Index

3 Beaufort Row (Chelsea), ECG’s childhood 18
84 Plymouth Grove (Manchester) 189
“An Accursed Race” (Gaskell)
  ECG’s concerns with social transformation 148
  publication 16
  reflections of ECG’s European travels 126 Acre, Battle of (SL) 84, 85, 153 agricultural revolution 80 agriculture and modernity in CP and WD 94–8 Albertis, Deirdre d’, literary assessment of ECG 66, 186 America
  ECG’s interest in 152
  reflected in LW 123
American Civil War
ECG’s attitudes toward 8
ECG’s concerns with its effects 152 influence on ECG’s writing of SL 86
Anderson, Harriet, ECG voices her dislike of biographical criticism 12
Anglicanism, ECG’s links with 174, 176
Angrian tales (CB) 65
Arnold, Matthew 174
Aspland, Robert 166
Atkinson, William, as model for Sylvia Robson’s father in SL 85
Auerbach, Nina, literary assessment of ECG 185
Austen, Jane 116
  BBC serializations 188 concerns with social change 156 on history 75 literary assessment of 180 authors and domesticity effects on women 59–61 in LCB 61–4
Auxiliary Bible Society (Newcastle upon Tyne) 167
Aykroyd, Tabitha (Tabby; Bronte’s servant) 63
Bain, Alexander, on susceptibility to emotional persuasion 31
Bamford, Samuel 33
BBC, serialization of ECG’s works 188
Beard, John Relay 168
Bell, Currer see Bronte, Charlotte
Belsham, Thomas 166, 167, 168
Berman, Marshall, on modernity 91 betrayal, psychological effects, “Half a Lifetime Ago” 115 biographical criticism, ECG dislikes 12 biographical information, ECG’s interest in 13 biographical writing
  ECG’s concerns with gender 4
  ECG’s significance 4 biography, critical reactions to writing ECG’s biography 14
Blanchard, Laman (biographer of Laetitia Landon) 60
Bodenheimer, Rosemarie 62 on George Eliot’s reading of LCB 71
Bodichon, Barbara, influences ECG 169
Bonaparte, Felicia, on writing ECG’s biography 14
Bonaparte, Napoleon, in SL 85
Bosanquet, Charles, friendship with ECG 170
Boswell, James 4, 60
Braddon, Mary Elizabeth 119
Bremer, Frederika, influences ECG 169
Bridell-Fox, Eliza, influences ECG 169
Bright, Henry 176
British and Foreign Unitarian Association 166 British heritage drama, ECG’s importance for 9 Brontë, Anne concerns with women’s social role 132
  The Tenant of Wildfell Hall, sexual ideology in 141 Brontë, Branwell, affair with Mrs. Robinson 69, 70
Brontë, Charlotte
  Cecil’s literary assessment 183
Index

challenges ECG on her sense of self 135 concerns that MB might eclipse Shirley 157 conflict between authorship and domesticity 61–4 critical appreciation of ECG 132 criticizes Wiseman 175
death 16
ECG’s decision to write biography 59
ECG’s perception of her social role 132, 133
ECG’s representation of 4 fear of ECG’s ghost stories 109 Jane Eyre published 13
literary genius 64–7
as a model of a woman writer 72
professionalism 67–8 views about NS 91
women’s roles in Shirley 138

Bronte, Emily 68
Bronte, Rev. Patrick asks ECG to write a biography of CB 16, 59 characterization in LCB 70
praises LCB 5, 68
Brontes, concerns with women’s social roles 132 Browning, Elizabeth Barrett 61 critical opinion of ECG 2
Buckle, Henry, on history 76
Bulwer, Edward 168
Bunsen, Karl J. von 173
Burdett-Coutts, Angela, establishment of Homes for Homeless Women 54
Byeley sisters 10, 166

“The Cage at Cranford” (ECG), social satire 118
Calder, Jenni, literary assessment of ECG 185
Calvin, Jean 164 capitalism, women’s relations with 157–9 Carlyle, Jane, on ECG’s married status 24
Carlyle, Thomas 27 views of history 75
Carnforth, linked with Cranford 189
Carpenter, William, on the unconscious 37, 40, 41
Carr, Harriet 20, 169
Cecil, Lord David, critical appreciation of ECG 2, 91, 132, 134, 183–4, 185
Channing, William Ellery 168
Chapman and Hall (publishers) 24
Chappelle, J. A. V. 16, 185, 187
character
ECG’s concerns with 155
and environment, use in ECG’s short stories 111–16
Stetson’s views 168

Chartism concerns with political and family life 135
in MB 30, 118
responses to industrialization 157
Cheshire, rural customs described by ECG 109
Cheshire’s tourism industry, promotion of ECG’s literary reputation 189 child/rear, and unorthodox families 143
Cholmondeley, Mary, influenced by LCB 71
Chorley, Henry Forthgill 60
Child, Mary, and environment, use in ECG’s short stories 111–16
Christian Remembrancer, antagonistic reviews of Jane Eyre 63
“Clapton Hall” (ECG) 20, 22, 111
Gothic elements 119
narrative formula 121
Coke of Holkham, Thomas 80
Collins, Wilkie, use of the Gothic 119 on Felicia Hemans’s literary genius 64, 65 literary appreciation of ECG 179
praises LCB 69

