

Index

- abuse of authority, 17, 69, 80, 108, 118–121, 123, 124, 147, 229, 291, 295, 296, 302, See also abuse of office
- abuse of office, 120, 123, 156, See also abuse of authority
- abuse of power, 118, 119, 295, See also abuse of authority
- Acton, Lord, 9, 47
- Alexandra, Andrew, 6, 90, 91, 148, 187, 189, 190, 192, 195, 198, 209, 267, 271, 310,
- amoral familism, 112, 113, 114, See also nepotism
- anti-corruption measures, 13, 19, 114, 125, 229, 250, 253, See also integrity systems
- apartheid, 7, 37, 61, 84, 85, 91
- Armstrong, Walter Sinnott, 181, 184, 318
- authoritarian regimes, 3, 116, 172, 215, 305
- Banfield, Edward, 112, 113, 310
- banking and finance, 251–253
- banks, 257
  - capital markets, 257–259
  - financial benchmark manipulation, 259–263
  - financial service providers, 263–269
- Berlusconi, Silvio, 301, 302
- blameworthiness/praiseworthiness, 75, 97, 127
- breach of trust, 117, 122, 262
- bribery, 107–110
- causal responsibility, 142, See also responsibility
- CET (Collective End Theory, S. Miller), 24, 25, 32, 130
- Coady, C. A. J., 8
- codes of ethics, 192–195, See also integrity systems for occupations
- collective goods, 237–238, See also market-based institutions
- collective moral responsibility, 17, 35, 88, 127, 131, 134, 136, 137, 143, 164, 165, 242, 248, 262, 302, See also moral responsibility
- confidence, 121–122
- conflicts of interest, 200–205, See also integrity systems
- circumstantial, 200, 201
  - structural, 18, 158, 161, 200, 201, 204, 205, 239, 242, 244
- corruption
- by noninstitutional actors, 71
  - causal character of, 67–73
  - non-institutional personal, 64–67
  - normative character of, 2
  - personal character of, 64–67
- corruptors
- asymmetry between corruptors and those corrupted, 75–79
  - corrupting and corrupted institutional actors, 79–82
  - moral responsibility of, 73–75
- criminal investigation, 1, 92, 119, 154, 155, 172, 178, 186, 197
- culture. See institutional culture
- deficiencies in relation to institutional accountability
- inadequacies in the correctional and prison system, 13
  - inadequacies in the court system, 13
  - inadequacies in the investigation of corruption, 13
- democracy, liberal, 102, 217, 306
- dirty hands. See noble cause corruption
- disclosure, 210, See also whistleblowing
- Dworkin, Gerald, 126, 180, 181, 182, 185
- Dworkin, Ronald, 298
- elections, 20, 41, 301, 303, 305, 307, 308, 309
- election of political office holders, 20
  - pseudo-, 41
  - US presidential, 20, 307, 308
- Enron, 3, 10, 12, 13, 15, 19, 128, 156, 157, 161, 162, 163, 211, 229, 230, 242, 244–245, 312

- Escobar, Pablo, 15, 16, 103, 104, ethical misconduct, 11, 155, 156, 158, 161, 162, 163, 196, 200, 201, 202, 273, 274, 276, 278, 279, 284, 286
 ethico-professional misconduct, preventative mechanisms for dealing with, 161–162 in the public sector, 162 mechanisms to deal with known sources of, 161–162
- fabricating evidence, 90, 92, 275 favoritism, 110–112
 FBI, 103, 116, 171, 222
 fiduciary duty, 69, 114, 200, 234, 236, 244, 245, 252, 264, 266
 fiduciary relationship, 70, 114, 120, 123, 124
 financial benchmark manipulation, 259–263,
See also LIBOR
 Fourth Estate, 15, 20, 159, 217, 243, 296, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309
 fraud, 115–118
 Fukuyama, Francis, 113, 121, 308, 312
- Global Financial Crisis, 8, 57, 156, 191, 198, 232, 251, 253, 257, 259, 263, 311, 315, 316 globalization, 14
 Gore, Al, 305, 307, 313 government, 290–293
 as a meta-institution, 293–300
 political corruption, 300–304
 political corruption and the media, 304–309 guanxi, 113, 114
 Green, Stuart P., 108, 116
- Hitler Youth, 77, 78
 Hobbes, Thomas, 15, 41, 297 human rights violations, 3, 118, 291
- imbalance of power, 9
 individualism, 24, 25, 32, 57, 137, 318 supra-, 24
 informants, 174–178
 institutional accountability mechanisms, 10–12 deficiencies in relation to institutional accountability, 13
 democracy, 11–12
 separation of power, 12 underlying framework of social norms, 12 institutional corrosion, 66, 73, 74, 292 institutional corruption academic corruption, 3, 4, 89 concept of, 82–88
 financial corruption, 89
 five constituent features of, 64–82 judicial corruption, 3, 73, 89 police corruption, 3, 4, 89, 113, 149, 173, 270, 273, 277, 281, 282, 283, 284, 288
 political corruption, 3, 20, 64, 80, 89, 100, 101, 291, 293, 294, 295, 296, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 309
 institutional culture, 241–242, See also market-based institutions
 institutional emergencies, 103
 institutional purpose, 2, 8, 9, 17, 19, 68, 70, 71, 72, 81, 88, 95, 102, 106, 117, 128, 129, 187, 196, 217, 229, 232–240, 241, 243, 247, 252, 254–261, 288, 290, 304, 305 institutional responsibility chains of, 137–140, 143
 collective, 17, 132, 137, 262, 293 individual and collective, 130–137 institutional and moral responsibility, 140–143
 institutional role
 acting qua member of a group, 31–34
 acting qua member of an institutional role, 31–34
 institutions
 definition of, 23
 teleological normative theory of social institutions, 23
 integrity systems, 147–154
 conflicts of interest, 200–205 holistic integrity systems, 163–164 legislative and regulatory frameworks, 156–157 preventative integrity systems, 160 reactive integrity systems, 154–155 regulatory models, 157–159 transparency mechanisms, 162–163 integrity systems for occupations codes of ethics, 192–195 complaints and discipline systems, 195–198 ethics audits and reputational indexes, 198–200 occupations and professions, 187–190 Internet freedom, 308
 investigations
 general account of, 166–168
 informants, 174–178
 investigation of crimes of corruption, 168–171 investigative independence and
 accountability, 171–174
 undercover operations and traps, 178–186
- Jackall, Robert, 11, 245, 313
 Japan, 12, 13, 14, 257
 joint action, 16, 24–26 levels of, 27–28
 multi-layered structures of, 16, 17, 27, 33, 43, 46, 53, 87, 131, 136, 137, 143, 149, 231,
 240, 247, 253, 269

