiput posterior, 195
professional approach, 21, 22, 24 second-stage transition, 75–7, 79, 90
first-stage labor disorders
- surgical intervention, 10 first stage of labor
- passive approach, 23
flexion
- fetal neck, 75
- floating fetal head, 139, 192 forceps deliveries, 10, 24
free blood in utero
- disorganized uterine action, 66
Friedman doctrine, 70–3, 90
friends
- labor support, 136
fright, fight or flight response
- adrenalin effects, 57 full dilatation
- first-stage/second-stage labor transition, 75, 76, 90
mechanical birth disorders, 194
secondary arrest, 181–3 full term of pregnancy, 118, 159 functionally full dilatation
- misnomer, 194
funding. See economic issues gender issues, 235
general anesthesia
- opioid effects, 164
- genetic imprinting, 165 gestational age
- inductions, 203
good contractions
- definition, 88
grading
- evidence, 3
- meconium, 214, 217
grassroots system reforms, 234 harmful practices
- birth care, 27–33
- HCF. See head-to-cervix force headache
- epidural analgesia, 167
- head-to-cervix force (HCF), 63 Healthy Person 2000 project, 246
Hendricks, Charles, 70, 71, 72 high instrumental delivery. See instrumental deliveries:
- before expulsion reflex
- high-dose oxytocin
- benefits, 143
history
- Active Management of Labor, 95–7
- birth attendants, 131
- cerebral palsy, 225
- early midwifery practices, 121
- early obstetrics, 121
- mechanistic views, 23
Holland. See Netherlands home birth
- amniotomy, 140
- augmentation of labor, 148
- discontinuous care, 131
- importance of environment, 57
- managing dysfunctional labor, 127
- managing false starts, 117
- midwifery-centered systems, 36–8
- organizational reforms, 237–9
hormone systems
- prelabor preparation, 60
hospitals
- annual reports, 248
- statistics, 248–52
- variations in care, 20
- year reports, 243
hour of birth prediction, 126, 152
husbands
- labor support, 136
- hyaluronidase
- cervical injections, 63
- hydrocephaly, 74
- hyperflexion
- fetal neck, 75
- hyperstimulation
- oxytocin, 143, 145
hypertonia. See inter-contraction uterine hypertonia hypertonic dystocia, 66, 108, 187–8, 217, 220 hypertonic uterine dysfunction, 187 hypnosis
pain relief, 153
hypotension
epidural analgesia, 167
hypotonic uterine dysfunction, 187 hypoxia. See fetal hypoxia hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy, 219, 226, 228
iatrogenic effects
failed labor, 19–25
impaired uteroplacental blood flow, 210 causes, 211, 212
epidural analgesia, 167
interventions, 221
indecision
diagnosing labor, 114–15, 117
individual education. See personal education individualized pain management, 171 inducibility
cervical assessment, 203
cervical priming, 204
induction of labor, 202–8
augmentation distinction, 140, 186–7 direct iatrogenic harm, 202 disadvantages, 66, 101
effects, 23
elective, 43, 108
failure, 186
fetal macrosomia, 192
in second pregnancy, 108 indications, 206–7
indirect adverse effects, 205
latest date of delivery, 118
oxytocin, 144, 146
priming, 204
problems, 19
prostaglandins, 118
technique evaluation, 206 uterine rupture, 106
ineffective labor
early recognition, 125
information. See patient information; prelabor preparation informed consent
during labor, 159
epidural analgesia, 172
opioids, 165
prelabor, 160
insecurity
pain relationship, 150
instrumental deliveries
before expulsion reflex, 76, 90, 182
before full dilatation, 195
failed expulsion, 183
fetal injuries, 32
maternal injuries, 32
mechanical birth disorders, 195
parous labor, 185
rates, 10
insufficient placental reserves, 210 integrated system
clinical evidence, 253–6
intensive care
importance, 135
inter-contraction uterine hypertonia, 86, 106
fetal hypoxia, 212
meconium detected, 217
inter-contraction uterine relaxation electromechanical basis, 62
fetal oxygenation, 65, 66
interhospital comparisons, 248–52
intermittent auscultation
fetal heart rate monitoring, 215
internal audit, 241–3 internal rotation
fetal head, 80–1
international variation, 9, 36, 227–8 interns, 4
inter-spinal line. See 0-station interval uterine relaxation
fetal oxygenation, 65, 66
interventional components
active management of labor, 96
intoxication
opioids, 164
intradermal water blocks, 153 intrapartum fetal care, 210–22
intrapartum fever
epidural analgesia, 168
intrauterine infection
amniotomy, 139, 140
disorganized uterine action, 66
epidural fever confusion, 168
risks, 106
ruptured membranes, 113 intrauterine pressure measurement
  disadvantages, 145
  fetal distress, 146
  meconium detected, 217
  oxytocin effects, 144
  uterine action assessment, 63, 64, 88 intrauterine resuscitation, 221
intravenous administration
  oxytocin, 142
isolation fear and anxiety, 30, 133 kneeling delivery position, 82
labor assistants. See doulas labor companions
  doulas, 133, 135–6
  fathers/family/friends, 136
  personal nurses, 133, 135 labor pains. See contractions; pain labor room nurses
  definition, 5
labor support specialists. See doulas labor ward
  function, 231
  organizational reform, 230–2
laborist-obstetricians, 235 laborists, 4
lactate
  fetal scalp blood, 219
lactic acid
  myometrium, 64, 66, 141, 186 language. See verbal precision late pregnancy
  biophysical preparation of uterus, 59–62 cervical effacement/dilatation, 71 iatrogenic false starts, 118 priming the cervix, 118 stripping/sweeping membranes, 118 latent phase duration, 139
  fallacy, 71, 89, 114, 140
  Friedman doctrine, 70, 71, 72
  partograms, 125
Latest Date of Delivery, 118
leadership, 242 league tables
hospital quality, 251
legal issues
  induction guidelines, 203
  liability concerns, 9, 30, 45, 227–9
  litigation prevention, 225–9 professional liability, 233 levator ani muscle, 183 life-threatening complications
    epidural analgesia, 167
  light epidurals, 168 litigation
    prevention, 225–9
  long labor. See duration of labor long term effects on infants
    cesareans, 14
  low-dose epidurals, 168
  low-risk labor
    birth problems, 38
malpractice instrumental extraction, 91 litigation prevention, 225–9
mammals birth process in other species, 55–6, 57, 90 pain in other species, 56 massage, 153
maternal attitudes
  demand for intervention, 43 maternal exhaustion. See also refractory uterus effects, 22, 24, 25
  failed expulsion, 183
  second stage, 76, 77, 82
maternal hypertension
  induction, 203
maternal hypotension
  epidural analgesia, 167
maternal morbidity/mortality
  cesareans, 12
  increase, 9, 13
  instrumental delivery, 32
  mortality rates, 9, 27
  patient information, 46
maternal movement
  pain relieving, 153
maternal position
  second-stage labor, 82, 184
maternal satisfaction, 97, 154, 239, 245, 247, 255 maternal side effects
  opioids, 164

