

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

Index

- ABN (arched-back nursing) or crouching in rat mothers, 99
- absurdity, meaning vs., 280, 284–285
- abuse
- alcohol and drug, 180, 200, 227
 - in childhood. See childhood trauma
 - domestic. See domestic violence
 - emotional, 52, 233, 300, 467
 - physical, 52, 173, 185, 225, 227, 300
 - sexual trauma, somatic symptoms of, 148, 149–150. See also childhood trauma; domestic violence; rape
 - verbal, 149, 387
- academic disciplines and perspectives. See also interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, and specific disciplines and perspectives
- comparison of methodologies, 24
 - interdisciplinary approaches among, 12–14
 - master narratives and, 349
 - memory and, 349–351
- ACE (adverse childhood experiences), 227
- acetylcholine, 105
- Achebe, Chinua, 363
- ACTH (adrenocorticotrophic hormone), 33, 124, 156, 307
- acute stress disorder, 319
- acute stress response, 14, 15, 321, 466
- ADAPT (Adaptation and Development after Persecution and Trauma) model, 244–246
- adaptation. See also coping strategies; resilience
- anger, as adaptive response, 323
 - of children to trauma, 282
 - cultural perspectives on, 16, 175, 323–324, 463
 - to disasters, 48–49
 - disclosure and, 281
 - evolutionary perspectives on, 323–324
 - GAS (general adaptation syndrome), 146, 305–310
 - in hunter-gatherer societies, to stress, 305
 - meaning making and, 483
 - nonverbal expression, as adaptive response, 175
 - PTSD, as adaptive response, 31, 37. See also PTSD, as disorder of recovery
 - recovery, PTSD as disorder of, 220
 - of refugees, 280, 283, 382, 395
 - to stress, 7, 53, 152, 154
 - stress response, as adaptive, 296, 305–310, 323–324
- adat*, 419, 458
- adrenocorticotrophic hormone (ACTH), 33, 124, 156, 307
- adverse childhood experiences (ACE), 227
- Afghanistan, trauma survivors of, 2
- agency and creativity, encouraging, 289–290
- Agusno, Mahar, 455
- alcohol and drug abuse, 180, 200, 227
- Almog, Oz, 391
- Alter, Robert, 355–356
- American Civil War, 12
- amygdala
- effect of trauma on functioning of, 125–129

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

498

Index

- amygdala (cont.)
 extinction learning, neural mechanisms involved in, 61, 70–71
 GABA_A receptor system, maternal care affecting, 100–104
 IL stimulation inhibiting output neurons of, 66–67
 predation response and, 33
 in PTSD patients, 71
 somatic symptoms, 151
- analgesic response
 extinction learning and, 41, 48
 to predator imminence, 30
- anger
 as adaptive response, 323
 CBT and, 184
 of communities in response to injustice, 246 cultural context of, 442–446 epidemiological studies of PTSD and, 244 and exoticism, 412
 insecure attachment patterns and, 229 interaction with fear and attachment systems, 482
 of New Yorkers after 9/11, 314
 PTSD diagnostic criteria and, 178, 277, 462 of refugees in response to trauma, 285
 and suffering, cultural meaning of, 442–446 of therapists at traumatized patients, 277 of trauma survivors, 266, 434, 462, 467, 487
 of traumatized patients at therapists, 285
- Angolan War of 1861, 399
- animal models, advantages and limitations of, 25, 33, 158–159, 173, 225–226
- ANS. See autonomic nervous system (ANS) responses and somatic effects of trauma
- anterior cingulate cortex, 151, 157
- anthropology, 13, 298. See also culture; interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts cultural, 13, 295–299 medical, 479, 483, 486
 physical, 295
 psychological, 295, 479, 483
- anti-Semitism
 Chiemelniki pogroms, 391
 Freud on source of, 340, 341
 Holocaust, postwar lack of attention to, 351
- Protocols of the Elders of Zion*, 378
 of Wilkomirski, 356
- antidepressants. See also specific drugs
 anxiety and, 317
 neurogenesis and, 119, 121–122
 stress and, 119
 trauma-related somatic syndromes and, 158 use of, in refugee populations, 205
- anxiety
 bed nucleus of the stria terminalis (BNST) and, 49–52 CRF and, 49, 52
 evolutionary perspectives on, 49
 extinction learning, 22
 effect of anxiety on, 49–53 relapse and renewal effect in, 49–53
 as factor in vulnerability to PTSD, 10, 32, 52 fear differentiated from, 49
 GABA_A receptor system in humans, maternal care affecting, 103–104 hippocampus and, 51–52
 transgenerational transmission of trauma and, 10
- anxiety disorders and treatment. See also posttraumatic stress disorder antidepressants and, 317 anxiety management therapy, 182 anxiety-spectrum disorders, 317 behavior therapy and, 78–80 benzodiazepines and, 87, 91
 CBT and, 14, 15, 22, 42
 drug and behavior therapy, combined, 86–91 DSM-III and, 178
 risk factors for, 103–104
 stress response system and, 22
- arched-back nursing (ABN) or crouching in rat mothers, 99
- Aschieri, Lucien, 397
- Asylum* (documentary film), 370
- asylum seekers. See refugees
- attachment
 animal models of, 482 developmental impact of childhood trauma and, 232 to healthcare provider, 271, 287 in hunter-gatherer societies, 302 insecure, 229
 trauma and, 229, 289
- attentional systems, maternal programming of, 108–110

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More informationIndex

499

- Australia
 asylum seekers in, 250–253, 255 Balinese nightclub bombing as “Australia’s 9/11,” 410
- autonomic nervous system (ANS) responses and somatic effects of trauma, 24, 143, 153
 biological mechanisms triggering, 151
 historical recognition of involvement of, 146
 in IBS patients, 156
- avoidance behavior, 12, 14, 41, 423. See also silence/avoidance/withdrawal
- Bagot, Rosemary, 72, 124, 144, 152, 207
- Bakhtin, Mikhail, 367–369
- balance
 in Balinese ritual, as organizing principle, 412
 in Buddhism, 299
 importance of, in Cambodian culture, 440, 443–444, 446
 in SOS response, 249–250, 254
 in working through trauma, 266
- Bali, trauma discourse in healers, traditional 423, 454 massacre, as part of Indonesia’s anti-communist sweep (1965–66) bersih lingkungan (“clean environment”) policy, 415
 case study of survivor, 452–455 “Memasak Sejarah” (“Cooking History”) performance, 404 memory of, survivors’ ambivalence toward, 419–420
 negation of, by focus on terrorism, 407–408, 413–414, 427
ngceb, as coping strategy, 418, 422–423, 454
 PTSD associated with, 461
- nightclub bombings (2002)
 image, self-image, and tourism, 411–413, 424
 negation of 1965–66 massacre by focus on, 407–408, 413–414, 427
 PTSD associated with, 410–414
 rarity of PTSD in Indonesia prior to, 409–410
 romantic image of Bali prior to, 410, 411, 428
 sociopolitical effects of international focus on, 407, 420–429 perception of mental illness, 422–423 psychiatric community, 410, 423
- Barad, Mark, 14, 23, 41, 42, 68, 73, 175, 209, 216, 487
- Barthes, Roland, 397
- battered women’s syndrome, 225
- BDNF (brain-derived neurotrophic factor), 104–107, 119
- bed nucleus of the stria terminalis (BNST), 49–52, 151
- behavior therapy. See also cognitive behavioral therapy disadvantages and drawbacks of, 78
 extinction learning and, 78–92
 anxiety, treatment of, 78–80
 combining drug and behavior therapy, 86–91
 molecular mechanisms. See molecular mechanisms of extinction learning neural mechanisms, 72
 temporally massed vs. temporally spaced training, 84–86
- Bellah, Robert, 176, 391
- BenEzer, Gadi, 263, 267, 298
- Ben Gurion, David, 351
- benzodiazepines, 44, 87, 101, 104, 129
- Bernstein, Elitsur, 354
- Bernstein, Richard J., 344
- betrayal, 10, 173, 235, 277, 467
- Bettleheim, Bruno, 395
- biological sciences, 12, 21–25. See also interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts research methodologies, advantages and limitations of, 24–25
 themes associated with, 14–15
- BNST (bed nucleus of the stria terminalis), 49–52, 151
- body memory, 8–9
- Boehnlein, James, 72, 173
- borderline personality disorder (BPD), 131
- Botswana, !Kung San hunter-gatherers of, 296, 303–305
- Bouton, Mark, 14, 22–23, 60, 70, 79, 124, 172, 247, 254, 464, 487
- BPD (borderline personality disorder), 131
- brain-derived neurotrophic factor (BDNF), 104–107, 119
- brain, effects of trauma on, 23, 118–132. See also neuroimaging studies showing effects of trauma on brain

