Index

absolute error 43
accounting models 72, 73, 74–5
fiscal implications 95, 99
health expenditure 86, 87
pension projections 146, 154–6 actuarity rate (AR) 152, 153 Africa 104, 197
ageing population 184, 30, 31
computable equilibrium models 165–7
aggregate mortality risk 260–4; model solution 264–5; overview 7, 258–60, 266–8; results 265–6
aggregate uncertainty 223, 236
ageing population 259
ageing population : contribution rates 165
fiscal implications 72
German pension reforms 117, 120
life-cycle saving 234
German pension reforms 127, 130–2
health expenditure 94–5, 96, 97, 104, 105
long-term fiscal projections 110
pension projections 82, 87, 90, 144
UPE forecasts 61
world regions 195, 197, 201, 207, 211

see also longevity adjustment
aggregate mortality risk 260–4; model solution 264–5;
overview 7, 258–60, 266–8; results 265–6
life-cycle saving 224–7; demographics 221–4;
overview 6–7, 219–21, 235–7; results 227–35
aggregate uncertainty 223, 236
annuity rates 259

aggregate mortality risk : the model 260–4; model solution 264–5;
overview 7, 258–60, 266–8; results 265–6
life-cycle saving 220
ARIMA modelling 42
'assumption drag' 26
assumption lag 55
baby boom 4, 98
baby bust 98, 251
Belgium 104
fiscal implications 72, 73, 75
health expenditure 96, 98, 100
pension projections 83, 84, 86, 89 birth rates 26, 51, 67, 241, 246–8

CCAPM see consumption capital asset pricing model Chinese region 70, 197, 204, 211, 214 cohort-component method 13, 14, 34, 51, 55–61, 219 completed fertility rate (CFR) 27 computable general equilibrium (CGE) models computational issues 188
demographic uncertainty 185–6 deterministic models 184–5 future directions 189
overview 184
stochastic models 186, 188–9 constant elasticity of substitution (CES) 203 consumption capital asset pricing model (CCAPM) 260 contribution rates 275
ageing population 165
fiscal implications 72
German pension reforms 127, 130–2
life-cycle saving 234
contribution rates (cont.)
longevity adjustment as pension policy:
  adjusting pensions 138; contribution and replacement rates 145–6, 149–52;
  overview 137, 158; Sweden 140 retirement age 244, 247, 248, 251–2, 253 curse of dimensionality (Bellman) 188, 189 debt
ageing population 5–6, 166, 167, 168
aggregate mortality risk and annuity rates 258 economics of demographic uncertainty 274
fiscal implications 71
German pension reforms 124
longevity adjustment 239 defined-benefit (DB) systems
  computable equilibrium models 185, 187, 191
economics of demographic uncertainty 273
longevity adjustment as pension policy 150, 158–9
longevity adjustment of retirement age 244, 247–9, 254 defined-contribution (DC) systems
  computable equilibrium models 185, 187
longevity adjustment as pension policy 139, 140, 150, 158–9
longevity adjustment of retirement age 244, 247, 248–9, 254 ‘demographic factor’ 139, 141
demographic trends
changes in forecast assumptions 14–24
cohort-component method 13
longevity adjustment 148
overview 11–13, 30–2
population forecasts 2
UPE assumptions 24–30
demographic uncertainty
ageing population: GAMMA model 163–5; optimal policy under demographic certainty 167–71; optimal policy under demographic uncertainty 174–8; overview 161–3, 178–9; stochastic demographics 171–4; unsustainable government finances 165–7
computable equilibrium models 185–6 economics of: household behaviour and welfare 270–2; overview 270, 273–4; scope for insurance 272–3 fiscal implications: basic demographic framework 66–7; migration 70; model descriptions 72–5; mortality and fertility 68–70; overview 65–6, 77–80; results 75–7; tax increases 70–2
forecast uncertainty 1–3
German pension reforms 120
health care expenditure: age profile 95–7; cost pressure 104–5; demographic uncertainty 97–101; overview 94–5, 105–6; uncertainty in age-profile 101–4
life-cycle saving 236–7
longevity adjustment of retirement age: equilibrium and responses to shocks 244–50; evaluating alternative policy rules 250–1; the model 241–4; overview 239–41, 254–5; results 251–4
long-term fiscal projections: 109–12
measurement issues 3–4
methodological issues 6–7
pension projections: future directions 89–91; overview 82–3; sensitivity analysis 87–9; variance between countries 83–7 policy issues 4–6
world regions: INGENUE 1–2; multi-regional model 205–14; overview 195–6, 215–16; stochastic forecasts 196–201 see also demographic trends; forecast uncertainty Denmark
pension projections 83, 84, 86, 89
uncertainty in long-term fiscal projections 110 dependency ratio
ageing population 171, 172
German pension reforms 117
longevity adjustment of retirement age 239
UPE forecasts 56, 59
world regions: multi-regional model 207–9, 211; stochastic forecasting 197, 201 see also old-age dependency ratio disability 142, 147
Eastern Europe 197, 204
Economic Policy Committee (EPC) 82, 87, 88, 89, 90, 110
EEA+ see European Economic Area elderly population
Index

