Note: References to “articles” or “art.”, unless otherwise indicated, are to the UN Charter

Achille Lauro. See US interventions in self-defense of citizens aggression. See threat, breach of peace or act of aggression (Art. 39)

Albania, Operation Alba (1997), 30

Legality of the Threat or Use of Nuclear Weapons, 98

proof

Aquinas, 176

Arab–Israeli War (1967) as anticipatory self-defense

GA resolutions
2252 (ES-V), 103–104
2253 (ES-V), 103–104

justification for Israeli action

Egyptian blockade as actual self-defense, 102, 104 withdrawal of UNEF, 102 return of territory/termination of belligerency equation, 103, 107

SC resolutions 233, 102 234, 102 236, 103

UN tolerance of Israeli position, 103–105, 107

Argentina. See Israel–Argentina (Eichmann) (1960); Malvinas/Falklands (1982)

armed attack. See self-defense against armed attack (Art. 51); state-sponsored terrorism attacks against citizens abroad, self-defense against. See also Belgian, French and US interventions in self-defense of citizens; Egyptian intervention in Cyprus (1978); Entebbe incident (Israel–Uganda) (1976); humanitarian intervention; UK interventions; Zaire, French–Belgian interventions (1978)

armed forces as object of protection, 89

Durant, 76

mitigating circumstances as justification, 96

motivation ouster/bolstering of government as real intention, 77, 78–79, 86–87

punishment/deterrence, 89, 96

self-interest, presumption of, 76–77, 78

non-consensual, 77, 78

practice of UN principal organs and, 77, 81–82, 89, 90–91, 94, 96

reprisals distinguished, 91

requirements minimal collateral damage, 96
Index

as pragmatic solution, 137
Congo, 25
Haiti, 28, 42, 43–44
humanitarian intervention, 137
Korean War, 24–25
Rhodesia, 25, 137
Somalia, 137
voluntary participation/mandatory authority and objectives, 27, 46 collective security. See also humanitarian intervention
attempts at San Francisco to make mandatory, 46, 47
collective use of force (Art. 42), 2, 3, 20, 21–24. See also coalitions of the willing ad hoc measures, as norm, 22, 44, 46
as free-standing authority, 23–24, 26–27 coalitions of the willing. See coalitions of the willing commitment of forces to service of Security Council (Art. 43), 2, 20, 46
as preferred option at Dumbarton Oaks, 22
by special agreement, 22
interrelationship of Articles 42 and 43, 22–24, 26–27
cordell Hunt memorandum (1943) (commitment of forces), 22, 24, 31–32
failure to implement, 22–24 indirect aggression and. See
state-sponsored terrorism
deployed or authorized by UN in response to events within one state, 9
exclusive prerogative of UN, 2
international police force, rejection at San Francisco, 47
League of Nations, 10
measures not involving the use of armed force (Art. 41), 2
measures or recommendations to maintain or restore peace and security (Art. 39), 20, 28
compliance, obligation (Art. 25), 20, 21, 27 relevance of Art. 43, 26–27 obstacles to implementation. See human rights and freedoms; state-sponsored terrorism; veto, use of; weapons developments competence of UN organs, right to determine, 6
confliction with decision on substance, 6
countermeasures/self-help in case of persistent breach of international law, 9, 109. See also self-defense against armed attack;
state-sponsored terrorism,
countermeasures against territory of state harboring and abetting
Art. 2(4) prohibition on use of force and, 110
as a wrong
apology as reparation, 114
mitigating circumstances, 113, 120, 131
Corfu Channel, 133
customary international law, state practice supporting right below
ILC Articles on State Responsibility, 109, 132
ineffective international law enforcement mechanisms and, 110, 131 “interests” susceptible to protection, 109
erga omnes rights, 109
Genocide Treaty (1951)
ILC Articles on State Responsibility, 109
peaceful enjoyment of rights denied by continuing wrong of another state, 109
Namibia
Advisory Opinion Court’s call for economic measures, 111
GA resolution 36/121A calling for military support, 111
practice of UN principal organs and, 131
tolerance of wrong, 114, 116, 118, 132, 133
requirements
exhaustion of peaceful remedies, 132
failure of UN system to redress egregious wrong, 112, 115, 117, 122, 126, 127, 129
necessity, 112, 132, 133
proportionality, 134
state practice supporting right, 111, 131. See also East Timor (1975); Goa (India–Portugal) (1961); Israel–Argentina (Eichmann) (1960); Malvinas/Falklands (1982); Turkish intervention in Cyprus (1974); Western Sahara (Morocco (Mauritania)–Spain) (1975) creative fictions as basis, 112
legitimacy/legality balance, 120, 123, 127
paucity
Czechoslovakia, Warsaw Pact’s action against (1968), 73
veto, use of, 75
domestic jurisdiction, non-intervention in (Art. 2(7)), ambiguity of text, 13
as prohibition on UN intervention, 12 Covenant provision distinguished, 13 determination of matters within, 6
right to intervene, 6
NATO intervention in Kosovo (1999), 168
permitted intervention, 13
ad hoc practice of Council, 14
at request of state concerned, 41 human rights and freedoms, in case of breach. See human rights and freedoms humanitarian intervention.
See humanitarian intervention self-defense against attacks on citizens abroad. See attacks against citizens abroad, self-defense against San Francisco addition, 12
State practice and, 7
State’s right to prohibit intervention, 7
East Timor (1975), 127. See also INTERFET failure of UN system to redress wrong, 127
FREITILIN’s declaration of independence, 127
GA resolutions
3485 (XXX), 128
32/34, 128
SC resolutions
124, 128
1264, 128
1274, 128
1374, 128
eating the cabin boy, 178
Dudley and Stephens, 178
Holmes, 178, 190
necessity, 178
ECOMOG intervention in Liberia (1989–97), 155
ECOWAS decision to establish ECOMOG, 155 authorization of SC (Art. 33), failure to seek, 156
retroactive, 156, 158
SC authorization of ECOWAS embargo (SC resolution 788), 157

