

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

Index

- advertising, sexual content in, 221
 Agence France-Presse, 33, 91
 American Life project, 123 ‘Americanization.’ See also ‘L.A. effect’ cultural convergence thesis and, 285–286 of EU, through cosmopolitan communications, 43–44, 266
 globalization vs., 6
 Anderson, Benedict, 299 antiques. See visual arts, as cultural trade AOL/Time Warner, 89
 AP. See Associated Press
 Apple, 89
 al-Assad, Bashar, 162
 Associated Press, 33, 91
Audiovisual Media Services Directive, 16 audiovisual services, as cultural trade, 80, 83–90. See also motion picture industry; music, as audiovisual trade; radio; television for communication technologies, 93–95 developing nations and, as import, 87 multimedia corporations and, 89–90 trade imbalance of, 87–89
 U.S. dominance of, 83
L’Aurore, 99
 Australia embrace of globalization in, 182 public/commercial broadcasting system
 in, 10
Australian, The, 89 autocracies, civic engagement within, 238, 244
Al-Baath, 162
 ‘Bangalore effect,’ 19–21 cultural authenticity under, 21 globalization vs., 20–21
 on television industry, 34 Bangladesh, micro-credit cell phone projects in, 348
 Barber, Benjamin, 18, 289
 BBC. See British Broadcasting Corporation
 BBC World News, 33, 87, 90, 172, 181
 Berlin, Isaiah, 131–132
 Bertelsmann Corporation, 49, 91 Bhutan
 mass communications introduction in, 3–5 television’s influence in, 3–4
Big Brother, 34
Blick, 160
 Blumler, Jay, 241
 Bollywood, 12, 84–85
 Britain audiovisual services from, 83
 BBC in, 11 immigrant population in, 375 public/commercial broadcasting system
 in, 10, 139–140

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

416

Index

- British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC), 11. See also BBC World News nationalist goals of, 196–197
- BSkyB News, 90
- Burma, 163–164
 foreign radio in, 163 government control of news media in, 163–164
 Internet access in, 163
- Canada
 audiovisual services from, 83 deregulation of telecommunications in, 37–38
- Catholicism, 268–269
- CBS Corporation, 32, 89
- CCTV. See China Central TV
- cell phones
 in EU, penetration of industry in, 117 Internet usage with, 117 micro-credit projects for, 348 poverty and, access to, 114–118
 SIM cards for, 349
 ‘smart,’ 350
 usage demographics for, worldwide, 133
- cellular communications. See also telecommunications industry in developing nations, 35–36
- censorship. See also freedom of press self, within mass communications, 222–223
- China, 67, 164
 CCTV in, 164
 cultural trade from, as export, 82–83
 globalization of economy, 149 Internet censorship in, 164 suppression of news information in, 37, 164
- China Central TV (CCTV), 164
- Cisco Systems, 106
- civic disengagement, 241
 in U.S., from media exposure, 241
- civic engagement, influenced by news media, 47, 236–257. See also political values affluence and, 248–250 in autocracies, 238, 244 cosmopolitanism as influence on, 253 democracy and, 236–237, 247
- dimensions of, 245–246
- education levels and, 250–251
- freedom of press and, 242–244
- gender differences in, 248
- generational differences in, 248
- individual-level media use and, 240–244
 by individual-level use, 247–256 measurement of, 244–247 ‘media malaise’ and, 240–241 protest politics and, 247–248 social capital theory and, 241 societal factors for, 237–240
 in Syria, 243
 trends in, 273–275
 ‘virtuous circle’ thesis and, 241–242, 257 with voluntary associations, 244–247 voter participation and, 247
- CNN, 40, 87, 122
- CNN International, 33, 90
- ‘Coca-colonization,’ 5, 15, 202
- Colombia, Freedom of Information laws
 in, 140
- commercial broadcasting systems in Australia, 10 in Britain, 10 in Japan, 10
 in Luxembourg, 10
 in Switzerland, 157
 in U.S., 10
- Committee to Protect Journalists, 164
- communication technologies, 93–95 digital development’s influence on, 94
- consumer capitalism as ‘cosmopolitan’ communication, 202 jihadism as response to, 289 national identity and, Western media influence on, 171–172
 news media as messenger for, 202, 207 news media influence on, 47
 trends in, 275–278
- Corriere del Ticino*, 160
- Cosmopolitan*, 49
- ‘cosmopolitan’ communications, 8–9. See also Cosmopolitanism Index; firewall model, of cosmopolitan communications; news media audience influenced by, 12–14