forecast uncertainty 51
German pension reforms 134 health expenditure: age-profile 96, 97; demographic uncertainty 98; mortality 103, 104; overview 94, 95, 106
pension projections 84
UPE forecasts 61
world regions 207
emigration 70, 85, 86
employment rates 88, 90 employment risk 186, 190
EPC see Economic Policy Committee European Economic Area (EEA+)

demographic trends: forecast assumptions 14, 16, 19, 24; overview 30, 31; population forecasts 12; UPE assumptions 27, 30, 56
European Investment Bank 260
Eurostat
demographic trends: cohort-component method 13; forecast assumptions 14, 15, 19, 24; overview 30, 31; population forecasts 13; UPE assumptions 12, 29, 56
forecast uncertainty 38, 44, 47, 50, 51
long-term fiscal projections 109, 110
factor price effect 247, 248, 250 fertility
computable equilibrium models 187, 190
demographic trends 14–19, 27–8, 30 fiscal implications: basic demographic framework 67; mortality and fertility 68–70
forecast uncertainty 38, 42, 44–5
German pension reforms 117, 120, 121
health expenditure 98, 101, 104
longevity adjustment as pension policy 5, 150, 158
longevity adjustment of retirement age 240, 246–8, 251, 254
UPE forecasts 56
world regions 196, 197, 209
Finland
fiscal implications 72, 73, 75
longevity adjustment as pension policy: adjusting pensions 139; economic analysis 141; economic effects 149–57; economic model 147; Finnish pension scheme 142–6; overview 5, 158–9 mortality 46, 222
pension projections 83, 84–5, 86, 89
firms’ behaviour 147, 203–4 fiscal effect 247, 248, 250 fiscal solvency 65
forecast uncertainty
modelling uncertainty 38–44
overview 2–3, 26, 34–6
practical specification of uncertainty 44–51 pros and cons of forecasts 51–3 research on ageing 51 uncertainty in official population forecasts 36–8 FPATH 236
G3 dependency ratio 207–8
G5 dependency ratio 207, 209
GAMMA model
ageing population: demographic certainty 167, 168, 170, 171; overview 5, 163–5; stochastic demographics 171
fiscal implications 74
GDP (gross domestic product)
ageing population 166–7, 168
fiscal implications 71, 73
German pension reforms 117
health expenditure 94, 99, 104, 105, 106
pension projections 83, 84, 85
world regions: multi-regional model 205, 207, 209; overview 196, 215 general equilibrium models 91, 204, 266, 273
German Pension Act 139
Germany
demographic trends 12, 24, 31
fiscal implications 72, 73–4, 75
health expenditure 96, 98, 100
long-term fiscal projections 110
pension projections 83, 84, 86, 89 pension reforms: calibration and simulation 125–8; future benefit cuts 129–33; motivation 117–18; overview 5, 133–5; simulation model 119–25 government expenditure 70, 71 government insurance 272–3 gross domestic product see GDP
health expenditure
ageing population 167
demographic uncertainty: age-profile 95–7, 101–4; cost pressure 104–5; expenditure under demographic uncertainty 97–101; overview 4, 94–5, 105–6
Index

278  health expenditure (cont.)
    fiscal implications 65, 73
    German pension reforms 123, 124, 126, 127
    life-cycle saving 220
    hospital costs 101, 102–3 household behaviour 147, 202–3, 242–3, 270–2, 273

Iceland 24, 29

Japanese idiosyncratic risk 186–7, 190, 220, 221
Japanese idiosyncratic uncertainty 186–7, 188, 223, 236

immigration
    demographic trends 12, 24, 30
    fiscal implications 70
    forecast uncertainty 38
    German pension reforms 120, 121, 122
    health expenditure 104
    pension projections 85–6

income tax ageing population : demographic certainty 167; demographic uncertainty 177; example 179;
        GAMMA model 164
    stochastic demographics 172
    fiscal implications 75

indexation
    German pension reforms 118, 120, 130
    longevity adjustment as pension policy 140, 141, 148, 150
    longevity adjustment of retirement age 254
    pension projections 85, 87
    pension reforms in German context 5

