

Index

- absolute alone, 51
 absolute freedom and spirit, 339–47 absolute Idea
   and abstract universality, 11–12
   expressed as spirit, 16
   and God and divine cognition form, 13
   and immediacy of being, 12
   and science, 10–11
   as subject, 14–15
 absolute knowing, 454–67
 absolute power
   in self-consciousness, 115–16
   understanding, 20–21
 abstract universality. See also thinking and absolute Idea, 11–12
   in art-religion, 404–11
   and construction, 31–32
   and God and divine cognition form, 13
   of pleasure, 211–13
   and science, 469
 action. See also movement actuality of consciousness, 177 of concept moment in Enlightenment, 329–30
   ethical, 258, 267–77
   and fate, 272–77
   and guilt, 270–72
   and knowledge, 268–70
   moral, 367–68, 371–73
 actuality
   and absolute knowing, 462–67
   of art-religion, 401–04
   and cultural formation, 284–306
   and individuality, 235–36
   as manifestation of the outer, 198
   moral, 355, 385–89
   of natural religion, 394–96 religious influence in, 391–94
   of spirit, 253–63
   and way of the world, 220–21
 actualization
   of faith in the Enlightenment, 324–27
   of rational self-consciousness, 203–09 alienated spirit. See cultural formation animal kingdom
   natural religion in, 397–98 spirit in, 228–36
 appearance
   and force, 87–95
   in inverted supersensible world, 95–97 law of, 92–95
 Aristotle, xxix, xlii, 14, 44–45
 art-religion
   abstract shapes in, 404–11
   actuality of, 401–04
   living work of, 412–15
   spiritual work of, 415–28 beauty
   in art-religion, 426–27
   and strength, 419
   true spirit and, xxxiii
 being for others
   and absolute knowing, 456
   and morality, 369–70
   in revealed religion, 441
 being of life and self-consciousness, 110–11
 being-for-itself
   and absolute knowing, 456, 457–58
   and consciousness, 55–57, 131–32
   and cultural formation, 288–90
   force, 83–85
   and freedom of self-consciousness, 117–18
   and individuality, 226–28
   and materialized thinking, 36–38
   and morality, 369
   in natural religion, 399–401
   in observation of nature, 154, 168–69
   and perception, 77–79
   in phrenology, 195–96, 198
   and pleasure, 211–13

- and self-consciousness, 111–14
- and spiritual substance, 16
- in way of the world, 225–26
- being-in-and-for-itself
  - and absolute freedom and terror, 339–40
  - of truth in the Enlightenment, 325
- being-in-itself
  - and cultural formation, 285–90
  - and individuality, 226–28
  - in phrenology, 195–96, 198
  - and pleasure, 211–13
- brain. See skull
- certainty
  - in pure insight, 318–20
  - in revealed religion, 429
  - of spirit and morality, 347–48
- character, 268–69
- clever argumentation
  - and materialized thinking, 36–38
  - and speculation, 39–40
- cognition. See also knowledge
  - absolute, 13
  - coming-to-be of, 26
  - and familiarity, 20
  - mistrust of, 49
  - and phrenology, 199
  - and speculation, 39–40
  - types of, 49–51
- commands (ethical), 243–46
- compassion, 420, 425
- comprehension, 72–73, 74. See also understanding
- conceit. See self-conceit
- concepts
  - and consciousness, 22
  - and magnitude, 27–28
  - natural consciousness, 52–53
  - in observation, 150–52, 160–62, 202–03
  - as only way to universality of knowing, 43–44
  - and philosophical truth, 6
  - in revealed religion, 433
  - and science, 33–34
  - and universal principles and points of view, 21–22
- conscience and morality, 365–89
- consciousness. See also sensuous-certainty
  - consciousness
  - and absolute knowing, 454–56
  - and appearance, 87–93
  - and concepts, 22
  - experience of, 57–59
  - and force, 81–87
  - and immediate existence of spirit, 22–23
  - and the intelligibility of science, 9–10
  - moral, 359–60
  - and perception, 68–79
  - in revealed religion, 432–36
  - and science, 16–17
  - threefold union in, 126–35
  - and truth, 54
  - unconditional-universal, 79
- consumption
  - in consciousness, 129–35
  - cult, 410–11, 413
  - in the Enlightenment, 323–24, 331
  - governmental, 299
  - in individuality, 288
  - and judgment, 290–91
  - and negative, 113
- content
  - and absolute knowing, 465–66
  - and logic, 35–36
  - in revealed religion, 449–51
- contradiction
  - between the law of the heart and individuality, 213–17
  - in cultural formation, 294, 300–06
  - moral, 363, 386–88
  - in self-consciousness, 123
- crux of the matter
  - and cultural formation, 287–88
  - in faith and pure insight, 308–09
  - and individuality, 236–42
  - in morality, 370–71
- cult
  - in art-religion, 409–11
  - consumption, 410–11, 413
  - living work of, 412–15
- cultural education
  - taking the individual into science, 18
  - and universal principles and points of view, 5
- cultural formation
  - and absolute freedom and terror, 345–47
  - in art-religion, 407–08
  - and realm of actuality, 284–306
  - and representational thought, 21–22
  - spiritual substance of, 281–83
  - world of, 284
- death
  - and family ethics, 260–61
  - and the life of spirit, 20, 202–03
  - as natural negation of consciousness, 112
  - observing, 200–03
  - in revealed religion, 448–49
- deception. See also crux of the matter
- demos*, 426
- description in observation of nature, 144–45 desire, 210–11

