

Index

---

- abstracts, 222, 237
- abus de droit*, 108, 207, 287
- abuse of copyright, 287, 300
- abuse of monopoly, 108
- academics, works by, 177
- access to information, see freedom of expression/information
- accession, 186–7
- acknowledgements
  - anthologies for educational purposes, 124
  - derivative works, 61
  - educational copying, 128
  - entrepreneurial works, 60–1
  - examination exception, 123, 294–5
  - fair dealing, 60–1, 62, 118
  - forms, 60
  - non-commercial scientific research, 293
  - practicability, 60
  - research and private study exception, 118
- administration of justice, 206, 288
- admixture, 186–7
- advertisements, art sales, 138, 160, 162, 299–300
- amicus curiae* briefs, 218
- anthologies
  - educational purposes, 120, 124, 204, 236
  - Germany, 204
  - modern works, 124
  - poems, 149
- appropriation, 26
- Aquinas, St Thomas, 203
- architectural works, 177, 185–6, 233–4
- archives, see libraries and archives
- artistic works
  - 1956 Act, 232
  - advertisement of sales, 138, 160, 162, 299–300
  - droit de suite*, 194–5, 200
  - economic incentives, 177
  - exceptions, 3, 5
  - exhibitions, 162, 299
  - fair dealing, 58, 283
  - and idea/expression dichotomy, 22
  - incidental inclusion, 64–6
  - Information Society Directive, 299–300
  - instruction exception, 121
  - library copying, 143, 152
  - miniatures, 65, 89
  - photographs, 58
  - public display, 233–4, 299
  - recoding, 27–9
  - replacement copies, 156
  - research and study, 116, 152, 290
  - subsequent works by same artists, 66–7
  - term of copyright, 5
  - unpublished works, 152
  - value of copyright, 177
- assignment, copyright, 174
- Attlee, Clement, 230
- Australia
  - 1905 Copyright Act, 257–8
  - 1912 Copyright Act, 257–8
  - copyright by copyright law, 31
  - ‘children overboard’ controversy, 38
  - computer programs, 70, 307
  - Copyright Law Review Committee, 182, 250, 271, 277, 306, 307, 308
  - departmental responsibilities, 227–8
  - digital lock-up, 68
  - educational copying, 228
  - exceptions, 249, 277
  - fair dealing, 182
  - fair use, 250, 271
  - freedom of expression, 21
  - parodies, 266
  - political communications, 37
  - research/private study exception, 227–8
  - users’ rights, 227–8
- Austria, 23, 195
- authors’ rights, 201–5, 207–8
- Ayers, I., 273

- Baker, Nicholas, 244
 balance of interests
   argument, 168
   closing debate, 239–40
   and copyright law, 187–91
   EU approach, 197, 198–200
   international instruments, 188
   and public participation, 280–1 rhetoric, 8
   semantics, 188–9
   UK approach, 223–5
 Bangemann Report, 197
 behavioural law and economics, 175
 Belgium, 307
 Bell, T., 191
 Bently, L., 58, 253, 289
 Berne Convention
   educational exceptions, 125–6
   public interest defence, 105, 188
   Stockholm Revision, 216
   term of copyright, 200
   three-step test, 201, 217, 298
   and TRIPS, 2
 Bhopal incident, 45 bibliographical studies, 148
 biographies, 40
 Blackstone, W., 182
 Blair, Tony, 92, 244
 blank tapes, levies, 205–6, 232 blind persons, 222, 228, 237
 Bodleian Library, 157
 Boyle, J., 179
 breach of confidence, 39, 81, 82, 90–1, 104, 287
 British Library, 122, 157, 294 broadcasts access to, 302
   archival copying, 138, 160, 161–2
   educational exception, 125
   ephemeral recordings, 299
   fair dealing, 60
   German educational exception, 206
   incidental inclusions, 64–6
   Information Society Directive, 299
   instruction exception, 122–3
   notes/recordings of spoken words, 63
   purpose of exceptions, 5–6 recordings by educational establishments, 120, 127–8
   showing in educational establishments, 127
   subtitled copies, 222 buildings
   construction use, 299
   public display of models, 233–4 bureaucracy, 181
 cable broadcasting, 5–6, 302
 Cambridge University Library, 157
 Campbell, Menzies, 244
 Canada, 31, 249, 250
 caricature, parody and pastiche exception
     see also parodies
     France, 49, 284
     Information Society Directive, 284
     law reform, 41
 censorship, 29–30, 31–5
 Chafee, Z., 94
 changing attitudes, 304–5
 Chorley, Lord, 232
 choses in possession, 184–5
 chrestomathies, 2
 circumvention devices banning, 72–3 non-regulation, 72
   regulation, 72
 clean hands doctrine, 94–6, 102
 Coase Theorem, 175
 commentaries, 26–7
 Commonwealth, 249–51
 companies
   private study, 119
   registers, 161
 compensation, fair compensation, 292 compulsory licensing, 19, 97, 228
 computer programs
   back-up copies, 69, 235, 307
   copies to copyright libraries, 157
   decompilation, 68, 69–70, 307
   digital lock-up, 67–70, 308
   Directive, 235, 300, 307
   fair dealing, 262
   purpose of statutory provisions, 5 research and study exception, 116
 confidentiality
   breach of confidence, 39, 81, 82, 90–1, 104, 287
   and copyright law, 108
   national provisions, 287
   and public interest defence, 86–7
 conservatism, 238–45
 construction use, 299
 consumer issues, 228–9
 consumer organisations, 209, 228
 contract
   digital lock-up, 67–70, 306, 308
   exclusions of exceptions, 67–70, 269–70, 306–7
   harmonisation of laws, 307
   unfair contract terms, 69
   and unlawful online material, 77

