

Index

- absolute probability, see inherent probability
- acceptability, 3, 4, 6, 21, 31, 65
 - for basic premises, 34
 - being accepted criterion, 12–14
 - being accompanied by argument criterion, 14
 - BonJour’s criterion, 78–79
 - formal definition, 32
 - inadequacy of classical
 - foundationalist conditions, 6–9
 - internalist notion, 71–72
 - known truth criterion, 11–12
 - pragmatic condition:
 - first approximation, 62
 - internalist notion, 71
 - refined formulation, 63
 - probability criterion, 15–19
 - truth criterion, 10–11
 - Wellman’s view, 35–37
- acceptance, 3, 4
- accessibility relation R, 151
- accidental universality, 206, 209–210
 - analysis of causation, see causation, analysis through accidental universality
- acquired signs, 134
- actions, aretaic value, 253, 260, 267
- active sympathy, 241
- actual value, 224–225
- adequate ground (for a belief), 81, 82
- affiliation, 246–250
- agape-response, 241–242
- agapic spectator, 257–260, 264, 265–268, 269–271
 - as cultural projection, 271–275
- Alston, William, 79, 87, 88, 159, 160, 372–373, 376
- analogies, 167
- analytic statements, 97, 98, 99, 122
- apportionment (of reward to merit), 229, 236
- a priori* intuition, 119, 323–324
- aretaic judgments, 218
- aretaic value, 218, 363–366
- argument evaluation, xii
- Aristotle, 55
- artificial language, 286
- ascriptions of belief, 158
- ascriptions of intention, 159–162
- ascriptions of subjunctive necessity
 - and possibility, 170–171, 204–205
- attachment, 246–247, 255
- attributions of sign, 162–163
- Audi, Robert, 183, 184, 223, 227, 232, 233, 236, 237
- Aune, Bruce, 160, 161

- authority-conferring field, 304–305 certification, 305–306 formal, 304–305
 informal, 304–305
 avowals, 125
- basic belief, 5, 109, 199 properly basic, 5, 8, 200, 201, 202, 233, 263–268 of aretaic value of others, 261–263 empathy as generating, 191 of intrinsic value, 233 psychological causation, 192 basic dialectical situation, 28–29 basic premise, xi, 6, 8, 376–378
 Beardley, Monroe C., 106 belief, 3 basic, see basic belief belief-generating mechanisms:
 interpersonal, 41
 personal, 41
 Blair, J. Anthony, xii, 10, 11, 33–35
 Bonjour, Laurence, 72, 76–78, 372–374
 on “givenist” position, 373–374
 Broad, C. D., 276–280
 broadly logically determinate statements, 98–100, 112
 broadly logically indeterminate
 statements, 100
 burden of proof, xi, 24
 evidential, 23
 initiating, 23
 Burks, Arthur W., 146, 148, 153, 157
- Carnap, Rudolf, 155
 Carneades, 47
 casuistry, 319
 cataleptic impression, 47
 causal law, 147
 causal statements, 155–157, 199–202
 causal subjunctive, 147 causation:
 analysis through accidental
 universality, 209–210
 Hume’s analysis, see Hume, David,
 analysis of causation
 metalinguistic analysis, 210
- Cederblom, Jerry, and Paulsen, David, 308
 certainty:
 necessary condition for acceptability, 6
 sufficient condition for acceptability, 4
 character, aretaic value, 253, 260, 267
 Clarke, D. S., 60, 62–63, 64, 71 classical foundationalism, 4, 5, 6–9
 Coady, C. A. J., 125, 281–282, 283, 284, 286, 288, 299, 300, 301, 302, 304, 307, 335, 358
 Cohen, L. Jonathan, 3, 21, 137, 158, 159, 160, 172, 186, 221, 252–253 commitments, aretaic value, 253, 260, 264–267, 269–271
 common knowledge, 296, 304, 346, 355, 359–360
 certainty, 311–312
 nature, 310–311
 presumption, 311
 common sense, 51, 52, 132
 common sense school of philosophy, 49–50
 comparisons, 166–167
see also analogies conceptually true statements, 116, 120 consciousness of obligation, 241
 conclusions of inference, 183
 conclusions of reflection, 183–184
 Conee, Earl, 79
 constitutive rules, 134, 136, 193, 195, 196, 198
 cost:
 of an action or state of affairs:
 preliminary definition, 60
 refined definition, 61 expected cost, 62–63 local nature, 66
 covariation, detection, 174, 179–180
- Damasio, Antonio R., 223
 Daniels, Charles B., 150, 152
 defeater, 58

