CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

Index

Figures are indicated in italics, tables in bold.

9/11 terrorist attacks see Pentagon terrorist attack; World Trade Center terrorist attack accidental death, effect on posttraumatic stress 308–32 ACLS (Advanced Cardiac Life Support) 108–9, 112

Acute Stress Disorder (ASD) 4–5, 7, 100, 111, 171 adaptation to war of childhood victims 42–3 adolescent victims of war see childhood victims of war Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) 108–9, 112
Advanced Trauma Life Support (ATLS) 107–9, 112 Agency for International Development, Nairobi 33, 35 ambulance services see emergency services American Psychiatric Association 24 anger
  among communities, after disasters/terrorist attacks 8, 35, 38 see also fear and anxiety; hatred anthrax attacks (bioterrorism) see terrorist attacks anxiety
  see Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress; stress and stressors/combat stress Armenian earthquake (1988) 212, 264
Army see United States Army
ASD (Acute Stress Disorder) 4–5, 7, 100, 111, 171
ATLS (Advanced Trauma Life Support) 107–9, 112
attribution theory (as applied to home loss situation) 267–8
Austria, Kitzsteinhorn ski slope disaster (2000) 215–17
Australia, Cyclone Tracy (1974) 264

Beck Depression Inventory (BDI) 88
Bethesda, United States Naval Medical Center 71, 72–3, 77 Bhopal Union Carbide Corporation plant disaster (1984) 210, 217–18 biological and chemical warfare 117–18 agents of biological warfare 118 strategies for managing biological/chemical warfare 118–19 bioterrorism see terrorist attacks bombings
  see Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; USS Cole bombing Borken coalmine disaster, Germany (1988) 215 bravery (emotional response to World Trade Center terrorist attack) 25, 27 briefing and debriefing 14 after traumatic exposure 35, 146–61 as an early intervention 152–6 for emergency services 147–8 definition, characteristics and role 146–7, 148, 156–7 for Pentagon staff after Pentagon terrorist attack 74–5 for emergency services after World Trade Center terrorist attack 79–81 for US Public Health Service staff 81–2
  Marshall's method of debriefing 147
  Mitchell's method of debriefing 148
  use in preventing Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress 149–52 Buffalo Creek, West Virginia flood (1972) 263–4 see also Times Beach floods; Tucker County floods Bushell, Prudence, US Ambassador to the Republic of Kenya 31–40

Cambodian war (1970–5), childhood victims see childhood victims of war casualty units, definition, characteristics and role 190 chemical and biological warfare see biological and chemical warfare Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident (1986) 220–31, 265, 288 effect on population of Scandinavia 223–8 extent of radioactive fallout in Scandinavia and Europe 223–5 extent of radioactive fallout in Soviet Union 222–3, 229–30 history and description 220–1
  PTSD and other psychiatric/psychological disorders 228–9, 230–1 public disquiet with provided information 228 public responses to radioactive fallout 225–8 radiation sickness
    present day worries 230–1
    symptoms 229
  statistics of victims 210, 212, 222

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

childhood victims of war 41–57
  adaptation to war 42–3 clinical vignettes of war experiences 46–51; 47, 48, 50, 51 definition of trauma 42 emotional effects of war 41–2, 43 evaluation of victims 45, 53–5, 54 prevention-intervention program 53–5 PTSD and other psychiatric/psychological disorders 43–4, 46, 51–3 statistics 42
  psychiatric/psychological disorders 42–56
children
  as victims of war see childhood victims of war definition of trauma in children 42 development and use of health program Project Heartland 59–62, 59 Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress after Oklahoma City bombing 61–2, 63–7 stress of handling dead children 312–13 vulnerability at times of disasters/terrorist attack 333 CISD (Critical Incident Stress Debriefing) 78, 146, 148, 149, 167 clinical screening
  challenges of screening for PTSD/posttraumatic stress 125, 137–40 characteristics and principles 121–4, 123, 134, 136–7 disaster victims 112–15, 113 effectiveness 140–1
  failure of psychiatric/psychological screening programs 127–9, 134–6 history of psychiatric/psychological screening of military personnel 124–30 psychiatric/psychological screening of disaster victims 109–12, 110, 111, 133–6 roles and problems in psychiatric/psychological disorder prevention 124–42, 125 see also disaster and terrorist attack intervention; population based healthcare coalmine disaster, Borken, Germany (1988) 215 Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 140 cognitive–behavioral therapy after disasters/terrorist attacks 14, 301 Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center, New York 23 combat stress/stress see stress and stressors/combat stress communication of risk, in alleviating impact of future disasters/terrorist attacks 10–11 communities, effect of disasters and terrorist attacks 8–11 contamination see toxic contamination coping strategies 336
  after toxic contamination at Three Mile Island 236, 238–40 after traumatic death exposure 320–5 with relocation stress after disasters 268–76 courage (emotional response to World Trade Center terrorist attack) 25, 27 Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD) 78, 146, 148, 149, 167
Cyclone Tracy, Darwin, Australia (1974) 264 Cyclones see disasters see also specific cyclones, e.g. Cyclone Tracy danger, human reactions to danger 217–18 Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing (1998) 2 see also Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; Omagh bombing; USS Cole bombing dead bodies, stress of handling 312–32 accidental death bodies 319 children's bodies 312–13