414 Index

- copyright
 alternative models, 173
 assignment, 174
 and authors' rights, 201–5, 207–8 balance of interests, see balance of interests and creative copying, 40–1 debates, 1
 and democratic process, 35–40, 84, 93, 288
 and designs law, 5
 economics, see economics exceptions, see exceptions fence posts, 203
 founding principle, 20
 and freedom of speech, see freedom of expression/information functions, 39, 299
 idea/expression dichotomy, 20–4
 ignorance of the law, 178
 infringement levels, 278–9, 297
 justification, 16, 18–19
 maximalists, 179
 and other rights, 279
 property right, 8, 168, 180–7, 200, 225–6, 239
 scope, 82
 UK attitudes, 221–6
 UK neglect, 229
 UK principles, 242–4
 Copyright Directorate, 224, 229
 copyright libraries, 147, 156–8
 Copyright Licensing Agency and commercial use, 122, 294
 higher education dispute, 114, 130–5
 role, 128
 Sticker Scheme, 146
 Copyright Licensing Rapid Clearance Service (CLARCS), 131, 134
 Copyright Tribunal
 higher education dispute, 114, 130–5
 powers, 70, 127, 306–7 referrals, 128, 129 corruption, 83–8
 course packs, 130, 131–2, 134, 228
 court judgments, 237 courts, see judiciary Craig, C., 180–1
 creative copying, 40–1
 crime, public interest defence, 86
 criticism and review exception
 acknowledgements, 60–1
 artistic works, 283
 and encryption, 75, 308
 fair dealing, 43–4
 fairness of use, 57–9
 Information Society Directive, 283–4, 286–7
 judicial interpretation, 261
 justification, 15
 law reform, 283–4
 meaning of criticism and review, 49–4
 parodies, see parodies
 published works, 286–7
 quotations, 286
 scope, 44–5, 236, 286
 unbalanced criticism, 52
 unpublished works, 45–7, 61, 62, 261
 Crown employees, 44
 culture
 cultural icons, recoding, 28–9 Department for Culture, Media and Sport, 229
 EU control of cultural goods, 159–60
 EU objective, 196–7, 200
 national heritage, 156
 promotion, 158
 UK departmental responsibility, 228
 current events, see reporting of current events damages breach of copyright, 97
 and injunctions, 100 nominal damages, 97, 102
 databases, 231, 300, 307, 308
 Davies, Gillian, 198, 202–3 defamation, 39, 104
 democratic process
 and copyright, 35–40
 deliberative democracy, 212
 EU democratic deficit, 211
 and public interest defence, 84, 93, 288
 Denicola, R., 29–30, 37, 269
 Denning, Lord, 244 Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), 226–30 depravity, 95, 265
 derivative works
 acknowledgement of original works, 61
 and fair dealing exception, 49–51, 62, 63 freedom to copy, 25–6, 28
 generally, 64–7
 incidental inclusions, 64–6
 parodies, see parodies
 subsequent works by same artists, 66–7
 and synonyms, 64
 design rights, 302

- Designs and Artists Copyright Society (DACS), 130, 132–3
- designs law, 5
- developing countries, 140
- development, right to, 16
- digital environment
- digital divide, 71
  - digital lock-up, 67–70, 306, 308
  - digital sound sampling, 26, 70
  - economics, 172
  - and fair use, 269–70
  - new technologies, 168–9, 194, 231, 296
  - pro-owner bias, 189
  - value of copyright, 177, 263
- directives
- bolt-on transposition, 235–6
  - Information Society, see Information Society Directive
  - UK implementation, 235–6
- directors, incidental inclusions, 65
- disability, see persons with disability
- Doha Ministerial Statement, 217
- Doran, Frank, 244
- drafting of laws, 220, 230
- Drahos, P., 203
- dramatic works
- anthologies, 124
  - educational performance exception, 124, 147
  - instruction exception, 121
  - interlibrary copying for stock, 154
  - library copies of unpublished works, 151, 153
  - library copying, 143, 148
  - quotations, 286
  - replacement library copies, 156
  - research and study, 116, 152, 290
  - term of copyright of unpublished works, 153
- Dreyfuss, R., 270
- droit d'auteur*, 201–5
- droit de suite*, 194–5, 200
- DTI, 226–30
- Duncan, Carol, 140
- Dusollier, Séverine, 198, 308–9
- Dworkin, Ronald, 201, 270, 272
- Easton, J. M., 258, 260
- EBLIDA, 209
- E-commerce Directive, 76–7, 300–1
- economics
- alternative values, 173
  - and behavioural law, 175
  - and certainty of protection, 179
  - digital environment, 172
  - economic approach to copyright, 170–3
  - incentive mechanism, 178
  - incentives theory of copyright, 170–3, 176–7
  - market failure, 8, 168–80, 197–8, 222–3
  - and moral rights, 174–5
  - narrowness of vision, 174
  - neo-classical approach, 171
  - opposition to economic theory of copyright, 173–80
  - quality of empirical research on copyright, 176–8
  - and state intervention, 172
- education exceptions
- anthologies, 120, 124, 204, 236
  - Australia, 228
  - copying, 120
  - EU promotion of education, 196
  - examination purposes, 120, 123, 294–5
  - generally, 120–35
  - Germany, 206
  - higher education dispute, 114, 130–5
  - Information Society Directive, 288–9
  - instruction purposes, 120, 121–3
  - lending copies, 120, 126
  - market failure, 222
  - modern works, 124
  - overview, 120
  - parents, 125–6, 152
  - performances, 120, 124–6
  - scope, 3
  - study packs, 130, 131–2, 134, 228
  - US copying practice, 268
- educational establishments
- classroom copying, 114, 117, 292, 297
  - copying, 120, 128–9
  - impact of copyright law, 113–14
  - importance of exceptions, 6
  - law reform, 294–7
  - lending copies, 120, 126
  - libraries, 147
  - licensing provisions, 126–9
  - meaning, 120
  - performances, 120, 124–6
  - recordings of broadcasts, 120, 127–8
  - supply of copies, 295–7
- Educational Recording Agency, 128
- EFPICC, 212, 213
- Electronic Frontier Foundation, 213
- e-mails, 39, 150, 154
- employment, ownership of employees' works, 44–5
- encryption, see technological measures of protection
- endowment effects, 175

