achievement 370
activation 173, 174, 178, 179, 180, 181, 183, 185, 186 activities concurrent with television viewing 282, 283–86, 290, 293, 296, 298, 300 and cortisol levels 128–29 feelings about 120–21, 129–30 media 301
shared 345, 346, 359
see also household activities; primary activities; secondary activities Adam, E. xiv, 8, 47
adolescence 333
adolescent development 329, 332
parent occupation 396, 421
and educational values 396, 421
and job aspirations 422, 445
parenting 14–17, 329, 332, 338 influence on expectations 365, 395 role management 333, 364 adolescents aspirations 41 assessments of parental role 333, 364; see also parental role management assessments of well-being 338 daily subjective experiences 411–14 emotional well-being 314–16, 320, 338 emotions 138, 143, 147–52, 163 and those of parents 138, 143, 147–52, 163 expectations 365, 373, 375–80, 395
girls 362–63
gender 140, 143, 151, 158
religious commitment 305
sample 33
surveys 23, 26
television use and communication 277, 291, 302 thoughts on own future roles 361–62 see also father–adolescent dyads; mother–adolescent dyads adrenal gland 135
affect media activities 301 and television viewing 280, 289 see also negative affect; positive affect affect control theory 173, 174 affection and sex 210, 212, 213, 214, 215, 219 affective disorder 171
Alexander, A. 278
Alfred P. Sloan Foundation xix, xx, 3, 18 allostatic load model 110
Almeida, D. see Larson, R. and D. Almeida Almeida, D. and R. Kessler 171, 191 aloneness 181, 194
Amato, P. see Booth, A. and Amato, P.
American marriages, recent trends 366
Americans Time Use Study 246
Ammernan, N. 306
anger daily emotions, husbands and wives 176 emotional transmission, parent and adolescent 143, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 156, 157, 158, 161 intrinsic/extrinsic work motivations (women) 90, 92, 95, 97 and marital satisfaction 215, 222 anxiety 143, 147, 149, 150, 151, 152, 154, 156, 157, 156, 157, 161 Anxiety and Anger Inventories 22 appraisal 191, 192
asthma diagnosis 116, 118, 130
Index

autonomy see work autonomy average income method 505, 506, 507, 508 babysitters 272
Barnett, R. and K. Gareis 456 basal cortisol activity 109
Beach, S. see Bradbury, T., F. Fincham, and S. Beach Bechtel, R. 282
beep-level analyses 465, 467, 470, 480 behavior problems 41 benefits (welfare) 81, 94, 95, 98 between-dyad level 144, 145, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153
Beutell, N. see Greenhaus, J. and N. Beutell Bianchi, S. xy, 482, 483 Bianchi, S. and J. Robinson 281, 282, 293 biosocial perspectives 105, 131, 134, 135 Blau, P. and O. Duncan 419 body mass 117, 118, 130
Booth, A. and P. Amato 368 boredom 90, 92, 95, 97
Bradburn, N. and D. Caplovitz 197
Bradbury, T., F. Fincham, and S. Beach 197 breadwinner role 373, 379, 388, 393
Browning, D. xy, 325
Buddhism 326
Bureau of Labor Statistics 359
Camarigg, V. see Glass, J. and V. Camarigg Caplovitz, D. see Bradburn, N. and D. Caplovitz car services 272
caring 308, 314, 315, 327 Catholic faith 311, 315
causality 386, 387
Census Codes 53
Center for Epidemiologic Studies-Depression (CES-D) scale 22
Center on Parents, Children and Work xix Centers on Working Families xix challenge see family challenge Child Behavior Checklist for Ages 4 to 18 24 child-centeredness 391
childcare 372, 374, 378, 381, 382 childcare services 255, 258–63, 270, 272, 274 children’s well-being 363, 391
Christensen, K. xiv, 17, 449
Christianity 326

