

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

Index

- Abstract justification
  - as a way to cope with indeterminacy, 335ff
  - limits of arguments from, 368ff
  - must be stable under full justification, 336
  - must be robust, 39ff
  - not sufficiently fine-grained, 42
  - requirements for successful argument from abstraction, 335
  - stability of, 42, 335
- Agency, 63, 105, 158, 235, 304–5, 317–8, 335–8, 341–57, 366, 391, 482, 507, 554
  - and autarchy, 347
  - and coercive interference, 352
  - and freedom of conscience, 354
  - and freedom, 340
  - and natural personhood, 338
  - and presumption in favor of liberty, 345
  - and resources, 357ff
  - and welfare, 357ff
  - as basis of claims to positive rights, 358
  - as the grounds for rights, 368, 431f
  - claims of under full justification, 360ff
  - claims of, 335ff
  - conditions that undermine, 348
  - distinguished from personal autonomy, 339ff
  - free agency and moral agency, 361
  - interferences with constitute harms, 357
  - rights of as abstract principles, 350
  - rights of not essentially jurisdictional, 385
  - rights to freedom stable under full justification, 360
  - aggregation procedures, 328ff
- Alexander, Jason, 443
- Alexander, Larry, 132–9, 145
- altruism, 111–2, 187
- Anand, Paul, 159
- Anderson, Scott, 350
- Anomaly, Jonathan, 145
- Argyle, Michael, 70
- Arrow, Kenneth, 326–9
- Arrow's theorem, 327ff, 388, 391
- Arthur, W. Brian, 399
- Assurance Game, 96–9, 103, 313.
  - See also* Stag Hunt.

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

592

Index

- Audi, Robert, 233, 246–8, 250, 274, 287, 499
- Aumann, Robert, 117, 308
- Austin, J.L., 8
- autarky, 346ff
- authoritarian, 32–4, 46, 264, 389, 414, 452
- and liberty of the ancients, 387
  - and positive freedom, 35–6
  - distinguished from justified authority, 30
  - to be universally condemned, 433
  - trendsetting, 442
- authority. See also moral authority, political authority.
- claims to must be interrogated, 548
  - de jure, 163–4, 426, 463, 471, 546
  - mutual, 171
  - of the state, 449ff
- Axelrod, Robert, 87–8
- Baier, Kurt, 3–6, 53, 177–86, 224, 228, 232, 275, 294–8, 302, 315, 318, 389–90, 424–5, 434, 439–41, 443, 449, 537
- on social morality, 4ff
  - on the costs of morality, 6
  - on distinction between true and absolute morality, 180
  - on finality condition, 298
  - on goods we share, 537
  - on improvements in morality, 439
  - on moral rules for the good of all, 302
  - on requirement that moral rules must order competing claims, 297ff
  - on the inadequacy of simple distinction between moral universalism and relativism, 434
  - on when moralization is appropriate, 441–3
- Baier-Strawson View, 5–6, 130, 178–81, 414, 449
- bargaining, 42–9, 276, 323, 330–2, 406, 458, 497, 505–6, 542–4
- Baron, Jonathan, 408, 489–90
- Barry, Brian, 316, 331
- Baseline View, 486–7
- Basic Principle of Public Justification, 263–7, 400
- Becker, Lawrence C., 375
- Belief, 35, 54, 58, 62, 141, 167, 171, 207, 217, 219, 240–9, 278, 282, 289
- flaw with pure externalist justifications of, 234
  - idea of a maximally coherent set, 241
  - importance of initial belief sets for determining rationality, 239
- Benn, Stanley I., 31, 35, 69, 125, 142–3, 153–4, 159, 161, 192, 209, 222, 285, 304, 337–49, 382, 384, 498, 499–500, 528
- advocates presumption against coercion, 528
  - his conception of autarchy, 347
  - on agents as causal forces, 341
  - on distinction between deontological and consequentialist reasoning, 142ff
  - on positive freedom, 32
  - on prescriptive categorization, 125
  - on privacy, 382
  - on rule-value tradeoffs, 153ff
  - on the pebble splitter, 344ff
- Berlin, Isaiah, 33–5, 224, 279, 551–2
- Berman, Robert, 17
- Berthoz, Alain, 189
- Bicchieri, Cristina, 99, 103, 119–20, 165–73, 190, 271, 436, 438, 442
- Bickel, Alexander, 271
- Binmore, Ken, 21, 88, 331, 404
- Blackorby, Charles 326
- Blackstone, William, 413

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

593

- blame, 6, 193–202, 216, 219, 222, 236, 251, 283, 315, 320, 382
- BonJour, Lawrence, 240
- Borda count, 328, 392
- Bosanquet, Bernard, 31, 33–4, 36, 481
- Bowles, Samuel, 105, 108, 109
- Boyd, Robert, 28, 45, 90, 94, 105, 108–11, 118, 131, 419, 424, 437, 438, 442
- Bradley, F.H., 34
- Braine, Martin, 244
- Braithwaite, R.B., 331
- Brandt, Nicola, 518
- Bratman, Michael, 86
- Brink, David, 552–3
- Broome, John, 70
- Brower, Gordon H., 188
- Brown, Ted F., 523
- Brutus, Lucius Junius, 153–6, 285
- Buchanan, James, 458–9, 496, 529, 540–2
- burdens of justification, 373, 376, 386, 388, 525
- Buridan's ass, 306–8, 394
- Burniaux, Jean-Marc, 518
- Bury, Chris, 414
- Caplan, Bryan, 453–4
- Carlyle, Thomas, 23–4
- Ceccoli J., 364, 366
- Chaldeans, 91–5, 268
- Chang, Ruth, 372
- Chapman, John W., 385
- Chavez, Alex, 120
- cheater detection, 113, 127, 129–31, 202, 272
- Cheng, Patricia W., 129
- Cherniak, Christopher, 241, 273
- children, 45, 93, 123–4, 127–8, 156, 172, 202–3, 208, 211–3, 220, 296, 433, 553
- ability to distinguish moral from conventional rules, 124
- ability to understand rules, 123
- as moral philosophers, 256
- knowing rules as purely informational, 203
- moral emotions towards, 208ff
- Nichols on moral judgments of, 212
- older children as competent moral agents, 217
- on teaching moral innovations to, 440
- provide justifications, 205
- punishment of, 213
- recognition of harm rules, 358, 362, 368
- teaching oppressive rules to, 435
- the development of guilt in, 202
- young children not characterized by moral autonomy, 210
- Christiano, Thomas, 462, 464, 468–9, 485–6, 542
- Christman, John, 381
- Church, Jennifer, 32
- Cialdini, R., 442
- classical liberalism, 31, 504, 508–11, 521ff, 526ff
- Coase, R.M., 380, 530
- coercion, 125, 346, 349, 351, 463–8, 497–9, 526–7, 536, 546, 554.
- See also* punishment
- abstract right against, not a goal to minimize, 484–50
- all acts of must be justified, 491ff
- always a dangerous instrument, 533, 546
- and justified political authority, 462
- and laissez-faire, 504
- and legal threats against the person, 481
- and taxation, 522–5
- and the limits of the liberal state, 497
- as an interference with agency, 352

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

594

Index

- as controversial concept, 350, 479
- as making options less eligible, 499ff
- as presupposing norms, 351
- claim that justified coercion is not itself bad, 482, 528
- classical liberal suspicion about, 506
- degrees of, 497ff, 506ff
- distinguishing marginal from net costs of, 501ff
- modeling costs of, 500ff
- modeling disagreements about, 503ff
- ordinary reasoners not
  - consequentialist about, 489
- presumption against, 485ff
- Rawls' claim that all political power exercises coercion, 490
- renders salient a member of the eligible set, 465ff
- state policies without authority
  - may require excessive coercion, 534
- transnational, 478
- would be high under real market socialist systems, 528
- Cohen, G.A., 176
- Cohen, Joshua, 362
- coherence, 239ff
- commensuration, 150ff
- Common Good, 137, 147, 161, 224, 228, 301–2, 314–8, 323, 332, 362, 370, 427, 432
- Comparative Procedural
  - Justification Principle, 450–5.
- consent, 265, 349, 403
- consequentialism, 150, 157–9, 489
- considered judgments, 174
- Constant, Benjamin, 334–5, 373–4, 377, 387, 452–3
- consumer's surplus, 405–6
- consumption rationality, 144
- conventions, 313, 410, 436, 477
  - and moral equilibrium, 441
- as source of moral authority, 461
- in a world with many
  - oppressive regimes, 478
- solving mixed motive games, 533
- unjustified may still be
  - enforced, 464
- convergence reasoning, 42, 114, 118, 165
- Cooper, William S. 244
- cooperation, 53–6, 72–9, 87–109, 209, 266, 306, 472
  - and collective rationality, 105
  - and common rules, 112ff
  - and indirect reciprocity, 107
  - and punishment, 111–2, 129
  - and social reasoning, 129
  - best explanation tied to rule following, 147
  - evolution of, 104ff
- Copp, David, 272
- copying the successful, 443
- copyright, 476, 509
- correlated agent, 116
- Cosmides, Leda, 128–9, 173
- cost-benefit analysis, 538ff
- Courtland, Shane, 353
- cultural relativism, 46, 128
- Cummins, Denise Dellarosa, 122–3, 126–7, 170–73
- Cushman, Fiery, 201, 213, 216, 219
- D'Agostino, Fred, 37, 150, 226–7, 265, 285, 312, 329, 336, 372, 392
- Dagger, Richard, 460
- Dancy, Jonathan, 271
- Darwall, Stephen, 1, 9, 17–8, 186–7, 191–3, 224–5, 318–9
  - as advocate of Expansive View, 18
  - claim that moral relations cannot be reduced to instrumental, 193
  - on dignity, 19, 318
  - on moral emotions as demands, 191

