Costs

We had to pay through the nose to get our car repaired, but at least it’s working now. [pay a lot of money]

If you say that something is a rip-off (informal), you mean that it is not worth the money that you paid for it.

We had to spend a small fortune on getting everything we needed for our holiday. [a lot of money. (You can also say that something cost a small fortune)]

Someone can also make a small fortune out of a business or they can lose a small fortune.

Idioms based on the money metaphor

Bill is a generous man who is happy to pick up the tab/bill\(^1\) for anything. He managed to rise to the top of his profession in the police force, but it was at a considerable price\(^2\). His marriage suffered as a result. This was largely because his dedication to his work put paid to\(^3\) his wife’s career as a nurse as soon as their first child came along. Unfortunately, Bill is paying the price for\(^4\) his ambitiousness now as his wife has left him and taken their son.

- \(^1\) pay for something, often something that is not your responsibility (informal)
- \(^2\) by sacrificing a lot or by doing something unpleasant in order to get it
- \(^3\) stopped someone from doing something that they were planning to do
- \(^4\) experiencing the unpleasant consequences of

25 Work

A One man’s career

When Simon started work, he was at the very bottom of the career ladder 1. He had quite a dead-end job 2 doing run-of-the-mill 3 tasks. He stayed there for a couple of years, but then decided he had to get out of a rut 4. He pulled out all the stops 5 and managed to persuade his manager that he should be given more responsibility. The deputy manager got the sack 6 for incompetence and Simon stepped into his shoes 7. For several months he was rushed off his feet 8 and he had his work cut out 9 to keep on top of things. But he was soon recognised as an up-and-coming 10 young businessman and he was headhunted 11 by a rival company for one of their top jobs. Simon had climbed to the top of the career ladder 12.

1 in a low position in a work organisation or hierarchy
2 job without a good future
3 boring, routine
4 escape from a monotonous, boring situation (see picture of horse)
5 made a great effort to do something well (see picture of organ; stops increase the sound of an organ)
6 was dismissed from his job (also be given the sack)
7 took over his job
8 very busy
9 had something very difficult to do
10 becoming more and more successful
11 invited to join a new workplace which had noticed his talents
12 got to a top position in a work organisation or hierarchy

B Being busy

To be rushed off your feet is just one way of saying that you are very busy at work. Here are some other idioms which give the same idea.

Are you very busy at work at the moment?

Yes, I’m snowed under.
Yes, I’ve certainly got my hands full.
Yes, I’m up to my eyes/ears in work.
Yes, I’m on the go all the time.

C Other idioms connected with work

Plans for building the extension have been put on hold until our finances are in a better state. [left until a later date (usually used in the passive)]

The plans look great on paper, but you never know quite how things will turn out, of course. [when you read about it, but might not turn out to be so]

A lot of preparation has gone on behind the scenes for the opening ceremony for the Olympics. [in secret, often when something else is happening publicly]

Please don’t talk shop. It’s too boring for the rest of us. [talk about work when you are not at work]

8. What can you do to help yourself keep track of all your appointments and other commitments?
9. If things are all over the place in a room, what does the room look like?
10. If feelings reach fever pitch, how are people probably feeling?
Communication 1: commenting on language

A Commenting on things people say

In these remarks, the speaker uses an idiom to repeat or sum up the underlined part of what he/she has just said.

I knew everything Bella said was completely untrue. It was all a pack of lies.
I didn’t say it seriously or even think about it. It was just an off-the-cuff remark.

I find it very hard to believe he was just hugging her because he thought she was feeling sad. That’s a likely story!

I’m sorry. I said ‘Iceland’, but I meant ‘Ireland’. It was just a slip of the tongue.

We didn’t talk about any serious topics, you know, just the weather, holidays, that sort of thing. It was just small talk really.

He just said two completely opposite things. He said he wanted to marry me and live with me, and in the same breath he said he wanted to go off travelling on his own.

They asked me to make a speech, but I was so overwhelmed by the presents they gave me I couldn’t think of anything to say. I was completely lost for words.

I have a feeling inside me that what she said was a lie. It just didn’t ring true.
I couldn’t understand what he was trying to tell me. I just didn’t know what he was on about. (very informal)

B Commenting on the words you are using

You ask if I think we should help him. In a word, no. [said when you are about to give your opinion in a short, direct way]
I think he’s behaved very stupidly. He’s an idiot, for want of a better word. [not quite the exact or best word, but good enough for the situation]
I was, to coin a phrase, as sick as a parrot. [said when you use a phrase that sounds a bit silly]

C Joking and being serious

<tr>
<td>People are always taking the mick/rickey out of him.</td>
<td>laughing at him, by copying funny things he does or says</td>
<td>Hiccups are funny when other people have them, but they’re no laughing matter when you get them yourself.</td>
<td>not something to laugh at, quite serious</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We shouldn’t make light of her troubles; she’s very upset.</td>
<td>treat as a joke something that is serious</td>
<td>I have to do the work of three people. It’s no joke.</td>
<td>used about serious or difficult situations</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Exercises

27.1 Answer these questions.
1 If someone says ‘Swedish’ instead of ‘Swiss’ then quickly corrects themselves, what can we call this?
2 If someone makes people laugh by copying the way someone else talks, what are they doing to that person?
3 If someone can’t find words to express their feelings, what are they?
4 If two people talk about the weather, or about hair styles, just to pass the time, what kind of a conversation is it?
5 If someone tells stories or relates a series of events which are all deliberately untrue, what can we call it?

27.2 Use the idioms from exercise 27.1 to rewrite these sentences.
1 I didn’t know what to say. I ................................................................. .
2 Not one word of his story was true. It ................................................................. .
3 I didn’t mean to say it; it ................................................................. .
4 I didn’t mean to offend her. I was just ................................................................. .
5 It wasn’t a very serious conversation, just ................................................................. .

27.3 Rewrite each sentence with an idiom that means the opposite of the underlined words. Make any other changes necessary.
1 She’s had a big personal problem. We should have a good laugh at it.
2 He told me he had studied maths at Harvard, and it sounded as if he was telling the truth.
3 She said she was a princess who had lost all her money and position in a revolution.
That’s a story anyone can believe!
4 She has to get up at 5 a.m. and drive 50 miles to work every day. It’s great fun.
5 I said I thought she should get herself a boyfriend. It was a carefully prepared remark.