416 Index

- equity
 clean hands doctrine, 94–6, 102
 fraud, 94, 96–7
 and public interest defence, 80, 94–7
- EU
 balance of interests rhetoric, 197 Commission's understanding of
 copyright, 197–208
 compatibility with ECHR, 107
 and continental traditions, 201–8 contracting out of exceptions, 306
 copyright directives, 196–7
 deliberative democracy, 212
 democratic deficit, 211
 digital lock-up, 69
 EU law and UK law, 220–1
 and fair use, 273–4
 Governance White Paper, 211
 harmonisation, see harmonisation
 implementation of directives, 235–6
 Information Society Directive, see
 Information Society Directive
 internal market, 194–5, 197, 303
 legislative process, 193–4
 market failure approach, 197–8
 parliamentary control over EU law, 236–8
 participation, 208–13
 piecemeal approach, 194
 technological measures of protection, 72
- EU jurisprudence
 exhaustion of rights doctrine, 194
 freedom of expression, 23
 proportionality, 102, 105
 trade marks, 180
- European Association of Consumer Electronics Manufacturers (EACEM), 210–11
- European Convention on Human Rights, 36, 107, 109, 305
- ex turpi causa non oritur actio*, 94
- examination exception, 120, 123,
 294–5
- exceptions
see also specific exceptions approaches, 4–5
 Commonwealth countries, 249–51
 contractual exclusions, 67–70, 269–70, 306–7
 debate, 1–4, 368
 fair dealing, see fair dealing functions, 4–6
 Information Society Directive, 214, 299–301
 international instruments, 215–19
 or licensing, 168–80 market failure claim, 168–80 origins, 10
 and technological measures of
 protection, 70–5
 terminology, 10–11, 182, 279–80
 or users' rights, 10–11, 182, 279–80
 visually impaired persons, 228
 exhaustion of rights doctrine, 194
 exhibitions, artistic works, 233–4, 299 export, pre-export library copies, 137, 159–60, 207
- fair compensation, 292
- fair dealing 1911 Act, 258, 259
 acknowledgements, 60–1, 62, 118
 approved purposes, 48–57
 Australia, 182
 codes of practice, 59 criticism and review, see criticism and review exception
 derivative works, 49–51, 62, 63
 and economic incentives, 178
 excluded subject matters, 44–5, 61 exclusion of photographs, 38, 44–5, 237
 and fair use, 249–50
 fairness principles, 57–9, 169–70
 Gregory Committee, 259
 inadequacy, 28, 61–2
 Information Society Directive problems, 286–7
 Information Society Directive provisions, 282–7
 instruction purposes, 121
 law reform, 221
 libraries, 145, 152–3
 meaning, 57–9
 news reporting, see reporting current events and non-substitutability, 25
 parodies, 49–51, 62, 63
 private study, see private study exception
 or public interest defence, 110, 127
 research, see research exception
 and technological measures of
 protection, 75
 UK copyright regime, 38
 uncertainty, 59
 unpublished works, 38
 unpublished works exclusion, 38, 45–8, 61, 62
 value, 9

- fair use
 abolition by judiciary, 253–64 and digital environment, 269–70 drawbacks, 252
 and EU law, 273–4
 fair abridgement, 254–6
 and fair dealing, 249–50
 flexibility, 252
 future, 269–74
 history of judicial interpretation, 253–64
 judicial interpretation, 253, 269
 opposition to, 251–3 support, 250–3
 and TRIPS, 270–3
 uncertainty, 252–3
 United States, 4, 170, 207, 249–50
 US current practice, 267–9
- fanzines, 27
- fax copies, 150, 154
- films
 acknowledgements, 60–1
 archives, 141
 educational exception, 125
 fair dealing, 60
 incidental inclusions, 64–6
 instruction exception, 122–3
 library copying, 143, 152
 public lending right, 158
 quotations, 286
 replacement library copies, 156
 showing in educational establishments, 127
 unpublished works, 152
- fine arts, 148
- Fitzgerald, B., 269
- flexibility
 copyright exceptions, 38–39
 fair use, 252
 inflexibility of current position, 7, 249, 276–7 inflexibility of judiciary, 238
 Information Society Directive, 277
 public interest defence, 111
 reform model, 276, 277
- floodgates argument, 24
- FOBID, 208
- folksongs, copies, 138, 160, 161–2
- Fox, Stephen, 278
- France
abus de droit, 108, 120, 207, 287
 caricature, parody and pastiche exception, 49, 284
 copyright system, 202–3
 market failure argument, 198
 private use, 197, 205
- fraud, 94, 96–7
- free riders, 170
- free use defence, 49, 207
- freedom of expression/information and appropriation, 26 boundaries, 19–20 case law, 31–5
 and commentaries, 26–7 compulsory licence, 19, 228
 and copyright, 6, 15–20, 189
 and democratic process, 35–40
 evidential importance of quotations, 29–30
 Human Rights Act, 100–2
 and idea/expression dichotomy, 20–4
 illustrations of conflict, 24–5 judicial attitudes, 21–3, 93, 101
 limits, 34
 non-substitutability argument, 24–5
 and parody, 25–6, 28
 photographs excluded from fair dealing, 44
 public interest defence, 288
 reasons for, 33–4
 recoding, 27–9
 resolution of conflict, 35–41 substance and form, 37
 terminology, 15
 theory, 17–18
 US Constitutional guarantee, 269 use of copyright as censorship, 29–30, 31–5
- Garon, J., 278
- Gay Olympics, 27
- Geller, P., 273
- Germany
 copyright and property right, 203–4
 copyright system, 202–3
 exceptions, 206–7
 free use defence, 49, 207
 parodies, 207, 284
 persons with disability, 206
 private use, 197, 205
 public policy, 207
- Ginsburg, J., 202, 217, 272
- GMOs, 186
- Goldstein, Paul, 169, 171
- Gone with the Wind*, 41, 50, 169, 171, 286
- goodwill, 96
- Gordon, W., 25–6, 171, 172
- Gorrell, Lord, 243
- Gregory Committee, 232, 243, 259, 261