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

595

- on second-person standpoint, 225
- on the authority of morality, 10
- Darwin, Charles, 418–9
- Davis, Morton D., 398
- Dawes, Christopher T., 122
- decision theory, 151, 158, 393
- deductive closure, 238, 240, 274
- defeaters, 245–51, 255, 274, 367, 290, 363, 366, 482–3
- defectors, 106–12
- deliberative democracy, 387
- Deliberative Model, Chap. 5, 259, 264ff, 277, 281, 301, 354, 425
  - and mutual intelligibility, 280
  - and Pareto principle, 324
  - as device of justification, 265
  - as modest, 325ff
  - as way to interpret abstract rights, 391
- constraints in imposed by you and me, 281
- description of as iterative procedure, 282
- disagreement about
  - specification of rights in, 369
- does not involve bargaining, 276
- evaluative disagreement in, 310
- formal constraints on proposals in, 294ff
- indeterminacy of rankings in, 303ff
- models different levels of reasoning, 277
- must model different views of the costs of coercion, 506
- not a device for revealing moral truth or criterion of right and wrong, 276
- proper understanding of
  - sincerity in, 292
- proposals must be in
  - Kohlbergian equilibrium, 301
- provides basis for strong publicity, 297
- Rawls' early model, 270
- role of proposals in, 293ff
- the inappropriateness of holistic reasoning in, 273ff
- two perspectives in, 265, 293
- Deliberative Public Justification Principle, 27–9, 46, 266–67, 326. See also Public Justification.
- Democracy, 44, 287, 329, 355, 361, 387, 451–4, 477, 486–7, 537, 542–4
  - and policy, 542
  - bicameral, 454, 459
  - can move towards or away from moral equilibrium, 457
  - comprises eligible set of adjudicative systems, 451
  - current systems violate justificatory independence requirements, 496ff
  - first theorem of, 451ff
  - justification of is path dependent, 455
  - majoritarian and consensual, 454
  - no one system uniquely justified, 454
- denying authority to a moral rule, 313ff
- deontic reasoning, 102, 122–31, 142, 159, 170–2, 550. See also rule-based reasoning.
  - and reciprocity, 170
  - and respect for persons, 145
  - as actual moral reasoning, 102
  - as based on respect for persons, 143
  - humans excel at it, 126
  - represented by utility function, 160
  - social nature of, 128
- desert, 200–1, 363–65
- desire, 33, 59–67, 121, 144, 151, 217–9
- difference principle, 444, 517
- Diggs, B.J., 137
- dignity, 18–22, 26, 318, 323, 460

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

596

Index

- Discriminating Rule Followers, 107
- distributive justice, 363, 368, 409, 444–5, 527
- domain specific reasoning, 128–9
- dominance reasoning, 64, 73–4, 104
- dominant strategies, 71–2, 75–7, 106, 532, 545
- Donaldson, David, 326
- Draco, 483
- Dworkin, Ronald, 265, 339, 365, 467, 485
- Easygoing Cooperators, 108–12
- Eberle, Christopher, 21, 230
- egalitarianism, 367, 517, 521–2, 526–7, 545, 549
- Ekman, Paul, 206
- Eliasz, Kfir, 307–8
- eligible set, 47, 322, 327–33, 370, 391–99, 407–12, 426, 439, 453, 491–5, 511, 548. See also optimal eligible set.
- and Lockean justice, 450
- as constraint on acceptable constitutions, 494
- as defining set of rules with possible moral authority, 407
- claim that perfectionism may be in eligible set, 492
- claim that the most libertarian Member of the Public determines it, 501
- excludes socialism, 512
- in politics distorted by separating expenditure and revenue bills, 496
- moral rules within it but not optimal, 439
- not a singleton in Rawls' early formulations, 527
- of laws, 497ff
- rules outside of are not publicly justified, 325
- selection from partly a matter of chance and power, 418
- selection from via coercion, 465ff
- social choice to be made from, 402
- social eligible set defined, 321ff
- social rules outside of may still be enforced, 464
- stable rules outside of, 435
- titled towards classical liberalism, 505
- trendsetters who select from may still fail to treat others as equals, 442
- two stages in determining, 322ff
- which decisions rules are best for uncovering, 459
- will not be null concerning basic rights of agency, 370
- Ellsworth, Phoebe, 206
- Elster, Jon, 61, 387
- emotions, 22, 119, 146, 170, 185–9, 203–7, 211, 224, 232, 323. See also New Sentimentalists.
- and action tendencies, 189
- and moral autonomy, 205ff
- and rule following, 146
- appropriateness, 205, 255
- as essential to positive morality, 172
- embedded in our social practices, 192
- free floating, 189ff
- not appropriate toward those incapable of autonomy, 283
- show that reasons have engaged one, 190
- two features of, 188ff
- undermining of, 208–10
- Engelmann, Dirk, 91
- Epstein, Richard A., 539
- equilibrium, 47–8, 71, 88–9, 103, 117, 282, 398, 411–5, 548, 555
- and folk theorem for repeated games, 88
- and self-policing contracts, 89

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

597

- as solution to the problem of mutual authority, 48
- can always be achieved through punishment, 438
- evolutionary stable, 116
- moral, chap. 7, 390
- non-optimal yet moral, 439ff
- on property, 118
- polymorphic, 398
- problems of changing from oppressive to moral, 437
- Eskimo, 45
- Estlund, David, 226–8, 444, 452
- evaluative diversity/pluralism, 41, 279, 310, 325, 336–8, 342, 361, 376, 381, 392, 430, 464
  - and instrumentalism, 56
  - and jurisdictional rights, 373
  - and tilt towards classical liberalism, 526
- as applied to aggregation procedures, 329
- characterizes Member of the Public, 43, 279ff, 310ff
- coping with requires private property, 509
- elimination of in determinate models, 393
- not simply about private ends, 43
- evaluative standards, 276ff
- defined, 278
- distinguished from unrestricted set of values, 531
- must be mutually intelligible, 79ff
- evolution, 29, 67, 76, 87, 90–7, 103–18, 131–2, 147, 244, 256, 398, 409–24, 438, 442, 451, 533
  - and care for social rules, 147
  - and interpretation of rules as correlated equilibrium, 113ff
  - biological-cultural, 105
  - can explain what instrumental rationality cannot, 187
  - not a respecter of modular reasoning, 104
  - of punishers, 112
  - of rule following, 107
  - of social morality, 409ff
- evolutionary stable strategy, 106, 110, 116
- Ewin, R.E., 11, 428
- Expansive View of freedom and equality, 18ff, 298, 319
- expected utility, 55, 58, 73, 82, 84, 149
- expressivism, 57
- externalities, 530
- fairness, 17, 22, 119–20, 146, 170, 175, 270, 297, 324, 331, 354, 378, 445, 451–3, 511, 515, 519–20, 539
  - and moral equilibrium, 403
  - and the influence of unjustified power in the shaping of our morality, 416
  - as constraint in public justification, 505
  - in selecting from the eligible set, 451
  - norms of in small scale societies, 474
- Falk, Armin, 120–1, 160, 556
- false consciousness, 364
- Fehr, Ernst, 105, 119–22, 141
- Feinberg, Joel, 474, 499, 524, 528
- Ferguson, Adam, 44, 418
- Fichte, Johann Gottlieb, 193
- Fiddick, Laurence, 123, 128–9, 170, 172
- Filmer, Robert, 23, 403
- first-person point of perspective/view, 13–4, 20, 225ff, 232, 279
  - as authoritarian, 230
  - as denying moral equality, 22
  - as grounds for disputing presumption in favor of liberty, 343
  - as the root of philosophical anarchism, 462ff
  - decentering of, 226

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

598

Index

- Fischbacher, Urs, 91, 119, 121, 141, 160
- Fishkin, James S., 214, 216
- Fitelson, Branden, 127
- Flanagan, Owen, 216
- Foley, Richard 245
- folk theorem, 87–90, 95, 185
- Forgas, Joseph P., 188
- formal constraints on principles on moral rules, 294ff
- Fowler, James H., 122
- free and equal persons, 2ff, 18, 24, 27, 30, 39–46, 48, 55, 160–3, 174–5, 181–4, 223, 258, 332, 336, 402, 434–5, 477, 527, 546
- a moral order among, 3ff
- and decent hierarchical societies, 432
- and increasing returns of shared morality, 398
- and moral equilibrium, 401
- and non-Western societies, 431
- and publicity condition, 297
- and sincerity, 291
- and testing from the moral point of view, 425
- and the public justification of moral demands, 278
- as endogenous to our morality, 223, 263
- as requiring consent to authority, 403
- as universal conception, 433
- gravity of failing to treat others as, 443
- implies that blameless liberty is the default, 319
- modeled by Members of the Public, 282
- moral authority among, 15ff, 223
- not a conception possessed by psychopaths, 463
- reject pervasiveness of moral authority, 321
- freedom/liberty. See also presumption in favor of liberty. and agency, 341ff
and democracy, 451ff and protective parameter, 441 as a no-duty not to, 316 as embedded in system of rules, 317 as the default in justification, 319ff economic, 515 limited by coercion, 499 of association, 384 of social agents, 402 of speech, 271, 354–5, 368–70 of thought, 353–4, 361, 391, 452 right to, 349ff
- Free-standing justification, 39, 42ff
- Freeman, Samuel, 296–7, 512
- Freiman, Christopher, 363
- Freud, Sigmund, 32, 61, 189, 205–7, 219–20, 236, 315–6, 347 on fantastic reasons, 219 on incomprehensible emotions, 207ff on taboos, 205
- Fridja, Nico H., 189
- friendship, 192–9
- Friesen, Wallace V., 206
- full justification, 42–3, 336–7, 360–2, 367–8 and the rejection of basic principles of distributive justice, 521 of abstract rights, 359ff
- Fuller, Lon, 295–6
- Gächter, Simon, 119, 122
- Gaertner, Wulf, 32
- Ganghof, Steffen, 487
- Gat, Azar, 235
- Gauthier, David, 4, 6, 10, 31, 53–8, 72, 76–86, 100–1, 104, 107, 135, 158, 193, 315, 380
and Ex Post Guaranteed Better Life Test, 84

