CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Index

Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations.

AAAS, see American Association for the Advancement of Science
Abbe, Cleveland, and civilian–military controversy, 168, and International Meridian Conference, 191, 192; and Standard Time, 190; and time-ball report, 189 n37 aberration, constant of, 367, 540 (table)
Adams, A. Norwood, 342, and 6-inch transit circle, 431; site testing, 348
Adams, John Couch, 94, 192
Adams, John Quincy, and Coast Survey, 7; and national observatory, 5, 8, 13, 28, 53–59, 73; and Nautical Almanac, 121; and time ball, 87
Adams, Walter S., 516
Agassiz, Louis, and National Academy of Sciences, 165
AGK1 (Astronomische Gesellschaft Katalog 1), 174–176, 175 (table); Naval Observatory involvement, 180
AGK2 (photographic catalog), 434
AGK3, 435, 437
AGK3R, 435–439
Air Almanac, 518–521
Airy, G. B., and Gilliss visit, 65; and spyglasses, 152; and star catalogs, 174; and transit of Venus, 243
Airy transit circle, see transit circle, Airy
Alden, 207
Allen, W. F., 190
Allison, W. B., 306
Almanac, see ephemerides; Nautical Almanac
Almy, Lt., 81 n51; and longitude, 88; and Neptune, 93
Altazimuth instrument, Warner and Swasey, 367, 368–370; compared with transit circle, 370
Altona Observatory, 99
Ambartsumian, Viktor, 529
American Almanac, 119
American Association for the Advancement of Science, 14, 59; and American Prime meridian, 125–126; and civilian–military controversy, 326–328, 336; and Hall, 234; and Harkness, 269
American Astronomical Society, 321, 393; see also Astronomical and Astrophysical Society of America
American Ephemeris and Nautical Almanac, see ephemerides; Nautical Almanac, American; Nautical Almanac Office
American method (for time registration), 89–91
American Philosophical Society, 13
American Prime Meridian, see Meridian, American Prime Ammen, Daniel, 310, 302
980 Anacostia, 390
Anderson, George, 218, 222–223, 226–227
Ann Arbor, Observatory at, 157
Archer, William S. (Senator), 51–52
Argelander, 111–112, 174–175
Argentina station, see transit circle, 7-inch Aristarchus, 239
Arlington, radio time signals, 469–470
Army Corps of Topographical Engineers, 13
Army Signal Service, and International Meridian Conference, 191; and time balls, 189
Arnaud, Joseph, 518 artificial horizon, 37
asteroid, see minor planet
Astrograph, 8-inch twin, 442; see also reflector; refractor
Astrographic Catalog, 175–176; 386–387, 401 (table), 442–443
Astrographic Catalog Reference Stars (ACRS), 442–443
Astrographic Division, 393, 399
astrolabe, 460
astrometry, 358–450; accuracies, 9–11, 444–450; conferences, 414–415; goals of, 180, 400; radio, 445–446; utility of, 360–363, 430, 443–444; see also catalogs, star

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Astronomical and Astrophysical Society of America, 359; and civilian–military controversy, 326–329 astronomical constants, see constants, astronomical Astronomical Council, formation of, 335; see also Observatory Board; Observatory Council astronomical day, see day, astronomical Astronomical Director, 323, 325, 328; abolished, 331–332; see also Brown, Stimson J; Harkness, William; Scientific Director astronomical unit, see parallax, solar astronomy, old versus new, 12, 359–363; Boss on, 180–181 Astrophotographic Congress (Paris), see International Astrophotographic Congress astrophysics, at Naval Observatory, 362, 373–382; versus "old astronomy," 12, 180–181; see also spectroscopy atomic clocks, see clocks, atomic atomic time, see time, atomic Atomichron, 483, 484
Automatic Measuring Engine (AME), 403, 431, 441; at Pulkovo, 404; second (1967), 442 n139 automation, 404, 431; time-broadcasting robot, 475–476, 478; and transmitting clock, 475–476; see also Automatic Measuring Engine; calculating machines; computers, electronic; punch-card machines; transit circle, 6-inch; transit circle, 7-inch Auwers, G. F. Arthur, 175

Bache, A. D., 63, 76, 99, and Civil War, 153; and Davis, 122; and Ferguson, 101; and Gilliss, 144; and Lazzaroni, 62 n6, 108; and longitude determinations; 87; and Maury, 95, 107; and meteorology, 107; and National Academy of Sciences, 165
Baird, 383
Bancroft, George, 57, 81, 111, 113; and Professors of Mathematics, 74–75
Bangert, John, 543
Barber, Cornelius and Margaret, 305
Barber estate, 302–317, 305, 306, 314
Barnard, E. E., 216
Barnard, F. A. P., 303, 307–308
Barnard, J. G., 301
Barnes, Rubye, 521
Bartky, Ian, 184; and International Meridian conference, 191; and standard time, 190–191
Bartlett, W. H. C., 64–65
Bass, Edgar W., and 1878 eclipse, 204
Belknap, George E., 170, 308
Bell, Alexander Graham, 308
Bell, Grayson, 507
Bellintende, Sam, 507
Berlin Observatory, Auwers's catalog, 175; Gilliss's visit to, 66
Bessel's refraction tables, 83
Bestul, Sylvan M., 342, 431
Biela's comet, and Hubbard, 100; Maury's observations of split of, 83
Bigelow, Frank, 330 n68
binoculars, for Civil War, 151–152; for WW I, 337–338
Bird, William, 64, 67
Bixby, Joan, 538
Black Birch Astrometric Observatory, 439–441 black drop, see Venus, transit of Bliss and Creighton, chronometers, 45, 154, 346
Blunt, 36
Blunt, Edmund, 19 n34, 119
Blunt, George W., 126
Board of Navy Commissioners, 20–21, 27–59 passim; abolished, 53; and Nautical Almanac, 119
Board of Visitors, 325–329, 332–333; Hall on, 235 n52
Bond, George Phillips, 64, 159; and Holden, 213–214
Bond, William C., attempts to hire, 77; and chronograph, 89, 91; and chronometers, 18–19, 45 n49, 154, 195, 346; and Gilliss's visit, 64; and Hall, 220; and Hygeia, 102; and longitude determination, 46, 87, 141; and Maury, 57
Boss, Benjamin, 180–181, 321, 358
Boss, Lewis, and AGK1, 180; and Carnegie Institution of Washington, 361; and civilian–military controversy, 319–322; and Newcomb, 321; and star catalog, 176, 179, 181
Bouvard, Alexis, 128
Bowditch, J. Ingersoll, and American prime meridian, 125–126
Bowditch, Nathaniel, 17–19, 37; and Laplace, 128–129; library of, 124; and longitude of Boston, 125
Braddock, General, 63 n8

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Branch, John, 31
Brashear, 6-inch transit-circle lens, 367, 432; altazimuth lens, 367; spectroscope for 26-inch instrument, 377–379
Brooke, John Mercer, 108
Brouwer, Dirk, 406, 414, 415, 437–438, 444, 526, 529–531; and astronomical constants, 528; on Clemence, 526; and Ephemeris Time, 479, Nautical Almanac Directorship offered, 517, 523
Brown, Allan D., 181
Brown, E. W., 276, 291–292, 336, 516; Earth's variable rotation, 482; and Eckert, 519; lunar theory, 481; punch-card methods, 519–520
Brown, George, 538
Brown, Hanbury, 448
Brown, Stimson J., 324; and 26-inch refractor, 377–380; civilian–military controversy, 325; 329–333; European trip, 324; Nautical Almanac Office Director, 509; spectroscopy, 377–380
Browne, W. Malcolm, 342, 396–398
Brunk, W. E., 424
Brunnow, Franz, 219
Buc, Lawrence, 538
Bureau Internationale de l'Heure (BIH), 457, 470, 472, 482, 490, 494–495, 497
Bureau of Navigation, 139, 164, 207
Burroughs machines, 518
Burton, Henry Edward, 342, 397, 408, 407–410; double stars, 408; moons of Mars, 408
Bush, George, 356

calculating machines, 517–518; see also computers, electronic Calhoun, John (Senator), 54
Calypso, discovery of, 425
Cameron, Winifred Sawtell, 422
Campbell, John, 17
Campbell, W. W., 330–331, 334, 345, 515; and spectroscopic binaries, 379
Capitol Building, 41, 141
Capitol Hill Observatory, 38–44
Carnegie Institution of Washington, Advisory Committee on Astronomy, 361; and Newcomb, 290
Carroll, Tim, 546
Carte du Ciel, 383–387, 442
Cassini, Giovanni Domenico, and solar parallax, 239–240 catalogs, star, 106 (table), 173–181, 175 (table), 369 (table), 401 (table), 400–405, 429–444; A1.0 and A2.0, 443; AGK1, 174–175, 180; AGK2, 434; AGK3, 435, 437; AGK3R, 435–439; Astrographic Catalogue, 175–176, 386–387, 442–443; Astrographic Catalogue Reference Stars (ACRS), 442–443; Boss's, 179; and computer techniques, 441–442; Eastman's Second Washington Catalog, 174, 176, 181, 363; fundamental, 174–176, 360, 369 (table), 400–401, 429–444; FK (Fundamental Katalog) series, 401 (table), 429–430, 438–439, 441–444; Gilliss's, 54, 141, 181; at Greenwich, 174; and International Reference Stars, 434; and Maury, 106; Morgan's, 30, 405; Newcomb's, 176, 178–179, 277; photographic, 434–435, 442–443; publication frequency, 111–112; at Pulkovo, 174; SRS, 436–439; table of, 175, 401; utility of, 443–444; Washington fundamental, 369 (table), 401, 441; Yarnall's, 105, 174, 176, 181; zodiacal, 510, 514, 516; see also Hipparcos CCDs (charge-coupled devices), 419, 421 n99 celestial mechanics, 11–12, 127–128, 507–548; techniques of, 531, 533–534 celestial navigation, see navigation, celestial Chance Bros & Co., glass for 26-inch refractor, 207, 209–210
Chandler, Seth C., 290, 458
Chandler, William E., 327
Chandrasekar, S., 411
Charon, 425–429, 427 charts, navigation, 35, 37, 44, 49 (table), 73–74; for Civil War, 153; see also Maury, Matthew Fontaine Chauvenet, William, 99; and Holden, 215; at Naval Academy, 281; proposed as Superintendent, 166
Chazy, Jean Francois, 529
Chester, Colby, 323 n52, 333–334; and radio time signals, 468
Chief of Naval Operations, 21, 22, Naval Observatory transfer to, 348; residence of, 356
Chile, Naval Astronomical Expedition to, 142–143
Chilean National Observatory, founded by Gilliss, 142
Christie, C. G., 417–418
Christy, James W., and discovery of Charon, 425–429; 428

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

chronograph, for 6-inch transit circle, 186, 366, 402; for 8.5-inch transit circle, 91 n71; for 9.6-inch refractor, 145; for 26-inch instrument, 212; Bausch and Lomb, 91 n71; Bond, 91 n71, 145; Clark, 91, n71, 250; clock comparisons with, 187; connections to clocks, 188; Locke, 89–92; observations recorded on, 187; and radio time signals, 475–476; record, 187; Saegmuller, 91 n71; superseded, 402; and time determination, 455; in Time Room (1927), 474–476 (1930s), 478; and transit of Venus, 250; uses at Naval Observatory, 186–187, 455; see also electrochronograph chronometers, 27–59 passim, 195, 505–507; accuracy, 30–31; agents, 45 n49; and Bligh, 17; Bliss and Creighton, 45, 154; and Bond, 18, 154, 195; and Bowditch, 18–19; in British Navy, 17; and Civil War, 153–154; and Cook, 17; Cotterell, 45; Demilt, 36 n25; Eggert, 45; French, 19 n34, 45; and Gilliss, 45, 145; and Goldsborough, 30; Hamilton, 346–347; Harrison No. 4, 357; House of Representatives resolution on, 45–46; and Lewis and Clark expedition, 18; Little & Elmer, 45; Lukens, 36 n25; and lunar distances, 16–18, 30, 513–514; at Mare Island, 192; and Maury, 73–74; and modern Navy, 506 n6, 546–547; Molyneux & Sons, 45; Munroe, 154; Negus & Co., 154, 195; number of, 17 n27, 18–20, 37, 43–45, 49 (table), 74, 84, 195 (1890), 505 (1902); Parkinson and Frodsham, 36, 45; purchases of, 45–46; rates of, 19–20, 27, 30–31, 37, 42–44, 84, 145, 153–154, 192, 195, 362; rating function leaves Naval Observatory, 22, 84, 349–350, 453, 404, 507; repair, 506; room for, 189 (1878), 195 (1883), 196–197; sidereal, 47; for Spanish–American War, 505; testing, 195–197; for transit of Venus, 250, 257; transportation of, 195–196; trial number, 43; in United States, 17–18; at U. S. Centennial Exhibition, 217; and U. S. Exploring Expedition, 13–14, 45 n49, 46 n50; and U. S. Navy, 19–20, 36; and Vancouver, 17; Winterhalter on, 362; for World Wars I and II, 346–347, 506–507; see also navigation, celestial