 despotism, 315
 determinate duties, 352–54, 362–64 determinate individuality, 178–79, 228–34 determinate negation, 33–34, 53 determinate simplicity
   and perception, 68–70, 75–76
   in revealed religion, 437–38
   testing laws with, 247–48 and understanding, 35
 determinate thinking
   and self-consciousness, 118–20
   and skepticism, 120–21
 determinateness
   of faith in the Enlightenment, 324–25
   moral, 373–77
   in observation of nature, 146–47
   and philosophical truth, 28–29
   of property, 71–73
 dialectical movement
   and consciousness, 57
   proof in, 41
   and skepticism, 121–23
 Diderot, Denis, 304
 dissemblance
   crux of the matter, 367–68
   spirit and morality, 356–65
 dogmatism of assurance and science, 266–67 doing. See action duty
   determinate, 352–54, 362–64
   moral, 362–63, 371–73
   and morality, 369, 370

 edification and philosophical truth, 6–8 Enlightenment, the spirit and, 313–14
   and superstition, 314–33
   truth of, 333–39
 equality
   and cultural formation, 290
   of faith in the Enlightenment, 327–28
   and mathematical truth, 28
   moral, 383
 essence
   in the Enlightenment, 321–24, 333–35
   natural religious, 396–97
   and self-consciousness, 250–52
   of spirit, 253–55
 essentiality
   in observation of nature, 151–52
   and reason, 139
 ethical life
   action in, 267–77
   in art-religion, 401–04

and divine law, 261–62
 and family relations, 263–67 and human law, 256–61
 and law-giving reason, 242–46
 legality in an, 251–52, 277–81
 and reason, 206–08
 and true spirit, 256
Every one ought to speak the truth (command), 244–45
 evil
   as falsehood, 24
   individual, 273
   in revealed religion, 441–48
   radical, xxxiii
 experience
   of consciousness, 57–59
   and perception, 71–73, 76
   and spiritual substance, 22
   and the unhappy consciousness, 125 external purpose. See also purpose
   and mathematical truth, 27
   in observation of nature, 152–54

 faith
   moments during the Enlightenment, 321–24
   in revealed religion, 433
   unsatisfied in the Enlightenment, 331–33 and world of cultural formation, 284 false. See also negative and the essential determinations of philosophical truth, 28–29
     and truth in science, 23–24 familiarity and cognition, 20
   of representational thought, 20–21
   and representational thought, 20–21
 family
   in art-religion, 426
   ethics of, 258–67
 fate
   and action, 272–77
   in art-religion, 427–28
 flattery
   heroism of, 296–303
   language of, 301–02
 force
   and appearance, 87–95
   in art-religion, 412–13
   being-for-itself and solicited, 83–85 itself, 165–67, 179
   mediating middle play of, 86–87
   and self-sufficiency, 81–82 simple difference in, 89 stability of, 82–83
   and supersensible world, 95–101