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

UNOMIL (SC resolutions 856 and 866 (1993)), 157
UN tolerance of, 158, 186

ECOMOG intervention in Sierra Leone (1991–2000), 159
authorization/approval of SC, resolutions 1132, 160 1156, 160
116, 160
1181, 160
1260, 161
1270 (UNAMSHI), 30, 161
1299 (UNAMSHI), 162
peace agreement (7 July 1999), 161
self-defense as justification, 160
withdrawal of Nigerian troops, 161

Egyptian intervention in Cyprus (1978), 85
absence of response from UN political organs, 86

Eichmann. See Israel–Argentina (Eichmann) (1960)

Entebbe incident (Israel–Uganda) (1976), 81 ambiguous outcome of SC discussion, 85 equality of application of the law, 190

Falklands. See Malvinas/Falklands (1982)
French interventions
Central African Empire (1979), 151
scholars’ views, 152
UN tolerance, 151, 186
in self-defense of citizens
Central African Republic (1996), 77
retroactive SC authorization, 162
Chad (1992), 77
Gabon (1990), 77
Mauritania (1977), 77
Rwanda (1990), 77
Zaire (1978), 77

General Assembly resolutions
997 (ES-I) (1956) (Suez Crisis), 36
998 (ES-I) (1956) (Suez Crisis), 36, 56
1000 (ES-I) (1956) (UNEF), 36, 39
1001 (ES-I) (1956) (UNEF guiding principles), 37
1005 (ESII) (Hungary), 71
1131 (1956), Hungary, 71
1125 (XI) (1957) (UNEF mandate), 56
1132 (1957), Hungary, 71
1474 (ES-IV) (1960) (ONUC), 37, 39
1514 (XV) (granting of independence to colonial peoples), 115
1599 (XV) (1961) (ONUC), 39
1600 (XV) (1961) (ONUC), 39
1601 (XV) (1961) (ONUC), 39
1731 (XV) (1961) (request for Advisory Opinion on certain expenses of the UN), 38
2131 (XX) (1966) (Inadmissibility of Intervention in the Domestic Affairs of States), 53
2252 (ES-V) (1967) (Arab–Israeli War), 103
2253 (ES-V) (1967) (Arab–Israeli War), 103
2625 (XXV) (1970) (Friendly Relations), 64
2793 (XXVI) (Bangla Desh), 142
3212 (XXIX) (1974) (Cyprus), 119
3314 (XXIX) (1974) (Definition of Aggression), 53, 64
3453B (XXX) (Western Sahara), 123
3485 (XXX) (1975), 128
31/45 (Western Sahara), 124
32/22 (Western Sahara), 124
32/34 (East Timor), 128
33/31 (Western Sahara), 124
34/22 (Cambodia), 150
34/37 (Western Sahara), 124
36/27 (Israel–Iraq: nuclear reactor), 105
36/46 (Western Sahara: referendum), 125
36/121A (Namibia), 111
37/18 (Israel–Iraq: nuclear reactor), 106
37/20 (Malvinas/Falklands), 131
37/9 (Malvinas/Falklands), 131
ES-7/5 (Israel action in Lebanon), 59
38/7 (Grenada), 88
38/40 (Western Sahara), 125
39/40 (Western Sahara), 125
40/50 (Western Sahara), 125
42/78 (Western Sahara), 125
41/38 (US attacks on Libya), 91
44/240 (US intervention in Panama), 93
SC resolutions distinguished, 34

General Assembly role, 31. See also Uniting for Peace Resolution (GA Resolution 377 (V))
Art. 18(2), 35
international peace and security
Art. 11(2), 32
primacy of Security Council, 31, 38

Goa (India–Portugal) (1961)
failure of UN system to redress wrong, 115, 117, 128
GA resolutions, 1514 (XV) (granting of independence to colonial peoples), 115
Portuguese refusal to accept Art. 73(e) reporting obligation, 114
Rights of Passage over Indian Territory and, 115
UN tolerance of Indian annexation, 116, 128, 132, 133
Western Sahara compared, 121, 128 gun-boat diplomacy. See attacks against citizens abroad, self-defense against