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

Index

417

- 'Bangalore effect' from, 19–21
 - consequences of, 288–295
 - consumer capitalism as, 202
 - core theoretical hypotheses on, 43–51
 - cultural convergence thesis and, 288–289
 - cultural imperialism and, 289
 - cultural polarization thesis and, 289–290
 - cultural policy as result of, 287–288
 - culture wars as result of, 13
 - definition of, 136–137
 - developing nations and, influence on, 50
 - as economic market, 75–97
 - economic underdevelopment as factor in, 137–138
 - external barriers to, 137
 - firewall model of, 29–43, 298–299
 - in Freedom House index, 264
 - fusion thesis from, 76–77, 290–291
 - generational influences of, 43–44
 - indigenous value systems and, 13–14
 - interactive effects of, 49–50
 - Internet vs. radio/TV, 49
 - KOF Globalization Index for, 137, 146–147, 264
 - 'L.A. effect' from, 14–17
 - limits on media freedom in, 137
 - in Mali, 99
 - mixed method analysis of, 62–67
 - national vs., 9–12
 - 'Taliban effect' as result of, 17–19
 - through use of news media by social sectors, 44–46
 - 'water-cooler' effect, 68
 - in WVS, 50–62
 - cosmopolitan societies, 156–161
 - South Africa, 160–161
 - Switzerland, 156–160
 - trust of outsiders in, 188, 192
 - cosmopolitanism, 8, 182
 - civic engagement influenced by, 253
 - development of, 8–9
 - dimensions of, 183
 - expansion of, 261–262
 - generational differences in, 178–179
 - globalization's influence on, 173–175
 - national identity and, 171–196, 198
 - nationalism vs., 181
 - social values and, tolerance levels influenced by, 228–231, 234
 - trust in outsiders and, 184–193
 - Cosmopolitanism Index, 29, 136–167.
 - See also* Freedom House index
 - communication networks access as variable in, 151–155
 - component factor analysis of, 156
 - correlation variables within, 155
 - cosmopolitan societies in, 156–161
 - cultural convergence thesis and, 264–265, 279–281
 - economic development as variable in, 154
 - in firewall model, 30
 - Freedom House index and, 264
 - freedom of press in, 141–145
 - global market integration in, 145–151
 - KOF Globalization Index and, 137, 146–147, 264
 - nation classification in, 66
 - news media systems in, 138–141
 - provincial societies in, 161–166
 - rankings within, 156–166
 - reliability analysis in, 154–155
 - trust in outsiders as variable in, 188–193
 - types of societies in, 306–308
- Crisis of Democracy, The*, 241
- cultivation theory, 42
 - mass communications and, 231–234
 - socialization in, 220
 - cultural convergence thesis, 14–17, 261–286. See also 'L.A. effect'
 - 'Americanization' and, 285–286
 - civic engagement trends in, 273–275
 - 'cosmopolitan' communications and, 288–289
 - Cosmopolitanism Index and, 264–265, 279–281
 - cross-sectional time-series models for, 278–281, 373
 - cultural polarization thesis vs., 284
 - dimensions of values in, 267
 - economic values in, trends in, 275–278
 - generational differences in, 285
 - multilevel regression models for, for social values, 283
 - nationalism trends and, 272–273
 - religiosity trends and, 267–270

- cultural convergence thesis (cont.)
 sexual morality trends and, 270–272 SR psychological model of, 16, 299 time as factor for, 50–51, 300, 308–310 transformation of indigenous values in, 102–103 trends in mass attitudes, comparison of, 263–266 type of media as factor in, 281–282
 in WVS, 50–51, 210
- cultural diversity globalization influence on, 289 mass communications' influence on, 6–9
- cultural fusion thesis, 19–21
- cultural imperialism, 5, 14–15, 293, 332
 'cosmopolitan' communications and, 289
 globalization and, 201–202
- cultural polarization thesis, 17–19. See also 'Taliban effect'
 'cosmopolitan' communications and, 289–290 cultural convergence thesis vs., 284 development of, 18–19
 globalization and, 174
 in WVS, 210
- cultural protectionism, 222–223, 261
- cultural trade, as economic market, 75–97. See also audiovisual services, as cultural trade; Internet; motion picture industry; music, as audiovisual trade; news media; publishing industry
 'American' products in, definition of, 76–77 of audiovisual services, 80, 83–90
 commercial, 79–80
 data analysis of, 80–82 in developing vs. affluent nations, 77–78, 97 from global North to South, 95–97
 globalization of, 97 heritage goods as, 79 Internet as, 93–95 at local level, 96 middle economies' independence from, 343 at national level, 96–97
- new media as, 80, 93–95 of news/journalism, 90–93 performing arts as, 79 public opinion influenced by, 78 publishing as, 80 at regional level, 97 South Africa and, 101 television as, 85–86 total volume of, 82–83 U.S. as exporter of, 76, 82 visual arts as, 79
- culture wars, 13. See also 'Taliban effect'
- 'Dallasification,' 15
- DARPA. See Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency
- Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), 104. See also Internet
- democracy, regime change towards, news media as influence on, 236–237
 multilevel regression models for, 254–255 public support for, 247 societal factors for, 237–240 wealth of nation as factor in, 237–238
- deregulation of mass communication systems, 9 of telecommunications industry, 11 of television industry, 90, 139
- Desperate Housewives*, 40
- Deutsche Welle, 172
- developing nations. See also Mali audiovisual services as import, 87 cellular communications in, availability in, 35–36 cosmopolitan communications' influence in, 50 cultural trade as economic market in, vs. affluent nations, 77–78, 97 digital technology development and, 35 in firewall model of cosmopolitan communications, 35–37
 globalization's influence on, 148
 individual-level barriers to information in, 104, 121–126, 131 information flow and, missing data in, 108–109 information gap in, affluent nations vs., 113