Cousin Phillis (ECG) 129
agriculture and modernity 94, 96
Cecil’s literary assessment 184
comparison with WD 91
ECG’s tolerance in 176
history in 78
Hughes’s and Lund’s literary assessment 180
as influenced by the natural sciences 98 narrative strategy 92
as pastoral idyll 90, 91
plot, as affected by modernity 105–7 railways as agent of social change 156
sexual ideology 143
and social transformation 6
women’s erotic self-awareness 92
Cowan Bridge School 65

Cranford (ECG)
BBC’s serialization 189
Cecil’s literary assessment 184
comparison with Ruth 46 continuing popularity 1, 2
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cranford (cont.)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s childhood memories in 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s concerns with social transformation 148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>female communities in 47–53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>female stereotypes in 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>history in 78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hughes’s and Lund’s literary assessment 180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>linked with Carnforth 189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Masson’s literary assessment 180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>men in 57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and modernity 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as pastoral idyll 11, 90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday Review’s literary assessment 179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sexual ideology 143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and social change 154, 155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social satire 116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>use of material from “The Last Generation in England” 117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>women’s social status 141</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crimean War, ECG’s attitudes toward 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crompton, Charles (Florence Gaskell’s husband) 173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Crooked Branch” (“The Ghost in the Garden Room”) (ECG), Gothic elements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cross Street Chapel (Manchester) 19, 167, 171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>members of congregation condemn R for its perceived immorality 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WG appointed as assistant minister 167 cross-dressing, in “The Grey Woman” 123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Crowley Castle” (“How the First Floor Went to Crowley Castle”) (ECG), Gothic elements 121</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cultural studies, influence on ECG’s literary reputation 186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Cumberland Sheep-Shearers” (ECG) historical development in 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Curious If True” (ECG) Gothic elements 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dante Alighieri 172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“A Dark Night’s Work” (ECG) 175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comparison with “The Grey Woman” 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s concerns with social transformation 148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gothic elements 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Darwin, Charles 160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>historical method 76, 81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on the historical sense 83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>historical sense, influence on SL 87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as model for Roger Hamley in WD 162</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>On the Origin of Species, influence 87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>as pattern for Roger Hamley’s career 98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Darwinism biological determinism in gender relations, as pictured in WD 102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and social transformation 148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>death tolls, in NS 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>development, concept, in ECG’s Gothic tales 119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dickens, Charles 35, 52, 124, 172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>alters title of “A Dark Night’s Work” 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>concerns with fallen women 150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>concerns with prostitution 113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on ECG’s storytelling skills 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>edits Household Words 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>establishment of Homes for Homeless Women 54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>frustration at ECG 24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and the historical novel 5, 76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>publication of ECG’s short stories 110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>publication of “Lizzie Leigh” 113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>use of the Gothic 119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Disappearances” (ECG) Gothic elements 119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disraeli, Benjamin 135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and “condition-of-England” question 157</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disraeli, Isaac 64, 73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dob Lane (Manchester) 163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dobie, Madeleine, post-heritage drama and gender 188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>domestic ideology 7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>domesticity and authorship effects on women 59–61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in LCB 61–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>theme in feminist literary assessment of ECG 183</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in literary assessment of ECG 183</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Doom of the Griffiths” (ECG) Gothic elements 120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“dram-drinking” 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>dreams and trances, language about used to indicate psychic states in NS 38, 43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Drummond, James (WG’s fellow minister at Cross Street) 173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Du Maurier, George 187</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dunham Park (Altrincham) 112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>duty and literary genius 66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>theme in LCB 68–9, 72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dyce, Alexander (biographer) 59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Easson, Angus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on authorship and domesticity in LCB 63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on ECG’s concepts of genius and duty 66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on third edition of LCB 70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eastlake, Lady (Elizabeth Rigby), antagonistic review of Jane Eyre 65, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Edgeworth, Maria 116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>education ECG’s concerns with 139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Unitarian views of 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and the working classes, in My Lady Ludlow 80</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Index

Education Act (1870) 80
Eliot, George 7, 13, 129
BBC serializations 188
Cecil’s literary assessment 183
critical appreciation of ECG 132 and the historical novel 5, 76, 86 influenced by ECG 91
Middlemarch 118 importance of the natural sciences 98
as a model of a woman writer 72
narrative strategy 92
possibly influenced by ECG 102
praises LCB 71
on realistic representation 150 views on character 168 Elwood, Anne Katherine 59 emigration
ECG’s views 149
theme in MB and “The Moorland Cottage” 8 emotional and psychic states in the context of social change, as reflected in the “Manchester” novels 28–35
in MB 27, 28–35
in NS 27, 35–7
described by the language of Gothic horror 39 language of dreams and trances 38, 43
portrayed through correlation of physiological and mental states 39 self-control portrayed by 40–3 unconscious processes reflected 37–44 emotions/consciousness, representations of in MB and NS 7 English Heritage Society 189 environment, and character, use in ECG’s short stories 111–16 environmental influences, in ECG’s Gothic tales 119 essay form, ECG distinguishes from the novel 110 European travel, Gaskell’s experiences of reflected in short stories 125 fact and fiction in ECG’s Gothic tales 119 fallen women 47
ECG’s views 150
in “Lizzie Leigh” 113
in R 8, 10, 54, 55–7 in “The Well of Pen-Morfa” 114 families dysfunctional families 114 in “The Doom of the Griffiths” 120 unorthodox families 143
women’s influence 137 family dynamics 7 family life and industrialism ECG’s concerns with 136–9
in MB 134
fashion sense, in C 48 fathers, influence 137 female communities in C 47–53 in C and R 46
in R 48, 54
female love, redemptive power of, theme in “Lizzie Leigh” 113 female sexuality, in R 47 female stereotypes, representation in C and R 4 femininity, theme, in literary assessment of ECG 183 feminism
critical appreciation of ECG 2, 185
in Unitarianism 169 fiction craft 23 and fact, in ECG’s Gothic tales 119 presentation of history 75–7 representation of truth 10 sensation fiction 105 fictionality, and women, in R 53, 57
Forster, John (publisher) 24
Forster, W. E. 80
Fort Wagner, ECG’s description of storming of 152
Fortnightly Review, literary assessment of ECG 181
Fox, Eliza (Tottie) 11, 21, 66
Fox, William Johnson 168
French fiction, influences on ECG 185
“French Life” (ECG)
reflections of ECG’s European travels 126
Froude, Charlotte 66
Fuller, Margaret 71
Gallagher, Catherine, public and private lives in Victorian social writings 134
Gaskell, Elizabeth Cleghorn artistic principles contravened 29 autobiographical references in MB 29
character 10–11
affects critical reactions 11 critical reactions in writing biographical studies 14 childhood and adolescence 16–19 courtship and marriage 169 critical reputation 9, 11 dislike of biographical criticism 12 doctrinal and devotional attitudes 172 family and background 165 humor 176 interest in biographical information 13 interest in the unconscious 37, 40, 41

