

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More informationIndex

- absolute freedom 258
 abstraction, pursuit of 242 accord, within the manifold 33 actions 34–35
   and inclination 96
 active benevolence 49
 active moral participation 111 Addison, Joseph 120 admiration 141
 adopted virtue 47
 adventurous, the 145, 154–161 aesthetic concepts 117–118, 142 aesthetic feelings 101–115, 226 aesthetic qualities 101–102 aesthetic receptivity 111–115 aesthetic theory 121 affection, for human race 3 affective conditions, of annoyance and satisfaction 224–225
 agreeable bitterness 124–125 altruism 62
 ambition
   as root of evil 106
   as vice 107
 ambivalence of human traits 165–184 amour soi / amour propre 178, 179 Anatomy of Melancholy (Burton) 225 animality and evil 107–108
Announcement of the Organization of His Lectures in the Winter Semester 129, 250–251 annoyance, affective condition of 224–225
 anthropology 165
   from a pragmatic point of view 198, 199
   and geography 201–204
   in Observations 198–201
Anthropology from a Pragmatic Point of View 161, 199–200
 anticonsequentialism 63–67 apathy 141, 156
 appropriation 192–196
   through labor 193–195
 arch-rationalism 261
 Arnoldt, Emil 202
ars inveniendi 33
 art and reasoning 206
Astronomia Nova (Kepler) 233 attraction of the will 20
ausnehmen 227
 autonomy of reason 14
 avarice 107, 115
 Basedow, Johann Bernhard 182
 Baumgarten, A. G. 20, 28, 29–30, 33–34
   categorical imperative 78
   on flawed system of ethics 39–43 influence on Kant's works 38–56, 79 Bayle, Pierre 229–230, 233 beautiful
   actions 225–226
   aesthetic quality 101–102 and national character 198 beauty 146–150
   and nobility 53
   and virtue 3
 benevolence 3, 49, 57, 62, 67–69, 90, 114 benevolent conduct 114
 Benjamin, Walter 219
Berliner Akademie prize-essay contest 17
Bestimmung, translation of 248 body and freedom of choice 191 bonum 31, 33–34
 British empiricism 21
 British sentimentalism 69–75
 Burke, Edmund 119–120, 220, 222–223
 Burton, Robert 225–226
 Campe, Joachim Heinrich 182
 Cartesian doctrine 18
 categorical, use of term 80, 81

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

Index

279

- categorical imperative 57, 113–114
   formulating the 80–85
   foundation for 77–80, 85–97 categorical practical necessities 84 causality, concept of 188–189 children and parents 196 chimerical ethics 39, 42–48 chimerical nature of morality 175 choice spontaneous 187–188
   and will 188–189, 190–191
 choleric feeling for honour 104 choleric temperament 104–105, 150–152
 Christian morality 43
 Christianity 249–250
 civil liberty 260
 civil and natural justice 169 civilization, as human norm 241–242 civilized modernity 255 class society 190–191
 cloistered monks 158–159 collective character formation 199–200 commerce, spirit of 215 common understanding 253–254
   Kant's reliance on 257 compassion 50
 competitiveness and rivalry 107 complaisance 59, 61, 146–150, 174 compound concepts, dissolving of 28 conceitedness 153–154
 concupiscence 88, 89–90
Conflict of the Faculties 141, 166, 185
Conjectural Beginning of Human History 171 conscience, drive of (Gewissenstrieb) 23, 25 consensus 32, 83
 consequentialism 63–67
Considerations on the Government of Poland (Rousseau) 215
 consistency 84, 85
 contradiction 65–67
 contrariety 83
 corrupted powers 48–52
 cosmology 189
 critical ethics 117
 critical science of philosophy 252
Critique of Judgment 156, 184, 188, see also Critique of the Power of Judgment Critique of the Power of Judgment 109, 228, 231, see also Critique of Judgment
Critique of Practical Reason 24, 30, 55, 166, 167, 175, 176, 188
Critique of Pure Reason 166, 172, 182, 185 Crowther, Paul 124, 127–128 cruder feelings 174–176
 Crusius, Christian August, concept of obligation 21–27 cultivation and discipline, in education 184 culture of discipline 156 Damlar, Daniel 195–196
 decadence
   and luxury 240
   and science 234–246
 deep anticonsequentialism 63–67, 69 degeneration, human 251–252 Descartes 187–188
 desires 31
 despotism 185
 dignity of humanity 121, 146–150 discipline 156
   in education 184
Discourse on Inequality (Rousseau) 237–238, 260 Discourse on the Sciences and the Arts (Rousseau) 251 divided eye (observer/philosopher) 223–226 “Doctrines of Method” 167, 183 doing without, capacity for 51 domination 89
Dreams of a Spirit-Seer 13, 223 drives 26, 46, 48, 51–52, 53–54, 59, 106, 146–150, 174 duty to love 114
 eccentric 255
 education
   science of 165
   and self-interest in eighteenth century 177–184 educational reform 214 eighteenth-century, self-interest 177–184 Either/Or (Kierkegaard) 220–222
Emile (Rousseau) 177, 178, 179, 180, 181–182, 214, 235 empiricism 21
 ends (gebotten) 23
 English character 61 enlightenment for common life 199 enthusiasm 117, 132, 133–134, 138, 141, 175–176 envy 107
 equality, drive for 51–52, 53–54
Essay on the Maladies of the Head 134
Essay on Man (Pope) 17
Essays concerning the Philanthropin 213 eternal possibility 19
Ethica philosophica (Baumgarten) 29–30, 38, 39, 43
 ethical imperatives 29