Classified Index of Industries and Occupations 38 closeness 143, 151, 152, 154, 158 161–62, 346
closet analysis 474–77, 483
cognitive demands 299
Cohen, J. 133
cohort effect 295
Coltrane, S. 391
commodification see “hidden commodification”; high-level commodification; household services, commodification communication see couples’ marital satisfaction, communication; family interaction communities sample 18–19, 37 commuting 88
comparability 21
conforming work orientations 56, 59–60, 62, 63, 64, 65, 70, 77 contagion effect 155, 160, 355 Corder, J. see Stephan, C. and J. Corder core work activities see work activities, primary Cornell Couples and Careers Study 4, 103
cortisol levels 58, 105, 112–14, 115–31, 134–37
ESM questions and data reduction 114–15
Hierarchical Linear Modeling 115, 116, 117, 119, 122, 124, 125, 126, 136 short-term effects 107 couples’ marital satisfaction 196, 201, 202, 203, 204, 206, 207, 209, 213, 214, 215, 216, 218, 220, 222 agreement/disagreement 198–99, 202, 203–04 communication 212, 213, 214, 215, 217, 220, 221 see also marital satisfaction Crouter, A. 357
Csikszentmihalyi, M. xvi, 5, 100, 297, 399
see also Kubey, R. and M.
Csikszentmihalyi, Kubey, R., R. Larson, and M. Csikszentmihalyi Csikszentmihalyi, M. and R. Larson 174 Csikszentmihalyi, M. Rathunde, and S.
Whalen 369, 385
cultural capital see intergenerational transmission of values “cultural cover-up” 384

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

Cunningham, M. xvi, 368, 389 comparison with Family Study 27–29, 30–31
data collection 25–26
Deci, E. and R. Ryan 400 decision-making 212, 213, 215, 220 demographic characteristics expectations of adolescents 373 intrinsic and extrinsic work motivations (women) 87, 89 work and home experiences 56 “demonstration effect” 263–64
Dempsey, N. xiv, 13, 277
Dennehy, K. and J. Mortimer 368 depression 110
depressive symptoms 32, 200, 207–08, 209, 210, 213 diaries see time diaries diurnal rhythm 116, 130
division of labor see household labor division divorce 167, 221
Doherty, W. xvi, 217
Domestic workers 4
Druckman, J. see Olson, D., D. Fournier, and J. Druckman Duncan, O. see Blau, P. and O. Duncan dyadic measurement 217
earnings 372, 374, 378, 379, 386, 494, 497, 502 see also income; salaries econometric techniques 491 education level 59, 76, 93, 94, 97, 98, 99–100, 419 educational values 396, 402, 408–09, 410, 414, 421 see also parent occupation egalitarian orientation 365, 366, 374, 375, 379, 382–83, 391, 394, 410, 414, 415 elderly people’s services 272 Ellison, C., D. Gay, and T. Glass 304 emotion theory 130
eotional contagion 155, 160, 355 emotional experiences, husbands and wives 169, 172–78, 186–88, 190–95 emotional labor 245, 249 emotional spillover 51, 60–64 emotional states 32, 33, 174
Cortisol levels 115, 121–25, 129–30
educational values and parent occupation 400, 402, 403, 411, 412, 414 effect on family life 49 evaluative nature 172
and job aspirations 441, 450
and motivation for working (women) 89, 100, 104
at work 49, 58–59, 60
work/home experiences 56
emotional transmission 138, 141, 142–43, 144–55, 156, 159–63
reciprocity 160–61
emotional well-being, religiosity and 303, 307, 308, 312–16 adolescents 314–16, 320
mothers 312–14
see also religiosity
emotion(s) 159
centrality in marriage quality 169, 171–72 comparison at couple level 176, 183–86 complexity 173
contextual variation 174, 179–80, 186–88
dimensions 174
gender differences 171, 178, 180, 181, 183, 187, 191, 193, 213 momentary (cortisol levels) 117 nesting 64–66, 144–45
parent and adolescent 138, 143, 147–52, 163
and television viewing 282, 289–92, 301
employment 103, 114
maternal 138, 368–69
part-time 68, 75, 94, 452 Quality of Employment Survey 246
engagement
in enjoyable activities, cortisol levels 128–29 with work activities 56, 58, 59, 60, 62, 64, 66 enjoyment 124
ENRICH Marital Satisfaction Scale 22, 196, 199, 203, 214, 215, 216, 218 Euro-American culture 162
European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions 452 eyeday experience and cortisol levels 111–12
Experience Sampling Method 5, 19–21, 77, 461–62, 490