maternal surveillance
during augmentation, 145

maternal temperature increase edpidural analgesia, 168
maximal cervical relaxation, 181
full dilatation relationship, 195

mechanical disorders, 190–200 dangers, 194–6
diagnosis, 190
dynamic dystocia distinction, 175 expulsion failure, 196–7
fallacies, 191
nulliparous labors, 193–4 obstetric rarities, 198
parous labors, 107, 194
parous versus nulliparous labor, 180 prelabor CPD prediction, 192 rarity in first labors, 107 shoulder dystocia, 198–9

mechanical phase
first-stage labor, 73, 76

mechanics-oriented approach, 23–5

meconium
aspiration risks, 213, 218
disorganized uterine action, 66
fetal distress relationship, 213 fetal monitoring, 217
grading, 214, 217
myometrial effects, 213 meconium aspiration syndrome, 213 medialized systems midwives’ role, 36

membranes
rupture before oxytocin use, 141 spontaneous rupture, 113 stripping/sweeping, 28, 117, 118, 238 unruptured sac pushing on cervix, 63 meperidine. See pethidine meta-analyses of clinical trials interpretation problems, 49

midwife-centered care
augmentation of labor, 148
discontinuous, 131
Dutch system, 36–9

midwifery services proactive support, 233

midwives
amniotomy at home, 140
attitudes, 35, 36, 96
autonomous midwifery systems, 36–9 continuity of care, 132
definition, 5
education, 48
limitations on intervention, 37 oxytocin administration, 144, 148
prelabor preparation, 159
relationships with obstetricians, 148 role in medialized systems, 36 role in organizational change, 231 role in proactive supported labor, 101 working relations with obstetricians, 35–40, 237

