

INDEX

- accessible classlessness, sociology of
 - aspirations as 7
- allocation of resources 175
- Amsterdam, Treaty of, adoption of
 - gender mainstreaming 35–6
- Arctic Systems* case
 - comparative context 129–36
 - implications 149
 - issues 106–7
 - legislative response 192
- auditing procedure
 - gender budgeting, as 43–51
 - gender budgeting, in 41–3
 - role in embeddedness of gender
 - budgeting 46–7
- Australia
 - child support scheme 153
 - gender budgeting in 50
 - success of tax simplification 81–2
 - tax credits 118–19
- Beijing Platform of Action, initiatives
 - on gender equality 38–9, 66–80
- bias
 - racial bias, critical tax theory
 - analysis 9
 - US tax system 9
- bias against women see also explicit
 - bias; implicit bias; inequality
- allegation 3
- economic inequality as basis for
 - sexual inequality 54–5
- gender budgeting, establishing
 - presumption of 3
- law as source of 4
- study of legal literature on 4
- tax system, in, study of literature 4
- tax system as forum to address
 - 177–9
 - whether anomaly or choice 4–5
- Bolivia, gender budgeting in 49
- book
 - approaches 6, 9, 10
 - comparative focus 2–3, 4
 - conclusions 183–92
 - focus on UK 183
 - international focus 183–4
 - jurisdictional analysis 4
 - main argument 1
 - main finding 183
 - main themes 183
 - methodology 1–12
 - new institutionalism, and 6–7
 - problems identified 171
 - project 1, 171
 - purpose 2, 4–5
 - scope 1–12
 - structure of arguments 183
 - targeted demonstration of tax
 - system, as 4–5
- thesis
 - areas of investigation 3, 4, 5–10,
 - 11–12
 - overview 4–8
 - problem 5–6
 - starting points 3–4, 5–6
 - themes 7
 - use of sources 1, 2–3
- budget
 - gender-budgeting analysis, and
 - 47–8
 - importance of 23–4, 25
 - link between gender budgeting and
 - tax system, as 3–4

- budget (cont.)
 - organisation of economy, and 3–4
 - reform to promote gender equality 51
- business tax policy
 - chapter summary 59, 61
 - overview 60–80
- California, gender tax 181–2
- Canada
 - difference model applied to tax policy for women 20
 - feminist materialist theory in 52–3
 - joint and several liability for spouses 133
 - Marxist theory in 52–3
 - tax credits 118–19
- capital gains tax, introduction 62
- catastrophe theory, application of 88
- chaos theory, application of 87–8
- child benefit, combined objectives 109–10
- child centrism
 - adoption by New Labour 109, 110
 - family taxation, and 107–26
 - independent taxation, and 134–5
 - replacement of marriage as focus of family tax policy 125–6
- child support, gross income calculation 151–5
- Child Trust Fund, critique 152
- Civil Partnerships Act 14
 - family policy, and 180–1
 - impact 138–40
- class issues of tax policy 94
- cohabitation, tax policy 140–1
- common law jurisdictions, adoption of English tax rules 190–1
- ‘common purse’ presumption in family taxation 145–51
- comparative law
 - critique of ‘old approach’ 18–19
 - distinct discipline, as 18
 - key features 19–20
 - legocentrism and 19–20
 - literature of 18
 - marginal role of critical theory 19–20
 - ‘new’ approach
 - difference model, and 20
 - tax law and gender, and 20, 187–8
 - reinvention as governance 19
 - replacement by internationalisation 18
 - transitional phase 19–20
- comparative tax policy as distinct discipline 18
- complexity theory applied to analysis of gender and tax policy 88–90
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW)
 - human rights agenda 30
 - provisions 39
 - UN initiative, as 38–9
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) 70–1
 - concept 60–1
 - corporation tax, and 61–4
 - corporation tax compliance as overview 64–5
 - writings 65
 - potential for gender equality 60
 - tax avoidance, and 64–80
 - taxation, and
 - future of 191
 - overview 60–80
 - questions 71
 - Tobin tax, and 75–7
- corporation tax
 - corporate social responsibility, and see corporate social responsibility (CSR)
 - design 63–4
 - fair tax payment concept 77–8
 - introduction 61–3
 - Marxism, and 74
 - Modigliani–Miller theory, and 74
 - Tobin tax 75–7