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

Index

419

- information poverty in, 36–37
- Internet access in, 112–114
- mass communication systems in, 3–5, 35–37
- news media access in, 61
- protectionist trade policies in, 34–35
- radio access in, 35, 119–120
- societal-level barriers to information in, 103–104
- television penetration in, 35, 62
- trade integration in, 34–35
- Die Hard*, 40
- digital divide, 105–107, 133–134, 302
- ICTs and, 105, 107–108
- Internet access and, 110–114
- digital technologies. See also Internet communication technologies influenced by, 94
- in developing nations, 35
- ICTs and, 105
- information poverty and, from lack of access to, 104–108
- mass communication systems and, influence on, 12
- DirecTV Group, 32
- Disney/ABC, 89, 102
- Easton, David, 244
- economic markets. See cultural trade, as economic market
- Economist*, 48
- education
 - civic engagement and, 250–251
 - news media usage and, 44–45, 125
- Eisenstein, Sergei, 85
- ‘electronic colonialism,’ 15
- ‘electronic imperialism.’ See cultural imperialism
- Elle*, 49
- English
 - as dominant language on Internet, 94–95
 - as language of new media, 45–46, 127
- ethics, mass communication systems’ influence on, 222
- European Audiovisual Observatory, 70, 75, 85
- European Union (EU). See also Britain; Finland, newspaper usage in; France; Germany; The Netherlands, deregulation of telecommunications in; Norway, newspaper usage in; Sweden, newspaper usage in “Americanization” of, through cosmopolitan communications, 43–44, 266
- cell phone penetration in, 117
- cultural trade markets and, as exports, 76
- decline of national identity within, 176–178
- European Values Survey in, 52
- globalization of economies within, 150
- Internet access within, 111–112
- Maastricht Treaty in, 176–177
- ‘media malaise’ in, 241
- motion picture industry in, 85
- protectionism policies in, against U.S. culture, 5, 293–294
- public broadcasting corporations in, 9–10
- public opinion on globalization within, 204–219
- television in, U.S. content dominance in, 85–86
- Television without Borders in, 294
- Television without Frontiers in, 85
- European Values Survey, 52
- Facebook, 145
- Falling through the Net*, 122
- Fassbinder, Rainer, 85
- Fellini, Federico, 85
- Figaro, Le*, 11
- Finland, newspaper usage in, 58
- firewall model, of cosmopolitan communications, 29–43, 298–299. See also trade, integration of
- Cosmopolitanism Index in, 30
- developing nations in, 35–37
- learning barriers in, 38–43
- suppression of information in, as state policy, 37–38
- trade integration as part of, 30–35
- Foreign Policy* (Kearney), 145
- Four Theories of the Press* (Siebert/Peterson/Schramm), 138
- Fox, Vincente, 264
- Fox Corporation, 89

