CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

Index

abortion, 286–287
administrative agencies, 40 affirmative action, 146, 311, 342 agent, 332
airline over-booking, 91
annuities, 200–202
appellate courts, 106
arbitration, 247
Arrow impossibility theorem, 46–47, 50
art subsidies, 43–44

bank runs, 53
bankruptcy law, 68–69
  collective action and, 53
  game theory and, 56
  options and, 236
  wealth redistribution and, 92
behavioralism, 38
Bell Curve, The (Murray-Herrnstein), 301 bid-ask spreads, 214, 215, 216 Black-Scholes-Merton formula, 231–232 bluffs, 112
bond rating agencies, 54
Borda ballots, 45–47, 49, 333
  Arrow's impossibility theorem and, 46–47 cycling problem and, 46–47 manipulation, susceptbility to, 47 preferences, intensity of, 47 bounded rationality, 38, 57, 59
  Coasean irrelevance and, 115
  financial disclosure laws and, 59–61
  gambling and, 61, 64–65
  game theory and, 56
  insider trading and, 214 learning mechanisms and, 63–66 options markets and, 63 paternalism and, 61
Brinig, Margaret, 285
Brownian motion
  fractals and, 319
  normal distributions and, 319 option-pricing and, 230, 319

call options, 227
  expected payout formula, 230–231 in the money, 246 nearest at-the-money calls, 246 out of the money, 246 payouts, graph of, 228–229 on production costs, 245–246, 247 call option pricing formula, 231–234 counter-intuitive lessons of, 234
  fractals and, 319
  graph of, 232–233
  parameters of, 232
  risk and, 232–233
Capital Asset Pricing Model, 197
  arbitrage and, 206–207, 209
  assumptions in, 207–208
  beta coefficients and, 203–205, 206 capital market line, 207–208, 209 corporate restructurings and, 221 dividends and, 209
  earnings forecasts and, 212 estimating securities' returns, 210 expected payouts and, 206
  financial disclosure laws and, 211, 212
  game-theoretic foundation of, 213 inputs to, 206
  interest rates and, 206, 207, 208–209 linear regression and, 203–205 market microstructure approach. See market microstructure approach

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

Capital Asset Pricing Model (cont.)
market rate of return and, 206 normative implication of, 211 price-earnings ratios and, 210–211 regulations following from, 211 significance of, 205
systemic risk and, 205
taxes and, 207, 208, 209
transaction costs and, 207, 208 valuation methods and, 211. See also valuation methods car insurance, 92
cellular automata, 315
chi-tests, 288, 294–295, 298 citation conventions, 6 civic republicanism, 39, 42, 68 law & economics perspective and, 42 participation bias and, 42–43 perfectionism and, 43–44 Coasean irrelevance, 17, 34, 95, 96, 112 asymmetric risk-preferences and, 99
bounded rationality and, 115
contract law and, 114
counterfactual construct of, 95 counterintuitiveness of, 98 double-distortion argument, 121 environmental laws and, 99 failure of, 99, 121
fairness norms and, 122–123
fence example, 97–98, 122
insider trading and, 214
invariance principle, 96–97 jurists use of, 98
litigation costs and, 107
manager-owner divergent interests and, 125–126
Meinhard v. Salmon, 95–96 negotiation tactics and, 99. See also negotiation hold-out tactics normative reasoning and, 110–111
property rights and, 114
for revealing imperfections, 98 risk-aversion and, 115, 125–126
tax policy and, 121 transaction costs and, 97–99, 107, 114. See also transaction costs voting systems and, 124
wealth redistribution and, 99, 120
collective action
bank runs and, 53
bankruptcy law and, 53
costly information and, 53–54 environmental problems and, 53 legal system as a development of, 124–126 market solutions to, 54 natural resource economics and, 53 political participation and, 43
public choice theory and, 50
See also game theory comparative advantage principle, 40–41
compounding, 200–202, 231
spreadsheets and, 255, 257
computer communication protocols, 55 conditional probabilities, 161, 171–173 racial-profiling and, 164–165 See also probability trees condom use, 58
constitutional protections, 59
Consumer Reports, 54
contingent claims, 234
contract enforcement, 247 contract law
arbitration clauses and, 247
Coasean irrelevance and, 114
game theory and, 56
option theory and, 244–247
prisoner's dilemma game, 53, 68 production-costs volatility and, 246
transaction costs and, 114
See also property rights contractarianism, 25, 29
Nozick's argument, 27
Rawls and, 26
convex-concave functions, 137–138 cooperation games, 51, 333 coordination games, contrasted, 55 legal scholarship on, 55–56
norms for, 54
See also prisoner's dilemma coordination games, 51, 333 cooperation games contrasted, 55 hawk-dove game, 56
pre-announcement mechanisms, 55 road driving-side, 54, 334 corporate limited liability, 28, 195 corporate restructurings, 221 costly information, collective action and, 53–54 cover purchase, 245
cramdowns, 240
crime rates
abortion laws and, 286–287 concealed handgun laws and, 285–286, 303 police per person and, 298–308 criminal defence funds, 108–109