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

Gaskell, Elizabeth Cleghorn (cont.)
- letters 11, 12, 25
- concerns with women's social roles 113
- liking for terror and the supernatural 176
- literary reputation 1–2
- nineteenth century 178–82
- twentieth century 183–90
- marriage
  - at St. John's parish church (Knutsford) 169
  - and its effects 19
- married life 170
- married status and critical reception 23–5
- and motherhood 21–3
- names under which she published 13
- effects upon her critical reputation 25
  - “Mrs. Gaskell” influences her critical reputation 132
- non-Unitarian influences 173–5
- political sympathies 7, 149
- relations with her publishers 24
- self-assessment 14–16
- self-representation 3
- tolerance 176
- and Unitarianism 165, 168, 175
- views of her parenting skills see ghost stories; individual works by name; short stories

Gaskell, Florence (Flossy) (daughter) 173 Gaskell, Julia Bradford (daughter) 22, 25
Gaskell, Margaret (Meta) Emily (daughter) 112
- burns ECG's letters 12
- canceled engagement 21
- helps ECG's biographers 25
- as secretarial help 21–3
- visits Rome with ECG 174
Gaskell, Marianne (daughter) 21, 142
- ECG advises on the adoption of political views 150
- ECG's concerns for during infancy 170
- as secretarial help 21–3
- education 139, 172
- falls under Manning's influence 175
- preserves ECG's letters 25
- visits Rome with ECG 174
Gaskell, Samuel (WG's brother) 167
Gaskell Society 188, 189
Gaskell Web 186, 189
Gaskell, William (ECG's husband) 19, 21, 166, 167, 168
- appearance 171
- borrowing records at Portico Library 129
- on Christian nature of Unitarianism 171
- dislike of Roman Catholicism 175
- notes on Lancashire dialect 33
- origins of MB 23
- parental attitudes toward Marianne 170
- urges ECG to write after death of son 28
Gaskell, William (Willie) (son) 22
  - death
    - influences writing of MB 134
    - and its effects on ECG 25
  - seen as genesis of MB 28, 30
- gender
  - ECG's concerns with in LCB 4
  - ECG's concerns with 145
  - and post-heritage drama 188
  - relationships as affected by social transformation 8
  - and social expectations 131
  - in “The Grey Woman” 123 see also feminism; girls; women
- gender biases, effects on ECG's critical reputation 9
- gender differences 115
- gender disguise, in C 48
- gender relations, as affected by modernity, in CP and WD 99–104
- gender roles 7
  - influence 137
- genres, hybrid genres, and historical development, in ECG's short stories 125–9
- gentility, in Cranford society 49
  - “The Ghost in the Garden Room” (“The Crooked Branch”) (ECG)
- Gothic elements 121
  - ghost stories
    - “Clopton Hall” 111
    - ECG's skill at telling 109
    - girls
  - education, in Unitarianism 166
  - marriage prospects adversely affected by Unitarianism 170
  - see also gender; women
- Gothic horror, language, use in NS 39
- Gothic tales, ECG's short stories 118–25
- Grasmere, setting for reworked “Martha Preston” 115
- Green, Henry (minister, Knutsford's Dissenting Chapel) 167
- Green, John Philip (son of Mary Green), conversion to Roman Catholicism 175
- Green, Mary (wife of Henry Green) 167, 172, 175
- Greenwood, Frederick, editorial postscript to WD 104
- Greg, W. R., literary assessment of MB 181
- Grey, Herbert 23, 155
  - “The Grey Woman” (ECG)
  - Gothic elements 122
- Guardian, review of WD 91
Index

