INDEX

Abasolo, 202
acropolis, 122, 127, 294 adaptationist strategy, 134–135, 137–138 aggrandizer strategy, 135–136, 287 agriculture, subsistence, 3, 26, 51, 64, 73, 81, 82, 84, 85, 94, 145–146, 155, 246. See also maize agriculture; soils altars, 57, 106, 110, 116, 127, 139, 166, 174, 177 Altotonga, 240
Alvarado, 275
Alvarado stela, 269
Alvaro Obregón, 194
Amate phase, 209
“ambassador”, 169. See also La Venta, Monument 13 andeste, 148
Andrews V., E. Wyllys, 221
Angulo V., Jorge, 57
anthropomorphic axe, 97 anthropomorphic supernatural feline figure, 122, 144 shark/fish monster, 117. See also were-jaguar archaeobotanical studies, 64 archaeological cultures, 12, 14 archaeological sites. See specific site archaeologist. See specific person Archaic Horizon, 45
Archaic period, 6, 39, 46 estuarine resources during, 94 maize cultivation during, 64, 93 subsistence agriculture during, 94 archaic state, 143, 176
Arenal phase, 274
Armillas, Pedro, 7
Arnold III, Philip J., 24, 60–61, 95, 131
Arroyo Pesquero, 172, 174 Arroyo Sonso “wrestler”, 111 art/iconography, political influence on, 65. See also monumental art/iconography/power asphalt, natural, 78, 90 atomic mass spectrometry, 73 Atopula, Guerrero, 57, 210–212 2 vocados, 64, 75, 196
axes
anthropomorphic, 97
greenstone, 96, 230
greenstone, polished, 97
stone, 247
stone, polished, 96, 192 votive, 35–36, 38, 58, 108–109, 116, 223. See also celt axis mundi (world tree), 123, 143, 172 Ayotla phase, 9, 181, 206, 207 Aztecs
calendar names and, 259 creation story of, 258 myth of the Five Suns, 114 name for land of Olmec, 4–5 name for people of Olmec, 5 sacred drink of, 85–86, 184 Azuzul acropolis, 122. See also El Azuzul, acropolis at baby-face sculpture, Early Horizon, 38, 231 badges of office, 140 Bajo phase, 98, 125, 189
ballcourt, 186, 187, 230
ball game importance in Mesoamerican cultures, 96 sacrifice associated with, 114 balls, rubber, 62, 95, 96, 97 bar-and-dot numerical notation, 27, 271, 277, 299 bar-and-four-dots motif, 112 Barranca phase, 232, 238
Barth, Fredrik, 50
basalt
elite control over, 65
source of, 1, 68, 78, 103, 129, 130, 141, 148, 246–247
uses for, 64, 78, 90, 146 uses for, utilitarian vs. prestige, 140–141 basalt monument creating, 109–110
recycling, 62, 121, 141 basketry, 67, 90, 199
beads, 96, 190, 207
beams, 3, 64, 85, 196
Belize, 182–183
bentomite, source of, 102–103 Bernal, Ignacio, 20, 56 berries, 196
Beverido Pereau, Francisco, 56
Beyer, Hermann, 25
Blanton, Richard, 36
Beverido Pereau, Francisco, 56
141
Blom, Franz, 36
Bobolla, Daniel Rubín de la, 225 blue-green jade, 128 Borstein, Joshua, 30
burials/burial sites
204
191
Buena Vista, 182
Bovio, Fred, 28
Belize, 20
Blom, Franz, 36
Bobolla, Daniel Rubín de la, 46
Bovio, Fred, 28
190
Bovio, Fred, 28
Belize, 20
192
Bovio, Fred, 28
Buena Vista, 191, 194
burials/burial sites
Cantera phase, 237–238
in Central Mexico, 207–209 Cherla phase, 192
at Fabrica San José, 199 juvenile, at La Venta, 45 juvenile, in Valley of Oaxaca, 201
at La Venta, 1–2, 45, 48, 164–165, 177–178 stone-faced burial mound at San Pablo, 209 at Tlatilco, 207–209
in Valley of Oaxaca, 196, 199–200, 201 Cacalhuiziqui, 227
cacao, 85–86, 103, 140, 141, 193, 222
Aztecs and, 85–86, 184
Cahal Pech, 182–183
Calendar Round of Mesoamerica, 52-year, 41, 259–260 calendars, 258–260
Calendar Round, 41, 259–260
Long Count, 39, 40, 41–42, 259–260
Sacred Almanac (tzolkin), 259
Short Count, 39
calendaric names, 259
Cantera phase, 232, 236, 237
Cantón Corralito, 190–193
Carneiro, Robert, 26, 28
Carrales Course Gray pottery, 232 Caso, Alfonso, 20, 40, 45 celtiform stelae, 166–167, 230 clay, 206
carved jade, 171–172
greenstone, 56, 207, 223
incised, 35, 257
serpentine, 97, 163–164
serpentine pseudocelts, 97 set upright as stelae, 164. See also axes Central Mexico, Early Horizon, 205–210 Basin of Mexico, 205–209 burials, 207–209
Chalcatzingo, 209–210
Coapexco, 207
settlement patterns, 205–206
ties between Morelos/Basin of Mexico, 209–210 Tlatilco culture sites in, 209–210
Tlapacoya, 206–207
Tlatilco, 207–209
Central Place Theory, 22
Central Veracruz, interaction with Olman, 232–240 El Viejo stela, 239–240 La Yerbabuena stela, 230 stela differences, 240. See also Chalcatzingo, interaction with Olman ceremonial bar, 143, 167, 172 Cerro Cintepec basalt, 129, 130, 148
Cerro de la Mesas, 60, 269–270
Stela 9, 270
Cerro el Vigía basalt, 247
Cerro Manati, 60
Cerro Mono Blanco, 155
cesium magnetometer, 52
Chacsinkin, 225
Chalcatzingo, 57, 174
polished orange-slipped vessels at, 221 relief carvings at, 177 boulder reliefs, creation myth/ceremonial, 235
Monument 1, 234, 235, 236–237
Monument 2, 237, 233, 238
Monument 5, 235
Monument 9, 234, 235–236
Monument 12, 234–235
Monument 13, 234, 235
Monument 14, 234
Monument 21, 236, 237, 238
Monument 22, 236–237
themes of, 234, 236–238 rock carvings at, 123
Terrace 1, 235–236
Terrace 2, 236
Terrace 15, 236
Terrace 25, 236. See also Chalcatzingo, interaction with Olman Chalcatzingo, interaction with Olman, 232–239 as gateway community, 238–239 interaction with Teopanuquintilán, 237–238 stone carving similarities, 232–238 structural patterns, 234 Chalchuapa, 222, 224
Chavero, Alfredo, 35–36
Cheetham, David, 191–192
Cherla phase, 190, 192
Index