- 'cradle to grave' approach to welfare state 180
- critical tax theory
 - analysis of
 - inequality 8–9
 - racial bias 9
 - applied to tax policy 91–102
 - study of literature 8–9
 - taxation of housework 174–5
- critical theory, marginal role in comparative law 19–20
- currency reform and new institutionalist analysis 158
- Denmark, gender budgeting in 49
- difference model
 - comparative law, and 20
 - tax policy, and 20
 - tax subsidies, and 21
- differential pricing as source of inequality 181
- disadvantaged groups in tax policy 71–3, 94
- 'discarded material', dynamic systems theory applied to defining of 84–6
- 'disembedded market economy' thesis (Polanyi) 53, 59
- division of labour, Polanyi on 54
- domicile and residence rules, new institutionalist analysis of inertia and change in 163–5
- 'double movement'
 - gender budgeting, and 58–9
 - Polanyi's thesis 26–8, 57–8
- double taxation treaties see tax treaties
- dynamic systems theory
 - complexity of legislation, and 87
 - contrasted with feminist legal theory 191–2
 - elements 87–8
 - environmental law, and 84–6
 - gender budgeting, and 86
 - physical sciences, and 86–7
 - Ruhl's use of 84–6
 - tax law, of 83–90
 - weather forecasting, and 86–7
- Earned Income Tax Credit, success in US 111–12
- economic equality for women see also inequality
 - achievability 39–40
 - achievement through tax system 9–10
 - feminist materialist project's emphasis on 2
 - feminist proposals 182
 - goal 9
 - limitations of tax system 1
 - presumption of 172–5
 - progress in US 119–20
 - role of gender budgeting in achieving 39–40
 - women's economic status
 - analysis 5–6
 - new institutionalism, and 6–7
 - relevance 5–6
- economic rationality, Polanyi's challenge 55
- economics, new institutionalist analysis and Keynesian economics 160
- economy see also market economy
 - choice of
 - budget and 3–4
 - society's freedom for 3–4
 - family taxation, and 8–9
 - focus of gender budgeting on 36
 - new institutionalist analysis, and 167–70
 - Polanyi on need for planned socialist economy 56–7
 - stability, link with family spending decisions 182
 - women's status 5–6
- embedded economy
 - chapter summary 53
 - gender, and 52–3
 - implications for market economy 53–8
- embedded institution
 - market as 27–8
 - taxation as 23–8

