

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76071-3 - Choral Fantasies: Music, Festivity, and Nationhood in Nineteenth-Century Germany

Ryan Minor

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of illustrations [page vi]

Acknowledgements [vii]

Introduction [1]

1 Choral fantasies from Beethoven to the Vormärz [8]

2 Memory and multiplicity in Felix Mendelssohn's
"Gutenberg" works [33]

3 Prophet and populace in Liszt's "Beethoven" cantatas [68]

4 Songs and states in Brahms's Triumphlied and Wagner's
Kaisermarsch [110]

5 Occasions and nations in Brahms's Fest- und
Gedenksprüche [163]

Notes to the text [199]

Bibliography [247]

Index [273]

Illustrations

- Figure 1.1 Moritz von Schwind, Eine Symphonie. Reproduced with permission from the Bildarchiv Preußischer Kulturbesitz [page 29]
- Figure 2.1 Cover page, Karl Preusker, Gutenberg und Franklin. Reproduced with permission from the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek München [54]
- Figure 4.1 Comparison of “Heil dir im Siegerkranz” and “Heil und Preis” melodies [122]