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

599

- as instrumentalist, 7, 53, 58
- as proposing moral theory for adults, 55
- as proposing instrumentalist justification of social morality, 54
- Ex Ante Rationality Test, 83–4
- his use of bargaining theory, 330
- instrumental rationality as effectiveness, 78
- No Assurance Would Have Been Better Test, 82
- on crisis of social morality, 54, 101
- on Harvesting Dilemma, 77, 107
- on morality and the Prisoners' Dilemma, 72
- on morality as a constraint, 32ff
- on rejecting modular rationality, 135
- on seeking to bootstrap rule-following, 104
- on the consistency of intentions and actions, 79ff
- on the function of morality, 5
- revisionist account of instrumental rationality, 76ff
- Geertz, Clifford, 338, 342
- generality, 294–6
- Generalized Rule Followers, 109–10
- genocide, 199, 233–4
- Gert, Bernard, 173, 233, 243, 271, 296
- Gewirth, Alan, 345–6, 350–3, 357–60, 362
  - advocates human right to relief from starvation, 359
  - advocates presumption against coercion, 528
  - his Principle of Generic Consistency, 346
  - on claims to positive rights, 358
  - on the right to freedom, 349
- Gibbard, Alan, 165, 205, 552
- Gilbert, Margaret, 8–9, 241, 402–3, 460
- Gill, Michael, 338, 552, 556
- Ginsberg, Morris, 418
- Gintis, Herbert, 105–9, 115–8, 412
- global justice, 470ff
- Goffman, Erving, 337
- Goldman, Alan, 135, 139–42, 157–9, 239, 553
- Gray, John, 374, 386
- Great Society, 268, 430, 471, 475
- Green, Leslie, 460
- Green, T.H., 31, 163–4, 224, 348–9, 427–9, 448–50, 462, 533
  - claim that social contract theory leaves out the social source of moral rules, 449ff
  - on further functions of the state, 529
  - on positive freedom, 32
- Greenawalt, Kent, 286
- Greene, Joshua D., 146
- Grey, Thomas, 375–7
- Griswold v. Connecticut*, 415
- group selection, 110–1, 118, 202ff, 419
- guilt, 6, 33, 146, 203–5, 212, 218, 221, 231, 263, 302, 315, 320, and positive freedom, 33ff and psychopaths, 209 and rule internalization, 202ff and superego, 33 as constraint, 33 not appropriate towards taboo violation, 204
- Gwartney, James D., 514–6, 520, 557–8
- Habermas, Jürgen, 387
- Hammond, Peter, 159
- Hardin, Garret, 531
- Hardin, Russell, 64, 88, 324
- Hare, R.M., 8, 13–4, 26, 294, 299–01, 318, 323, 552–3
  - as universal prescriptivist, 300
  - complexity of his metaethics, 14ff

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

600

Index

- on universalization as
  - reversibility, 299ff
- thesis that social morality is
  - prescriptive confirmed by data, 128
- harm, 59, 138–9, 162, 172, 201–3, 298, 317, 352, 357–8, 362, 367–8, 391, 436, 477, 508
  - and coercion, 350
  - and indignation, 188
  - and the moral emotions, 190
  - of all punishment, 482
  - protection from as basic right of agents, 369
  - to those in other political orders, 478
  - young children's appreciation of as justification for moral rules, 203
- Harman, Gilbert, 238, 240–1
- Harris, Paul L., 127
- Harsanyi, John C., 151
- Hart, H.L.A., 122–3, 136, 152, 165–8, 172–3, 316–7, 354, 371–3, 427, 467
  - as advocate of will theory of rights, 371
  - on existence of social rules, 165ff
  - on hard cases, 467
  - rights as areas of sovereignty, 373, 427
- Harvesting dilemma, 76–9, 107
- Hausman, Daniel, 539–40
- Hawk-Dove game, 114–7
- Hayek, F.A., 53, 132, 147, 166, 268, 352, 365, 389–90, 415–22, 474, 499, 524
  - as Humean, 45
  - his account of the evolution of social morality, 418ff
  - morality not a construction of reason, 54
  - humans as a rule-followers, 101, 181
  - on reason presupposing morality, 147
  - on social nature of reason, 132
  - on the global Great Society, 471
- Heath, Joseph, 86, 102, 124, 128, 145, 158, 165, 173–4, 177, 271
- Heckelman, Jack C., 453
- Hegel, G.W.F., 34, 176
- Helwig, Charles C., 123–4, 172, 203, 205, 208, 256, 356, 358, 362
- Henrich, Joseph, 91–2, 94, 112, 122, 129, 131, 168–9, 471–73
- Henrich, Natalie, 91–2, 94, 112, 122, 129, 131, 168–9, 471–73
- heuristics, 26
- Hobbes, Thomas, 4, 9–10, 13–5, 32, 45, 47–8, 53–6, 65, 80–2, 95, 98, 114, 134–5, 193, 231, 313, 316, 352–3, 371, 436, 448–50, 463, 467, 511, 533
  - as instrumentalist, 53
  - as little help in reconciling freedom and social morality, 24–5
  - as theorist of instrumental reason, 64
  - claim that the political order creates rights, 448
  - intention-action consistency
    - account of rational action, 80–1
  - not a liberal, 353
  - on disagreement in interpreting rules, 113
  - on disagreement of private judgment, 10–1
  - on moral authority and private judgment, 24–26
  - on prudence and social rules, 134
  - on social morality, 5
  - on the fool, 132
  - on the liberty to coerce, 463
  - on the need for an authoritative interpreter of the law, 467
  - the state of nature as coercive, 352
  - the state of nature as the absence of property, 436

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

Index

601

- Hobbesian, 24, 45, 48, 98, 187
- Hobhouse, L.T., 419, 545
- Hoffman, E., 472
- Hohfeld, Wesley, 11
- Holborow, Les, 201
- holism, 272–5, 318, 496
- Holyoak, Keith J., 129
- Homo Economicus*, 56, 157–8
- Honré, A.M., 375
- Hooker, Brad, 232
- human rights, 180, 257, 428ff, 431–34
- as basic claims of agency, 430–1
  - as constraints on constitutional choice, 493
  - as transcendent principles, 429ff
  - become specified in
    - international law, 474
  - to relief from starvation, 359
  - when our order becomes an obstacle to, 477
- Hume, David 4, 44–6, 49, 63–4, 77, 81, 95, 107, 410, 421
- appears to deny that more is better than less, 63
  - as completing Kantian project, 45
  - harvesting dilemma, 76
  - on instrumental rationality, 63
  - on social morality, 5
- Humphrey, Hubert, 384
- Husak, Douglas N., 349
- immigration, 110, 420, 476, 478–9.
- Impartiality. See also reversibility.
  - failures of, 27ff
  - limits of, 43ff
  - imperatives, 3, 7–13, 17, 27–9, 34, 47, 219
  - as foundational to social morality, 3
- imperious private conscience, 231, 462ff
- incommensurability, 308–9, 372
- increasing returns, 395ff, 426, 446
- indeterminacy, 44, 306–8, 324, 330, 527
- and centralizing justification, 373
  - and complex decisions
    - problems, 149
  - and multiple conceptions of rationality, 148
  - and public justification, 43
  - in justifying a system of rights, 386
  - maximal set interpretation of, 251
  - of full rationality, 239ff, 258
  - of Kantian public reason, 49
  - of legal claims, 467
  - of rankings in deliberative model, 43, 303ff
  - responses to by theories of public reason, 393
  - the original position as
    - designed to avoid, 38–9
- indifference curves, 150, 155, 285
- indifference relation, 305–8
- indignation, 146, 188, 219–22, 231, 320, 396
- and argument for presumption in favor of liberty, 345
  - and minimal moral autonomy, 211
  - and moral autonomy, 222
  - and perceived injustices, 212
  - and punishment, 188
  - as constituting a claim to sanding, 190
  - distinctive features of, 189
  - not appropriate towards the systematically perverted, 218
  - not appropriate towards those who cannot grasp reasons, 219
  - not closely tied to blame, 200
  - not felt by psychopaths, 209
- indirect reciprocity, 91–5, 107, 148
- instantiation relation, 67, 124–5, 144–5, 149
- instrumentalism, 7, 54–8, 61–2, 69, 76, 86, 96, 102–6, 111, 139,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

602

Index

- 157–60, 209, 555. See also instrumentally rational agents, subjective rationality.
- about choices, not results, 59
- and altruism, 111
- and consistency of choices, 68
- and consumption, 67
- and decision theory, 158
- and dominance reasoning, 63ff
- and dominant strategies, 72
- and epistemic justification, 62
- and instantiation relation, 67, 149
- and itch theory of desire, 66
- and modular rationality, 64–70
- and problem of evaluative diversity, 56
- and punishment, 111
- and rule following, 104, 126, 132ff, 156
- appeal of its account of social morality, 54–6
- as account of social morality gives wrong type of reasons, 57, 185ff
- as baseline for rejectability of norms, 313
- as core of rationality, 58
- as effectiveness, 58ff
- as mode of justification, 54
- as only part of practical reason, 103
- basic to is instrumentalism is that more is better than less, 63ff, 157
- characterized, 58ff, 62ff
- committed to instantiation relation, 66–7, 144
- distinguished from dumb luck, 59
- distinguished from Homo Economicus, 56
- failure of attempt to bootstrap constraints, 101
- hedonism as pure account of, 65
- misconceptions about, 56ff
- mistake to see utility theory as a formalization of, 158
- posits goals, 63ff
- revisionist account of, 70ff, subjective, 61, 236
- instrumentally rational agents, 70, 87–9, 106–7, 111, 144
- in ultimatum games, 119
- internalism, 233, 552
- internalization, 29, 104, 112, 165, 202–4, 302, 315
- and moral autonomy, 222
- necessary for the acceptance of the authority of morality, 322
- reasons to, 263
- those who cannot may still be subject to coercion, 463
- iterated games, 54, 90, 95ff, 209, 395–8, 463
- Izard, Carroll E., 206
- James, Aaron, 174–5, 194, 270
- Jänttil, Markus, 519
- Jeffrey, Richard, 61
- Johnson, Tim, 122
- Johnson-Laird, P.N., 126
- Joyce, Richard, 91
- Jurisdictional rights, 370–87, 427ff. See also property rights, privacy.
- Jurney, James, 408, 490
- justification, 40–8, 69, 164, 201, 227–9, 248, 283, 290, 343, 381, 467, 483–6, 491, 546, 551. See also public justification, order of justification.
- and epistemic ties, 251
- and holism, 272
- freestanding, 42
- internal accessibility condition for, 248
- local, 273
- not holistic, 273
- of conditional policies, 136
- of degrees of coercion, 498ff
- of our moral practices, 191ff
- religious, 54