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

280

ethics
 chimerical 39, 42–48
 flattering 41–42, 52–56 flawed system of 39–43
 grounding of 16–22
 Hutcheson's 35
 investigations 22
 lax 40–41, 44
 morose 41–42
 in Observations 52–56
 philosophical 43
 rigid 40–41, 44
 in universal practical philosophy 22

evil
 and animality 107–108
 and human nature 108 philosophical question of 188–189 radical 178

excitement, term 230–233 exeundum est e statu naturali 189 existence and Observations 220–222 external charms of opposite sex 230 external obligations 39–41

“fact of reason” doctrine 98 false humility 115
 false sublimity 116–143 fanatical fundamentalism 261 fanaticism 139, 140–141 moral 183

feeling 124–125
 for honor 47, 104
 passive to participatory 111–115

feminine beauty 6
 feminine characteristics 152–154 field of experience 225 finer feeling 3–4, 121–122, 228–229, 230–233

flattering ethics 41–42, 52–56 flawed system of ethics 39–43 formula of humanity 95
 free action, positive good of 92 free agency, exercise of 93

freedom
 and the body 191–192
 of choice 86, 190–191
 concept of 175–176
 doctrine of 20
 enthusiasm for 175–176
 external 175–176
 and feeling 95–96
 as foundation of morality 77–98 as fundamental end of morality 94–95 independence of 97
 as moral 86

Index

and moral/non-moral motivation 144 negative idea of 88
 as perfection of human beings 94 potestatis legislatoriae 190 as principle of virtue and happiness 86 and self-awareness 94
 as self-control 87
 state of 6
 subordination to 96
 and universalizability 93 value of 87

French character 6 fulfilling station in creation 251

gender 150, 152–154
 degeneration of 159–161
 general characterizing 208 general natural sympathy 169
Geneva Manuscript (Rousseau) 177, 178, 179, 180

geography and anthropology in Observations 201–204

German character 6

God dependence on 25
 existence of 16–18, 33, 36 will of 19–20

good
 of mere intentions 28
 and pleasure 30–31
 of purposes 28

good will, and fortunate success 15 good-hearted groups 149–150 good-hearted drives 48, 54, 174 goodness of human traits 165–184 great portrait of nature 145–150

Green, Joseph 71, 119

grotesque 132, 134–135, 138–139, 145, 154–161

grounding of ethics 16–22
Groundwork for the Metaphysics of Morals 13, 14, 57, 62, 75, 105, 258

Guyer, Paul 200, 205, 226–227

Haller, Albrecht von 231
 Heller, Joseph 246
 Herder, Johann Gottfried 44, 45–46, 126, 203, 204, 208, 215
 hermits 158–159
 heroic sublimity 104
 Hippocratic humors 219
 Hobbes, Thomas 177–184
homme de nature 190 honor 101–115, 132, 133, 146–150