Chiapa de Corzo, 272
Stela 2, 272
Chiapas
contact with Olmec, 56
Middle Formative jade/stone items at, 223 relief carvings in, 177, 222
San Isidro, 56, 96, 219, 295
Tiltepec relief carvings at, 177, 222, 223
Tzutucuilli, 57
Xoc, 57, 227. See also Chiapas/Southeastern Pacific coast; Izapa; Mazatan region Chiapas/Southeastern Pacific coast, 222–225 interaction with Olman, 222–224 interaction with Olmec, exception to, 224–225 settlement patterns, 223–224
stone monuments, 222
Chacan pottery, 244, 272 Chicharras phase, 18, 52, 98, 133–134 population growth during, 136–137 Chichén Itzá, 58
chiefdom, 18–19, 20–21 complex, 19, 22, 23, 26, 133, 176 group-oriented, 30
individualizing, 30
kinship relations in, 143 paramount, 23, 176, 193, 204, 293 population growth effect on, 26 rise/fall of, 176 simple, 19, 138, 154, 176, 188, 193, 209 vs. primitive state, 21–22 vs. state, 20–22, 25 Chilón, V. Gordon, 2 child/infant sacrifice, 97, 138, 237–238 chile, in Valley of Oaxaca, 196 Chilpancingo, 228
chipped stone projectile points, 2 chocolate (chocolate, sacred drink), 85–86 chronology, of Mesoamerica, 6–8 difficulties with, 6–8 stage schemes for, 7–8 Chimiatapan de Abajo, 246 Cinnabar, 43, 50, 163, 171 circumscription, civilization, defining, 19, 21 Clark, John E. on architectural arrangement, 295 on basalt workshops, 104 on definition of Olmec, 13–14, 280
on Formative period inhabitants of Soconusco, 183–184 on ilmenite cubes, 105
on Middle Formative jade objects, 223 on Mokaya influence on Olmec culture, 18 on monument destruction, 121 Mother Culture and, 16
on Ocos phase pottery, 188
on Ojo de Agua, 194 on Olman power vacuum, 195 on Olmec sociopolitical organization, 20, 23, 29–30, 213
on Paso de la Amada layout, 186–187 on political-economic change in Early Formative period Soconusco, 192–194 on political takeover by Olmec, 65 Classic period for Mesoamerica, 6
pottery in, 244
for southern Maya Lowlands, 7
clay, 77–78
alluvial, for pottery, 102 bentonite, 78, 100, 102–103 clay figurine trend, 244–245 colored, 44–45, 46, 48, 77–78, 161, 162, 211, 248 as floor paving material, 48, 77–78, 164 kaolin, 68, 86, 90, 102–103, 141 as platform material, 100, 161, 186, 247, 248 source of, 64, 246–247
cleft motif, 200, 211, 296
Clewlow, C. William, 114
Coatepec, settlement hierarchy at, 9 Coatzacoalcos basin, 60, 62 river channel shifts in, 135–136 swidden farming in, 155. See also Lower Coatzacoalcos River Basin; Middle Coatzacoalcos drainage; San Lorenzo Coatzacoalcos River, aquatic resources in, 77, 80
Coatzacoalcos series soil, 80, 81–82
Covuyo (Lightning), 201
Coe, Michael, 34
on crop yields, 82, 139
at Dumbarton Oaks conference, 36 human ecology project at San Lorenzo, 51–52 on Las Limas figure, 58–59
on La Venta chronology, 49
on Olmec art/iconography/ritual traits, 290
on Olmec sociopolitical organization, 21, 26–27, 28, 29, 81
on origins of Izapan style, 273 on origins of Olmec, 17–18
on population statistics, 196 on San Lorenzo landscape modification, 100 on San Lorenzo occupation phases, 98
on soils in San Lorenzo area, 80 on traits/practices of Olmecs, 16 on transmission of Olmec heritage, 276 on were-jaguar baby figures, 114 coercive politico-economic strategy, 26–27, 135, 138–139 coercive theory, 26–27, 135, 138–139 colossal stone portrait heads as all-around relief sculpture, 110 Cerro de Vigía, 56
Cobata head, 118
Early Formative, 106, 117–118, 121
Hueyapan colossal head, 1, 35, 92
at La Venta, 2, 118, 166
colossal stone portrait heads (cont.) Netepe head, 250–251
  processional arrangement of, 122–123, 170 reasons for constructing, 117–118 at San Lorenzo, 1, 118, 121, 122–123
  at Takalik Abaj, 57
  at Tres Zapotes, 118, 249, 250–251 complex chiefdom, 19, 22, 23, 26, 133, 176 Conchas phase, 223
  Conteras, Eduardo, 48, 51
  Copan, 182–183
  copulation figures, 58, 114, 228, 235 Copo Xer, 201
  corporate (communal, collective) strategy, 30, 138 Costa Rica, 225
  Covarrubias, Miguel, 18, 45, 46, 57, 58, 298 crocodile/cayman imagery, 59, 110 cross-hatch motif, 184, 206, 208, 211, 217, 218, 296 Crumley, Carol L., 22
  Cruz de Milagro, 129
  “crying baby” jade maskette, 40
  Cuadros phase,
  Cuatotolapan (Cuauhtotolapan) monument, 129 cultural jade, 150
  culture, definition of, 5–6 culture/society, Olmec, overview, 10–11 monumental sculpture, 10
  prestige good exchange, 10–11 rulership theme in art, 10, 13 Cunil Horizon, 182 cylinder seal, 2, 170, 208, 258, 297 cylinder vessel, 206, 210, 216–217 Danta pyramid, 275
  danzante style, 264, 270 day names, 259, 271
  deforestation, 72, 84
  de la Fuente, Beatriz, 59, 111, 112, 114, 118–119 Del Prado pink, 210
  Demarest, Arthur, 179–180 descent with modification, 298 Diehl, Richard A.,
  on crop yields, 82, 139
  on Olmec art/iconography/ritual traits, 290
  on Olmec sociopolitical organization, 21, 29
  on Olmec traits/practices, 16
  on population statistics, 136
  on San Lorenzo occupation phases, 98 San Lorenzo project and, 31
  on soils in San Lorenzo area, 80 on state of archaeology, 34 Dillehay, Tom, 93
  dogs, consumption of, 73, 75, 196
  double-line break motif, 200, 206, 220 double scroll (ilhuith), motif, 181, 208, 217, 234, 235 Drucker, Philip
  on Brown Lacquer ware, 221 Cerro de las Mesas fieldwork, 44 environmental perspective and, 51
  on La Venta chronology, 47–48, 52–54
  on primitive state, 21
  Tres Zapotes fieldwork, 44–45
  Dumbarton Oaks Conference, 56 dwarf figures, 114, 167
  Earle, Timothy, 28
  Early Classic period
  calendars/writing in, 269
  Olmec heritage in, 270
  Early Classic Tzakol horizon, 47
  Early Classic Tzakol phase, 47 Early Formative Locona style zone, 222
  Early Formative period, 6
  El Manati, 95–98
  settlement hierarchy during, 11, 65
  subsistence agriculture during, 64, 73 Early Formative period, Olmec origins in, 132–144 economic power, 139–142
  ideology role in, 143–144 non-local resource control, 140–142 resources/environmental risk distribution, 140 social relation/kingship tie role in, 142–143 transportation network control, 140 environmental influence, 136–137 population increase, 136–137 risk, 137–138
  surplus/land redistribution, 137–138 monumental art/iconography/power, 105–124, 133–134
  carving techniques, 105–124
  chronology difficulties, 107–108
  colossal heads, 106, 121
  early monuments in social context/practice, 121–124
  flat carved stelae, 106–107
  formal qualities, 111–112
  materials/techniques, 108–110
  monument mutilation, 120–121
  smaller sculptures, 106
  table-top altars, 106
  monumental art/iconography/power, subjects/themes, 112–120 altar-throne niche figures, 118 colossal heads, 117–118
  creation myth, 114–116 domination, 114
  free-standing full-round sculptures, 118–119 human/animal, 119–120 humans, 117–120
  human seated cross-legged figure/dead were-jaguar baby, 116
  leadership, 117–120
  Olmec Dragon, 117
  were-jaguar, 116, 117
  settlement/political organization, 124–132
Index

Laguna de Lois Cerros/Upper San Juan Basin, 128–130
La Venta/Tabasco Plain, 127–128
San Lorenzo hinterland, 125–127
Tuxtla Mountains, 130–132
sociopolitical evolution, 134–144 adaptationist strategy on, 134–135, 137–138
aggrandizer strategy, 135–136, 287
coercive force strategy, 26–27, 135, 138–139 corporate/communal strategy, 30, 138 exclusionary/networking strategy, 30–31, 138 power/prestige sources role in, 138–141

Early Franco phase, 160
Early Horizon, in Mesoamerica
Guerrero, 210–212
heightened interaction among far-flung regions, 214–216 horizontal differentiation, 212 interaction in, 218–219 names referring to, 181 political differentiation vs. Olmec, 213 pottery
form/execution motifs/elements, 181, 208, 216–217 frontal vs. profile views, 201–202 social context and, 217–218 settlement hierarchy, 212–213 vertical social differentiation, 212. See also Central Mexico, Early Horizon; Soconusco, Early Horizon; Soconusco, pre-Horizon; Soconusco/Eastern Mesoamerica, Early Horizon; Valley of Oaxaca, Early Horizon