Montevideo units, 88, 92, 145, 187 morale boosting
doulas, 135
hour of birth prediction, 152
information in labor, 126 morning report, 241

mother–child bonding
endorphins, 56

motor ability impairment
edpidural analgesia, 168
molding of fetal head, 185

MRI, 192

multiparas. See also parous labor
definition, 106
nulliparas differences, 99 multiple pregnancies, 147 myometrial activation, 65 myometrial gap junctions, 62, 65 myometrial transformation, 61–2, 66, 202

naloxone, 164

National Maternity Hospital in Dublin, 255 National Obstetric Peer Review, 251 natural process

expectant approach, 22

nausea
epidural analgesia, 167
opioids, 164

negative experience of labor affecting subsequent pregnancies, 104–5 negative psychology, 28–30, 159, 160, 178

neonatal. See also perinatal
| neonatal brain damage. See hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy | O'Driscoll, Kieran, 72, 95–7, 170, 253, 254, 255 |
| neonatal morbidity. See also cerebral palsy cesareans, 13, 46 | obesity cesarean risks, 12 |
| opioids, 164 | OB-hospitalists, 4 |
| neonatal mortality cesareans, 13–14 | objective outcome measures, 245 |
| legal claims, 225 | obstetric quality ranking, 251 |
| neonatal intensive care, 27 | obstetric rarities, 198 |
| neonatal neurological sequelae | obstetrical abnormalities |
| perinatal asphyxia, 226 unsuitable for proactive support of labor, 98 |
| neonatal sepsis evaluation | obstetricians |
| epidural related fever, 168 attitudes, 21 |
| Netherlands, 38, 128 attitudes to augmentation of labor, 138 |
| hospital obstetric quality ranking, 251 authority, 232 |
| nociceptive stimuli, 151 definition, 4 |
| nomenclature | education, 47 |
| phases of first-stage labor, 73 gender, 235 |
| non-engaged fetal head. See floating fetal head: job dissatisfaction, 234 |
| engaged head | laborists, 235 |
| nonpharmacological pain relief, 153 proactive support role, 233 |
| normal labor | relationship with community midwives, 148 |
| definition, 20, 36, 91 role in organizational change, 230 |
| placental reserves, 211 traditional patient–doctor relationships, 234 |
| nulliparous labor | working relations with midwives, 35–40, 237 |
| augmentation risk factors, 147 obstetrics services |
| duration, 105 current crisis, 234 |
| dynamic dystocia, 64–5 obstructed labor. See mechanical birth disorders |
| following prelabor cesarean, 106 obstructive dystocia |
| immunity from uterine rupture, 106 definition, 190 |
| mechanical birth disorders, 193–4 occiput posterior, 81, 180, 190 |
| oxytocin, 141 first-stage labor, 195 |
| versus parous labor, 64–5, 104–9 second-stage labor, 197 |
| nurse-midwives one-to-one care. See personal continuity; continuous support |
| role in medicalized systems, 36 onset of labor, 62 |
| nurses cervical dilatation, 71 |
| induction burden, 205 definition, 71–2, 87 |
| oxytocin administration, 144 diagnosis, 110–19 |
| prelabor preparation, 158, 159 importance of recognition, 99 |
| role, 5 routine amniotomy, 138 |
| role in labor, 100, 101, 133, 134 self-diagnosis, 87, 110, 113 |
| role in organizational change, 231 symptoms, 111–13 |
| support of epidural patients, 169 unprofessional language, 87 |
| nursing (breast feeding) opioids, 163–6 endorphins, 56 |
| nursing services effectiveness, 163 |
| audit, 243 long-term effects on child, 165 |
| proactive support, 232 neonatal effects, 164 |
pain relief, 152
pethidine substitutes, 164, 165 use in first stage, 24 use rates, 163
organization
importance, 102
organizational reforms, 230–40
Oxford study
augmentation of labor, 128
oxytocin, 140–1, 141–5
advantages to mothers, 128
arrest after full dilatation, 182
augmentation of labor, 63, 67
current confusion, 138
dosage, 138, 143–4
duration of administration, 144 failure of expulsion reflex, 76 frequency of use, 128
home births, 148
induction failure, 186
induction of labor, 67
intravenous administration, 142
later labor, 142
misconceptions, 140
misuse, 141, 185
mothers’ attitudes, 144
normalizing labor, 91
parous labor, 108, 147
primary ineffective labor, 178
rates of use, 142
refractory uterus, 141, 146, 185–6
rules for use, 142
rupture of uterus, 106
safety, 142
second-stage labor, 81, 185
secondary arrest of dilatation, 179
selective use, 127 timing after amniotomy, 139 timing of use, 107
with epidurals, 169
oxytocin receptors, 61, 64 oxytocin-resistant dystocia, 64, 186 pacemakers
uterine contractions, 61, 62
pediatric morbidity
cesareans, 13
pain, 150–6
behavioral responses, 151
coping strategies, 101
diagnosing labor, 111
functions, 56, 150
insecurity/anxiety relationship, 150
oxytocin relationship, 144 physical effects, 151
prelabor information, 155, 160
satisfaction with birth experience, 154
second-stage labor, 151
pain relief. See also epidural analgesia; opioids medical, 152, 163–72
medication rates, 150
nonpharmacological measures, 153 versus sedation, 118 pains. See contractions; pain panic, 151, 152, 171, 181 parasympathetic system, 57, 108, 131
parous labor
after cesareans, 106
amniotomy risks, 140, 147
arrest after full dilatation, 183
definition, 106
effects of previous trauma, 104
epidural analgesia, 170
mechanical birth disorders, 194
mechanical problems, 107
oxytocin risks, 141, 147
prelabor education visits, 160
rupture of uterus, 106
secondary arrest of dilatation, 180
uterine rupture, 106
versus nulliparous labor, 104–9 partners
labor support, 136
partograms, 114, 123–5, 125
patient debriefing, 243 patient information. See also prelabor preparation bias, 43–4, 45
during labor, 126–7
patient-controlled analgesia (PCA), 165 patient–doctor relationships, 234 PCA. See patient-controlled analgesia peer review, 241
pelvic architecture
first stage, 74
second stage, 77, 79
pelvic capacity, 79
pelvic deformity, 198 pelvic floor disorders, 43–4 expulsion reflex, 75, 79, 90, 183, 184
fetal head passage, 79, 80, 81, 197
instrumental delivery, 10
pelvic muscles relaxation, 81, 82 pelvic phase
first-stage labor, 73, 76
perinatal. See also neonatal perinatal asphyxia. See also hypoxic-ischemic encephalopathy; fetal hypoxia