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

Index

281

- consequences of 137
- drive for 106
- feeling for 47
- as incentive 106–111
- and killing 112
- and knowledge 252
- love of 149
- and morality 45
- and respect 113
- and shame 175
- and splendor 136–137
- and virtue 47–48
- honor-seeking groups 149–150
- human degeneration 251–252
- human development 263
- human ethical flourishing 31
- human frailties 144–162
- human history, stages in 263
- human liberty, stages in 260
- human morality 79
- human nature
  - beauty and dignity of 4, 103
  - conceptions of 249
  - divided eye on 223–226
  - weakness of 103
- human race, portrait of 4
- human self-possession 187–188
- human size and nobility 138
- human sociability 109
- human species, groups 149–150
- human traits 165–184
- humanity
  - concept of 86
  - dignity of 121
  - establishing rights of 257
  - formula of 95
  - and knowledge 206
- Hume, David 35, 61, 69–75, 129, 199, 205–206, 207, 243
- humility 262
- Hutcheson, Francis 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 35, 44, 59–60, 63, 64, 69–75, 120–121, 129
- hypothetical, use of term 82
- hypothetical practical necessities 84
- idea, understanding of word 36–37
- “Idea for a Universal History with a Cosmopolitan Intention” 229
- ideal feeling 124–125
- impartial spectator 83, 85
- imperative
  - of skill 77
  - use of term 84
- imperfect duties 81
- inclination, use of term 230–233
- inclinatio animae ad objectum* 30–31
- independent man 180–181
- inequality
  - abolition of 53–54
  - and moral feelings 55
  - servants and slaves 190–191, 195
- inheritance 193–195
- Initia philosophiae practicae universalis* (Baumgarten) 28
- Initia philosophiae practicae primae* (Baumgarten) 29, 38
- Inquiry concerning the Distinctness of the Principles of Natural Theology and Morality* 77, 128
- internal obligations 39–41
- Introduction to Practical Philosophy* (Baumgarten) 79
- justice
  - civil and natural 169
  - concept of 52
  - feeling of 109
  - and inequality 175
- justice, concept of 52
- Kant, Immanuel
  - anti-intellectual moment 238
  - at forty years old 238–239, 247, 265
  - Baumgarten's influence on 38–56
  - brought around statement 250, 264, 265
  - Burke's influence 119–120
  - conception of moral universality 57–76
  - critique of Leibniz's theodicy 16–22
  - and Emile 235
  - figures influencing 7–8, 69–75
  - on history 211–213, 216
  - Hume's influence 129, 243
  - Hutcheson's influence 120–121, 129, see also Hutcheson, Francis
  - imperative style 222
  - Königsberg walks 235
  - liminal state 238–239
  - melancholic temperament 245–246
  - on national characters 198
  - on Newton 242
  - and pedantry of scholars 239
  - personal character of 6–7
  - phlegmatic temperament 245–246
  - questioning of science 238
  - racism 205–206
  - on reading Rousseau 253–254
  - relationship with academic community 239
  - Rousseau seen as genius 258

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

282

Index

Kant, Immanuel (cont.)

Rousseau's influence 1, 3, 22, 36–37, 48, 165, 171, 177–182, 214–215, 234–236, 238, 241, 248, 252–265