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

accuracy of time use measures 465–67, 473, 479–80, 483–90 calculating response rates 465–66 emotional experiences, husbands and wives 173, 190, 192
household activities 234, 235, 236–37, 238–43
limitations 37
television use 277, 297, 299
extrinsic motivation 400
at work 79, 93–95
extrinsic work satisfaction 81, 82 faith see personal faith families sample 19
family challenge
and cortisol levels 128–29
educational values and parent occupation 399, 401, 402, 406, 409, 410, 414, 415, 416, 417 parental influence and adolescent expectations 369, 373, 375, 378, 379, 381, 385–86, 387, 391, 392, 394
religiosity and emotional well-being 306, 307, 308, 318, 319, 320 family characteristics intrinsic/extrinsic work motivations 89
work/home experiences 56, 96
family definition 275
family functions 274
family interaction
and educational values 403, 404, 405, 406 parent–adolescent and job aspirations 426, 429, 431, 435, 437, 438, 440–41 and television use 277, 279–80, 283, 286, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 298, 300, 302 Family and Medical Leave Act 453 family processes and parental work characteristics 303, 306, 308, 316–19, 327 family relationship dynamics 391–92 family responsibilities 83, 84, 85 family role expectations 154, 365, 367–70, 373, 395 family services 272
family structures 170, 306, 327 family support
educational values and parent occupation 399, 401, 406–09, 410, 414, 416, 417
parental influence and adolescent expectations 369, 373, 375, 378, 382, 384–85, 387, 391, 393 religiosity and emotional well-being 306, 307, 308, 318, 319, 320 family triads 370
father–adolescent dyad
educational values 410, 411, 412, 414, 420
emotional transmission 139, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 157, 161–62
job aspirations 425, 426, 435, 438, 444 parental role management 341, 358 family-friendly work environments 339, 344, 349, 355 fatherhood 393, 394
fathers
cortisol levels 116
participation at home 366 role-conflict 351, 355
feelings see emotional states
Feldberg, R. and E. Glenn 83
Feldman, A. xiv, 9, 138 see also Majasko, J. and A. Feldman female workforce 69
Fenwick, R. see Parker, R. and R. Fenwick financial situation 212, 215, 221
Fincham, F. see Bradbury, T., F. Fincham, and S. Beach
Five Hundred (500) Family Study 3, 5, 6, 39–44, 279, 450–51
data collection 25–26, 234 supplementary 26
design 18, 44
Experience Sampling Method 19–21
interviews 23–24
parents
educational characteristics 26–27
participation 29–32
psychological characteristics 32–33
work characteristics 26–27
physiological stress study 26 purchase of household services study 26
sample
adolescents 33
characteristics 26–27
communities 18–19, 37
families 19
young children 35, 38
Index

Five Hundred (500) Family Study (cont.)
standardized child assessments 24–25 study approach 19
surveys 21–23, 463
adolescents 23, 26
parents 21–23, 26
flow 128
Folkman, S. and J. Moskowitz 191
Fournier, D. see Olson, D., D. Fournier, and J. Druckman fragmentation 227
Fricke, T. xvi, 273
Frischmeh, M. 501 friends see relationship with relatives and friends Galambos, N. xvi, 443
Galambos, N. and H. Sears 425, 440
Gallagher, M. see Waite, L. and M. Gallagher Gallup Youth Survey 339
Gareis, K. see Barnett, R. and K. Gareis Gay, D. see Ellison, C., D. Gay, and T. Glass
gender
adolescents 140, 143, 151, 158
attitudes 365, 367, 375
as control variable 408
cortisol levels 123, 127, 132
and educational values 398, 420 emotional differences 171, 178, 180, 181, 183, 187, 191, 193, 213 household labor 229, 231, 240, 242–43, 244, 251
and job aspirations 443
occupations 57
as performance 366, 389, 390 roles 356, 365, 375, 381, 444
social relations 103
stress reactivity 108, 121, 133, 134 and student grades 408
traditional roles 193
women’s careers 79–80
work motivation 82–83
work orientation 96–97
work satisfaction 82
work-family conflict 336, 337
see also household labor, gender gap gender-specific effects 370 General Social Survey 42, 214, 294 generational perspectives 298, 338 Gershuny, J. 472
girls’ expectations 362–63
Glass, J. xvi, 392
Glass, J. and V. Camarigg 83
Glass, T. see Ellison, C., D. Gay, and T. Glass Glenn, N. xvi, 172, 192
Glenn, N. see Feldberg, R. and E. Glenn gold standard 39
Goldin, C. 80
Gomory, R. xvi, xx
Gottman, J. 169, 198, 199, 217
Gottman, J. and C. Notarius 198 grades see student grades
Granger, D. xvi, 134
Granger, D. and K. Kivlighan 135
Greenhaus, J. and N. But, 335
Griliches, Z. 491
grounded theory 272
Habermas, J. 325
habititus 398
Hacker, J. and G. Oldham 142
Hammack, P. xvi, 331
Han, S. and P. Moen 80
Hanis-Martin, J. xvi, 47 happiness 143, 146, 147, 149, 150, 151, 153, 154, 156, 157, 160, 161, 308
Hart, P. 455
Harter Pictorial Scale 24
Harter, S. 363
health
control variables (cortisol levels) 116 emotional 110–11
physical 110–11
survey 113
health care 81, 94, 98
health insurance 453
Hektner, J. xvi, 39
Herta, R., and N. Marshall 4
Hewitt, N. see Seymour, E. and N. Hewitt “hidden commodification” 254, 255, 259–63, 271 hidden familiarization 275 hidden labor 395
Hierarchical Linear Modeling
cortisol levels 115, 116, 117, 119, 122, 124, 125, 126, 136 emotional transmission 144–45, 146
mood 412
motivation
self-esteem 413
Hierarchical Measurement Modeling 21, 64 high-level commodification 267, 270 Hinduism 326
Hochschild, A. 278, 355, 366, 381, 384
Index