- freedom
 of self-consciousness, 117–18
 and spirit, 339–47
- gender and ethics, 263–67
- gods
 represented as subject, 14–15 in spiritual work of art-religion, 415–28
- Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 304
- good
 in art-religion, 426–27
 in revealed religion, 441–48
 spirit and morality, 358–59
 and virtue, 222–26
- government
 and absolute freedom and terror, 343–44
 in cultural formation, 293–94
 in ethical world, 261–62
- guilt, 270–72
- happiness, 361–62
- Here (in sensuous-certainty consciousness), 62, 64
- heroes, 415–28
- history
 and absolute knowing, 466–67
 and truth, 25
- honest consciousness
 and crux of the matter, 237–39
 in testing laws, 249
- human law
 and ethical life, 256–61
 and family ethics, 266–67
- hypocrisy, 381–85
- Idea and Nous, 35
- immediate being
 and absolute Idea, 12
 in revealed religion, 432–36, 441
- immediate unity, 106
- individuality
 and active consciousness, 176–79 actuality and consciousness, 128–30
 being-in-itself, 19
 and contradiction with law of the heart, 213–17
 and crux of the matter, 236–42
 and cultural formation, 285
 in the Enlightenment, 325
 in family, 258–59
 and law-giving reason, 242–46
 and physiognomy, 179–90
 and reason, 226–28
 and self-consciousness actualization, 205–06
 and the spiritual kingdom of animals, 228–36 in unhappy consciousness, 124–26
- individuality's law, 177
- inequality
 action, 365, 385–86
 in consciousness, 23–24, 248, 381–83
 and cultural formation, 290–91
 ethical, 273
 in self-equality, 266–67
 and spirit, 291–300
 standard, 55
- infinity, 97–100
- inorganic nature, 151, 169–70, 200–01
- intuition
 consciousness, 462, 464
 and construction, 31–32
 organic nature, 173
 self-consciousness, 211, 378–79
 self-sufficient, 115
 sensuous, 27
 as thinking, 13
- inversion
 in cultural formation, 302–03
 in self-certainty, 105–06, 266–67
 supersensible world, 95–97
- irritability in nature observation, 157–60
- itself force
 and being, 179
 in observation of nature, 165–67
- judgment
 and cultural formation, 291–92
 moral, 382–86
 in philosophical prefaces, 4–5
- knowledge. See also cognition
 absolute, 454–67
 coming to be of, 468–69
 as coming-to-be of science, 18
 in the Enlightenment, 330–46
 and familiarity, 20
 human and divine ethical, 268–70
 and morality, 368–69, 385–89
 and natural consciousness, 52–53 of philosophy itself, 5–6 scientific system of, 15–16
 sensuous, 31–32
- language
 in art-religion, 406–09
 in cultural formation, 294–95, 303–04
 moral, 376–77
 and physiognomy, 188–89
- laws
 and appearance in the supersensible world, 89–91
 and ethical life, 256–61