322

joint institutional mechanisms, 24, 29–31, 43, 45, 131, 137, 143, 149, 260
 voting mechanisms, 131

Kay, John, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 313

Lambsdorff, J. G., 114

Lessig, Lawrence, 2, 20, 259, 292, 301, 302, 303, 304, 314

LIBOR (London internetbank offered rate), 2, 19, 242, 259, 260, 261, 262, market-based institutions, 229–231 anti-corruption strategies for, 247–249 corruption in markets and, 242–246

 Enron, 244–245
 normative teleological account of, 235–242 institutional means culture, 241–242
 structure, rights and duties, 238–241
 institutional purpose
 collective goods, 237–238
 normative theories of markets and, 231–235 free-market fundamentalism, 231–233 other normative accounts, 233–235

media
 political corruption and the, 304–309 moral character, 272

moral environments, 4–7 conditions conducive to corruption, 7–10 conflict and factionalism, 7
 imbalance of power, 9
 moral confusion, 8
 unjust and unequal systems of wealth and status, 8

moral responsibility
 collective, 38, 87, 131
 individual, 87, 134, 135, 248

moral rights
 aggregated, 23, 40, 42, 46, 128 and collective goods, 43, 45 inalienability of basic, 299
 institutional, 36–38
 joint, 38–40
 justifiably enforceable, 297, 298, legally enshrined, 92, 298 of the informant, 175

moral rights and duties
 institutional, 37, 240
 institutionally relative, 239
 natural, 239

Mossack Fonseca, 15, 18, 206, 207, 215, 225, 230, 242

Index

National Security Agency (NSA), 18, 208, 213, 216, 218–225, 312, 313, 316

nepotism, 110–115

Nixon, Richard, 100, 114, 207, noble cause corruption, 89
 in policing, 89–99
 in politics, 99–103

normative institutional theory, 16

Obama, Barack, 29, 30, 33, 34, 292, 307 organizational action, 26–29, 53, 131, 137, 149, 240 organizational hierarchies, 54, 56

Panama Papers, 15, 18, 206, 207, 230, 317, See also Mossack Fonseca

Pei, Minxin, 10

perjury, 93–99

police culture, 276–280
 “blue wall of silence,” 19, 273, 276, 278, 281, 285, 286, 289

police organizations
 integrity systems for, 271–276 professional reporting and internal affairs investigations, 282–288
 professional reporting and police culture, 282 power. See social power privacy and confidentiality, 209, 213, 215, 216, 220, 224

responsibility. See also moral responsibility, institutional responsibility, collective responsibility different senses of, 125–130
 individual, 125–130
 natural, 126, 131, 136

retirement savings schemes, 237, 239, 240, See also
 collective goods

Russia, 7, 12, 55, 57, 208, 297

Schmitt, Frederick, 24

secretiveness, 162

Sherron Watkins case, 211

Smith, Adam, 237, 317

Snowden, Edward, 18, 208, 216 disclosures published in The Guardian newspaper, 218
 right to know versus security, 220–224

social institution
 moral categories, 34
 multifaceted ethico-normative dimension, 34 varieties of, 36

social institutions, definition of, 23

social media, 217, 308, 309

Index

323

- social power, 47–51
   institutional power, 51–57 power of social norms, 58–62 Stiglitz, Joseph, 3, 258 stings. See investigations
- technology, 14, 169, 222 teleological normative account of institutions, 17, 45, 52, 106, 187, 250, 253, 257,
   270, 303
 Thailand, 12, 317
 Thompson, Dennis, 2, 20, 64, 68, 80, 130, 300, 302, 303, 319
 transparency, 7, 14–16, 150, 154, 160, 173, 174, 272
 transparency mechanisms, 162–163, See also
   integrity systems
 traps. See investigations
 Trump, Donald, 12, 54, 171, 172, 297, 302, 307
- trust, 121–124. See also fiduciary duties,
   breach of trust
   lack of, 114, 151, 268
- undercover operations. See investigations USA, 301–309
- Wall Street, 170, 220, 254, 258, 312
 Watergate scandal, 100, 114, 207
 Weber, Max, 101
   Weberian notion of power, 17, 62
 whistleblowing, 206–209
   definition of, 209–212
   disclosure, 210
   ethics of unauthorized disclosure, 216–217
   privacy and confidentiality, 213–216
   right to know, 217–218
   security versus right to know, 216–217
- Yorkshire Ripper, 137, 139