“Half a Lifetime Ago” (“Martha Preston”) (ECG) 114, 117 betrayal 115
Gothic elements 112
women’s independence 114–15
“The Half Brothers” (ECG) 116 hardship, theme in ECG’s short stories 114 Hardy, Thomas agricultural change in his novels 95, 96
influenced by ECG 91
Harman, Barbara Leah, on women’s roles in public and private life in ECG’s and CB’s works 138
Harwood, Philip, on history 76 hats and fashion sense in 48
Hawthorne, Nathaniel 82, 123
“The Heart of John Middleton” (ECG) 116
Gothic elements 119
redemption in 165
Heger, Constantin, ECG’s treatment of LCB 5, 12 Hemans, Felicia biographies 60
literary genius 65
Henson, Louise, on superstition 123
Herbert, George 172 heritage drama, ECG’s place in 188 heroism military heroism, in SL 153 in “The Sexton’s Hero” (ECG) 112
and social transformation 148
Hill, Captain Charles (former fiancé of Meta Gaskell) 21 historical development and hybrid genres in ECG’s short stories 125–9 historical fiction social change pictured in 153 Victorian period 76 historical sense
in Lois the Witch 81
in My Lady Ludlow 79–81 history chronicled history 80
ECG’s concerns with 5, 77
and writing of fiction 75–7
Holland, Abigail 46
Holland, Elizabeth Gaskell (ECG’s sister-in-law) 14
Holland family 166
Holland, Thurstan (second cousin of Marianne Gaskell) 21 homes, as spatial representations of their inhabitants, in MB 32 Homes for Homeless Women 54
Hope, George 16
Hopkins, Annette, literary assessment of ECG 184 Household Words 6, 24, 78 establishment 110 publication of C 46, 117 publication of “Half a Lifetime Ago” 114 publication of “Lizzie Leigh” 113 publication of NS 35 publication of “The Old Nurse’s Story” 124 publication of “The Squire’s Story” 120
“How the First Floor Went to Crowley Castle” (“Crowley Castle”) (ECG), Gothic elements 121
Howitt, Anna Mary 18, 67, 109
influences ECG 169
Howitt, William 109, 111
Howitt’s Journal 6, 82 publication of ECG’s short stories 109
Howitts (publishers) 24
Hughes, Linda K., literary assessment of ECG 180, 189 human rights and industrial life, ECG’s concerns with 135 Hyde Park, as pattern for Hollingford agricultural society 98 imagination and realism 151
In Memoriam (Tennyson), quoted in SL 87
Indian Mutiny (1857–9), influence on ECG’s writing of SL 86 individual isolation, theme in ECG’s short stories 114 individualism and nationalism, in SL 85 individuality, as personal quality 155 industrialization 27 and family life, ECG’s concerns with 116–9 and human rights, ECG’s concerns with 135 and social change, ECG’s concerns with 156
Infant Custody Act (1839) 131
“The Iron Shroud” (Mudford) 44
James, Henry on ECG’s storytelling skills 109
on history 75, 77
narrative strategy 92
Jameson, Anna, influences ECG 169 Jane Eyre (CB) 63
antagonistic reviews 68 publication and literary genius 65
Jay, Elisabeth, on third edition of LCB 70
Jesus Christ, divinity rejected by ECG 173 Jewsbury, Geraldine 60 assessment of ECG 11, 13
influences ECG 169
Johnson, Dr. Samuel 52
Johnston, Susan 7, 135, 136
Jowett, Benjamin 174

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

Kay-Shuttleworth, Sir James 65
Keble, John 173
Keighley (Yorkshire) 5, 77
Kemble, Fanny 172
Kettle, Arnold concerns with ECG’s social themes 134
literary assessment of ECG 184
Kemble, Charles 174
praises LCB 69
Knutsford 117
as Barford in “The Squire’s Story” 120
ECG’s childhood 17, 46, 166 ECG’s memories of used in “The Last Generation in England” 117 used in Mr Harrison’s Confessions 117 influence on ECG 127
Kranzler, Laura, on ECG’s Gothic tales 119
Kranzler, Laura, on ECG’s Gothic tales
The Ladies’ Companion 6 publication of Mr Harrison’s Confessions 117 Lake District, setting for “The Half Brothers” 116
Lamb, Charles 125
Lancashire, setting for “The Heart of John Middleton” 116
Lancashire tourism, ECG’s importance for 9, 189 landholding, decline of 156
Landon, Laetitia 59, 60
Lanham Place group 67 Lansbury, Coral, on women’s roles as affected by Unitarianism in Victorian England 114
“The Last Generation in England” (ECG) and social change 155
social satire 117
Lewes, George Henry 71
praises LCB 68
professionalization of literature 67 on social and physiological bases of mind 35
Lewis, Sarah, concerns with women’s social roles 131 “Libbie Marsh’s Three Eras” (ECG) 20, 111, 112 liberal states, rights in 135
The Life of Charlotte Bronte (ECG) CB’s professionalism 67–8 discussion of Shirley 157
ECG’s concerns with CB’s reputation 133
ECG’s concerns with gender 4
ECG’s decision to write biography 59
ECG’s dislike of biographical criticism 12 favourable reception of 68–9
history in 77
hostile reception determines ECG to concentrate on fiction 78 influences on ECG’s writing of 61 issues of authorship and domesticity 61–4 literary significance 1 Masson’s literary assessment 180 and modernity 107 provokes libel suits 3 and revisions of 69–71 reactions to and influence of 71–2 on publication 11 representation of social setting’s influence on 7 and social change 154
theme of literary genius 64–7 writing of and ECG’s domestic responsibilities 24 listening, concept in MB 30 literary genius and duty, themes in LCB 69, 72 themes in LCB 64–7 “Lizzie Leigh” (ECG) 113 fallen women theme 150
marriage theme 20
Lockhart, John Gibson 4, 60, 71 on Sir Walter Scott’s literary genius 64
Lois the Witch (ECG) 154
ECG’s interest in American history 152
Gothic elements 123
history in 5, 77, 78, 81, 86
superstition in 160 terror in 176
London, as agent of change in WD 97 lost men, theme, ECG’s use affected by disappearance of her brother 18
Loughrigg Fell, setting for reworked “Martha Preston” 115 Lucas, John concerns with ECG’s social themes 134
on ECG’s pastoral idylls 90
Luddite movement 157
Ludlow, John Malcolm 174 on married women novelists 24
Lumb, Hannah (nee Holland) (ECG’s aunt) 18, 46 brings ECG up 17, 166 on ECG as a child 19
marriage 20
Lund, Michael, literary assessment of ECG 180, 189
MacLean, George (husband of Laetitia Landon) 60 Macmillan’s Magazine 152, 179–80 magazines, serialization in, effects on plots of CP and WD 105 male-dominated cultures replacement by female-dominated cultures