Indian region 197, 204, 211, 213, 214

inflation 112, 118

INGENUE 1–2

insurance 220, 221, 272–3

interest rates
    annuity rates 258
    computable equilibrium models 184, 191
    fiscal implications 72
    longevity adjustment of retirement age 240
    pension projections 88, 90

world regions : multi-regional model 205–6, 208, 207–9; overview 195, 196, 215 investment 195, 206, 207, 209

Ireland 28, 29

Japanese 24, 195, 197, 199, 206, 211

labour productivity see productivity labour supply

    ageing population 163–4, 168
    computable equilibrium models 190
    demographic trends 30
    fiscal implications 66, 72
    German pension reforms 124
    longevity adjustment as pension policy 147, 148, 157–8, 159
    longevity adjustment of retirement age 241, 249, 251, 252, 253, 254
    pension projections 87, 90

world regions 197

Latvia 139, 140

Le Chatelier's principle 268

life-cycle saving
    aggregate mortality risk : consumer's problem 224–7; demographics 221–4; overview 6, 219–21, 235–7; results 227–35

life expectancy
    ageing population 166
    aggregate mortality risk 234, 236, 258, 259 demographic trends : forecast assumptions 19–24; overview 30, 31; population forecasts 11; UPE assumptions 26, 28, 29, 30
    fiscal implications 67
    forecast uncertainty 47
    German pension reforms 120, 122
    health expenditure 97, 102 longevity adjustment as pension policy : adjusting pensions 138, 139; economic analysis 142; Finland 152, 158; Finnish pension scheme 143;
        overview 137; Sweden 140
    longevity adjustment of retirement age 239, 240
    pension projections 88, 90
    UPE forecasts 56

world regions 197, 209, 214

Lithuania 141

longevity
    annuity rates 262, 263
    economics of demographic uncertainty 273
    pension projections 91
    UPE forecasts 56

longevity adjustment
    pension policy : adjusting pensions 138–42; economic effects in Finland 149–57; economic model 146–8;
Index

Finnish pension scheme 142–6; overview 4, 5, 137–8, 158–9 retirement age: equilibrium and responses to shocks 244–50; evaluating alternative policy rules 250–1; the model 241–4; overview 7, 239–41, 254–5; results 251–4 longevity bonds 260 longevity risk 186, 190, 260

macro-economic consequences in world regions
INGENUE 1–2
multi-regional model 205–14
overview 195–6, 215–16
stochastic population forecasts 196–201 macro-economic risk 186, 190 macro-economic uncertainty 187–8 MALTESE (Model for Analysis of Long Term Evolution of Social Expenditure) 73
Medicare 100, 106
migration
ageing population 166
demographic trends: changes in forecast assumptions 24; overview 30, 31;
population forecasts 2, 13; UPE assumptions 29–30 fiscal implications; migration 70; mortality and fertility 69–70 forecast uncertainty: modelling uncertainty 38, 39, 41; practical specification of uncertainty 48–50; research on ageing 51
German pension reforms 120, 121, 122
health expenditure 104
longevity adjustment 159, 240
pension projections 85–6
UPE forecasts 56
world regions 197
Monte Carlo methods 42, 112, 189
mortality
demographic trends 2, 19–24, 28–9
economics of demographic uncertainty 272
fiscal implications 67, 68–70 forecast uncertainty: modelling uncertainty 38, 39, 41, 42, 43; practical specification of uncertainty 45–7, 50; research on ageing 51
German pension reforms 120, 121
health expenditure 97, 102–4
longevity adjustment 137, 144, 150, 239
long-term fiscal projections 109

pension projections 90
UPE forecasts 58–9
world regions 196
see also aggregate mortality risk naïve forecasts 42, 43, 45, 46
National Insurance 75
net migration
demographic trends: forecast assumptions 24; overview 30, 31;
population forecasts 2, 13; UPE assumptions 30
fiscal implications 70
forecast uncertainty 41, 48–50
pension projections 85
the Netherlands
ageing population 161, 163, 165, 171
fiscal implications 72, 74, 77, 80
health expenditure 96, 97, 98, 100
life expectancy 29
pension projections 83, 84, 86, 89
North America 197, 199, 204, 211, 213 Norway 140, 157
notional defined-contribution (NDC) system 139

old-age dependency ratio (OADR)
ageing population 166
demographic trends 11, 12
forecast uncertainty 38, 39
German pension reforms 117, 120, 122, 128, 133
health expenditure 98, 100, 106
longevity adjustment 150, 240
pension projections 84
world regions 195
overlapping-generations model (OGM)
aggregate mortality risk 220, 236, 258, 260 computable equilibrium models: computational issues 188; deterministic models 184; future directions 190; macro-economic uncertainty 187; stochastic models 189
longevity adjustment 146, 241, 244
pension projections 86