- brain, effects of trauma on (cont.) changes in brain activity and function post-stress, 125–131
 comorbidity, 131
 drug agents treating, 119, 121, 123
 hippocampus, 119–122
 IBS patients, brain activity in, 157–158 memory and learning, 119–122
 neurohormonal systems, 122–125
 research methodologies, 132
 research review, 118–122
- Bremner, J. Douglas, 23, 24, 71, 152
- Breslau, Joshua, 407, 421, 425–426
- Brewin, Chris R., 210
- Buddhism
 balance in, 299, 444–446 banning of, under Khmer Rouge, 437 beliefs and coping strategies, 265–266, 271, 440, 441, 442, 460–461
 prayer in, 263
- Cain, Christopher K., 23, 42, 68, 73, 209, 216
 calcineurin, 81
- Cambodian refugees and trauma survivors
 background to DK/Khmer Rouge regime, 435 culturally specific coping strategies, 299, 433–448
 anger and suffering, cultural meanings
 of, 442–446
 balance and equilibrium, importance
 of, 440, 443–444, 446
 empathy for suffering, expression of, 440 forgetting, 440
 heat, metaphors of, 443–444 kapok tree metaphor, 445
 Neari case study, 442
 ontological resonances of, 443, 446–448
 silence/avoidance/withdrawal, 441, 445 social reintegration, 441
 treatment implications, 446
 Yum case study, 433–441
- highly traumatized refugees, treatment
 of, 196, 200, 203
- religion and spirituality, 264–265
 Buddhist beliefs, 440, 441, 442, 444–446
 demonology, 446
 rituals and healers, use of, 441
 somatic effects, 443–444, 446
- suffering
 importance of expressing empathy for, 440 meaning of anger and, 442–446
 transformative effects of trauma, 278
 Vietnam War, effects of, 435
- Campanella, Roy, 309
- Canada, asylum seekers/refugees in, 255, 297. See also refugees; and specific countries of origin
- detention, increasing use of, 374
- IRB, 366, 369–372
- refugee status, defined, 367–369
- Safe Third Country Agreement,
 U.S.–Canada, 375
- transnational identity of, 375
- Cannon, Walter, 153, 305
- cardiovascular syndromes, 147
- Caruth, Cathy, 342–344
- catechol-O-methyl transferase (COMT), 109
- causal attribution as distinctive feature of trauma disorders, 7
- causes of trauma disorders, 209–211, 310.
See also recovery, PTSD as disorder of; vulnerability
- CBT. See cognitive behavioral therapy
- Centers for Disease Control (CDC), 148, 227, 314
- central receptor function, effects of trauma
 on, 129
- Charcot, Jean Martin, 145
- Chiemelniki pogroms, 391
- childhood trauma. See also developmental origins of stress vulnerability in humans
- brain, effects on, 120, 121, 125, 126–128, 131
- developmental and behavioral problems caused by, 230–231
- explanatory adequacy of animal models, 173, 225–226
- GABA_A receptor systems affected by, 103
- gender differences in triggering events, 225
- hunter-gatherer societies, children of, 302–304
- isolated vs. chronic, 227
- longitudinal studies, 309–310
- pervasive and multifaceted nature of, 225, 226, 227–228
- prevalence of, 224, 227–228

- relational problems associated with, 226, 228–229
- as risk factor for anxiety disorders, 103–104
- transgenerational transmission of trauma, 10–11, 228
- childhood trauma, related disorders and treatment issues, 224–237
 - agency and creativity, encouraging, 289–290
 - anxiety disorders, as risk factor for, 103–104
 - comorbidity, 226, 231–232
 - complex PTSD, 173, 224, 227
 - depression, 227
 - DESNOS, 173, 224, 227
 - developmental trauma disorder, 232–235
 - dissociation, 229, 235
 - modulated disclosure, 282
 - range of psychological sequelae not captured by PTSD diagnostic criteria, 225, 226
 - refugees (child), clinical treatment of, 196
 - somatic symptoms triggered by, 148, 152
 - treatment guidelines, 235–237
- Christianity, 263, 265–266, 340, 341
- chronic fatigue syndrome, 150, 154, 156
- Churchill, Winston, 323
- circa-strike defensive behavior (predatory imminence continuum), 30
- Civil War, American, 6
- classical conditioning. See conditioning
- clinical sciences, 12, 171–176. See also interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, and specific treatments and theories
- cultural assumptions of, 173, 174, 175, 198
- indirect vs. direct, 285–287
- interdisciplinary efforts, clinical relevance of, 485
- limitations of, 175
- narration or story, recovery from trauma as form of, 174–176
- oscillation natural to therapeutic process, 281
- person, cultural concepts of, 175, 176
- predator response, neuroscience, possibilities raised by, 31–37
- sociopolitical aspects, 174, 275–276, 279, 287–289
- themes associated with, 15
- therapists' attitudes toward evidence-based treatments, 187–189
- waxing and waning course of chronic PTSD, 172, 194–205
- clonidine, 201, 205
- cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), 172, 181–184. See also exposure therapy; prolonged exposure therapy
- complicating factors in use of, 186–189
- disclosure and silence/avoidance, 281–282
- dissemination of treatment, 184–186
- drug treatment combined with, 186
- etiological issues and problems, 209
- types of, 182
- cognitive development, maternal care, and stress vulnerability, 104–108
- cognitive dysfunction
 - associated with chronic PTSD, 172, 180–181, 183
 - traumatic event, nature of perception of, 209
- cognitive framing of trauma experience, value of, 320
- cognitive processing therapy (CPT), 183
- cognitive restructuring (CR), 183
- cognitive therapy, 182
- collective memory and identity, 13, 267, 285, 288, 295, 297, 398–399, 416. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories
- collective trauma, 282, 284, 295
- combat. See war
- “combat fatigue” and “combat exhaustion,” 145
- comorbidity, 179
 - BSD, 131
 - childhood trauma, stress disorders arising from, 226, 231–232
 - depression, 131, 198, 227, 317
 - exposure therapy, problems of, 319
 - in refugees, 198–200, 203
 - somatic functional syndromes and disorders of mood and affect, 142, 146, 147–149
 - vulnerability to stress and, 315–317
- community-based intervention programs, 15, 173, 174, 185–186
- community counselors, 172, 184–186, 204
- Compassion Fatigue Scale, 345
- compensation, 7, 242, 310–311
- complex PTSD, 173, 224, 227

- COMT (catechol-O-methyl transferase), 109
- conditioned emotional response, 8
- conditioned stimulus (CS)
 defined, 30
 duration of, 50
 extinction learning and, 41, 42, 46, 84
 inhibition with reinforcement, 48
- conditioning, 22–23
 anxiety and, 49–50
 context dependence of, 43, 45, 47
 counterconditioning, 47
 disproportionate fear produced by, 30–32 extinction learning produced by. See extinction learning inhibition, conditioned, 47
 intrusive recall combined with, 217
 as theory of PTSD etiology, 209, 217–218
- Congo, trauma survivors of, 2–3
- Connerton, Paul, 416
- consciousness, 25, 344, 345, 350, 418
- contagion theory of transmission of traumatic memories, 345–346
- context dependence
 amplification of past traumas by subsequent events, 447
 of anxiety, 50–51
 of conditioning, 43, 45, 47
 of different disciplinary approaches to trauma, 478–479
 of extinction learning, 42–47, 54
 of inhibitory processes generally, 48
 multiple contexts of trauma, 461–463
- coping strategies, 16, 224, 463 agency and, 230
 anger, 442–446, 460
 anxiety management, 182
 avoidance, 464
 culturally mediated, 176, 198, 452–471, 476 forgetting, 283–284, 405, 440, 468–470
ngeb, as coping strategy, 418, 422–423, 454 social reintegration, 441
 worry, 32
- corticotropin releasing factor (CRF/CRH), 33–37
 brain, effects of trauma on, 124–125
 developmental origins of stress
 vulnerability, 100
 extinction learning, relapse of, 49, 52
 resiliency as normative, 307
 somatic effects of stress, 151, 154
- cortisol system, effects of trauma on, 22, 33–37, 124–125, 153–154, 156, 307
- counterconditioning, 47
- CPP and extinction learning, 68, 70, 81
- CPT (cognitive processing therapy), 183
- CR (cognitive restructuring), 183
- creativity, 289–290, 477
- credibility of trauma narratives. See under narrative, role of
- CRF/CRH. See corticotropin releasing factor
- cross-fostering studies on developmental origins of stress vulnerability, 102
- crouching or arched-back nursing (ABN) in rat mothers, 99
- CS. See conditioned stimulus
- culture
 clinical approaches, cultural assumptions
 of, 173, 174, 175, 198, 312, 348
 concepts of, 408, 429 coping strategies and, 452–471, 476
 person, cultural concepts of, 175, 176
 religious faith and response to trauma,
 cultural differences in, 262, 266
 stigma associated with mental health treatment, cultural aspects of, 187
- D-cycloserine (DCS), 91
- DaCosta's syndrome, 6
- Damasio, Antonio, 150
- daredevils, 308, 321
- Das, Veena, 419
- Davis, Michael, 49, 80, 91
- DCS (D-cycloserine), 91
- declarative memory, 8. See also memory
- defensive burying paradigm, 100
- definitions, list of, 491–496
- Democratic Kampuchea (DK). See Cambodian refugees and trauma
 survivors
- denial of traumatic events by society, 9
- denial of traumatic events by survivors, 7
- depression
 childhood trauma and, 225, 227 HPA axis and, 53, 154, 317
 memory and, 345, 347, 420
 PTSD and, 131, 180, 198, 200–202, 212, 254, 264, 315, 316, 319
 refugees and, 243, 250, 253, 254, 364
- DESNOS (disorders of extreme stress), 173, 224, 227
- detention of refugees, increasing use of, 374