and scholarship 240

Shaftesbury's influence 129 teaching as main concern 247

Kant-Forschungen (Rischmüller) 186–187

Kepler, as class term 229–233

Kepler, Johannes 229, 233

Kierkegaard, S. 220–222

kindly drives 59

kindness, and opinions of others 50–51 knowledge and honor 252

of the world 201

Kuehn, Manfred 205

labor, and appropriation 193–195 law, and reason 183

lawful obligation 22

lax ethics 40–41, 44

learning, Rousseau's denunciation of 236–238

Lectures on Anthropology 161

legal necessity 23, 77

Lehmann, Gerhard 186–187

Leibniz's theodicy 16–22

liberty, and humanity 190–191, 260

Locke, John

appropriation through labor 193–195

and Rousseau 177–184

“logodaedalus,” use of term 227 love, absurdity of duty to 114

lubitus 20

ludicrous 138–139

luxury

and decadence 240

and science 242, 243, 244

lying 115

magnificent, the 101–102, 122–124, 126–127, 132, 136–137, 142

magnitude 127

Marx, Karl 195

maxim, use of term 82

means, in search of happiness 23

Mediations on the Vocation of Man (Spalding) 248

Meier, Georg Friedrich, on flawed system of ethics 39–43, 48

melancholy 104, 132–133, 134, 141, 150–152, 219, 245–246

melting sympathy 112

Mendelssohn, Moses 119, 122

Menzer, Paul 26

Metaphysica (Baumgarten) 29, 38

metaphysica specialis 189

Metaphysical Principles of Virtue 172

metaphysics 189

Metaphysics of Morals III, II2, II3, 156, 185, 192, 206 methodical doubt 187–188

modernity, civilized 255 modes of obligation 24–25

monks 158–159

Montesquieu, Baron de 199, 207 moral action, and freedom 188–189 moral capacities, and scholarship 242–243 moral causes, of national character 207 moral character 167

national types 211

moral fanaticism 183

moral feeling 101–115, 128–132 and perfection of will 173 problems with 129–130

and sublimity 130–131

moral investigation 14

moral judgment 86

moral law, respect for 110

moral liberty 260

moral order, and education 176 moral participation 111 moral perfection 55

moral philosophy, Kant's development of 14, 188–189

moral principles 129

moral progress 141

moral sense 27, 256

moral simplicity 48–50, 81

moral taste 131–132

moral theory, and concepts of universality 57–76 moral truth, and sentiment 255 moral universality, Kant's conception of 57–76

moral worth 150–154

and ability 255

morality

categorical nature of 62

as chimerical 175

Christian 43

false 172

and feeling 167

freedom as foundation of 77–98

and honour 45

human 79

in human nature 171–172

and killing 112

levels of 45

and nature 146–150

as rationality 257

and reward/punishment 178

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

Index

283

- sound 172 supreme universal formula 57 test of 83
 two-stage 189
 women's decisions on 116 morals 183
   and order of nature 165
   and principles 183
 morose ethics 41–42
- national character 6, 119, 198, 223 natura convenienter vivere 32 natural drives, and moral worth 150–154 natural feeling 256
 natural inclinations 88 natural liberty 260
 natural powers 48–52
 natural simplicity 48 natural tendencies, degeneration of 154–161
 natural theology 16–18 natural traits in human nature 168–169 nature
   as corrupt 56
   great portrait of 145–150
   and morality 146–150
   state of 6
   and virtue 146–150
 nature and morality, three modalities 146–150
necessitas legalis 23, 77
necessitas problematica 15, 24–25, 28, 77, 81–82
 necessities for actions 81–82 necessity of ends 15
Neigung, in Remarks 240
New Exposition of the First Principles of Metaphysical Cognition 86 new mythology 249
 Newton, Isaac 242, 258, 259
 Nietzsche, Friedrich 233 noble, the 90, 101–102, 122–124, 125–126, 132–133, 137, 138, 142
 noumena and phenomena 98
Nova dilucidatio 18 novelists, and moral instruction 183
- objective universality 62 obligation 22–27, 33, 39–41, 44, 48–50, 54, 62, 84, 86, 110
   concept of 22–27
   supreme universal formula 57
 observational perspectives 223–226 Observations 121–124 absence of preface 222–223
- and aesthetics 117–118 as anthropology 198–201
 as autobiographical 245 Baumgarten and moral theory 38–56 and chimerical ethics 43–48 and Either/Or 220–222 and existence 220–222 expressed goals 2
 finer feeling 3–4, 121–122, 228–229, 230–233
 flattering ethics of 52–56 gender/feminine characteristics 152–154 as geography 201–204
 Guyer's translation 226–227
 Kant's colloquial language 227 moral feeling in 128–132
 and morality 78–79
 and Rousseau 38
 science as decadence 234–246
 and temperaments 150–152 as transition to Critiques 219 true/false sublime 132–135
 and universality 57, 58–61 virtue as moral flattery 39 Observations on the Feeling of the Beautiful and Sublime, see Observations oikeiosis 187–188, 197
On the Sensitive and Irritable Parts of the Human Body (von Haller) 219
On the Sublime (Longinus) 118 Ontologia (Wolff) 29 opinions of others, and kindness 50–51 Origin of the German Mourning Play (Benjamin) 219
 oughts 23, 24–25, 77, 96, 98, 189 ownership 192–196
 ownness to feeling 225
- pantheism 18
 parents and children 196 participatory feeling 101–115 pathologically determined self 176 pedagogical issues of self-interest 177–184 pedagogy 165, 167
 perfect duties 81
 perfection
   concept of 19–22, 28
   as consensus in varietate 31–32 of human beings 94
   ratio of 32
   recognition in others 90–91 of subject 96
perfectum 31, 33–34
 personality of reason 95
 perversion of natural tendencies 154–161