PAYG (pay-as-you-go)
computable equilibrium models 187
economics of demographic uncertainty 273
life-cycle saving 237
longevity adjustment as pension policy 137, 138, 144
PAYG (pay-as-you-go) (cont.) longevity adjustment of retirement age 239, 244, 251, 254 pensions ageing population 164, 167 aggregate mortality risk and annuity rates 258, 259 aggregate mortality risk and life-cycle saving 220, 234, 236–7 computable equilibrium models 190, 191 demographic uncertainty and pension projections: future directions 89–91; overview 3–4, 82–3; sensitivity analysis 87–9; variance between countries 83–7 economics of demographic uncertainty 273 forecast uncertainty 11, 42 German pension reforms: calibration and simulation 125–8; future benefit cuts 129–33; motivation 117–18; overview 5, 133–5; simulation model 119–25 health expenditure 94–5, 99, 100, 106 longevity adjustment as pension policy: adjusting pensions 138–42; economic effects in Finland 149–57; economic model 146–8; Finnish pension scheme 142–6; overview 4, 5, 137–8, 158–9 longevity adjustment of retirement age: equilibrium and responses to shocks 248, 249; evaluating alternative policy rules 250, 251; overview 240; results 252, 254 PEP (Program for Error Propagation) ageing population 171, 172 forecast uncertainty 39, 41 German pension reforms 120 world regions 198, 200 population ageing see ageing population population forecasts ageing population 162, 165 changes in forecast assumptions 14–24 cohort-component method 13 demographic trends 2, 11, 12 fiscal implications 66, 77 forecast uncertainty 1, 34, 36–8, 51–3 German pension reforms 121 health expenditure 95, 99 life-cycle saving 219, 236 longevity adjustment 152, 156 long-term fiscal projections 109–10 pension projections 82, 90 UPE forecasts 56 world regions 195, 196–201, 205, 215 Portugal 27, 29 precautionary fiscal policy 161, 162, 179 precautionary savings ageing population 162, 177, 178 annuity rates 265 computable equilibrium models 185, 186 life-cycle saving 228, 235, 237 predictive distribution 35, 43 productivity computable equilibrium models 191 longevity adjustment 240, 243 pension projections 87–8, 89, 90, 91 world regions 203 public debt 5–6, 124, 239, 258, 274 rational expectations aggregate mortality risk and life-cycle saving: consumer’s problem 225, 227; overview 219, 220, 221, 226; results 227, 228, 229, 230, 232–5 relative error 43 replacement rates German pension reforms 130–2, 133 life-cycle saving 234 longevity adjustment as pension policy: contribution and replacement rates 146, 148, 149–52; overview 137, 158 longevity adjustment of retirement age 244, 248 retirement ageing population 171 annuity rates 258, 260 German pension reforms: benefit cuts 129, 131, 132–3; calibration and simulation 125; motivation 117, 118; overview 5, 134; simulation model 119 health expenditure 99 life-cycle saving 221, 224, 226 longevity adjustment as pension policy: adjusting pensions 138, 139; economic model 147; Finland 142, 156, 157–8; Sweden 140 longevity adjustment of retirement age: equilibrium and responses to shocks 244–50; evaluating alternative policy rules 250–1; the model 241–4; overview 7, 239–41, 254–5; results 251–4 pension projections 87, 90, 91 Riester reform 118, 120
Index

risk 186, 190, 191; see also aggregate mortality risk risk aversion
annuity rates 264, 265, 266, 267
economics of demographic uncertainty 271
life-cycle saving 221, 226–7, 228, 234 risk-sharing
computable equilibrium models 186, 187
German pension reforms 132–3, 134
longevity adjustment as pension policy 138–9
longevity adjustment of retirement age : equilibrium and responses to shocks 244–50; evaluating alternative policy rules 250–1; the model 241–4; overview 239–41, 254–5; results 251–4 Rürup Commission 118, 129
Russian region 197, 199, 201, 205