home characteristics (parent role management) 344–45, 349, 351 home environments 98
home experiences see work/home experiences home production 167
home services 272
home/work experiences see work/home experiences Hoogstra, L. xiv, 18
hours worked 40
emotional transmission parent and adolescent 140, 142, 149, 153, 157
women 88, 98
work/home experiences 68, 69, 70
household activities 11–13 management 240
primary 238–40, 243, 244
secondary 231–32, 235, 238–40, 243, 244, 245, 247, 248–49
time allocation 189, 236–43
see also Experience Sampling Method, household activities household labor, division 355, 367–68, 372, 374, 378, 380–81, 386, 450 household labor, gender gap 229, 230–34, 235–46, 248–51 advantages of data set 234–35 household services, commodification 252, 253, 255, 257–58, 267, 269–71, 272, 273–76 as behavior 254–55
service types 257–58, 272
household tasks see household activities human capital 293
husbands’ marital satisfaction 202–10, 213, 215 identity development 422 imputation methods see income imputation income 85, 87, 95, 97, 98, 501, 511–13 see also average income method; earnings; income imputation; salaries income imputation 489, 491, 494, 498–99, 501, 504–13 effects on behavior model 499–02 see also preferred imputation method
Index of Positive Emotions 192, 193, 195 India 162
interaction see family interaction interactive media 301
intercept models 157, 158
intergenerational transmission of values education and occupation 396, 397, 402, 408–09, 410, 414, 416, 421 household services, outsourcing 255, 266–67, 269 occupational status 419, 423, 438, 439, 441, 442 parenting practices and monitoring 398–400
interviews
Five Hundred (500) Family Study 23–24
household services, commodification 257, 267, 272, 273
intimacy 214
intrinsic motivation and challenge 400
engagement with activities 169, 173, 174, 178, 179, 180, 181, 183, 185, 186, 194 intrinsic work motivation emotional transmission parents–adolescents 140, 142, 147–49, 153, 155, 157, 162–63
women 79, 84, 92
intrinsic work satisfaction 81, 82 invisible labor 229
involvement 114
Islam 326
It’s About Time (Moen) 4
Jacobs, J. xvi, 72
Jeong, J.-G. xiv, 461
Jewish faith 311, 312
job aspirations 422, 426–27, 428, 429–37, 438–42, 443–45 job characteristics see work characteristics job complexity see substantive job complexity job prestige see work prestige job satisfaction see work satisfaction job security 453
job types 35, 75, 428, 431
Judiasm 326
Kagan, J. 443
Kalil, A. xiv
Kalil, A., J. Levine, and K. Ziol-Guest 16, 422
Kalleberg, A. 81
Katz, M. see Pietrzkowski, C. and M. Katz Kessler, R. see Almeida, D. and R. Kessler kindergartners see young children kinship 274
548 Index

