Contents

List of Figures ix
List of Tables xi
Acknowledgments xiii

1 BRANDS AS A SOLUTION TO THE MOBILIZATION DILEMMA 1
From Exchange to Persuasion 1
A Perception-Sensitive Approach to Politics 7
The Logic of Brands 13
Overview 26

2 CATALYSTS OF MACHINE DEMISE 28
Clientelism in Naples, Bogotá, and Chicago 28
Naples’s Velvet Revolution 32
Bogotá’s Institutional Transformation 45
Chicago’s Social Evolution 54
Conclusion 62

3 POLITICAL CAMPAIGNING IN THE WAKE OF THE MACHINE 65
Political Competition as Brand Promotion 65
Naples’s Production of the Catchall Leader 66
Bogotá and the Entry of Independent Mayors 74
Chicago’s Stepwise Transition 89
Conclusion 99

4 CHANGING PUBLIC MINDS 103
Persuasion and Public Opinion Mobilization in Post-Machine Politics 103

Contents

- Naples and the Strength of Support through Pride 105
- Bogotá: Daring to Dream 117
- Chicago and Discourse Adaptations across Mayoralties 135
- Conclusion 141

5 BRANDS AND MEGAPROJECTS 143
- Policy Making in Brand Politics 143
- Naples's Propagating Frames 145
- Bogotá's Megaprojects 161
- Policy Making in the Windy City 182
- Conclusion 198

6 ELUSIVE REPRESENTATION 199
- Democratic Dilemmas in Post-Machine Regimes 199
- Naples's Limits to Public Opinion Mobilization 201
- Bogotá's Institutional Impact 211
- Chicago’s Controversy 222
- Conclusion 226

7 BRAND POLITICS IN GLOBAL CONTEXT 228
- Municipal Governments in Comparative Perspective 231
- Theoretical Implications of Brand Politics: Emotions and Rationality 242

References 257

Index 275