Cincinnati Observatory, 57–58, 65

circle, repeating, 17

Civil War, 140–160

civilian–military controversy at Naval Observatory, 14, 299–336, 553–554; and Boss, 319–322; and Ferguson, 104; and Maury, 116; and Sands, 166–168, 171

Clark, Alvan G., 152, 209–210, 215; letter, 212; and 5-inch refractors, 193 n47, 247–250, 249; and 7.75-inch Naval Academy refractor, 201, 203; and 18.5-inch refractor for Dearborn, 206; and 26-inch refractor, 207–213, 373–382; and 1878 solar eclipse, 204; and binoculars, 152; chronograph, 91 n71; and Gilliss, 151; lens polishing, 152 n29; and moons of Mars, 227, 229; and spyglasses, 151; and transit-of-Venus instruments, 247–250; see also refractor, 5-inch; refractor, 26-inch

Clark, George Bassett, 152

Clemence, 341–342, 350; 415, 444, 478, 522, 524, 529–531; and AGK3R, 435; 1953 astrometric conference, 414; and astronomical constants, 527–530; calculating methods, 523; and computers, 534–536; Director of Nautical Almanac Office, 508, 524–531; and Ephemeris Time, 478–481; and Hall, 409–411; life, 478, 524; and Morgan, 524; and NASA, 533–534; and new site for Naval Observatory, 348, 413; and Newcomb, 525–528; as Scientific Director, 351, 417; and Strand, 417; Vanguard consultant, 532 clock house, 312, 364 clock stars, 86, 181, 257 clock vault, 463, periscope for, 342

clocks, and 6-inch transit circle, 432; and 9-inch transit circle, 364 n11; and 26-inch refractor, 212; accuracy, 11; atomic, 452, 483–493, 498–499; cesium fountain, 491; and Earth rotation, 10, 31, 453–477; Eggert, 145; Frodsham, 145; Howard, 193 n47, 250–252, 272 n46, 364 n11, 455, 461, 462 n20, 475 n41; Kessels, 145, 462 (table), 463; Locke, 89–92, 91; at Mare Island, 193 n47; and Maury (1849), 86; and modernization plan, 393; Parkinson and Frodsham, 49 n55, 145, 455, 461; portable, 499; quartz crystal, 432, 452, 461–462, 465–466, 476, 482, 484; rates of, 493–494; and relativity experiment, 491–492; Riefler, 452, 461–463, 464; Seth Thomas mean-time standard, 455, 461, 462 n20; Shortt, 432, 452, 465 n23, 462, 463, 464–465; synchronization of, 181–182, 185–186; standard, 462 (table); and

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

clocks (cont.)
transit of Venus, 250–252; transmitting, 186–187, 188 (Mare Island), 192, 474, 475 n41, 493; at Wilkes's Depot, 41–42; see also chronometer; electrochronograph; Master Clock; time Coast Survey, U. S., and Bache, 14; and Ferguson, 100–101; founding, 13; Gilliss at, 141; and longitude determinations, 87–89, 141, 470–473; and Maury, 95; and Naval Observatory rivalry, 108; observatory for, 7, 40; revival under Hassler, 13; and Walker, 95; see also Bache, A. D.; Peirce, Benjamin Coffin, John H. C., 57, 70, 75–76, 78, 83, 99, 146, 281–282; departure in 1853, 98; and Maury, 79, 111, 116; and Nautical Almanac, 281–283; and refraction tables, 83; and time ball, 85; transit-of-Venus map, 254 comet, see Biela, Encke, comet of 1843
Comet, of 1843, 83 99; II, 1862, 156; Biela's, 100; Encke's, 51
Comet seeker, 64, 3.9-inch Merz and Mahler, 66–67, 152 n29, 253
Commerce Department, attempts to transfer Naval Observatory to, 334, 343 Common, A. A., 385 compasses, 49 (table), 74, 337 computers, human, and Board of Visitors, 325; Burton, 407; and Crelle tables, 517–518; and Gilliss, 147; Lamson and Eaton, 511–512; Hedrick, 510; Lawton, 381; Lewis, 511; Littell, 370; Morgan, 371; at Nautical Almanac Office, 128–129, 130–131, 133–134, 136; need for, 329; Newcomb, 275–276, 283–285; Scott, 435; Walker, 81, 95; see also calculating machines; computers, electronic computers, electronic, 404, 534–536; and 6-inch transit circle, 431; and celestial-mechanics methods, 531, 534–536; Division of, 511; models at Naval Observatory, 535–536; and navigation products, 546–547; and star catalogs, 441–442. see also calculating machines; computers, human; punch-card methods
Comrie, Leslie J., 519–520
Comstock, George, 79, 326–327
Congress, U. S., and Depot of Charts and Instruments, 49–59
Connaissance des Temps, 119
constants, astronomical, 269–271, 537–540; 1968 system, 537; 1976 system, 539; aberration, 367; adoption after 1896, 289, 510; Clemence, 525, 527–530, 537; conferences, 540 (table), (1896), 278, 289, 510, (1912), 512–513, (1950), 528–529, (1963), 537; and Duncombe, 537; and ephemerides, 524; importance of, 527; introduction of, 527–528; and Newcomb, 275, 278, 286–289, 510; Peters's, 134; precession, 527–528; and Seidelmann, 538; Struve's, 134; and theory, 525; and time, 497–498; values of, 540 (table); see light, velocity of; nutation; parallax, solar; precession
Cook, James, 17
Cooke, Thomas & Sons, 209
Copenhagen Observatory, 225
Corbin, Thomas, and Astrographic Catalog Reference Stars (ACRS), 442–443; and International Reference Stars, 439 corona, see eclipse, solar; Sun
Cotterell, Thomas, chronometers, 45
Creel, George, 344
Crelle tables, 517–518
Curtis, Edward, 200–201
Curtis, H. D., 345, 393

Dahn, Conard, 428
Dallmeyer, cameras, 204; lens, 389–390
Dana, J. D., 308
Danjon, André, 460, 529; and Ephemeris Time, 479
D'Arrest, Heinrich, 225
Davidson, George, and transit of Venus, 257, 265, 267
Davis, Charles Henry, 99, 123; and Bureau of Navigation, 150; death, 160; life, 123; and Lodge, 322; and Maury, 124; and National Academy of Sciences, 165; and Nautical Almanac Office, 118, 122–136; and Naval Observatory, 150, 160, 164–166; promotion to Commander, 136; and telegraphic dissemination of time, 184; and transit of Venus, 244, 256; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298
Davis, Charles H. II, 171, 326, 363; and civilian–military controversy, 323 n52, 325–334; and Nautical Almanac Office, 508; Observatory priorities, 463

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Davis, Watson, 392 day, astronomical, 307–309, 455–456
Day, Lucy, 387, 410, 422 day, mean solar, 454; beginning of, 455–456
Dayton, Alston G., 327
De la Roche, G. F., 64
De la Rue, Warren, 250
De Sitter, Willem, 292, 482
Dearborn Observatory, 152 n29, 206, 208
declinometer, 47–48
Defense Mapping Agency, 18 n30, 22; see also National Imagery and Mapping Agency (NIMA)
Deimos, 230, 425
Delaunay, Charles, 128, 284; and Newcomb, 279
Demilt, S., 45 n49
Depot of Charts and Instruments, 27–59; budget, 31–32, 112–113; building at Foggy Bottom, 63–70, 68, 69, 71; at Capitol Hill, 38–44; and Exploring Expedition, 13–14, 20; at Foggy Bottom (on Potomac river), 63–205; founding of, 27–59; hydrographic work, 72, 95–97; instruments for, 62–70, 67 (table); law establishing, 49–53, 52; library, 70; locations of, 7 n4, 33–34; (G Street), 28–38; (Pennsylvania Avenue, 52, 72–74; permanent, 49–59; and Smithsonian Institution, 54–55; staff, 70–97; surreptitious creation, 28; see also Naval Observatory, U. S
Dessez, Leon, 316
DeVorkin, David, 557
Dickerson, Mahlon, 72
Didden, C. A., 311
Dieckvoss, Wilhelm, 435
Dinwiddie, W. W., 379, 389–390 dirigible, eclipse observations from, 390–392
Doggett, LeRoy, 546–547
Dolland, spyglasses, 37 double stars, 415, and 26-inch refractor, 421–423; Anderson, 223; Burton, 408; Hall, 233, 377; Markowitz, 423 n104; See, 380–381; speckle observations, 423; Strand, 422; twentieth century, 421–423; visual versus photographic, 422–423; Washington Double Star Catalog, 423; Worley, 422–423
Downing, Arthur M. W., 289
Draper, Glen, 342, 523
Draper, Henry, 229; and transit of Venus, 253, 256
Dudley Observatory, and Boss, 180, 320; control of, 116 n125; publications delayed, 112; and Nautical Almanac Office, 138; transit circle at, 157
Duncombe, Julie, 538, 543
Duncombe, Raynor, 444, 538; and NASA, 532–534; Nautical Almanac Office Director, 536–537; Vanguard consultant, 531–532
Durham, Bill, 428 n111
Dynamical Time, see Time, Dynamical dynamical reference frame, see reference frame

Early, Jubal, 155
Earth rotation, irregularities of, 10, 292, 482; observational techniques, 495–496 (table); parameters, 495–497; MERIT, 497
Eastman, J. R., 169, 179; and 8.5-inch transit circle, 179–180; and 1869 solar eclipse (Des Moines), 199–200; 1870 solar eclipse (Sicily), 202; 1878 solar eclipse (Colorado), 199–200, 202; AAAS Vice Presidential address, 360–363; Aid at Naval Observatory, 149; and Civil War, 155; civilian–military controversy, 299–300; life, 179–180; and moons of Mars, 229; Professor of Mathematics, 149, n20; star catalog, 174, 176, 180–181; and transit of Venus, 265; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298
Eaton, Etta, 512
60 Echo, discovered by Ferguson, 104
Eckert, Wallace J., 415, 478, 526; Director of Nautical Almanac Office, 508, 519–523 eclipses, solar, 168, 196–205, 198 (table), 542–543; (1831), 34 n17; (1851), 132–133, 196; (1858), 143, 196; (1860), 138, 143, 196, 201; (1868), 201; (1869), 199–200, 201–202, 203; (1870), 199, 201–202; (1878), 199, 202–204, 205; (1880), 205; (1886), 307; (1925), 390–392; coronal K line, 199–200; dirigible observations, 390–392; Eastman, 199, 202–203; goals in observing, 197–199; Hall, 199; Harkness, 198–203; Navy relevance, 197–198; Newcomb, 199, 203, 279; photography and, 200–201, 203–204; under Rodgers, 170; under Sands, 168, 197–198; table of expeditions, 198
Edlen, B., 199–200
Egan, Joe, 413, 507
Eggert, chronometer, 45; clock, 145