Hijacking Convention (1970), 83
Hobbes (The Leviathan), 176
human rights and freedoms collective security arrangements, impact on, 21
repression as threat to the peace, 4, 41, 136
UN Charter, 4, 21, 136
San Francisco acknowledgment of role, 17
UK/USSR refusal to include in Art. 1(3), 18
UN practice, 18, 41 humanitarian intervention. See also attacks against citizens abroad, self-defense against; Bangla Desh (Indian intervention in East Pakistan) (1971); ECOMOG intervention in Liberia (1989–98) and Sierra Leone (1991–2000); French interventions; Kosovo (NATO intervention) (1999); Tanzania–Uganda (1971); Vietnam intervention in Kampuchea (1978–79) absence of provision in Charter, 136 adaptation of Charter and, 171 autonomous State action, 9
assessment of developments/risks, 171
SC authorization, 136
without SC authorization, 137
coalitions of the willing, 137 equality of application of the law and, 190
in case of wrong
erga omnes, 135
in violation of customary international law, 135 prohibited by international agreement, 135
justice/peace equation, 138
justification by reference to additional factors, 137 avoidance by defenders of NATO action in Kosovo, 166
motivation in doubt, 150, 189
self-defense, 145, 160
support of spontaneous uprising, 147 threat to the peace, 137, 152
legitimacy/legality balance, 142, 143, 169, 175
Goldstone Commission, 170, 181
Schacht (International Law in Theory and Practice), 181 “mitigating circumstances” doctrine as key to, 188, 190 objections to, 138
practice of UN organs and ambiguity, 138
tolerance, 145, 151, 153, 158
requirements
authorization by SC, 162. See also ECOMOG intervention in Liberia (1989–97) and Sierra Leone (1991–2000)
exhaustion of alternative remedies, 135, 166, 167
in absence of SC authorization, 142 absence of alternative, 155
necessity, 155
inability of other state to deal with distress, 155
proportionality, 144, 150
Russian attitude, 180
scholarly opinion, 138
selective participation, relevance, 189
state practice, ambiguity, 138
willingness to act without SC support
UK, 182
US, 154
ICJ advisory opinions
Certain Expenses of the UN (1962), 38
Legality of the Threat or Use of Nuclear Weapons, 61
Namibia (1971), 8
Court’s call for economic measures to implement, 111
GA resolution 36/121A calling for military support, 111
state practice, 191
optional nature of resort to, 112
Western Sahara, 121
ICJ judgments
Corfu Channel, 133
mitigating circumstances, 184
enforcement (Art. 94(2)), 110
Nicaragua, 61
state practice, effect, 174, 191
threshold considerations, 62
September 11 attacks distinguished
US veto on implementation, 111
Tehran Hostages, mitigating circumstances, 184
ideological subversion from abroad
as armed attack, 75
definition, 69
practice of UN principal organs and, 75
self-defense and, 75
proportionality, need for, 75
rejection, 69, 70, 73
USA-Dominican Republic (1965), 72
USSR-Czechoslovakia (1968), 73
Warsaw Pact–Hungary (1956), 70. See also Warsaw Pact–Hungary (1956)