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

420

Index

- France
 ‘Americanization’ of, public opinion against, 266
 audiovisual services from, 83
 cultural trade from, as export, 83
 free trade agreements, trends in, 275 Freedom House index, 57, 141–145 Cosmopolitan Index and, 264 economic environment as variable in, 142 legal environment as variable in, 141–142
 political environment as variable in, 142
 WPF Index vs., 142–143
 Freedom of Information laws, 140 freedom of press, 132 in Burma, 163–164
 in China, 37, 164
 civic engagement and, 242–244
 in Cosmopolitanism Index, 141–145 in firewall model, of cosmopolitan communications, 37–38
 in Freedom House index, 141–145
 Freedom of Information laws and, 140
 Human Rights Watch and, 160–161, 163
 in Mali, 98
 in Press Freedom index, 141 in South Africa, 160–161
 in Switzerland, 157
 in Uzbekistan, 140
 Friedman, Thomas, 18 fusion thesis, from ‘cosmopolitan’
 communications, 76–77, 290–291
- Galtung, Johan, 15
 gender differences in civic engagement, influenced by news media, 248
 news media usage and, 45, 125, 302
 General Electric, 89 Germany
 audiovisual services from, 83
 cultural trade from, as export, 82 nationalism in, historical legacy of, 272
- Giddens, Anthony, 24, 173 globalization, 199–219. See also Washington consensus
- ‘Americanization’ vs., 6 arguments for, 291–292 in Australia, public embrace of, 182
 ‘Bangalore effect’ vs., 20–21
 ‘Coca-colonization’ from, 5, 15, 202 cosmopolitanism influenced by, 173–175
 cultural diversity influenced by, 289
 cultural imperialism and, 201–202
 cultural polarization thesis and, 174, 289–290 of cultural trade, 97 developing nations and, 148 economic aspects of, 6 economic protectionism vs., 292–295 of EU economies, 150 features of, 199–200 free trade as result of, 204 historical development of, 6–7 individual success values and, in multilevel regression models, 214–215
 international backlash against, 203
 KOF Globalization Index, 137, 146–147, 151
 of mass communication systems, 6–8
 ‘McDisneyization’ from, 15, 202
 ‘McDonaldization’ from, 5, 15, 202 of motion picture industry, 10 of multimedia corporations, 12 NAFTA and, 206 nationalism after, 272 of news media, 10 political dimensions of, 6 political resistance as result of, 175 public opinion on, 204–209, 219 of recording music industry, 10 renewed nationalism as result of, 174–175, 179–180
 right-wing economic attitudes about, multilevel regression models for, 217–218 social aspects of, 6 of U.S. economy, limits to, 150 Washington consensus and, 202–205 in WVS, public opinions on, 208–219
 Globalization Index, 231
 ‘glocalization,’ 20, 297
 Google, 89, 106, 117

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

Index

421

- Hart, Roderick, 241
Al-Hayat, 162
Herald Tribune, 48
 heritage goods, 79
 Hermann, Edward S., 47, 171
 Human Rights Watch, 160–161, 163
 Huntington, Samuel, 18
 hybridization thesis. See fusion thesis, from ‘cosmopolitan’ communications
- ICTs, 105 digital divide and, 105, 107–108
 in Mali, 100
 productivity gains through, for affluent nations, 106 social inequalities in access to, 134 socioeconomic factors for use of, 123–124
 in South Africa, 100 income, news media usage and, 45, 125
Independent, L’, 99 India
 deregulation of telecommunications in, 37–38 globalization of economy, 149 information flow cross-national trends for access to, 108–110, 113
 digital divide and, 105–107, 133–134, 302
 from global North to South, 95–97 individual-level barriers to, in developing nations, 104, 121–126, 131 on Internet, development of, 94, 104–105 licensing policies for access to, 132 missing data and, 108–109
 Network Readiness index for, 109 ‘social information gap’ and, 121 societal-level barriers to, in developing nations, 103–104 information gap, between affluent and developing nations, 113 information poverty, 36–37 digital technology access and, 104–108
 as state policy, 37–38
 International Labor Organization, 157
 International Monetary Fund, 304
 International Network for Cultural Development, 19 International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX), 98 Media Sustainability Index and, 353–354
 International Social Survey Programme (ISSP), 181 International Telecommunications Union (ITU), 57, 80, 106, 133 Internet
 affluence as factor in use of, 61, 122–123
 in Burma, 163
 cell phones and, 117
 in China, 164
 as cultural trade, 80, 93–95
 in developing nations, access to, 112–114
 development of, 330
 diversification of news sources on, 93–94 English as dominant language on, 94–95 within EU, access to, 111–112 individual-level pattern use of, 128 as information source, 94, 104–105
 in Mali, 98–99
 as news source, 48, 58, 93–94 online population expansion for, 133 poverty and, as factor for access, 110–114 radio/TV vs., in cosmopolitan communications, 49 restriction of, 48
 sexual content on, 221
 in Syria, restricted use in, 162–163
 IREX. See International Research and Exchanges Board
 ISSP. See International Social Survey Programme
 ITU. See International Telecommunications Union
- Japan
 nationalism in, historical legacy of, 272 public/commercial broadcasting system in, 10 Al Jazeera, 7, 12, 162
 jihadism, rise of, 289