- developing countries, clinical treatment models for. See ecosocial model
- developmental origins of stress
vulnerability in humans. See also childhood trauma
- anxiety, predisposition to, 53
- critical periods, 232
- explanatory adequacy of animal models, 173, 225–226
- GABA_A receptor system, 103–104
- longitudinal studies, 309–310
- relational issues, problem of capturing, 226
- somatic response to trauma, 144, 151, 158
- developmental origins of stress
vulnerability in rats, 98–110
- ABN (arched-back nursing) or crouching in rat mothers, 99
- attentional systems, maternal programming of, 108–110
- cognitive development and maternal care, 98–99, 100, 104–108, 173
- cross-fostering studies, 102
- direct relationship between maternal behavior and offspring's stress vulnerability, 100
- explanatory adequacy of animal models, 173, 225–226
- extinction learning, neural mechanisms of, 72
- GABA_A receptor system, maternal care affecting, 100–104
- GABAergic system and maternal care, 109
- LG (licking and grooming) behavior in rats, 99, 104, 109
- postnatal handling of rats, effects of, 102
- predation response, 35, 100
- relational issues, problem of capturing, 226
- variations in mother-infant interactions, 99
- developmental systems theory, 482
- developmental trauma disorder, 232–235. See also childhood trauma
- diabetes, 173, 202–203, 227
- diagnosis, sociocultural effects on psychiatric diagnosis over time, 311–313
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders*. See DSM
- diagnostic nosology, 5, 131, 132, 277, 365
- diathesis, 317
- disasters, xix
adaptation to, 48–49 effects of, on PTSD patients, 46 humanitarian, 242, 246–247, 253 natural, 149, 187, 424 psychological debriefing after, 242 society's responses to, 415, 421
- disciplines. See academic disciplines and perspectives; and specific disciplines
- disclosure, role of, 281–282. See also cognitive behavioral therapy; exposure therapy
- discrimination, as resettlement trauma
Israeli racial prejudices regarding Ethiopian Jews, 393–394
trauma narratives, credibility judgments regarding, 369–372, 378
- disorders of extreme stress (DESNOS), 173, 224, 227
- dissociation
childhood trauma and, 229, 235
domestic violence and child sexual abuse, relationship between, 9 hippocampal function and, 128 historical recognition of association with trauma, 145, 215 positive manifestations of, 7 symptoms of, after trauma, 7, 145, 280, 315, 464
- dissociative disorders, 9, 23, 128, 130, 317, 318
- distress vs. eustress*, 308
- distrust and trust, 282–283, 466–468
- divorce or parental loss, GABA_A receptor systems affected by, 103
- DK (Democratic Kampuchea). See Cambodian refugees and trauma survivors
- domestic abuse, 233, 464
- domestic violence, 227, 233, 457, 466
battered women's syndrome, 225
brain, effects of trauma on, 120, 121
recognition of trauma disorders and awareness of, 9 somatic symptoms and, 148, 149–150
statistics regarding, 225
- dopamine, 90, 92, 108–109, 110, 125, 321
- dorsolateral prefrontal cortex, effects of trauma on, 130
- Dössekker, Bruno. See Wilkomirski, Benjamin
- drug and alcohol abuse, 180, 200, 227

- drugs. See also specific types brain, treating effects of trauma on, 119, 121, 123 CBT treatment of PTSD combined with, 186
 extinction learning, 44, 86–91
 prevention of PTSD via, ethical implications of, 486–487
 refugees, clinical treatment of, 205
 DSM (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders) culture and, 312 mood disorders and, 320 psychiatric nosology and, 131
 DSM-III and PTSD, 6, 178, 225
 DSM-IV, 313
 Axis II disorders, comorbid with PTSD, 316
 DESNOS, 224
 field trial, 232
 PTSD, 60, 178, 218, 247, 277, 310, 425
 trauma and, 224, 232, 233, 278
 Dwyer, Leslie, 16, 175, 282, 298
- early development and stress vulnerability. See entries at developmental origins of stress vulnerability
- East Timor, 251–253, 254
- eating patterns
 maternal behavior and offspring's latency to eat food in novel environment, 100 predation response, meal pattern reorganization as, 28
- Eco, Umberto, 378
- ecosocial model, 173, 242–256
 ADAPT (Adaptation and Development after Persecution and Trauma) model, 244–246
 Australian asylum seekers' resettlement trauma, 250–253 diverse impacts and outcomes of trauma, accommodating, 246–247
 early expression and decline of symptoms vs. persistence over time, 243, 249–250, 254–255
 East Timorese, 251–253, 254 intrusive recall and memory problems, 247
 life threat and PTSD, link between, 247
 research findings as to prevalence of PTSD in conflict-affected areas, 243–244
- SOS (survival overdrive state), PTSD as, 244, 248–249
 treatment implications, 255–256
 Vietnamese refugees, 251, 254
- Ehrensaft, Esther, 284
- EMDR (eye movement desensitization and reprocessing), 182, 184
- emotional abuse, 52, 233, 300, 467
- emotional model, inadequacy of fear response as, 225–226
- emotional motor system (EMS)
 biological mechanisms triggering, 151
 conceptualization of somatic responses as outputs of, 142
 factors influencing responsiveness of, 151–153
 historical recognition of involvement of, 146
- emotional processing theory of chronic PTSD, 180–181, 209
- empathy, 25, 288, 322, 371, 440
- EMS. See emotional motor system
- endocannabinoids, 90
- endogenous analgesia. See analgesic response
- epistemological implications of interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, 485
- equilibrium and balance, importance in Cambodian culture, 440, 443–444, 446
- Erichsen, John E., 145
- Eth, Spencer, 313
- ethical implications of interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, 485, 486–487
- Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative, 298, 382–400
aliyot immigration myths and, 399–400 association of journey with Biblical Exodus story, 389–390 attempts at exodus in 1862 and 1977, 382–384 bravery and inner strength, 387–389, 391, 393 ceremonial retellings of, 397–398
 as collective memory, 398–399 cultural code, problems in Israeli society due to, 394 dialogue with Israeli society, as means of, 398, 399–400 experience of Israeli society, as means of filtering, 396

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

Index

505

- Jewish identity, 384–385, 390–391, 393, 395, 398 meaning of journey, challenges to, 298, 395
 as myth, 396
 prejudice against Ethiopians in Israeli society, 393–394 resettlement traumas in Israel, 298, 390–396
 suffering, 385–387, 391, 393
 etiology of trauma disorders, 209–211, 310.
See also recovery, PTSD as disorder of; vulnerability eustress vs. distress, 308 evil, problem of. See religious belief and spirituality after trauma evolutionary biology, 12 evolutionary perspectives. See also predation response and psychopathology adaptive nature of stress responses, 296, 323–324
 anxiety, 49
 continuum model of acute stress response, 320–322
 fear, 49
 hunter-gatherer societies, 305
 normative status of recovery and resiliency, 319, 320–326 sources of resiliency, 322–324
 trauma, 12, 21, 124, 248–249
 vulnerability to stress, 314–318 exile
 Ethiopian Jewish identity and, 382, 383, 384, 397, 400 inadequacy of psychiatric constructs in addressing, 471 Israeli ethos of suffering and, 391
 of refugees, 378
 self-imposed (Balinese ngeb), 454
 Exodus narrative. See also Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative; Moses and Monotheism mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories, 339
 Passover seder, 339, 341
 exposure therapy, 182. See also prolonged exposure therapy childhood trauma, stress disorders arising from, 235
 contraindications, 319
 cultural assumptions of, 198
 disclosure and silence/avoidance, 281–282
 extinction learning and, 42
 refugees, inappropriateness for, 198
 extinction learning, 22–23
 anxiety and. See anxiety behavior therapy and. See behavior therapy combined drug and behavior therapy affecting, 86–91 compared to other forms of inhibition, 47–48 drugs and, 44, 86–91 exposure therapy and, 42 learning, as form of, 80
 as natural phenomenon, 42 neural mechanisms of, 60–64, 73
 amygdala, 61, 70–71
 IL. See infralimbic cortex (IL) and extinction learning implications for treatment of PTSD, 71 molecular function. See molecular mechanisms of extinction learning relationship to other issues, 72–73 testable predictions regarding, 70
 as new learning rather than erasure of original fear response, 42, 54, 60–61, 79
 NMDA receptors
 neural and molecular mechanisms of extinction learning, 80–84, 91
 relapse and renewal effect, 67–70
 PE (prolonged exposure) therapy, advantages and disadvantages of, 172–173
 relapse and renewal effect, 41–54
 anxiety, effects of, 49–53
 context dependence of, 42–47, 54
 neuroscientific basis for, 48–49
 temporally massed vs. temporally spaced, 84–86 eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR), 182, 184 factitious PTSD, 310–311, 346, 358. See also Wilkomirski, Benjamin false memory syndrome, 318. See also Wilkomirski, Benjamin familial transmission. See transgenerational transmission of trauma and stress vulnerability Fanselow, Michael, 14, 21–22, 49, 50, 60, 61 fear response
 anxiety differentiated, 49 conditioning of. See conditioning