Early Horizon symbolic complex, hallmarks of, 181 earth monster. See Olmec Dragon Easton, David, 23
effigy vessels, 105, 208, 210, 216–217, 230–231
Ekholm, Gordon, 92
El Azuzul, 98, 102
acropolis at, 122
recarving at, 121
El Azuzul twin figures, 118, 129, 143
El Baul, Guatemala, carved stela at, 42, 274
El Manati, 62
carved wood at, 78 infant sacrifice at, 138 natural asphalt at, 78 rubber at, 75
tree fruits at, 75
use of basalt at, 141
use of greenstone in ritual offerings, 142 weapons/sacrificial instruments at, 118–119 wild plants at, 75. See also El Manati, Early Formative El Manati, Early Formative, 95–98
Manati A phase offerings, 95–96
Manati B phase offerings, 95, 96–97 Mayacal A phase offerings, 95, 97, 98 wooden busts/artifacts at, 95, 97

El Mesak region, Guatemala, 223
El Meson, 275
El Mirador, 275
El Negro (Tres Zapotes Monument F), 254
El Picayo, ceramic sequence at, 86–87
El Porton, writing at, 264–266
El Porton Monument 1, 264–266
El Principe statue, 129
El Remolino, settlement hierarchy at, 126
El Salvador, 222, 224
El Viejón stela, 177, 239 empire, as Olmec sociopolitical organization, 20 engraved geometric designs, 244 epi-Olmec culture, 6. See also Late Formative Olmec
Estaurine freshwater/marine species, 72–73, 85, 88 Etlatongo, Oaxaca, 65 exchange basalt at La Venta, 146 basalt at San Lorenzo, 1 basalt at Laguna de los Cerros/Llano del Jicaro, Early Formative San Lorenzo production/exchange, 102–103 exchange models, 27–29
Formative, 9, 28, 57–58
Formative long-distance, 9 greenstone as medium for, 220 hard stone, 58
interregional, 64, 231, 291
iron ore, 9, 58
jade, 9, 170, 216, 220, 222, 223
kaolin clay, 141
obsidian, 9, 58, 142, 149–150, 222, 291
prestige goods, 10–11
increase in, 291–292
at San Lorenzo, 10–11
in Valley of Oaxaca, 28
salt, 58, 141
serpentine, 9, 216, 220, 222
shark teeth, 141
shell, 9, 58, 141, 291
stingray spines, 141
exchange network
monopolization of, 30
obsidian and, 149
size of, 301
Valley of Oaxaca, Early Horizon, 200 exclusionary political strategy, 248, 276

Fine Gray wares, 244 Fine Orange wares, 244
fire serpent, 201
flame eyebrow motif, 112, 117, 172, 193, 200, 201, 208, 211, 217, 236, 296 Flannery, Kent V., 23, 28, 29, 51 on Valley of Oaxaca, 55–56, 203–204, 271 floods, 27, 68, 79–80, 81, 82, 137

© Cambridge University Press Formative period, 6 chronology of, 51
  cultural developments in, 8–10 art/technological change, ranked social status in Initial/Early Formative, 9 sociopolitical organization change, 11 subsistence change, 8
  cultural influence of bidirectional, 179
    lattice-like, 179
    unidirectional, 179 economic exchange in, 58 prestige goods exchange in, 28
Franco phase, 238
Fried, Morton, 19, 23–24 fruits, 64, 74, 75, 106 fugitive/flood-recessional agriculture, 82 Furst, Peter, 56, 58, 59, 120, 172
Gallegos, Roberto, 52
Gamio, Manuel, 39
Gay, Carlo, 18 geographical setting, of Olmec, 2–6 fluctuating boundary of, 3–4 labels for, 4–5 gift exchange, Early Formative period, 141 Gillespie, Susan, 61, 106 gneiss, 108–109, 148, 166
God I (Olmec Dragon), 117
God II (maize god), 117, 171–172
God III (avian monster/lord of sun/and sky), 117
God IV (were-jaguar), 117
God VIII (anthropomorphic shark/lord of sea/watery underworld), 117 González Lauck, Rebecca, 60, 61–62 Goodman-Martinez-Thompson correlation, 40, 42 government, centralized, 3 Graham, John A., 52–54, 57 Greater Isthmian Region, 222 linguistic affinities in, 222 natural communication routes in, 222 greenstone
  axes, 96
  beads, 190
  celts, 66, 62, 207, 223
  Cherla phase, 190
Early Horizon, 216
  exchange in, 200
  as exchange medium, 220 figurines, 54, 58–59, 116, 117, 207
  uses of, 108–109, 142, 199
Griffin, Gillett, 18 grinding stones, 94, 140–141, 146, 148, 192, 194, 207, 247, 293 grinding tools, 27, 131, 155, 156 group-oriented chiefdom, 30 Grove, David, 56, 61 on colossal head processional arrangement, 122–123 on cosmological town plan, 294
  on definition of Olmec, 12
  on exchange, 141–142
  on monument destruction, 120–121
  on resource distribution, 28 on stone monument arrangement at La Venta, 170 on table-top altars, 57, 106 on thematic differences among carvings in major centers/hinterland, 123 X-Complex of, 120–121, 182
Guadalupe phase, 226
Guatemala
  Early Formative ceramics in, 182–183 Middle Formative jade/stone items in, 223 as obsidian source, 131, 142, 149–150, 188, 216 Petén district, 275
  relief carvings in, 177
Guerrero
  interaction with Olmec, 227–232
  Juxtlahuaca Cave, 54, 174, 227, 228
  Olmec-related remains in, 57
  Olmec-style monster faces in, 65
  Oxtotitlán Cave, 54, 174, 228
  Oxtotitlán mural, 279
  San Miguel Amano, 57, 227
  Teopantecuautlán
    civic-ceremonial precinct, 230 domestic life, 230–231 hydraulic works, 230
    Structure 2, 237
    Structure 3, 237
    Phase II, 230
    Phase III, 230–232
    gum bracket motif, 172, 200, 201, 296 Guzmán, Eulalia, 57
Haas, Jonathan, 29 hand-paw-wing motif, 112, 117, 181, 208
Hansen, Richard D., 295
Harvester Mountain Lord, 262
Heizer, Robert F., 20, 48, 49, 52–54, 56, 58, 148 Heinz, Mary W., 28–29
hematite, 45, 67, 78, 90, 102–103, 164, 171
Henderson, John S., 220 Hodgson, John, 104 hollow baby figurines, white-slipped, 208, 210, 230–231 Honduras, 182–183
  Ulúa Valley/Lake Yojoa region of Honduras, 225 Yojoa monochrome ceramic complex, 40–41. See also Copán; Puerto Escondido household gardens
  Hueyapan colossal head
discovery of, 1, 35
“Ethiopian” appearance of, 92 Hueyapan phase, 247
pottery, 272
Utilitarian pottery, 244
Index