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

603

- what is to be justified in politics?, 490
- justificatory independence, 495–7
- Kagan, Jerome, 165
- Kaldor-Hicks, 539–40
- Kali-Smorodinsky bargaining solution, 330
- Kallgren, C., 442
- Kalienthaler, Karl C., 364, 366
- Kant, Immanuel, 1, 9–12, 15, 23, 25–7, 34, 36–49, 102, 114, 137, 146, 157–8, 163, 184, 193, 258, 293, 323, 333, 351–2, 360, 373, 449–50, 509–11, 528
  - abstracts from reasonable pluralism, 38, 43
  - advocates presumption against coercion, 528
  - advocates centralizing response to public justification, 373
  - proposes individual decision procedure, 37ff
  - theorist of positive freedom, 35
  - on disagreements in interpreting rules, 114
  - on moral authority, 16
  - on private judgment, 11
  - on property and rights, 351
  - on realm of ends, 25–7, 37
  - on self-legislation, 28
- Kantian Coordination Game, 395–414, 426
- Kantian tradition, 21, 102
- Kantian-Rawlsian two-step procedure, 36ff, 335
- Kaplow, Louis, 21, 539
- Kaufmann, Walter, 57
- Kavka, Gregory, 79, 98
- Keeney, Ralph, 149
- Killen, Melainie, 124, 172, 203, 205, 208, 256, 358, 362
- kin altruism, 54
- King, Martin Luther Jr., 257
- Kliemt, Hartmut, 106–7
- Klosko, George, 460
- Knetsch, Jack L., 305
- Kohlberg, Lawrence, 214–6, 256–7, 277, 290, 300, 314, 416
- Kohn, Marek, 315
- Kramer, R. 214, 216, 257
- Kukathas, Chandran, 230
- Lang, R.D., 338
- Larmore, Charles, 6–7, 17
- law, 6, 10, 14, 25, 113, 118, 138, 200–1, 272–4, 295, 300, 352, 355, 413, 428, 449–65, 474–511, 521–24, 527, 535–8, 549–9.
  - as coordination device, 456
  - as the subject of justification, 490ff
  - can move us towards or away from moral equilibrium, 457ff
  - coercive law is pro tanto wrong, 484
  - international, as means to specify human rights, 474
  - justifiability of coercive legislation, 480ff
  - Mill's concept of authoritative law, 526
  - obligation to obey, 460ff
  - on minimal conception of authority citizens have no duty to obey, 463
  - required for property, 510
  - resolution of hard cases in, 467ff
  - rule of, 452
  - selection of from eligible set, 498ff
  - the problem of individualizing for the purposes of public justification, 491ff, 495ff
- Lawson, Robert, 514, 516, 520, 557
- Lazarus, Richard S., 189, 200–1
- Legislation. See law.
- Lehrer, Keith, 241
- Levi, Isaac, 238–9, 306
- Lewis, David, 73–5, 410, 556
- libertarian dictator argument, 501

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

604

Index

- libertarianism, 395, 501–2, 512, 522, 526, 535, 548–9
- Lijphart, Arend, 454
- Lister, Andrew, 482–4, 490, 501–3, 535
- Little Hans, 61–2
- Livy, 153, 155
- Locke, John, 14–5, 23–5, 39, 47–8, 114–18, 313, 403, 448–51, 481, 511, 528
- advocates presumption against coercion, 528
- claim that the public umpire is the sole source of moral authority in the state, 448
- on disagreement in interpreting rules, 114
- on liberal constitutionalism, 494
- on moral authority and private judgment, 24
- on moral freedom, 15–6
- on state of nature as populated by Hawkish interpreters, 118
- on the exclusion of private judgment about morality, 25
- on the social contract as alienating freedom, 24
- state has authority to umpire within a range of reasonable disputes, 467
- logrolling, 497
- Lomasky, Loren, 359, 407
- Louden, Robert B., 550
- luck, 59, 62, 365
- Lycan, William, 241
- Lyons, William, 201
- Macedo, Steven, 283, 287
- Machiguenga, 168, 472–4
- Mack, Eric, 17, 372, 509
- Mackie, Gerry, 329, 454
- Mackie, J.L., 551
- Mahaptra, Manamohan, 124, 362, 432, 474
- Mailath, George J., 412
- majoritarianism, 17, 49, 99, 111, 113, 127, 214, 328–9, 347, 387, 403, 428–30, 437, 453–4, 458–9, 542–4
- Manktelow, K. I., 126, 128
- Mansfield, Katherine, 222
- Mapuche, 168, 472–3
- market, 122, 269, 365, 378, 381, 405, 471, 473, 512
- and development of norms of fairness, 473
- and property, 514
- and development of transnational moral rules, 475
- market failure, 530
- market socialism, 378, 512, 520, 528
- Martin, Rex, 244, 257, 369, 427–8, 468, 474
- Marx, Karl, 378–80
- maximal set, 251, 308, 323–4, 327, 334–5, 369, 386, 390–1. See also eligible set.
- maximin, 49, 85, 301, 306
- May, K.O., 425
- McClennen, Edward, 76, 86
- McDougall, William, 206–7, 210
- McKeever, Sean, 271
- McMahon, Christopher, 76
- McPherson, Michael S., 539–40
- Members of the Public, 30, 40, 47, 267, 276–9, 284, 304, 309, 322–3, 330, 370, 392, 453, 495, 505, 521, 531
- and positive freedom, 31
- as agreeing on abstract principles, 337
- as idealizations, 27
- as members of the realm of ends, 27–9
- cannot accept proposals hostile to their good, 301
- characterized by evaluative diversity, 43
- collective choice as indeterminate, 43
- conventional members are apt to endorse current rules, 323
- defined, 27

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

605

- description of, 282ff
- differ in the sophistication of
  - their reasoning, 290
- diversity in the sophistication of
  - their reasoning, 277
- do not share a commitment to
  - personal autonomy, 339ff
- employ convergence reasoning, 46, 283
- employ evaluative standards, 278
- endorsement of defines public
  - justification, 28
- guided by their own reasoning
  - about morality, 27
- have utility functions composed
  - on two parts, 398, 426
- idealized counterparts of actual
  - agents, 276
- interest in coordinating, 394
- make pairwise comparisons, 304
- need not be Kantian legislators, 293ff
- need not endorse shared
  - reasons, 27ff, 283ff
- not egoistic or monomaniacs, 281
- not playing a division of a pool
  - of resources game, 409
- post-conventional members as
  - critics, 315
- rationality of characterized
  - procedurally, 291
- recognize their sufficient
  - reasons, 268
- see moral intuitions as personal
  - reasons, 278
- sense in which they are
  - reasonable, 331
- share a list of evaluative
  - standards, 280
- tasks of in model, 268
- Mill, John Stuart, 3, 7–8, 16, 33, 35–6, 48, 73, 200, 231, 236, 250, 252, 313–4, 357, 371, 379–83, 418, 423, 427, 432–3, 504–5, 522, 526–9, 536
  - advocates presumption against coercion, 528
  - and positive freedom, 34, 36
  - and tyrannical moralities, 17
  - as a reasonable classical liberal, 505
  - as advocate of interest theory of rights, 371
  - as theorist of social morality, 4
  - distinction between necessary and optional functions of government, 529
  - his bad bridge case, 33–6, 236, 252
  - on authority of social morality, 49
  - on blame, 200ff
  - on judgment of society, 48
  - on logic of persecutors, 231
  - on making the actions of others
    - our business, 382ff
  - on self-regarding sphere, 381
  - on worker-managed firms, 379
- Mill, James, 313–4
- Miller, David, 363, 418
- Miller, Joan G., 124, 362, 432, 474
- Millgram, E., 555
- minimax relative concession, 330, 408
- mixed motive games, 53, 87, 103, 106, 129–31, 162, 532–534
- modular rationality, 65–70, 76–87, 135
- monistic view of morality, 552–6
- Moon, J. Donald, 537
- Moore, G.E., 552
- moral anger. See resentment
- moral authority, 6–30, 47ff, 163, 202ff, 264, 289, 316, 403, 448, 494
  - among equals, 23, 29ff
  - and jurisdictional rights, 373
  - and limits on freedom, 49
  - and moral authoritarianism, 17, 22, 30
  - and moral autonomy, 30–1, 223