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

284 phenomena and noumena 98

 Philanthropinismus movement 177, 182, 214
 philanthropy 83
philosophia practica 14, 19, 21, 28, 30 Philosophical Enquiry (Burke) 220, 222–223 philosophical ethics 43
Philosophische Sittenlehre (Meier) 39 philosophy critical science of 252
   as necessity 240
 phlegmatic temperament 104, 245–246
 physical causes, of national character 207 physical greatness 127
 pietistic philosophy 21 pity and subordination 173 pleasure and good 30–31
   and will 31
 Plutarch on Alexander 126
 Pope, Alexander 17
 possession 192–196
 postulates 26
 power, addiction to 107 powers, Remarks on natural and corrupted 48–52
 practical humanity 111
 practical necessities 84 pragmatic anthropology 121
Praktische Philosophie Herder 241 prefaces, absences 222–223 pride 113
 primacy of practical reason 264 principled groups 149–150 principles
   disadvantages 174
   and virtue 47–48, 57, 123, 173–174
 principles of pure reason, and law 183 privilege, entrenched 262
 Prize Essay (1762) 15–16, 22–27, 28, 29, 31, 36, 80
 problematic imperatives 77 problematic necessity 15, 24–25, 28, 77, 81–82
 property 192–196
 propriety to feeling 225
 Prussian army 186
 psychology 189

quicquid perficit 33–34

 racism 205–206
 radical evil 178
ratio of perfection 32

Index

rational self-love 176
 rationality 257
 and artificial desires 260 reasonable self-love 176 receptivity 111
 refinement 228
Reflexionen 234
 religion 185
Religion within the Boundaries of Mere Reason 87, 106, 107, 109, 185
Remarks 135–128
   as literary document 186–187
   moral feeling in 128–132
   natural and corrupted powers 48–52 Neigung 240
   philosophical frame of reference 187–188 reasons for writing 2
   science as decadence 234–246
   structure 187–188
   subjective universality 58
   true/false sublime 135–139
   universality in 62–63
   Wissenschaft 240–245
Remarks in the "Observations on the Feeling of the Beautiful and Sublime," see Remarks republic, case for 185 respect 114–115
   for moral law 110
 reverence 124
 rights of mankind 4
 rigid ethics 40–41, 44
 Rink, Friedrich Theodor 203
 Rischmüller, Marie 2, 186–187
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques denunciation of learning 236–238 dogmatism 265 and education 177–182
   influence on Kant 1, 3, 7, 22, 36–37, 48, 69–75, 165, 171, 214–215, 234–236, 238, 241, 248, 252–265
   Kant on reading his works 253–254 labor theory 194
   portrayal of the independent man 177–184 seen as genius 258
   on virtue/sexual desire 5

 sameness 32
 sanguine temperament 104 satisfaction, affective condition of 224–225
Schein 131–132, 135–136 Schmucker, Josef 79, 117, 235 scholarship
   and decadence 234
   and moral capacity 242–243