Kivlighan, K. see Granger, D. and K. Kivlighan Klima, T. xvi
see also Repetti, R., T. Klima, and T. Kremer-Sadlik Koh, C-Y. xiv, 10, 167
Kohn, M. 82, 397, 424
Kohn, M. and C. Schooler 50, 52, 56, 59, 420, 424 Kremer-Sadlik, T. xvi
see also Repetti, R., T. Klima, and T. Kremer-Sadlik Kubey, R. xvi, 285, 297, 299
Kubey, R. and M. Csikszentmihalyi 282, 285, 290, 296, 299
Kubey, R. and R. Larson 292
Kubey, R., R. Larson, and M. Csikszentmihalyi 278, 280 labor force characteristics 493 Larson, R. xvi, 159
see also Csikszentmihalyi, M. and R. Larson; Kubey, R. and R. Larson; Kubey, R., R. Larson, and M. Csikszentmihalyi Larson, R. and D. Almeida 171
Larson, R. and M. Richards 139, 141, 152
Larson, R., M. Richards, and M. Perry-Jenkins 441 latent factor methods 512
Lee, Y-S. xiv, 12
Lefgren, L. xvi, 504
leisure time 212, 213, 215, 344 length of marriage see years of marriage Levine, J. xiv
see also Kalil, A., J. Levine, and K. Ziol-Guest Lewin, A. xvi, 167
location 115, 121–25, 143, 173, 176, 179–80, 185, 186–88, 271 public places 180, 185, 188 response rates 472
work/home 61, 62, 63, 66, 70, 221–23
logit analysis 511
long-term adjustment patterns 155 low-investment social relationships 195
Lull, J. 280, 292, 293
McLuhan, M. 297
Maier, K. xiv, 16, 396, 419
Majasko, J. and R. Feldman 47
MAR condition 463, 469, 472, 486, 489 Marchena, E. xiv, 15
marital homogamy 387
marital relationship assessment 197–98, 202 marital satisfaction 196, 197, 199–208, 213–14, 223, 344 ranking by husbands and wives 205 marital status 94
market production 167
marriage 10–11
marriage(s) 10–11, 165, 168 assessment 197–98, 202
centrality of emotion 169, 171–72 dual-career 170–71
emotional tensions 170–71 importance 196
recent trends in America 366 styles 198
theory 172
Marshall, N. see Hertz, R. and N. Marshall Martinez, E. xvi, 4, 77, 79 mastery 114, 121, 123
maternal employment 138, 368–69 maternal religiosity 313, 317, 320, 322 math and science professions 396, 397, 403, 417 Matjasko, J. xiv, 9, 138 mean wages 495–96
media activities 301
media effects 292, 300
memory 235
Menaghan, E. 425
see also Parcel, T. and E. Menaghan Menaghan, E. and T. Parcel 425 mental labor 232, 235, 237, 240, 245, 246, 249–50, 269, 270, 279 mid-range strategy 492, 502 midpoint method 505, 507, 508 Miller, H. 511
missing data 492
mixed-faith couples 311 modeling behavior 367
modernization theory 325 Moen, P. xvi, 4, 102, 369
see also Han, S. and P. Moen; Tolbert, P. and P. Moen monitoring 398–400, 415 mood see emotional states
Morse, N. 81
Mortimer, J. xvi, 419, 424
see also Denney, K. and J. Mortimer Moskowitz, J. see Polkman, S. and J. Moskowitz mother-adolescent dyad
adolescent development 358, 408, 410, 411, 412, 414, 415, 420
Index

emotional transmission 139, 146, 149, 151, 152, 153, 154, 156, 157, 161

job aspirations 426, 438, 443, 444

mothers’ cortisol levels 116

motivation
adolescent development 369, 399, 400, 402, 403, 411

see also work motivation (women)