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

in C 48
in C and R 47
Manchester
introduction into ECG’s work in “Libbie Marsh’s Three Eras” 112 Portico Library 129 promotion of ECG’s literary reputation 189 as setting for “Lizzie Leigh” 113
Manchester College 165, 166, 173
Manchester Guardian, literary assessment of ECG 181
Manchester Historical Buildings Trust 189
“The Manchester Marriage” (ECG)
Gothic elements 120
marriage theme 20
Manchester New College see Manchester College “Manchester” novels 112 see also Mary Barton; North and South “manners, terror of” (C) 53
Manning, Henry 174, 175
Mansel, H. M., on sensation fiction 106
Martineau, James 167, 168
Mary Barton (ECG) 3, 14, 22, 98, 154
Chartism in 157
as “condition-of-England” novel 157
ECG’s concerns with social transformation 149
ECG’s understanding of trade and labor relations 159
Elizabeth Barrett Browning’s opinions of 2
emigration in 8, 149
emotional feeling in 36 environment 112
fallen women theme 150
family life and industrialism 134
gender in 145
Henry Carson’s lack of responsibility 137 inclusion of passages from Cross Street Chapel’s mission to the poor 167 as industrial protest fiction 11
literary reputation 2, 181
Manchester Guardian’s literary assessment 181
Masson’s literary assessment 180
modernity 106
and NS, representation of industrialization 27 origins 23, 28–35 portrayal of emotional and psychic states 27, 28–35
private and public responsibility in 138
prostitution theme 113
psychic states in 37 psychic suffering in 35 public and private responsibility in 138 published anonymously 14 recognition of the loss of individuality 155 redemption in 165
sexual ideology 142, 144
and social change 135, 156
success 119
Tillotson’s literary assessment 185 violence in 152 working-class suffering in 35
Masson, David, literary assessment of ECG 179–80, 182
Mather, Cotton 82, 123
Matsuoaka, Mitsuhiro 186, 189
Maurice, F. D. 174 men
Cecil denies ECG’s ability to represent 184
in C 57
in Cranford society 49, 49–53 lack of compassion, in “Lizzie Leigh” 114 presence of, in R 54, 57 working-class men, responsibility 138 mental states, Victorian preoccupation with reflected in ECG’s Gothic tales 119 middle classes emotions, in NS 37 fears of working classes 31
gender roles 137
girls’ awareness of sexuality 142
male individualism 137 sympathy for working classes engaged in MB 34 writing associated with 34 military heroism 8 Mill, John Stuart claims factual inaccuracies in LCB 70 concerns with women’s suffrage 84, 131
Mills, Coton Mather (ECG’s pseudonym) 113, 122, 123 see also Gaskell, Elizabeth Cleghorn Milnes, Richard Monckton on ECG’s character 10
literary assessment of ECG 180
Minto, William, literary assessment of ECG 181 Mitford, Mary Russell 116, 125
modernity
and agriculture in CP and WD 94–8 EGG’s representation 91 effects in CP and WD 105–7 effects on gender relations in CP and WD 99 Mohl, Julius von 24
Mohl, Madame 24, 70, 174
Monthly Repository 169
“The Moorland Cottage” (EGG) 129
EGG’s concerns with social transformation 148–9
emigration in 8, 150
and social change 156
sympathetic identification in 151
Morecambe Bay, as setting for “The Sexton’s Hero” 112
“My French Master” (EGG)
EGG’s concerns with social transformation 148
historical development in 127
social change 153
motherhood, EGG’s views on 16, 21–3, 132 mothers influence 137
social education of daughters 141
“Mr. Harrison’s Confessions” (EGG) 129
social satire 117
Mudford, William (author) 44
“My French Master” (EGG)
EGG’s concerns with social transformation 148
reflections of EGG’s European travels 126
My Lady Ludlow (EGG) 83, 129
EGG’s concerns with history 5
EGG’s concerns with social transformation 148
historical sense 77, 78, 79–81, 86, 87, 128
humor 176

Napoleonic wars
historical background to SL 84, 85
influence 151

narrative strategy in CP and WD 92 nationalism and individualism in SL 85 natural sciences influence on CP and WD 98
Molly Gibson’s interest in 104
Newman, Francis (Professor of Classics at Manchester College) 173
Newman, John Henry 173
Nicholls, J. A. 171
Nicholls, Reverend Arthur Bell, asks for revisions of characterization of Patrick Brontë in LCB 70
Nightingale, Florence, EGG’s views of 172
North American Review, antagonistic reviews of Jane Eyre 63
North and South (EGG) 3, 154