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

606

Index

and moral freedom as fundamental problem, 2 and moral imperatives, 9ff and private property, 375ff arises from social life, 450 as authority of persons, 10 as deference in judgment, 12 as moral power, 12
 as standing to demand, 29, 89ff bootstrapping of in Expansive View, 19
 claim that it arises from the political, 450 consistent with freedom in a moral equilibrium, 401 costs of denying, 318ff, 323 countervailing, 47
 de jure, 164, 427
 denying on the grounds of over-moralization, 315 denying the authority of a moral rules on grounds of formal constraints, 314 devolved by jurisdictional rights, 388
 Filmer's view of, 24 in a system of states, 470ff in hierarchical societies, 432 mutual, 23, 47ff, 279 natural equality of, 16 necessity for recognition of, 230 need not have clean history, 417 not based on compromise, 407 not natural among free and equal persons, 17 not pervasive, 320 not the default in moral justification, 319
 prior to political authority, 455ff raises question of justification, 268 reasons to accept, 22 two puzzles about, 24-26, 23 two senses of, 12 undermined by first-person
 view, 230

unjustified social conventions lack, 464
 when possessed by the law, 468 moral autonomy, 17, 48, 202ff, 218, 291 and Kohlberg's theory, 214 and moral authority, 30 and positive liberty, 346 and reasons, 218 and the emotions, 205ff and the internalization of moral rules, 204ff as a basis of philosophical anarchism, 460ff as condition for moral emotions, 210
 as deep supposition of our moral practice, 258 as emotional capacity, 218ff as internalized authority, 209 emotional features of, 204ff expressed in public reason, 29 failure of young children to grasp, 203 lack of in young children, 211 minimal principle of, 201, 218 not respected by self-authenticating claims, 298 principle of, 222, 226-9, 254, 279 rational, 220ff
 the reasons view of, 16
 those incapable of, 282 moral emotions, 183-232, 263 and demands, 191
 and public justification, 276 blame not quintessential, 200 psychopaths do not possess, 463 undermined by first-person view of ethics, 230 moral equilibrium, chap. 7 and the Social Realm of Ends, 402 and those not members of our order, 475
 as expressing moral freedom,
 400ff

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

607

- as path dependent, 399
- as product of social evolution, 410ff
- as property of the status quo, 426
- as the result of a genuine social choice, 401
- fairness of, 403ff
- political attempt to move to new one some prefer, 460
- suboptimal, 439ff
- moral freedom
  - and commitment to justifying authority, 17
  - and moral autonomy, 16
  - as freedom to interpret morality, 16
  - and moral equilibrium, chap. 7, relation to moral equality, 17
- moral hazard, 366
- moral innovation, 441ff
- moral judgment, 13, 113, 148, 174, 190, 211, 213–4, 229, 271, 278, 287, 296, 301, 552
- moral point of view, 4, 6, 176–80, 183, 186, 228, 295–8, 302, 425, 436, 446, 459, 468,
- moral reform, 434ff, 443
- moral rules, 124, 139, 163, 170, 228, 271, 443
  - and claim validation, 297
  - and determinacy, 272
  - and imperatives, 27
  - and moral practices, 274
  - and practice of reciprocal obligations, 170ff
  - and priority claims, 298
  - and punishment, 173
  - as not hostile to one's good, 217
  - as social rules, 32, 298, 162ff, 298
  - as strong rules, 32, 136, 141, 162, 224, 298
  - cannot be abstractly justified, 42
  - denying authority to, 310–15
  - different degrees of understanding of, 215
  - must be for the good of all, 302ff
  - must be general, 294ff
  - must be teachable, 296ff
  - unjustified can be stabilized through punishment, 438ff
  - unjustified yet stable without punishment, 434ff
  - violation of as the business of everyone, 188ff
- moral truth, 177, 225, 229–30, 266, 278, 434, 452, 469, 549
- morality as pluralistic 148, 229, 550–56
- moralization, 146, 315ff, 322, 441
  - costs of, 315
  - when appropriate, 441–2
- Morris, Christopher, 470
- Morrow, James, 158–9
- Mortimore, Geoffrey, 59, 69, 304
- Mueller, Dennis, 326, 330, 458, 530
- Munzer, Stephen R., 381
- Murphy, Liam, 510
- mutual intelligibility, 283–91, 310
- Nagel, Thomas, 510
- Nash bargaining, 330–1
- Nash equilibrium, 88–9, 96, 117, 394, 411–2, 502
  - defined by net benefits of coercion, 502
  - multiple, 96
  - question of whether people play them, 412
  - strict and non-strict, 411
- negative liberty, 31, 346
- Neitzsche, F., 5, 315
- neutral decision rules, 435, 459, 487ff
- New Sentimentalists, 211ff, 223–6
- Newcomb problem, 73–6
- Nichols, Shaun, 124, 146, 170, 201, 211–6, 219, 226, 266, 271, 362–3
- Nicholson, Peter P., 428
- nihilism, 54, 548–9
- Nisbett, Richard E., 156
- No Coercion with Justification thesis, 484
- non-cognitivism, 14

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

608

Index

norm-based reasoning. See rule-based reasoning.

Norton, Seth, 514, 516, 520, 557

Nozick, Robert, 58, 63, 73–4, 96, 123, 136, 142, 410, 417, 484–5, 535

Núñez, Maria, 127

Nunner-Winkler, Gertrude, 202–4, 208, 212

O’Hear, Anthony, 422

Oakeshott, Michael, 385

Ok, Efe, 307–8

Okasha, Samir, 111

Okumo-Fujiwara, M., 472 oppression, 17, 36, 180, 217, 295, 311, 314, 333, 354, 383, 387, 414, 424, 434–39, 459, 476–7 optimal eligible set, 44, 323–4, 327, 329, 333, 391–3, 396–7, 401–3, 406–8, 414, 426, 521, 534. See also eligible set.

and the status quo, 425

any member can be justified morality, 417

as interpretations of abstract rights, 370 convergence on, 47

defined, 323

defines results from the moral point of view, 425

each member is a Nash equilibrium, 394 egalitarian and redistributive proposals included in, 521 fairness in selecting from, 451

Members of the Public will coordinate on a member of, 399 moral conventions outside of but in eligible set, 439 not likely to be either null or a singleton, 323

one option selected from by unanimous social choice, 399 provides basis for moral freedom, 417 rules outside of fall short of fully justified, 325 selection from in N-person case, 395 social evolution must select from to have authority, 424 status quo within has special significance, 427 optional functions of government, 530ff opt-out procedures, 541

order of justification, 275, 317–8, 354, 368, 386, 390, 444, 454, 481, 493, 496, 507–13, 520 order of public reason, 413, 429, 439, 480, 546, 548

Organization for Economic Development and Cooperation, 517–20, 524 original position, 38, 43, 254, 266, 281, 284, 294, 297, 336–7, 354, 368, 527 as free-standing argument, 41

as two-step bracketing procedure, 38 designed to produce determinate outcome, 39

Ostrom, Elinor, 106, 533

Over, D., 126, 128

Overlaet, Bert, 363

Padrini, Flavio, 518

Pareto principles, 55, 71–2, 77, 105, 321–27, 330, 333, 391, 439, 457, 530–3, 539–42, 545

Pareto-extension rule, 327, 391

Parfit, Derek, 232

Parsons, Talcott, 165, 380 path dependency, 273, 290 399 of belief revision, 241ff of selection from eligible set, 418 of social evolution, 415ff social morality as, 45–6 of choice of democratic systems, 455

Paul, Ellen Frankel, 418

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

609

- perfectionism, 20, 303, 320, 338–40, 380, 492
- Perry, Michael, 286
- personal autonomy, 338–40, 348–50, 380
- Pettit, Philip, 72–3, 130, 142, 157, 330, 489
- philosophical anarchism, 460–2, 465, 548
- Piaget, Jean, 214, 216, 226, 244, 256
- Pincione, Guido, 63
- Plamenatz, John, 353
- planning, 86
- Plato, 34–6, 550
- Pogge, Thomas, 477
- political authority, 47, 164, 449ff, 462, 491, 494, 508
- absence of in most
    - contemporary regimes, 479
    - and Justification Derivation Thesis, 494
  - and provision of public goods, 534
  - as the power to create rights and duties, 465
  - as the right to rule, 468ff
  - cannot use coercion simply to advance the interests of some at the expense of others, 497
  - in the state system, 470ff
  - not prior to social moral authority, 455
  - over those in other political orders, 475ff
  - over visitors, 475
  - political order of public reason, 546
  - qua mere legitimacy, 462ff, 534
  - source of in a world of states, 471
  - undue skepticism about based on over-individualization, 460
- Pollock, John, 144, 244–9, 255, 285–6
- positive freedom, 31–6, 184, 224, 346–9
- positive morality, 45, 172–4, 181–3, 268, 441
- as influencing moral change, 415
  - error of dismissing as irrelevant to moral theory, 173ff
  - error of identifying moral theory with its analysis, 177
- not sharply distinguished from true morality, 414
- shaped by unjustified power, 416
- Postema, Gerald J., 387
- Prasnikar, V., 472
- preaching, 169, 223
- preference, 69, 76, 98, 151, 159, 272, 285, 306–11, 326–9, 394
- and strict transitivity, 70
  - as technical concept, 304
  - defined, 68
  - does not explain choice worthiness, 151
  - for acting on rules, 103, 159
  - irrational to prefer lower, 64
  - reversal of, 305
  - to cooperate, 103
  - transforming from uncooperative into cooperative, 96ff
  - transitivity of, 69
- prescriptivism, 14, 300
- Presumption in Favor of Liberty, 340–348, 479–90. See also freedom.
- Prichard, H.A., 7, 57
- primary goods, 38, 357
- Principle of Non-interference. See Presumption in Favor of Liberty
- principles, 18, 28, 40–5, 102, 113, 122–3, 136, 142–5, 159, 175–6, 180, 269, 270–3, 282–3, 289, 294–6, 299–301, 309, 317, 336–7, 341, 350, 367–9, 378, 390, 428ff, 444, 474, 511, 527, 555
- Prinz, Jesse, 127–8, 146, 174, 203, 205, 208, 211