- laws (cont.)
 of force, 88–89
 of the heart, 213–17
 in observation of nature, 148–52
 in observation of self-consciousness, 174–79
 of physiognomy, 186–88
 and reason, 242–52
 in supersensible world, 89–91
 laws of thought. See logical laws legality
 in an ethical life, 277–81
 in revealed religion, 429–31
 life essential to self-consciousness, 113
 and reason, 173
 liver. See phrenology logic
 and knowing content, 35–36 and the movement of spirit, 23 logical laws, 174–77
Love thy neighbor as thyself (command), 245
 luminous essence (natural religion), 396–97 magnitude
 and concepts, 27–28
 in observation of nature, 168–69
 materialized thinking, 37–39 mathematical truth and external purpose, 26, 27 and space and mathematical units, 27–28 and time, 28
 matter
 in the Enlightenment, 335–36
 as universal being, 150
 mediation
 and absolute cognition, 13
 and individuality, 229–31
 language as, 296
 morality and spirit, 352
 in observation of nature, 154–59
 and physiognomy, 183–85
 in self-consciousness, 113, 132–35
 and simple coming-to-be, 14
 and spiritual substance, 16
 moment
 and absolute knowing, 456–57
 in observation of nature, 156, 158–59
 in revealed religion, 439–40
 and scientific organization, 33–34 monarch power, 296–97
 morality
 and absolute knowing, 456
 and conscience, 365–89
 and dissemblance, 356–65 religion of, 389
 and spirit, 348–56
 movement. See also action
 cult, 409–11
 dialectical, 41, 57, 121–23 in the Here and Now, 65–67
 natural consciousness, 52–53
 natural drive, 206–08
 natural philosophy, 42–43 natural phrenology, 197 natural religion. See also religion
 actuality of, 394–96
 luminous essence of, 396–97 plants and animals, 397–98 spirit as artisan, 399–401 negative. See also false
 determinate, 53
 and determinate simplicity, 33–34
 and the first principle of philosophy, 15–16
 as inequality between the I and the object, 23
 in observation of nature, 170–72
 between pure insight and intention, 316–18
 and self-certainty, 106
 and self-consciousness actualization, 209 nervous system, 190
 noble consciousness and being-in/for-itself, 288–91
 in cultural formation, 298–99
Now, 35
 Now (sensuous-certainty consciousness), 62–68
 object
 perception of, 71
 in sensuous-certainty consciousness, 61, 106 observation
 concepts, 150–52, 160–62, 202–03
 death, 200–03
 and phrenology, 199–203
 reason, 142–44
 of self-consciousness, 153–54, 174–79
 spirit, 201
 observation of nature
 being-for-itself, 154, 168–69
 description in, 144–45
 determinateness, 146–47
 essentiality, 151–52
 external purpose, 152–54
 irritability, 157–60
 itself force, 165–67
 laws, 148–52
 magnitude, 168–69

- mediation, 154–59
- moment, 156, 158–59
- negative, 170–72
- purpose, 152–54
- qualitative analysis, 159–60
- reflectedness, 163–65
- representational thought, 163
- reproduction, 158–60
- sensibility, 156–60
- sensuous perceiving, 145–49
- shapes, 161–62
- simplicity of reason, 150–51
- sublimation, 168–69
- universality, 144–45, 147–49, 163, 171–74
- oracle
  - as aspect of light, 421–22
  - language of, 406–09
- organ and physiognomy, 340
- organic nature, 151, 154–59, 200
- organic properties, 156
- other-worldly beyond consciousness, 328–30
- outer is an expression of the inner, 197–99
- perception
  - and consciousness of One, 75
  - determinate simplicity in, 68–70, 75–76
  - diverse aspects of, 73–74
  - and experience, 71–73, 76
  - of objects, 71
  - sensuous, 68, 70, 77–79, 145–49
- philosophical literature, 39–40
- philosophical truth
  - and absolute Idea, 13
  - aims of prefaces, 4–5
  - and concepts, 6
  - and dogmatism, 25
  - and edification, 6–8
  - and essential determinations, 28–29
  - first principle of, 15–16
  - as form of science, 5–6
  - hindered by widely accepted truths, 41–42
  - and logic, 23
  - and materialized thinking, 39
  - historical instructions and, 3–4
  - and reflection, 14
  - as a result, not an end, 13
  - and science, 468
  - as union of historical and mathematical cognition, 26
- phrenology, 190–203
- physiognomy, 179–90
- pleasure, 209–13
- polity. See government
- power
  - absolute, 20–21, 115–16
  - of excellence, 33
  - of monarch, 296–97
- prefaces
  - comparing other philosophical treatises in, 4–5
  - not pertinent to philosophical truth, 3–4
- priesthood, 315
- proof
  - in the dialectical movement, 41
  - in mathematical truth, 25–27, 28
  - and self-certainty, 129
- psychological laws, 177–79
- pure category and reason, 139–40
- pure consciousness, 126–28, 140–42
- pure insight
  - in cultural formation, 306–13
  - and the Enlightenment, 313–20
- purpose. See also external purpose and being-for-itself, 200
  - and conscience, 367
  - of faith and pure insight, 312–13
  - of family, 258–67
  - and the law of the heart, 213–17
  - in observation of nature, 152–54
  - of pure insight in the Enlightenment, 323–24
  - and reason, 14
  - and science, 18
  - and self-consciousness, 226–28
- qualitative analysis, 159–60
- rationality
  - in art-religion, 426–27
  - and determinate simplicity, 35
  - and knowledge, 9–10
  - and self-consciousness actualization, 203–09
- reality and reason, 139–40
- reason
  - certainty and truth in, 136–42
  - and individuality, 226–28
  - law-giving, 242–46
  - observing, 142–44
  - and phrenology, 190–203
  - and physiognomy, 179–90
  - and purpose, 14
  - and self-consciousness, 174–79
  - and self-consciousness actualization, 203–09
  - testing laws, 246–52
  - and virtue in way of the world, 219–26
- recognition in self-consciousness, 110
- reflectedness
  - in observation of nature, 163–65
  - and philosophical truth, 14