BBC serialization 188
CB’s views of 91
Chorley’s literary assessment 179
comparison with Shirley 157–9
as “condition-of-England” novel 157
EGG’s political sympathies 149
EGG’s tolerance in 176
environment 112
fideism and spirituality 173
gender in 145
industrialism and human rights 135
literary reputation 2
Manchester Guardian’s literary assessment 181
Masson’s literary assessment 180
and MB, representation of industrialization 27
modernity 106
portrayal of emotional and psychic states 27, 35–7
language of dreams and trances 38, 43
language of Gothic horror 39 self-control 40–3 through correlation of physiological and mental states 39 unconscious processes in 37–44
private and public responsibility in 138
quotation from St. Francis de Sales 172 Roman Catholicism in 175
sexuality in 142
and social change 156
social transformation in 148, 149 superstition illustrative of rural life 159 trade and labor relations 159 Unitarianism in 17 writing of and EGG’s domestic responsibilities 24

North Wales setting for “The Well of Pen-Morfa” 114 use as setting in EGG’s short stories 109 Norton, Caroline, denied access to children for offending her husband 131
Norton, Charles Eliot 24, 162 assessment of EGG 13 correspondence with EGG 152 the novel, EGG distinguishes from the essay 110 novels, social-problem novels 54 Nussey, Ellen 11, 78
correspondence with CB 62

Oedipus myth, use in “The Doom of the Griffiths” 120
“The Old Nurse’s Story” (EGG)
history in 77
supernatural elements 124
Oliphant, Margaret, criticisms of LCB 71 oral tradition, in ECG’s Gothic tales 119 orality, working-class orality, in MB 32–4
“Our Society at Cranford” (ECG), publication 117
Oxford, ECG’s links with 174

Paine, Tom 80
Pall Mall Gazette 6 publication of ECG’s work 110 parent/child relationships, theme in “Lizzie Leigh” 113
Paris, ECG visits 174
Parkes, Bessie Rayner 67, 169 the pastoral in ECG’s novels 90 portrayal in NS 160
theme in literary assessment of ECG 184
Perrault, Charles, fairytales, reflected in “Curious If True” 125 personal sacrifice, theme in ECG’s short stories 114 physiological and mental states, correlation in portrayal of emotional and psychic states in NS 39
Pilling, Richard, concerns with political and family life 135
Pius IX (Pope) 175 politics, ECG’s concerns with 7 Pollard, Arthur 187
literary assessment of ECG 185
“The Poor Clare” (ECG) history in 77
supernatural elements 124, 176
Portico Library (Manchester) borrowing records 129 “possession”, in C 50 post-heritage drama, and gender 188 poverty, in Cranford society 48 predestination 164 press gangs 78
historical background to SL 84, 85
Priestley, Joseph 164 prostitution
ECG’s concerns with 172
ECG’s representation of 1
theme in “Lizzie Leigh” 113 provincial life, ECG’s representation of 1 psychic pain see emotional and psychic states publishers, ECG’s relations with 24

Quarterly Review, antagonistic reviews of Jane Eyre 63

Radcliffe, Ann 122 railways as agents of social change 156 effects on rural life 96, 98

Reade, Charles, and the historical novel 5, 76 realism, ECG’s concerns with 150 Remond, Sarah Parker 172 responsibility, working-class sense of 138
Riddell, Charlotte, influenced by LCB 71 Rigby, Elizabeth (Lady Eastlake), anticipating review of Jane Eyre 63, 64
Right at Last, and other Tales (ECG) 121 “Right at Last” (“The Sin of a Father”) (ECG)
Gothic elements 121
Ritchie, Anne Thackeray 189 on ECG’s childhood 17 Robberds, John Gooch 167 antipapal views 175 marries Mary Turner 169 on WG 171
Robberds, Mary (née Turner) 169 advised by father concerning marriage 170
influence on ECG 171
Roberts, Emma (biographer of Laetitia Landon) 59
Robinson, Mary, on London parks 97
Robinson, Mrs. Lydia (Lady Scott), threatens legal action after publication of LCB 69
Robson, Anne (ECG’s sister-in-law) 172
Rochdale, as setting for “Lizzie Leigh” 113
Roman Catholicism, ECG’s views on 175
Rome, ECG visits 174
Round the Sofa (ECG) 128
history in 78
inclusion of rewritten “Martha Preston” 114 inclusion of “The Half Brothers” 116
Rousseau, Jean Jacques 80
Rubenius, Aina, literary assessment of ECG 184 Ruddick, Sara, on maternal thinking 22 rural life see pastoral Ruth (ECG) 82
Chorley’s literary assessment 179
comparison with C 46 condemnation as scandalous 3 condemned by members of Cross Street Chapel 174
ECG’s views on social transformation 149
ECG’s views on education 139
fallen women theme 54, 55–7, 150 female communities 49, 54 female stereotypes in 4 individual responsibility in 137
industrialism and human rights 136
Ludlow’s criticisms of in connection with ECG’s married status 24
Masson’s literary assessment 180
motherhood in and Napoleonic wars 151 perceived immorality 10 presence of men in 54, 57 prostitution theme 113

redemption in 165
social attitudes toward fallen women 8 social change 156
unorthodox families 143
women and fictionality in 53, 57 women’s education as affected by