- embeddedness
 - gender budgeting, of see gender budgeting
 - gender mainstreaming, of 47
 - theory of embedded markets 27–8, 55–6
- emergence theory, application of 87–8
- employers' responsibilities for gender equality, comparative law and 21–2
- employment rates, women's 120
- 'engulfment', concept of 189
- environmental auditing, comparison with gender budgeting 44–5
- environmental law, dynamic systems theory applied to 84–6
- equality
 - economic equality, women see economic equality for women
 - gender equality see gender equality
- European Commission
 - changing role of 41
 - definition of gender budgeting 24
 - empowerment 42–3
 - recommendations on independent taxation 135–6
- European law, embedding of gender mainstreaming 33–4
- European Parliament
 - report on gender budgeting 40–1
 - resolution on gender budgeting 40
 - support for gender budgeting 42–3
- European Union (EU)
 - adoption of gender mainstreaming 35–6
 - development of gender budgeting 41–3
 - 'Roadmap' see 'Roadmap' for gender equality
 - tax policy and new institutionalist analysis 169–70
- Eurostat
 - introduction 41–2
 - significance 41–2
- explicit bias
 - book's treatment of 3
 - ease of identifying 3
 - legislation, in 4–5
- fair tax payment, concept 77–8
- family see also household
 - achievement of feminist goals 7–8
 - change in defining 125–6
 - difficulty determining household wealth 182
 - difficulty of economic analysis 176–7
 - feminism, and 180–1
 - government support through tax system 7–8
 - historical idea 157
 - New Labour policy 180–1
 - paradox of support by tax system 189–90
 - seen as family business 149–50
 - spending decisions, link with economic stability 182
- family and work, social science models 113
- family businesses and tax system 127–9 see also Arctic Systems case
- family law
 - divergence from tax law 151–6
 - interaction with tax law 145–56
- family taxation
 - achievement of economic equality for women through 9–10
 - Arctic Systems* case see Arctic Systems case
 - bias against two-worker families 177–9
 - child benefit 109–10
 - child centrism, and 107–26
 - Child Trust Fund 152
 - 'common purse' presumption 145–51
 - distinction between public and private spheres of activity 179–82, 188–90, 192
 - divergence from family law 151–6
 - economic role 8–9
 - independent taxation, and 126–9
 - interaction with family law 145–56
 - Nugent-Head v. Jacob* 146–9
 - overview 103–6, 156
 - targeting of women's economic choices 186

- feminism
 - achievement of goals
 - family 7–8
 - independent taxation 9–10, 109–10
 - tax credits 109
 - tax system 5
 - approaches to tax law 94–102
 - contradictory choices 5–6
 - gender budgeting as
 - identifying goals, problem of 5–6
 - influence on tax policy 8–12
 - Marxism, and 52–3
 - variation within 2
- feminist international relations theory,
 - parallel with growth of gender mainstreaming 33–4
- feminist legal theory
 - contrasted with dynamic systems theory 191–2
 - variation within 2
- feminist literature, Polanyi's
 - contribution 55
- feminist materialist project
 - emphasis on economic issues 2
 - need for focus on tax law and policy 2
- feminist materialist theory
 - gender budgeting, and 52–3
 - influence 55
 - need for 188
- feminist scholarship, comparative
 - focus 2–3
- feminist tax policy, international focus 188–9
- fiscal sociology, Schumpeter's theory 168
- 'framing' of women by global
 - governance 38–41
- France, tax credits 118–19
- gender
 - agenda see 'international gender agenda'
 - basis of travelling to work, Polanyi's theory 57
 - complexity theory applied to tax policy and 88–90
 - division of labour based on,
 - Polanyi's theory 54
 - embedded economy, and 52–3
 - impact assessment 43
 - movement away from dualistic view 10
 - 'new' approach to comparative law, and 20
 - statistics 43
 - tax avoidance, and 66–71
 - tax law and gender, 'new'
 - comparative law approaches 187–8
 - tax policy, and
 - chapter summary 171–2
 - overview 171–82
 - taxation as gender issue 186
- Gender Analysis of Expenditure project
 - conclusions 32–3
 - Women's Budget Group (WBG),
 - role of 31
- gender bias see bias against women
- gender budgeting
 - 'à la carte' approach to
 - mainstreaming, as 43
 - accountability 44
 - aims 43, 49
 - audience 44
 - auditing procedure, as 43–51
 - auditing procedure, use of 41–3
 - causing delayed action, whether 39
 - chapter summary 22, 23–4, 26–8
 - comparison with environmental
 - auditing 44–5
 - convergence, as 43
 - critique
 - development in EU 41–3
 - domestic-level policy, as 35
 - 'double movement', and 58–9
 - dynamic systems theory, and 86
 - economic focus 36
 - effect of information gained 48–9
 - embeddedness
 - overview 43–51
 - role of auditing procedure 46–7
 - establishing presumption of bias
 - against women 3
 - European Commission definition 24