Mulligan, C. xv

Mulligan, C., B. Schneider, and R. Wolfe 462 multi-level models 64–66, 70, 71

multi-tasking 229, 240

multiple imputation 512

nannies 272

National Survey of Families and Households 246

negative affect
and children’s well-being 363
cortisol levels 118, 123, 127–28, 134
daily emotions of husbands and wives 169, 173, 174, 176, 180, 181, 183, 185, 186, 189, 190 intrinsic work motivations (women) 84

and marital satisfaction 221
television viewing 287
work/home experiences 56, 58, 60, 61, 62, 67, 71, 73, 75

negative parenting 281

negative-stress factor 115

nesting emotions 64–66, 144

Nielsen, M. xv

Nielsen Media Research 294

non-marital relationships 174

non-parametric approach 493, 499, 501, 504

Notarius, C. see Gottman, J. and C. Notarius objectivity 297

occupational categories 35, 75, 428, 431

Occupational Handbook 53 occupational linkage hypothesis 424

occupations 54–55, 70
categories 100
gender and 57, 79–80

negative affect 94

Offer, S. xvii

Oldham, G. see Hackman, J. and G. Oldham

Olson, D. 217, 219

Olson, D., D. Fournier, and J. Druckman 198

one-parent families 161

open-ended income response categories 511–13 optimism 369, 382, 399

ordered probit analysis 347, 350, 430, 434, 436, 511

“other” religions 311, 312 outsourcing 267, 268, 270, 274

overachievers 384

overworking 7

Panel Study of Income Dynamics 246

Parcel, T. 428

see also Menaghan, E. and T. Parcel

Parcel, T. and E. Menaghan 82, 97–98 parent and adolescent emotions 138, 139, 143, 147–52, 163 parental challenge see family challenge parental characteristics education 26–27

psychological 32–33
television viewing 288

work 26–27

 qualitative illustrations 382–86

parent occupation 396, 401, 402–03, 404–11, 412, 414–16, 417, 419–21

parental role management 339–41, 343–51, 352–58, 361–64

see also work–family role management parental support see family support parenthood 102

parenting 14–17, 281

and adolescent development 14–17, 329, 332, 338 ease of 345, 355
and marital satisfaction 212, 220, 222
negative 281
positive 282

religion and 306, 307, 317, 320, 321, 327

television viewing 281

parenting practices 396, 398–400, 401, 404, 410, 414

parenting style 369–70, 378, 381–82, 387
parents
cortisol levels 124, 125
emotions 138, 143, 147–52, 163
expectations 403, 404, 415, 444
Five Hundred (500) Family Study educational characteristics 26–27
participation 29–32
psychological characteristics 32–33
surveys 21–23, 26
work characteristics 26–27
Parker, R. and R. Fenwick 511 part-time employment 68, 75, 94, 452
Patterson, G. and M. Strouthamer-Loeber 399 Perceived Competence Scale for Young Children 24 Perceived Stress Scale 23 performative theories 390 permanent income theory 501 Perry-Jenkins, M. see Larson, R., M. Richards, and M. Perry-Jenkins personal characteristics 465, 466–67, 502 personal faith 304, 308, 309, 310, 320, 321, 323
mothers 322
personality 50, 212, 213, 214, 220, 222 physical activity 115
physiological stress study 26
Piotrkowski, C. and M. Katz 425 policy debate 44
positive affect
cortisol levels 128, 134
emotions of husbands and wives 169, 173, 174, 178, 179, 180, 181, 183, 185, 186, 188, 190, 191, 194
and marital satisfaction 221 transmission between family members 160
work/home experiences 56, 58, 60, 61, 66, 73
Positive Couple Agreement score 200, 203, 215, 217, 221 positive parenting 282 positive-productive factor 115 positive-social factor 115, 118 post-stratification weighting 477–79 power 161
preferred imputation method 505, 506, 507, 508 preschoolers 95, 96 prestige see work prestige pride 178
primary activities
household 238–40, 243, 244
and television viewing 281
work 50, 53–56, 66, 72–73, 76
productivity 128
prospective model 144
Protestant faith 311, 312, 315
psychological characteristics 32–33, 209, 395, 400, 412
psychological factors 470 psychological well-being 200 public agenda 453–54
public locations 180, 185, 188
Purchase of Household Services Study 26
Quality of Employment Survey 246 quality time 357, 451
Rasch scale 345, 346, 359
Raskin, P. xvii, 76
Rathunde, K. see Csikszentmihalyi, M., K. Rathunde, and S. Whalen reference groups 264, 270 relationship with relatives and friends 212, 215, 220 relative deprivation 264–65 relatives see relationship with relatives and friends reliability 20
religion 306–07, 325
religion and values 212, 215, 220 religiosity 303, 307–09, 310, 319–23, 325–28
dimensions 304–05
effects on well-being 305 religious affiliation 305, 308, 311–12, 321, 327 religious participation 304, 308, 310–11, 323 Repetti, R. xvii
Repetti, R., T. Klima, and T. Kremer-Sadlik 361 residential services 274
response rates 461, 462–65, 480 influences on 468–73
retirement plans 95, 98 return from work 139, 141, 159
and marital satisfaction 208, 209
Richards, M. see Larson, R. and M. Richards; Larson, R., M. Richards, and M. Perry-Jenkins
Ricks, D. see Wessman, A. and D. Ricks
Index