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Eichelberger, William S., 336–337, 370–371, 512–513, 514, 518; and 9-inch transit circle, 366, 371; and 26-inch refractor, 381, catalog of stars, 369, 371, 401; Director of Nautical Almanac Office, 508, 512–514; retirement, 514–515; and Riefler clock, 462–463 electrochronograph, 89–92, 91–92, 145, 247, see also chronograph
Eliot, Charles W., 279
Elkin, W. L., 383
Elliott, William, 40 n37
Elvolve, Sol, 535, 538
Encke, comet, observed in Washington, 51
Encke, Johann, Gilliss's visit to, 66; and Schubert, 130; and transit of Venus, 242
Engle, Carl, 507
ephemerides, 120 (table); American needed, 121; for asteroids, 136; and astronomical constants, 536; construction of, 525 (table); European outdated, 121, 128; International Congress on (1911), 512–513; and Jet Propulsion Laboratory, 532–533, 534 (table); for minor planets, 135–136; and Newcomb's constants, 278; and numerical methods, 526; observing techniques for, 533; optical data for, 533; for outer planets, 527; purpose of, 524–525; and Space Age, 532ff; standard stars for, 512; theory/tables used for, 127, 134, 541–542 (table); see also astronomical constants; Nautical Almanac Office
Ephemeris Time, see Time, Ephemeris
Epimetheus, discovery of, 424
Eros, and solar parallax, 271f, 272–273,381–382
Ertel & Son, 4.5-inch meridian "German" circle (1843), 49 n55, 65–66, 176 n20, 177 (superseded); 5.3-inch transit instrument, 66, 84; 6.6-inch refraction circle, 67; meridian instruments, 65
Essen, Louis B., 466, 485–486, 494
Euphrosyne, discovered by Ferguson, 103
Exploring Expedition, U. S., 13, 45, 46 n50, 52, and Maury, 72 extragalactic reference frame, see reference frame

FAME, see Full-sky Astrometric Mapping Explorer
Farrand Optical Co., 432, and 8-inch transit circle, 441
Fauth, 367
Fayet, Gaston, 529
FC (Fundamental Catalog), 175–176
Ferguson, James, 78, 98, 100–104, 101; 1851 solar eclipse observed, 132; arrival, 100; civilian director dispute, 104; death of, 206–207; discovery of Echo and Virginia, 104; discovery of Euphrosyne, 103; on Gilliss's death, 159; and Hall, 221; and Hubbard, 147; 103 Hygeia controversy, 102–103; Lalande prize, 103–104; life, 100–101; and Mars parallax, 221; and minor-planet searches, 102–104; proposed as Superintendent, 166; publication of observations, 107, 114; Sands on, 104, 166 n7; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298; and Yarnall, 178
Ferrel, William, 138, and 1860 solar eclipse, 196–197
Ferrie, Gustave, 472
Fiala, Alan, 538, 543
Field, Cyrus, and 26-inch refractor, 208; and transatlantic cable, 107–108
Fischer, Perez, 342
Fitz, Henry, 143; 6.5-inch lens, 142 n3; and spyglasses, 151–152
FK (Fundamental Katalog) series, 401 (table), 429–430, 438–439, 441, 443–444
Flagstaff station, 419, and 8-inch transit circle, 441; and 61-inch reflector, 414–421; early suggestions for, 339, 348–349; origins of, 407–414; see also reflector, 40-inch; reflector, 61-inch
Flamsteed, John, and solar parallax, 239
Forrestal, Secretary of the Navy, 348
Franklin, S. R., 170–171, and International Meridian Conference, 191–192
Franz, Otto, 422, 427 n109
Fraunhofer mounting, 66
Freeman, Charles S., 339; and modernization plan, 338–341, 392–395; and Nautical Almanac Office status, 509
Fremont, Captain, 76
French, Burton L., 338
French, J. M., chronometers, 19 n34, 45
Frisby, Edgar, 169, 180 n24
Frodsham clock, 145
Frost, Edwin, 393–394
Full-sky Astrometric Mapping Explorer (FAME), 351, 447–448

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Gallatin, Albert. 7
Galle, J. G., and Neptune, 92
Gambey, magnetic instruments, 47
Gardner, William F., 185; and 26-inch-refractor clock drive, 218; and Observatory time system, 185–186; and transit-of-Venus instrumentation, 256, 271–272
Gates, Al, 507
Gauss, F. Stephen, 431
Gauss, Karl Friedrich, 132
Geological Survey, U. S., 14
Giclas, Henry, 418–419
Gill, David, 289, 389
Gilliss, Jack, 146
Gilliss, James, 158–159
Gilliss, James Melville, 44–59, 45, 140–160; attempt to secure Observatory from Maury, 144; and Bond's longitude observations, 141 n3; Chilean Observatory, 142; and chronometers, 45–46; and Civil War years, 140–160; at Coast Survey, 141; death of, 159, 298; at Depot (1838–42), 44–59, 143 n6; eclipse observations, 143; European trip, 63–70; instruments for new Depot, 63–70; library, 354; life, 44, 141–143; longitude determinations, 46; and Loomis, 71; magnetic and meteorological observations, 46–47; and Mars parallax, 243; and Maury, 42, 52–53, 71–73, 116, 143 n6, 146; and Naval Astronomical Expedition to Chile, 142–143; new Depot of Charts and Instruments, 49–59, 63–70; observation backlog published, 147; promotion to Commander and Captain, 144; resignation from Depot, 52; and solar parallax, 243; star catalog, 54, 181; Superintendent, 140–160
Gilliss, Rebecca Melville, 143 n6
Gleick, James, 451
Global Positioning System (GPS), 353, 452, 501–502, 545–548; and polar motion, 546; time from Naval Observatory, 545–546
Godfrey, Thomas, and octant, 17
Goldsborough, Charles W., 28
Goldsborough, Louis M., 29, 144; and Civil War, 153, 155; death of, 160; and founding of Depot of Charts and Instruments, 28–38, 59; life, 29; observation of eclipse, 34 n17
Gore, Al, 356
Gossner, Joseph, 399, 422
Gossner, Simone, 543
Gould, B. A., 49, 54, 148; analysis of Naval Observatory's unpublished observations, 147–148; and Astronomical Journal, 99; and civilian–military controversy, 322; on Ferguson and Gilliss, 110, 144, 147–148, 159; on Hubbard, 100; on Maury, 109; and Lazzaroni, 108–109; and National Academy of Sciences, 165; and Nautical Almanac, 121–122, 131, 134–135, 138; proposed as Superintendent, 166; and Yarnall, 98; on Walker, 110
Graf, F. A., 350
Graham, J. A., 428
Grant, President Ulysses S., 211
gravitation, theory of, 274, 278, 527
Greenwich, see Royal Greenwich Observatory; Royal Observatory Greenwich; meridian, Greenwich prime Grubb, Thomas, 65

Hadley, John, and octant, 16
Haefele, J. C., 491–492
Hale, George Ellery, 326–327, 516; and Carnegie Institution of Washington, 361; and transit of Venus, 266 n38
Hall, Angeline Stickney, see Stickney, Chloe Angeline
Hall, Asaph, 169, 206–237, 222, 223, 235; and 9.6-inch refractor, 206, 221; and 26-inch refractor, 206, 218–237; and 1869 solar eclipse (Bering Strait), 199, 221; and 1870 solar eclipse (Sicily), 202; 1878 solar eclipse (Colorado), 203; Aid at Naval Observatory, 149; and Anderson, 218, 222–223, 226–227; and Board of Visitors, 235 n52; and Bond, 159; and Civil War, 155; and civilian–military controversy, 299–300, 325 n56; and double stars, 233, 408; and Ferguson, 221; and Hill, 223 n27, 237; and Holden, 223–224; library, 354; life, 219–220; and Lincoln's visit, 154; and Mars medals, 232; and Martian canals, 374 n24; and mass of Mars, 232 n48; and moons of Mars, 206–237, 299, 373–374; and Newcomb, 226, 230–232; and parallax, 233–234; and parallax of Mars, 221, 243; planet search (intra-Mercurial), 205; and prime-vertical transit, 367; Professor of Mathematics, 149, n20; retirement, 373; and Rodgers, 168–170; and solar parallax, 221, 243; and

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Hall, Asaph (cont.)
Stickney, 219–220; transit-circle work, 221; and transit of Venus, 221, 256–257, 259, 265; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298
Hall, Asaph (Jr), 332, 336, and 26-inch refractor, 373, 381–382; double stars, 408; and International Radio Telegraph Signals Conference (1912), 382, 470; and modernization plan, 393; retirement, 407; and Washington–Paris longitude determinations, 382
Hall, R. Glenn, 415, 481 n49, 485
Hall, John S., 350, 398, 399, 409–414, 412; and Flagstaff station, 411–414; and interstellar polarization, 409–411; succeeded by Strand, 417
Hall, Percival, 231–232
Hamburg Observatory, Gilliss's visit to, 66
Hamilton, Walter, 342
Hamilton Company, 346–347
Hamlin, Senator, 208
Hammond, J. C., 342, and 6-inch transit circle, 367, 369–371; and time determination, 456–457
Hampton, Jean, 538
Hansen, Peter, 128, 130; and lunar theory, 277–278, 284; method, 526 n49, 527; and transit of Venus, 242, 250
Harkness, William, 169, 238–273, 248; and 6-inch transit circle, 366–367; and 12-inch refractor, 376; and 1869 solar eclipse (Des Moines), 199–201; and 1870 solar eclipse (Sicily), 202; 1878 solar eclipse (Wyoming), 203; Aid at Naval Observatory, 149; and altazimuth, 371; and astronomical constants, 268–271; Astronomical Director, 323; chief astronomical assistant, 322; civilian–military controversy, 299–300, 325, 328–330; comet II (1862), 155–156; and discovery of coronal K line, 199–200, 202; and Gardner, 186; life, 264; loyalty to Navy, 171 n13; Mars observations, 155, 157; and moons of Mars, 227–228; Nautical Almanac Office Director, 323 n53, 509; and Newcomb, 325, 509; and Newcomb's astronomical constants, 510; and parallax, 233; Professor of Mathematics, 149, n20; retirement, 329; star dials for 12-inch refractor, and telegraphic time distribution, 182, 186; and transit of Venus, 238–273, and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298; see also Venus, transit of
Harper, William R., 332
Harrington, Robert S., and moon of Pluto, 426–429, 428; and Planet X, 544
Harrison, John, 16; Harrison no. 4 at Naval Observatory, 355–357
Harrison, Thomas, 169
Harshman, Walter S., 509–510
Harvard College Observatory, 64, 15-inch refractor (1847), 65, 206; and moons of Mars, 229; and Newcomb, 279; and time service, 195; and Winlock, 279
Hassler, Ferdinand R., and Capitol Hill Observatory, 39–40; and Coast Survey, 7, 13, 38; and Depot of Charts and Instruments, 63; and Ferguson, 100; and national observatory, 56
Hassler, Mary Caroline, 280
Hastings, Charles S., 303, and 1878 eclipse, 204
Haupt, Ralph, 342, 518, 520–521, 532, 537–538
Hayden, Carl, 413, 418
Hayden, Everett, 315, 453, 463, 454; and Mare Island time dissemination, 192; and Standard Time, 453–454; telegraphic time-signal error, 466
Hayn, F., 405
Heckathorn, Harry, 538
Heckmann, Otto, 435
Hedrick, Hanna Mace, 342, 510
Hedrick, Henry B., 510
Heidenhain Corporation, 432
heliostat, Alvan Clark, 250
Hellweg, Julius Frederick, 317 n41, 341, 343, 344–347, 397; and National Bureau of Standards, 476; and Ritchey–Chrétien reflector, 393–399; on Robertson, 516–517; test photographs, 399; and time service, 457–458, 476–477
Henry, Joseph, 99, and Lazzaroni, 62 n6, 108; and Maury, 95, 107; and meteorology, 107; and National Academy of Sciences, 165; and Newcomb, 276; proposes Superintendent candidates, 166; and Sands, 322; and Smithsonian, 14, 158; and transit of Venus, 244; and Walker, 95
Henry, Paul and Prosper, 383
Herbert, Hilary A., 322, 324
Herget, Paul, 415, 442, 522, 532; on Clemence, 526; in Nautical Almanac Office, 521–524
Herndon, William L., 73, 74 n36, 81