196
Index

Israel invasion of Egypt distinguished, 71
ILC Articles on State Responsibility
countermeasures/self-help in case of persistent breach of international law, 132
erga omnes interests, 109
state-sponsored terrorism, 54
India. See Bangla Desh (Indian intervention in East Pakistan) (1971); Goa
(India–Portugal) (1961)
Indonesia. See East Timor (1975)
injunction of UN “jury”’s approach, 97, 186
Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (1947) (Rio Treaty), 49
legal positivism, 175
INTERFET, 30
internal armed conflict. See civil war
international law enforcement
absence of Charter provision for breach not amounting to threat to the peace, 110, 131
as renunciation of option of enforcement, 111, 131 countermeasures/self-help as remedies of last resort. See countermeasures/self-help in case of persistent breach of international law
ICJ judgment (Art. 94(2)), 110
ineffectiveness, 110
legal positivism. See legal positivism Iraq. See Kurds, action outside own territory as self-defense; Kurds, Three Power humanitarian intervention (1991); US interventions in self-defense of citizens
Israel–Argentina (Eichmann) (1960), 112
kidnapping as a wrong
apology as reparation, 114
mitigating circumstances, 113
SC resolution 138, 114
UN tolerance of Israeli action, 114, 132, 133
Israel–Iraq (nuclear reactor) (1981), 105
proof, difficulty of, 106, 108
reappraisal, 106
UN condemnation, 105
GA resolutions
36/27 (13 November 1981), 105
37/18 (16 November 1982), 106
SC resolution 487, 105
Israeli retaliatory attacks on Lebanon (1982), 57. See also Suez Canal crisis expulsion of PLO from Lebanon, 59
GA resolutions, 37/123E (16 December 1982), 59
illegal occupation of Lebanon and, 59
proportionality, 65
SC resolutions
509 (1982), 57
516 (1982), 59
517 (1982), 59
518 (1982), 59
jus ad bellum/jus in bello, 10
jus naturale. See natural law (jus naturale) judicial/peace equation, 14 absence of enforcement provisions in Charter and, 112, 131
Bangla Desh (1971), 142
finding the balance, 17, 18, 133
at San Francisco, 17
human rights and freedoms as acknowledged factor, 17
rebalancing, recognition of possible need for, 17
humanitarian intervention, 138
Kofi Annan
Millennium Assembly report 2000, 16
UNGA 1999, 16
Netherlands proposal for committee of wise men to scrutinize Council’s decisions, 15
Tanzania–Uganda (1971), 143
Vietnamese intervention in Kampuchea,
147
Kellogg–Briand Pact for the Renunciation of War (1928)
Preamble (renunciation of war as instrument of policy), 11
Art. 2, 11
Pearl Harbour and, 11
Khmer Rouge. See Vietnam intervention in Kampuchea (1978–79)
Korean War
collegation of the willing, 24
UN Commission on Korea, role, 25
Uniting for Peace resolution, relevance, 35
Kosovo interim international administration (1999), veto (China)
and, 9
Kosovo (NATO intervention) (1999)
air strikes (24 March), 166
domestic jurisdiction (Art. 2/7)
considerations, 168
ECOWAS operations in Liberia and Sierra Leone distinguished, 163
justification
avoidance of legal fictions, 166
exhaustion of alternative remedies, 166, 167
Kumanovo Military Technical Agreement
(9 June 1999), 169
Index

Kosovo (NATO intervention) (1999)
(cont.)
  legitimacy/legality balance, 169, 180
  Goldstone Commission, 170, 181
NATO standing, 163
Rambouillet agreement, 165
refugee movements as threat to the peace, 166
SC debate (24 March), 166
SC resolutions
  1160, 42, 137, 164
  1199, 42, 44, 165
  1203, 42, 165
  1244, 9, 42, 169
UN Secretary-General’s Report (October 1998), 164
UN tolerance of, 186
Kurds, action against outside own territory as self-defense
  Iran-Iraq, 63
  proportionality, 65
Turkey–Iraq, 63
Kurds, Three Power humanitarian intervention (1991), 155 establishment of safe areas, 153 refugees as threat to peace, 152
SC resolution 688, 152
UN tolerance, 153
US willingness to act without SC support, 154
Kuwait. See Operation Desert Storm (1990)

Lauterpacht “no violence principle”, 1, 9, 18, 20, 171

League of Nations Covenant
  Art. 10 (defense against external aggression), 10
  Art. 15(7), (right to take action necessary for maintenance of right and justice), 10
  Art. 16 (sanctions), 10
  limitations on right to make war
    cooling off period, 10 “resort to war”, 10
  loopholes, 1
legal fictions, 43, 145, 166, 181

legal positivism, 175
  Austin (The Province of Jurisprudence Determined), 176
  Brierly’s challenge to, 177
  Hobbes (The Leviathan), 176
  Marx/Engels (The German Ideology), 176
  Vattel (Law of Nations), 176
legitimacy/legality balance. See also mitigating circumstances
  Bangla Desh, 142
  East Timor (1975), 129
  eating the cabin boy, 178
  Goldstone Commission, 170, 181
  Malvinas/Falklands (1982), 131
  morality/law divide, 175. See also legal positivism; natural law (jus naturale) civil liberties and, 175
  legal positivism, 175
  Roman law (jus civilis/jus gentium), 175
  NATO intervention in Kosovo (1999), 169, 180
  Rwanda (1994), 182
  Tanzania–Uganda (1971), 143
  unlawfulness/culpability distinction and, 179
  Western Sahara (Morocco (Mauritania)–Spain) (1975), 127
Liberia. ECOMOG intervention in Liberia (1989–97)
Libya. See US interventions in self-defense of citizens Locarno Treaty (1925), Art. 2, 10
loopholes
  League of Nations Covenant, 1
  UN Charter attempts to plug, 1
  value, 1
Malvinas/Falklands (1982), 131
  Argentine invasion, 130
  failure of UN system to redress wrong, 130
  GA resolution 37/9, 131
  legitimacy/legality balance, 131
  SC resolution 502, 130
Marx/Engels (The German Ideology), 176
MINURSO, 126
mitigating circumstances
  burden of proof, 190
  continuing validity of legal norms, 185
  UN’s responsibility for calibrating, 186
  contributory wrong, 113, 120
  Corfu Channel, 184
  Hart (“Legal Responses and Excuses”), 179
  justification distinguished, 191
  necessity, 96, 105, 107
  recognized legal right, 131
  value in humanitarian intervention situations, 188, 190 morality. See legitimacy/legality balance Morocco. (1975). See Western Sahara (Morocco (Mauritania)–Spain) (1975) nationals abroad. See attacks against citizens abroad, self-defense against NATO. See also Kosovo (NATO intervention) (1999)
mandate, 163
obligation of mutual defense, 49
Index