418 Index

- Hackett, Teresa, 209
 Hailsham, Lord, 225, 244
 Hale, Matthew, 254
 Hamilton, A., 94
 Hansard, 63, 245
 harmonisation
   amendment process, 195 Commission approach, 200, 201–8
   and continental traditions, 201–8
   contract laws
   Information Society Directive, 1–2, 201–8, 295, 302, 303–4
   and internal market, 194–5, 197, 303
   logic, 193, 194–7
   and national implementation, 235
   participation, 208–13
   realising, 303–4
 health
   public health, 83, 99, 107, 288
   right to health, 16
 Helfer, L., 271
 historical studies, 148
 Hohfeld, W., 183 honour, 78
 Howse, Robert, 218
 Hugenholz, B., 273
 human rights
   ECHR jurisprudence, 36, 59
   free speech, see freedom of expression/
   information
   impact of 1998 Act, 2, 17, 92, 100–2
   and IP rights, 16–20
 idea/expression dichotomy, 20–4
 illustrations
   educational copying, 132, 134
   evidential importance, 29, 37, 269
   and idea/expression dichotomy, 21
   interlibrary copying for stock, 154
   library copies of unpublished works, 151
   library copying, 143
   immorality, 95, 265
   imperial model, 249–51 incentive theories, 170–3, 176–7, 178
   incidental inclusion, 64–6, 240, 299, 300
   independent schools, 122, 294
   India, exceptions, 249 indigenous cultures, 140
 inertia
   Information Society Directive, 213–15
   international law, 193–4
 inflexibility, current position, 7, 249, 276–7
 information, see freedom of expression/
   information
 Information Society Directive
   balance of interests, 198–200
   copyrights as property rights, 200
   criticism and review, 283–4, 286–7
   digital copying, 144
   exceptions, 214, 299–301
   exhibitions of artistic works, 162 fair dealing problems, 286–7 fair dealing provisions, 282–3
   and fair use, 273–4
   flexibility, 277
   Green Paper, 197–200, 209–10
   harmonisation, 201–8, 295, 302, 303–4
   impact, xi, 1
   and inertia, 213–15
   institutional users, 288–9, 294–7
   libraries and museums, 143–5
   market failure approach, 197–8
   minor exceptions, 302
   news reporting, 284–5, 287
   non-commercial scientific research, 293
   parodies, 284
   private use, 205
   process, 197–200, 209–10, 212–13
   public interest defence, 107–8, 287
   reform model, 9–10, 38, 193–4, 276,
   282–7, 297–8
   research and private study, 288–3 supplemented with public interest
   defence, 287
   technological measures of protection,
   74, 308–10
   UK implementation, 42, 76, 115, 121, 123, 157, 224, 229
   unharmonised provisions, 301–2 and users' rights, 279, 281–7 validity, 273–4, 303
 infringement levels, 278–9, 297
 injunctions
   and damages, 100 discretion, 98–100 interim injunctions, 100–1 refusal, 97–101
 injury to feelings, 97
 institutional users
   administrative costs, 147 education, see educational establishments
   exceptions, 113–15
   Information Society Directive, 288–9
   intranet services, 144, 297
   law reform, 294–7

- libraries and archives, see libraries and archives
- museums, see museums and galleries
- and new technologies, 296
- research/private study exception, 119–20
- supply of copies, 295–7
- and technological measures of protection, 73, 75
- warning notices, 119
- instruction exception
  - commercial purposes, 121–2
  - drafting of legislation, 230–1
  - generally, 120, 121–3
  - non-commercial purposes, 121, 122
  - reprographic processes, 122, 230–1
- integrity
  - architectural works, 186
  - moral right, 77, 175
- intellectual property rights
  - economic rationale, 170–3
  - and human rights, 16–20
  - opposition to economic theory of copyright, 173–80
  - and other rights, 279
  - use for censorship, 32
- interlibrary loans, 145
- internal documents, 39, 82, 83, 103, 276
- international law
  - balance of interests rhetoric, 188
  - exceptions, 2, 215–19
  - inertia, 193–4, 213–15
  - public interest defence, 105–8
  - terminology, 279–80, 281–7
  - and UK law, 220–1
- Internet
  - commentaries, 27
  - contracts and encryption, 74
  - and contractual exclusion of exceptions, 67–70
  - copying by legal deposit libraries, 157
  - digital lock-up, 67–70
  - economics, 172
  - e-mails, 39, 150, 154
  - impact on exceptions, 169
  - OSPs, see online service providers
  - reporting of current events, 57
  - temporary copies, 76, 301
  - transaction costs, 179
- intranet services, 144, 297
- Ireland, 307
- Israel, 249
- Italy, 273
- Jacob, Lloyd, 243
- Johnson, Melanie, 228, 237
- journalists
  - news reporting, see reporting current events
  - notes/recordings of spoken words, 63
  - public interest defence, 89
  - scoops, 39, 90
- journals, 149
- judicial proceedings, 62, 87–8, 177, 237
- judiciary
  - abolition of fair use defence, 253–4
  - balance arguments, 239–40
  - changing attitudes, 305
  - copyright as property, 239
  - and fair dealing reform, 221
  - and freedom of expression, 93, 101
  - history of fair use defence, 253–64
  - ineffective protection of users, 9
  - inflexibility, 238
  - legislative correction of decisions, 241–4
  - likely approach to fair use, 253, 269
  - market failure argument, 240
  - move to restrictive approaches, 238
  - narrow interpretations, 238
  - and parodies, 264–7
  - and public interest defence, 93, 253
  - references to legislative history, 244–5
  - role, 221, 238–5
- Kennedy, J. F., 25
- Krieg, P., 26
- Ku, R., 177
- Kubrick, Stanley, 52, 287
- Laddie, H., 102, 108, 109, 110, 234, 305
- land law
  - intersection with copyright, 185–6
  - non-derogation from grant, 184, 185, 187
- Landes, W., 72, 170, 171, 174–5
- languages, 148
- law reform
  - case for reform, 6–10
  - changing attitudes, 304–5
  - counterclaims, 168
  - criteria, 275, 276
  - criticism and review, 283–4
  - fair dealing, 221
  - flexibility, 276, 277
  - Information Society Directive model, 9, 276, 282–7, 297–8
  - institutional users, 294–7
  - news reporting, 284–5