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Herschel, John, and moons of Mars, 225
Herschel, William, and moons of Mars, 225
Hertzsprung, Ejnar, 419
Hesse, Professor of Mathematics, 149 n20, 150 n21
Hewitt, Tony, 428 n111
Hilgard, J. E., 208; and Newcomb, 276
Hill, George A., and prime-vertical transit, 367–368, 370, 530; and Washington–Paris Longitude Campaign, 471
Hill, George W., 12, 285, 287, 525; 1878 solar eclipse, 203; and Hall, 234, 237; Jupiter and Saturn, theory and tables, 285–286; life, 285–286; on Newcomb, 275; transit-of-Venus map, 254; Venus tables, 284
Hiltner, W. A., 411
Hilton, James, 543
Hind, John Russell, 102
Hipparcos, 401, 440–441, 443, 447, 556
Hipparchus, 239
Hitchcock, Lt., 44
Hoag, Arthur, 398, 410, 413, 421
Holden, E. S., 169, 215; 1878 solar eclipse, 203–204; and Chauvenet, 215; civilian–military controversy, 299–300; Hall's assistant, 218, 222–224; and moons of Mars, 223–224, 229; Newcomb's assistant, 213–215; Orion nebula observations, 233; and time dissemination, 184; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298
Holland, Vivian, 538
Hoogewerff, J. A., 337
Hoover, President Herbert, 343–344
Horrox, Jeremiah, transit-of-Venus observation, 241
Horton, J. W., 466
Hough, H. H., 470
Howard, Sethanne, 548
Howard, T. B., 473
Howard clocks, see clock, Howard
Hubbard, Joseph, S., 57, 76, 78, 81, 98–100, 111; 1851 solar eclipse observed; and Astronomical Journal, 98–99; and Biela's comet, 100; and Coffin, 145–146; and comet of 1843, 99; and Ferguson, 147; Gould on, 100; on Maury, 116; and minor planets, 99; and Neptune, 93–94; and Newcomb, 172; and parallax of Vega, 83, 100, 233; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298
Hudson Observatory, 64
Hughes, James, 357, 439
Hunt, Richard Morris, 311–312
Hydrographic Office; 21, 95–97; location, 165 n4, 508 n10; and Nautical Almanac Office, 283; separation from Naval Observatory, 150, 163–164, 165 n4; and time balls, 189; and U. S. Naval Observatory, 60 n2 hydrography, 56, 107–109; winds and current charts, 72, 74, 95–97
Hygeia, Ferguson controversy over, 102–103

IBM, 520, 527, 534–535
ICRF, see International Celestial Reference Frame; reference frame
Ide, Thomas, 169
IERS (International Earth Rotation Service), 497
Ilse, Albert, 342
Industrial Home School, 317 n41, 320
Ingraham, D. N., 113
Innes, 292
Instrument Shop; beginning of, 349; and 7-inch transit circle, 437; 26-inch update, 422; micrometer motor drive, 431 n119; Moon cameras, 480, 481 n50; and PZT, 461; staff, 507; see also Steinacker, George instruments, astronomical; 49 (table, 1830–42), 67 (table, 1842–45), 248 (table, transit of Venus), 364 (table, at Observatory Circle), see also Appendix 3; photographic zenith tube; reflector; refractor; transit circle; transit instrument instruments, magnetic, 47–48, 49 (table) instruments, navigational; 22, 27, 32, 37, 49 (table, 1830–42), 505–507; and Gilliss, 151–153; and Goldsborough, 34–35; Nautical Instrument Repair Facility, 337, 345, 349–350, 504; and Winterhalter, 362; see also chronometer; sextant; Depot of Charts and Instruments interferometry, optical, 447–449; radio, 445–446, 495–497; speckle, 423, 428–429
International Astrophotographic Congress, 362, 383–387
International Astronomical Union, 415
International Celestial Reference Frame, 414, 448–449
International Earth Rotation Service (IERS), 497
International Latitude Service, 458, 482
International Maritime Meteorological Conference, 107–108

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

International Meridian Conference, 191–192, 307, 453
International Polar Motion Service, 497 International Reference Stars (IRS), 438–441 interstellar polarization, 411

Jackson, Andrew, and science, 13
Janiczek, Paul, 543, 546
Janssen, J., 192, 385
Jayne, J. L., 336; and radio time signals, 469; and Washington–Paris Longitude Campaign, 470–471
Jefferson, Thomas, 7, and science, 13
Jeffreys, H., 529
Jenkins, Thornton, 207
Jet Propulsion Laboratory, and ephemerides, 532, 539
Joers, Rudolph, 342
Johnson, Gertrude, 538
Johnston, Kenneth J., 351, and Earth-rotation parameters, 495; and interferometry, 448–449; and radio astrometry, 446
Jones, 42
Jones, Sir Harold Spencer, 345, 460, 479, 482
Jones, W. L., 394, 515
Josties, F. J., 427
Jupiter, 216, 424, 537; and Hill, 286

Kaiser, Frederik, 225
Kaplan, George, 546
Keating, Richard, 491–492
Keeler, James, 377
Keith, Cleveland, and Newcomb, 285
Keith, Reuel, 76, 78, 81; Euphrosyne elements, 103; and longitude, 88; and Neptune, 93
Kendall, E. O., 77; and comet of 1843, 99; and Encke's comet, 51 n63; and longitude determination, 87; and Nautical Almanac, 131, 133
Kepler, Johannes, 127–128, and moons of Mars, 224; and Sun's distance, 239; transit-of-Venus prediction, 241
Kessels, clock, see clock, Kessels
Kiess, C. C., 392
Kitt Peak National Observatory, 9 n8
Klepczynski, William, 538, 543
Kopff, August, 529
Krampe, Charlotte, 342, 523
Kulikov, K. A., 529
Kustner, Friedrich, 458

Lacaille, Nicolas, 239
Lalande, and observation of Neptune, 93–94
Lalande Prize (of French Academy of Sciences), to Ferguson, 103–104
Lambert, William, and prime meridian, 8, 40 n37
Lamson, Eleanor A., 342, 511–512
Langelotti, Frank, 518
Langley, S. P., 1878 solar eclipse, 203; and Carnegie Institution of Washington, 361; and commission on site selection, 308; and new astronomy, 359
Lankford, John, 557–558
Laplace, Mécanique Céleste, 37, 128
Larrivee, Jules, 342
Larson, Gerald, 538
latitude, determination of, 15; variation of, 458–459; see also polar motion
Lawrence Scientific School (Harvard), and Hall, 219
Lawton, George K., 381
Lazzaroni, 62 n6, 108–109, 112, 124 leap second, 452, 494, 497
Lee, Robert E., 155, 159
Leoncito; see transit circle, 7-inch; Yale–Columbia station
Lerebours, refractor, 65
Leuschner, A., 516
Leverrier, U. J. J., and meteorological observations, 168; and Neptune, 92, 94; and Paris Observatory, 322; and planetary theory, 128, 284–285
Lewis, Clifford, 518
Lewis, Isabel, 342, 510–511, 523, 543
Lewis and Clark expedition, 18
Library, 70, 354
Lick Observatory, 229–330, 359; spectroscopic work, 379
Liferock, Morris, 342 light, velocity of, 263, 540 (table); Michelson and Newcomb experiments, 286–288
Lincoln, Abraham, death of, 159; and Gilliss, 144; and Halls, 154; and National Academy of Sciences, 165; Naval Observatory visit, 154; and Newcomb, 149

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Lindenau, Bernhard August von, 128
Lindsay, Lord, 233
Lindsay, Louis, 518 line officer, see officer
Litchfield Observatory, 103, 224
Littell, Frank B., 337, 515; and 9-inch transit circle, 366, 371; and 1925 eclipse, 390–392; and altazimuth, 368, 370; and modernization plan and photographic zenith tube, 459; and Washington–Paris Longitude Campaign, 472
Little & Elmer, chronometer, 45
Locke, John, 402; and electrochronograph, 89–92, 145
Lodge, Henry Cabot, 322 n49, 327 n60
Loewy, Maurice, 275
Long, John D., Secretary of the Navy, 326, 330–332
Long, Louise, 538
longitude, 15–20; and Bond, 141; of Boston, 125; and chronometers, 16, 87, 125; by eclipses, 46, 125; and Gilliss, 46; by Jupiter's satellites, 46–47; by lunar culminations, 46, 87, 125; and lunar distances, 16–18, 30, 133 n27, 513–514; by meteors, 46; of Naval Observatory, 87 (Foggy Bottom), 364 (table), 473; and Newcomb, 155; by occultations, 87, 125, 257; star transits, 87–88; telegraphic determination of, 87–88, 108, 125; and transatlantic cable, 108; for transit of Venus, 257–259, 268; of Washington, 155; Washington–Greenwich, 108; Washington–Paris, 382, 470–473; and Wilkes, 87; World Longitude Operation, 472–473; see also chronometer; Meridian, American Prime; Meridian, Greenwich Prime; navigation
Loomis, Eben Jenks, 283, 287
Loomis, Elias, 8, 64; and comet of 1843, 99; and Gilliss, 71; on Maury, 109 n111
Loomis, Nathan, 130
LORAN-C, 490, 500
Lowell, Percival, 374, 377 lunar distances, and Bowditch and chronometer method, 16–18, 30, 133 n27, 513–514; and Goldsborough, 31; and Nautical Almanac, 132; and Royal Observatory Greenwich, 16
Lundin, Robert, 399
Luyten, William, 419
Lyman, Theodore, 308
Lyons, Harold, 483
Lyons, U. S., 342, 410

McAlister, Harold, 423
McCormick, L. J., and 26.25-inch refractor, 209, 218, 237
McDowell, Joseph M., 538
McMorris, Barbara, 538
McNair, F. V., 171, 272, 315–316, 322; and astrophotography, 386
Macomb, Alexander, 8
Madison, James, 7, 8
magnetic observations; by Gilliss, 46–48; by Maury, 73–74; at Georgetown site, 334 n83
Magnetic Observatory, 68; failure of, 74
Major, James, 78
Mallory, Francis (Representative), and Depot of Charts and Instruments, 49–53
Marchant machines, 518
Marconi, and wireless, 468
Mare Island station, 192–193, 193 n48, 380; radio time signals, 470; time ball, 193 n48
Markowitz, William, 350, 406, 415, 453; and atomic time, 484–485; life, 480; double-star work, 423 n104; international coordination of transmitted time, 493; and Moon camera, 480–481; and National Bureau of Standards, 492; and PZT, 460; and quartz clocks, 466; retirement of, 486
Marrison, W. A., 466
Mars, canals of, 374, 377; Clemence's work on, 526; Harkness drawing, 157; mass of, 232 n48; and solar parallax, 142, 144, 155, 221 (Hall), 239–242; see also Mars, moons of Mars, moons of, 218–237, 299, 373–374, 377, 424–425; logbook, 227; secular acceleration of, 408
Marsh, George P., and Gilliss, 140 n1, 144
Maskelyne, Neville, 16–17
Mason, John Y., 56, 113; appoints Maury Superintendent, 71, 73; and Locke's electrochronograph, 90; and Nautical Almanac, 119–122; and time ball, 84
Massachusetts Avenue, 317
Master Clock, 485, 486, 489–490, 499
Material Department, 337