UN cooperation with (double key approach), 29
Kosovo (1999) distinguished, 163
natural law (jus naturale), 176
Aquinas, 176
morality/law divide and, 175
revised post-WW II, 176
necessity as requirement/justification, 105, 107, 132, 133
eating the cabin boy, 178
Nicaragua. See US support for El Salvador against insurgents from Nicaragua (1980–86)
“no violence principle”, 1
non-aggression pacts
Kellogg–Briand Pact for the Renunciation of War (1938), 11
Locarno Treaty (1925), 10
OAS action against Dominican Republic (1960), 57, 159
ONUC, 37, 39, 41, 43, 78
Operation Alba (1997), 30
Operation Desert Storm (1990)
right of self defense and, 26, 49
veto (China) and, 9, 26
Operation Turquoise (1994), 30
opinio juris, significance, 191
Oppenheim, legality of war, 10
Pakistan. See Bangla Desh (Indian intervention in East Pakistan) (1971)
Panama. See US interventions in self-defense of citizens peace and justice. See justice/peace equation peacekeeping operations (Chapter 6 1/2), 39
adaptation of Charter, 40
mission creep, 40
Portugal. See East Timor (1975); Goa (India–Portugal) (1961) positivism. See legal positivism proportionality, self-defense/Caroline, 67, 97
humanitarian intervention, 144
ideological subversion from abroad, 75
Israel’s occupation of Southern Lebanon, 65
Israel’s strike against Fedayyen (1956), 65
Senegalese action against Guinea-Bissau (1992/1995), 65
Tajiki action against Afghanistan (1993), 65
public opinion, role, 67
refugee movements as threat to the peace, 43, 137
Bangla Desh (1971), 142
Iraq, 152
Kosovo, 166
regional defense arrangements. See also ECOMOG intervention in Liberia (1989–97) and Sierra Leone (1990–99); Kosovo (NATO intervention) (1999) concerns relating to, 48
retroactive legitimation of action under, 156, 158
ECOMOG, 162
French intervention in Central African Republic (1996), 162
OAS action against Dominican Republic (1960), 56, 159
SC authorization, need for (Art. 53), 137, 136, 160 drafting history, 158 retroactive, 159. See retroactive legitimation of action under above reprisals as “self-defense”, 91, 106
Roman law (jus civile/jus gentium), morality/law divide and, 175
Rwanda (1994), legitimacy/legality balance, 182
Rwanda (Operation Turquoise), 30
sanctions
League of Nations, 10
UN, mandatory nature, 27, 45, 46
Schachter (International Law in Theory and Practice), legitimacy/legality balance, 181 Security Council. See also veto, use of 232 (1966) (Rhodesia), 25
General Assembly and. See General Assembly role majority voting, 46
Security Council decisions, compliance, obligation (Art. 25), 20, 21, 27
Security Council resolutions
82 (1950) (Korea), 24
83 (1950) (Korea), 24
94 (1950) (Korea), 24
119 (1956) (Suez Canal crisis), 33, 53
541 (1983) (Cyprus), 119
138 (1960) (Eichmann), 114
143 (1960) (Congo), 25, 37, 78
145 (1960) (Congo), 78
157 (1960) (Congo), 37
186 (1964) (UNFICYP), 80
189 (1964) (British military action in Yemen), 91
193 (1964) (Cyprus ceasefire), 80
Index

Security Council resolutions (cont.)