- gender budgeting (cont.)
 European Commission's changing role 41
 European Parliament
 report 40–1
 resolution 40
 support 42–3
 expectations 25, 50
 feminist materialist theory, and 52–3 focus of 46–7
 free market, in 56–7
 growth of movement 28
 impact assessment in 43 importance of political strategy 186–7 indirect taxes, and 49 influence on regulation 58–9 international movement, as 183–4 lobbying success, as 44
 long-term process, as 58
 objectives 30–3, 47–50
 obligation for 23
 OECD support 37–8
 overview 23–59
 planned socialist economy, in 56–7 political impact 51 projects 40
 relationship to gender mainstreaming 33–6
 repackaged political feminism, as role in 'Roadmapping' initiatives 41
 scope 46, 47–8
 starting point for analysis, as 3 statistics in 43
 success of gender mainstreaming, as 47
 tax system, and 3–4
 value of analysis 3
 VAT, and 49
 World Bank report 51
 Gender Directive, gender-budgeting obligation 23
 gender equality
 achievement through tax system 9–10, 26
 corporate social responsibility, and 60
 difficulty incorporating 59
 'disembedded market economy' thesis, and 59 employers' responsibilities, comparative law analysis 21–2 integration into international tax 69–70 legal profession, in 21
 limitations of tax law 1, 185, 192
 promotion by budget reform 51
 'Roadmap' see 'Roadmap' for gender equality
 UN initiatives 38–9
 gender mainstreaming
 'à la carte' approach to 43
 achievements 47
 adoption 35–6 aim 33
 driver for 'Roadmap' for gender equality, as 42–3 embedding in European law 33–4
 European-level policy, as 35 feminist international relations theory, parallel with 33–4 gender budgeting as success 47 global governance, and 36–43
 growth of movement 33–4
 meaningfulness 34–5
 part of 'international gender agenda', as 33–4
 Regional Symposium 31 relationship to gender budgeting 33–6 success in various countries 49 success of embeddedness 47
 use of 25
 gender tax, objectives 181–2
 Gender Tax Repeal Act 1995, effectiveness 181
 Germany
 currency reform and new institutionalist analysis 158
 gender mainstreaming 35
 importance of housewife 150–1
 tax rate changes, research 168
 global economic order, achievement through tax system 36–7

- global governance
 - 'framing' of women 38–41
 - gender mainstreaming, and 36–43
- global poverty, OECD's promotion of
 - global trade as solution 36–7
- 'global schoolyard bully', OECD as 37–8
- global taxation, OECD philosophy 68–9
- global trade, perceived threat from tax havens 36–7
- governance, comparative law
 - reinvented as 19
- Great Transformation, The*, see Polanyi, Karl
- gross income calculation and child support 151–5
- Haig–Simons definition of income
 - economic analysis of the family, and 176–7
 - use of 70–1
- harmful tax competition, threat 68–9
- Himmelweit, Susan, gender budgeting, on 47–50
- historical institutionalism, application of 159–60
- household, place in economy, complexity of issues 189
- household wealth, difficulty determining 182
- housewife, importance of 150–1
- housework
 - critical tax theory 174–5
 - taxation 174–5
- impact assessment in gender budgeting 43
- implicit bias
 - approaches to analysing 184
 - overview 3–4
 - relevance of social science literature 6–7
 - thesis 4–5
 - value of analysis 3
- income
 - Haig–Simons definition of income 70–1
 - problem of defining 151–5
 - relationship to taxation 64
- Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, s. 660A and Arctic Systems case 106–7, 136
- income tax laws and new institutionalist analysis 168
- independent taxation
 - chapter summary 155
 - child centrism, and 134–5
 - competing goal to redistribution of wealth to women, as 6
 - constraints on comparative analysis 133–4, 135
 - critiques 127
 - effect of 126, 133–5
 - European Commission recommendations 135–6
 - family taxation, and 126–9
 - feminist achievement, as 9–10, 109–10
 - importance of 9–10
 - origins in Married Women's Property Act 1882 125
 - privacy issues 93
 - tax credits as exception 126–7
- India, gender budgeting in 25
- indirect taxes and gender budgeting 49
- inequality see also bias against women
 - allocation of resources as answer to 175
 - differential pricing as source of 181
 - economic inequality as basis for sexual inequality 54–5
 - invisibility 8–9
 - tax system as forum to address 175–9, 186–8
 - taxation of housework as answer to 175
- inequality, critical tax theory, and 8–9
- institutions see also embedded
 - institution; new institutionalism
 - analysis by gender budgeting 46–7
 - tax policy, and 8–12
- interactive model of family and work, application of 113