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

cumulative distribution functions. See distribution functions cycling votes, 40, 49
  Borda ballots and, 46–47 impossibility theorem and, 46–47 debt v. equity holder interests, 235. See also bankruptcy law; reorganizations density functions. See probability density functions deontic logic, 12

  unable to cope with surprises, 13 derivatives, 225
  with contingent obligations. See options defined, 334
  financial v. commodity, 226 futures and, 226, 227
  risk and, 226–227
derivatives, of mathematical functions, 146, 334 differential equations, 129, 146 legal applications and, 146, 148 Mathematica and, 147, 149, 151–152
  time functions and, 147 discounting, 197, 199, 220
  yield curves, 221
distribution functions, 175, 176, 333, 334
  assumptions in, 178
  capitalization notation, 179
  continuous, 175–176, 177
  density functions and, 176, 179–180. See also probability density functions discrete, 175–176, 177
  features of, 178–179
  generalizability and, 175, 176
  role of, 165
  statistics and, 287
  traffic speeding laws and, 188 See also specific kinds diversification, 203, 205 idiosyncratic v. systemic risks, 203 dividends, signaling function of, 209 divorce, no-fault, 285
Donahue, John, 286–287
double-distortion argument, 87, 89, 92–93

earnings forecasts, 212
East India Company, 124–126 economic analysis
  applications emphasis of, 30 distinguishing features of, 29
  future-orientation of, 34
  incentives and, 30
  moral relativity, avoidance of, 30 preferences and, 31
  realism of, 38
  rule proliferation and, 34 economic analysis of law certainty of normative conclusions in, 12 as a consequentialist theory, 22–23 deferential attitude of, 23 evolving nature of, 4
  as flexible, non-interventionist, 24 importing methodological innovations into, 315 legal system ideals and, 21
  pragmatism and, 23
  promotion of social welfare and, 21 as toolkit, not moral philosophy, 3–4 economic modeling, 129
  affirmative action and, 146 applications, 142
  assumptions, relaxation of, 140–141 differential equations and. See differential equations endogeneous variables, 134, 136–137 exogenous variables, 134, 136–137 expected values and, 159 functions for, 131
  gains from, 144–145
  gambling and, 150–152
  generalizability and, 141–142, 159
  human motivation and, 130–131 idioms of, 131
  individual preferences and, 140 legal scepticism toward, 130–131
  Meinhard v. Salmon, 129–130
  negligence models. See negligence models
  "normalizing to 1," 138 normative analysis and, 140–141
  notation for, 131–133
  optimization and. See optimization parentheses, use of, 134
  physics models and, 141
  risk-aversion and, 150–152
  simplification and, 130–131, 140 stochastic variables, 134, 137 symbols in, 131–133
  transportation and, 140–141 uses of, 135
  validity arguments and, 135, 140–141
  See also derivatives; optimization