199 (1964) (Congo), 79
221 (1960) (Rhodesia), 25
232 (1966) (Rhodesia: sanctions), 27, 42, 137
233 (1967) (Arab–Israeli War), 102
234 (1967) (Arab–Israeli War), 102
236 (1967) (Arab–Israeli War), 103
333 (1974) (Cyprus), 118
354 (1974) (Cyprus), 118
360 (1974) (Cyprus), 119
364 (1974) (UNFICYP), 118
380 (1975) (Western Sahara), 123
384 (1975) (East Timor), 128
418 (1977) (South Africa), 27, 42, 43, 137 425 (1978) (Israeli withdrawal from the Lebanon), 57
502 (1982) (Malvinas/Falklands), 130
509 (1982) (Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon), 57
516 (1982) (Israel/Lebanon), 59
517 (1982) (Israel/Lebanon), 59
518 (1982) (Israel/Lebanon), 59
530 (1983) (affirmation of Nicaragua’s right to live in peace), 60
541 (1983) (Cyprus), 119
550 (1984) (Cyprus), 119
621 (1988) (Western Sahara), 126
660 (1990) (Iraq), 25
678 (1990) (Operation Desert Storm), 9, 25, 27, 49
687 (1991) (termination of presence in Iraq), 27
688 (1991) (Kurds in Iraq), 132
690 (1998) (Western Sahara: MINURSO), 126
713 (1991) (Yugoslavia), 137
743 (1992) (UNPROFOR), 29
773 (1948) (UNTSO), 39
788 (1992) (Liberian embargo), 157
794 (1992) (Somalia), 27, 28, 42, 137
801 (1948) (UNTSO), 39
814 (1993) (UNOSOM II), 28, 42
836 (1993) (extension of UNPROFOR
mandate), 29
856 (1993) (UNOMIL), 157
866 (1993) (UNOMIL), 157
929 (1994) (Rwanda: Operation Turquoise), 30
940 (1994) (Haiün), 28, 42, 43, 137
958 (1994) (UNPROFOR: Croatia), 29
991 (1990) (Kuwait: right of self-defense), 49
1101 (1997) (Albania: Operation Alba), 30
1114 (1997) (Albania: Operation Alba), 30
1132 (1997) (Sierra Leone), 160
1156 (1998) (Sierra Leone), 160
1160 (1998) (Kosovo), 42, 137, 164
1162 (1998) (Sierra Leone), 160
1181 (1998) (Sierra Leone), 160
1189 (1998) (attacks on US embassies in Africa), 95
1199 (1998) (Kosovo), 42, 44, 165
1203 (1998) (Kosovo), 42, 165
1228 (1999) (Western Sahara: MINURSO),
126
1244 (1999) (Kosovo), 9, 42, 169
1246 (1999) (East Timor: INTERFET), 30
1246 (1999) (East Timor), 128
1260 (1999) (Sierra Leone), 161
1264 (1999) (East Timor)
1267 (1999) (terrorists in Afghanistan), 66, 95
1270 (1999) (UNAMSIL), 30, 161
1272 (1999) (East Timor)
1289 (2000) (UNAMSIL), 30, 161
1299 (2000) (UNAMSIL), 161
1301 (2000) (Western Sahara: MINURSO),
126
1304 (2000) (condemnation of Rwanda’s violation of territory of the Congo), 66
1368 (2001) (September 11 attacks), 44, 54, 66
1373 (2001) (September 11 attacks: sanctions), 42, 43, 66
abstention from vote, examples, 8. See also
veto, use of legal effect, 34
procedural matters for purposes of
Art. 27(2), 8
S/3710 (call for Israeli withdrawal from Egypt), 55
self-defense against armed attack (Art. 51), 3, 43. See also collective security; state-sponsored terrorism ambiguity of text, 51 anticipatory. See anticipatory use of force in self-defense
concurrent rights, 49
drafting at San Francisco, 48, 51 inherent right, 3
absence in Dumbarton Oaks draft, 48
authorisation, relevance, 26
State practice and, 7, 49
justification
attacks by terrorists, insurgents or surrogates operating from another state. See state-sponsored terrorism humanitarian intervention. See human rights and freedoms; humanitarian intervention
ideological subversion. See ideological subversion from abroad