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

422

Index

- Kearney, A. T., 145
 'knowledge gap,' 121
 KOF Globalization Index, 137, 146–147, 264 economic variable in, 146 geographic spread of globalization in, 151 political variable in, 146 social variable in, 146
 Kurosawa, Akira, 85
- 'L.A. effect,' 14–17. See also cultural imperialism indigenous cultural values eroded by, 14 landline telephones, access to, 114–118
 Lang, Gladys, 240
 Lang, Kurt, 240 language, news media usage and, 45–46, 127 learning, from mass communications, 38–43 cultivation theory and, 42 erosion of national culture from, 40 interpersonal contact as factor for, 39–40 reinforcement of national values from, 40–42 social psychological barriers to, 39 in socialization theories, 41
 'uses-and-gratification' theories and, 41 libertarian news media, 138
 Lipset, Seymour Martin, 237
 Luxembourg, commercial broadcasting systems in, 10
- Maastricht Treaty, 176–177, 206, 294
 Mali, 67, 98–99, 165–166
 'cosmopolitan' communications in, 99
 freedom of press in, 98
 in global economic market, 165
 ICTs in, 100
 Internet services in, 98–99
 IREX rating for, 98
 news media in, 165
 poverty in, 165 publishing industry in, 99 telecommunications industry in, 98 television/radio penetration in, 98 mass communication systems. See also cellular communications; motion picture industry; telecommunications industry; television
 'cosmopolitan,' 8–9
 cultivation theory and, 231–234 cultural diversity influenced by, 6–9
 deregulation of, 9
 in developing nations, 3–5, 35–37
 digital technologies' influence on, 12 for entertainment/culture, 7 ethical values influenced by, 222
 globalization of, 6–8 learning from, 38–43 morality influenced by, 220–235 multiple forms of, 7–8 religion and spirituality in, 222 sexual socialization influenced by, 220–222 social tolerance levels influenced by, 222 social values influenced by, 224–226, 231, 300, 303–305 technology developments for, 11 voting behavior influenced by, 41
- Matin, Le*, 160
 McChesney, Robert W., 47, 171
 'McDisneyization,' 15, 202
 'McDonaldization,' 5, 15, 202
 McPhail, Thomas, 15
Media Are American, The (Tunstall), 15 Media Freedom Index, 231
 'media imperialism.' See cultural imperialism
 'media malaise,' 240–241
 in EU, 241
 'virtuous circle' thesis vs., 242–243 Media Sustainability Index, 353 independent media in, 354 Merton, Robert, 8 micro-credit projects, for cell phone distributions, 348 Microsoft, 89, 102, 106
 Mill, John Stuart, 247 morality cultural protectionism and, 222–223
 dimensions of, 225
 mass communications' influence on, 220–235

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More informationIndex

423

- multilevel regression models for, 232–233
 - news media's influence on, 47, 78, 171
- motion picture industry
 - Bollywood, 84–85
 - in EU, 85
 - globalization of, 10
 - sexual content in films, 221
 - trade integration of, 30
 - U.S. dominance of, 83–85
- multimedia corporations, 12
 - audiovisual services and, 89–90
 - in publishing industry, 49
 - trade integration by, 32–33
- Murdoch, Rupert, 89, 91
- music, as audiovisual trade, 80
 - market dominance of, by nation, 83
 - sexual content in, 221
- Myanmar. See Burma
- NAFTA. See North American Free Trade Agreement
- Al-Nahar*, 162
- national identities, 171–198
 - BBC and, 196–197
 - consumer capitalism and, Western media influence on, 171–172
 - cosmopolitanism and, 171–196, 198
 - decline of, within EU, 176–178
 - definition of, 180
 - generational differences for, 178–179
 - globalization's influence on, 174–175, 179–180
 - international relations and, Western media influence on, 172
 - NATO role in, 178
 - news media use and, at individual level, 193, 196
 - positive feelings for, 193–196
 - United Nations' role in, 174, 178
 - value systems and, Western media influence on, 171
 - in WVS, 182–184
- nationalism
 - civic forms of, 180
 - cosmopolitanism vs., 181
 - definition of, 180–181
 - ethnic forms of, 180
 - in Germany, historical legacy of, 272
 - globalization's influence on, 272
 - in Japan, historical legacy of, 272
 - multilevel regression models of, 194–195
 - trends in, 272–273
 - trust in outsiders and, 184–193
 - in U.S., 272
- nationalists, 182
- NATO. See North Atlantic Treaty Organization, national identity influenced by
- NBC Universal, 32
- negative liberty, 132
- Negroponte, Nicholas, 348
- Netherlands, deregulation of
 - telecommunications in, 38
- New Corporation, 32, 49, 89, 91
- New World Information Order, 15, 293
- New York Post*, 89
- New York Times*, 122
- news media. See also newspapers; radio; television
 - Agence France-Presse, 33, 91
 - Anglo-American model, 139
 - AP, 33, 91
 - authoritarian systems, as type of, 138
 - in Burma, government control of, 163–164
 - in China, government control of, 37, 164
 - civic disengagement influenced by, in U.S., 241
 - civic engagement influenced by, 47, 236–257
 - classification of, 166–167
 - commercial, 139
 - comparison of systems, 138–141
 - consumer capitalism as message within, 202, 207
 - in Cosmopolitanism Index, 138–141
 - as cultural trade, 90–93
 - democratic participation influenced by, 236–237
 - Democratic-Pluralist model, 139
 - in developing nations, access to, 61
 - education levels and, as factor in use of, 44–45, 125
 - English language and, as factor in use of, 45–46, 127
 - foreign ownership of, 91
 - gender as factor in use of, 45, 125, 302