Huitzo, 202
human-animal transformation, 144 human-nonhuman form combination, 143–144 human sacrifice, 138, 192, 235, 237–238 Humboldt, Alexander von, 35 hunting/gathering lifeway, 2, 8 hydraulic works
  at La Venta, 54, 230
  at San Lorenzo, 52, 230
  at Teopantecuautlán, 230 Ibarra-Manríquez, Guillermo, 72 illit (double scroll) motif, 181, 208, 217, 234, 235 ilmenite, 103, 214–216
ilmenite cubes, 62, 104–105, 142, 291 incised celts, 35, 257
individualizing chiefdom, 30 infant/child sacrifice, 97, 138, 237–238
Initial Formative period, 8
Instituto Nacional de Antropología e Historia, 61 instrumental neutron activation analysis (INAA), 204 Intermediate Olmec Horizon, 220 interregional exchange, 64, 231, 291 Teopantecuautlán, 231
iron ore
  exchange of, 58
  long-distance exchange of artifacts, 9 mirrors, 10–11, 142, 150–151, 163–164, 190, 192, 199, 206, 214, 231. See also ilmenite cubes Isla Alor, 62, 127, 128
Izapa, 56 writing at, 264
jade
  blue-green, 225
celts, 171–172
  “crying baby” jade maskette, 40 cultural, 150
  exchange of, 11, 142, 200
  exchange of, 9, 170, 216, 220, 222, 223
  jadeite, 150–151
  mirrors, 206
  nephrite, 150
  source of, 172, 231–232
  uses of, 1–2, 45, 108–109, 164–165, 206 in Yucatan peninsula, 58. See also greenstone jade figurine at La Venta, 163–164
  at Necoaxa, Puebla, 38
jade ornaments, 1–2
Jocotl phase, 222
Joralemon, David, 59, 117
Joventud Red, 224
Juteson, John, 257, 261 juvenile burials
  at La Venta, 43
  in Valley of Oaxaca, 201
Juxtlahuaca Cave, 54, 174, 227, 228
Juxtlahuaca, painted murals at, 227
Kaminaljuyu, 264–266
  Monument 65, 274
kaolin clay
  exchange in, 141
  source of, 68, 86, 102–103
  uses for, 68, 90
Kaplan, Jonathan, 274
Kaufman, Terrence, 261–263
Killion, Thomas, 61
King 3 Ahau (glyph), 238
Kluckhohn, Clyde, 62
Kneebone, Ronald, 60
Koer, Hugo Moedano, 46
Kristiansen, Kristian, 19
Krotser, Paula, 102
Krotser, Ray, 102
Kruger, Robert, 62, 152
Kunz, George, 36
Kunz axe, 36
La Blanca, Guatemala, 223
La Blanca Mound 1, Guatemala, 223–224
La Farge, Oliver, 36–38 Laguna de los Cerros decline of, 148, 152, 155 height of, 195
  Monument 5, 116
  Monument 20, 114, 139
  “school” of monument carving, 130 settlement hierarchy at, 129
Laguna Manati, 11. See also El Manati
Laguna Pompal, maize cultivation at, 94–95
La Isla, 61
La Joya, 60–61
  Initial Formative period pottery at, 95 maize cultivation at, 73, 95, 146
  settlement patterns at, 131–132 tree fruits at, 75. See also Tuxtla Mountains La Merced, Veracruz, 230
La Mojarra stela, 261–263, 269
languages
  Mayan, 6
  Mije-Sokean family, 6, 18, 183–184, 189, 256 variety of, 3
La Oaxaqueña, 151
La Reina, 254
Las Bocas pottery, 210
Las Limas, 104–105, 151
Las Limas figure, 54, 58–59, 116, 117 Late Formative Olmec calendars, 258–260
  “Calendar Round,” 259–260
  Long Count, 259–260
  “Sacred Almanac,” 259 ceramic evidence for, 268–269 Late Formative Olmec (cont.)
change/continuity/regional variation in material culture, 244–245 epi-Olmec interaction, 266–276 epi-Olmec texts, 260–263 content of, 266
at La Mojarra, 261–263
settlement patterns in, 245–246 transmitters of Olmec heritage to Classic Maya, 276–279 linguistic/iconographic evidence for epi-Olmec contribution, 277 linguistic/iconographic evidence for Izapan contribution, 277–279 through logo-syllabic writing system/development of Long Count, 276–277 writing systems
common features of, 256–257
evolution of Oaxacan/southeastern Mesoamerican, 258 Maya-Izapan, 235–236
other writing systems, 263–264
ultimate origins of, 237 Zapotecan hieroglyphics, 255. See also Tres Zapotes, Late Formative Late Formative period, 6 Late Franco phase, 160
Late Puente phase, 160
Later Olmec Horizon, 220
La Venta, 154, 156–175
Altar 2, 116
Altar 3, 115, 177
Altar 4, 111, 112, 116, 139, 174, 177, 227, 234, 279
Altar 5, 116, 177
Archaeological Park of Villahermosa, 52 basalt sources for, 147–148 basalt trade at, 146
beans, appearance at, 73
burial offerings at, 1–2, 45, 48 chronological placement of, 47–50, 52–54, 158–160 civic/ceremonial precinct at, 1–2
Complex A, Phase II, 220 Complex A, Phase III, 171–172 Complex B, 54, 170, 248 Complex C, 157, 170
Complex D, 157, 170, 175 Complex E, 150, 158
Complex G, 158
construction program size, 177 cosmological town plan at, 294–295 eyan discoveries at, 38 environmental research in, 51 exotic imports in Middle Formative, 10–11 explicit representation of legitimizing acts at, 176–177 fall of, 246
Figurine 10, 174
Figurine 11, 174
Fine Paste ceramics at, 47
Great Mound, 230
Great Pyramid, 52–53
hydraulic works at, 54, 230 land use/settlement, 155 lithic industry at, 64
maize cultivation at, 73, 145–146
Massive Offering 2, 161–162, 164, 165
Massive Offering 3, 161–162, 169
Monument 6, 234
Monument 13, 169–170, 238
Monument 19, 234
Monument 44, 118
Monument 56, 254
Monument 80, 232, 277
mortuary practices, 177 Mound A–3, 165
Mound B, 127
Mound C–1, 33–34, 127, 137, 160, 167 Mound E, 127
Mound G, 127
mutual relations/resculpting of monuments at, 121 obsidian import for, 148–149
Offering 2, 171
Offering 4, 163–164
Offering C, 171–172 political centralization at, 248 portable art/iconography at, 170–173 carved jade celts, 171–172 carved jade celts from hinterland, 172 possible dwarf/deformed infant/fetus, 174 shaman in flight, 174 transformation figures, 172–174 processional arrangement of monuments at, 54 sandstone coffin at, 44–45 skilled specialists at, 150
Stela 1, 166, 235
Stela 2, 167, 176, 235, 239, 251
Stela 3, 167–169, 176, 251
Stela 5, 167–169
Stirling Acropolis at, 54 stone monuments at, 165–170 arrangement of, 170
colossal heads, 166
Index

colossal heads, arrangement of, 170 full-round carvings, 166 relief carving, 166–170
stelae, 166–170, 230
stelae/altars, placement of, 170 table-top altar with front niche figures, 166
table-top altar with side figure, 166 Structure A–2, 161–162, 169 Structure D–7, 174
Tomb A, 164, 248
Tomb B, 165
Tomb D, 165 Tomb E, 45, 165
tombs/treasures at, 161–165 massive serpentine offerings, 161–163, 177–178 smaller offerings, 163–164 tombs, 164–165
utilitarian use of basalt at, 141 writing at, 258. See also Western Tabasco Plain

Law of Cultural Dominance, 180 Lazy “S” motif, 181, 208, 217, 234, 235 legacy, of Olmec, 289–298, 301 conclusion, 300–301 cultural continuity, 298–300 cultural priority/specificity/diffusion, 291–298 cosmological town plan, 294–295 Early Horizon symbols, 296–297 expression of political authority, 293–294 infant sacrifice, 295–296 long-distance exchange, 291–292 Middle Formative symbols, 297 monumental art, 298 political authority, 292–293 sacred places, 295
sociopolitical organization, 292–294 symbols, 296–297 territorial control, 292
writing, 297–298

shared culture/sociopolitical arrangement, Classic Mesoamerica, 289–290 in art/iconography/ritual, 290 in economic realm, 290
in sociopolitical arena, 290 ways to determine cultural origin of trait by diffusion, 290–291
by specificity, 290
by temporal priority, 290

“Legend of the Suns,” 238 legumes, in Valley of Oaxaca, 196 Léon, Ignacio, 152
Leure, Richard, 17
Leyden, B. W., 146
limestone, 103
Limon Incised pottery, 204 linguistic affiliation of Olmec, 6
Llano del Jicaro abandonment of monument workshop at, 148

as basalt source, 148
boulder carving at, 235 interaction with San Lorenzo, 129–130 monument workshop at, 61, 64, 86, 129, 152 Locona phase ceremonial center during, 294
settlement hierarchy during, 9, 292
Loma del Zapote, settlement hierarchy at, 126
Loma del Zapote Monument 3, 114, 139 Long Count calendar, 39, 40, 41–42, 259–260
Losch, August, 22
Los Mangos Monument 1, 239
Love, Michael, 224
Lowe, Gareth W., 56, 222 Lower Coatzacoalcos River Basin, 78–82 agricultural practices, 81–82 annual flooding in, 79–80 Coatzacoalcos series soil in, 80, 81–82 crop yields, 82
San Lorenzo series soil in, 81
soils, productivity of, 81
Tagataapa series soil in, 81 Tenochtitlán series soil in, 80–81, 82. See also Coatzacoalcos basin Lower Tres Zapotes, ceramics of, 47 Lowland Maya, interaction with Tabasco lowlands, 244
Loya, Israel, 38
Luckert, Karl V., 59
Lunagómez, Roberto, 151