- 'international gender agenda'
 - gender mainstreaming as part of 33–4
 - principles 33–4
- International Monetary Fund (IMF),
 - aim of global economic order 36–7
- international relations theory, feminist,
 - parallel with growth of gender mainstreaming 33–4
- international tax law
 - interaction between tax systems 13–14
 - value of diversity 190
- internationalisation
 - replacement of comparative law 18
 - tax law, of 13–14
- invisibility of inequalities, problem of 8–9
- Ireland, tax credits 118–19
- 'isomorphism', meaning 72–3
- Italy
 - gender-budgeting project 40
 - tax credits 118–19
- Japan, tax rate changes, research 168
- joint and several liability for spouses 129–33
- 'joint ownership' claim to tax credits 132–3
- Jones v. Garnett* see Arctic Systems case
- jurisdiction to tax
 - citizenship basis in US 163, 165–6
 - masculinity, and 166
 - stabilising force in tax system, as 166–7
- Keynesian economics and new institutionalist analysis 160
- law see also European law; legislation; tax law
 - bias against women
 - source of 4
 - study of literature 4
 - determinant of status, as 4
- law and economics movement, tax law
 - corporate social responsibility, and 73–4
 - legal profession, gender equality in 21
- legal scholarship
 - cultural focus 2
 - impact of tax law on women 186
 - neglect of tax law 2
- legal theory, feminist see feminist legal theory
- legislation see also tax law
 - dynamic systems theory applied to complexity 87
 - explicit bias in 4–5
- legislatures, categories 51
- legocentrism, comparative law and 19–20
- lobbying, gender-budgeting as success 44
- male breadwinner–female housewife model, persistence of 122–3
- 'march into socialism', Schumpeter on meaning 178
- Maria tax project (Pearson) 76–7
- market economy, 'disembedded market economy' thesis (Polanyi) 53
- markets
 - choice of 27–8, 57
 - free market and gender budgeting 56–7
 - growth linked with growth of regulation 57–8
 - influence on parenting 57
 - self-regulating market 53–4
 - structuring 26–8
- marriage and tax see also Arctic Systems case
 - abolition of married couple's allowance 108–9
 - change to child centrism as focus of family tax policy 125–6
 - Civil Partnerships Act 2004, and 138–40
 - cohabitation 140–1
 - 'dimming light' analogy 108–9
 - incentives for marriage 136–45
 - joint and several liability for spouses 129–33
 - 'marriage penalty' 192