- religion. See also natural religion; revealed religion
 and absolute knowing, 458–59
 and faith, 308
 and morality, 378–79
 revealed, 428–51
 and spirit, 388–94
 report and construction, 31–32
 representational thought
 and absolute knowing, 459, 461–62
 as analysis of familiarity, 20–21
 in art-religion, 424
 and cultural formation, 21–22
 familiarity of, 19–20
 and materialized thinking, 36–38
 in observation of nature, 163
 in revealed religion, 431, 436–40
 reproduction, 158–60
 result individuality as, 228 philosophical truth as, 13 revealed religion. See also religion
 and absolute knowing, 454–67
 certainty in, 429
 consciousness in, 432–36 creating a world, 441
 good and evil in, 441–48 in religious community, 446–51
 representational thought, 436–40
 self as absolute essence in, 428–29 spirit having two aspects in, 431–32
 truth in, 436
 unhappy consciousness, 429–30
- sacrifice
 cult, 410–11
 and faith, 331
- science
 and absolute Idea, 10–11
 and absolute knowing, 461, 466
 and abstract universality, 469 being subject to reproach, 10
 coming-to-be of, 18
 and concepts, 33–34
 and consciousness, 9–10
 and cultural education, 18–19
 and determinate simplicity, 33–34
 and the dogmatism of assurance, 266–67
 and edification, 8
 and immediate existence of spirit, 22
 method of, 29–30, 36–38 and the movement of pure essentialities, 22 philosophy as form of, 5–6 requiring self-consciousness, 16–17 and surface appearance, 51–52
- as system for knowing, 15–16 and triplicity, 30–31
 and truth or false, 23–25
- scientific method and the dialectical movement, 41 emerging new experience in, 57–58 and mathematics, 29–30
 and the philosophical proposition, 36–40 testing the reality of cognition, 54–57
- self-certainty
 being for themselves, 105 and life cycle, 104–05
 and reason, 137–38
 and self-consciousness, 102–03
 and skepticism, 121–22
 stability in living things, 105–06, 266–67
- self-conceit, 217–19
- self-consciousness
 and absolute knowing, 456–57
 and being-for/in-itself, 226–28 being-for-itself and freedom of, 117–18
 in cultural formation, 298–99
 in The Enlightenment, 320
 and family ethics, 258–67
 moral, 356, 379–81
 and non-self-sufficiency, 113–14
 in observation of nature, 153–54
 and phrenology, 190–203
 and physiognomy, 179–90
 and reason, 136–37, 174–79
 and religion, 389–91
 in revealed religion, 431–32, 446–47
 and self-sufficiency, 110–12
 and skepticism, 120–23
 and stoicism, 118–20
 in supersensible world, 100–01
 truth of, 114–16
 and the truth of self-certainty, 102–08
 twofold sense of, 108–10
- self-consciousness actualization
 and the law of the heart, 213–17 pleasure and necessity, 209–13
 and reason, 203–09
 and self-conceit, 217–19
 and virtue, 221–24
 and way of the world, 219–21, 224–26
- self-equality
 in supersensible world, 97–99
 and thinking, 266–67
- self-sufficiency
 and force, 81–82
 self-consciousness, 110–12
- senses
 and coming-to-be of knowledge, 18 philosophy goal to save mankind from, 7–8