magnetite mirrors, 165, 200 magnetometer survey, 52, 62 maize agriculture, 3, 63–64
Archaic period, 94
Initial Formative period, 94
Early Formative period, 64, 73
Middle Formative period, 146, 155 in Tabasco lowlands, 64
in Valley of Oaxaca, 196
in Western Tabasco Plain, 85 mammals, in Western Tabasco Plain, 83 Manantial phase, 181, 195, 206–207
Manati A phase, 95–96
Manati B phase, 95, 96–97
MaNeish, Richard S., 96 manos, 146, 148, 207
two-handed, . See also grinding stones; metates Marcus, Joyce, 201, 271 masks, 54, 118, 174, 230, 235, 240, 270
Matacapan, 56–57, 60, 146, 194
Matthews, Peter, 257
Mayacal A phase, 95, 97–98
Maya calendars
Calendar Round, 41, 259–260
Long Count calendar of, 39, 40, 41–42, 259–260
Sacred Almanac (tzolk´in), 239
Short Count calendar of, 39, 40, 41–42, 259–260
Mayan E-Groups, 294
Mayan language, 6
Mazatan region, interaction with Olman, 191–194 population decline in, 223 pre-Horizon (see Soconusco, pre-Horizon) sociopolitical hierarchy in, 65, 188, 292
McCormack, Valerie J., 131
Medellín Zenil, Alfonso, 48–49, 51, 114 Melgar y Serrano, José María, 35, 92 metates, 146, 148, 207. See also grinding stones; manos; Mexico. See Central Mexico, Early Horizon; Valley of Mexico; individual state
mica mirrors, 188
Middle Coatzacoalcos drainage, decline at, 151–152
Middle Cruz phase, 204
Middle Cultures, 39
Middle Formative Ceremonial Complex Gulf Olmec influence on, 297 portable art/iconography of, overview, 170–171 Middle Formative Mesoamerica, interaction with Olmec, 220–242
Olmec Horizons in, 221–222
summary, 240–242
Western, 225–227. See also Central Veracruz, interaction with Olmec; Chalcatzingo, interaction with Olmec; Chiapas/Southeastern Pacific coast, interaction with Olmec; Guerrero Middle Formative period, 6
environment/ecology in, 154–156 La Venta in (see La Venta, Middle Formative) settlement patterns in, 151–154 sociopolitical change, 175–178 sociopolitical continuity in, subsistence agriculture in, 64 subsistence/economy in, 145–151 agriculture, 64, 145–146, 155 agriculture/technology, 146, 155 obsidian exchange, 149–150 obsidian sources/technology, 148–150 pottery production, 146 prestige items, 150–151 stone sources/technology, 146–148. See also Middle Formative Mesoamerica, interaction with Olmec Mixe-Zoquean language family, 6, 18, 183–184, 256 milpa agricultural system, 51 Mixteca Alta, 6
Mixteco tradition, 274
mica mirrors
hematite, 164
iron ore, 10–11, 142, 150–151, 163–164, 190, 192, 199, 206, 214, 231
magnetite, 165, 200
mica, 188
polished, 10–11
Mixe-Zoquean speakers, 189
Modifici Olmec Horizon, 220–221
Mokaya tradition, 11, 18, 20, 183–184, 188, 190
Monte Albán
Building J, 264
Building L, Stelae 12 and 13, 264 la phase, 264
rise of, 270–271
texts at, 264. See also Valley of Oaxaca monumental art/iconography/power, origins of Olmec, 105–112
carving techniques, 124
chronology difficulties, 107–108
colossal heads, 106, 121
eyearly monuments in social context/practice, 121–124
flat carved stelae, 106–107
formal qualities, 111–112
materials/techniques, 108–110
monument mutilation, 120–121
smaller sculptures, 106
subjects/themes, 112–120
table-top altars, 106
monumental sculpture beginnings of, 133–134. See also colossal stone portrait heads; monumental art/iconography/power, origins of Olmec
Morelos, 56, 209–210
stone-faced burial mound in, 209. See also Chalcatzingo
Moreno, Wigberto Jiménez, 45
Morley, Sylvanus G., 42 Mother Culture, 2, 15–17, 20–21, 45–46, 219 mural painting, 34, 227, 279 music bracket motif, 200, 208, 217 Nacate phase, 98, 148
Nagy, Christopher von, 62
Nahuatl language, name for land of Olman in, 5 Naranjos, 225
narrative relief in Chiapas/Southeastern Pacific coast, 222 in Middle Formative Mesoamerica, 220 nationalism, and foreign fieldwork, 57 Neiderberger, Christine, 55
nephrite, 150
Nestepetl phase, 250–251
Nezahualtamaztli, 138
Nezahualcoyotl, 248, 276 neutron activation analysis, 58 Nevada phase, 206
New Archaeology, 58
Nicapa Orange ware pottery, 221
Nochixtlán Valley, Oaxaca, 65, 204–205 Noguera, Eduardo, 45 nuts, in Valley of Oaxaca, 196
obsidian
assemblage, at La Joya, 131
Index

consumption decline in Mazatan region, 190 e Blitz control over, 65
exchange of, 9, 58, 142, 149–150, 222, 291

sources of, 78, 131, 142, 149–150, 188, 207, 216, 240, 245, 268
uses of, 27, 45, 164
uses of, utilitarian vs. ceremonial, 141

Opopi phase, 98, 125, 189

Ojo de Agua, 194, 195

Olmec

climate of, 68–69
deforestation in,
developmental implications of, 283 diversity of, 282
ecological effects on sociopolitical diversity in, emergence of hierarchies in, 283–284 environmental diversity/dynamism/risk in, 89–91 fauna in, 72–73
hydrology, east vs. west, 68 location of, 66
major geological structures in, 67–68

Isthmian Saline Basin, 67

Tuxtla Mountains, 67–68
modern land use in, 72 political power strategies, 284–289 agrarian/communal projects, 135–136, 287 competition among leaders and, 288

economic power, 285
ideological concepts and power, 286 military might, 285 resource control, 288–289

social/kinship relationships in, 285–286 processes tying area together, 282–283 size of territories under direct control of capitals, 282

social/kinship relationships in, 285–286

society/culture as dynamic in, 283 soil types, 69–72

subsistence/resource use overview aquatic protein sources, 73 beans, 73
dogs, consumption of, 73, 75
ducks/turtles/fish, 77 maize, 73
mammals, consumption of, 75 minerals, 77–78 root crops, 75
salt, 77

squash, 73–74

sunflower seed/fruit, 74 tree fruits, 75

wild plants, 74–75

vegetation, 72. See also Chiapas/Southeastern Pacific coast; Lower Coatzacoalcos River Basin; Middle Formative Mesoamerica, interaction with Olmec; Olmec, origins of;

Tuxtla Mountains; Tuxtla region; Western Tabasco Plain

Olmec, definition of, 13–14

Olmec, origins of archaic roots, 92–93
early cultures, 93–98
El Manatí, 95–98
San Andrés, 94

Tuxtla Mountains, 94–95. See also Early Formative period, Olmec origins in; San Lorenzo, Early Formative fluorescence

Olmec A horizon, 181

Olmec archaeology beginnings of, 40–45
function/ ecology/evolution issues in, 1960s–1970s, 50–59

Chiapas, 56
at Valley of Mexico, 54–55 at Valley of Oaxaca, 55–56 further investigations, pre-1950s, 46–47 new perspectives from abroad/new data from Olmec, 1980s–1990s, 59–65 precursors to, 55–40 recent studies in craft production, 64 ecologically oriented studies, 59–65 economic, 63–64

géomorphological, 63 interaction outside Olmec, 65 political, 64–65

settlement patterns, 64
shift in emphasis to local, 59–65 subsistence activity, 63–64 during 1950s, 47–50