  enemy dead 319
  female dead 318–19
  identification and emotional involvement 315–17 mediators of stress 309–12 natural looking bodies 313 novelty, surprise and shock 315 on-site dead bodies 321–2 physical fatigue of handling dead bodies 322 sensory stimulation from handling dead bodies 314–15 stress of handling personal effects 316–18 see also PTSD/PT stress; stress and stressors/combat stress; traumatic death exposure debriefing see briefing and debriefing decreased stigma (emotional response to World Trade Center terrorist attack) 25
Denmark, effect of Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident on population 224, 226, 228 depression after disasters/terrorist attacks see psychiatric/psychological disorders diagnosis see clinical screening disaster and terrorist attack intervention 11–15, 12–13, 93–208 Advanced Trauma Life Support 107–9, 112 appropriate organizational interventions 11–15, 12–13, 335, 336 appropriateness and sufficiency of resources 102–3, 336 clinical treatment of survivors 162–88, 337 healthcare model for future terrorist attack, and survivors 287–307 internet resources 15 involvement of health and hospital personnel 13 medico-legal considerations 116–17 role of preventive medicine 3 strategies after
  Nairobi Embassy bombing 31–40
  Oklahoma City bombing 58–70
  World Trade Center and Pentagon terrorist attacks 23–30
  USS Cole bombing 82–8
  training for successful intervention 310 see also briefing and debriefing; clinical screening; psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster and terrorist attack victims

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

Disaster Response and Recovery: a handbook for mental health professionals 39 disasters
  1990s as decade for reduction of disasters (UNGAR 42/169) 211 characteristics, definition, and dimensions 1, 3–6, 4, 5, 211, 219, 237, 333 communication of risk 10–11
  distinction between natural and technological disasters 211–14 economic losses following disasters 259 effect of disaster stories on health and hospital personnel 163 effect on communities 8–11 fear among communities 8, 334
  flight behaviour 217
  health and safety consequences 4, 6–7 importance of prior disaster planning 29–30 involvement of healthcare personnel in disaster planning 29–30 leadership after disasters 31–40, 333 need for mourning after disasters 34–5 organizational misunderstandings after disasters 29–30 perception of risk when assessing threat of disasters 213–14, 214 prevention, responsibility and management 211–12, 218, 333–9
  psychiatric/psychological disorders 4, 6, 7, 7, 76, 93–104
  reaction of rescuers to outside help 34
  scapegoating among communities 8 statistics of incidence and victims 2, 211, 259 vulnerability of children 333
  see also technological disasters; terrorist attacks and specific disasters, e.g. Armenian earthquake; Buffalo Creek floods; Cyclone Tracy; Times Beach floods; Tucker County floods see also disaster and terrorist attack intervention; home loss after disasters; psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims; relocation stress after disasters disease/disability after terrorist attacks 287–8, 291–2 see also disaster and terrorist attack intervention; population based healthcare, model for dissociation (psychiatric sign) 111–12, 111 doctors see health and hospital personnel Dover Air Force Base, Delaware 314, 315, 317, 318
DSM-III criteria for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder 130
DSM-IV criteria for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder 95, 99, 100