- sensibility in nature observation, 156–60 sensuous-certainty consciousness. See also
 consciousness
 characterizing, 67–68
 immediacy of, 60–61
 mediation through the I, 61 movement in the Here and Now in, 64–67
 truth in, 106
 twofold shape of its being, 61–62
 universality in, 106
- servitude, 113–15
- shadow-boxing, 222–23
- shapes
 of consciousness, 457–60
 in natural religion, 399–401
 in observation of nature, 161–62
- simplicity
 determinate, 33–34
 in force, 91–92
 in the growth of spirit, 9, 23 of reason in nature observation, 150–51 reflection and truth having, 14
- skepticism and self-consciousness, 120–23
- skull
 and brain, 190–95
 bump in, 196–98
- solicited force, 83–85
- speculation and argumentation, 39–40
- speech. See language
- spirit
 absolute expressed as, 16
 and absolute freedom and terror, 339–47
 and absolute knowing, 454–67
 animal kingdom, 228–36
 artisan, 399–401
 bodily nature of, 189–90
 and the cultural formation of the individual, 18–19
 essence of, 253–55
 immediate existence of, 22 keeping philosophy focused on, 7–8 new epoch in, 8
 observing, 201
 only as great as its expression, 8
 and self-consciousness, 107
 and terror, 344–47
 and universal principles and points of view, 21–22
- spirit and cultural formation faith and pure insight, 306–13 substance of, 281–352
 world of, 284
- spirit and morality
 certainty of, 347–48
 conscience in, 365–89
- dissemblance, 356–65
 and ethical life, 256
 and religion, 388–94
 worldview, 348–56
- spirit and The Enlightenment and insight, 313–14
 superstition in, 314–33
 truth of, 333–39
- spiritual substance
 and mediation, 16
 as transfigured essentiality, 16
- standard in scientific method, 54–58
- state power. See government
- stoicism
 and personality, 278–79
 and self-consciousness, 118–20
- stubbornness, 117
- subject and absolute, 14–15
- sublimation
 moral, 387–88
 in observation of nature, 168–69
 of self-consciousness, 109
- subterfuge in phrenology, 198
- suffering, 272
- supersensible world
 contradiction in, 97–101 inverted version of, 95–97 law of appearance in, 92–95 law of force in, 88–89
 other-worldly beyond of, 87–88 realm of laws in, 89–91 religion in, 388–89
- synthetic labor, 401
- terror
 being-in-and-for-itself, 339–40
 and spirit, 344–47
 and universality, 340–43
- thinking. See also abstract universality
 and absolute freedom and terror, 344
 determinate, 118–21, 266–67
 as manifestation of the inner, 198 materialized, 37–39
 and morality, 364–65
 in revealed religion, 438–39
- thoughts
 and cultural formation, 287–88
 Stoic, 306–07
- triplicity, 30–31
- truth
 and absolute knowing, 460
 and consciousness, 54, 55
 everyone should speak, 244–45 hindering philosophy, 41–42
 in revealed religion, 436

truth (cont.)

- mathematical, 27–28
  - and reason, 136–38
  - moral, 377–78
  - and self-certainty, 102–08
  - of self-consciousness, 114–16
- unconditional universal consciousness, 79
- understanding. See also comprehension and determinate simplicity, 35
 and force, 81–87
 in supersensible world, 97–99
- unhappy consciousness
 as learning experience, 125 and pure consciousness, 126–28 rendering its being-for-itself, 201–02
 in revealed religion, 438
 singular individuality in, 124–25
- unity
 and absolute knowing, 464
 in art-religion, 414–15
 in cultural formation, 295–379
 reflected, 106
 and the truth of self-certainty, 106–08
- universal attraction, 90
- universal beneficence, 298–99
- universal difference in force, 89
- universal humanity, 415–21
- universal medium, 73
- universality
 and absolute freedom and terror, 340–43

- and absolute knowing, 456–57
  - aspects of, 218–19
  - determinate properties in perception, 70
  - in morality, 371–72
  - in observation of nature, 144–45, 147–49, 163, 171–74
  - and predicate, 39
  - in revealed religion, 431–32
  - sensuous, 77–79
  - in sensuous-certainty consciousness, 66–67, 106
- usefulness
 in the Enlightenment, 337–38
 of truth in The Enlightenment, 325–27
- utility. See usefulness
- vanity
 in cultural formation, 305–06
 in The Enlightenment, 338–39
- virtue
 and self-consciousness actualization, 206, 209
 in the way of the world, 219–26
- vulgarity, 7–8
- way of the world
 moral, 357
 and spirit, 348–56
 virtue and reason in, 219–26
- wealth in cultural formation, 299–301
- will, 340–41