420 Index

- law reform (cont.)
 public interest defence, 10, 39, 111–12, 287
 public participation, 276, 280–2
 research and private study, 289–3
 technological measures of protection, 306–10
 US model, 269
 users' rights, 276, 279–80
 workability, 276, 277–9
- Leaffer, M., 270
- Lee, M., 212
- legal deposit libraries, 147, 156–8
- legal studies, 148
- legislative process
 1909 Royal Commission, 256
 1911 Act, 256–9
 1956 Act, 229–30
 1988 Act, 223–4, 236–7, 242–3
 erosion of parliamentary control over EU law, 236–8
 failures, 241
 implementation of directives, 235–6
 instruction exception, 230–1
 judicial reference to, 244–5
 and judiciary, 238–5
 parliamentary intentions, 234, 242–3, 263
 private members' bills, 228 public display of building models, 233–4 sound recordings exclusion, 231–3
 UK drafting, 220, 230–4
- Lemley, M., 70
- letters, 152
- levies, 205–6, 232, 292
- libraries and archives
 1988 divisions, 142–3
 2003 reforms, 136
 administrative burden, 147, 149 commercial libraries, 148 concerns, 3
 copies of articles, 147–50 copies of non-print publications, 137, 156–8 copies of part published works, 147–50 copies of unpublished works, 137, 150, 296
 copies to other libraries, 137, 154–5 copies to readers, 115, 145–7, 295–7
 copyright libraries, 147, 156–8
 declaration forms, 145–6, 149, 151
 defining, 138–42
 digitised copies of works, 144
 exceptions, 137–8, 145–62
 higher education, 113
 importance of exceptions, 6
- Information Society Directive, 143–5, 288–9
 interlibrary copying for stock, 154
 interlibrary loans, 145
 intranet services, 144
 law reforms, 294–7
 legal deposit libraries, 147, 156–8
 lending of copies, 158–9 media restrictions, 152, 156
 microfilms, 156
 multiple copies, 149–50
 new directions, 142
 new technologies, 150
 non-textual media, 137, 149, 156–8, 237
 not-for-profit libraries, 143
 out-of-print books, 156
 permitted copying, 136
 pre-export copies, 137, 159–60, 207 prescribed libraries, 147–8, 151, 154, 155, 158, 160 public lending right scheme, 137, 158–9 reasonable proportions, 149
 rentals, 126
 replacement copies, 137, 155–6, 296
 research/private study exception, 119–20, 137
 role, 138–9
 self-service photocopying, 138, 145 short loan collections, 131–2
 special treatment, 136–7
 subject matters, 148
 time limits, 149–50
 transitional provisions, 153–4
 UK departmental responsibility, 228
 uncertainty, 149
 unpublished works, 137, 150, 296
 warning notices, 119
- Library Association, 149
- licensing
 compulsory licensing, 19, 97, 228
 and copyright exceptions, 168–80, 222
 course packs, 130, 131–2
 educational establishments, 126–9
 higher education dispute, 114, 130–5
 law reform, 296
 Secretary of State powers, 127, 129
- lifelong learning, 142
- limitation periods, 147
- literary works
 anthologies, 124
 definition, 260
 educational performance exception, 124, 147
 fair dealing, 58