earthquakes see disasters see also specific earthquakes, e.g. Armenian earthquake education see training emergency services
  at risk of posttraumatic stress 10, 309 briefing and debriefing methods 79–81, 147–8 response to World Trade Center terrorist attack 25–6 psychiatric/psychological effects of World Trade Center terrorist attack 94–5
  see also Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams (SPRINT) emotional effects of war on childhood victims 41–2, 43 emotional responses to disaster see bravery; courage; fear and anxiety; grief; hatred; resiliency; strength enemy dead, stress of handling 319 Environmental Protection Agency, report on Feed Material Production Center, Fernald, Ohio, 241 evaluation of childhood victims (Mozambique war) 45 nature and organization 53–5, 54
exposure to traumatic death see traumatic death exposure family systems theory (as applied to home loss situation) 266–7 fear and anxiety

  among communities, after disasters/terrorist attacks 8, 334 response to devastation terrorist attacks 25, 25, 36 responsibility of media for allaying fear and anxiety in emergency situations 334 statistics of fear among population after World Trade Center terrorist attack 5–6 see also anger; hatred
Federal Disaster Response Plan, use in Oklahoma City 59
Federal Emergency Management Agency 30, 261, 277, 279 Fernald, Ohio, Feed Materials Production Center contamination threat 236, 240–58, 241 case histories of residents 248–9 chronicity of threat from contamination 242–3 diffuseness of impact of toxic contamination 242 economic features following disaster 243 Environment Protection Agency Report 241 exposure of residents to radioactive contamination 236 limitations of enquiry into disaster 250 method of enquiry into disaster 244–8 instruments and interviews 245, 246, 247 participants 244
    results 245
    specific stressors 245
  psychiatric/psychological disorders 244, 251–2
  reaction of outsiders to contaminated 243
fire services see emergency services flight behaviour in disaster situations 217 floods see disasters see also specific floods, e.g. Buffalo Creek floods; Times Beach floods; Tucker County floods

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

Fried's Grieving for a lost home 262 friendly fire, death from 318

Gander military air disaster (Newfoundland, 1985) 313 Giuliani, Rudolph W., Mayor of New York 31, 40 global climate changes and technological disasters 212 grief, response to bombings and other terrorist attacks 25, 25, 38 Grieving for a lost home (Marc Fried) 262 Ground Zero, extent of devastation after World Trade Center terrorist attack 25–6 group briefing and debriefing see briefing and debriefing Gulf War, stress from body handling 311, 315, 317, 318 hatred (feelings of), among communities, after disasters/terrorist attacks 35 see also anger; fear and anxiety health and hospital personnel

  at risk of posttraumatic stress 10
  effect of disaster stories on health and hospital personnel 163 involvement in providing intervention after disasters/terrorist attacks 13 involvement in risk communication 10–11 their importance in disaster planning 29–30
  see also social services personnel health and safety (community and individual), disruption by disasters/terrorist attacks 4 healthcare services
  see clinical screening; disaster and terrorist attack intervention; population based healthcare; psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims
  see also health and hospital personnel home loss after disasters after Buffalo Creek 263–4 after Cyclone Tracy 264
  after Tucker County floods 260–2
  attribution theory (as applied to home loss situation) 267–8 family systems theory (as applied to home loss situation) 266–7 psychiatric/psychological treatment 276–81, 280 psychosocial meanings 260, 262–5
  social construction theory (as applied to home loss situation) 267 see also relocation stress following natural disasters hospital personnel see health and hospital personnel
  see also social services personnel hurricanes see disasters hyper-vigilance among communities, after disasters and terrorist attacks 8

Impact of Events Scale (IES) (stress measurement scale) 88, 245 industrial accidents see technological disasters information, information dissemination and exchange and government and media responsibility 29, 334 as part of successful risk communication 10–11 in response to Pentagon and World Trade Center terrorist attacks 24, 25, 28–9, 74 public disquiet with information after Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident 228 see also briefing and debriefing information systems, use by population based healthcare 301–2 informed consent (medico-legal consideration in disaster intervention) 116 interventions after disasters and terrorist attacks see disaster and terrorist attack intervention; psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims India, Bhopal Union Carbide Corporation plant disaster 210, 217–18 International Classification of Disease: clinical modification (ICD-9CM) 197
Israel, emotional effects of Israeli war on children 43

Japan, Tokyo Sarin gas attack (1995) xi, 2, 10, 240

Kenya, Prudence Bushell, US Ambassador to the Republic of Kenya 31–40 see also Nairobi Embassy bombing Kitzsteinhorn ski slope disaster (2000) 215–17

