Contents

Preface vii
List of Abbreviations xix

1 The Allianz Concern and Its Leaders, 1918–1933
   Building the Concern 1
   The Allianz Concern in the 1930s: Structure, Organization, and Personnel 2
   The Politics of the Insurance Business 26
   Schmitt, Göring, and Hitler 39

2 Allianz, Kurt Schmitt, and the Third Reich, 1933–1934
   Disorder and Delusion: An Economics Minister for the Third Reich 60
   The Schmitt Intermezzo: Reorganizing for the Third Reich 78

3 Adaptation and Aryanization
   The Extent and Limits of Nazification at Allianz 106
   Allianz, Its Jewish Employees, and Aryanization 125

4 Allianz and the Reich Group: Politics of the Insurance Business in the Period of Regime Radicalization, 1936–1939 150

5 The “Night of Broken Glass” and the Insurance Industry
   The Pogrom as an Insurance Problem and the Conference of November 12, 1938 190
   Hilgard, the Reich Group, and the Aftermath of the Air Ministry Conference 190
   The “Night of Broken Glass” and Business Ethics in the Third Reich 228

6 Allianz, the Insurance Business, and the Fate of Jewish Life Insurance Policies, 1933–1945 236
   Indirect Confiscation of Jewish Life Insurance Assets 236
   Direct Expropriation of Jewish Life Insurance Assets 262

7 Allianz, Munich Re, and the Insurance Business in “Greater Germany” 278
   Allianz in 1940 278
   Allianz and “Greater Germany”: Expansion into Austria and the Sudetenland 289
Table of Contents

The Nationalization Conflict Redivivus and the Rewards and Travails of Collaboration
- 304

8 Allianz and Munich Re in the Second World War
- Expansionist Efforts and Business Opportunities in War
  - 345
- Total War and Doing Business in the Face of Defeat
  - 415

9 Confronting the Past: Denazification and Restitution
- Self-Exculpation and Image Reconstruction
  - 446
- Allianz and the Problems of Restitution
  - 497

Bibliography
- 539

Index
- 549