savings
ageing population 162, 177, 178
computable equilibrium models 186, 187, 188
longevity adjustment 156, 249
pension projections 90
world regions : multi-regional model 206, 207, 209, 211–14; overview 195, 216; stochastic forecasting 197 see also life-cycle saving sensitivity analysis 87–9, 110, 200 social security computable equilibrium models 87 : demographic uncertainty 186; deterministic models 184, 185; future directions 190; idiosyncratic uncertainty 187; macro-economic uncertainty 187
fiscal implications 80
German pension reforms 123, 124
longevity adjustment 244
Spain
fiscal implications 72, 74–5, 77
health expenditure : age-profile 96; cost pressure 105; demographic uncertainty 98, 99, 100; fertility 101; mortality 102; overview 94
life expectancy 29
long-term fiscal projections 110
pension projections 84, 86, 89
sparse grid methods 189
stochastic forecasting
ageing population 162, 165, 171–4, 178
cohort-component method 13–14
computable equilibrium models 184, 186, 188–9
fiscal implications 66, 77
forecast uncertainty 1, 2, 34, 36, 51–3
life-cycle saving 220, 221
longevity adjustment 156
long-term fiscal projections 109, 110, 112
methodological issues 6
pension projections 82, 90
policy issues 4
UPE forecasts 55, 57–8, 61
world regions 196–201, 206, 215 sustainability factor 85, 118, 120, 130 133, 134
sustainability gap
ageing population 167, 168, 172
fiscal implications 74
German pension reforms 128, 129, 130
longevity adjustment 152
Sweden 57, 59, 139–40, 157 taxation ageing population : demographic certainty 167, 168, 169, 170; demographic uncertainty 174, 175–7; example 180; GAMMA model 164, 165; overview 6, 161, 162, 178; stochastic demographics 172–3; unsustainable government finances 167
computable equilibrium models 184, 185, 186
economics of demographic uncertainty 273 fiscal implications : model descriptions 72, 73, 74, 75; overview 3, 65, 66, 79; results 75–7; tax increases 70–2 German pension reforms : benefit cuts 129, 130; calibration and simulation 125, 127, 128; motivation 118; simulation model 123, 124
longevity adjustment 239, 248, 251–2, 253, 254
pension projections 87
tax-smoothing policy
ageing population : demographic certainty 167, 168, 169, 170, 171; demographic uncertainty 174, 175, 177, 178; example 180; overview 6, 161
longevity adjustment 239, 240
TPF see total factor productivity
TFR see total fertility rate
Index

282

Index

tontines 261, 267

total dependency ratio 166, 171

total factor productivity (TFP) 88, 89, 148, 203, 204

total fertility rate (TFR)

demographic trends 14–15, 27, 28

forecast uncertainty 44

UPE forecasts 56

world regions 197

UN see United Nations

Uncertain Population of Europe see UPE

uncertainty see demographic uncertainty unemployment 88, 90, 117, 147

United Kingdom

fiscal implications 69, 72, 75, 77, 80

pension projections 86, 89

United Nations (UN)

demographic trends: cohort-component method 13; forecast assumptions 14, 15, 16, 19, 24; overview 30, 31;

population forecasts 11–12; UPE assumptions 12, 29

forecast uncertainty: official forecasts 38; practical specification of uncertainty 44, 47, 50; research on ageing 51

long-term fiscal projections 109, 110

world regions 198

United States 79, 80, 94, 141

UPE (Uncertain Population of Europe)

demographic trends: forecast assumptions 14, 15, 19; overview 31;

population forecasts 13; UPE assumptions 24–30

forecast uncertainty: modelling uncertainty 40; official forecasts 38; practical specification of uncertainty 44, 45, 47, 50

life-cycle saving 221, 223

UPE forecasts 51, 55–61

wages

ageing population 163, 168

longevity adjustment as pension policy 148, 149, 150, 158, 159

longevity adjustment of retirement age 247, 248, 249

pension projections 85, 87

wars 43, 51, 70

welfare changes

ageing population 170, 174, 177, 178

computable equilibrium models 185

economics of demographic uncertainty 270–2, 273

German pension reforms 132–3, 134

life-cycle saving 227–34, 235, 236–7

longevity adjustment as pension policy 141, 158

longevity adjustment of retirement age 239, 240, 250, 252, 254, 255

Western Europe

multi-regional model 205, 206, 211, 213, 214

stochastic forecasting 197, 199, 201

working-age population

longevity adjustment 246

pension projections 84, 90

world regions: multi-regional model 206, 207, 209, 211, 213; overview 195, 213; stochastic forecasting 197

world dependency ratio 207, 209

world economy

INGENUE 1–2

multi-regional model 205–14

overview 6, 195–6, 215–16

stochastic population forecasts 196–201