- Descartes, Rene, 5–6, 7, 9, 50, 75, 76, 370 arguments for classical foundationalism, 8–9
- deontic judgments, 218, 221
- deontic value, 218, 363
- descriptions, 95, 101–105, 108, 112
- design plan, 43, 49, 54–56, 58, 128, 135, 141, 142, 213, 238, 250, 292
- desires, aretaic value, 251–253, 259–260, 264–267, 269–271
- dialectical situation, 27, 28 basic, 28–29
- dialogical situation, 27
- discursive justification, 19
- dispositional statements, 157–158, 199, 201
- duty, sense, 274–275
- empathy, 190–191, 234–235, 241, 249, 255, 352
- empirical intuition, 171
- empirical subjunctives, 171
- epistemic justification:
 Alston's conception, 82, 372 avoiding externalist and internalist objections, 82–83
 Bonjour's conception, 76–79
- epistemic probability, 16 criteria for acceptability, 17–19
- ethical relativist objection, 271–275
- evaluations, 95, 101, 112
 presumption for basic belief of
 aretaic value, 363–366
 of oneself, 365–366
 of someone else, 364–365
 presumption for basic belief of
 deontic value, 363
 presumption for basic belief of intrinsic value, 360–363
 generated by moral intuition, 361–362
 generated by moral sense, 360–361, 362
 presumption for judgments of personal value, 362
 presumption on word of others, 358–360
 common knowledge, 359–360
 cultural disagreement, 359–360 of moral expert, 358–359
 evaluative statements, 101 externalist internalism, 72
 avoiding objections to externalism, 72 extensional nonevaluative statements, 105, 107, 108
 excellence, teleological or criterial, 237
- Fahnestock, Jeanne, 95–97, 166, 167
- fairness, 243, 248
- feelings, aretaic value, 253, 254–259, 264–267, 269–271
- Feldman, Richard, 79
- Firth, Roderick, 79
- fidelity, 244, 245, 248
- firsthand report, 296
- Fisher, Alec, 374–375
- Fogelin, Robert J., 10
- formally true statements, 114–115, 120
- foundationalism:
 classical, see classical
 foundationalism
- Frankena, William K., 218, 219
- Freeman, James B., 150, 152
- generalizations, 125, 126
- Gettier, Edmund L., 67, 68
- “givenist” position, 373–374
- Goodman, Nelson, 207, 212–214
- Govier, Trudy, 14, 310, 311, 312
- Grennan, Wayne, 15–16
- Hamblin, C. L., 12–14
- Hempel, Carl G., 214
- Hitchcock, David, 210, 263
- homeostatic property cluster, 175, 179
- Hume, David, 49, 206, 212, 370–371
 analysis of causation, 207–209
 reports of unexpected, 334–335
- Ilbert, Sir Courtney, 22
- impartial spectator, 255–257

- individual report, 325
 - presumption through
 - introspection, 328–329
 - presumption through memory, 329
 - presumption through perception, 326–327
 - presumption through taking
 - proponent's word, 329–342
 - personal testimony, 330–337
 - testimony received through
 - chain, 337–342
- induction, 126
- inductive strength, 17
- inherent probability, 16
 - criterion for acceptability, 16
- institution, 134, 193
- institutional explanations, 145–146
- institutional facts, 134
- institutional intuition, 171, 202, 352–353
- institutional perception, see perception, acquired, institutional
- institutional subjunctives, 171, 202
 - presumption for, 352–353
- instrumental value, 219
- integrity, personal, see personal integrity
- interpretive classifications, 164–166, 199, 202–203
- intensional non-evaluative statements, 105, 107, 108
- internal access requirement, 79, 80
- internalism, 75, 77
- internalist externalism, 82
- interpersonal source of belief, 110
- interpretations, 95, 101–102, 105–108, 112
 - denials, 168
 - presumption on word of others, 353–357
- interpretive category, imposition of, 174
- intrinsic goods, types of, 226, 228
- intrinsic value, 219, 222, 226, 227
 - of persons, see personal value
- introspection, 125, 127
 - concerning causes of bodily events, 139
 - presumption, 140
- individual reports:
 - presumption, 328–329
- primary sorts, 138
 - presumption, 139–140
- intuition, 172, 173
 - empirical, 171
 - institutional, 171
 - personal, 350–352
 - physical, 174, 182–187, 347–350
- Johnson, Ralph, 33–35
- judgment, 289
- Jung, C. G., 110–111
- Kant, Immanuel, 252
- Kornblith, Hilary, 175–182, 184, 187
- knowledge, 228, 236
- Kruger, Arthur N., 95, 97, 105, 106, 122, 157
- Kuhn, Thomas S., 335
- leading principle, 81, 172
- Leblanc, Hugues, 152
- Lennox, James G., 55
- Locke, John, 5, 6, 75, 76, 300, 370
- MacLagan, W. G., 241–242, 256, 272–273
- mathematical statements, 98–99, 116–117, 120–121
- media, 296
- Meilaender, Gilbert C., 80
- memory, 126, 127
 - primary employment, 140
 - presumption of reliability, 141
 - secondary employment, 140
 - presumption of reliability, 142
- meta-awareness requirement, 76–78, 83
- metaphysical statements, 117, 121
- minimization-maximization, 167–168
- mixed statements, 108
- model interlocutors, 33–34
- Moore, Brooke Noel, 144