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Mathematics, Professors of, see Professors of Mathematics
Mattes, Richard, 342
Maury, Matthew Fontaine, 60–117, 61; and Adams, 96; analysis of observations, 83; appointed Superintendent, 71; assessment of, 109–117; and Astronomical Journal, 99; and Bache, 62 n6; and Civil War, 109; and Davis, 124; and Exploring Expedition, 72; and Ferguson, 101; and Gilliss compared, 116; Gould on, 100, 109–110; and Henry, 62 n6; Humboldtian science, 109; hydrographic work, 72–74; and Hygeia, 102–103; and Lazzaroni, 62 n6, 108; life of, 72; and Locke's electrochronograph, 89–92; and longitude, 87–90; Loomis on, 109 n111; and Melville, 96; and meteorology, 73–74, 107–109; and national observatory, 59; and Nautical Almanac Office, 118–121; observing program, 79–84; pay of, 78; promotion to Commander, 107; publication of observations delayed, 107, 112, 174; staffing problems, 113–115; succeeds Gilliss, 52, 56–57, 71–73; as Superintendent of Naval Observatory, 60–117; at temporary Depot, 72–74; and time ball, 84–88; and transatlantic cable, 107; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298; and Walker, 95, 116; and Wilkes, 44, 52–53; wind and current charts, 72, 74, 95–97, 107–109, 111, 115, 147
Maynard, Lt., 79
measuring engine, see Automatic Measuring Engine (AME); Moon Automatic Measuring Engine (MAME); photographic zenith tube; Precision Measuring Machine (PMM); punch-card methods; Rutherfurd, Lewis M.; Stackpole; Starscan Meier, John, 285
Meigs, M. C., General, 297
Meiller, Victoria, 538
Meinel, Aden, 398, 418
Melbourne Observatory, 225, 229, 259
Melville, Herman, and Maury, 96
Mendenhall, T. C., 326
Mercedes–Euclid machines, 518
Mercury, Clemence's work on, 526; transit of, 240, 264, 377; see also Venus, transit of Meridian, American Prime; for astronomy and geography, 126; and Lambert, 8; and longitude, 125; and Nautical Almanac, 120, 124–127; New Orleans as, 125; Washington as, 126–127, 513
Meridian, Greenwich Prime, adoption of, 191–192, 453–454; American use of, 124–127; for navigation, 126–127, 513 meridian, prime, 124; types of, 191 n43 meridian circle, see transit circle
Meridian Conference, see International Meridian Conference meridian instrument, see transit instrument
MERIT, 497
Merz and Mahler, 5.3-inch-transit-instrument optics, 66; Gilliss's visit to, 66; meridian instruments, 65; refractor at Philadelphia, 65; at Pulkovo, 206; see also refractor, 9.6-inch; transit instrument, 5.3-inch meteorological observations, under Gilliss, 46–47, 155; under Maury, 73–74, 107–109; and Sands, 168
Meyers, Ruth, 538
Michelson, Albert A., and interferometry, 447; and velocity-of-light experiments, 285–288
Michelson, Irving, 342
micrometer, filar, by Clark, 208, 212, 233; Clark I (for 26-inch), 377; Clark II (for 26-inch), 377, 381; Clark double-image (for 26-inch), 377; Repsold (for 26-inch), 377, 382 n39, 407; traveling wire for 6-inch transit circle, 367, 402–403; Warner and Swasey (for 26-inch), 377
Mikesell, Alfred, 249, 422; site testing, 348, 412 military–civilian controversy, see civilian–military controversy Miller, Robert, 543
Millionaire machines, 518
Mineur, Henri, 529
minor planets, and 6-inch transit circle, 430; and 8.5-inch transit circle, 156–157, 178; and 9.6-inch refractor, 102–104, 221; and 12-inch and 26-inch refractors, 377; and 15-inch refractor, 399; and Burton, 407; and ecliptic and equator determination, 530; ephemerides for, 135–136; and Ferguson's discoveries, 102–104; and Gilliss, 156–157; and Hall, 221; and Herget, 523; and Nautical Almanac Office, 135; and Newcomb, 276; ONR contract, 527; and Peters's discoveries, 389–390; and photographic equatorial (6-inch and 10-inch),

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

389–390; see Anacostia, Echo, Euphrosyne, Virginia, Washingtonia
Mintz, Betty, 399
mission statement, of Naval Observatory, 295–296, 323 n50, 339
Mitchel, O. M., 64, and chronograph, 89
Mitchell, Maria, and Nautical Almanac Office, 119, 130–131, 133
Mitchell, S. A., 202, 345
Mitchell, William, 77 n44, 131
Molyneux & Sons, chronometers, 45
Mondale, Walter, 356
Monet, David, 443
Monroe, James, 44
Moody, William H., 334
Moon, and Gilliss, 46–47; longitude from lunar culminations, 46, 87, 125; marginal zone of, 405–407; and Newcomb, 275, 277–279, 289–292; occultations by, 279, 405; parallax of, 239; tables of motion, 278; theory of, 127–128, 131–132, 134, 179, 277–288, 291–292, 519–520; see also longitude; lunar distances; Moon Automatic Measuring Engine (MAME); Moon camera
Moon Automatic Measuring Engine (MAME), 406–407
Moon camera, Markowitz, 406, 480–481
Morgan, Herbert R., 342, 371–372, 435, 529; and 9-inch transit circle, 366, 369, 371–372, 404; and 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien, 397; catalogs, 401, 404; on Eichelberger, 512; and time-determination controversy, 457
Morrison, Berenice, 538
Morrison Observatory, 229
Morse, Leopold, 302
Morse, Samuel F. B., 108
Munroe, James, chronometers, 154 mural circle, 4-inch Troughton and Simms, 64–67, 70, 80–81, 83, 145; and meridian circle, 66; observing program, 79–80; and prime vertical, 66; superseded, 177; and Yarnall, 105
Murison, Marc, 543

National Academy of Sciences, and astronomical day, 307–309; and civilian–military controversy, 300; and Davis, 165; and Department of Science, 306; founding, 100, 165; and Hall, 234; and Hubbard, 100; and site for Naval Observatory, 307–309; and Transit of Venus Commission, 244
National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), and Naval Observatory, 351, 533
National Bureau of Standards (NBS), 14, 453, 466, 480, 490–492; radio time signals, 476, 500; solar-eclipse photography, 390–392
National Imagery and Mapping Agency, 22
National Institute for the Promotion of Science, 14, 51, 54–55, 59; and Maury, 72
National Institutes of Health, 14
National Observatory, see Observatory, National National Physical Laboratory, UK, 466, 490
National Radio Astronomy Observatory, 9 n8
National Science Foundation, 414
Nautical Almanac, American, 118–139, 274–292; and Adams, 121; bipartite form, 134, 137; changes, 513–514; compared with British Nautical Almanac, 132–133; first volume published, 134; Gould's review; importance of, 544; lunar-distance tables discontinued, 513–514; and Mason, 119–122; and Maury, 79, 118–121; motives for, 119–124; and Naval Observatory mission, 340; number printed, 138, 546; opposition to, 133; patriotism as motive, 119; primary duty of Naval Observatory, 363; reform under Newcomb, 274 and passim; software products, 546–547; title changed, 539; unification, 542; see also Newcomb; Simon; and individual Superintendents and Directors (Appendix 2)
Nautical Almanac; British, 16–17, 37, Blunt's edition, 119; and punch-card methods, 519–521; unification, 542
Nautical Almanac Office, American; 12, 118–139, 274–292, 504–548; and Apollo program, 532; Assistant Director position created, 515; budget, 129; at Cambridge, 123–124; division of work, 135; Division of Astronomical Applications Department, 353; international cooperation, 135–136, 512–513, 539, 542; legislation for, 121–122; location of, 283, 508 n10, 516 n25; and Maury, 118–121; move to Washington, 282–283, 508 n10; and Naval Observatory, 21–22, 118, 508–509; at Observatory Circle, 508–548; opposition to, 132–139; organizing, 124–131; organizational

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Nautical Almanac Office (cont.)
changes, 547–548; Professor of Mathematics Director requirement, 509, 514–515; and space-age concerns, 530–548; staff (1883), 287, (1915), 518, (1966), 538; and theory, 127; and World War II, 346–347, 517–523; see also individual Superintendents and Directors (Appendix 2)
Nautical Instrument Repair Facility, 337, 345; transfer of, 349–350
Naval Academy, U. S., 164, 309, 332; 7.75-inch Alvan Clark refractor, 201, 203; instruments moved to Naval Observatory, 146 n2
Naval Astronomical Expedition to Chile (1849–52), 142–143
Naval Observatory, U. S., administrative concerns, 164–173, 295–357; aerial view, 141, (1919), 320, (1977), 355; and American national-observatory movement, 7–8; architect, 311–312; Argentina station, 438–439; appropriations for new site, 309; and astrophysics, 12, 339; Board of Visitors, 325–329, 332–333; budget, 112–113, 352; buildings (1843–44), 67–70, 71; (1878), 171–172; (1888), 211; (1893), 311–317; (1895), 316; (1902), 315; (1940s), 347, (1961), 356; (modern), 355; and charge-coupled devices (CCDs), 419, 421 n99; chronometer function transferred from, 22, 84, 349; civilian–military controversy, 166–168, 299–336, 553–554; command authority for, 22 (table); and Commerce Department, 334, 343; and Coast Survey rivalry, 108; construction, 313; and Depression, 337–347; government patronage, 549–551; and GPS, 545–546; grounds (1879), 171–173 (map); (1893), 304–317, 304–307 (maps); health issues, 171–172; and Hydrographic Office, 60 n2; Hydrographic Office merger proposed, 336; and International Meridian Conference, 191; and Jet Propulsion Laboratory, 532; legislation, Appendix 5; library, 70, 353–354; location, 33, 305–307; longitude of, 87 (Foggy Bottom), 364 (table), 473; Mare Island station, 192–193; mission statement, 295–296, 323 n50, 339; modernization program, 338–341, 392–414; move threatened, 348–349; and NASA, 351; and National Bureau of Standards, 14, 453, 466, 476; as national observatory, 5–9, 56–59, 551–553; and Navy investigative boards, 334; new site for, 170, 296–318; New Zealand station, 439–441; organization charts, 341, 352–353; organizational sponsors, 21–22; and Presidential Board, 334; Richmond station, 460; Samoa station, 438 n134; seal of, frontispiece; Smithsonian transfer proposed, 336; Southern-Hemisphere work, 437–441; and Space Age, 347–357, 530–548; staff under Maury, 75 (table), 113–114; staff, 14, Appendix 4; staff photo (1879), 169, (1932), 342; statutory authority for time, 493 n69; unhealthy conditions of Foggy Bottom site, 296–299; and U. S. Centennial Exhibition, 217; and war, 337–347; and Western Union, 182, 184, 193–195; women at, 510–511; see also astrometry; astrophysics; clocks; Depot of Charts and Instruments; Flagstaff station; Instrument Shop; Nautical Almanac Office; Observatory Circle; photography; time
Naval Observatory and Hydrographic Office, 98, 145
Naval Oceanographic Office, 21–22
Naval Research Laboratory, 14, 21, 446, 448, 484, 486 navigation, 15–23; 505–507, 544–548; accuracies, 20–21, 132–133, 556; ancient, 15; and Army Air Corps, 518; and astronomy, 15–23; celestial, 15–23, 27ff, 505–507, 545–548; computerized products for, 546–547; and Depot of Charts and Instruments origin, 27ff; Eastman on astronomy and, 361; and Goldsborough, 30; and Maury, 29, 79, 107–117; in Naval Observatory mission, 295; ocean versus air, 518; space, 424–425; technology for, 16–17; 28 ff, and World War I, 337–338; and World War II, 345–346; see also chronometers; Global Positioning System; instruments, navigational; longitude; LORAN-C; lunar distances; Nautical Almanac; time signals navigational instruments, see instruments, navigational
Navy, Secretary of, see individual names of Secretaries of the Navy
Navy, U. S., 19; administration, 20–21; Board of Navy Commissioners, 20–22 and passim; Bureau system created, 53; Bureau of Equipment, 22; Bureau of Navigation, 21–22, 139, 150, 164,