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

economic thinking
  Coasean irrelevance and, 120
  focus on total product, 120 inductive reasoning and, 135–136 legal thinking, contrasted, 120, 135–136 economic writing, 131, 133–135 agency term, 136
  calculus and, 137–138
  first equations of model, 140
  parentheses, use of, 136
  "second order condition holds," 138–139 economics
  moral philosophy and, 20
  moral preferences and, 20 efficiency, of the common law, 64–66 egalitarian intuitions, 72–73 environmental laws
  bottle-laws, 91
  Coasean irrelevance and, 99
  collective action and, 53
ethnic warfare, 58
evolutionary theory, 80, 315, 320
  fairness norms and, 123
Excel program
  graphics for, 262–266
  installation CD files, 269, 271
  See also spreadsheets expected values, 171–173
  defined, 158
  economic modeling and, 159
  probability and, 155

F-tests, 288, 334
  confidence levels and, 302 regression methods and, 300, 302, 305 fairness norms, 122–123 family law, 31, 285
Federal Communications Commission, 41
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 53 fiduciary obligations
  debt-equity holder differences and, 235
  Meinhard v. Salmon, 18
  narrow v. broad construal, 18 finance theory, 197
  clear reasons for actions in, 198
  incentives and, 198
  law & economics and, 198
  Meinhard v. Salmon and, 197–198 valuation methods. See valuation methods See also market microstructure approach financial disclosure laws, 54, 68, 212
  bounded rationality and, 59–61
  Capital Asset Pricing Model and, 211
financial statements, 211 firm make-or-buy decisions, 96 firm-market boundary separation, 96 firm size, 96
flowcharts, 170–171
food labeling laws, 61, 68 formal logic draws inescapable conclusions, 15
  incentives and, 14
  normative reasoning contrasted, 11, 13 syllogisms v. arguments, 15 See also deontic logic formalism, 25, 34–35
fractals, 315, 317
  citation patterns and, 319 legal evolution and, 319

gambling
  bounded rationality and, 61, 64–65
  economic modeling, 150–152
  probabilities-skill and, 63
  taxes and, 64–65
  See also probability theory game theory, 50, 335
  bounded rationality and, 56
  cooperation games. See cooperation games coordination games. See coordination games
  legal scholarship on, 55
  mediation-litigation decisions and mixed strategies, 51
  Nash equilibria, 51
  norms and, 56
  political philosophy and, 37
  probabilistic strategies, 51 public choice analysis and, 38 pure-motive games, 51
  pure-strategy equilibria, 51 repeated games, 51
  See also bounded rationality gangs, 57–58
gun laws, 285–286, 303

Holmes' "bad man's law" principle, 80–81 ideals, 1

innovation
  in contracts, 119
  economic analysis of law and, 315 in legal thinking, 1

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

risk-aversion and, 119
spread of, 317
insider trading, 360
lone trader condition, 218–219 penultimate trades, 217 regulations covering, 214 trade sizes, 217–219
insurance, 119
integration, constant of, 180