Robinson, J. see Bianchi, S. and J. Robinson role conflict 334, 335, 337, 339, 355
fathers’ experiences 351, 355
role expectations see family role expectations role performance 212, 213, 214, 215, 220 role relationships 159
role salience 173, 174, 178, 179, 180, 181, 183, 185, 186 Rubinstein, Y. xv, 491
rules and values 308, 317, 320, 324 Ryan, R. see Deci, E. and R. Ryan salaries 429, 435, 437, 443 see also earnings; income saliva samples 113
sampling bias 38
Schmidt, J. xv, 14, 303
Schneider, B. xv, xix, 3
Schneider, B. see Mulligan, C., B. Schneider, and R. Wolfe Schneider, B. and D. Stevenson 370 school guidance 402, 416–17 Schooler, C. see Kohn, M. and C. Schooler science, culture of 397–98
Sears, H. see Galambos, N. and H. Sears secondary activities
household 231–32, 235, 238–40, 243, 244, 245, 247, 248–49
and television viewing 281, 284, 285 secondary work activities 53–56 security see job security selection 191
self-concept 363–64, 422 self-directed work orientation 56, 59–60, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 70, 73, 77, 424
self-esteem
daily emotions of husbands and wives 169, 173, 174, 178, 179, 180, 185, 186 educational values and parent occupation 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 411, 412, 414
and marital satisfaction 200, 207–08, 209, 210, 213, 214
religiosity and emotional well-being 308, 313, 314, 315, 316 work experiences 56, 58, 59, 60, 63, 65, 66, 77
Self-Esteem Scale 22
Serido, J. 192
service purchasing 264, 266 service relationships 262 sex (male/female) 426, 435, 437, 438 see also affection and sex Sexton, H. xv, 7, 47, 49
Seymour, E. and N. Hewitt 415 shared activities 345, 346, 359 shift work see work schedules Shircliff, E. xvii
single-carer families 380
skilled professionals 49 slope models 157–58
social capital 265–66, 293 social learning theory 380, 381 social networks 254, 255, 263–66, 336
social relations 103
social status 266, 270
socialization 390, 415, 416, 419 sociodemographic indicators 309 soilitude 194
spillover models 51, 60–64, 156
Spitz, G. xvii, 248
spouse’s time 236
“stalled revolution” 366, 381, 392
standardized child assessments 24–25
Stanley, S. xvii, 219
state–trait modeling 136
Stephan, C. and J. Corder 368
Stevenson, D. see Schneider, B. and D. Stevenson Stolzenberg, R. xvii, 509 strain 334, 344, 349
strain-based conflict 334, 335, 339, 344, 345 stratification 419
stress 302, 337
stress response
cortisol reactivity to 106 physiology 105, 106
sex differences 108
Strouthamer-Loeber see Patterson, G. and M. Strouthamer-Loeber student grades 408, 410 student outcomes 400–01
Study of Youth and Social Development 18 Stuenkel, C. xv, 13, 252 substantive job complexity 425, 426, 431, 432, 435, 437, 439–40, 441, 443 “superwomen” 394
support see family support symbolic interactionist school 366, 380, 381