200
state-sponsored terrorism
against illegally occupied territory, 55, 59
as act of aggression
Dominican activities in Venezuela (1960), 56
GA resolution 3314 (XXIX) (Definition of Aggression), 53, 64
as armed attack
SC resolution 1368 (2001) (September 11 attacks), 54
threshold
GA resolution 3314 (XXIX) (Definition of Aggression), 63
Nicaragua, 62
threshold considerations, September 11 attacks distinguished as obstacle to implementation of collective security arrangements, 3, 9, 21, 50
as threat to the peace, 42, 44
GA resolution 2131 (XX) (1966), 53
SC 1368 (September 11 attacks), 66 countermeasures against territory of state harboring and abetting terrorists against territory out of government’s effective control, 55, 57
ILC Articles on State Responsibility, 54
Iran-Iraq, 63
Israeli-Lebanon (1982), 57. See also Israeli retaliatory attacks on Lebanon (1982)
justification, 55
Israel–Egypt (1956), 55
USA–Nicaragua, 60
OAS action against Dominican Republic (1960), 57
practice of UN principal organs, 65, 67
proportionality, need for, 55, 63, 65, 67
responsibility for determining acceptability, 59
principal organs of UN, 67
public opinion, 67
Russia against Afghanistan (2000 warning of), 66
Rwanda against Hutus (SC resolution 1304 condemning violation of the Congo), 66
SC resolution 1373 (2001) (September 11 attacks), 42, 66
Senegal/Guinea-Bissau, 64
Tajikistan–Afghanistan (1993), 64, 65
Thailand–Burma, 64
Turkey–Iraq (1995), 63. See also Kurds, action against outside own territory as self-defense state-sponsored terrorism (cont.)
USA against Afghanistan (1998), 66
USA against Sudan (1998), 66
self-defense and, 50, 67
State responsibility. See State responsibility for acts of terrorists subversion. See ideological subversion from abroad
Sudan. See US interventions in self-defense of citizens
Suez Canal crisis, 35
adapting the Charter, 37
proportionality of strike against Fedayeen bases, 65
Uniting for Peace Resolution and, 35, 55
veto, use of, 35, 55
Warsaw Pact–Hungary distinguished, 71
Tanzania–Uganda (1971)
justice/peace equation, 143
legitimacy/legality balance, 143
self-defense claim, 145
UN silence, 145
terrorism. See attacks against citizens abroad, self-defense against; state-sponsored terrorism threat, breach of peace or act of aggression (Art. 39). See also threat or use of force (Art. 2(4)) civil war as. See civil war determination of existence, 2, 20
Dumbarton Oaks agreement to leave to SC on ad hoc basis, 21, 46
government to abide by decision, 21
Korean War, 24
domestic affairs giving rise to, 13, 40. See also domestic jurisdiction, non-intervention in (Art. 2(7)) USSR acknowledgment of possibility, 14 expansion of concept, 43
involvement by other states in response to wrongful acts, 137 refugee movements, 43, 137
state-sponsored terrorism or subversion as.
See state-sponsored terrorism terrorist groups. See state-sponsored terrorism threat or use of force (Art. 2(4)). See also threat, breach of peace or act of aggression (Art. 39) absolute prohibition, 1, 20, 45
as Principle, 11
collective resistance against. See collective security Dumbarton Oaks draft, 11
human rights and. See human rights and freedoms indirect aggression. See state-sponsored terrorism minor invasions not threatening territorial integrity, 12
plugging the loopholes, 1
San Francisco changes/proposed changes intervention in domestic affairs, 12 ‘territorial integrity or political independence’, 12
tolerance/intolerance of use of “illegal” use of force
Arab–Israeli War (1967), 103
Bangladesh (1971), 186
countermeasures/self-help, 114, 116, 118, 132, 133
ECOMOG intervention in Liberia, 158, 186
Eichmann, 114, 132, 133
Entebbe incident, 186
French intervention in Central African Empire (1979), 151, 186
Goa, 116, 128, 132
humanitarian intervention, 145, 151, 153, 158
Hungary (1956), 186
Iraqi use of force, 186
Kuwait, intervention to protect, 133
NATO intervention in Kosovo (1999), 186
North Korean use of force, 186
Tanzania–Uganda (1971), 145, 186
Turkish intervention in Cyprus (1974), 153
US interventions in Grenada and Panama, 186
Vietnam intervention in Kampuchea, 186 transitional security arrangements by five permanent SC members (Art. 51), 3 veto, use of and, 3
Turkish Federated Republic of Cyprus/Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus. See Turkish intervention in Cyprus (1974)
Turkish intervention in Cyprus (1964), 79
ceasefire (SC resolution 193 (1964)), 80
Treaty of Guarantee (1960), 79, 80
understanding for Turkish position, 80
UNFICYP (SC resolution 186 (1964)), 80
Turkish intervention in Cyprus (1974), 117
establishment of
Index

TFR (13 February 1975), 119
TRNC (November 1983), 119
GE resolution 3212 (XXIX), 119
SC resolutions
353, 117
354, 118
355, 119
360, 118
364, 118
541, 119
Treaty of Guarantee (1960), 117, 120
UN tolerance of Turkish invasion, 118, 132, 133
mitigating circumstances, 120
Uganda. See Tanzania–Uganda (1971)
UK interventions
Sierra Leone (2000), 77
Yemen (1968), 91
UN Charter
See also individual subject headings
adaptation
See also interpretation, responsibility for and revision, need for below; Uniting for Peace Resolution (GA Resolution 377 (V)); mitigating circumstances ad hoc measures, 44
by practice of UN principal organs, 5, 6, 9, 45, 31, 34, 174
See also practice of UN principal organs and under separate headings effect in case of approval or passive acquiescence, 52 by State practice. See State practice Chapter 6 1/2 operations, 40 colaboration of the willing, 25, 26, 30 humanitarian intervention and, 171 integrity of approach, 97, 186
legal fictions, 43, 145, 188
penumbra of reasonableness, 184
self-defense (Art. 51), 51
state-sponsored terrorism. See state-sponsored terrorism
Suez Canal crisis, 37
as quasi-constitutional instrument, 5
’a living tree’, 6, 134
implementing organs, importance, 6
primacy (Art. 103), 5 drafting
See also interpretation, responsibility for, travaux préparatoires as aid below and under subject headings role of Big Powers, 45
interpretation
reductio ad absurdum considerations, 98, 172. See also adaptation above;
international law; justice/peace equation travaux préparatoires as aid, 21, 41 interpretation, responsibility for joint exercise by political and judicial organs, 5 dominance of political organs, 5
San Francisco debates, 5
Security Council, 84
State practice. See State practice Report of President, 23 revision
See also interpretation, responsibility for above by adaptation. See adaptation above need for, 4
obstacles to, 24
nature of text, 4
permanent members’ relations, 5
universality, 5
US Constitution as model, 13, 33
UNAMSIL, 30, 161
UNEF, 36, 37, 39, 56
UNFCYP, 80, 117
UNISOM II, 28
UNITAF, 28
Uniting for Peace Resolution (GA Resolution 377 (V)), 33
Congo, 37
consent of “states concerned”, 38
constitutionality 0223.132, 34
Advisory Opinion on Certain Expenses of the UN (1962), 38 deployment of military force by GA, 35
Korean War, relevance to, 35
Suez Canal crisis and, 35, 55
text, 34
USSR objections, 34
UNOMIL, 137
UNOMINSIL, 160
UNPROFOR
mission creep, 40
SC resolutions, 29
UNTSO, 39
US interventions in self-defense of citizens. See also Cuba missile crisis (1962–63)
Achille Lauro (1985–6), 88
muted reaction, 89
punishment/deterrence, 89
UK justification for invasion of Suez (1956) compared, 88
Afghanistan and Sudan (1998), 94
SC resolution 1189 (1998), 95
Dominican Republic (1965), 77, 81 condemnation, 81
GA resolution 38/7 (1983), 88
US interventions in self-defense of citizens (cont.)