Landstuhl Regional Medical Center, Ramstein, Germany 111
Lange, John, US Chargé d'Affaires in Tanzania 33 leadership
  after disasters/technological disasters/terrorist attacks 31–40, 333, 335 of Rudolph W. Giuliani, Mayor of New York 31 of Prudence Bushell, US Ambassador to the Republic of Kenya 31–40 personal qualities required after bombings 33–4, 39–40, 39 loss of home after disasters see home loss after disasters

Mahattan terrorist attack (2001) see World Trade Center terrorist attack manmade disasters see technological disasters Marshall's method of debriefing 147
mass media see media
mass trauma
  see disasters; technological disasters; terrorist attacks see also dead bodies; traumatic death exposure media
  reporting of World Trade Center terrorist attack 23, 25 responsibility for dissemination and accurate portrayal of information 29, 334

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

medical staff
see health and hospital personnel
see also social services personnel memorialization among communities, after disasters and terrorist attacks 8–9 mental health disorders see psychiatric/psychological disorders mental health professionals
see health and hospital personnel
see also social services personnel
Mitchell's method of debriefing 148
Mount Erebus air disaster, Antarctica (1979) 308–9
Mozambique National Resistance (RENAMO) 41–2, 44, 46
Mozambique war (1976–92), childhood victims see childhood victims of war

Nairobi Embassy bombing (1998) 2, 31–40
feelings of anger, fear and anxiety, grief, hatred after bombings 34, 35, 38 need for mourning after bombing 34–5 reaction of rescuers to outside help 34
rebuilding employment and personal normality after bombing 36–8 see also Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; Omagh bombing; USS Cole bombing National Organization for Violence Assistance (NOVA) Model (of post-disaster intervention) 78 natural disasters
see disasters
see also technological disasters
Naval Medical Centers see United States Naval Medical Centers
Navy
see Signonella Naval Hospital; Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams; United States Naval Medical Centers negligence (medico-legal consideration in disaster intervention) 116–17
New York City terrorist attack see World Trade Center terrorist attack
New York Militia 81
New York State Office of Mental Health 24
New York State Psychiatric Institute 23, 24, 26
Northern Ireland, Omagh bombing (1998) 2
Norway
effect of Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident on population 223–5, 226–7, 228 paint factory disaster (1976) 219–20, 221 NOVA (National Organization for Violence Assistance) Model (of post-disaster intervention) 78 nuclear reactor accidents see Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident; Three Mile Island nuclear reactor accident nuclear weapons plants see Fernald, Ohio, Feed Materials Production Center nurses
see health and hospital personnel
see also social services personnel

Oklahoma City bombing (1995) 2, 23, 58–70
and PTSD/posttraumatic stress among victims 61–3, 63–7, 96, 98–100, 334 development, nature and organization of health program Project Heartland 59–62, 59
psychiatric/psychological disorders 62–7, 96, 97–9
psychiatric/psychological treatment of victims 58–61 response by psychiatric services 58–61 tensions between teachers and those promoting health intervention 61 use by schoolchildren of Project Heartland 60 use of Federal Disaster Response Plan 59 see also Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Nairobi Embassy bombing; Omagh bombing; USS Cole bombing Omagh bombing (1998) 2
see also Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; USS Cole bombing Operation Desert Storm, stress from body handling 311, 315, 317, 318 paint factory disaster, Norway (1976) 219–20, 221 paramedics see health and hospital personnel Pentagon terrorist attack (2001) 71–6, 288 briefing and debriefing for Pentagon staff 74–5 information, information dissemination and exchange 24, 25, 28–9, 74 organization and role of SPRINT after Pentagon terrorist attack 72–6, 77–82 posttraumatic stress among Pentagon staff 76 psychiatric/psychological effects on victims 94–103 psychiatric/psychological treatment of victims 72–82

see also World Trade Center terrorist attack perception of risk, when assessing threat of disasters/technological disasters 213–14, 214 personal effects of disaster/terrorist attack victims, stress of handling 316–18 physicians
see health and hospital personnel
see also social services personnel police see emergency services population-based healthcare definition, characteristics 288–9, 292–3 model for future terrorist attack, and survivors 287–307 use of information systems 301–2 see also clinical screening; disaster and terrorist attack intervention posttraumatic stress see Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress 6, 62–3, 111 among Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident victims 228–9