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

Index

285

- science 165–166
   as corrupting 243–245
   critical 252
   as decadence 234–246
   as human norm 241–242
   Kant's questioning of 238
   and luxury 242, 243, 244
   Rousseau on 236–238
   self-correcting attributes of 243–245
   as unnatural pursuit 241
- scientific accomplishment and uneducated rabble 262
- Scientific Revolution 259, 260, 261
- Scottish empiricism 21
- self-conceit 176
- self-contradiction 97
- self-esteem 114–115
- self-interest 149–150, 173–184, 177–184
- selfishness
   “invisible hand” treatment 174
   as natural 175
- self-love 30, 106, 176
- self-possession 187–188
- self-preservation 180–181
- sense of justice 83
- sentimental educators, and moral instruction 183
- sentimental partaking 112
- servants and slaves 66, 190–191, 195
- Seven Years War 186
- sexual drive 4–5, 116, 230, 241 and well-being in others 50
- shallow anticonsequentialism 63–67
- shame 146–150
- simplicity in human nature 169–171, 172
- simulacrum of virtue 47
- size and nobility 138
- slaves and servants 66, 190–191, 195
- Smith, Adam 69–75, 83, 85, 107
- sociable feelings 101–115
- social conscience 196–197
- The Social Contract* (Rousseau) 214, 260
- social conventions, suspicion of 261
- social order 185–197
- social unsociability 263
- Les solitaires* (Rousseau) 179, 181–182
- soul's self-unfolding 19
- Spalding, Johann Joachim 248
- Spectator* (Addison) 1
- spirit of commerce 215
- spiritual rebirth 238
- splendor 132–133, 136–137
- spontaneity 93
- spontaneous choice 187–188
- state of freedom 6
- state of nature 6, 48–50
- status civilis* 189
- Stoics
   and chimerical ethics 44
   doctrine of oikeiosis 187–188, 197 and labor 195
   and moral instruction 183 and self-determination 190
- strict obligation 62
- subjective generality 70
- subjective universality 63–69
- subjugation of will 173–174
- sublime
   Burke's theory 119–120
   descriptive theory 127–128 evaluative theory 127–128
   and freedom 128
   and respect 117
   the 118–121
   three sorts of 122–124
   true/false 132–139
- sublimity 116–143
   and enthusiasm 138
   and moral feeling 130–131
   of true virtue 58
- subordination 108
- supplements for virtue 46
- sympathy 3, 49, 57, 59, 62, 67–69, 101–115, 146–150, 174
- taste 125
- teaching, Kant's main concern 247
- temperaments, and moral worth 150–152
- tenderness of the nerves 125
- terrifying 101–102, 104, 122–124, 125, 132, 134–135, 142
- tertium non datur* 188–189
- theology 189
- Theory of Moral Sentiments* (Smith) 70, 71, 72, 83
- traits in human nature 165–184
- transposition 109–110
- true sublimity 116–143
- true/false sublime 132–139
   other writers 139–140
- ultimate cause 128
- universal affection 46, 57, 58–59
- Universal Natural History and Theory of the Heavens* 3, 18, 231
- universal respect 57, 58–59, 61
- universality concepts of 57–76
   in Observations 57, 58–61

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76942-6 - Kant's Observations and Remarks: A Critical Guide

Edited by Susan Meld Shell and Richard Velkley

Index

More information

286 universality (cont.)

   in Remarks 62–63
   subjective 63–69
 universalizability
   and freedom 93, 94
   of maxims 80
 universalizing volition 58 unnatural traits, in human nature 168–169

 vanity 153–154
 vices 107, 115
 virtue 113
   adopted 47
   and beauty 3–4
   concept of 53
   doctrine of 113
   and honour 47–48
   in human nature 171–172
   Hutchesonian–Humean accounts of 62 and idealistic feeling 172 and inclinations 88
   as moral flattery 39
   and principles 47–48, 57, 123, 173–174
   simulacrum of 47
   and strength 171
   sublimity of true 58
   supplements for 46
 virtuous impulses 230
 virtuous instincts 54
 volition 23, 58
 Voltaire 186

Index

voluptas 20
 vulgar sensuality 174–176

Wahn 131–132
 well-being in others 49, 91
Weltbürger (citizen of the world) 213–214
 will attraction of 20
   and choice 188–189, 190–191 failure to exercise own 93 of God 19–20
   as inclinatio animae ad objectum 30–31
   independence of 23
   and pleasure 31
   and subjugation 173–174
   and volition 23
 wise innocence 255–256
 wives, as possessions 195 Wolff, Christian
   on actions 34–35
   categorical imperative 78
   concept of perfection 19–20, 21, 28–37 doctrine of freedom 20
   ethical imperatives 29
   moral philosophy 29, 30
   soul's self-unfolding 19
   theory of pleasure and will 31 Wolke, Christian Heinrich 182 women, decisions on morality 116
 Wood, Allen 106, 107, 109

 Young, Edward 220–222