- incidental inclusions, 64
- instruction exception, 121
- interlibrary copying for stock, 154
- library copies of unpublished works, 151, 153
- library copying, 143, 148
- quotations, 286
- replacement library copies, 156
- research and study, 116, 152, 290
- short works, 131
- similar stories, 22
- term of copyright of unpublished works, 153
- literature studies, 148
- Litman, Jessica, 178, 210, 211, 242
- Lloyd of Hampstead, Lord, 226
- Lloyd of Kilgerran, Lord, 244
- lobbying power, 167, 195, 209, 210–11, 215, 233, 237, 241–2
- Locke, John, 104, 180
- logos, 60, 65–6
- Lowenfeld, A., 270
- MacGillivray, E. J., 258
- Magritte, René, 67
- making available to public, 46, 121
- malice, 52
- maps
  - library copying, 143, 152
  - replacement library copies, 156
- market failure
  - and EU commission, 197–8
  - and exceptions, 8, 168–80
  - and judiciary, 240
  - UK attitudes, 222–3
- May, Christopher, 189–90
- media studies courses, 123
- medical studies, 148
- memorandums, 39, 82, 92, 103, 276
- mental distress, 97
- MEPs, 208, 213
- Merges, Robert, 169, 222
- microfilms, 156
- Mill, John Stuart
- miniatures, 65, 89
- modern works, 124
- Mole, Chris, 237
- monopolies
  - abuse of copyright monopoly, 108, 287, 300
  - collecting agencies, 181, 225
  - copyrights, 183
- moral rights
  - benefits, 40, 174–5, 176
  - and Berne Convention, 126
  - derogatory treatment, 77–8
  - generally, 77–8
  - integrity, 77, 175
  - ridicule, 78
- Mossink, Wilma, 208–9
- multiple copies
  - and instruction exception, 231
  - law reform, 290
  - libraries and archives, 149–50
  - visually impaired persons, 222
- museums and galleries
  - 1988 divisions, 142–3
  - advertisement of sale of works, 138, 160, 162
  - controversies, 140
  - defining, 139–2
  - digitised copies of works, 144
  - discrimination against, 137, 143
  - importance of exceptions, 6
  - incidental inclusions, 65
  - Information Society Directive, 143–5, 288–9
  - law reform, 294–7
  - new directions, 142
  - Regional Museums Task Force, 142
  - supply of copies, 295–7
  - UK departmental responsibility, 228
- musical studies, 148
- musical works
  - educational performance exception, 124, 147
  - fair dealing, 261–2
  - folksongs, copies, 138, 160, 161
  - incidental inclusions, 64
  - instruction exception, 121
  - interlibrary copying for stock, 154
  - library copies of unpublished works, 151, 153
  - library copying, 143, 148
  - quotations, 286
  - replacement library copies, 156
  - research and study, 116, 152, 231
  - sheet music, 123
  - term of copyright of unpublished works, 153
  - and TRIPS, 217
- My Lai massacre, 24, 37, 38, 49
- Napster, 213
- national heritage, 156
- National Library of Scotland, 157
- National Library of Wales, 157
- Neale, Gerard, 244
- near misses, reporting, 83
- Netanel, N., 168, 171, 269

422 Index

- Netherlands, 197, 205, 208, 273
 New Opportunities Fund, 144
 new technologies, 150, 168–9, 194, 231, 296
 New Zealand, 249
 news reporting, see reporting current events
 newspaper summaries, 262–3
 NHS hospital libraries, 147
 Nimmer, Melville, 24–5, 29, 37, 190
 non-derogation from grant, 184, 185, 187
 non-substitutability argument, 24–5
 non-textual media
   libraries and archives, 137, 149, 152, 156–8, 237
   research/ private study, 231
 Norman, Sandy, 149
 Northern Ireland, 139, 142
 Norway, 273
 nuclear safety, 82
- official proceedings
   judicial proceedings, 62, 87–8, 177, 237
   parliamentary proceedings, 61, 62, 63, 237
   published reports, 62, 63 reporting, 61, 62–3
   statutory inquiries, 62
 Okediji, R., 270, 271, 272, 273
 online service providers caching unlawful material, 76
   conduits for unlawful material, 76
   E-Commerce Directive, 76–7, 300–1
   fear of liability, 75
   hosting unlawful material, 76
   role, 75–7
 online services, see Internet Open University, 128 originality, 260, 287
 out-of-print books, 156
- Padfield, T., 153
 parents, and educational exceptions, 125–6, 152 parliamentary proceedings, 61, 62, 63, 237
 parodies
   acknowledgement of original works, 61
   caricature, parody and pastiche exception, 41, 45, 49, 284
   and encryption, 308
   and fair dealing, 49–51, 62, 63
   fair use, 207
   and freedom of expression, 25–6, 28
   generally, 64–7
   Information Society Directive, 284
   judicial interpretations, 264–7
   protection, 264–7
   and satire, 169, 265
   special treatment, 264–7
 participation
   EU legislative process, 208–13
   reform model, 276, 280–2
   or social rejection, 281
 pastiches, see parodies patents, 16, 160, 186, 218
 Patry, W., 210
 Penner, J., 183
 performing rights, 295
 periodicals
   interlibrary copying for stock, 154–5
   law reform, 291
   library copies of articles, 147–50
 persons with disability
   Germany, 206
   Information Society Directive, 299
   visually impaired persons, 222, 228, 237
 pharmaceuticals, 16, 31, 82, 218 philosophy, 148
 photographs
   and anthologies, 124 artistic works, of, 58
   definition, 44, 291
   educational copying, 132, 134
   evidential importance, 24–5, 37, 38
   exclusion from fair dealing, 38, 44–5, 237
   and freedom of expression, 24–5
   Information Society Directive, 291
   law reform, 290
   library copying, 143, 152
   replacement library copies, 156
   research and private study, 290, 291
   unpublished works, 152
   value of copyright, 177
 piracy, 74, 239
 planning applications, 160, 185
 poems, 121, 131, 149
 policing, 278, 291
 political information see also democratic process copyright restrictions, 35–40
   fair dealing exception, 54
   meaning of political communication, 37
 pornography, 18, 21
 Posner, R., 72, 169–70, 171, 172, 174, 175 power groups, 167, 195, 209, 210–11, 215
 Prescott, P., 102, 108, 110