joint stock companies, 124–125
Justinian codification, 28

Kaplow, Louis, 23–24, 74

labor unions, 54
law & economics
books on, 4
burden of proof and, 12
civic republicanism and, 42
finance theory and, 198 ideals behind, 23
importance of, 3
incentives and, 198
methodology of, 3, 12
normative focus of, 12
pragmatism and, 23
social preferences, 25, 29 welfarism and, 23
See also economic analysis of law law enforcement, precision of corporate veil-piercing and, 195 preferences, distribution of, 194, 195
vs. penalty-size, 188, 355 legal decision-making process, 1 methods, 1
principles, 1
proposals, 1
legal evolution, 106, 319
bounded rationality and, 63–66
feedback-learning mechanisms, 63–66 See also efficiency of the common law legal interpretations, consistency of, 106 legal-process theory, 39 administrative agencies and, 40 legal systems
collective action and, 124–126
common-law v. civil law, 106, 107
design of, 105
evolution of, 319
historical development of corporate law, 124–126 judicial activism in, 106, 107
litigation costs and, 105
precedents, adherence to, 106–107
transaction costs and, 105
updating-the-law function of courts, 106–107 legal thinking
Coasean irrelevance and, 120
consequences and, 1
deductive reasoning and, 135–136 economic thinking, contrasted, 120, 135–136 innovations in, 1
legislatures, 106–107
liquidated damages, 245–246 litigation costs
Coasean irrelevance and, 107
legal system design and, 105 normative implications for, 107 social benefits from, 105
transaction costs and, 105, 107
litigation, duration of logit regression, 289, 308–309, 310 lognormal distributions, 186–187 density function of, 231
Mathematica and, 230
options and, 186–187, 229–231, 233
LOJACK stolen vehicle recovery system, 286
Lott, John, 285–286, 303, 312 majority rule, 37–38, 66–67, 123–124 cycling problem. See cycling demand-revealing processes and, 48–49

fence example, 123
indeterminancy of, 39
inefficiencies of, 39
minority voters and, 39 manager-owner conflicts of interests, 125–126 market indexes, 203, 204 market microstructure approach, 213 insider trading and. See insider trading normative applications of, 214 savings-consumption decisions and, 213 trades, classifications of, 213–214 Mathematica, 200–202, 217 differential equations and, 147, 149, 151–152 graphics using, 262
lognormal distributions and, 230
notebook files of, 339
option theory and, 248

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

McAdams, Richard, 56
McCarthyism, 58–59
median, 288
mediation-litigation decisions
Meinhard v. Salmon, 323
  Coasean irrelevance and, 95–96
  economic modeling and, 129–130
  finance and, 197
  mathematical modeling and, 129–130
  moral philosophy and, 20
  normative reasoning and, 11–12
  political philosophy and, 37–38
  political v. economic analysis, 37–38 options, derivatives and, 225 probability theory and, 154–155, 166–174
  wealth redistribution and, 72–73, 90
  See also specific topics models
  multi-dimensional, 195
  See also economic modeling modes, 288
moral philosophy
  act-utilitarianism, 21–23 derived ideals, 27
  derived ideals, from external sources, 25 derived preferences, 27 deriving ideals, from existing rules, 25 designing the law according to, 21 economics and, 20
  essentialism and, 22–23
  hedonism, 21–23
  Meinhard v. Salmon and, 20
  pragmatism, 23, 29
  preference-utilitarianism, 21–23 preferences, educability of, 33 rule-utilitarianism, 21–23 social welfare v., 20
  stoicism, 25
  teleology, 22–23
  See also specific philosophies natural resource economics

  collective action and, 53
  game theory and, 56
  prisoner's dilemma game, 68
negligence models, 141–142 cost-of-injury function, 145 optimization and, 143
negotiation hold-out tactics, 112 buyer-seller asymmetry and, 113–114
  fence example, 112–115
  generalizability and, 115
  legal response to, 114 number of bargains, 114, 115 policy implications of, 115 society-level consequences, 113
  transaction costs and, 114–115
New Kind of Science, A (Wolfram), 315 normal distributions, 186, 287–288 Brownian motion and, 319
  derivation of, 347
  formula for, 187–188
  fractals and, 319
  generalizability of, 186 triangular distribution approximation of, 187–191 normative reasoning, 97, 335 conclusions not truth-valued, 12 consequences premise of, 16 draws qualified conclusions, 15
  economic modeling and, 140–141
  formal logic and, 11
  future-orientation of, 16, 173–174
  informal syllogisms in, 15 legal decision-making process and, 16
  litigation costs and, 107
  Meinhard v. Salmon and, 11–12
  probabilistic syllogisms, contrasted, 16
  probability theory and, 166
  syllogisms imperfectly specified, 15
  See also specific topics
norms, social, 38, 57
  Coasean irrelevance and, 122–123
  cooperation games and, 54
  defined
  fairness. See fairness norms
  game theory and, 56
  gang-bravado problem, 57–58 police cooperation and, 58 post-hoc explanatory nature of, 58 signaling model for, 58–59