- post-Married Women's Property Act 1882 108
- women's unpaid labour 141–5
- married couple's allowance, abolition 108–9
- Married Women's Property Act 1882
 - marriage and tax after 108
 - origins of independent taxation in 125
- Marxism
 - corporation tax, and 74
 - feminism, and 52–3
 - taxation, and 52–3
- masculinity and jurisdiction to tax, new institutionalist analysis 166
- McCaffery, E. J., 'institutionalist' approach 157–8
- Millennium Development Goals as initiative on gender equality 38–9
- Modigliani–Miller theory of finance, corporation tax, and 74, 75
- Mozambique, gender budgeting in 49
- Nelson, J. A., 'engulfment' concept 189
- 'neutral' tax initiatives, 'framing' of women 38–9
- new institutionalism
 - categories 159–62
 - chapter summary 155–6
 - convergence of sociologies, as 168
 - distinction from old institutionalism 158–9
 - examples 158, 160, 166, 168, 170
 - identifying cycles in analysis 163, 165–6
 - inertia and change in tax policy, and 162–7
 - influence on economic theory 158
 - literature, relevance to implicit bias 6–7
 - McCaffery's 'institutionalist' approach 157–8
 - meaning 158–67
 - organisation of economy, and 167–70
 - organisation of tax law, and 167–70
 - overview 157–70
 - purpose 8
 - scope 158
 - usefulness of theory 188
 - women's economic status, and 6–7
- New Labour
 - adoption of child centrism in tax policy 109, 110
 - Child Trust Fund 152
 - 'cradle to grave' approach to welfare state, and 180
 - family policy 180–1
 - influence of feminist thought on family 180–1
 - restructuring of tax law 7
 - Tawney's influence 115–16
 - tax credits policy 111–12, 114–18
- Nugent-Head v. Jacob* on meaning of 'separate' 146–9
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - aim of global economic order 36–7
 - Commentaries 66
 - 'global schoolyard bully', as 37–8
 - Harmful Tax Competition project 68–9
 - philosophy of global taxation 68–9
 - promotion of global trade as answer to global poverty 36–7
 - regulation of tax competition 67–73
 - support for gender budgeting 37–8
- paid market, women in
 - chapter summary 171–2
 - influence of tax law 26
 - overview 171–82
 - presumption of equality 172–5
 - unpaid labour, and 184–5
- parenting, influence of markets 57
- Pearson, Ruth, Maria tax project 76–7
- physical sciences, dynamic systems theory applied to 86–7
- Poe v. Seaborn* as to joint and several liability for spouses 130, 132

- Polanyi, Karl challenge to economic rationality 55 choice of markets, on 27–8, 57 contribution to feminist literature 55
 ‘disembedded market economy’ thesis 53 division of labour, on 54
 ‘double movement’ see ‘double movement’ embedded markets, on 55–6 family, theories on 57
 gender basis of travelling to work, on 57
Great Transformation, The importance of 27–8
 self-regulating market, on 53–4 importance of work 53–4
 need for planned socialist economy, on 56–7 structuring markets, on 26–8 writings 1
 politics impact of gender budgeting 51
 taxation, and 51
 poverty, women see women’s poverty powerlessness, link with women’s poverty 49 privacy and tax 93
 public and private spheres of activity, distinction between 179–82, 188–90, 192
 queer theory
 racial bias, critical tax theory analysis 9, 94 rational choice institutionalism, application of 160–1 real estate market collapse and new institutionalist analysis 168 redistribution of wealth to women application of tax law 2, 6
 independent taxation as competing goal 6
 Regional Symposium on gender mainstreaming 31 regulation
 ‘double movement’, and 57–8 influence of gender budgeting 58–9 residence and domicile rules, new institutionalist analysis of inertia and change in 163–5 revenue rule, decline 37
 ‘Roadmap’ for gender equality gender mainstreaming as driver for 42–3 release 42–3
 role of gender budgeting 41 scale 42–3
 Ruhl, J., use of dynamic systems theory 84–6 scholarship
 feminist scholarship, comparative focus 2–3
 legal scholarship see legal scholarship Schumpeter, Joseph fiscal sociology 168
 importance of budget, on 3–4, 25 importance of housewife, on 150–1 meaning of ‘march into socialism’, on 178 society’s freedom to choose economy, on 3–4
 writings 1
Seaborn case as to joint and several liability for spouses 130, 132 self-regulating market thesis 53–4
 Seligman, Edwin R. A., writings 71–2, 73
 ‘separate’, case law meaning 146–9 separate sphere model of family and work, application of 113 settlements legislation, use in Arctic Systems case 106–7, 136 sexual inequality, basis in economic inequality 54–5
 Sierra Leone, gender budgeting in 25 social policy
 comparative law, and 21
 tax expenditures as vehicle for 14–15 tax system as vehicle for 14