Sociedad Mexicana de Antropología roundtable on, 45–46

Olmeca-Xicallanca, 12

Olmec Blackware horizon, 181

Olmec blue jade, 151

Olmec Dragon, 97, 110, 116, 117, 165, 167, 172, 206, 236–237, 238, 296

Olmec Horizons, 221–222

“Olmec problem,” 45–46, 50, 179, 280–281

Olmec style expansion of geographical range/media of, 54

“Olmec” designation for art style, 38 prominent themes in religious concepts, 13

ritual, 13
rulership, 10, 13

Olmec Whiteware Horizon, 181, 220

Ortiz Ceballos, Ponciano, 60, 62, 95

Otumba, 149, 216, 240

Oxtotitlán Cave, Guerrero, 54, 174, 227, 228

Oxtotitlán mural, 279

Padre Pedra sculpture, 222, 233–240

Pajapan monument, 38, 118, 122, 123, 143

© Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org Palacios phase, 127
Palangana phase, 98, 100, 148 Paleomidian period, 6
palm fruits, 64
pan-Mesoamerican motifs, 206, 227, 230 paramount chiefdom, 23, 176, 193, 204, 293 Paredón Pachuca, 240 pigs pro teto, 172
Paso de la Amada, 9, 184, 186, 198 Paso y Troncoso, Francisco del, 38 paw-wing motif, 296 Pedro Navaja figure, 139
pèr concept, 201
Pellicer, Carlos, 52
petroleum/tar seeps, 67
Pico de Orizaba, 51
Phillips, Philip, 224
Pico de Orizaba, 224
Piña Chan, Roman, 18, 51, 52, 57 plano-relief carving, 279
Playa de los Muertos culture, 40–41
Plumajillo, ilmenite cubes at, 104
Playa de los Muertos culture, 40–41
polished red-to-orange-brown pottery, 220 polished black pottery
Early Horizon, 210
polished red-to-orange-brown pottery, 220
politico-economic strategies adaptationism, 134–135, 137–138 aggrandizer, 135–136, 287 coercive, 26–27, 135, 138–139 network (exclusionary), 30–31, 138, 248, 276 population statistics, 136–137 Porter, James, 118
Postclassic period, 6 potbelly figure, 274
Potrero Nuevo, 98, 102, 126
Monument 2, 174
Monument 3, 114, 139
pottery
appearance of, 8–9
Bajío phase, 95
Barra phase, 184
black, 181–182, 296–297 black, polished, 198, 210 black-and-white, 97–98, 181–182, 190, 210, 218 black-slipped, 210
Carrales Coarse Gray, 232
Cherla phase, 190
Classic period, 244
cream-slipped, polished, 96 dark reddish brown-slipped, polished, 96 Del Prado punk, 210
Early Formative, 283, 289, 296–297
Early Horizon, 181–182, 210
cylinder vessel, 206
form/execution motifs/elements, 216–217 frontal vs. profile views of zoomorphic supernatural, 201–202
hallmarks/motifs of, 181, 200, 201, 209–211 social context of, 217–218
effigy vessels, 105, 208, 210, 216–217, 230–231
El Manatí, Early Formative MayaCult A phase offerings, ceramics, 97–98 fabric-/cord-impressed design, 187 Formative, 8–9, 95
grey, 297
Guadalupe phase, 226
hollow figurines, 210
Huayapan phase, 244, 272
Initial Formative, 94
Jocotla phase, 194–195
Joventud Red, 224
at La Joya, 111
Las Bocas style, 210
Late Formative, 244, 245, 268–269
Limón Incised, 204
Locona phase, 187–188
Locona style zone of, 188–189
Manatí A phase offerings, pottery, 96 material for making, 68, 77–78, 86, 90, 102–103, 146, 198
Maya Chicanel, 244
Middle Formative, 146, 220
hallmarks/motifs of, 220–221, 297
Mokaya red wares, 190
Ocos phase, 188
Ojochi phase, 95
orange pottery, 220–221 orange-slipped, 210
Preclassic, 8 profile view dominance in pre-Horizon Soconusco, 202 red-on-buff style zone, 189 red-orange, polished, 269 red-slipped, 184, 192
red-slipped, polished, 96 red-to-orange-brown, polished, 220 regional differences in, 9 rocker stamping of, 187 San Lorenzo phase, 192
shaman-chiefs, 188
utilitarian, 96, 105, 131, 184, 187, 272 waterproofing, 67
white, 181–182
white-slipped, 210
white-slipped hollow, 208, 210, 216, 210–231 X-Complex, 133, 182
Yucatec monochrome, 40–41 Yucatán motifs, 182–183 pottery manufacture, 3
Preclassic horizon, 39
Preclassic period. See Formative period pre-Olmec culture, 93
Index