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

610

Index

- Prisoners' Dilemma, 32, 71–7, 87–9, 95–100, 103–6, 121, 209, 313, 441, 463, 472, 532–3, 545
- privacy, 125, 178, 302, 350, 381–5, 413–5, 430, 507
- private conscience, 12, 228–9, 231, 462
- private judgment, 3, 10–3, 17, 23–5, 39, 44, 47–9, 114, 118, 231, 450
- Procedural Justification
- Requirement, 392, 397, 409, 450
- property, 104, 114, 118, 123–5, 142–5, 152, 178, 217, 221–2, 291, 302, 317, 334, 344, 351–2, 367–8, 374, 378, 414, 430, 464, 469, 509–29, 557
- absence of in the state of nature, 436
- and coercive threats, 481
- and freedom, 514
- and protection of civil rights, 515
- and tragedy of the commons, 531
- as abstract right, 509
- as involving moral powers, 427
- as jurisdictional 374ff
- elaborated by the state, 466
- fundamental to the jurisdictional solution, 509
- intellectual, 476ff, 509
- justification of not prior to redistributive concerns in the order of justification, 521ff
- not wholly conventional, 510
- oppressive systems of, 435ff
- over one's body, 415
- protects civil and political freedom, 513ff
- requires a political order, 510
- state specification of constitutes social recognition, 468
- property-owning democracy, 512
- prudential rules, 128–30, 134–6, 172–3
- psychopathy, 146, 192, 208–10, 282, 463
- public goods, 111, 140, 168, 438, 471–3, 529–34, 545
- public goods games, 168, 471–3
- public justification, 3, 40, 163, 271, 276, 281, 309, 392, 479, 500, 505
- and claims about meta-fairness, 407
- and contingent history, 413ff
- and different degrees of reasoning sophistication, 257, 293
- and first-person-perspective, 225ff
- and indeterminacy, 43ff
- and jurisdictional rights, 373
- and quasi-public goods, 534ff
- and reflexivity requirement, 226ff
- and shared reasons, 40, 283
- and sincerity, 288ff
- and social evolution, 410ff
- as full justification, 43
- as giving standing to make demands, 29
- as severe restriction on public policy, 535ff
- basic principle of, 263–6, 400
- burdens of, 373
- can appeal to moral intuitions, 277
- cannot be based on radical pluralism, 279
- cannot be inferred from social evolution, 424
- claim that it reduced to political justification, 451
- deliberative principle of, 266, 326
- evaluative standards as inputs for, 278
- expands one's rights and personhood, 351
- in non-Western societies, 431
- incremental, 501
- instability of under some conceptions of fairness, 407ff

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

611

- minimized by jurisdictional rights, 386
- more stable under evaluative diversity, 476
- not a form of bargaining, 331, 497
- not an exercise in distributive justice, 409
- of common frameworks for living, 502
- of public policies based on shared values, 536
- of rights in Non-Western societies, 430
- origin of rules of little importance, 416ff
- should reject neutrality condition, 426
- under conditions of pluralism
  - tilts towards classical liberalism, 526
- view that it is restricted to constitutional essentials, 491
- public policy, 368, 522, 530, 535–9, 540–6
- public reason, 30, 34, 48, 226, 229
  - and moral autonomy, 29
  - and the adjudication of rights claims, 466
- appears hostile to classical liberalism, 512
- contemporary views of give priority to the political, 451
- does not mandate a specific democratic regime, 455
- must seek to determine whether the results of social evolution are within the eligible set, 424
- problem of, 262
- realistic account of, 279ff
- shared reason view of, 283
- sustains the moral emotions, 232
- the state as sole source of in social contract theory, 450
- umpire as voice of in social contract theory, 25
- publicity, 296–7, 318
- punishment, 6, 57, 88–90, 105–12, 120–2, 129–31, 199–201, 216, 313–15, 357, 404–5, 438. See also Rule-Following Punishers
  - and blame, 193–200
  - and children, 202, 213
  - and judgments of fairness, 473
  - and rule following, 187
  - and social equilibrium, 405
  - and the moral emotions, 188ff
  - and trendsetting behavior, 442
  - as altruistic, 187
  - as compliance by non-moral persons, 210
  - as feature of moral rules, 173
  - as stabilizing bad rules, 438ff, 477
  - can always produce a social equilibrium, 440–2, 460
  - costs of, 112, 482
  - experimental data on, 119
  - how beneficial norms can spread without, 442
  - in ultimatum games, 121–2, 404
  - instrumentalist cannot account for our practices, 186
  - not appropriate for foolish actions, 186
  - of cheaters, 129
  - of those to whom rules are not justified, 463
  - third-party rare in some small scale societies, 474
- Quong, Jonathan, 21, 39, 288–9, 292, 360, 491
- Rachels, James, 45
- Rachels, Stuart, 69
- Radical Justification Derivation Thesis, 491–4
- Rae, Douglas, 455
- Raiffa, Howard, 105, 149
- Rashdall, Hastings, 7
- Rasmussen, Kund, 45

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

612

Index

- rationality, 35, 55, 58, 61–2, 67–9, 76, 81–6, 96, 104–5, 130–1, 144, 148, 152, 157, 160, 220, 235–7, 244, 247–9, 266, 278–7, 291.
- and discourse about reasons, 235
- and holism, 274
- and intelligibility, 235
- and learning from others, 251ff
- and performance errors, 245
- and the reasons one has, 36, 232–58
- as balancing of reasons, 149
- as basis of morality, 55
- as fallible, 11
- as goal directed, 58
- as indeterminate ideal, 243ff
- as real rationality, 244ff, 252, 258, 262
- as social idea, 132
- basic supposition is that more value is better than less, 64
- cannot explain why humans are rule followers, 104
- conceptual unity of, 148
- formed by evolution, 132
- full rationality as applied to specific choices, 242
- full rationality as extravagant, 258
- full rationality as full exercise of reasoning powers, 238
- full rationality as indeterminate, 238ff
- full rationality as promising determinacy, 305
- full rationality, as absence of all defeaters, 246
- group rationality, 105
- instrumentalism as core of, 58
- of rule following, 125
- social benefits allow approach to full rationality, 253
- subjectivist theories of, 60
- supposed irreconcilable demands of complex conceptions, 148
- Rationality as Effectiveness, 58–2, 72, 76, 84. See also
- Instrumentalism
- Rawls, 1, 16–26, 37–44, 49, 102, 159, 162, 174–7, 264, 266, 269–70, 275–6, 282–4, 294–301, 306, 316, 318–9, 324–5, 331, 335–7, 354–5, 357, 360–4, 368, 377–9, 387, 406, 409, 431–2, 444–5, 451–3, 490–1, 505, 511–3, 515, 517, 520–1, 525–8
- aims to justify egalitarian version of liberalism, 527
- aiming at determinacy, 38, 43, 49, 325, 527
- argues against welfare state as protector of political rights, 515
- argument from original position, 38
- as abstracting from reasonable pluralism, 38
- as universal prescriptivist, 300
- case for equality based on protection of value of political rights, 515
- dubious claim that well-functioning markets can be divorced from private property, 513
- embraces deliberative democracy, 387
- endorsement of market socialism as protecting political rights without grounds, 528
- favored economic alternatives, 520
- focuses on abstract principles rather than rules, 337
- gloss on Constant's distinction inadequate, 452
- grounds distributive principles in agency itself, 367
- hostility to capitalism, 511
- justice as shared reason, 39

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

Index

613

- objection to bargaining theory, 331
- on aim to discover a eligible set composed of a singleton, 323
- on assumption that a major bias in moral deliberation is self-interest, 364
- on bargaining problem, 43
- on decent hierarchical societies, 432
- on description of original position, 281
- on desire to exclude contingencies that set us apart, 335
- on finality condition, 298
- on formal constraints on the idea on principles of right, 294
- on freedom and equality in non-Western societies, 431
- on freedom of thought, 354, 361
- on freestanding and overlapping justifications, 336
- on full justification, 336
- on importance of status quo, 174
- on justifying constitutional essentials, 490ff
- on meeting others halfway, 505
- on moral freedom and the absence of authority, 16
- on need for agents to possess primary goods, 357
- on need for critical leverage on practices, 177
- on not requiring that all acceptable regimes treat their citizens as free and equal, 478
- on order of justification, 275
- on overlapping consensus, 40
- on Pareto Principle and Kantian justification, 324
- on property, 378
- on publicity condition, 296
- on realistic utopias, 443ff
- on reasonable disagreement as the outcome of freedom, 276
- on reasonableness as absence of hard bargaining, 331
- on requirement that moral rules must order competing claims, 297ff
- on set of feasible options, 270
- on strains of commitment, 162
- on the absence of natural authority, 319
- on transforming the justificatory into a deliberative problem, 264
- on universality requirement, 299
- public reason as political reason, 451
- supposing identical reasoning of deliberators, 284
- Raz, Joseph, 11, 135, 139, 149, 161, 229, 231–2, 248, 308–9, 339, 460, 462
- reactive attitudes. See moral emotions.
- realm of ends, 26–8, 37, 43–9, 292–3, 303
- Reasons, 232–58 See also rationality.
  - and interpretation, 280
  - and positive freedom, 35ff
  - as a deliberative performance concept, 247
  - beliefs about, 232
  - classical view of, 232
  - does not suppose affirmation thesis, 235
  - existing, 233
  - externalist view of, 233
  - in Deliberative Model, 303
  - internalist and externalist conceptions of, 232
  - involve idealizations, 237
  - provisional, 250ff
  - shared, 40–3, 283–8, 292, 310, 325
  - social dimensions of, 252