cerebral palsy, 225
definition, 226
use of term, 226
perinatal outcomes. See also cerebral palsy audit, 243
cesarean effects, 10
cesarean rate relationship, 246
clinical errors, 220, 228
hypoxic brain injuries, 101 infection, 210
instrumental birth injuries, 10 intrapartum fetal care, 210–22
legal claims, 227
litigation prevention, 225–9
midwifery-centered systems, 38
mortality rates, 9, 27, 246
quality assessment, 246, 251
shoulder dystocia, 190
perineum manual stretching, 184
personal attention
importance, 100, 132
personal continuity, 131–7
personal education, 158–61
personal nurses, 133, 135, 145, 232 personal relationship with doulas, 135 pethidine, 163–5. See also opioids PgE2. See prostaglandin E2 pH
fetal scalp blood, 213, 218
pharaoh head, 185
phases of first-stage labor alternative view, 73
Friedman doctrine, 70
philosophies of birth, 35
physical harm
infants, 13–14
mothers, 12–13
placenta. See also impaired uteroplacental blood flow circulatory competence, 210
fetal oxygenation, 65
placental abruption, 212 placental failure
meconium relationship, 217
placental reserve capacity
fetal oxygenation, 65
positioning aids, 82, 153, 184 post-term pregnancy
induction, 203, 207
post-term pregnancy/postmaturity induction, 207 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 12, 151 prediction of vaginal delivery early dilatation rates, 127 pre-eclampsia
induction, 203
pregnancy. See also late pregnancy prelabor education visits, 159
selecting doula, 135
prelabor agreements, 101, 126, 162 prelabor biophysical changes, 110
prelabor cesareans. See elective cesareans prelabor prediction
cephalopelvic disproportion, 192
prelabor preparation, 157–62, 158
antenatal classes, 157–8
epidural analgesia, 172
importance, 30, 100
information, 155, 159
mismatched with labor room, 184
personal education, 158–61
recognizing labor, 113 training groups, 161
prelabor rupture of membranes (PROM), 113, 139 prenatal diagnosis, 28 pressure. See also intrauterine pressure measurement pressure/force distinction contraction quality, 88 primary abnormal situations, 190 primary ineffective labor, 90, 176–9
professionals
applause phenomenon, 42–3
classification, 4
transfer to hospital, 39
continuity of care, 131–7
psychosocial influences
discontinuous care, 131–2
pain, 152
failure, 20–3
liability, 233
negative psychology, 29
responsibilities, 110–11, 113, 119, 233 training, 47–9, 205
progesterone levels
prelabor preparation, 60, 61
progesterone assessment on partograms, 123 progression definition of labor contractions, 85
labor diagnosis, 112
surveillance during augmentation, 145
prolonged labor. See also duration of labor fetal outcomes, 32
first-stage importance, 98 impacts, 122
prevention, 121–30
staff effects, 31
stress effects, 57
traditional management, 22 PROM. See prelabor rupture of membranes promethazine, 165 promises, 101, 108, 158, 160, 161, 247. See also prelabor agreements propagation contraction waves, 62
prostaglandin E2 (PG\text{E}2), 61, 67, 141, 178
prostaglandins
augmentation of labor, 63
cervical priming, 118, 204
induction of labor, 67
uterine rupture, 106
protocol criteria
proactive support, 98, 147, 190
provider-centered practice, 234 pruritus
epidural analgesia, 167
psychological harm