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

506

Index

- fear response (cont.)
 defined, 41
 extinction of. See extinction learning human attraction to horror, adaptive nature of, 220
 inadequacy as emotional model, 225–226
 interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts regarding, 476
 intrusive recall, combined with, 217
 to predators. See predation response and psychopathology structure of, 27–30
 as theory of PTSD etiology, 209, 217–218
- fear structures, emotional processing theory, and chronic PTSD, 180–181
- Feuchtwang, Stephan, 357
- fictitious PTSD, 310–311, 346
- Finkelstein, Norman, 357
- flashbacks, 8, 46, 128
- flumazenil, 102
- fluoxetine, 119
- Foa, Edna B., 14, 22, 72, 86, 172, 198, 209, 256, 282, 475
- forgetting, as coping strategy, 283–284, 405, 440, 468–470
- forgiveness, religious conceptualization of, 266
- Foundation for Psychocultural Research (FPR), xxiii, 2, 475
- Frank, Jerome, 395
- Frankl, Victor, 325, 395
- freezing behavior
 neural mechanisms of extinction learning and, 60, 62, 65–66
 predation response and, 30
- Freud, Sigmund, 216, 297, 373. See also Moses and Monotheism
- Freyd, Jessica, 467
- functional (medically unexplained) symptoms, 142
 IBS, 155–158
 self-reported, 147–149
 types of, 146–147
- G-30-S (Gerakan 30 September), 1965–1966.
See Indonesia, trauma discourse in
- GABA_A receptor system, maternal care affecting in humans, 103–104
 in rats, 100–103
- GABAergic system, maternal care affecting,
 109
- Gabrowski, Laura (Laurel Willson), 355
- GAD (glutamic acid decarboxylase), maternal care, and stress
 vulnerability, 109
- Ganzfried, Daniel, 353
- gender differences in triggering events, 225
- general adaptation syndrome (GAS), 146, 305–310
- genocide, 6. See also specific events and locations
- Gerakan 30 September* (G-30-S), 1965–1966.
See Indonesia, trauma discourse in
- Geertz, Clifford, 261
- global warming, xxi
- globalization, 1, 11, 275
- glossary, 491–496
- glutamic acid decarboxylase (GAD),
 maternal care, and stress
 vulnerability, 109
- gobez*, 387
- grief and loss
 early expression and decline of symptoms over time vs. persistence, 215–216
 etiological role of, 211, 219–220
 refugees' co-occurrence of trauma and, 198–200
 religion as means of dealing with, 262–263
- Grosjean. See Wilkomirski, Benjamin
- Guatemalan civil war, 196, 197
- Gulf War (first Persian Gulf War)
 Gulf War Syndrome, 6 Israeli trauma survivors' response to threat of SCUD attacks during, 46
 somatic effects, 146, 147, 150
- Gulf War (Iraq or second Persian Gulf War), 146
- Hacking, Ian, 9, 348, 349
- health care utilization rates
 mental health services, 187
 by PTSD sufferers, 180
 somatic effects of trauma, 149
- heat metaphors in Cambodian culture, 443–444
- Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich, 350
- hermeneutics of suspicion, 358, 373, 377
- Hinton, Alexander, 299
- hippocampus
 anxiety and, 51–52
 cognitive development, maternal care, and stress vulnerability, 104–107
 effects of trauma on, 119–122, 126–128
- Hiroshima survivors (hibakusha), xx

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

Index

507

- historical perspectives on trauma and PTSD development of concept of trauma, 4–12, 118 memory and PTSD syndrome, connection between, 347–349 memory and trauma as keywords of modern academic theory, 349–351 sociocultural aspects of psychiatric diagnosis over, 311–313
 somatic effects of trauma, 145–146
 Holocaust. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories; Moses and Monotheism Eichmann trial and, 342, 351 mimesis and Freud's Moses and Monotheism as template for understanding, 342 origins as discrete event, 351–352 sacralization of, 352 suffering as Israeli ethos and, 391
 survivors of, xx, 120, 325
 transgenerational transmission of trauma of, 399–400, 472
 Wilkomirski memoir. See Wilkomirski, Benjamin Holy Fool, Wilkomirski as, 357–358. See also Wilkomirski, Benjamin host countries, resettlement traumas of refugees in. See under refugees HPA axis. See hypothalamic–pituitary–adrenal (HPA) axis humiliation as source of trauma, 387
 hunter-gatherer societies, 296, 305
 Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, xix, xx hypertension as somatic effect of trauma, 202–203 hypothalamic–pituitary–adrenal (HPA) axis
 anxiety and, 53
 effects of trauma on, 124–125
 etiological issues and problems, 210
 predator response and, 33–37
 resiliency as normative, 307
 somatic syndromes and, 143, 150 historical recognition of involvement of HPA axis, 146
 in IBS patients, 156–157
 hysteria, 6, 145, 311, 358
 IBS (irritable bowel syndrome), 155–158 identity
 childhood trauma and, 230–231, 235–237
 collective, 13, 398–399
 cultural concepts of personhood, 175, 176 Ethiopian Jews, centrality of Jewish identity to. See Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative individualism, 175, 176 Jewish ethos of, 390–391 narrative, construction of self as, 475 religious belief and spirituality after trauma, 263 transnational, 375
 IL. See infralimbic cortex (IL) and extinction learning imagination and refugee trauma narratives. See narrative, role of imipramine, 205 immediate intervention following PTEs (potentially traumatic events), problems of, 242, 300, 318–320
 etiological role of, 211, 219–220
 meaning vs., 284–285
 trust issues and, 466
 Immigration and Refugee Board (IRB), Canada, 366, 369–372 indigenous peoples, transgenerational transmission of trauma among, 10 indirect vs. direct clinical approaches to trauma, 285–287 individualism, cultural concepts of, 175, 176 Indonesia, trauma discourse in, 298, 403–429. See also Bali, trauma discourse in East Timor, 251–253, 254
 integration of different perspectives on trauma via case studies from. See under interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts “Memasak Sejarah” (“Cooking History”) performance, 404 memory and, 416–420, 468–470
 narrative, role of, 420
pecalang, 411
reformasi, 403
 religion and spirituality, role of, 412, 420, 424, 453–455, 460–461 September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks, influence of, 404, 407, 410, 411, 413–414
 sociopolitical aspects of trauma, 405–407, 420–429, 468–470
 Soeharto's New Order regime
 krisis and trauma associated with fall of, 403, 408