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

552  talking see family interaction

552  teachers 57

552  television use 277, 291, 302

552  commentary 297–302

552  discussion 292–94

552  family viewing 278–79

552  hypotheses 279–80

552  measures 281–82

552  method 280

552  results 282–92

552  sample 281, 295

552  Thompson, A. 260

552  time allocation

552  accuracy of ESM 461, 483, 484, 490

552  American Time Use Study 246

552  home 49

552  hours worked 40

552  household activities 236–43, 395

552  parent with child 308, 316, 323

552  for self 142, 150–51, 153, 157, 158

552  television viewing 282–83, 286–88, 294

552  work activities 49, 50, 57–58, 60, 72–73

552  see also hours worked; return from work

552  time alone 214

552  time constraints 334, 343, 344, 345, 363, 404

552  time diaries 77, 113, 230, 235, 461, 480, 485

552  time pressures 42

552  time-based conflict 335, 339

552  Tobit methods 512

552  Tolbert, P. and P. Moen 83

552  top-coding 493, 497

552  transactional theories 191, 192

552  transitions 102

552  triangulation 39–40, 42

552  unconditional workers 450

552  validity 20

552  values see intergenerational transmission of values; religion and values; rules and values

552  wage categories 498–99

552  wage differentials 393

552  Waite, L. xv, xix, 3

552  Waite, L. and M. Gallagher 171, 208

552  weighting 479, 484, 485, 487–89

552  post-stratification 477–79

552  Weinshenker, M. xv, 15, 565

552  Wessman, A. and D. Ricks 400

552  West, C. and D. Zimmerman 390

552  Western religious traditions 327

552  Whalen, S. see Csikszentmihalyi, M., M. Rathunde, and S. Whalen

552  Wolco, W. 320

552  Wilson, W. 338

552  Windsorizing procedures 132

552  within-dyad level 144, 146, 153

552  wives' marital satisfaction 216

552  Wolfe, R. see Mulligan, C., B. Schneider, and R. Wolfe

552  women's careers 79–80

552  work activities 50, 51, 52

552  classification 73

552  engagement with 56, 58, 59, 60, 62, 66, 77

552  primary 50, 53–56, 66, 72–73, 76

552  secondary 53–56

552  time allocation 57–58, 60, 472

552  work autonomy

552  adolescent development and parenting 339, 344, 349, 350, 351, 352

552  and adolescents' job aspirations 424, 426, 428, 431, 435, 437, 439–40, 443

552  motivation for work (women) 88, 90, 92, 95, 96, 97, 158

552  work categories 57, 58–59

552  work characteristics

552  and adolescent development

552  parental occupation 26–27, 356, 403, 404

552  parenting 334, 340, 343–44, 345–46, 355, 356, 404

552  and adolescent job aspirations 422, 424–25, 435, 438, 445

552  influence on work satisfaction 50–51

552  intrinsic/extrinsic motivations (women) 87, 89, 90, 104

552  moderator of work–family crossover 139–41

552  work environments 339, 344, 349, 355, 403

552  work flow 100–01

552  work interruptions 346

552  work motivation (women) 79, 83, 84–92, 97–98, 99, 102–04

552  work orientations 76, 99

552  conforming 56, 59–60, 62, 63, 64, 65, 70, 77

552  gender and 96–97

552  self-directed 56, 59–60, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 70, 73, 77
Index

work prestige 88, 92, 98, 103, 439
work satisfaction 50–51, 75
and family life
gender 82
intrinsic and extrinsic work schedules 88, 344, 349, 354, 451–53, 454 work sphere generalization 420 work stress 200, 337
work-family conflict 335, 343, 450
adolescents’ perceptions 340–41, 345–46 couples 336
fathers’ experiences 335–36, 349–50, 352 parents’ perceptions 339–40, 346 work-family crossover 139–41, 142–43 work-family role management 333, 343, 361, 364 adolescents’ perceptions 350–51, 356–58 see also parental role management work-life balance 449–57 work-to-home spillover 51, 60–64
work/home experiences 6, 45, 47
commentary 72–78
discussion 66–69

hypotheses 52
measures 53–57
method 52–57, 77
research focus 51
results 57–66
sampling 52
Workforce, Workplace, and Working Families Program xix working families, reasons for studying 3–17 working families study 3–17 Working Families, The Transformation of the American Home (Hertz and Marshall eds.) 4 workplace 159, 227
workplace culture 454
Yamaguchi, K. xvii, 486 years of marriage 200, 209, 210, 215
young children 352, 425
cortisol levels 134
sample 35, 38
Zimmerman, D. see West, C. and D. Zimmerman
Ziol-Guest, K. xv
Ziol-Guest, K. see Kalil, A., J. Levine, and K. Ziol-Guest Zuzanek, J. xvii, 41