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

207; Bureau of Ordnance and Hydrography, 21–22, 53, 164; Chief of Naval Operations, 21–22, 348, 356; line officer, 75 n38, 170 n11, 328; staff officer, 170 n11; reorganization of (1842), 53; ships, 19, 35; see also Professors of Mathematics
Navy Prototype Optical Interferometer, 447–449
Negus, Thomas, chronometers, 154, 195, 346
Neptune, 377; Lalande's observation of, 92–95; moons of, 216, 221–222, 377, 424–425; motion of, 277; and Walker, 92–95
Newall, R. S., 209
Newcomb, Mary Caroline Hassler, 280–281
Newcomb, Simon, 12, 132, 277, 283, 274–292; and 8.5-inch transit circle, 176; and 26-inch refractor, 213; 1860 eclipse (Vancouver), 196–197; and 1869 solar eclipse (Des Moines), 199; and 1870 solar eclipse (Gibraltar), 202; 1878 solar eclipse (Wyoming), 202; Astronomical Papers founded, 284; and astrophysics, 358, 361, 377; and Carnegie Institution of Washington, 361; and Civil War, 155; civilian–military controversy, 299, 325, 327–331, 335; Clemence's followup on his work, 525–526; constants, 275, 278, 286–289, 510; 539; on Davis, 123; death, 291; Earth's variable rotation, 482–483; family, 280–281, 290; on Foggy Bottom site, 171–172; and Hall, 226, 230–232, 276; and Harkness, 325; Harvard offer declined, 279–280; on Hubbard, 98; life, 275–276; Laboratory, 356; legacy, 289–292; and longitude of Washington, 155; on Maury, 111; and Moon research, 179, 275, 277–279, 288–292; and moons of Mars, 226–227, 230–232; naturalization as U. S. citizen, 281 n18; and Nautical Almanac Office, 119, 130–131, 274–292, 507–509; old versus new astronomy, 358, 361; at Paris Observatory, 279; Professor of Mathematics Commission, 149; proposed as Naval Observatory Superintendent, as Rear Admiral, 290–291; on Sands, 166; and spectroscope, 377; and star catalogs, 176; 178–179; Superintendent Nautical Almanac Office, 281–289; and transit of Venus, 240, 256, 243–273, 279; trip to European observatories, 310; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298; velocity-of-light experiments, 263; and wife, 280
New Zealand station, see transit circle, 7-inch NFK, 175–176
Nicholson, Seth, 345
Norberg, Arthur, 275, 277
Nordberg, J. J., 342
Nourse, J. E., 169; civilian–military controversy, 299–300; on Maury, 110; Professor of Mathematics, 150 nutation, constant of 459, 530, 536, 540 (table)

Oates, Gilbert J., 350 observatory, proposed for Coast Survey, 7, 40 n37; see also under individual names
Observatory Board, 323
Observatory Circle, 296–318, 318–319; aerial view, 320, 355
Observatory Council, 325
Observatory, National, 5–9, 6 (table); and Hassler, 56; Naval Observatory as, 27–59, 116, 551–553
octant, reflecting, 16–17
Office of Naval Research, 526–527 officer, line, 75 n38, 170 n11, 328; staff , 170 n11
O'Handley, Douglas, 400, 533, 538
Oort, Jan, 449, 529
Orion Nebula, observations by Holden, 233
Osterbrock, Donald, 398

Page, Lt. Thomas Jefferson, 79
Paine, R. T., 64
parallax, lunar, 239
parallax, solar, 239, 241 (table); accuracy of, 239–241, 260, 264–265, 268–269; from Eros, 381; from Mars, 142, 144 (Gilliss), 155, 221 (Hall), 239–242; values for, 241 (table), 270 (table), 271, 540 (table); from Venus, 142, 239–273; see also Venus, transit of parallax, stellar, and 9.6-inch refractor, 233; and 26-inch refractor, 233–234; and 40-inch reflector, 398; and 61-inch reflector, 415–421, 445; and Hall, 233–234; and Hipparcos, 447; and McCormick telescope, 234, 237; negative, 233; number of, 416; and See, 381; and van Maanen, 416; of Vega, 83, 100, 233
Paris Observatory, 27, 206; astrometry, 363; and Leverrier, 322; and Newcomb, 279; see also International Astrophotographic Congress; Leverrier, U. J. J

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Parkinson and Frodsham; chronometers, 36–37; 145; quadrants, 36–37; see also clock, Parkinson and Frodsham
Parry, J. V. L., 485
Pascu, Dan, 538; and discovery of Calypso, 425; and satellites of Mars, 424–425
Patten, Richard, 34–36, 42
Patterson, R. M., 63–64
Paul, H. M., 169, 180 n24, 229, 303, detached, 333
Paulding, J. K., 46
Pawling, Jesse, 342
Pearson, 37
Pease, Francis, 447
Peirce, Benjamin, 99, 130; and American Almanac, 119; as Coast Survey Superintendent, 282; and comet of 1843, 99; and Davis, 124; and Gilliss, 144; and Hall, 219; and National Academy of Sciences, 165; and Nautical Almanac Office, 119, 121, 129; and Neptune, 94; and Newcomb, 276; and Rodgers, 322; and transit of Venus, 244 personal equation, 402
Peters, C. H. F., asteroid discoveries, 390; and Astrophotographic Congress, 383; and Hygeia, 103; and moons of Mars, 224–225; and Procyon, 216; and transit of Venus, 256
Peters, George, 388, 342; 1925 solar eclipse, 390–392; photographic work, 379, 387–391; spectroscopic work, 379
Phenix, John, 342
Philadelphia, see U. S. Centennial Exhibition
Philadelphia High School Observatory, 64; and comet of 1843, 99; and comet Encke, 51 n63
Philosophical Society of Washington, and Eastman, 179
Phobos, 230, 236, 425
photographic zenith tube, 452, 458–459, 460–461, 495; phased out, 488, 495 photography, 382–392; and 26-inch refractor, 382–392; at 1860 solar eclipse, 201; at 1868 solar eclipse in Arabia, 201; at 1869 solar eclipse, 200–201; at 1878 solar eclipse, 203–204; appropriation for, 383; of asteroids, 389–390; and modernization plan, 392–414; and Naval Observatory's work, 339, 362, 382–392; solar, 387–389; and star catalogs, 434–435; and transits of Venus, 244–247, 260–263, 383 and passim; see also astrograph; International Astrophotographic Congress; reflector, 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien; reflector, 61-inch astrometric; refractor, 6-inch; refractor, 10-inch photoheliograph, and 1878 solar eclipse, 203–205; location, 388 n52; for marginal zone of the Moon, 406; for solar photography, 387, 388–389; surviving at Naval Observatory, 272 n46; for transits of Venus, 203–205; 245–246, 250, 256 photometry, see Hall, John S.
Phythian, 171, 194; and Astrophotographic Congress, 385–386; and new observatory, 310, 312, 316; and time-dissemination controversy, 194
Picard, Jean, and solar parallax, 239
Pickering, E. C., 308; and Carnegie Institution of Washington, 361; and civilian–military controversy, 322, 326–328, 332, 336; and Harvard time service, 195; and moons of Mars, 227, 229; and transits of Venus, 263
Pistor and Martins, 4.5-inch transit circle (Chile), 142, n4; 5-inch prime vertical, 66, 69–70, 367; 8.5-inch transit circle, 158, 165; meridian instruments, 65
Pigman, George, 169
Pinchot, Gifford, 334–335
Planet X, 429, 544
planets, intra-Mercurial, 198, 205; masses of, 216, 234, 423; motions of, 277–278, 284ff; see also satellites, planetary; names of individual planets planets, minor, see minor planets
Pluto, moon of, 425–429; and planet X, 544
Poinsett, Joel, 54
polar motion, 452, 458–459, 496; Doppler tracking, 496; and GPS, 546; satellite laser ranging (SLR), 496; and Universal Time, 459, 482–483; VLBI, 495–496
Polk, James, 122
Pollock, E. T., 391–392
Porter, Lt., 81
Powell, John Wesley, 306
precession, 537, 540 (table)
Precision Measuring Machine (PMM), 443

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Preston, William Ballard, 122
Preston, William Campbell (Senator), 51, 54–55, 57 prime meridian, see meridian, prime; Meridian, American Prime; Meridian, Greenwich Prime Prime-vertical transit, see transit, prime vertical Prin transit instrument, see transit instrument, Prin
Pritchett, Henry S., 169, 229
Procyon, search for companions, 215–216
Professors of Mathematics (U. S. N.), 75–79, 114–115; abolition of, 328, 336–337, 515, 584; and civilian–military controversy, 299–300, 333; as commissioned officers (1848), 74, 75 n38; and Gilliss, 149–150; as head of observatory, 331; loyalty to Navy, 171 n13; and Maury, 115; Nautical Almanac Office Director as, 509, 514–515; origin of (1834), 74–75; and Rodgers, 168–170; salary of, 78; and Sands, 166; and site selection for new observatory, 302; as staff officers, 75 n38, 280, 332; on Transit of Venus Commission, 244; see also Brown; Coffin; Eastman; Eichelberger; Hall, Asaph; Hall (Asaph, Jr.); Hesse; Harkness; Harshman; Hubbard; Keith; Littell; Major; Newcomb; Nourse; Paul; see Skinner; Yarnall; Robinson; Updegraff; Winlock; Nautical Almanac Office Directors in Appendix 2 proper motion, stellar, 415, 434
Ptolemy, 239
Pulkovo Observatory, 27; 30-inch Clark refractor, 218; astrometry, 363; and Automatic Measuring Engine, 404; instrument philosophy, 178; prime-vertical instrument, 65, 178; and SRS, 438; star catalogs, 174, 438–439 punch-card methods, 519–522, 523–524

quadrant, Parkinson and Frodsham, 36–37

Rabi, I. I., 484
Ramsden, Jesse, 17
Raymond, H., 143 n7
Raynsford, George, 342
Reder, F., 488
reference frame, 429–444; dynamical, 414; extragalactic, 414, 444–450; ICRF, 414, 448–449; uses of, 430 reflector, 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien, 341, 392–399, 397, 421; building, 419; and Hall, 409–414; and interstellar polarization, 398, 409–412; mounting, 397; new optics (1970), 398 n68; photographs, 399; plates for, 397; schematic, 394 reflector, 61-inch astrometric, 414–421, 420, 445; building, 419; charge-coupled devices (CCDs), 419, 421 n99; dedication, 420; and discovery of Pluto's moon, 425–429; origin of, 414–417 refraction correction, 83, 433 refractor, 4-inch comet seeker, 253; 5-inch transit of Venus, 247–250; 7.75-inch Naval Academy Clark; 201; at Greenwich, 206; at Harvard, 206; at Paris, 206; at Pulkovo, 206; and Walker, 81
refractor, 4.5-inch (Chile), 142 n4
refractor, 5-inch, 249; at Mare Island, 193 n47; surviving at Naval Observatory, 272 n46; transit of Venus, 247–250 refractor, 6-inch photographic, 389–390
refractor, 6.5-inch (Chile), 142 n4
refractor, 7.75-inch, at 1869 solar eclipse, 201, 203 refractor, 8-inch double astrograph, 440, 442 refractor, 9.6-inch Merz and Mahler/Fraunhofer, 66–67, 70, 81–82, 206–207, chronograph for, 145; at Georgetown site, 374, 390; and Hall, 221; and moons of Mars, 220; and parallax, 233; and transit of Venus, 253; and Walker, 81 refractor, 10-inch photographic, building, 389; construction of, 390; replacement of, 395, 399 refractor, 12-inch (Clark), 374–377, 376, 388; dismounted (1950s), 421 n101; locations, 421 n101; micrometer, 375; mounting, 374; plan of work, 377; refurbished (1980), 421 n101; star dials, 374–376 refractor, 15-inch (Warner and Swasey), 341, 394, 399, 421 refractor, 26-inch Clark (at Foggy Bottom site), 206–237, 213–214; and Alvan Clark, 207–213; building (1878), 171–172; (1872), 210; (1888), 211; chronograph for, 212; clock drive, 215, 217–218; contract for, 209 n7; cost of, 207–208; dismounted, 374; dome, 210, 218; and double stars, 421–423; eyepieces, 214; first observations, 211; glass for, 209; Grant's visit, 211; Hall (Sr) placed in charge, 218; Holden assistant, 213–215, 219; lens repolished, 218;