optimization, 129
  insider trading and, 214, 216–218
  negligence models and, 143 options, 225
  arbitration clauses and, 247
  bankruptcy and, 236
  bounded rationality and, 63
  call options. See call options contract enforceability, 247
  contract law and, 244–247
  derivatives and, 226
  expiration dates for, 229
  lognormal distributions and, 186–187

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

Mathematica and, 248
Meinhard v. Salmon and, 225–226 obligation-freedom difference and, 225 put options. See put options real vs. financial, 244 reorganizations and, 240
risk and, 229
riskless rate and, 231
speedy legal procedures and, 247 strike price, 227–228
trigger contingency for options, pricing of, 227
Brownian motion and, 230
lognormal distributions for, 229–231 normative implications of, 234 premise of, 230
riskless rate and, 229
See also specific types, call, put paternalism

bounded rationality and, 61, 66
Pentium III chips, 249, 281 percentiles, 288
perfectionism theory, 39, 43
civic republicanism and, 43–44
Pinto cars, 156
police forces, affirmative action in, 311 political theory, 38
game theory and, 37
legal-process. See legal-process theory majority rule. See majority rule Meinhard v. Salmon, 37–38
perfectionism. See perfectionism theory political participation, 43. See also civic republicanism political v. economic analysis
Meinhard v. Salmon, 37–38
Posner, Eric, 58–59, 64
Posner, Richard, 18, 23–24, 58
PowerPoint program, 262 preferences, social, 38–39 price-earnings ratios, 210–211
prisoner's dilemma game, 51, 336
contract law and, 53, 68
legal scholarship on, 55–56
natural resource economics and, 68
standard form of, 52
probabilities
expectation and, 155
Pinto cars, 156
tables for, limitations of, 162–163
uncertainty and, 156

probability density functions arithmetic means of, 180–181
bell curves, 176, 178, 179
continuous, 180–181
discrete, 180
distribution functions and, 176, 179–180
histograms, 179, 180
integration, limits of, 181 probability theory, 137 basic, 154
derivatives and. See derivatives distribution functions. See distribution functions expected values. See expected values
gambling, 155
generalizability and, 159
human interactions and, 155
insider trading and, 214
Meinhard v. Salmon and, 154–155, 166–174 normative analysis and, 166, 173–174
options and. See options origins of, 155
uncertainty and, 164–165
probability trees, 163, 164–165, 170–171, 175 probit regression, 289, 308–310 production costs, volatility of, 246 Prohibition era, 66
propaganda, 58
property rights, 79, 80
Coasean irrelevance and, 114
scarcity, and the develoment of, 124 suppose society has none, 123–124
transaction costs and, 114
public choice theory, 38
collective action and, 50
demand-revealing processes and, 50
game theory and, 38
voting systems and, 50
public education, 43–44
public-housing subsidies, 93
put options, 227
path-dependency and, 234 payouts graph, 228–229
pricing of, 234
put-call parity method, 234

quartiles, 288

race-profiling, conditional probabilities and, 164–165 rational choice methods, 39