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (cont.)
among child victims of war 43–4, 46, 51–3 among New Yorkers and Pentagon staff after terrorist attack 27, 76 among Norway's paint factory disaster victims 221 among Oklahoma bombing victims 61–2, 63–7, 96, 98–100 avoidance of situations which reactivate/intensify stress 27
challenges of screening for PTSD/posttraumatic stress 125, 137–140 classification and triaging of victims 95, 168–70 disaster behaviour and PTSD/posttraumatic stress 221 effect of accidental death 308–32 existing research on victims 93–104, 97 expected course of condition 99–100, 178–82 health and hospital personnel at risk of posttraumatic stress 10 high risk groups and factors 9–10, 96–7, 98–9, 100 predictors of PTSD/posttraumatic stress vulnerability 130–2, 189–90 statistics of victims of PTSD/posttraumatic stress 2, 189, 334–5 symptoms 168–72, statistics of symptoms 2–3, 169, 170 treatment 100–101, 190–1, 191 after USS Cole bombing, 84–5 treatment model 192–202, 198
use of briefing and debriefing in PTSC/posttraumatic stress prevention 149–52
when handling traumatic death victims 308–32
see also psychiatric/psychological disorders; relocation stress after disasters; stress and stressors/combat stress Powell, Colin (US Secretary of State) 35 preventive medicine, role in limiting effects of disasters and terrorist attacks 3 Project Heartland community health program, Oklahoma City
nature and organization 59–62, 59
use by schoolchildren 60
psychiatric/psychological disorders
after Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident 228–9, 230–1 after disasters/terrorist attacks 4, 6, 7, 7, 76, 93–104
statistics 6, 87
after Oklahoma City bombing 62–7, 96, 97–9 after Pentagon terrorist attack 94–103 after Tokyo Sarin gas attack 240 after toxic contamination threat from Fernald, Ohio, FMPC 236–58 role and problems of clinical screening in disorder prevention 124–42 sustained by childhood victims of war 51–3
when handling traumatic death victims 308–32
see also PTSD/posttraumatic stress; relocation stress after disasters; stress and stressors/combat stress psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims 107–19, 110, 111, 133–6, 162–88, 165, 174–7, 190–1, 191, 192–202; 256 after home loss 276–81, 280 appropriate pharmacological therapy 180 cognitive–behavioral therapy 14, 181–2 impediments to providing successful treatment 163 provision in response to disasters/terrorist attacks 23–30, 58–61, 72–82, 335, 337
treatment model 192–202, 198
see also briefing and debriefing; clinical screening; disaster and terrorist attack intervention; Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams psychological debriefing see briefing and debriefing psychological/psychiatric disorders see psychiatric/psychological disorders PTSD see Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress radiation sickness after Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident 222

present day worries 230–1
statistics 222
symptoms 229
radioactive contamination see toxic contamination radioactive fallout after Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident extent in Scandinavia and Europe 223–5 extent in Soviet Union 222–3, 229–30 public response to radioactive fallout 225–8 reassurance, as an intervention after disasters and terrorist attacks 14 relocation stress after disasters 259–86 attribution theory and stress of relocation 267–8 community level factors 264–5
coping strategies 268–76
families, home loss and stress, conceptual framework 265–8, 266 family system theory and stress of relocation 266–7 home destruction 264–5
mental health implications 264–5 research studies 259–86 social construction theory and stress of relocation 267 see also home loss after disasters; PTSD/posttraumatic stress; stress and stressors/combat stress RENAMO (Mozambique National Resistance) 41–2, 44, 46 rescue and recovery workers see emergency services resentment among communities, after disasters and terrorist attacks 35

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

resiliency (emotional response to World Trade Center terrorist attack) 25 response by psychiatric service to World Trade Center terrorist attack 23–30, 24, 25, 27 responsibility for technological disasters (individual/corporate) 211–12 resuscitation (medico-legal consideration in disaster intervention) 116–17 risk communication, in alleviating impact of future technological disasters/terrorist attacks 10–11 risk perception, when assessing threat of disasters/technological disasters 213–14; 214 safety and health (community and individual), consequences of disasters/terrorist attacks 4