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

refractor, 26-inch Clark (cont.)
micrometers for, 208, 212, 215, 233; and moons of Mars, 218–237, 299, 373–374; mounting for, 210, 212; move suggested, 218 n19; Newcomb and, 206–218; origins of, 206–211; and planetary masses, 216; and planetary satellites, 216, 221, 225 (Saturn), 221–222 (Uranus and Neptune); and Sands, 168, 206–208; and Saturn, 221–222, 224–225; and search for Procyon, 215–216; spectroscope for, 209, 214, 377; Trouvelot drawings, 216–217; tube at Georgetown site, 389–390; visitors to, 211; see also Mars, moons of; Hall, Asaph refractor, 26-inch Clark (at Georgetown site), 373–382, 378, 381, 407–408, 421–423; building, 314, 375; clock drive, 374; dome, 313–315, 373–382; elevator floor, 374, 422; lens, 374; micrometers, 377, 381; modifications (1958), 422; mounting, 373; old mounting used, 389–390; old tube used, 390; plan of work, 377; spectroscope for, 377–378, spectroscopic work, 373–383; see also double stars relativity, and dynamical time, 498; and atomic-clock experiment, 491–492
Relay 2 satellite, 501 Renstrom, Lester, 342 repeating circle, and Goldsborough, 34
Repsold, Gilliss's visit to; 66; micrometer development, 402; micrometer for 26-inch refractor, 377, 381
Rhynsburger, Robert W., 403
Richardson, W. L., 392
Richmond (Florida) Time Service station, 353, atomic clocks at, 484; origin of, 460
Riefler clock, see clock, Riefler
Ritchey, G. W., 388 n50, 394–399, 397–398
Ritchey–Chrétien telescope, see reflector, 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien
Rittenhouse, David, 13; Observatory, 72; and transit of Venus, 242
Robertson, A. James, 338–339, 341–342, 345, 515, 518; and 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien, 394–395; Director of Nautical Almanac Office, 508, 514–517; and Newcomb, 516 n25; retirement, 517
Robeson, George, 279
Robinson, Thomas J., 78, 146
Rocknell, C. H., 204
Rodgers, C. R. P., 191–192
Rodgers, John (senior), 31, 34
Rodgers, John, 168–170; and civilian–military controversy, 299–300, 322; and Hall, 168–170; moons of Mars, 228; and Naval Observatory's reputation, 298–299; removal of Observatory from Foggy Bottom, 297–305; on usefulness of Observatory to government, 300
Rogers, Joseph A., 383 n42
Rockefeller, Nelson, 356
Roemer, Elizabeth, 410, 413, 421
Rogers, and Civil War, 155
Rogers, Joseph A., 204
Rogers, W. A., 180
Rohde, James, 425
Roosevelt, Franklin D., attempt to abolish Naval Observatory, 343–345; and "Eyes for the Navy," 337–338
Roosevelt, Theodore, and Committee on Organization of Government Scientific Work, 334
Roosevelt Board, 468
Ross, Frank, 393, 395, and PZT, 458; and Robertson controversy, 516
Rothenberg, Marc, 557–558
Rowan, Stephen C., 170
Rowland, Henry A., 303
Royal Greenwich Observatory, demise of, 5, 553; see also Royal Observatory Greenwich
Royal Observatory Greenwich, 16, 27; 13-inch refractor; and Airy transit circle, 177–178; astrometry, 363; and chronometer rating, 20, 43; and Gilliss's visit, 65; star catalogs, 174; see also Royal Greenwich Observatory
Rümchen, 66
Runkle, John D., 129–131, 149
Rush, Charles, 342
Russell, Henry Norris, 393; as fox, 557; and navigation, 504; and transit of Venus, 267
Rutherfurd, Lewis M., 191–192; measuring engine, 262; and transit of Venus, 245

Sadler, Donald, 494, 529, 542
Saegmuller, George N., and 12-inch refractor, 374–376
Safford, Truman H., 130
Samoa station, 438 n134, 463 n22

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Sampson, R. A., 456, 465
Sampson, William T., 170, 191–192
Sands, Benjamin F., 167; and 26-inch refractor, 206–208, 213; civilian–military controversy, 166–168; at Depot, 73, 74 n36; on Ferguson, 104, 166 n7; life, 166; and Newcomb, 278; Superintendent, 166–168; and transit of Venus, 244–247; and unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298 satellites, artificial, 530–532, 544–548; see also Global Positioning System; Hipparcos; relay; Telstar; Transit satellites, astrometric, 447; see also Hipparcos; Full-sky Mapping Astrometric Explorer (FAME) satellites, planetary, 423–429; of Jupiter, 537; of Neptune, 234, 377, 382, 514; of Saturn, 234, 377, 382, 424–426; of Uranus, 216, 221–222, 234, 377, 382; see also Mars, moons of; Pluto, moon of Saturn, 216, 377; and Hill, 286; moons of, 377, 424, 426
Savage, Grace, 342
Schaeberle, J. M., 216
Schlesinger, Frank, 345, 393, 411, 515–517
Schubert, Ernst, 130–131
Schulz, Peter, 538
Schumacher, 65–66, 99
Schriever Air Force Base, 353
Schwarzschild, Martin, 418, 421
Scientific Director, established, 350–351; see also Astronomical Director
Scott, F. P., 342, 350, 415, 444; and 7-inch transit circle, 436–438; and AGK3R, 435–438; and FK3, 430; site testing, 348; and SRS, 437–438; on Watts, 404
Scott, Gustavus H., 73, 74 n36
Scudder, Samuel H., 197 n54
second, definition of, 488 (table); atomic, 485–487; mean solar, 454; ephemeris second, 485–486
See, T. J. J., and 26-inch refractor, 380; detached, 333; at Mare Island, 192–193, 333, 380, 470
Seewald, Norman, 342
Seidelmann, P. K., 424–425, 538–539; Nautical Almanac Office Director, 536–542; and Planet X, 544
Seth Thomas clock, see clocks, Seth Thomas
Sextant, 17, 49 (table); and Goldsborough, 30, 34, 36–37
Shapley, Harlow, 393, 516
Sharnoff, Morris, 342
Sharpless, Bevan, 342, 408–409, 410
Sharpless, Stewart, 410, 413, 421
Sheepshanks, 65
Shklovskii, I. S., 408
Shortt clock, see clocks, Shortt
Shufeldt, Robert W., 170
Signal Service, see Army Signal Service
Simmons, Diana, 538
Simon Newcomb Laboratory, 355–356
Sinnott, R. E., 350
Skinner, A. N., 169; and 8.5-inch transit circle, 180 n24; and 9-inch transit circle, 364–366; and 26-inch refractor, 381; and 1878 solar eclipse, 204; and AGK1, 180; and civilian–military controversy, 327
Smith, Edwin, 256
Smith, Helen, 521
Smith, Joseph, 428
Smith, Humphrey, 493, 494
Smithson, James, 8, 28, 54
Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory, 9 n8
Smithsonian Institution, 14, and Depot of Charts and Instruments, 54–59; fire at, 158; and government science, 306; and meteorology, 107; Naval Observatory transfer proposed, 336
Snow, Arthur, 518, 542f solar eclipse, see eclipse solar parallax, see parallax, solar Sollenberger, Paul, 340, 342, 453; and automatic time broadcaster, 476; life, 458; and PZT, 460; quartz-clock experiments, 465–466; retirement, 478; and transmitting clock, 474–475 speckle interferometry, see interferometry spectroscope, Brashear, 377; Desaga, 201; see also refractor, 26-inch spectroscopy, and 26-inch refractor, 373–382; and 1869 solar eclipse, 199–201; by Harkness, 377; and solar corona, 199, 377
Spencer Jones, Harold, 292, 415, 529
Springer, Moses, Aid at Naval Observatory, 149
Spyglasses, Dolland, 36–37, 44, 74; and Clark, 151
SRS (Southern Reference Stars), 435, 437–438
Stackpole, measuring engine, 389; transit instrument, 251

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

staff officer, see officer standard time, see time, standard Stanton, Frederick (Representative), 121 star catalogs, see catalogs, star starscan, 426, 428
Steinacker, George, 406, 507; and 26-inch-refractor upgrade, 422; and PZT, 480
Stewart, Arthur, 45 n49
Stickney, Chloe Angeline, 1878 solar-eclipse report, 204 n62; crater on Phobos, 236; death of, 236; and Gilliss, 220; and moons of Mars, 219–220, 226
Stokely, James, 345
Stone, Ormond, 332; 1878 solar eclipse, 203
Stoyko, Nicolas, 529
Strand, Kaj, 351, 415, 444, 496, 538; and 61-inch astrometric reflector, 416–421; 1953 astrometric conference, 414; retirement of, 446
Struve, Hermann, visit to Naval Observatory, 218 n19
Struve, Otto, 65, 215, 233, 348, and transit of Venus, 243, 251, 253 n19; visit to Naval Observatory, 218 n19
Sturdy, E. W., 287
submarines, and World War II, 522
Sun, corona, 198–202; distance of from Earth, 239–243; motion of, 198; photography of, 387–389; Venus, 261; see also eclipses, solar; parallax, solar; photography; Venus, transit of Superintendent, Naval Observatory, a line officer, 170, 328; residence (Foggy Bottom), 70–71; residence (Massachusetts Avenue); see also under individual Superintendent names (Appendix 2)
Swift, Lewis, 205, and moons of Mars, 224

Taft, President, 292, 335
Taylor, Zachary, 122
Teledyne-Gurley Corporation, 432 telegraph, see time signals, telegraphic telescope, Jones (3.5–foot), 42; Simms (42-inch), 47; see also mural circle; reflector; refractor; photographic zenith tube; transit instrument; transit circle Telstar, 501
Thayer, Sylvanus, 13 thermometers, 83
Thomas, Armstrong, 538 time, 181–196; 451–503; astronomical, 452, 456, 459, 486 (table), 493–498; atomic, 10, 483–487, 484–485, 486 (table); Coordinated Universal (UTC), 494–495; dynamical, 452, 488, 497–498; Ephemeris, 452, 478–481, 485–487, 497–498; Greenwich Mean, 456; International Atomic (TAI), 488–492, 494; international coordination, 489–492; local, 183; Mean Solar, 454–461 and passim, 486 (table); Newtonian, 479; registration of (eye and ear), 89, 528, 555; (chronograph), 89–92; 187; and relativity, 497–498; and relativity experiment, 491–492; satellite, 501–503, 544–548; scales, 489–491; sidereal, 455; statutory authority for, 493 n69; transfer, 500–503, 502 (table); varieties of, 478–488, 486 (table); see also chronograph; chronometers; clocks; second, definition of; time, determination of; time, dissemination of; time, Standard; time, Universal; time balls; Time Service; time signals; timekeeping time, determination of, 454–461, 494–498; with 5.3-inch Ertel/Merz & Mahler, 84, 454–456; with 6-inch transit circle, 456–457, 456 n9; accuracy of, 10–11, 452, 455–461; method, 86, 454–455; with photographic zenith tube, 459–461, 495; with Prin transit, 457; by radio astrometry, 495–497; with Troughton transit, 41–43 time, dissemination of, 477, 495 (table), 502 (table); accuracy of, 452; in cities, 185; by fire alarm, 182; and Harkness, 182; international coordination of transmitted time, 493; modern methods, 498–503; see also clock, transmitting; time ball; time signals, telegraphic; time signals, radio
Time, Standard, adoption in 1883, 190–191; definition of, 184, 190; and Hayden, 453–454; and Holden, 190; reasons for, 190–191; and Standard Railway Time, 190–191
Time, Universal, 453–477; adoption of, 456; and polar motion, 459; refinements to, 481–483; UT0, UT1, and UT2, 483; techniques for determining, 496; see also time, determination of time balls, 181–196; in 1905, 468; and American Telephone and Telegraph Co., 190; Chicago, 190 n38; Greenwich, 85; and Hydrographic Office, 189; Mare Island, 193 n48; Mauritius, 85; New York City, 186, 188–189; Portsmouth, 85; and