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

424

Index

- news media (cont.)
- generational differences in use of, 45, 125, 302
 - globalization of, 10
 - income levels and, as factor in use of, 45, 125
 - individual-level use of, trust in
 - outsiders from, 189–192, 197
 - international, development of, 90
 - through Internet, 48, 58, 93–94
 - levels of exposure to, 57–58
 - libertarian, 138
 - in Mali, 165
 - ‘media malaise’ of, 240–241
 - Mediterranean model, 139
 - monitoring of, in WVS, 57–61
 - moral values influenced by, 47, 78, 171, 220–235
 - national identity from, at individual level, 193, 196
 - through newspapers, 58
 - in print, 48–49
 - public opinion influence by, 45
 - public service model for, 139
 - through radio, 48–49, 58
 - religious trends from use of, 267–270
 - Reuters, 33, 91–92
 - in Russia, 164–165
 - social class and, as factor in use of, 125
 - social sectors’ use of, 44–46
 - social tolerance as learned behavior from, 47
 - socially responsible press, as type of, 138
 - society types and, as factor for
 - influence of, 300, 306–308
 - in South Africa, access to, 99
 - Soviet Communist model of, 138
 - support of consumer capitalism
 - influenced by, 47
 - in Switzerland, 157–160
 - in Syria, government control of, 162–163
 - through television, 48–49, 58
 - trade integration of, in firewall model, 30–32
 - types of, influence by, 48–49, 306
 - types of users for, 299–300, 303
 - U.S. dominance of, 90–91
 - use of, by nation, 58–60
 - in ‘virtuous circle’ thesis, 241–242, 257
- newspapers
- access to, poverty as factor in, 120–121
 - individual-level pattern use of, 128
 - in Nordic countries, high use of, 58
 - socioeconomic background as factor
 - for consumption of, 122
 - usage of, as sole news source, 58–61
 - in WVS, 53
- Nielsen Audience Research, 70
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 206
- North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), national identity
 - influenced by, 178
- Norway, newspaper usage in, 58
- Nye, Joseph, 15, 202
- Obama, Barack, 7, 290
- Office, The*, 34
- ‘One Laptop per Child,’ 348
- ordinary least squares (OLS) regression,
 - in WVS, 66–67
- paintings. See visual arts, as cultural trade
- panel corrected standard errors (PCSE), 67
- PCSE. See panel corrected standard errors
- performing arts, as cultural trade, 79
- Peterson, Theodore, 138
- Pew Global Attitudes Project, 181
- Pew Internet, 123
- Pew Research Center for People and the Press, 62
- U.S. patriotism and, 360
- polarization. See cultural polarization
- thesis
- political values
 - in democracies, 254–255
 - multilevel regression models for, 252
 - types of societies and, by media use, 249
- Pop Idol*, 34
- pornography, on Internet, 221
- positive liberty, 132
- Postman, Neil, 241

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

Index

425

- poverty, 98–135. See also information poverty cell phones and, access to, 114–118
 digital divide and, 105–107
 digital technology access and, 104–108 individual-level barriers to information and, 104 information access and, cross-national trends for, 108–110, 113 Internet access and, 110–114 landline telephones and, access to, 114–118
 in Mali, 165
 newspapers/publishing and, access to, 120–121 radio access and, 119–120 societal-level barriers to information and, 103–104 televisions and, access to, 118–119
 Press Freedom Index, 141 Program on International Attitudes, 181 propaganda on radio, 40
 Why We Fight, 40
 protectionism policies Audiovisual Media Services Directive in, 16
 in developing nations, 34–35 within EU, against U.S. culture, 5, 293–294 against globalization, 292–295 under UNESCO, 293–295 against U.S. entertainment, 292–293 WTO and, 16 protest politics, 247–248 Protestantism, 268–269 provincial societies, 161–166
 Burma, 163–164
 China, 164
 Mali, 67, 98–99, 165–166
 Syria, 161–163
 trust of outsiders in, 188 public broadcasting corporations in Australia, 10
 in EU, 9–10
 in Japan, 10
 in Switzerland, 157
 public opinion, news media influence on, 45 on civic engagement, 47, 236–257 on globalization, 204–209, 219 on moral values, 47, 78 on social tolerance, 47 on support of consumer capitalism, 47 public service broadcasting liberalization of, 11, 33, 139 as news media type, 139 publishing industry
 as cultural trade, 80
 international trade imbalance in, 92–93 multimedia corporations in, 49 news media and, 48–49
 in Switzerland, 160
 UK dominance of, 92–93
 Al Qaeda, 289 radio
 access to, poverty as factor in, 35, 119–120
 in Burma, 163
 individual-level pattern use of, 128
 Internet vs., in cosmopolitan communications, 49
 in Mali, access to, 98
 news media through, 48–49, 58 propaganda concerns and, 40
 in Syria, 162
 Radio Act of 1912 (U.S.), 40
 Radio Free Europe, 172
 Radio Liberty, 172
 Radio Monte Carlo, 172 recording music industry globalization of, 10
 trade integration of, 30
 religion and spirituality, in mass communication systems, 222
 religiosity, trends in, 267–270
 Catholicism and, 268–269 economic development as influence on, 268 Protestantism and, 268–269 in Spain, 268–269
 in U.S., 269–270
 Reporters sans Frontières (RSF), 57, 142–144, 355
 WPF Index and, 142–143
Republican, Le, 99
 Reuters, 33, 91–92