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

508

Index

- Indonesia, trauma discourse in (cont.) negation of atrocities by framing of trauma discourse, 407–408, 413–414, 427 public voice for atrocities after fall of, 406, 417
 suppression of memory of atrocities under, 404
trauma as concept and term introduction of, 408–414
krisis center to klinik trauma, switch from, 403
 marginalized populations and, 408, 409 terrorism, association with, 407, 411
- infralimbic cortex (IL) and extinction
 learning, 70–71
 amygdala output neurons and, 66–67
 neuron response during, 64 stimulation, effects of, 65–67
 as structure facilitating, 61–64
- inhibition conditioned, 47 latent, 84
 with reinforcement, 48
- Intercultural Psychiatric Program, Oregon Health & Science University, 194–205. See also refugees
- interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, 12–14, 299, 451, 475–487 case studies in, 451
 Bu Lanny, 459–461
 Joko and family, 455–458
 Pak Nyoman, 452–455
 clinical relevance of, 485 contexts, commitments, and restraints, disciplinary differences in, 478–479
 epistemological implications, 485 ethical implications of, 485, 486–487 fear learning, integrated analysis of, 71–73, 476
 goals and objectives, disciplinary differences in, 479–481
 meaning, role of concept, 266–267 memory and forgetting, 468–470
 multiple contexts of trauma, 461–463
 narrative, integration of analysis of, 475, 482–485
 paradigms and models, disciplinary differences in, 476–478
 pragmatics of, 485
 PTSD diagnosis, implications for, 470–472
- reductionism, 481–482
 temporal structure of response to trauma, 463–466
 trust and distrust, 466–468
- interoceptive cues, 44
- intrusive recall, 42, 216, 217
- Iraq War (second Persian Gulf War), 146
- IRB (Immigration and Refugee Board, Canada), 366, 369–372
- irritable bowel syndrome (IBS), 155–158
 “irritable heart,” 6, 145
- Islam, 263, 265–266
- Israel
aliyot, migration myths of, 399–400
 bravery and inner strength as ethos of, 391, 393
 Ethiopian Jewry in. See Ethiopian Jewish
 exodus narrative
 Jewish identity in Israel, 390–391 racial prejudices against Ethiopians in, 393–394
 suffering as ethos of, 391, 393 trauma survivors of context dependence of extinction learning of, 43, 46 early expression and decline of symptoms over time vs. persistence in, 214
 intrusive recall, nature of, 216 transgenerational transmission of trauma by, 399–400, 472
- Janet, Pierre, 145, 146
- Janoff-Bulman, R., 262
- Japanese quail, sexual conditioning in, 50
- Java. See Indonesia
- Jones, Mary Cover, 78
- Judaism, 263, 265–266. See also anti-Semitism; Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative; Exodus narrative; Holocaust; Israel; Moses and Monothelism
- kapok tree metaphor in Cambodian culture, 445
- Katrina (Hurricane), xix, xx
- Keller, Allen, 313
- Khmer Rouge survivors. See Cambodian refugees and trauma survivors

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More informationIndex

509

- Kinzie, J. David, 14, 23, 42, 46, 172–173, 280, 298, 482, 484
- Kirmayer, Laurence J., 175, 251, 255, 283, 297–298
- Kleinman, Arthur, 13, 422, 471
- van der Kolk, Bessel A., 15, 53, 173, 464
- Konner, Melvin, 16, 266, 296, 462, 478
- Korean War POWs, 120
- !Kung San hunter-gatherers, 296, 303–305
- L-type voltage gated calcium channels (LVGCCs), 83–84
- Lamarckian theory of transmission of traumatic memories, 344
- Laos, trauma survivors of, 3–4
- latency and collective memory, 297, 342–344, 351
- latent inhibition, 84
- learning
 - effects of trauma on, 119–122
 - extinction as form of, 80. See also extinction learning
 - memory and, 7–9
 - survival learning and PTSD as SOS (survival overdrive state), 248–249
- Lebanon War (1982), 43
- LeDoux, Joseph, 62
- Lemelson, Robert, 14, 175, 299, 409, 484
- licking and grooming (LG) behavior in rat mothers, 99, 104, 109
- life threat and PTSD, link between, 247
- Lifton, Betty Jean, 357
- Lifton, Robert J., xix–xxi
- Lindemann, H., 215
- London Blitz, World War II, 323
- long-term memory, extinction learning in, 62
- looping, 348–349
- loss. See grief and loss
- LVGCCs (L-type voltage gated calcium channels), 83–84
- MacFarlane, Jean, 309
- Mächler, Stefan, 353, 356
- magnetic resonance imaging (MRI), 120, 121
- Mahari, Abba, 382
- MAP kinase inhibitors, 81
- maternal care and stress vulnerability. See entries at developmental origins of stress vulnerability
- May, Rollo, 396
- Mayer, Emeran A., 180
- McGill University Transcultural Child Psychiatry Team, 276
- McNally, Richard, 9, 344
- meal pattern reorganization, 28
- Meaney, Michael J., 14, 23, 24, 25, 72, 482
- meaning
 - absurdity vs., 280, 284–285
 - ADAPT (Adaptation and Development after Persecution and Trauma) model, 246
 - cultural systems of, 13
 - as distinctive feature of trauma disorders, 7
 - Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative, 298, 395
 - PTSD symptoms as search for, 266, 324–326
 - in religious belief and spirituality, 174, 260, 266. See also religious belief and spirituality after trauma
 - restructuring as part of healing process, 267–268
 - sociocultural meaning attached to traumatic event, individual response to, 220
 - transformative effects of trauma providing, 174
 - trauma survivors' struggle for, xx–xxi
- Measham, Toby, 15, 16, 174, 260, 262
- media distribution and display of traumatic events, 220
- medial prefrontal cortex (mPFC)
 - developmental aspects of stress vulnerability and, 108–110
 - effect of trauma on functioning of, 125–129
 - IL and extinction learning. See infralimbic cortex and extinction learning
 - somatic symptoms, 151
- medical anthropology, 479, 483, 486
- medically unexplained (functional) symptoms, 142
- IBS, 155–158
- self-reported, 147–149
- types of, 146–147
- medication. See drugs

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

510

Index

- memory. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories
 body memory, 8–9
 collective, 13, 398–399
 declarative, 8, 9, 120–122, 126–127, 297, 343–344
 distortion through elicitation of, 318
 ecosocial model and, 247
 effects of trauma on, 119–122
 extinction learning in short-term and long-term memory, 62 false memory syndrome, 318
 forgetfulness as coping strategy vs., 283–284, 440, 468–470 historical development of PTSD diagnosis and, 347–349 Indonesia, trauma discourse in, 416–420
 intrusive recall, 42, 216, 217
 latency, 297, 342–344, 351
 learning and, 7–9
 as “linchpin” of PTSD, 7
 long-term, 62
 modern academic theory and, 349–351
 politics of, 468–470 recovered memory, 344
 repressed, 318, 346–347 role in trauma disorders, 7–9 short-term, 62
 sociocultural context of, 296
 temporal structure of response to trauma and, 463–466
 transmission of
 Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative, 398–399
 Israeli aliyot, migration myths of, 399–400
- Menninger, W. C., 146
- mental context and relapse of extinction learning, 45
- metabolic mapping, 64
- Miller, Joseph, 399
- mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories, 296, 339. See also Moses and Monotheism; Wilkomirski, Benjamin definition of mimesis, 346–347
 Exodus narrative, 339
 modern academic theory and, 349–351
 origins of Holocaust as discrete event, 351–352
 Passover seder, 339, 341
- psychiatric developments in connection between PTSD and, 347–349
 as template for understanding Holocaust, 342 usefulness of concept, 358
- modernity, trauma’s relationship with, 11
- modulated disclosure, 282
- molecular mechanisms of extinction learning, 67–70
 calcineurin, 81
 common molecules with other forms of learning, 80–81 CPP, 68, 70, 81
 differences between molecules for extinction vs. other types of learning, 81–84
 LVGCCs, 83–84
 MAP kinase inhibitors, 81
 NMDA receptors, 67–70, 80–84, 91
 single stimulus vs. multiple stimuli, 84
- Mollica, Richard, 313
- monoaminergic arousal systems and somatic effects of trauma, 143
- moral implications of interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, 485, 486–487
- Morris water maze, 104–107, 108–110
- Moses and Monotheism* (Freud), 297, 339–340 anti-Semitism, source of, 340, 341 in context of developments in psychiatry and intellectual discourse, 347 Holocaust, as template for understanding, 342 Lamarckian theory and, 344
 latency, 297, 342–344
 myth of, 341
 ritual and, 341–342 Sellin’s influence on, 340
 trauma theory and, 341–342 usefulness of, 358
- mother–infant interaction and stress vulnerability. See entries at developmental origins of stress vulnerability
- MPD (multiple personality disorder), 9, 318, 356
- mPFC. See medial prefrontal cortex
- MRI (magnetic resonance imaging), 120, 121
- multiple personality disorder (MPD), 9, 318, 356
- My Lai massacres, Vietnam War, xx