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Postal Telegraph Company, 190; and Signal Service, 189; time dropped, 85, 86 n59, 191; and Western Union, 189–190; other U. S. cities, 189–190; see also time balls, Washington time balls, Washington, 69, 84–86, 154 (1863), 189; automatic (1879), 186; electrical circuit (1850s), 186; magnetic relay, 85 n59; manually dropped, 85, 186; at Massachusetts Avenue site, 86 n59; and New Year's Eve, 86 n59; on State, War and Navy Building (1885), 186; (1936), 468
Time Service, 454, 474; definition of, 181–182; first Director of, 340; Simon Newcomb Laboratory, 355–356; stations, 353; see also clocks; time; time, determination of; time, dissemination of; time signals time signals, radio, 190, 456, 467–478, 474, 476–477, 495 (table), 498–503; Annapolis, 470, 500; Arlington, 469–470; Balboa (Canal Zone), 470, 500; earliest broadcast, 468; French experiments, 469–470; International Time Conference, 470; Mare Island, 470; Pearl Harbor, 470; as public service, 473; San Francisco, 500; and Washington–Paris Longitude Campaign, 470–471; see also National Bureau of Standards time signals, telegraphic; 181–196, 467–468; for citizens, 182–184; and Davis, 184; error of, 467; extent of, 467; and Holden, 184; from Mare Island, 192; for New Year's Eve, 467; for railroads, 182; and Western Union, 182, 184, 193–195; and Winterhalter, 362; see also time, dissemination of timekeeping, accuracy of, 452, 491; see also chronometers; clocks Todd, David P., and moons of Mars, 227, 232 n46; and transit of Venus, 266
Toucey, Isaac, 113
Tracy, Benjamin F., 322, 325
transatlantic cable, 107–108
Transit Circle, 4.5-inch Ertel & Son (1843), 49 n55, 66–67, 176 n20; superseded, 177
Transit Circle, 6-inch Warner and Swasey, 363; 366–367, 431–432; accuracy of star positions with, 432, 433 (table); and AGK3R, 437–438; buildings, 314; chronographs for, 186, 366, 402; clocks used with, 432; computer-controlled data acquisition, 431; graduated-circle technology, 431–432; improvements to, 402–405, 431–432; and IRS, 439–441; lens, 432; micrometer, 403, 431; program, 369; termination of, 441; for time determination, 456–457, 456 n9; use of observations in JPL ephemerides, 534 (table)
Transit Circle, 6.6-inch Ertel & Son, 67, 83; building for, 211
Transit Circle, 7-inch, 404, 436, 437–441; in Argentina, 438–439; in New Zealand, 439–440, 441; origin of, 437; in Washington, 437–438; termination of , 441
Transit Circle, 8-inch, 441
Transit Circle, 8.5-inch, 155–156, 165, 171–172, 177; arrival, 176; chronograph for, 91 n71; defects in, 180; and Eastman, 179–180; modified to 9-inch, 180; and Newcomb, 176; 178, 277; observing program, 178; publication of results, 363; supersedes mural circle, 177; termination, 576; see also Transit Circle, 9-inch
Transit Circle, 9-inch, 364–366, 365, 371; building rebuilt, 364 n11; micrometer, 404; modified from 8.5-inch, 180, 364; program, 369; and Riefler clock, 463 n21; termination of, 371; use of observations in JPL ephemerides, 534 (table); see also Transit Circle, 8.5-inch
Transit Circle, Airy, 177–178, 441; demise of, 441
Transit Instrument, Hassler's, 34; Patten, 34–35, 42; photographic, 373; for time, 41–43, 454–456, 460; Troughton (1815), 41–42, 43, 47; and War Department, 34–35; see also mural circle; transit circle; Transit Instrument, 5.3-inch; Transit Instrument, Prime Vertical; Transit Instrument, Prin; Transit Instrument, Stackpole
Transit Instrument, 5.3-inch Merz and Mahler/Ertel & Son, 80, 455; early observations, 79–83; and Gilliss (1865), 145; modified to photographic instrument, 373; moved, 171; purchase, 66–67; superseded for time determination 177, 456; for time determination, 454–456; and Yarnall, 105
Transit Instrument, Prime Vertical, 64, 5-inch Pistor and Martins, 66, 69–70, 81, 145–146, 367 (remodeled), 368–369; building for, 211; compared with mural circle, 66; compared with zenith tube, 65
Transit Instrument, Prin, for time determination, 456–457; for Washington–Paris Longitude Campaign, 471–472

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Transit Instrument, Stackpole, at Mare Island, 193 n47; surviving at Naval Observatory, 272 n46; for transit of Venus, 250–251 transit, variation (for magnetic observations), 47 transit of Venus, see Venus, transit of Transit satellite, 452, 501, 545
Troughton, transit instrument (1815), 41–42, 43, 47
Troughton and Simms, magnetic instruments, 47–49; meridian instruments, 65; sextants, 36–37
Trouvelot, E. L., 1878 solar eclipse, 205 n62; astronomical artwork, 216–217
Tutuila, Samoa, see Samoa station
Twin Astrographic Catalogue (TAC), 442
Two-way satellite time transfer (TWSTT), 501
Tydings, Millard (Senator), 348–349
Tyler, President, 53; and location of Depot of Charts and Instruments (1842), 63

UCAC-1, see USNO CCD Astrometric Catalogue
Universal Time, see Time, Universal Updegraff, Milton, detached, 333; Nautical Almanac Office Director, 510
Upshur, Abel, 49, 56, 63, 65
Upton, W., 1878 solar eclipse, 203
Uranus, moons of, 216, 221–222, 424–425
Urban, Sean, 442–443
U. S. Centennial Exhibition, 217, 251–252
U. S. Coast Survey, see Coast Survey
U. S. Exploring Expedition, see Exploring Expedition, U. S
U. S. Naval Observatory, see Naval Observatory
U. S. Naval Observatory and Hydrographic Office, see Naval Observatory and Hydrographic Office
USNO CCD Astrometric Catalogue (UCAC), 442
U. S. S. Los Angeles dirigible, 391–392

Van Flandern, Thomas C., 542, 544
Vancouver, 17
Vanguard, 531–532
Van Vleck, J. M., 130–131
Vasilevskis, S., 446
Venus, 537
Venus, transit of, 238–273, 242; American expeditions (1874), 255 (table), 256–263; American expeditions (1882), 263–273, 266 (table); appropriations for, 244, 247, 265; black-drop phenomenon, 240; 242, 244, 260–261; and Britain, 243, 250, 261, 264; and Clark, 247–250, and Davis, 168; eighteenth century, 241–242; as exploration, 198; European results, 260–261; and France, 243, 250, 265; frequency, 241; and Germany, 243, 250, 264; and Hall, 221; and Harkness, 263–273; and Holland, 243; instructions for, 257; instrumentation for, 245–251; layout of instrumentation, 258; and Newcomb, 240, 255–263; observing methods, 240, 244–245; personnel, 253, 255, 266; photoheliograph, 203, 205, 245–246, 250; photographic plates, 259 (table, 1874), 260–261, 262–263, 265, 267 (table, 1882); plaque for, 272; practice for, 253, 256; results of, 260–263, 268–271; and Rittenhouse in 1769, 13; seventeenth century, 241; under Rodgers, 170; and Russia, 243; under Sands, 168; stations for observing in 1874, 247, 251–254, 255; stations for 1882, 265–266; U. S. Commission on, 244–255; see also Mercury, transit of Very, S. W., 1878 eclipse, 204
Vice President's residence, 316, 356–357
Vienna, Imperial Observatory, 218, 225
Vince, 37
50 Virginia, discovered by Ferguson, 104
Vulcan, 205; see also planets, intra-Mercurial

Walcott, Charles D., 334, 336
Waldo, Leonard, and transit-of-Venus plates, 261
Walker, Richard, 424
Walker, Sears Cook, 57, 63, 76–77, 78, 99; 1851 solar eclipse observed and comet of 1843, 99; as computer, 81; and Encke's comet, 51 n63; and Gould, 110; and longitude, 87–89; and Maury, 95, 116; and Nautical Almanac, 133; and Neptune, 92–95
War Department, 34–35
Warner and Swasey, 6-inch transit circle, 363, 366–367; 26-inch refractor, 313–315, 375; altazimuth, 367–370; micrometer for 6-inch, 402; see also altazimuth; reflector, 15-inch; refractor, 26-inch (at Georgetown site); transit circle, 6-inch
Washburn, Cadwallader C., 208
Washburn Observatory, 208, 233, 327
Washington Academy of Sciences, and Eastman, 179

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-81599-4 - Sky and Ocean Joined: The U. S. Naval Observatory 1830-2000
Steven J. Dick
Index
More information

Washington Meridian Conference, see International Meridian Conference
886 Washingtonia, 390
Watson, J. C., 1878 solar eclipse, 203, 205; transit of Venus, 257
Watts, C. B., 341–342, 350, 372–373, 415, 457; and 6-inch transit circle, 367, 369, 402–405; and 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien, 397; and 1925 eclipse observations, 391–392; and Astrographic Division, 399; and Hall, 409–411; and marginal zone of Moon, 405–406; photographic transit instrument, 373; retirement, 431; and time determination, 456–457
Weather Bureau, U. S., 14, 321
Weimer, Th., 405
Welles, Gideon, 146, 166, 207–208
West Point Military Academy, founding, 13; observatory at, 9, 64–65
Westerhout, Gart, 351, and radio astrometry, 446, 495
Western Union, controversy with American Observatories, 193–195; and Mare Island time service, 192; origin of time service, 182, 184; and radio time signals, 468; and time balls, 189; and transit-of-Venus time signals, 266
Weston, Louise, 538
Whipple, Fred, 517
Whitney, Leonard, 301
Whitney, William C., 307
Whittaker, Gerald, 342
Whyte, William P., 302
Wilkes, Lt. Charles, 39, 144; and Capitol Hill Observatory, 38–44, 52, 59; and Civil War, 153; death, 160; and Gilliss, 46; and Goldsborough, 39; longitude determinations by telegraph, 87; and U. S. Exploring Expedition, 13, 44
Wilkins, George, 539
Willard, S., 45
Willis, Elsie, 342
Willis, J. E., 342; and 40-inch Ritchey–Chrétien, 398; and PZT, 459–460
Wilson, Senator Henry, and National Academy of Sciences, 165
Wilson, President, 336
wind and current charts, see Maury, Matthew Fontaine
Winkler, Gernot, 453, 486, 488–489; and National Bureau of Standards, 492
Winlock, Joseph, 138; at Harvard College Observatory, 279; and Nautical Almanac Office, 118, 130–131, 133, 136–139, 281; and Newcomb, 276; and transit-of-Venus equipment, 245
Winterhalter, Albert G., Astrophotographic Congress, 383–387, 385; European observatories trip, 310–311, 362; and photography, 383
Wirt, Elizabeth, 38
Wirt, William, 33 n15
Wolf, Rudolph, 285
Woodward, R. S., 326
Woolard, Edgar, 351, 530, 544; Nautical Almanac Office Director, 536–537
Worley, Charles, 419
Wright, Chauncy, and Nautical Almanac Office, 119, 130
Wurdemann, William

Yale–Columbia Southern Observatory, 438–439
Yarnall, Mordecai, 78, 98, 105–107, 178; civilian–military controversy, 299–300; and Newcomb, 172; and star catalogs, 105, 174, 176, 181; on unhealthy conditions at Foggy Bottom site, 298
Yerkes Observatory, 327, 359
Young, C. A., 308, 332; and transit of Venus, 265
Young, William, 142 n4 zenith tube (photographic), see photographic zenith tube zenith tube (visual), 65–66

Zverev, M. S., 529

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org