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

426

Index

- Robinson, Michael, 240
- RSF. See Reporters sans Frontières
- Russia
Freedom of Information laws in, 140
news media in, 164–165
- Rustow, Dankwart, 237
- SABC. See South African Broadcasting Corporation
- satellite broadcasting, of television, 11
- Sawt al-Shaab*, 162
- Schiller, Herbert, 15, 47, 171, 201–202, 293. See also cultural imperialism
- Schramm, Wilbur, 138
- Schwartz, Shalom, 209
- sculpture. See visual arts, as cultural trade
- sexual morality, trends in, 270–272. See also social values, influenced by mass communications
- sexual socialization, 220–222
- sexuality on Internet, 221 morality and, trends in, 270–272 in motion pictures, 221
multilevel regression models for, 232–233 in music videos, 221 self-censorship of, 222–223 on television
- Siebert, Frederick, 138
- SIM cards. See subscriber identity modules cards
- Sky News, 87
- ‘smart’ cell phones, 350
- Smith, Anthony, 24, 174
- social capital theory, 241
- ‘social information gap,’ 121
- social values, influenced by mass communications, 224–226, 231, 300, 303–305 cosmopolitanism and, 228–231, 234 cultural convergence thesis and, multilevel regression models for, 283 dimensions of, 225
in Globalization Index, 231 in Media Freedom Index, 231
multilevel regression models for, 230
trends in, 270–272
‘uses-and-gratification’ theory and, 234
in WVS, 224–231
- socialization theory, 299
cultivation theory and, 220 learning from mass communications in, 41, 172 sexuality in, 220–222
- societies, classification of, 136–167. See also cosmopolitan societies; Cosmopolitanism Index; provincial societies cosmopolitan, 156–161
in Cosmopolitan Index, 306–308 news media’s influence on, by type, 300, 306–308 political values/practices of, by media use, 249 provincial, 161–166
- Sony, 102
- South Africa, 67, 99–102, 160–161
cultural trade from, 101 deregulation of media in, 160 freedom of press in, 160–161 global economic integration within, 161
ICTs in, 100
news media sources in, 99 SABC in, 160
television access in, 99–101
- South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC), 160
- South Korea, economic development changes in, 264
- Soviet Communist model, of news media, 138
- Spain, religiosity trends in, 268–269
- spirituality. See religion and spirituality, in mass communication systems
- SR psychological model. See stimulus-response psychological model
- SRG/SSR. See Swiss Broadcasting Corporation
- Stiglitz, Joseph, 202
- stimulus-response (SR) psychological model, 16, 299
- subscriber identity modules (SIM) cards, 349
- Sun Microsystems, 106
- Survivor*, 34
- Sweden, newspaper usage in, 58
- Swiss Broadcasting Corporation (SRG/SSR), 157