Victorian sexual ideology 141

Sable´, Madame de (“Company Manners”) 126
St. John’s parish church (Knutsford), ECG’s marriage 169
Salem witch trials 78
in Lois the Witch 81, 123
Sales, St. Francis de 172
Sam (ECG’s uncle), storytelling skills 109 Sand, George influences ECG 169
literary assessment of ECG 179
Sartain’s Union Magazine 6, 109, 114, 117, 155
Saturday Review
literary assessment of ECG 179
on the themes of duty and literary genius in LCB 69 Schor, Hilary, literary assessment of ECG 186 science authority of, as counter to superstition 160 and superstition, in relation to social change 159–62
Scott, Lady (Mrs. Lydia Robinson), threatens legal action after publication of LCB 69
Scott, Sir Walter and historical fiction 5, 77 literary genius 64
self-control, and emotional and psychic states, as reflected in NS 40–3 self-sacrifice, in SL 153
selfhood, in NS 41
Selig, Robert L. 187 servants, ECG’s portraits of 22
“The Sexton’s Hero” (ECG) 111 and military heroism 151 sexual behavior, women’s ignorance of in Victorian Britain 55 sexual ideology, ECG affected by Victorian views 140–5 Shaen, Annie 15
Shaen, William 169
Sharpe’s London Magazine, antagonistic review of Jane Eyre 64
Shaw, Robert Gould 151, 152
Shaw, Sarah Gould (mother of Robert Gould Shaw) 152
Shelley, Percy Byshe 168
Shelston, Alan 187 short stories 6, 108, 110 character and environment in 111–16 environment and oral tradition, in ECG’s Gothic tales 119 Gothic tales 118–25 historical development and hybrid genres 125–9 literary assessment 188 publication 109
social satire 116–18
Shorter, Clement, inclusion of ECG’s shorter works in edited editions 108 Showalter, Elaine on CB and George Eliot 72
literary assessment of ECG 185
Silverdale, ECG’s visits 189
“The Sin of a Father” (“Right at Last”) (ECG)
Gothic elements 121
“Six Weeks at Heppenheim” (ECG)
EGG’s tolerance in 176
reflections of ECG’s European travels 125 slavery 80, 151 abolition 153
ECG’s attitude to 172
Smith, Barbara Leigh 67
Smith, Elder (publisher) 4, 14, 69
Smith, George (publisher) 12, 24, 59, 64, 65, 70, 105, 110, 152
social change
ECG’s recognition of its gradual nature 154–6 affected through violence, ECG’s concerns with 151–4 and industrialization, ECG’s concerns with 156 in relation to superstition and science 159–62 social justice, ECG’s concerns 150 “social problem” fiction, and ECG’s literary reputation 181 social problems, relationship with emotional and psychic states, in NS 35 social responsibility, ECG’s concerns with 145 social satire, use in ECG’s short stories 116–18 social transformation
ECG’s concerns with 1, 8, 148–9
in CP and WD 6 effects on gender relationships 8 social-problem fiction, Tillotson’s views of ECG’s works 185 Socinians 164
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Southey, Robert 116, 117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on authorship and domesticity for women 61, 64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spectator, on the themes of duty and literary genius in LCB 69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>spinster 47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“The Squire’s Story” (ECG)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gothic elements 120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stael, Madame de 60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stanley, Arthur 174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stanley, Catherine (mother of Arthur Stanley) 174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>stepmother–stepdaughter relationships, theme 19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stephens, Joseph Raynor, concerns with political and family life 135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stetson, Caleb 168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stetz, Margaré 72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stevenson, Catherine Thomson (ECG’s stepmother) 18, 19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stevenson, Elizabeth Cleghorn see Gaskell, Elizabeth Cleghorn</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stevenson, Elizabeth Holland (ECG’s mother) 16, 165</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stevenson, John (ECG’s brother) 16, 18, 166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>disappearance 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stevenson, William (ECG’s father) 16, 165, 166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>death 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>remarriage 18, 21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>second marriage and links with ECG 16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Unitarianism and relationship with ECG 17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stoneman, Patsy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>critical opinion of ECG 2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on maternal thinking 23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Story, William Wetmore, on ECG’s storytelling skills 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>storytelling 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s skill 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stowe, Harriet Beecher 150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“subconscious” 42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>suffering, commonality, in MB 29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>supernaturalism</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s liking for 176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s sparing use of 124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>superstition 123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and science, in relation to social change 159–62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sylvia’s Lovers (ECG) 82, 84–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cecil’s literary assessment 184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s concerns with history 5, 6, 77, 78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s concerns with social transformation 149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gothic elements 120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>heroism and sacrifice placed in historical perspective 153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>marriage theme 20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>publication 76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sale of copyright 25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and self-consciousness 155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sexual ideology 142, 144</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social change 153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unorthodox families 143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>writing of and ECG’s domestic responsibilities 24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Symonds, Emily Morse, influenced by LCB 72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sympathy, in MB 30, 31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taylor, Harriet (wife of J. S. Mill) 70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taylor, Mary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>assessment of ECG after publication of LCB 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>character analysis of CB 63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>correspondence with CB 62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on third edition of LCB 70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ten Hours Bill 34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tennyson, Alfred, Lord</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>concerns with gender and social expectations 131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and the loss of individuality 155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>quoted in SL 87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>terror, ECG’s liking for 176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thackeray, W. M., and the historical novel 5, 76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomson, Anthony Todd 166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tillotson, Kathleen</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>literary assessment of ECG 184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on Minto’s literary assessment of ECG 181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tourelle, Monsieur de la (“The Grey Woman”) 122</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>trade unions, ECG’s fear of 31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“Traits and Stories of the Huguenots” (ECG)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s concerns with social transformation 148</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>reflections of ECG’s European travels 126</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>trances and dreams, language about used to indicate psychic states in NS 38, 43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“transmigration”, as imagination 151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>trauma 43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trinity, doctrine of the 164</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trollope, Anthony, BBC serializations 188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>truth, representation in fiction 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuckerman, Joseph 167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Turner, William 166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on marital relationships 170</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>“two nations” 157</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Uglow, Jenny 188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>assessment of ECG 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on critical neglect of My Lady Ludlow 128</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECG’s use of language in “The Heart of John Middleton” 116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>on effects of ECG’s engagement to be married 20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>effects of sensation fiction on WD 106</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Index

