

CONTENTS

List of Figures	page vii
Introduction: Cultural-historial understandings of motives and children's development	1
PART ONE MOTIVES, EMOTIONS AND DEVELOPMENT
1. The dynamic aspects in children's learning and development Mariane Hedegaard	9
2. The connection between motive and will in the development of personality Elena Kravtsova and Gennady Kravtsov	28
3. Advancing on the concept of sense: Subjective sense and subjective configurations in human development Fernando González Rey	45
4. Early stages in children's cultural development Vladimir P. Zinchenko	63
PART TWO CULTURAL PRACTICE MOTIVES AND DEVELOPMENT
5. The development of motives in children's play Marilyn Fleer	79
6. Developing motivation through peer interaction: A cross-cultural analysis Jose Sanchez Medina and Virginia Martinez	97

vi	Contents
7.	Developing social identities and motives in school transitions Ditte Winther-Lindqvist	115
8.	Motives matter: A cultural-historical approach to IT-mediated subject-matter teaching Kåre Stenild and Ole Sejer Iversen	133
9.	Motivation for school learning: Enhancing the meaningfulness of learning in communities of learners Willem Wardekker, Annoesjka Boersma, Geert Ten Dam and Monique Volman	153
PART THREE CREATING CONDITIONS FOR CHILDREN'S ENGAGEMENT
10.	Expertise in the children's workforce: Knowledge and motivation in engagement with children Anne Edwards	173
11.	Changing situations and motives Harry Daniels	191
12.	A conceptual perspective for investigating motive in cultural-historical theory Seth Chaiklin	209
	Index	225

FIGURES

1.1. Model of the relations between cultural tradition, practice, activity settings and children's activities as the core in a cultural-historical approach to children's learning and development	page 11
4.1. Schematical depiction of intricate relationships among internal and external forms of the word, image and action	67
5.1. The development of a work motive	84
5.2. The development of a play motive	87
5.3. The relations between play motives and learning motives in pre-school practice	93
8.1. Using IT-mediated motivation to bridge everyday knowledge and subject-matter knowledge	141
8.2. Using IT-mediated motivation to qualify everyday knowledge through core models	145
11.1. Dominance in networks of activity systems through time	205