Grenada (1983), 77, 86
absence of threat to US citizens, 86–88
at request of Organization of Eastern Caribbean States, 86 political purpose, 86
veto, use of, 87

Iraq (1993), 94

Libya (1986)
armed forces as object of protection, 89
GA resolution 41/38, 91
proportionality, 91
SC reaction to aerial strike post-Berlin nightclub attack, 90
Gulf of Sidra bombing, 89
veto, use of, 90

Panama (1989), 77, 91
GA resolution 44/240, 93
SC debates, 91
veto, use of, 93

US support for El Salvador against insurgents from Nicaragua (1980–86) collective self-defense, right of, 60
Nicaragua, 61
threshold considerations, 62
SC resolution 530 (1983), 60
veto, use of, 60, 61

USA-Dominican Republic (1965), condemnation of US action, 72, 81

Vattel (Law of Nations), 176
veto, use of (Art. 27(3)). See also Uniting for Peace Resolution (GA Resolution 377 (V)) abstention as non-exercise of, 7
Haiti operation, 29
ICJ Advisory Opinion on Namibia (1971), 8
interpretation by SC President, 7
non-objection from abstaining member, 8
Kosovo interim international administration (1999), 9
Operation Desert Storm (1990), 9, 26
SC resolutions involving, 8
as obstacle to implementation of collective security arrangements, 3, 21
Czechoslovakia (1956), 75
Indian intervention in Pakistan (1971), 141 procedural matters, relevance of SC resolution, 8

strict reading, 8
Suez Canal crisis, 35, 55
US aerial strike on Libya (1986), 90
US failure to comply with ICJ Nicaragua decision, 111
US intervention in Grenada, 87
US intervention in Panama (1989), 93
US-Nicaragua (1980–86), 60, 61
Vietnamese intervention in Kampuchea, 149
Warsaw Pact–Hungary (1956), 70

Vietnam intervention in Kampuchea (1978–79), 145
as self-defense
proportionality, need for, 150
Credential Committee reaction, 149
GA resolution 34/22, 150
in support of Cambodian uprising, 147
justice/peace equation, 147
motivation in doubt, 150
veto, use of, 149

war. See also League of Nations Covenant, limitations on right to make war anticipatory self-defense as act of, 108 as instrument of state policy, prohibition. See Kellogg–Briand Pact for the Renunciation of War (1928); threat or use of force (Art. 2(4)), absolute prohibition declaration, relevance legality, 9 termination, by Security Council resolution, 27

Warsaw Pact–Hungary (1956)
Credentials Committee reactions, 72
GA resolutions 1005 (ESII) (1956), 71
1131 (XI) (1956), 71
1132 (XI) (1957), 71
ideological subversion from abroad, 70
veto, use of, 70

weapons developments, impact on right of self-defense, 4, 21, 50

Western Sahara (Morocco (Mauritania)–Spain) (1975), 121
failure of UN system to redress egregious wrong, 122, 126
GA resolutions 3458B (XXX), 123
31/45, 124
32/22, 124
33/31, 124
36/46, 125
39/40, 125
40/40, 125
40/50, 125
42/78, 125

© Cambridge University Press
Goa compared, 121, 128
legitimacy/legality balance, 123, 127
Moroccan occupation (1979), 124
General Assembly condemnation, 124
Morocco’s “peaceful” march (1975), 122
Morocco/Mauritania agreement to divide, 124
OAU referendum proposals, 125
peace proposals (November 1987), 125
SC resolutions
380, 123
621, 126
1228, 126
1301, 126
Spanish recognition of Spanish Sahara’s right to self-determination, 121
Western Sahara, 121
World Trade Center attacks. See Security Council resolutions, 1368 (2001) (September 11 attacks); state-sponsored terrorism
Yemen, SC condemnation of British military action in (1964), 91
Zaire, French–Belgian interventions (1978), 77