San Diego, US Naval Medical Center 71
Scandinavia, effect of Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident on population 223–8 scapegoating among communities, after disasters/terrorist attacks 8 screening (clinical) of victims see clinical screening September 11 terrorist attacks (2001) see Pentagon terrorist attack; World Trade Center terrorist attack Sigonella Naval Hospital, Sicily 82–3
Sioux City air disaster, Iowa (1989) 314–15, 317, 320
social construction theory (as applied to home loss situation) 267 social services personnel
  their importance in disaster planning 29–30
  see also health and hospital personnel
Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams (SPRINT)
  and Naval Medical Center, Bethesda 71, 72–3
  nature and organization 71, 82–3 organization and role after Pentagon and World Trade Center terrorist attacks 72–6; 77–82 organization, and role after USS Cole bombing 83–8, 83, 85, 86
  see also emergency services
SPRINT see Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams
statistics
  Armenian earthquake 212
  Bhopal disaster victims 210
  Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident victims 210, 212, 222
  childhood victims of war 42
  disaster/terrorist attack incidence and victims 2, 211 fear and anxiety among population after World Trade Center terrorist attacks 5–6 psychiatric/psychological disorders after disasters/terrorist attacks 6, 87 PTSD/posttraumatic stress symptoms 2–3, 169, 170
  PTSD/posttraumatic stress victims 2, 189 technological disasters 210, 212
  victims of radiation sickness after Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident 210, 212, 222 strategies for coping see coping strategies strength (emotional response to World Trade Center terrorist attack) 25, 27 stress and stressors/combat stress avoidance of situations which reactivate/intensify stress 27 characteristic 241–3
  management interventions aboard USS Cole 84–7, 88 statistics of reported symptoms 2 see also dead bodies, stress of handling; Posttraumatic Stress Disorder/posttraumatic stress; relocation stress after disasters; traumatic death exposure Sweden, effect of Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident on population 224–5, 226, 228 survival capacity of humans following technological disasters 215

Tanzania, Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing (1998) 2 see also Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; USS Cole bombing teaching see training
technological disasters 209–232
  and global climate changes 212 definition, characteristics and classification 209–10, 219 , 237–8 distinction between natural and technological disasters 211–14
  flight behaviour 217
  perception of risk when assessing threat 213–14, 214
  prevention, responsibility and management 211–15, 218
  statistics 210, 212
  survival capacity and instincts of humans 215 see also disasters, and specific technological disasters, e.g. Bhopal Union Carbide Corporation plant disaster; Borken coalmine disaster; Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident; Fernald, Ohio, FMPC; Gander military air disaster; Kitzsteinhorn ski slope disaster; Mount Erebus air disaster; paint factory disaster, Norway; Sioux City air disaster; Three Mile Island nuclear reactor accident; USS Iowa gun turret explosion terrorism see terrorist attacks terrorist attacks characteristics, definition, purpose and dimensions 1, 2, 3–6, 4, 287, 333 characteristics and definition of bioterrorist attacks 252 clinical treatment for survivors 162–88 communication of risk 10–11
  comparison of bioterrorist attack with Fernald, Ohio FMPC contamination 252–4