discouraging stories, 29 failure of normal labor, 11
negative messages, 28–30 prolonged labor, 123 traumatic first labor, 104
transfer to hospital, 39
psychosocial influences

pain, 152

psychovegetative regulation

labor, 56–7

PTSD. See post-traumatic stress disorder pushing ineffective technique, 184 reflex. See bear down reflex too early, 181, 182, 183 quality

assessment, 245–7, 248–52
control, 43, 102
decline, 15

reassurances, 160 record keeping, 31, 123–5
audit, 241
labor diagnosis, 113–14
legal issues, 228
rectum, 183 manual pressure, 184
refractory uterus, 64, 141, 146, 185–6
rehabilitation
after traumatic birth, 160 relationship with caregivers
importance, 154
relaxin administration, 63 remifentanil patient-controlled analgesia, 165 remuneration practices
cesareans, 46
repeat cesarean rates, 9, 12 residents
continuity of care, 132
definition, 4
role in organizational change, 231 resistance to change, 47 resources
cesareans, 14
reallocation from cesareans, 102, 135 respiratory depression maternal effects of opioids, 165 neonatal effects of opioids, 164, 165 retraction phase
first-stage labor, 73
rickets, 19, 74, 77, 191, 198 right to choose, 43, 45–6, 46 routine amniotomy, 97, 138–9, 217, 254 routine rituals, 28
rules adherence, 142
eyearly labor, 119
oxytocin use, 142
rupture of uterus, 106, 170
ruptured membranes. See also amniotomy before oxytocin use, 141 onset of labor, 113
safe environment biological need, 56
safety
amniotomy, 139
home births, 38
importance, 101
oxytocin, 142
satisfaction with childbirth, 97, 154, 239, 245, 247, 255 scale delivery ward volume, 231 screening
fetal monitoring, 214–18
second-stage labor, 79–83
cord compression, 211, 212
dynamics/mechanics, 77, 81–2
expulsion failure, 196
failure in nulliparas, 183–5 fetal head rotation/extension, 80–1 focus of professionals, 23
maternal position, 82
mechanical birth disorders, 194
occiput posterior, 197
pain, 151
professional intervention, 10, 24
tocolysis, 221
transition from first stage, 75–7, 79, 90
secondary arrest
at full dilatation, 181–3 before full dilatation, 179–81
first-stage labor, 74
parous labors, 107, 147
secondary protraction
first-stage labor, 74
secondary slow labor progression, 90
sedation
false start, 117, 118
in labor, 118, 165
opioid side effects, 164
use in long labor, 24
sedatives
opioid co-use, 165
self-diagnosis of labor, 110, 113 self-fulfilling prophecies mechanical birth disorders, 192
shivering
epidural analgesia, 167
shoulder dystocia, 195, 198–9 show, bloody
diagnosing labor, 111, 112, 116
side effects
opioids, 152, 164–5
oxytocin, 142
sigmoid curve
Friedman doctrine, 70, 71
sinciput attitude
fetal head, 81
sitting delivery position, 82, 184
social effects medicalized childbirth, 14 societal changes, 235
soft tissue resistance
expulsion stage, 76, 80, 81, 183, 197
sonography. See ultrasound scans specialized pillow, 82, 184 spinal injection epidural anesthetic, 167 spinal tap, 167
spontaneous labor advantages over induced labor, 66
augmentation, 67
spontaneous rupture of membranes
diagnosing labor, 111
squatting
delivery position, 82, 184
staff consensus, 230
STAN. See ST-segment analysis standard multiparas
hospital statistics, 249
standard nulliparas hospital statistics, 249
standards lack of consistency, 20
statistics
encouraging induction, 203 hospital comparisons, 248–52 normal duration of labor, 122 stillbirths
clinical errors, 228
legal claims, 225, 227
straight line