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More informationIndex

511

- mythic systems
 Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative, 396
 Israeli aliyot, migration myths of, 399–400
 mimesis and, 341. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories
 religion and spirituality, 267, 270, 357
- Nachträglichkeit*, 342, 344, 347
- narrative, role of. See also Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative; Exodus narrative in construction of self, 475 in credibility judgments of traumatized refugees, 297, 363–378 examination context, 369–372 failure of clinician and patient imagination, 363–366, 378
 hermeneutics of suspicion, 373, 377
 IRB (Immigration and Refugee Board) requirements, 366
 PIF (Personal Information Form), role of, 367–369
 in Indonesia, 420
 in interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, 475, 482–485 in recovery from trauma, 174–176
 as research methodology, 475
 temporal structure of response to trauma and, 463–466
- National Center for PTSD, 118
- nesting behavior, protective changes in, 28
- neural correlates of retrieval of emotionally valenced declarative memory, assessment of, 126–128
- neurasthenia, 6, 311, 348
- neuroendocrine stress response, 33–35
- neurohormonal systems, effects of trauma on, 122–125
- neuroimaging studies showing effects of trauma on brain central receptor function in PTSD, 129
 hippocampus alterations, 120
 IBS patients, 157–158
 neural circuitry of PTSD, 126
 paroxetine responses, 121 spectrum group of trauma-related disorders, 131
 yohimbine responses, 123
- neuroscience. See biological sciences
- New Order regime of Soeharto. See under Indonesia, trauma discourse in
- New Orleans hurricane disaster, 2005, xix, xx
- ngeb*, Balinese concept of, 418, 422, 423, 454
- Ngurah Suryawan, 404
- Nigeria, 289
- 9/11.
See September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks
- Nininger, James, 313
- NMDA (N-methyl D-aspartate) receptors
 cognitive development, maternal care, and stress vulnerability, 105–106
 extinction learning
 neural and molecular mechanisms of, 80–84, 91
 relapse and renewal effect, 67–70
- noradrenergic system, 87, 122–123, 151
- norepinephrine release, 122–123
- nosological implications of interdisciplinary integration of trauma concepts, 485
- nosology, diagnostic, 5, 131, 132, 277, 365
- novel object recognition, 84
- novelty, etiological role of, 211, 219–220
- Novick, Peter, 352
- Oppenheim, Hermann, 145
- Oregon Health & Science University Intercultural Psychiatric Program, 194–205. See also refugees
- pain modulation and somatic effects of trauma, 143, 154–155, 157
- Pakistan earthquake, 2005, xix
- panic attacks and GABA_A receptor system, 103–104
- paraventricular nucleus of the hypothalamus (PVN), 33
- Parental Bonding Index, 103
- parental loss or divorce, GABA_A receptor systems affected by, 103
- parietal cortex, effects of trauma on, 130
- paroxetine, 121
- Partai Komunis Indonesia (PKI)
 persecutions (1965–1966). See Indonesia, trauma discourse in
- passive view of survivors of trauma, 447
- Passover seder and transmission of traumatic memories, 339, 341
- Pavlov, Ivan, 60, 70, 78
- Pavlovian or classical conditioning. See conditioning
- PE. See prolonged exposure (PE) therapy

- perception. See entries at cognitive perpetrators of trauma living in same community as survivors, 447, 465
 victim–aggressor dichotomy, problems associated with, 276–278
- Persian Gulf Wars
 Gulf War (first Persian Gulf War)
 Gulf War Syndrome, 6
 Israeli trauma survivors' response to threat of SCUD attacks during, 46 somatic effects, 146, 147, 150
 Iraq War (second Persian Gulf War), 146
- persistence over time, early expression and decline of symptoms vs., 98, 211–216, 243, 249–250, 254–255, 319
- personal growth following trauma. See transformative effects of trauma
- personhood. See identity
- Peru, Shining Path (Sendero Luminoso), 283
- PET (positron emission tomography), 123, 126, 157–158
- pharmacological interventions. See drugs
- physical abuse, 52, 173, 185, 225, 227, 300
- physical anthropology, 295
- physical health, trauma affecting. See somatic effects of trauma
- Piaget, Jean, 230
- Pin Yathay, 446
- PKI (Partai Komunis Indonesia)
 persecutions (1965–1966). See Indonesia, trauma discourse in
- placebo effect and neural mechanisms of extinction learning, 72
- Pol Pot regime, survivors of. See Cambodian refugees and trauma survivors
- politics. See sociopolitical aspects of trauma
- positive effects of trauma. See transformative effects of trauma
- positron emission tomography (PET), 123, 126, 157–158
- post-encounter defensive behavior (predatory imminence continuum), 28
- posterior cingulate, effects of trauma on, 130
- postnatal handling of rats and developmental origins of stress vulnerability, 102
- posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD). See also specific therapies, patient types, theories, etc.
 adaptive vs. maladaptive nature of, 31, 37, 220
 amygdala and, 71
 animal models, advantages and limitations of, 25, 158–159, 173, 225–226
 cognitive dysfunction associated with, 172, 180–181, 183
 complex PTSD, 173, 224, 227
 course and outcome, 98, 211–216, 243, 249–250, 254–255, 319
 defined, 178–179
 depression and, 131, 180, 198, 200–202, 212, 254, 315, 317, 319
 DESNOS, 173, 224, 227
 diabetes and hypertension and, 173, 202–203, 227
 diagnosis, sociopolitical aspects of, 92, 310–311, 420–429 diagnostic construct of, 1–2, 6–7, 15, 92, 118, 347–349, 461 diagnostic criteria, 310
 domestic violence and child abuse awareness, role in recognition of, 9 etiology, dependence of PTSD diagnosis on, 209–211, 310 external events, as part of PTSD criteria, 310
 extinction learning and, 41–42, 71, 92
 factitious, 310–311, 346, 358
 fictitious, 346
 gender differences in triggering events, 225
 health care utilization and, 180
 historical development of concept, 6–7, 347–349
 limitations of diagnosis in describing experience, 2–4 meaning, symptoms as search for, 266, 324–326 patient acceptance of diagnosis, 310–311 prevalence of, after trauma, 98, 179–180, 320 prevention via drugs, ethical implications of, 486–487
 somatic symptoms and, 146, 149–150
 as SOS (survival overdrive state), 244, 248–249
 symptoms, 31
 transgenerational transmission, 10, 11
 triggering events, 178, 207
 twin studies, 120, 147, 218, 315

Index

513

- Vietnam War, in context of, 6, 118, 121, 179, 225, 242, 311, 315, 470
- potentially traumatic events (PTEs), problems of immediate intervention following, 242, 300, 318–320
- POWs. See prisoners of war
- PPI (prepulse inhibition), 108
- pre-encounter defensive behavior (predatory imminence continuum), 28
- predation response and psychopathology, 27–37
- adaptive vs. maladaptive responses, 31, 37
- in adulthood, 35
- clinical possibilities raised by, 31–37
- conditioning to induce, 30–32
- in early development, 35, 100
- neuroendocrine stress response, 33–35
- structure of normal fear response and predatory imminence continuum, 27–30
- threat imminence continuum mirroring predatory imminence continuum, 35
- preferred activity pattern (predatory imminence continuum), 28
- prejudice
- Israeli racial prejudices regarding Ethiopian Jews, 393–394
- trauma narratives, credibility judgments regarding, 369–372, 378
- prepulse inhibition (PPI), 108
- prevention of PTSD via drugs, ethical implications of, 486–487
- prisoners of war (POWs)
- brain, effects of trauma on, 120
- somatic effects, 149–150
- procedural learning and memory, 9
- prolonged exposure (PE) therapy
- advantages and disadvantages of, 172–173
- complicating factors in use of, 186–189
- dissemination of treatment, 184–186
- drug treatment combined with, 186
- myths regarding, 188–189
- research review, 182–184
- propranolol, 87
- Protocols of the Elders of Zion*, 378
- Psalmanazar, George, 356
- psychiatric approaches. See clinical sciences
- psychiatric nosology, 5, 131, 132, 277, 365, 462
- psycho-neuro-anatomical explanatory model, 210
- psychological anthropology, 295, 483
- psychotic symptoms in highly traumatized refugees, 199
- PTEs (potentially traumatic events), problems of immediate intervention following, 242, 300, 318–320
- PTSD. See posttraumatic stress disorder
- PVN (paraventricular nucleus of the hypothalamus), 33
- Quirk, Gregory, 14, 23, 41, 42, 79, 81, 209, 487
- racial prejudice, as resettlement trauma
- Israeli racial prejudices regarding Ethiopian Jews, 393–394
- trauma narratives, credibility judgments regarding, 369–372, 378
- “railway spine syndrome,” 145, 343
- rape
- brain, effects of trauma on, 121
- early expression and decline of symptoms over time vs. persistence, 214
- Ethiopian Jewish exodus narratives, 386, 387, 389
- refugees, clinical treatment of, 195–196
- sociopolitical aspects of, 289
- somatic symptoms and, 148, 149–150
- statistics regarding, 225
- rape trauma syndrome, 225
- Rau, Vinuta, 14, 21–22, 49, 50, 60, 61
- reactivity
- magnitude of reaction to trauma as indicator for likelihood of development of PTSD, 98, 209
- memory’s influence on, 9
- reconciliation projects, 406, 428
- recovery, PTSD as disorder of, 173, 207–220
- early expression and decline of symptoms over time vs. persistence, 98, 211–216, 243, 249–250, 254–255, 319
- etiological theories, issues and problems of, 209–211
- fear conditioning
- combined with intrusive recall, 217
- as theory of PTSD etiology, 209, 217–218
- intrusive recall, 216, 217
- mechanisms of, 219–220
- normative status of recovery, 319
- novelty, incongruity, and loss, etiological roles of, 211, 219–220