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

terrorist attacks (cont.)
disease/disability after terrorist attacks 287–8, 291–2 effects on communities and individuals 8–11, 287–8, 288 fear and anxiety as a response 25, 25, 36
health and safety consequences 4, 6–7 healthcare model for future attack, and survivors 287–307 leadership after terrorist attacks 31–40 prevention, intervention and recovery 333–9
psychiatric/psychological disorders 4, 6, 7, 7, 76, 93–104 psychological effects of terrorist attack stories on health hospital personnel 163 scapegoating among communities 8
statistics of victims 2
vulnerability of children 333
see also specific terrorist attacks, e.g. Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; Omagh bombing; Pentagon terrorist attack; Tokyo Sarin gas attack; USS Cole bombing; World Trade Center terrorist attack see also disasters; technological disasters; disaster and terrorist attack intervention terrorist attack/disaster intervention see disaster and terrorist attack intervention therapy (clinical) see psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims Three Mile Island nuclear reactor accident (1979) 236, 238–9, 251–2, 288
Times Beach, Missouri floods (1982) 240 Tokyo Sarin gas attack (1995) xi, 2, 10, 240 toxic contamination
comparison with bioterrorist attack contamination 252–4 coping strategies at Three Mile Island 236, 238–40 effect on individuals after disasters/terrorist attacks 209–340 Fernald, Ohio FMPC 236, 240–58, 241 psychiatric/psychological disorders after contamination 236–58
reaction of outsiders to contaminated 243
Times Beach, Missouri 240 toxic contamination stressors characteristics 237–8
comparison with bioterrorist attack contamination 255–6 psychological responses 238–40 training
disasters/terrorist attack training 14, 310 in effects of trauma on children 60–1 of psychiatric service, in wake of World Trade Center terrorist attack 24 Trauma and Disaster: the structure of Human Chaos xi trauma centers, definition, characteristics and role 190 traumatic death exposure 308–32 accidental deaths 319
anticipation and previous experience 309–11 combat unique stress 318–20, 320
coping strategies 320–5
death from friendly fire 318 death of women in combat 318–19
enemy dead 319
extent of stress-related symptoms 309–11 fear of personal threat 319 physical fatigue after traumatic death exposure 61–2 role of professionals and non-professionals, roles 323 see also dead bodies, stress of handling traumatic events
see disasters; technological disasters; terrorist attacks
see also specific traumatic events, e.g. Armenian earthquake; Bhopal Union Carbide Corporation plant disaster; Borken coalmine disaster; Buffalo Creek floods; Chernobyl nuclear reactor accident; Cyclone Tracy; Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Fernald, Ohio, FMPC contamination threat; Gander military air disaster; Kitzsteinhorn ski slope disaster; Mount Erebus air disaster; Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; Omagh bombing; paint factory disaster, Norway; Pentagon terrorist attack; Sioux City air disaster; Three Mile Island nuclear reactor accident; Times Beach floods; Tokyo Sarin gas attack; Tucker County floods; World Trade Center terrorist attack ; USS Cole bombing; USS Iowa gun turret explosion; treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims see population-based healthcare; psychiatric/psychological treatment of disaster/terrorist attack victims Tucker County, West Virginia floods (1985) 260–2 vignette of flood victim family 261–2 see also Buffalo Creek floods; Times Beach floods

UNGAR Resolution 42/169 (on 1990s as decade for disaster reduction) 211 Union Carbide Corporation plant disaster, Bhopal, India (1984) 217–18
statistics of victims 210
United Nations General Assembly Resolution 42/169 (on 1990s as decade for disaster reduction) 211
United States Air Force, Dover Air Force Base, Delaware 314, 315, 317, 318
United States Air National Guard 81
United States Army Corps of Engineers 81

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826063 - Terrorism and Disaster: Individual and Community Mental Health Interventions
Edited by Robert J. Ursano, Carol S. Fullerton and Ann E. Norwood
Index
More information

United States Army National Guard 81
United States embassy bombings
see Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Nairobi Embassy bombing United States Naval Medical Centers
Bethesda 71, 72–3, 77
San Diego 71
United States Navy
see Sigonella Naval Hospital; Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Team; United States Naval Medical Centers
United States Public Health Service 81
urban restrictions after World Trade Center terrorist attack 25
USNS Comfort 71, 77–82
USNS Mercury 71
USS Cole bombing (2000) 72, 82, 111
management of stress and stressors/combat stress among USS Cole staff 84–7, 88 organization and role of Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams 83–8, see also Dar Es Salaam Embassy bombing; Nairobi Embassy bombing; Oklahoma City bombing; Omagh bombing USS Iowa gun turret explosion (1989) 311

vignettes of childhood war experiences (Mozambique) 46–51, 47, 48, 50, 51 population near Fernald, Ohio, FMPC 248–9 family, after Tucker County floods 261–2 violent death see traumatic death

Washington terrorist attack (2001) see Pentagon terrorist attack World Trade Center terrorist attack (2001) 2, 288 briefing and debriefing of emergency services 79–81 deployment of USNS Comfort 77–82 extent of devastation at Ground Zero 25–6 fear and anxiety after terrorist attack 25, 25
information, information dissemination and exchange 24, 25, 28–9, 74 media reporting 23, 25 psychiatric/psychological effects on victims, communities and emergency services 94–103, 334 role of Special Psychiatric Rapid Intervention Teams 72–6, 77–82 response by emergency and psychiatric treatment services 23-30, 24, 25, 27 socio-political implications 93 urban restrictions after attack 25 see also Pentagon terrorist attack

Yemen see USS Cole bombing (2000)

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org