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

regression methods, 289, 298
  Capital Asset Pricing Model and, 203–205
  complex relations and, 308 degrees of freedom, 300, 302 dummy variables and, 304–305, 306, 307 explanatory variable interactions, 310 F-tests and, 300, 302, 305 graphs and, 306–307
  Heckman's two-step regressions, 310
  hypothesis testing and, 301
  limitations of, 302–308 LINEST output, 300
  logit-probit regressions. See logit-probit regressions multiple explanatory variables and, 307 non-linear relationships and, 307 ordinary least squares, 289 R-squared, 300, 301–302, 305 standard errors, 300, 301–302, 305
  t-tests and, 305
  taking of logs, 307
  truncated-censored distributions, 310, 311–312
  two-stage regressions, 310
  two-step least squares, 289 reorganizations
  new value exception law, 240, 289 risk, 202, 232–233
  CAPM and. See Capital Asset Pricing Model
  debt-equity holder differences and, 235
  derivatives and, 226–227
  diversification and, 203 entreprenurial, 83–84
  idiosyncratic, 203
  options and, 229
  systemic, 203, 205
  See also uncertainty
risk-aversion
  aggregation and, 117
  Coasean irrelevance and, 115, 125–126
  contract innovation and, 119
  economic modeling and, 150–152
  fence example, 116–120
  insurance schemes and, 119
  manager-owner divergent interests and, 125–126
  mediation-litigation decisions and, 56
  rights-allocations and, 117–118 society-level and, 115–117, 118 substantive solutions of, 118 transaction-cost, imposition of, 118 savings-consumption decisions, 81–83, 213 Securities and Exchange Commission, 41 self-defense legal argument, 195 Shavell, Steven, 23–24, 74 signaling, dividends and, 209 signaling models, 58–59 slavery, 110–111
spousal abuse, 285
spreadsheets, 249
  array formula, 299
  auto-fill, 260
  backups of, 275
  basics of, 249
  built-in functions, 251, 255 Clippy, disabling of, 251 compounding. See compounding conditional loops, 273 counter-loops, 273
  data-files, 275
  data-files, combining of, 274, 279 data-files, comma-delimited, 275 data-files, CSV, 275
  data-files, delimiters, 275 data-files, downloading, 274 data-files, tab-delimited, 275, 276 data importing, IF function for, 280 data-type specification, 277 database functions, 256–257 date-time functions, 255–256, 257 Digital-Signature tool, 273 financial functions, 255 fixed-width data, 278
  For/Next sequences, 273 function wizard, 253, 257–258 functions, user-defined, 271, 274, 292–293 geographical definitions, 279 Goal-Seek tool, 270, 271–273 graphs in, 261, 262, 266, 267, 268 hide-extensions option, 275
  IF function, 257, 280
  information functions, 257 international settings and, 250 logical functions, 257
  lookup & reference functions, 256 macros, 271, 273, 292–293 macros, graphics and, 274 math-trig functions, 256 modules, 272, 273
  objects, 272
  relative-absolute cell-referencing, 258, 299

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

right-aligned, 250
security settings, 271, 273 Solver add-in program, 269, 270 solving equations, 269
statistical accuracy of, 249 statistical functions, 256
t-tests and, 290–294
text functions, 257
Visual Basic, 269, 271, 272
while/wend loops, 273
Windows Explorer and, 275
See also specific programs SPSS program, 310
standard deviations, 181, 230, 287, 336 STATA program, 262, 310
statistics, 283
averages, comparisons of, 289 binary outcomes. See logit-probit regressions causation and, 284, 303 chi-tests. See chi-tests comparing data that fall into categories, 289 comparing data that take values, 289 confidence levels, 294
descriptive, 287, 334
distributions and, 287
empirical research and, 288 extrapolation methods, 300–301, 303 hypothesis testing, 301 multiple influences. See regression methods null hypotheses, 290–291, 294, 296 observations filtered by a threshold, 310 p-values, 294
qualitative analyzes and, 289 regression analyzes. See regression methods researcher bias and, 306 sceptical stance of, 285
statistical methods, reporting of in journal articles, 281 statistical test, 337
statistical tests, 290
student law reviews, guidelines for, 313 t-tests. See t-tests
tails, number of, 290–291
theory validity and, 284 use of in legal thinking, 284
Web sites for, 281
See also specific statistics stock brokerage fees, 208 t-tests, 288, 290–294, 305, 337
confidence levels, 294
degrees of freedom, 301
hypothesis testing and, 301
paired, 291–292
parameters of, 291–292
skedasticity and, 291–292
spreadsheets and, 290–294
tails, number of, 291–292
taxation
administration costs, 121
Capital Asset Pricing Model and, 207, 208. See also Capital Asset Pricing Model
chilling effects, 121
Coasean irrelevance and, 121
optimal tax theory, 73, 121 U.S. income tax estimated distortion cost, 87 wealth redistribution and, 72, 84, 90, 121
time value of money. See discounting torts
optimal tort rule, 85–89
wealth redistribution and, 92
See also negligence models traffic speeding, 58, 355
distribution functions and, 188
transaction costs
Capital Asset Pricing Model and, 207, 208
Coasean irrelevance and, 97–99, 107, 114
contract innovations and, 104
contract law and, 114
criminal defence funds, 108–109
definition of, 99
enforcement costs and, 104–105
fence example, 102–103, 118
fulfillment costs and, 101–102, 103, 109–110 hold-out tactics and, 114–115 imposition of, as policy, 118 jurisdiction differences and, 105–107
legal system design and, 105
litigation costs and, 105, 107
number of transactions and, 114 performance costs and, 102–103 perishable food examples, 101
property rights and, 114
risk-aversion and, 118
vantage point as making, 103 triangular distributions, 187–191, 351, 355