- recovery, PTSD as disorder of (cont.) severity of trauma, 209–211 startle response, progressive acquisition
 of, 218–219
 trauma as causal event, problem of, 207 vulnerability factors, problems associated with, 207–209
- recovery, spontaneous
 counterconditioning, 47
 extinction learning, 44
- Redana, Bre, 403
- reductionism, advantages and limitations
 of, 24, 481–482
- Reeve, Christopher, 309
- reexperiencing criteria, 41
- refugees, 172, 194–205. See also specific countries of origin and host countries case studies, 195–197
 clinical course of trauma disorders, 200–202
 co-occurrence of trauma and loss, 198–200
 comorbidity, 198–200, 203
 complexity and prolonged nature of trauma exposure, 197–198 credibility of. See under narrative, role of
 defined, 367–369
 detention, increasing use of, 374
 diabetes and hypertension and, 202
 drug agents used in treating, 205 ecosocial model for treatment of. See
 ecosocial model
 exposure therapy, inappropriateness of, 198 guidelines for treatment of, 203–205
 long-term treatment needs of, 201 research findings as to prevalence of PTSD in, 243–244
 resettlement in host countries, 197
 amplification of past traumas by
 subsequent events, 447
 detention, increasing use of, 374
 discrimination, as resettlement trauma
 ecosocial model and, 250–253
 Ethiopian Jews in Israel, 298, 390–394, 396 Israeli racial prejudices regarding Ethiopian Jews, 393–394
 trauma narratives, credibility judgments regarding, 369–372, 378
 transformative effects of trauma and, 281, 286 transnational identity of, 375
 waxing and waning course of chronic PTSD, 172, 194–205
- reinstatement
 counterconditioning, 47
 extinction learning, 46
 hippocampus involved with, 51
- reintegration as coping strategy in Cambodian culture, 441
- relapse and renewal effect
 counterconditioning, 47
 extinction learning, 41–54
 anxiety, effects of, 49–53
 context dependence of, 42–47, 54
 neuroscientific basis for, 48–49
 refugees, waxing and waning of chronic
 PTSD in, 200
- relational problems and childhood trauma, 226, 228–229
- relaxation training, 182, 183, 184
- religious belief and spirituality after trauma, 173, 259–272. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories
- ADAPT (Adaptation and Development after Persecution and Trauma)
 model, 244
- Buddhist belief and coping strategies, 440, 441, 442, 444–446, 460–461
- Cambodian refugees and trauma
 survivors, 264–265
 Buddhist beliefs, 440, 441, 442, 444–446
 demonology, 446
 rituals and healers, use of, 441
- case studies, 264–265, 270–271
 collapse of belief system, 264
 cultural differences in, 262, 266
 extinction learning, neural mechanisms
 of, 72
 forgiveness, conceptualization of, 266 healing and restructuring following
 trauma, 267–268
 in Indonesia, 412, 420, 424, 453–455, 460–461
 meaning, search for, 174, 260, 266
 moral crisis engendered by trauma, 262–267
 mythic systems, 267, 270
 psychiatry and religion, 260 purpose and function of religious belief, 260–262

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

Index

515

- questions raised by traumatic event, 173 ritual, role of, 263, 269 suffering, conceptualization of, 265 therapeutic relationship, role of, 268–272 traditional healers, use of, 441, 454 renewal effect. See relapse and renewal effect reorganization of preferred activity pattern, 28 repressed memories, 318, 346–347. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories
 research methodologies
 brain, effects of trauma on, 132
 narrative and, 475
 neuroscience and biology generally, 24–25
 reductionism, advantages and limitations of, 481–482 resettlement of refugees. See under refugees residential school syndrome, 11 resilience, 278, 296, 303–304, 305–310 adaptation and, 305–308, 322–323
 collective, 7, 10
 early life experiences and, 15, 23, 302, 309
 failure of recognition by clinicians, 175
 longitudinal studies, 308–310, 317
 meaning and, 220, 284, 469
 narrative, role of, 476
 normative status of, 60, 278, 296, 300, 308, 309–310, 319, 320–326 political violence and, 10, 452–461 relevance of concept for PTSD prevention, 320, 326
 religion and spirituality, 271, 460–461
 sources of, 15, 296, 320, 322, 452–471
 stress and, 309
 trauma resulting in, 278, 469
 responsibility for traumatic events, xxi Ricoeur, P., 287
 risk takers, 308, 321
 Rita (Hurricane), xix, xx ritual, role of, 263, 269. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories; religious belief and spirituality after trauma
 Rousseau, Cécile, 15, 16, 174, 260, 262, 371
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 391
 rugged individualism, 175
 Rwanda, 284
 Safe Third Country Agreement, U.S.–Canada, 375
 Samuel, Raphael, 396
 Santa, Wayan, 425–426
 Santikarma, Degung, 16, 175, 282, 298, 403, 420 sender and transmission of traumatic memories, 339, 341 selective serotonergic reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs), 186, 205, 319 Sellin, Ernst, 340
 Selye, Hans, 301, 308
Sendero Luminoso (Shining Path), Peru, 283 sensation seekers, 308, 321
 September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks, xx adaptive nature of general response to, 324 Balinese nightclub bombings (2002) and, 404, 410, 411, 413–414 context dependence of extinction learning and, 46
 early expression and decline of symptoms over time vs. persistence, 214 massive mental health crisis, evidence of resiliency instead of, 313–314 PTSD symptoms in geographically distant witnesses to, 220, 427 refugee restrictions in wake of, 375 refugees affected by, 200–201 serotonin/norepinephrine reuptake inhibitors (SNRIs), 319
 sertraline (SRT), 186
 sexual trauma, somatic symptoms of, 148, 149–150. See also childhood trauma; domestic violence; rape Shalev, Arieh Y., 7, 15, 42, 98, 173, 175, 243, 247, 462 shell shock, 6, 145, 311, 348
 Shining Path (Sendero Luminoso), Peru, 283
Shoah. See Holocaust
 short-term memory, extinction learning in, 62
 silence/avoidance/withdrawal avoidance behavior, 12, 14, 41, 423
 as Cambodian coping strategy, 441, 445 cultural variability as to what constitutes, 423 disclosure vs., 281–282
 forgetfulness as coping strategy, 283–284, 440, 468–470
 ngeb, Indonesian concept of, 418, 422, 423, 454

- Silove, Derrick, 15, 173
- SNRIs (serotonin/norepinephrine reuptake inhibitors), 319
- SNS (sympathetic nervous system), 143, 153, 305
- social reintegration as coping strategy in Cambodian culture, 441
- social sciences. See anthropology; culture
- sociopolitical aspects of trauma
- in Indonesia, 405–407, 420–429, 468–470
 - memory, 468–470
 - PTSD diagnosis, 420–429
 - resettlement trauma experienced by refugees, 377
 - transformative effects of trauma and, 174, 275–276, 279, 287–289
 - violence, sociopolitical understanding of, 275–276, 279, 377, 447
- Soeharto regime. See under Indonesia, trauma discourse in
- “soldier’s heart” or “irritable heart,” 6, 145
- Somalia
- refugees from, 195–196, 197, 203
 - U.S. veterans with service in, 311
- somatic effects of trauma, 24, 142–159
- animal models of enhanced vulnerability, 158–159
 - ANS responses, 143, 153
 - biological mechanisms triggering, 151
 - historical recognition of involvement of, 146
 - in IBS patients, 156
 - biological mechanisms of, 150–151
 - brain, effects of trauma on, 157–158
 - Cambodian culture and, 443–444, 446
 - comorbidity with disorders of mood and affect, 142, 146, 149–150
 - developmental origins of vulnerability to, 144, 151, 158
- EMS
- biological mechanisms triggering, 151
 - conceptualization of somatic responses as outputs of, 142
 - factors influencing responsiveness of, 151–153
 - historical recognition of involvement of, 146
- functional (medically unexplained) symptoms, 142
- IBS, 155–158
 - self-reported, 147–149
 - types of, 146–147
- health care utilization rates, 149
- historical development of concept of trauma, 4–12
- historical incidence of, 145–146
- HPA axis responses, 143, 150
- historical recognition of involvement of, 146
 - in IBS patients, 156–157
- IBS, 155–158
- monoaminergic arousal systems, alterations in, 143
- pain modulation, alterations in, 143, 154–155, 157
- PTSD and, 146, 149–150
- SNS, 143, 153
- triggers for development of, 142, 147–149, 151–153
- vulnerability factors, 143–145, 151, 158–159
- SOS (survival overdrive state), PTSD as, 244, 248–249
- South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC), 428
- species-specific defense reactions (SSDRs), 27, 60
- spider fear and relapse of extinction learning, 45
- spirituality. See religious belief and spirituality after trauma
- spontaneous recovery
- counterconditioning, 47
 - extinction learning, 44
- SRT (sertraline), 186
- SSDRs (species-specific defense reactions), 27, 60
- SSRIs (selective serotonergic reuptake inhibitors), 186, 205, 319
- startle response, 30, 60, 100, 218–219
- stigma associated with mental health treatment, 187, 310–311, 409
- story. See narrative, role of
- stress generally. See trauma
- stress response
- adaptive nature of, 296, 323–324
 - continuum model of acute stress response, 320–322
 - GAS and resilience, 305–310
 - immediate intervention following PTEs, problems of, 242, 300, 318–320
- stretched-approach behavior, 28
- Stroop task, 127, 129
- subsequent events, amplification of past traumas by, 447, 465
- substance abuse, 180, 200, 227