the “unconscious” 42
ECG’s interest in 37, 40, 41
unconscious cerebration 37
Unitarian Association 167
The Unitarian Herald 168
literary assessment of ECG 180, 181
Unitarian Tract Society 168
Unitarianism 164 adverse effects on girls’ marriage prospects 170 divisions in 168
eyear nineteenth century 166
ECG’s attitudes to 175
influence on ECG 1, 8, 171 on ECG’s views of self-control 40 on ECG’s views of women’s social roles 133, 135 on industrial life 135
mid-nineteenth century 167 sociability in congregations 169
William Stevenson’s Unitarianism and his relationship with ECG 17
Unsworth, Anna 187
Upham, Charles, influence on Lois the Witch 82
Upper Rumford Street (Manchester) 20
Verlag Tauchnitz, proposed publication of “A Dark Night’s Work” 122
Vicinus, Martha, on women’s ignorance of sexual behavior in Victorian Britain 53
Victorian ideology, constraints critiqued in C 49 Victorian literary canon, C and R in 47 violence
ECG’s distaste for 8
and social change, ECG’s concerns with 151
vulgarity, in Cranford society 49, 52
Ward, A. A. 187
Ward, A. W. 25, 90
Ward, T. A., inclusion of ECG’s shorter works in edited editions 108
Ware, Henry, Jr. (professor, Harvard Divinity School) 167
Welch, Jeffrey Egan 187
“The Well of Pen-Morfa” (ECG)
social change 114
women’s independence 114
Westminster Review 70
Weyant, Nancy S. 187
Whitby as model for Monkshaven in SL 84, 85 will/volition 31 role in controlling the psychic 40 Williams, Raymond on agricultural change in Hardy’s novels 95, 96
c oncerns with ECG’s social themes 134
critical opinion of ECG 2
Williams, W. S. 68
Wilson, A. N., on Victorians’ concept of education 80
Wilson, Anita 187
Wilson, William Carus (founder of Cowan Bridge School) 66, 69
Winkworth, Catherine 150, 173, 175
visits Rome with ECG 174
Winkworth, Emily 109
Winkworth, Susanna 173
Wiseman, Nicholas (Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster) 175 “witch”, concept 82
witchcraft, belief in 83
Wives and Daughters (ECG) 1 agriculture and modernity 94, 95, 97
BBC serialization 188
Cecil’s literary assessment 184
Chorley’s literary assessment 179
comparison with CP 91
ECG’s childhood memories in 16
ECG’s concerns with social transformation 148
ECG’s views on education 140 education of daughters 143 gender relations, as affected by modernity 100–4
history in 77
Hughes’s and Lund’s literary assessment 180 influenced by the natural sciences 98, 99 Manchester Guardian’s literary assessment 181
marriage theme 20
Masson’s literary assessment 180
narrative strategy 92
as pastoral idyll 11, 90, 91
as picture of women’s erotic self-awareness 92, 94 plot, as affected by modernity 105–7
Roman Catholicism in 175
sexual ideology 144
and social change 6, 156
stepmother–stepdaughter relationships theme 19
superstition and science in relation to social change 160
Wollstonecraft, Mary 170 “woman question”, in connection with ECG’s literary assessment 182 women beauty as snare 82
biographies, before LCB 59–61
Index

and capitalism 157–9 conflicts between artistic and domestic lives 59–61 education, in WD 143 and fictionality, in Ruth 53, 57 a girl’s arrival at erotic self-awareness, in CP and WD 92 ignorance with regard to sexual behavior in Victorian Britain 55 independence, theme in ECG’s short stories 114–15 “infantilization” 50
influence 137
professional women writers, theme in LCB 67–8 role in “Morton Hall” 127
in My Lady Ludlow 128
in NS 138
sexuality, in “The Poor Clare” 125 single women, social plight 118 social roles 131
as affected by Victorian sexual ideology 140
ECG’s concerns with 132
in WD and NS 162 status, in C and R 46, 47 suffrage

J. S. Mill’s concerns with 131 and levels of education 84 see also gender; girls
Wood, Mrs. Henry 119 Wordsworth, William 168, 172
historical sense 78
working classes
ECG’s representation of 1, 2 education, in My Lady Ludlow 80 emotional feelings, in MB 36 emotional and psychic states, as portrayed in MB 27, 30
girls’ awareness of sexuality 142 mistrust of writing, in MB 33–4 orality, in MB 32–4
responses to industrialization 157 sense of responsibility 138 strikers’ loss of self-control 41 suffering, in MB 35 world, knowledge of lacking in Cranford society 49, 52, 53
Wright, Edgar, literary assessment of ECG 185 Wright, Terence, views of NS 41, 44 writing and childrearing 22 working classes’ mistrust, in MB 33–4