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

614

Index

- that one has, 232ff
- that there are, 232ff
- reasonable pluralism, 3, 44, 277, 280–3, 292, 479. See also evaluative diversity.
- abstracted away by Rawls, 38ff
- and our self-understanding as agents, 337
- and private property, 378
- as challenge for full justification, 360
- as problem for Kantian legislation, 37ff
- as root of indeterminacy of the Deliberative Model, 323
- includes different views about the costs of coercion, 506
- and indeterminacy, 44ff
- reciprocity, 90–5, 105, 107, 141, 148, 160, 166, 170–1, 214–5, 255. See also indirect reciprocity.
- redistributive state, 367, 509–29
- reflective equilibrium, 275, 555
- Reiman, Jeffrey, 16, 264
- rejectability, 18–9, 269–70, 311, 322
- Reno, R., 442
- replicator dynamics, 116
- reputation, 77, 89–5, 185
- resentment, 46, 146, 170, 183–94, 208–22, 231, 316, 320, 345, 396
  - and moral autonomy, 211, 222
  - and perceived injustices, 212
  - and punishment, 188ff
  - constituting claim to standing, 190ff
  - distinctive features of, 189
  - not appropriate to those who cannot grasp reasons, 219
  - not appropriate towards the systematically perverted, 218
  - not appropriate towards young children, 210
  - not closely tied to blame, 200
  - not felt by psychopaths, 209
- Restricted View of freedom and equality, 20–2, 400–1
- Restriction of Public Justification Thesis, 490
- reversibility, 298–300, 314, 318, 323, 332, 363, 370
- Rhodes, Steven E., 366
- Richerson, Peter J., 28, 45, 90, 94, 105, 108–11, 118, 131, 419, 424, 437–8, 442
- Ridge, Michael, 271
- rights, 114, 142–3, 152, 157–58, 178, 203, 221, 257, 268, 291, 316–8, 334–5, 344–59, 366–75, 427–9, 445, 449, 454, 467–77, 483–7, 514–19, 529–33, 546, 557–8
  - abstract specified by political authority, 465ff
  - abstract, 334–68, 474
  - against coercion distinguished from a baseline view, 486
  - and powers, 12, 428
  - and social recognition, 427ff, 448
  - as determinate, 369
  - as devices of devolution, 372ff, 388
  - as solution to fundamental problem, 387
  - civil, 452, 515, 520,
  - civil, protected by property, 514
  - conflicting interpretations of and the law, 466
  - functions of, 370ff
  - jurisdictional, 370–86, 453, 430,
  - justifying a system of, 386ff
  - morally justified as constraints on constitutional choice, 493
  - not a goal but a constraint, 485–89
  - not all jurisdictional, 385
  - not to be coerced as abstract, 479ff
  - of agency, 340–70, 453
  - of association, 384ff
  - political rights and economic inequality, 517ff
  - property, 374ff, 509–45
  - protected by democracy, 452

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

Index

615

- protected by small state, 507
 Rawls' claim that political rights are undermined by capitalism, 511ff reproductive, 415 to assistance, 358ff views that they cannot be held against the state, 481 violation of the rights of those in order political orders, 478
- Riker, William, 329, 454
- Rips, Lance, 244
- Ritchie, David G., 419
- Rokeach, Milton, 280
- Rorty, Amelie O., 207
- Rosenberg, Alexander, 61, 167
- Ross, Lee, 156
- Ross, W.D., 428–9, 552
- Roth, A. E., 472
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 1, 23, 25– 7, 33, 46–9, 97, 114, 137, 295,
   313, 360, 373, 387, 390, 425,
   431, 440, 446, 449, 511 on being forced to be free, 33 on importance of generality,
   295ff on the fundamental problem, 1– 2, 25–6, 387, 390, 392, 425, 431, 440, 446 on the Stag Hunt, 97 reformulates the idea of public reason, 25 rejection of Hobbesian-Lockean bargain, 48
- Rozin, Paul, 146, 316, 442
- Rule-Following Punishers, 103,
 108–12, 118, 129, 131, 147, 187ff,
 193, 202, 258, 261
- rules, 2, 11, 29–33 37–49, 53–6, 85– 7, 100–13, 118, 122–74, 190,
   203–16, 220, 224–6, 267–76,
   283–84, 296, 299, 323, 326, 330,
   341, 362, See also moral rules, social rules.
 abstract from contexts, 138ff
 and blame, 202
 and consequentialist reasoning, 142ff and deontic reasoning, 125ff and emotions, 145 and instantiation relation, 122ff and utility functions, 158 as basic to humans, 181 as broadly instrumental, 132ff as conditional policies, 135ff as correcting the failures of instrumental rationality, 131 as overriding, 160ff as response to personhood, 142 as unit of justification, 112ff at the core of social morality, 5 caring about, 145, 217 children's ability to apply and understand, 127 children's knowledge of, 203 commitment to not a form of valuing, 156ff common good v. moral realist views of, 137 conflict with values, 156 evolution of, 107
 instantiation relation, 124, 157
 internalisation of, 202
 interpretations of, 113
 Mill's view of enforcement, 200 moral and conventional, 124, 174 must be specific, 113 on the supposed paradox of,
   139ff rule followers, 102–7, 111, 124, 128, 131, 141, 161, 165, 202, 547 rule-following as intentional act, 167
 rules create reasons claims, 141ff, 145ff
 salience of, 152 selection of in deliberative model, 271 set/subset analysis of, 123 skepticism of instantiation relation, 144

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

616

Index

- special rationality of, 55
  - supposed mysteries of, 102, 141ff
  - tied to cheater detection, 173
  - traded off with values, 153
  - trade-off between, 152
  - weak, 132ff
  - Weber on rule-based reasoning, 103
  - with punishment, 187
  - Wittgenstein's account of questioned, 130
- Sayre-McCord, Geoffrey, 200
- Scalia, Anthony, 413
- Scanlon, T.M., 17, 58, 178, 193–202, 224, 269–77, 295, 318, 331
- Expansive View of Freedom and equality, 17ff
- advocates limited diversity of moralities, 178ff
  - claim that justification should be holistic, 272
  - on feasible set of principles, 269ff
  - on generality, 295
  - on reasonableness as absence of hard bargaining, 331
  - on rules and principles, 271
  - relationship account of blame, 193ff, 224
- Schauer, Frederick, 123, 136, 139, 275
- Scheffler, Samuel, 320–1
- schemata/ scripts, 165, 166, 442
- schizoids, 338, 347
- Schmidt, Klaus M., 119, 121
- Schmidtz, David, 63, 105, 509, 531, 533
- Schroeder, Mark, 57
- Schwab, David, 106
- Schweder, Richard, 124, 362
- Screpanti, Ernesto, 497
- selection task, 126ff
- Sen, Amartya, 60, 69, 158, 306–10, 326–7, 334, 391
- on distinction between indifference and indeterminacy, 306
  - on incomplete orderings, 307ff
  - on Pareto-extension rule, 327
  - on the concept of rationality, 59
- Shachat, K., 472
- Shafer-Landau, Russ, 125, 137, 139, 230, 233, 235, 271
- Shapiro, Scott J., 130, 136, 165
- Shavell, Steven, 21, 539
- Sherwin, Emily, 132–9, 145
- Sidgwick, Henry, 6–7, 555
- Sierminska, Eva, 519
- Simmons, A. John, 460, 471
- Simon, Herbert, 119, 122, 244
- sincerity, 287–92
- Skyrms, Brian, 68, 76, 97, 104–7, 111, 116–8, 187, 395, 398, 412, 443
- slavery, 221
- Slovic, Paul, 305
- Smirnov, Oleg, 122
- Smith, Adam, 44, 418
- Smith, John Maynard, 106, 115
- Smith, Michael, 243, 552–3
- Smith, Natalie, 168, 471–3
- Sobel, Jordan Howard, 74
- Sober, Elliot, 111
- Social Contract, 2, 26, 34, 67, 76, 107, 111, 116–8, 129, 135, 138, 231, 265, 295, 352, 398, 412, 449, 533
- and Pareto Principle, 324
  - and social reasoning, 129
  - as granting priority to political authority, 455
  - as providing justifications for coercion, 487
  - as source of moral rules, 172
  - based on moral freedom, 15
  - claim that moral authority rises from political authority, 450
  - Green's criticism of as overly-individualistic, 448
  - hypothetical, 265

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

Index

617

- invites challenge of
  - philosophical anarchism, 462
- its traditional aim of a unique result, 327
- of Hobbes and Locke as little help in reconciling freedom and social morality, 24
- on limits of mutual authority, 47
- puts politics at the heart of morality, 545
- role of state of nature in, 310ff
- skepticism about coordination on rules, 113
- view of strong rules, 138
- Social Darwinism, 418–9
- social equilibrium
  - and group selection, 419
  - and importance of contingent history, 413
  - and many-person interactions, 48
  - and punishment, 129, 442
  - and social evolution, 49, 418–9
  - and worries about fairness, 405
- as necessary to complete Kantian project, 46
- as path dependent, 415ff
- as producing reason, 422
- contrast to Hayek's account of, 417ff
- distinct from historical entitlement view, 416
- immoral ones can be dislodged by majority rule, 459
- must be evaluated by public reasons, 424
- not to be equated with Darwinism, 418
- of new social rules, 442
- outside the eligible set may still be enforced, 464ff
- rejection of sufficiency claim, 424
- social justice, 175, 496, 521. See also property.
- social morality, 2, 6, 22, 30, 37, 47, 128–31, 178, 190, 200–11, 256, 267, 276, 293, 294, 323, 462, 548, 552. See also Baier–Strawson view, morality.
  - about right, wrong, duty and obligation, 9
  - and emotions, chap. 4
  - and existing social rules, 163ff
  - and market interactions, 473
  - and mutual authority, 47
  - and political philosophy, 3
  - and positive freedom, 31ff
  - and positive morality, 45
  - and reciprocal obligations, 173
  - and shared scripts, 272
  - as a de jure authority, 164
  - as authoritative, 9ff
  - as based on rules, 123, 172, 177
  - as constraint on action, 54ff, 101
  - as everyone's business, 10, 186, 224
  - as framework for social life, 3ff
  - as imperatival, 7ff, 13, 23
  - as large scale coordination, 48
  - as path dependent, 45
  - as popular practice, 255–7, 296
  - as rule-based, chap. 3
  - as social convention, 46
  - as social fact with history, 45
  - authoritarian view of, 17
  - authority of and modern view of morality, 7ff
  - authority of on first-person view, 225
  - authority to interpret, 47
  - by agreement, 53
  - cannot be grasped as authoritative for those incapable of internalization, 209
  - claim that it should be shaped by private conscience, 230
  - consistent with different views of moral truth, 5
  - crisis of, 54–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

