Contents

---

Preface
page xiii

Table of cases
xv

Table of statutes
xxxvi

Section I Approaching Criminal Law

1 Images of Criminal Law
3

   a. Theories of criminal law: history, sociology and philosophy 5
         i. Explaining criminal law
         5
         ii. Justifying criminal law 9
         iii. The power of criminal law 13

2 Criminal Laws in Context
19

   a. Social norms 20

   b. Shaping criminal law 28

   c. Constructing crime: processing suspects and offenders 33
         i. Institutions, people and practices 34
         ii. Investigating crime 37
         iii. Prosecuting crime 51
         iv. Constructing crime in the trial 52
         v. Sentencing and punishment
         59

3 Foundations of Criminal Law
72

   a. Due process and human rights 72
         i. Legal ideology and the rule of law 74
         ii. The presumption of innocence: in search of ‘the golden thread’ . . .
         79
         iii. Miscarriages of justice 91

   b. Concepts in criminal law 94
         i. ‘Actus reus’
         98
         ii. ‘Mens rea’
         104
Contents

iii. The ‘actus reus’/‘mens rea’ combination 117
iv. Exemption, justification and excuse 119
v. Inchoate offences and participatory liability 123

Section II Law, Order and Security

4 Social and Political Constructions of Disorder

a. Conceptions of disorder 135
b. Legitimate protest or moral panics? 138
c. Problem populations 141

5 Securing Order: Pre-emptive Measures

a. The trend towards preventive justice 144
b. Breach of the peace: arrest and binding over 146
   i. Arrest 146
   ii. Binding over 147
c. Football banning orders 149
d. Anti-social behaviour orders 155

6 Public Order: Control Mechanisms

a. Controlling mass assemblies 161
   i. Marches and demonstrations 161
   ii. Trespass 171
b. Riot, violent disorder and affray 176
   i. Outline of offences 176
   ii. Common elements 178
   iii. Mental element 181
c. Harassment offences 181
   i. Public Order Act 1986 181
   ii. Protection from Harassment Act 1997 189
d. Hate crimes 192

7 Criminal Law and Justice: Emerging Themes

a. Territory, technology, youth 198
b. Public order and criminal law 205
c. Public order and criminal process 214
d. Thematic summary 225
Section III Interpersonal Violence; Drug and Alcohol Abuse; Offence Preparation and Participation

8 Offences Against the Person

- a. The framework
  - i. Assault and battery
  - ii. Occasioning actual bodily harm, wounding and grievous bodily harm
- b. Boundary issues
  - i. Psychiatric harm
  - ii. Consent
  - iii. Disease transmission
- c. Practice and reform
  - i. Crime patterns
  - ii. Charging practice
  - iii. Reforming offences against the person

9 Drug and Alcohol Abuse: Legal Constructions of a Social Problem

- a. Drug and alcohol control
  - i. The nature of the problem
  - ii. Prohibition and regulation
- b. Intoxication and criminal responsibility

10 Offence Preparation and Participation

- a. Preparation
  - i. Attempt
  - ii. Conspiracy
  - iii. Assisting and encouraging
  - iv. Inchoate liability, impossibility and patterns of criminality
- b. Participation
  - i. Aiding and abetting
  - ii. Joint enterprise

Section IV Property and Propriety

11 Defining and Defending Private Property

- a. Conceptions of property in social and political thought
- b. Shoplifting
- c. Occupational and ‘white collar’ crime and conceptions of fraud
- d. Burglary
Table of Contents

12 Constructing Property in Criminal Law

1. Theft
   1. The history of theft
   2. Contemporary conceptions of theft: ordinary language through the looking glass . . .
2. Fraud
3. Conspiracy to defraud
4. Burglary
5. Criminal damage
6. Duress, necessity and property
7. Respect for property?

13 Property Rights and Criminal Enforcement

1. Crime prevention
   1. Situational prevention
   2. Diversifying and privatising control
   3. Money laundering
2. Enforcement patterns: ‘real’ crime and ‘intangible’ property

Section V Regulating Sexuality and Bodily autonomy: A Crisis of Trust and Intimacy?

14 The Social Construction of Sexuality and Bodily Autonomy

1. Attitudes to sexuality and autonomy
2. Sexual freedom and sexual discipline

15 Sexual Violence

1. Sexual violence and the criminal process
   1. A continuum of violence
   2. Investigating and prosecuting sexual violence
2. The offence of rape
   1. Penile penetration
   2. Rape and marriage
   3. Consent, belief and mistake – the background
   4. Consent, belief and mistake – the 2003 reforms
   5. Evidence and the rape trial
   6. Punishing rape
3. Respect for property?

16 Regulating Sexuality

1. Forbidden degrees
   1. Ages of consent
Table of Contents

17 Criminalising Healthcare Choices 596
a. Reproductive crimes? 596
   i. Contraception and abortion 596
   ii. Surrogacy arrangements 613
   iii. Human fertilisation and cloning 616
b. Euthanasia 618
   i. Respect for life and death 618
   ii. Consent and necessity 623
   iii. Assisted suicide 626
   iv. Avoiding reform 636

Section VI Making a Killing: Conceptions of Violence

18 The Social Construction of Violence and Personal Harm 643
a. Conceptions of violence 643
b. Domestic violence 645

19 The Criminal Regulation of Public Safety 654
a. Regulation in context 654
   i. Road traffic 654
   ii. Work hazards 659
b. Characteristics of regulatory offences 661
   i. Offence labels 661
   ii. The prevalence of strict liability 662
   iii. Enforcement models 670
   c. Corporate liability for crime 673
      i. The rise of corporate manslaughter 675
      ii. Vicarious and ‘direct’ liability 678
      iii. The Herald of Free Enterprise story 680
      iv. Corporate killing – the new offence 686

20 Homicide: Boundary Issues 692
a. Is killing wrong? 692
b. Medical non-treatment 697
c. Definitions of death 707
d. Causing death 708
e. Who can be killed? 717

21 Murder and Manslaughter 725
a. The penalty for murder 726
b. The mental element in murder 746
c. Reform: three tiers for homicide? 765
   i. Murder – one and two? 765
   ii. Partial defences to murder (one?) 767
   iii. Involuntary manslaughter 796
d. Self-defence 810

Bibliography 819
Index 859