- preservation copies, 137, 155–6, 296
 Press Complaints Commission, 84 Priest, G., 176 privacy rights, 23, 39, 97
 private study exception
   acknowledgements, 118
   Australia, 227–8
   companies, 119
   copying by other parties, 116, 117–18, 291
   copying in libraries, 137
   fair dealing exception, 115–20
   Information Society Directive, 288–9
   judicial interpretation, 118–19, 260–1
   law reform, 289–93
   non-commercial purposes, 117, 119, 138, 146, 159
   overview of exception, 115
   scenarios, 117–18
   scope of exception, 115–19, 152
   sound recordings, 116, 224–5, 231–3
   and technological measures of protection, 75
 private use
   Berne Convention, 216
   and EU Commission, 197–8
   European approaches, 205–7 property rights
   choses in possession, 184–5
   copyrights as property right, 8, 168, 180–7, 200, 225–6, 239
   definition, 182
   Germany, 203–4
   land law, 185–6, 187
   limited ECHR right, 105
   neglect of personal property law, 183–4
   and public interest defence, 103–5
   repair rights, 184–5
   sanctity of property, 180, 225, 239
   and state intervention, 172
 proportionality, 102, 105
 public display, 233–4, 299
 public goods, 170
 public health, 83, 99, 107, 218, 288
 public interest
   assessment, 108
   defence, see public interest defence reports of current events, 54, 56
   and TRIPS, 218, 271
 public interest defence
   and abuse of monopoly, 108 alternative means, 94–102
   appropriateness, 108–9, 111
   Berne Convention, 105
   common law defence, 80
   or compulsory licence, 97
   and confidentiality, 39, 81, 82, 86–7, 90–1 early authorities, 81–91, 241 economic considerations, 86
   and equity, 80, 94–7
   and express statutory exceptions, 88–9 or fair dealing defence, 110, 127
   flexibility, 111
   France and Germany, 202
   indefinite reproduction, 88
   Information Society Directive, 107–8, 287
   and interesting matters, 83, 85
   international law, 105–8
   judicial attitudes, 93, 253, 267
   law reform, 10, 39, 111–12, 287
   legitimacy, 103–8
   literature, 21
   misleading information from public figures, 84 necessity, 109–11 objections of principle, 102–11
   past incidents, 83
   and political process, 84, 93 and property rights, 103–5 and prurience, 83, 85 recent authorities, 91–4 or refusal of injunctions, 97–101
   scope, 80
   statutory provision, 81
   subject areas, 83–6
   timing, 90
   to whom disclosed, 86–8
   uncertainty, 82, 111
   unfairness, 89–91
   workability, 111
 public lending right, 126, 137, 158–9, 303
 public morals, 83, 95, 107, 265
 public order, 106
 public policy
   and exceptions, 5
   Germany, 207
   judicial discretion, 108–9, 124
   and library sector, 136
   repair rights, 185
 Public Record Office, 139 public records, 138, 160, 161 public registers, 138, 160–1 public safety, 83, 96, 107, 206, 288
 public speeches, 206
 Publishers Association, 59

 quotations, 29–30, 206, 286

424 Index

- race discrimination, 18
- reading lists, 134
- Reading, Marquess of, 243
- recoding, 27–9
- recordings, see sound recordings
- Regional Museums Task Force, 142
- regulatory agencies, 83
- Reichman, J., 270
- religious studies, 148
- religious use, 206, 303
- rentals, 126, 155, 295
- repair rights, 184–5
- replacement copies, 137, 155–6, 296
- reporting current events
  - acknowledgements, 60–1
  - currency of events, 55, 62
  - defence, 91
  - and encryption, 75, 308
  - exclusion of photographs, 44–5, 237
  - fair dealing, 43–4
  - fairness of use, 57–9
  - Germany, 207
  - Information Society Directive, 284–5, 287
  - law reform, 284–5
  - meaning, 54–7, 288
  - meaning of events, 54–5
  - meaning of reporting, 55–7
  - public domain, 285
  - and public interest, 54, 56
  - or public interest defence, 110
  - scope of exception, 24–5, 44–5
  - and unpublished works, 47–8, 61, 62
  - use of spoken words, 63–4
- reprographic processes, 122, 230–1
- reputation, 78, 97, 104
- research exception
  - acknowledgements, 118
  - Australia, 227–8
  - commercial research, 146, 237, 291–2
  - copying by other parties, 116, 117–18, 291
  - copying in libraries, 137
  - EU promotion of research, 196
  - extracts from earlier works, 292–3
  - fair dealing exception, 115–20
  - importance of exceptions, 6
  - Information Society Directive, 288–93
  - judicial interpretation, 118–19
  - law reform, 289–93
  - meaning, 116–17
  - non-commercial purposes, 117, 119, 138, 146, 148, 159, 223
  - non-commercial scientific research, 41, 293
  - overview of exception, 115
  - scope of exception, 115–19, 152
  - and sound recordings, 116, 224–5, 231–3
  - and technological measures of protection, 75
  - types of copying, 117–18, 289
- review exception, see criticism and review exception
- reviews, meaning, 49
- Ricketson, S., 216
- ridicule, 78
- right to life, 16
- romantic notions of authorship, 26, 30
- satire, 169, 172, 265
- science studies, 148
- scientific and technical abstracts, 222
- SCONUL, 226
- scoops, 39, 90
- Scotland, 142
- Scott, A., 273–4
- sculptures, 233
- security services, 45, 83, 84
- security videos, 39, 82, 106
- Sellars, C., 72
- Seville, C., 256
- sheet music, 123, 290, 291
- Sherman, B., 58, 253, 289
- short stories, 131
- Singapore, 249
- single market, 194–5, 197, 303
- Skone James, Edmund, 243, 260
- Skone James, F. E.
- slides, 132–3
- social sciences, 148
- social welfare, 218, 271
- Society of Authors, 59
- sound recordings
  - anthologies, 124
  - archives, 141
  - educational exception, 125
  - exclusion from research/private study exception, 116, 224–5, 231–3
  - fair dealing, 60
  - incidental inclusion, 64–6
  - judicial proceedings, 87–8
  - library copying, 143, 152
  - playing in educational establishments, 127
  - public lending right, 158
  - replacement library copies, 156
  - spoken words, 63–4, 87–8
  - technological development, 232
  - unpublished works, 152