pre-Olmec Initial Formative sequence, at San Lorenzo, 98 prestige goods, 104, 188
exchange in, 10–11, 28, 291–292
prestige items, 150–151
vs. utilitarian goods, 140–141. See also individual item Price, Barbara, 20–22, 26 primitive state, 21
vs. chieftain, 21–22
primus inter pares, 17
processual paradigm, 63
Proskouriakoff, Tatiana, 56
Providencia, tenoned monuments at, 254 Puella jade figurine at, 38 obsidian sources in, 149, 240, 245, 247, 268 Puerto Escondido, 182–183, 225
Punta Roca Partida, 148 Pye, Mary, 13–14, 223
on Ocos phase pottery, 188 Pye, Nanette, 200
quetzal motif, 234, 235, 236 quatrefoil motif, 222, 234
Quiché Maya, creation story of, 114–116, 258
Rancho Cobata, colossal head at, 251 Rathje, William, 27–28, 29, 58 rattlesnake imagery, 59, 234 Red Palace, at San Lorenzo, 100, 104, 218
Reilly, F. Kent, III, 100
Remplás phase, 98
Remfrew, Colin, 10 research issues/controversies, 11–31 defining Olmec, 12–15, 17
Olmec origins, 17–18
“Olmec Problem” Mother Culture/Sister Culture debate, 15–17, 20–21, 45–46 sociopolitical evolution of Olmec, explanations for, 25–31 environment/population growth/conflict, 26–27
exchange models, 27–29
political models, 29–31. See also research issues/controversies, Olmec sociopolitical organization research issues/controversies, Olmec sociopolitical organization, 18–25 chieftain, 18–19, 20–21 empire, 20 kingdom, 23
state, 19, 21
state vs. chieftain debate, 20–25 archaeological criterion for, 22 typological approach to, 23–25 stratified societies, 19 theocratic state, 20
Rio Bari (Rio Palma), 62
Rio Chiquito Monument 1, 139 Rio Pesquero. See Arroyo Pesquero rock carving at Chalcatzingo, 123, 174 in Chiapas, 57
in Guerrero, 57
rocker stamping, 187
Rodriguez, Marci Lane, 82
Rodriguez, Maria del Carmen, 60, 62, 95 Rojas Chávez, Juan Martín, 148–149
root crops, 75, 85, 94
Rosario phase, 226, 270 rubber balls, 62, 95, 96, 97
rulership
as art theme, 10, 13
monument mutilations and legitimacy of, 121 north-south axis association with, 249 as prominent art theme, 10, 13, 117 shamanic transformation and legitimacy of, 120, 144 Rust, William F., 146
Sahlins, Marshall D., 19, 23–24, 180
salt, 58, 67, 90, 141
salt springs, 86
salvage work, 56, 57, 60 San Andrés
aquatic resources at, 77 domesticated crops at, 73–74, 75
maize cultivation at, 73
obsidian source for, 149
origins of Olmec in, 94
settlement patterns at, 127
writing at, 258
San Bartolo, 275
Sanders, William T., 19, 20–22, 26, 27, 51, 55, 81 sandstone, 103, 108, 148, 246–247 sandstone sculpture, 164, 170
San Isidro, 56, 96, 219, 295
San José Mogote
as ceremonial/trade center, 196–198
contact with Olmec, 55–56
decline of, 270
fire-serpent/were-jaguar motif, distribution differences at, 202 manufacture of iron-ore mirrors at, 199 Monument 3, 226, 258, 263–264
obsidian at, 198
population/settlement hierarchy, 198 public buildings at, 198–199
settlement hierarchy at, 9 writing at, 226, 258, 263–264. See also Valley of Oaxaca San José phase settlement hierarchy during, 9. See also Valley of Oaxaca, Early Horizon San Juan river basin, population loss at, 152 San Lorenzo, 98–105
aquatic resources at, 77 basalt at, 1, 10
beans, appearance at, 73
ceremonial bars/scepters, 139 civic/ceremonial precinct at, 1, 11
clay-paved floors at, 78 colossal head 2, 121
colossal head 7, 121
colossal head processional arrangement at, 122–123 craft specialization, 103–105 elite control over, 105
ilmenite cubes, 104–105
obsidian working, 105 prestige/public display articles, 104 "workshops", 104
decline of, 148, 151–152, 156
drains at, 100 elite control of resources at, 64 elite residential complex at, 62 Group A mounds, 100
Group D workshop, 62, 121, 141 Group E, monument display at, 122 hierarchical differentiation in, 292 hierarchical differentiation in Early Formative, 11 human ecology project at, 51–52 hydraulic works at, 52, 230 landscape/architecture change at, 98–102 causeways/dikes, 102 residences, 100–102
ritual, 100
terraces, 102
lithic industry at, 64
maize cultivation at, 73
Monument 10, 119, 195
Monument 14, 110, 116, 139, 177
Monument 18, 174
Monument 20, 116
Monument 52, 116, 119, 195
Monument 77, 120
Monument 78, 139
Monument 83, 139
Monument 91, 139
Monument 107, 110
Monument 112, 139
multidisciplinary project at, 62–63 mutilation/resculpting of monuments at, 121, 156 obsidian source for, 148, 150 occupational phases, 98 Palangana plaza, 100 political organization of, 23 power vacuum in, 195 predominance of profile view pottery at Early Horizon, 202 prestige good exchange at, 10–11 production/exchange at, 102–105
greenstone, 103
production/exchange, materials/sources, 102–103
basalt,
clay, 102–103
ilmenite, 103
natural petroleum seeps, 103
obsidian, 103
salt, 103
stone, 103
wood, 102
riverine trade at, 62, 64 size/population of site, 62 source of obsidian at, 131
stone monuments at, 52, 62–63
utilitarian use of basalt at, 141 weapon depictions at, 139 workshop, monument recycling, 62, 121, 141. See also Lower Coatzacoalcos River Basin San Lorenzo Horizon, 181
San Lorenzo phase, 98, 129, 136–137, 142
San Lorenzo A phase, 129–130
San Lorenzo B phase, 129, 130, 195
San Lorenzo series soil, 81
San Lorenzo Tenoctitin. See San Lorenzo San Martín Jilotepeque, 53
San Martín Pajapan monument, 181
San Pablo, Morelas, 57
Saville, Marshall, 275
Saturno, William, 110
Sarcophagus, 110, 177, 254
Saturno, William, 275
Saville, Marshall, 12, 36, 38, 58, 298
Schele, Linda, 122, 123
schist, 108–109, 148, 166
School of American Research (S.A.R.) Advanced Seminar, 59–60 scroll motif bounded, 204
ilhuil (double scroll), 181, 208, 217, 234, 235 sculpture-in-the-round, 194, 251 Seler, Eduard, 36
Seler-Sachs, Caecilie, 36
serpentine
exchange of, 9, 216, 220, 222 La Venta figurine, 163–164, 165 mosaic pavements of, 46
source of, 11, 142, 231–232
uses of, 1–2, 48, 97, 108–109, 177–178 in Veracruz, 54. See also greenstone serpentine beads, 207
Serpent X, 279
Service, Elman R., 19, 180 shaman-chief figurines, 188 shamanic transformation, 56, 120, 173–174 shamanic were-jaguar, 56 shamans, 118–119, 144, 172–174 Sharer, Robert J., 60 shark/fish monster, 117 shark teeth, 78, 141, 164
shell
exchange of, 9, 58, 141, 200, 291
turtle, 270
uses of, 58, 171, 187, 199, 206, 216, 235
Shepard, Anna, 47–48
Short Count calendar, 39
Sierra de los Tuxtlas, 66–61. See also Tuxtlas Mountains simple chiefdom, 19, 138, 154, 176, 188, 193, 209 Sisson, Edward B., 56
Sister Culture, 15–17, 20–21, 45–46 sky serpent motif, 235 slash-and-burn agriculture, 81, 84, 85
Smith, Adam T., 22, 24
Sociedad Mexicana de, 45–46 society, definition of, 5 Soconusco, Early Horizon, 190–198
Cuadros phase, 190–194
interaction with Olmec, 191–195 interaction with Olmec, at Cantón Corralito, 191–194
pottery
Cherla phase, 190
predominance of profile views of zoomorphic supernatural, 202 Soconusco, Jocotla phase, 195
pottery, 194–195
Soconusco, pre-Early Horizon, 184–189
ballcourt, 186, 187
Barra phase, 184, 189
Locona phase, 184–189
Ocos phase, 188, 189
Paso de la Amada Mound 6, 186–187 Paso de la Amada Mound 6, Structure 4, 186, 189
pottery
Barra phase, 184
Locona phase, 187–188
Locona style zone of, 188–189
Ocos phase, 188
prestige items, 188
settlement patterns/house construction, 184–187 sociopolitical hierarchy, 188 Soconusco/Eastern Mesoamerica, Early Horizon, 181–184 environment effect on cultural development in, 183 maize cultivation in Soconusco, 183–184 Yucatan ceramic motifs, 182–183 zoomorphic supernatural at, 181–183 soils
Coatzacoalcos series soil, 80, 81–82
San Lorenzo series soil, 81
soils, productivity of, 81
Tatagapa series soil, 81
Tenochtitlán series soil, 80–81, 82 sorghum, 81
spiked outline motif, 206 Spinden, Herbert, 39–40, 46 Spinden’s correlation, 42
squash, 3, 85, 196
Squier, Robert J., 48, 52, 56
St. Andrew’s cross (crossed bars), 112, 181, 208, 209, 217 stage concept, 7–8, 25 Stark, Barbara, 27, 28–29, 31, 60
state archaic, 143, 176
primitive, 21–22
as sociopolitical organization of Olmec, 19, 21 theocratic, 20
vs. chiefdom, 20–22, 25 stelae(s)
Arenal phase, 274
Avarado, 269
carved, at El Baul, 42, 274 celtiform, 166–167, 230
Cerro de las Mesas Stela 9, 270
Chalcatzingo Monument 21, 236, 237, 238
Chiapa de Corzo Stela 2, 272 El Viejon stela, 177, 239–240 flat carved, 106–107 glyphs on La Mojarra, 261–261, 269
Kaminaljuyu Monument 6b, 274
Late Formative, 251
La Venta
Stela 1, 166, 235
Stela 2, 167, 176, 235, 239, 251
Stela 3, 167–169, 176, 251
Stela 5, 167–169
La Yerbabuena, 240 material for, 166
Middle Formative, 166–170, 230, 236, 239–240
Monte Albán, Building L, Stelae 12 and 13, 264
Tres Zapotes
Stela A, 177, 223, 235, 251
Stela C, 41–42, 246, 252–254, 256
Stela D, 251–252, 275, 277
Stela E, 251
Steward, Julian, 51
stingray spines
exchange in, 200
trade in, 141
uses of, 90, 164
Stirling, Marion, 41, 246
Stirling, Matthew, 39, 40–42, 44–45
Cerro de las Mesas fieldwork, 44
La Venta fieldwork, 44–45, 46–47, 48 naming of San Lorenzo by, 98 on subjects on colossal heads, 106 transformation figure found by, 172 Tres Zapotes fieldwork, 41–42
on were-jaguars, 58, 114 Stirling Acropolis, at La Venta, 127 stone box, at Tres Zapotes, 255, 275 stone drums, 52, 54
stone-faced burial mound, at San Pablo, 209 stone mortars, 96
Strong, William Duncan, 40–41 Stuckenrath, Robert, 49 sulfur deposits, 67 sunken patio, 237–238
swidden farming, 26, 155, 246 Symonds, S., 64, 136, 151

Tabasco lowlands interaction with Lowland Maya, 244 maize cultivation in, 64. See also Western Tabasco Plain Takalik Abaj, Guatemala, 57, 224, 264–266, 273–274 tar/petroleum seeps, 67, 78, 90, 103

Tatagapa series soil, 81
Taube, Karl, 222, 298–299
Taxco, 227, 232
Taylor, Walter W., 50–51
Tecohctián, 98
Monument I, 114
Tecohctián series soil, 80–81, 82 tenoned monuments, 254
Teopantecuanitlán, 65, 195, 210–212, 231
Phase II, 230
Phase III, 230–232
Structure 2, 237
Structure 3, 237
Tepila, 227
Terminal Formative Cerro de las Mesas Monument 5, 270
Epi-Olmec stelae, 167–169
Tres Zapotes Plaza B, 248 Terminal Olmec Horizon, 220–221 Tezuyac, 227
theocratic state, 20
Thompson, J. Eric S., 42, 45 thrones, table-top, 1, 2, 3, 10, 37, 106, 110, 116, 127, 134, 166, 228, 236–237. See also altars Ticoman, 39
Ticoman phase, 226
tierra de primera, 80
Tierras Largas, 34–55, 202
Tierras Largas phase, 9, 199 tiger-face sculpture, 38 Tiltepec, 177, 222, 223
Tapacoyan, 9, 254
Tlatilco, 9, 54–55, 207–209
toad imagery, 59
tobacco plantation, in Tuxtla region, 87 Tolstoy, Paul, 207–208
Tomaltepec, 199–200, 202 trade. See exchange trade diaspora, 194 transformation figure, 172, 225 trekking, 137