- Moore, George Edward, 100, 231–232, 386
- moral expert, 358–359
- moral intuition, 222, 223–224, 226,
233, 239–240, 242, 250,
268–269, 361–362
- moral reflection, 237
- moral sense, 221, 222, 223, 226, 233, 234–239, 242, 243–244,
249–250, 254, 261, 264–268,
269–271, 360–361, 362
- objections, 275–280
- Myers, Isabel Briggs, 110–111
- Nagel, Ernest, 144, 145, 209, 210, 211
- natural kinds, 176, 178–182, 183–184, 207, 213, 214, 215–217
- natural sign, 129, 132
- of mental states of others, 133, 188, 189
- necessary statement, 114
- Nolt, John Eric, 16–17
- nomically sufficient condition, 154
- nomical necessity, 170, 210–212 see also ascriptions of subjunctive necessity and possibility
- nomical possibility, see ascriptions of subjunctive necessity and possibility
- nomical uniformity, 150, 151
- nomical universality, 206, 210–212
- nonevaluative statements, 101
- nonmoral value, 218, 226
- nonprojective generalizations, conditions for presumption, 345
- objective duty, 74, 75
- objective probability, see probability,
objective
- obligation, consciousness, see
consciousness of obligation
- original perception, see perception, original
- passive sympathy, see empathy
- Parker, Richard, 144
- Peirce, Charles S., 81, 172, 371–372
- perception, 125, 126, 127
- acquired or learned, 134–137, 287
- presumption, 135–137
- pragmatic argument, 137
- institutional, 135, 136
- developmental nature, see perception, acquired or learned
- original:
- presumption, 132–133
- pragmatic argument, 137
- presumption for individual reports, 326–327
- Perelman, Ch. and L. Olbrechts-Tyteca, 40, 188, 267
- personal explanations, 144–145
- personal identity, belief, 140, 142
- personal integrity, 244, 249
- personally initiated belief, 110
- personal source of belief, 110, 112
- personal subjunctives, 171, 193
- presumption, 350–352
- personal value, 230–232, 240–242, 362
- physical explanations, 143–144
- physical subjunctives, 171
- presumption, 347–350
- Pinto, R. C., 26
- Plantinga, Alvin, 5, 9, 42–44, 55, 58,
68, 69, 74, 75, 83, 86, 99, 100,
119, 126, 127, 128, 140,
213–214, 239, 266, 282, 286,
294, 367, 368, 376, 382, 383
- pleasure, 226–228, 232, 234–235
- sadistic, see sadistic pleasure
- Popkin, Richard, 370
- pragmatic condition for premise
acceptability, see acceptability,
pragmatic condition
- premise acceptability, xii
- presumption, xi, xii, 21, 24, 26, 29, 38–39, 42, 87–88
- challenger presumption, 29–30
- of cognitively appropriate environment, 54
- jurisprudential concept, 21–23