- South Africa, 249
 Spain, 197, 205, 284
 Spence, M., 25
 spoken words, 63–4, 87–8, 237
 sporting events, 54, 59, 65 Squire, Rachel, 237
 state intervention, 172
 statutory inquiries, 62
 story lines, 22
 Streeter, T., 181
 study packs, 130, 131–2, 134, 228
 surveillance photographs, 45 Sykes, Katie, 243
 synonyms, 64
- Taylor, John, 244
 technological measures of protection banning circumvention devices, 72–3 banning encryption, 72
   EU approach, 72
   and fair dealing exceptions, 75 fair use by design, 73–5, 308
   generally, 70–5
   Information Society Directive, 74,
     308–10
   institutional users, 73, 75
   and Internet contracts, 74
   law reform, 306–10
   non-regulation approach, 72
   non-regulation of circumvention devices, 72 regulation of circumvention devices, 72
   research and private study exception, 75 statutory complaints, 74–5
   trend, 3
   UK approach, 74–5
 technology
   EU promotion, 196
   new technologies, 150, 168–9, 194, 231, 296 scope of library copies, 148 technical abstracts, 222
 telephone transcripts, 38, 39 temporary copies, Internet, 76, 301
 term of copyright
   artistic works, 5
   EU approach, 200
   extension, 225 reform, 153
   Term Directive, 196
   twenty-year term, 16
   unpublished works, 153
 terminology
   balance of interests, 188–9
   exceptions or users' rights, 10–11, 182, 279–80
   theatres, incidental inclusion, 65
   Thomas, D., 89–6, 99
   threats actions, 301
   three-step test, 201, 217, 298
   time-shifting, 233
   trade marks
     EU jurisprudence, 180
     recoding, 28, 29
     scope of protection, 104
     use for censorship, 32
   training courses, 121
   transaction costs, 179
   translations, 123 transnational organisations, 210
 transparency alternatives to public interest defence, 102 and nominal damages, 97 trials, restrictions, 37
 Trinity College, Dublin, Library, 157 TRIPS
   copyright exceptions, 2, 279, 280
   dispute settlement procedure, 217–18
   effects, 217–19
   and fair use, 270–3
   public interest defence, 107
   regime, 189–90
   three-step test, 201, 217, 298
 Tushnet, R., 22
 typefaces, 5, 302
 typographical arrangements, 143, 151, 154, 156, 290
- uncertainty
   alternatives to public interest defence, 94, 101–2
   clean hands doctrine, 95
   current position, 7
   fair dealing, 59, 120
   fair use defence, 252–3
   library copying, 149
   public interest defence, 82, 111
   research/private study exception, 120, 138
 unfair contract terms, 69
 United Kingdom
   approach to exceptions, 4–5, 167
   balance of interests approach, 223–5
   copyright approaches, 221–6 copyright as property right, 225–6
   departmental responsibilities, 226–7
   DTI's mandate, 226–30
   implementation of directives, 220

426 Index

- United Kingdom (cont.)
 legislation, see legislative process
 market failure approach, 222–3
 neglect of copyright issues, 229 parliamentary oversight of government, 221 poor deal for users, 8
 pre-1911 regime, 203
- United States
 approach to exceptions, 4
 censorship, 32, 45
 classroom copying, 268
 Constitutional guarantees, 269
 copyright system, 202
 fair use, 4, 170, 207, 249–50, 268–73
 flag burning, 33
 freedom of expression, 16, 20, 23, 24
 legislative process, 210
 model for change, 269
 musical works, 217
 parodies, 264
 performing rights, 218–19
 unlawful material on Internet, 76
 use of IP law for censorship, 32 Working Group on IP Rights, 181
- universities
see also educational establishments
 commercial purposes, 294
 copyright concerns, 113–14
 value, 114
- unpublished works
 criticism and review exception, 286–7
 definition of making available to public, 46 fair dealing exclusion, 38, 45–8, 61, 62, 110, 261
 library copying, 137, 150, 296
 news reports, 284
 parodies, 284
 photographs, 152
 and public interest defence, 82, 100
 publication for vindication purposes, 261
 term of copyright, 153
 terms of library deposits, 151–2
 transitional provisions, 153–4
- user groups
 EU legislative process, 208–13
 UK legislative process, 229
- users' rights
 Australia, 227–8
 diversity of interests, 280
 and DTI, 226–7
 and EU legislative process, 193–4 or exceptions, 10–11, 182, 279–80
 and judiciary, 238–45
 and Parliament, 237 positive lists, 213
 and reform model, 276, 279–80
 role, 173
 terminology, 10–11, 182, 279–80
 United Kingdom, 220–1
- videos
 anthologies, 124
 educational exception, 125
 security videos, 82, 103, 106
- visual works, see artistic works;
 illustrations; photographs
- visually impaired persons, 222, 228, 237
- Vitoria, M., 102, 108, 110
 Volokh, F., 33
 Von Lewinski, S., 214
- Wales, 142
 Wallace, William, 243
 Warwick, Diana, 135
 Whitford Committee, 223, 224, 225, 232, 236, 243, 250
 Williams of Elvel, Lord, 244
 Willis, Lord, 225
 Wilson, Harold, 243
- WIPO treaties
 balance of interests, 188
 copyright exceptions, 279, 281–7
 fair use, 271
 and technological measures of protection, 74
- workability
 policing, 278
 public interest defence, 111
 reform model, 276, 277–9
- WTO, 218, 271, 280
see also TRIPS
- Wyatt of Weeford, Lord, 225
- Zapruder film, 25