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521826810 - Principles and Methods of Law and Economics: Basic Tools for Normative Reasoning
Nicholas L. Georgakopoulos
Index
More information

truncated-censored distributions, 181
  arithmetic means of, 181, 182–186
  continuous, 183–186
  discrete, 182–183
  notation for, 182
  regression methods and, 310, 311–312
  upper-lower means of, 184–186

uncertainty, 154
  pricing of. See finance probability and, 156
  probability theory and, 165
  See also conditional probability; risk valuation methods, 199

  appraised asset-values, 211
  CAPM. See Capital Asset Pricing Model
  compounding, 202
  future earnings approach, 211, 212 going-concern assumption, 212, 236 good will and, 212
  historical-cost approach, 211 purchase-accounting method, 212 voting systems, 124
  Arrow impossibility theorem, 46–47, 50
  bidding systems and, 48–50 Clarke tax and, 48–50
  Coasean irrelevance and, 124
  corporate voting, 124 cumulative voting, 69–70
  demand-revealing processes and, 48–50
  design of, 44
  mandatory voting, 67–68 manipulation of, 49
  market choices, emulation of, 44–45 preferences, intensity of, 49, 50
  pricing systems and, 48, 49–50
  public choice theory and, 50
  vote-buying agreements, 124 wealth effects, 49–50
  See also majority rule; Borda ballots wealth redistribution, 72 airline over-booking and, 91 arguments against, 79

  arguments favoring, 75
  bankruptcy law and, 92
  bottle-laws and, 91
  car insurance and, 92
  chilling effects, 121
  Coasean irrelevance and, 99, 120
  cognitive errors and, 74, 87, 89 diminishing marginal utility and, 75–79
  double-distortion argument, 87, 89, 92–93
  entreprenurial risk and, 83–84 estate taxes and, 81, 83, 90 French/Communist revolutions, 79 laissez-faire economics and, 75, 84 lottery schemes and, 83
  Meinhard v. Salmon, 72–73, 90
  non-tax methods, 74, 84–87
  optimal tort rule, 85–89
  partial v. complete, 78–79 postponement of distributional concerns to last, 73–74 productivity incentives and, 74, 79–81 property rights, confidence in, 79
  public-housing subsidies, 93
  risk-aversion and, 75–76
  savings-consumption decisions and, 81–83
  taxation and, 72, 84, 90, 121 time horizons and, 74 tort liability and, 92 utility non-commensurability, 76–79 without-loss-of-generality, 138 written opinions, role of, 106, 107

Yield curves, 221

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org