- presumption (cont.)
- pragmatic dimension, 60–65
 - of proper function, 53–54
 - proponent presumption, 30, 35
 - questions determining, 33, 65
 - of reliability for certain belief-generating mechanisms:
 - commonsense defense, 49–50
 - as properly basic, 49
 - as sole criterion for presumption, 53
 - rhetorical concept, 23–24
 - of truth-oriented design plan module, 56
 - of warrant and pragmatic condition
 - necessary and sufficient condition, 65
 - of warrant a necessary condition, 57
 - of warrant a sufficient condition, 57–59
- presumption of warrant:
 - distinct from warrant, 67–69
 - internalist notion, 70–71
- presumptive justification, 19
- Price, Richard, 228
- prima facie* duties:
 - beneficence, 243, 244
 - gratitude, 243
 - justice, 243
 - nonmaleficence, 243, 244
 - not telling lies, 244
 - promise keeping, 244
 - reparation, 243, 245
 - self-improvement, 244, 249
 - self-respect, 244, 249
- prima facie* duty, 243, 250
- principles, 221
- table, 245
- principle of credulity, 291, 294
- principle of veracity, 293
- probability:
 - criterion for acceptability, see acceptability, probability criterion
 - epistemic, 16, 17–19
 - inherent, 16
 - objective, 45, 52
- projective generalizations, conditions
 - for presumption, 345–346
- properly basic belief, see basic belief, properly basic
- proximate intention, 189
- psychological essentialism, 178
- Pyrrho, 369
- Quine, Willard van Orman, 98, 177, 213, 215–217, 383
 - objection to analytic/synthetic distinction, 117–119
 - web of belief, 374–375
- Quinton, Anthony, 118
- Randall, John Herman, 55
- reason, 98, 100, 119
- received belief, 110
- Reid, Thomas, 49, 50, 128–134, 135, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 187, 188, 212, 242, 282, 283, 285, 289, 291, 367, 370–371
 - concept of suggestion, 128
 - reply to perceptual skeptic, 50
 - senses:
 - seeing, 130–131
 - smelling, 128–129
 - touch, 129–130
- Reidian foundationalism, 367
- relevant variables, 151, 174
- reliability, 45
- reports, 125
 - astonishing or implausible, 333–337
 - summary report, 125, 126
- Rescher, Nicholas, 19, 23, 24–25, 33, 38, 40, 303
- respect for persons, 241
- Ross, W. D., 60, 120, 218–219, 221, 222, 224, 225, 226, 227, 229–232, 243–245, 251–252, 259, 268, 375
- Ryle, Gilbert, 194
- sadistic pleasure, 238
- Searle, John R., 100, 134, 193, 194, 195–198

- secondhand report, 296, 299
- Secor, Marie, 95–97, 103, 166, 167
- self-evident proposition, 6
- semantically true statements, 115–116, 118, 120
- sentiments, moral, 243
- sign, 285–286
of authority, 287–288
- singular causal statements, 163–164
- Skagestad, Peter, 371
- skeptic, perceptual, reply to Reid, 50, 51
- skepticism, 369–372
Pyrrhonian, 369–370
- Skyrms, Brian, 17–18
- Smith, Adam, 254, 255
- S-model, 152
- source vouching for a statement (premise), xii
- speech act, 195–198
- Sproule, J. Michael, 23, 94, 95, 96, 102, 106, 154, 155, 166, 167, 376
- Stough, Charlotte L., 47
- Stevenson, Charles L., 74
- subjective duty, 74, 75
- subjective conditional, truth conditions, 153
- subjunctive disjunctions, 168–170
- subjunctive of freedom, 148
- summary report, conditions for presumption, 342–345
- Swinburne, Richard, 144
- sympathy, 243, 247, 254, 272–274 active, see active sympathy passive, see empathy
- synonymy, 118–119
- testifying, 284, 288–289, 290
- testimony, 286, 292 argument from design plan for presumption, 292
chain, 296
expert, defined, 304 argument for presumption, 307–308
presumption of trust, 308
for logically determinate statements, 324–325
- externalist notion defined, 284
- institutional, 296
as genuine testimony, 314
presumption, 314–315, 327
- internalist notion defined, 290–291 necessary condition, 288, 290
- personal notion defined, 297
- pragmatic justification, 292
- presumption of warrant composed, 295 warrant composed, 294
- Thomas, Stephen Naylor, 15
- Toulmin, Stephen, 149, 172, 173, 183, 377 model of argumentation structure, 83–84
- truth condition for subjunctive conditional, 153
- truth-functions of interpretations, 203–204
- Ullian, J. S., 213
- Ullmann-Margalit, Edna, 22
- virtue, 228
- vouching for a statement, 289–290
- vouching source for a statement (premise), xii
- Walton, Douglas N., xii
- warrant, 42, 83 conditions, 42–44
distinct from presumption of warrant, 67–69
externalist notion, 69–70
- Wellman, Carl, 8, 14, 35–37
- Whatley, Richard, 23–24, 40
- Wilson, James Q., 234, 243–244, 246, 248, 253, 255, 273–275
- Wisdom, William A., 152