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

Index

427

- Switzerland, 156–160
 freedom of press in, 157
 international news media in, 157–160 public/commercial broadcasting system
 in, 157
 publishing industry in, 160
 SRG/SSR in, 157
 telecommunications in, 160
 WHO in, 157
 WTO in, 157
- Syria, 67, 161–163
 civic engagement in, 243 government control of news media in,
 162–163
 Internet use restriction in, 162–163 radio in, 162 television in, 162
Syria Times, 162 system support, as concept, 244
- Tagesanzeiger*, 160 ‘Taliban effect,’ 17–19 telecommunications industry in Canada, 37–38
 deregulation of, 11
 in India, 37–38
 in Mali, 98
 national policies for access to, 132 in the Netherlands, 38
 in Switzerland, 160
- television
 access to, poverty as factor in,
 118–119
 ‘Bangalore effect’ on, 34 in Bhutan, influence on, 3–4 in China, 164
 as cultural trade, 85–86
 deregulation of, 90, 139
 in developing nations, penetration of, 35, 62
 domestic vs. foreign productions, audience shares for, 86–87 in EU, U.S. content dominance in, 85–86
 globalization of, 10–11
 individual-level pattern use of, 128 international deregulation of, 90 Internet vs., in cosmopolitan communications, 49
 in Mali, access to, 98
 news media through, 48–49, 58 satellite broadcasting’s influence on, 11
 sexual content on, 221
 in South Africa, access to, 99–101
 in Syria, 162
 trade integration of, 30
 U.S. dominance of, 85–86
 in WVS, 53, 62–63
 Television without Borders, 294
 Television without Frontiers, 85
Al-Thawra, 162
 Time Warner, 32
Times, The, 89
Tishrin, 162
 trade, integration of, 30–35
 of audiovisual services, 30
 in developing nations, 34–35
 by multimedia corporations, 32–33 of new technologies, 32 of news services, 30–32 of public service broadcasting, 33 UNCTAD, 32
- Treaty of Lisbon, 176
- trust in outsiders within cosmopolitan societies, 188, 192 cosmopolitanism and, 184–193
 in Cosmopolitanism Index, 188–193 individual-level use of news media and, 189–192, 197
 multilevel regression models for, 190–191 in provincial societies, 188
 in WVS, 188–189
- Tunstall, Jeremy, 15
- TV Globo, 12
- UK. See United Kingdom
- UNCTAD. See United Nations Conference on Trade and Development
- UNESCO. See United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Cooperation
- United Kingdom (UK). See also Britain cultural goods from, as export, 82 publishing industry dominance by, 92–93 television in, U.S. content dominance of, 86

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More information

428

Index

- United Nations, national identity influenced by, 174, 178
- United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), 32, 57, 75
- United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Cooperation (UNESCO), 57, 75
- protectionist policy under, 293–295
- United States (U.S.) audiovisual trade dominance by, 83, 87–89
- civic disengagement in, from media exposure, 241
- commercial broadcasting systems in, 10
- cultural imperialism of, 201–202
- cultural protectionism policies against, within EU, 5, 293–294
- cultural trade and, as export from, 76, 82
- globalization of economy, limits to, 150
- nationalism in, 272, 360
- news media and, market dominance of, 90–91
- Radio Act of 1912 in, 40
- religiosity trends in, 269–270
- television industry in, ‘Bangalore effect’ on, 34
- Universal Declaration of Cultural Diversity*, 15, 294
- U.S. See United States
- ‘uses-and-gratification’ theory, 41
- social values and, 234
- Uzbekistan, freedom of speech/press in, 140
- Varis, Tapio, 15
- Viacom International, 32, 89
- video games, as cultural trade, 80
- ‘videomalaise,’ 240
- ‘virtuous circle’ thesis, 241–242, 257
- ‘media malaise’ vs., 242–243
- visual arts, as cultural trade, 79
- Vogue*, 49
- Voice of America, 172
- voter participation, 247
- voting, mass communication systems’
influence on, 41
- Al Wabdawi*, 162
- Wall Street Journal*, 89
- Walt Disney Corporation, 32
- Washington consensus, 202–205
- international backlash against, 204–205
- ‘water-cooler’ effect, 68
- Weather Channel, 117
- Westinghouse/CBS, 89
- WHO. See World Health Organization
- Why We Fight*, 40
- wireless technology, 350
- Wolf, Martin, 199
- World Bank, 304
- World Health Organization (WHO), 157
- World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS), 107, 116–117
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 75
- cultural protectionism and, 16
- in Switzerland, 157
- World Values Survey (WVS), 50–62
- cultural convergence thesis and, 50–51, 210
- cultural polarization thesis in, 210
- European Values Survey and, 52
- globalization in, public opinions on, 208–219
- media forms in, 53–57
- methodological details, 339
- national identity variables in, 182–184
- nations surveyed in, 52–55
- news media monitoring in, 57–61
- newspaper usage as variable in, 53
- OLS regression estimates in, 66–67
- parochial vs. cosmopolitan societies in, economic trends in, 275–278
- PCSE in, 67
- social values surveyed in, 224–231
- television usage as variable in, 53, 62–63
- trends in mass attitudes in, comparison of, 263–266
- trust of outsiders in, 188–189
- value change measurements as variable
in, 266–267

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-73838-5 - Cosmopolitan Communications: Cultural Diversity in a Globalized World

Pippa Norris and Ronald Inglehart

Index

More informationIndex

429

World Wide Web, 7, 95, 105. See also InternetWorldwide Press Freedom (WPF) Index, 142–143

RSF and, 57, 142–144, 355

WPF Index. See Worldwide Press Freedom IndexWSIS. See World Summit on the Information SocietyWTO. See World Trade OrganizationWVS. See World Values Survey

Yahoo, 89, 117

YouTube, 109–110, 145