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More informationIndex

517

- Sudan, Ethiopian Jews in, 382–389
suffering
 Cambodian culture
 importance of expressing empathy for suffering in, 440 meaning of anger and suffering in, 442–446
 Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative
 failure of some Israelis to recognize suffering in, 393 suffering as part of Israeli ethos, 391
 as theme of, 385–387
 as Israeli ethos, 391
 religious conceptualization of, 265 trauma survivors' sense of unacknowledged suffering, 393
- sulpiride, 90
- survival override state (SOS), PTSD as, 244, 248–249
- survivors of trauma. See also specific events and locations ambivalence toward society, clinician's representation of, 287–288
 amplification of past traumas by subsequent events, 447, 465 clinical features of PTSD not main focus of, 2–4 context dependence, renewal effect, and relapse, 42–47
 early expression and decline of symptoms vs. persistence over time, 98, 211–216, 243, 249–250, 254–255, 319
 living in same community as perpetrators, 447, 465 meaning, struggle for, xx–xxi passive view of, 447 percentage developing PTSD, 98
 refugee. See refugees unacknowledged suffering, sense of, 393
 victim–aggressor dichotomy, problems associated with, 276–278
- suspicion, hermeneutics of, 358, 373, 377
- sympathetic nervous system (SNS), 143, 153, 305
- symptom provocation, 128–129
- Thompson, Paul, 396
- threat imminence continuum, 32
- thrill seekers, 308, 321
- time
 context dependence of extinction learning and passage of, 44
- CS (conditional stimulus), duration of, 50 early expression and decline of symptoms vs. persistence over, 98, 211–216, 243, 249–250, 254–255, 319 extinction learning, temporally massed vs. temporally spaced training for, 84–86 response to trauma, temporal structure of, 463–466
- Totem and Taboo* (Freud), 344
- Transcultural Child Psychiatry Team, McGill University, 276
- transformative effects of trauma, 174, 275–291. See also Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative agency and creativity, encouraging, 289–290
 ambivalence toward society, clinician's representation of, 287–288
 case studies, 285–287, 289
 community programs outside the clinic providing space for, 285 disclosure vs. silence/avoidance, 281–282 health–disability dichotomy, problems associated with, 279–280 indirect vs. direct clinical approaches, 285–287 meaning vs. absurdity, 280, 284–285 memory vs. forgetfulness, 283–284 pathology, problem of construction of trauma solely as, 278–279 religious belief and, 263
 sociopolitical considerations, 174, 275–276, 279, 287–289 therapeutic process, oscillation in, 281 trust vs. distrust, 282–283
 victim–aggressor dichotomy, problems associated with, 276–278
- transgenerational transmission of trauma and stress vulnerability, 6, 10–11. See also entries at developmental origins of stress vulnerability; mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories
- childhood trauma, stress disorders arising from, 228
- in Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative, 398–399 evidence for, 98
 in Israel, 399–400, 472
 postnatal handling of rats, 102
- transmission of memory. See also mimesis, myth, ritual, and transmission of traumatic memories

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More information

518

Index

- transmission of memory (cont.)
 Ethiopian Jewish exodus narrative, 398–400
 Israeli aliyot, migration myths of, 399–400
 transnationality, 375
 trauma. See also more specific entries, e.g.
 survivors of trauma broad use of term, usefulness of, 11
 as cause of PTSD, 178, 207 continuum model of response to, 320–322
 distress vs. eustress, 308
 etymology of term, 5
 historical development of concept, 4–12, 118 interdisciplinary approach to, 12–14
 medicalization, of, 4 modernity, relationship with, 11 narrative, role of. See narrative, role of passivity as result of, 447 reification of current limited knowledge base, 279 scholarly study of, 349–351 severity of, 209–211
 spectrum of trauma-related disorders, 131
 trauma counseling industry, 242
 TRC (Truth and Reconciliation Commission), South Africa, 428 trkBcAMKII-CRE mice, 105–106
 trust and distrust, 280, 281, 282–283, 463, 466
 Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC), South Africa, 428 Tucker, Donald, 228
- unconditioned stimulus (US)
 defined, 30
 extinction learning and, 41, 46
 Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 375
 US. See unconditioned stimulus
- Vaillant, George, 309 verbal abuse, 149, 387
 veterans. See war victims of trauma. See survivors of trauma Vietnam War
 brain, effects of trauma on, 121, 128
 Cambodia affected by, 435 meaning, PTSD symptoms as search for, 324
 My Lai massacres, xx
 PTSD in context of, 6, 118, 121, 179, 225, 242, 311, 470 resiliency, circumstances affecting, 323
 somatic effects, 146, 147, 149–150
 Vietnamese refugees, 203, 251, 254. See also refugees
- violence
 Buddhist belief and, 445
 sociopolitical considerations of, 275–276, 279, 377, 447 trauma as psychiatric keyword for experience and aftermath of, 1
 victim–aggressor dichotomy, problems associated with, 276–278
- vulnerability. See also entries at developmental origins of stress vulnerability affective disorders and, 144 anxiety disorders and, 98
 clinical relevance of concept, 207–209, 323, 326 comorbidity and, 315–317
 complications in determining, 315–317, 371
 dissociative symptoms and, 464
 early life experiences and, 10, 15, 22–23, 98–99, 100–103, 110, 143, 144–158, 159
 evolutionary perspectives on, 314–318
 genetics and, 315, 316
 neurobiology and, 103–104, 210
 organismic abnormalities, 49 problematic aspects of concept of, 207–209
 reactivity
 magnitude of reaction to trauma as indicator for likelihood of development of PTSD, 98, 209
 memory’s influence on, 9
 self-concept of, as result of trauma, 262
 sociocultural context and, 255, 311, 323
 somatic symptoms, 143–145, 151, 158–159
 sources of, 52, 110, 144–158, 159, 255, 311, 319, 320–322, 345
 to stress, 314–318
- Waddell, Jaylyn, 22, 60, 70, 79, 247, 249, 254, 464
- war. See also specific wars compensation benefits and veteran acceptance of PTSD diagnosis, 310–311 diabetes and hypertension in American veterans, 203 historical development of trauma concept and, 5–6, 145–146

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-85428-3 - Understanding Trauma: Integrating Biological, Clinical, and Cultural Perspectives

Edited by Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson and Mark Barad

Index

More informationIndex

519

- POWs
 brain, effects of trauma on, 120
 somatic effects, 149–150
 prevention of PTSD via drugs, ethical implications of, 486–487 relationship of combat exposure to PTSD symptoms, 315
- Wilkomirski, Benjamin (Bruno Dössekker)
 anti-Semitism of, 356 chronology of memories of, 353–355
 as Holy Fool, 357–358
 as impostor and charlatan, 355–356
 interpretations of, 355–356
 publication of Holocaust memoir by, 352 questions about and investigations into, 353
- Williams, Raymond, 349
- Willson, Laurel (Laura Gabrowski), 355 withdrawal. See
 silence/avoidance/withdrawal
- Wolpe, Joseph, 78 workers' compensation benefits, 311
- World War I, 6, 145, 348
 World War II, xx, 120, 145, 309, 323, 325. See also Holocaust
- Yadin, Elna, 14, 22–23, 72, 86, 172
 Yimsut, Ronnie, 447
 yohimbine, 87, 123, 129
 Yom Kippur War (1973) and relapse of extinction learning, 43
- Young, Allan, 7, 296, 422, 447, 463, 464, 469
- Zertal, Idith, 352