Tres Zapotes
basalt sources for, 146–147
ceramic sequence at, 56–57 Classic period, 250
colossal heads at, 249, 250–251 decline of, 250
Early Classic period, 250 emergence of, 152–154
Fine Paste wares at, 47
Group 1, 247, 248, 249–250
Group 2, 247, 248, 249–250
Group 3, 247, 248, 249–250
Group 4, 251
Hueyapan phase pottery at, 272 ilmenite cubes at, 104–105 large mounds/regular courts at, 39 Late Formative pottery at, 244
Middle Formative, 152–154
Monument 29, 254
Monument A, 250–251
Monument C, 251, 255, 275
Monument F, 254
Monument G, 254
Monument I, 251
Monument J, 251
Monument M, 251
Monument Q, 250–251
Mound A, 248
Nestepe Group, 247, 248, 249, 250
obsidian production at, 148
obsidian source for, 150
Plaza A (Group 3), 248
Plaza B (Group 3), 248
Postclassic, 250 relief stelae at, 251 sculptures-in-the-round at, 251
Stela A, 177, 223, 235, 251
Stela C, 41–42, 246, 252–254, 256
Stela D, 251–252, 275, 277
Stela F, 251
as transportation route, 247. See also Tres Zapotes, Late Formative Tres Zapotes, Late Formative, 246–255 busts, 254 competition in, 271–274 formal architecture/political organization at, 248–250 Izapan influence on, 255 natural resources of, 246–247 plaza groups at, 248–250 settlement patterns at, 247–248. See also Tres Zapotes Tulilp phase, 95
Tuxtla Gutierrez Roundtable, 56
Tuxtla Mountains
annual rainfall in, 86
as basalt source, 1, 68, 78, 103, 141
ever culture in, 94–95 Early Formative settlement/political organization in, 130–132 fish in diet, 77
ilmenite cubes at, 104–105
Late Formative settlement patterns, 246
Index

maize cultivation in, 64, 73, 94–95, 146
obsidian production at, 148
obsidian source for, 140
origins of Olmec in, 94–95
petroglyphs and, 58
population growth in, 152, 155 residential mobility in, 137, 155 salt production in, 77–78 salt springs in, 86 specialization of grinding stones at, 146 tobacco plantation in, 87 volcanic activity in, 67–68, 88–89. See also Bezúapan; Chunuiapan de Abajo; La Joya; Matacapan
Tuxtla region, 86–89 agricultural practices in, 86–88 mineral resources in, 86 volcanic activity in, 88–89 Tuxtla Statuette, 40, 42, 260, 261, 262, 263, 270 tzolkin glyph (sacred almanac), 41–42 Tzutuculil, Chiapas, 57
Uaxactun, 39
Group E, 294
Pyramid E-VII-sub, 41
Ujuxet, 224
Ulua Valley/Lake Yojoa region of Honduras, 225 “Uncle Sam,” 167
untempered pastes, 244, 269
Upper Tres Zapotes ceramics, 47
Urcid, Javier, 61
Uslatam, 220
Valiant, George, 38, 39, 40, 45 Valley of Mexico chronological dating in, 39
contact with Olmec, 54–55
sociopolitical hierarchy in, 9, 226–227 Valley of Oaxaca
contact with Olmec, 55–56
dogs, domestic, consumption of, 196 foodstuffs in, 196
function/ecology/evolution research issues in, 55–56 maize agriculture in, 196 population of, 196, 198, 225–226 prestige goods exchange in, 28 settlement hierarchy in, 9 Tierras Largas phase, 196–198 writing in, 226, 258, 263–264 zoomorphic supernatural in, 200–202. See also Monte Albán; San José Mogote; Tierras Largas; San José Phase; Valley of Oaxaca, Early Horizon
Valley of Oaxaca, Early Horizon, 195–205 changes in motifs, 202–203 deities, 200–202
exchange network, 200
interactions with Olman/Soconusco, 203–204 lack of formal ranking by, 198 mortuary practices in, 196, 199–200, 201 population/settlement hierarchy, 198 public buildings, 199 settlements/building materials in, 196–198 settlements/subsistence in, 196–198 social differences, household/burial evidence for, 199–200 sociopolitical organization, 202–203
writing at, 263–264
Veracruz. See Central Veracruz, interaction with Olmec
Verbena phase tomb, 274
Villa Alta phase, 98 von Nagy, Christopher L., 221 warfare archaeological evidence and, 138–139 art evidence and, 139
effect on sociopolitical organization, 26–27, 135, 139 wattle-and-daub, 102, 186, 196, 207, 247, 270 Wauchope, Robert, 48
Weaver, Muriel Porter, 3–4
Webster, David, 19, 26, 27, 81
Weidel, Waldo, 46, 48
Wetmore, Clarence W., 41, 43–44, 48
were-jaguar
baby figures, 114
fire-serpent/were-jaguar motif, 200, 201–202 God IV as, 117
as iconography subject/theme, 39, 114, 116, 117 mask with, 118
Olmec origin myth and, 58
shamanic, 56, 173–174
in Valley of Oaxaca, 202
were-jaguar baby, 112, 114
Western Mesoamerica, 225–227
Western Tabasco Plain agriculture in, 83–86 fauna of, 83
hydrographic setting of, 84 slash-and-burn agriculture in, 83, 84 vegetation of, 84–85
Western Tabasco Plain, 83–86
Weyerstall, Albert C., 39
White, Leslie, 51
Wick, Charles, 18
wild game, 73, 196
wild resources, 6, 8, 64, 93, 284 Willey, Gordon, 8, 31
Williams, Howell, 58, 148 Wing, Elizabeth, 75 wooden artifacts, 62, 95, 97, 102 wooden batons, 78
wooden busts, 62, 78 world tree. See axis mundi writing
  bar-and-dot numerical notation, 27, 271, 277, 299 diffusion of, 297–298
early evidence of, 2, 226
  at Izapa, 264
  La Mojarra stela, 261–263, 269
  at La Venta, 258
  in Middle Formative Period, 169–170 at San Andrés, 258
  at San San José Mogote, 226, 258, 263–264 Tuxtla Statue and, 40, 42, 260, 261, 262, 263, 270 tzolkin glyph, 41–42
  in Valley of Oaxaca, 226, 258, 263–264. See also writing system writing system
  common features of, 256–257
  evolution of Oaxacan/southeastern Mesoamerican, 258
  logo-syllabic, 276–277
  Maya-Izapan, 255–256
  other writing systems, 263–264
  ultimate origins of, 257
  Zapotec, 298

X-Complex horizon, 181
X-Complex iconography, 133, 182
Xoc, 57, 222, 227
Xochipala, 57, 228

Xoo (Earthquake), 201
Xoo Cociyo (Lightning's Earthquake), 201
X-ray fluorescence, 58

Xoyo monochrome ceramic complex, 40–41
Yucatan Peninsula, 57–58, 182–183

Zacatenco, 39
Zacatenco phase, 226
Zapotec, 271
Zapotec language, 201
Zapotec writing system, 298
zapotes, 64, 75
Zaragoza, Puebla, 149, 240, 245, 247, 268 zoomorphic supernatural Cociyo (Lightning), 201
  Early Horizon, 181, 200–202 feline (lightening), 100, 110, 238
  fire-serpent, 97–98, 181, 199–200, 201–202 Olmec Dragon (earth monster), 110, 116, 117, 165, 167, 172, 206, 236–237, 238, 296 on painted mural, 228
  on rock carvings, 234
  serpent monster, 228
  Serpent X, 279
  sky dragon, 200
  sky serpent, 234, 235, 251, 296 were-jaguar (see were-jaguar)
  Xoo (Earthquake), 201
  Xoo Cociyo (Lightning's Earthquake), 201