dilatation progress over time, 72, 73, 90, 123 stress
biological effects, 57
causes, 28, 30, 57
stripping. See sweeping/stripping membranes ST-segment analysis (STAN), 219
subsequent pregnancies
cesarean effects, 12
induction, 108
sum of the parts
clinical evidence, 253–6
supine position delivery, 82
epidural analgesia, 167
supportive elements
active management of labor, 96
suppression of labor
stress effects, 57
sweeping/stripping membranes, 28, 117, 118, 238 sympathetic responses, 108, 151, 167, 194 symptoms
onset of labor, 111–13
tachysystole, 145, 146, 221
target group
proactive support, 98, 147
teamwork
importance, 136
TENS. See transcutaneous electrical nerve stimulation termination of pregnancy
audit, 242
induction decision, 206 territorial disputes. See professionals: working relations The Healthy Person 2000 Project, 246
third-world countries, 15
time limits
duration of labor, 100
time of day affecting care, 21, 23, 24, 231 timing of assessments, 125
tocolysis
intrauterine resuscitation, 221
pre-cesarean, 221 traditional patient–doctor relationships, 234 training. See education; prelabor preparation; professionals: education
prelabor preparation, 158, 161
tranquillizers
opioid co-use, 165
transcutaneous electrical nerve stimulation (TENS), 153
transfer to hospital
disturbing birth process, 57
from midwife-centered care, 38 transvaginal ultrasound cervical assessment, 203
transverse arrest, 197
misconception, 81
trust for professionals, 117
twin births, 147
UK Maternity Care Working Party, 91 ultrasound scans, 28, 29, 192
cervical assessment, 203
umbilical cord compression, 146, 210, 211–12, 220 amniotomy risk, 140
interventions, 221
monitoring, 210, 220
transient, 211
uncoordinated dystocia. See hypertonic dystocia understaffing problems, 31 unengaged head. See also floating fetal head at onset of labor, 140
unruptured membranes
oxytocin use, 141
pushing on cervix, 63
upright delivery positions, 82, 184 USA
international comparison, 36, 227–8 uterine action surveillance during augmentation, 145
uterine force
expulsion stage, 185
oxytocin, 81, 141
physics of labor, 62, 63, 65 uterine hypertonia. See inter-contraction uterine hypertonia uterine relaxation medication
intrauterine resuscitation, 221
uterine-scar related complications, 13 liability concerns, 9
patient information, 45
rupture of uterus, 106
uteroplacental blood flow. See impaired uteroplacental blood flow uterus. See also refractory uterus inter-contraction hypertonia, 66, 106
oxytocin effects, 141
prelabor preparation, 59–60 rupture, 106, 147, 170, 180
tachysystole, 145, 146, 221

vacuum deliveries, 10, 24, 195 vaginal birth after cesarean (VBAC), 9, 12, 46, 106 vaginal discharge. See bloody show vaginal examination causing bloody show, 112, 113 false starts, 118 frequency in first stage, 88 importance in early labor, 125, 126 number required, 127
problems, 28
vasodilatation

epidural analgesia, 167
VBAC. See vaginal birth after cesarean verbal precision, 84–92 voiding difficulties
epidural analgesia, 167
walking epidurals, 168
water intoxication
oxytocin, 142
wedging action
completing dilatation, 73
secondary arrest of dilatation, 179
thrusting force on cervix, 63 wedging phase
first-stage labor, 73–4, 127
mechanical birth disorders, 194
WHO partograms, 125
women’s preferences, 237
women’s rights, 43
women-friendly policy
augmentation of labor, 128
year reports, 243
zero beat-to-beat variability
fetal heart rate, 218