618

Index

- criteria for adequate reasoning
  - in, 253ff
- decentralized authority of, 48
- defined, 3
- democracies resolve disputes
  - about, 454
- distinguished from other types
  - of rule following, 130
- does not suppose philosophical
  - internalism, 232
- evolution of, 410ff
- excludes much of ethics
  - normally understood, 4, 550–6
- external justification of, 193
- following requires accepting
  - authority, 461
- function of, 5–7, 102ff
- Hobbes on interpretation of, 11
- Hobbesian-Humean insight, 46
- incompleteness of, 476ff
- instrumentalist account of, 53ff
- internal justification of, 192
- its politically articulated
  - element, 475
- Kantian conception of, 15
- Kantian insight, 46
- may be oppressive, 17
- naturalistic understanding of, 6
- not based on weak rules, 136
- on error of neglecting its
  - functions, 176
- on the great importance of the
  - moral emotions in, 188
- outcome of social processes that
  - lead to the social recognition of rights, 448
- path dependency of, 415
- power of instrumentalist
  - account of, 56
- reasons to follow not reduced to
  - instrumental, 184
- reconciliation of obligation and
  - freedom in, 224
- related to social reasoning, 128
- requires the convergence of
  - reasons, 223
- role of blame in, 193ff
- Rousseau-Kant view of, 24
- rules of as overriding, 161
- transnational 471ff
  - why accept its authority?, 57
- Social Realm of Ends, 402
- Social recognition of rights, 427ff, 448
- social rules, 102, 103, 122–31, 139–41, 163, 167, 178, 221–314. See also moral rules, rules.
  - and goals, 147
  - and nonmoral equilibria, 436
  - and social morality, 172
  - as actually observed, 172
  - authority of as overriding, 161
  - conditions for existence, 165ff
  - distinguished from genuine
    - moral conventions, 436
  - must actually be followed by
    - the group, 167
  - must test from the moral point
    - of view to determine whether it is a part of true morality, 425
  - one's violation of subject to
    - criticism, 173
  - requirements for adequate, 129
  - strong and ultra-strong, 137
  - and abstract principle of respect
    - for persons, 145
  - and cheater detection, 129ff
  - and deontic reasoning, 125
  - and domain specific reasoning, 128
  - and moral rules, 4, 102
  - and strong reciprocity, 105
  - as basis of social expectations, 99
  - as middle-level moral objects, 113
  - as prescriptive based on action types, 125
  - as rational conditional policies, 135
  - as transforming mixed-motive interactions, 103

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

619

- as useful to group, 105
- can still regulate those who do
  - not recognize their authority, 210
- complex relation to individual value pursuit, 104
- embedded in scripts, 166
- existence of, 164ff
- identifies reciprocal obligations, 171
- interpretations of, 118
  - as prudential rules, 134
  - transnational, 471
  - two interpretations of their conditionality, 170
- socialism, 511ff
  - badly protects civil rights, 515
  - badly protects political rights, 519
  - excluded by public justification, 526
  - excluded from optimal eligible set, 521
- Sodian, Beate, 202–4, 208, 212
- Solum, Lawrence B., 226
- Sonedda, Daniela, 519, 525
- Spencer, Herbert, 418
- Stag Hunt game, 96–7, 103, 118
- State Exemption Thesis, 481, 484
- state of nature, 11, 24, 81, 95, 98, 114, 118, 310–12, 352, 409, 436
  - as baseline for public justification of a political order, 492
  - right of property in, 509
  - the legitimacy of the state as akin to Hobbesian liberty to impose coercion, 463
- status quo, 174, 408, 416, 424–8, 446, 540
  - and neutral decision procedures, 487
  - when maintained through punishment, 438
- Stein, Edward, 145, 244, 245
- Steiner, Hillel, 510
- Stevenson, C.L., 552
- Strawson, P.F., 3–5, 45, 101, 163, 178–80, 183–94, 205, 208, 210–11, 213, 218, 225, 261, 293, 299
  - may be more than one true morality, 178
  - on concepts as embedded in shared life, 210
  - on conditions for rational emotions, 205
  - on internal and externals justifications of our moral practice, 191–3
  - on moral emotions as constituting demands, 1914
  - on social morality, 4
  - on the great importance of the reactive attitudes, 188
  - on universality requirement, 299
  - on young children, 213
  - reactive attitudes and perceived good or ill will, 194
  - reasons to follow morality cannot be reduced to its functions, 184
  - social benefits of morality are not sufficient reason to endorse it, 424
- Streumer, Bart, 232
- strong reciprocity, 105, 141, 160
- Subjective Rationality, 60ff
- Sufficiency Claim, 421, 423, 424
- Sugden, Robert, 55, 331
- Suk, Jeannie, 414
- Sumner, William Graham, 418
- Swaine, Lucas, 541
- Swanton, Christine, 554
- symmetry thesis, 319, 321
- taboo, 205
- Talisie, Robert, 44
- Tanner, Edward, 367
- Taxation, 496, 534
- taxation, 326, 469–70, 496ff, 510ff, 522–7, 534–6, 543–5
- Taylor, Gabriele, 204–5
- Tesón, Fernando, 63
- Testing Conception, 176, 424ff

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More information

620

Index

- Tetlock, Philip, 285
 Thaler, Richard H., 119
 The Comparative Procedural
 Justification Principle, 449–50
 The Procedural Justification
 Requirement, 392
 The Radical Derivative
 Justification Thesis, 490–1
 The World Intellectual Property
 Organization Copyright Treaty,
 476–77
 The World Trade Organization, 479 Thomson, Judith, 367, 483–4 tit-for-tat, 54, 87–90
 Tito, Josip Broz, 520, 529
 Tooby, John, 129, 173
 Toxin problem, 79, 86
 trade-offs, 152–3, 284–6, 298, 310, 537 between rules and goals, 153, 161, 169 between rules, 152, 158 of values in complex theory of reasoning, 150 tragedy of the commons, 531–2 transcendent morality, 179ff transitivity, 69, 304, 309, 312, 327 trembling hands, 48 true morality, 45, 102, 175–83, 278, 471, 549
   and positive morality, 174 multiple, 178
   relation to positive morality, 172 revealed through moral equilibrium, 414
 Tullock, Gordon, 458–9, 540–2
 Tuomela, Raimo, 168
 Turiel, Elliot, 124, 172, 203, 205, 208, 256, 356, 358, 362 ultimatum games, 119–22, 160, 403–6, 471–3 unanimity, 457–9, 527, 541
 Unconditional Rule Followers, 106–8 universal domain, 326 unrestricted set, 531, 535–8, 542 unrestricted set of relevant values distinguished from evaluative standards, 531
 utilitarianism as imperitival, 8 utility functions, 106, 151, 159, 412, 498–500, 506–8 rule-based, 158 utility maximization as purely formal idea, 58 utility theory, 159–60, 307–8 utopianism, 443ff
 Vallier, Kevin, 41, 174
 Vanberg, Viktor J., 165
 Vanderschraaf, Peter, 95–9, 117, 395
 Vega-Rodondo, Fernando, 398 veil of ignorance, 37–8, 49, 300, 364 Vellman, J. David, 234
 Vickery, William, 326 virtue ethics, 9, 550 voodoo decision theory, 73–6
 Voorhoove, Alex, 69
 Waldron, Jeremy, 375, 381, 456–7, 465
 Walker, Liezl, 523, 533
 Wall, Steven, 225, 229–31, 237, 287, 319–21, 339, 343 claim the morality is pervasive, 320ff endorses shared reasons requirement, 287ff on first-person perspective, 225ff on full idealization, 237 on fundamental role of one's own convictions, 229
 Walzer, Michael, 555 warranted decision, 243ff, 248–56, 280, 289–91
 Wason, P.C., 126–8
 Weber, Max, 103–4, 380, 555
 Weinstock, Daniel M., 535–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-86856-3 - The Order of Public Reason: A Theory of Freedom and Morality in a Diverse and Bounded World

Gerald Gaus

Index

More informationIndex

621

- welfare rights, 357ff welfare state, 511, 515, 519, 529 held unjust by Rawls, 445, 511 justifiable, but not based on fundamental right to welfare, 367
Wells, H.G., 421
Wenar, Leif, 11, 371
Wertheimer, Alan, 352
Weymark, John, 326
Whaples, Robert C., 453
White, Mark D., 157–8
Whitman, Douglas Glen, 415, 418
Wicksell, Knut, 496, 533
Widom, Cathy Spatz, 209, 463
Wiles, P.J.D., 380
Wilkinson, Will, 522
Williams, Bernard, 232–3, 236,
    250–1, 554 Williamson, Oliver
    E., 380
Wilson, David Sloan, 111
Wilson, James Q., 316
Wolf, Susan, 15, 321
Wolff, Robert Paul, 324, 460–1
Wolterstorff, Nicholas, 286 women, 234, 295, 313–4, 415, 432–
    4, 438, 464, 554
World Intellectual Property
    Organization Copyright Treaty, 476
Wright, Derek, 156, 209
Xiao, Erte, 168–72
Young, Liane, 201, 213, 219
Young, Robert, 339
Zamagni, Stefano, 497
Zamir, Shmuel, 119, 472