- social science literature
 - analysis of implicit bias 6–7
 - new institutionalism 6–7
- socialism, ‘march into’ 178
- socio-economic problems, limitations
 - of tax law 1–2
- sociological institutionalism,
 - application of 161–2
- sociology of aspirations, accessible
 - classlessness, as 7
- sociology of bureaucracy, tax
 - administration, and 170
- Spain, gender-budgeting project 40
- spillover effects model of family and
 - work, application of 113
- statistics in gender budgeting 43
- status
 - law as determinant of 4
 - women’s poverty, and 5–6
- Sweden
 - independent taxation 133–4, 135
 - tax rate changes, research 168
- systems theory see dynamic systems theory

- Tanzania, gender budgeting in 49
- Tawney, R. H., influence on New
 - Labour 115–16
- tax administration
 - importance of 6
 - sociology of bureaucracy, and 170
- tax avoidance see also Arctic Systems
 - case
 - corporate social responsibility, and
 - see* corporate social responsibility (CSR)
 - gender, and 66–71
- tax competition, OECD regulation
 - 67–73 see also harmful tax competition
- tax compliance
 - corporate social responsibility, as
 - 64–5
 - women’s attitudes 15–17, 185
- tax credits
 - assumptions made of women 121
 - conflict with other tax law 113–14
 - development 117–18
 - effect on women 111–12, 120–1
 - exception to independent taxation,
 - as 126–7
 - feminist achievement, as 109
 - impact of 109
 - international spread 118–19
 - ‘joint ownership’ claim 132–3
 - New Labour policy 111–12, 114–18
 - women’s perceptions 112–13
- tax cuts and new institutionalist
 - analysis 158
- tax expenditures
 - definition 13
 - obstacle to tax reform, as 14–15
 - proliferation 14
 - vehicle for social policy, as 14–15
- tax havens as perceived threat to global
 - trade 36–7
- tax incentives for women’s
 - employment, measuring
 - success 184–5
- tax law see also international tax law
 - achievement of feminist goals 5
 - adoption in common law
 - jurisdictions 190–1
 - analysis 4
 - application to problem of women’s
 - poverty 2
 - benefiting women 5–6
 - complexity
 - effect on women 11
 - political exploitation 14
 - problem of 1–2, 10–11
 - systems theory applied to see
 - dynamic systems theory
 - theoretical approaches 81–3
 - current issues, universality of 183
 - divergence from family law 151–6
 - double taxation treaties, impact of
 - 37
 - family see family
 - feminist approaches 94–102
 - gender, and see gender
 - goal of lower taxes for women 9
 - impact on women, scholarship on
 - 186
 - influence on women 26
 - interaction with family law 145–56

- tax law (cont.)
 - invisibility of inequalities 8–9
 - limitations as to
 - gender equality 1, 185, 192
 - socio-economic problems 1–2
 - women's poverty 1, 187
 - 'musty and arcane', as 10–11
 - need for feminist materialist analysis 2
 - neglect by legal scholarship 2
 - 'new' approach to comparative law, and 20
 - new institutionalism, and 167–70
 - proper role 1–2
 - recent developments 183
 - redistribution of wealth to women, and 2, 6
 - response to Arctic Systems case 192
 - restructuring by New Labour 7
 - social aims 26
- tax law rewrite programme, success 81–2
- 'tax morality', existence 185
- tax policy
 - assumption of benefit to women 10
 - business see business tax policy
 - class issues 94
 - comparative tax policy as distinct discipline 18
 - competing aims 13–14
 - complexity theory applied to gender and 88–90
 - critical tax theory applied to 91–102
 - defining 8–12, 13–22
 - definition of 'good' tax policy 13–14
 - feminist, international focus 188–9
 - gender, and see gender
 - influence of feminism 8–12
 - institutions, and 8–12
 - internationalisation, and 13–14
 - need for feminist materialist analysis 2
 - new institutionalist analysis of inertia and change in 162–7
 - privacy issues 93
 - race issues 9, 94
 - suitability for study 10–11
 - theories 81–102
 - unpaid labour 175–9
- tax policy for women
 - chapter summary 59, 61
 - conflicting choices 92–4
 - corporate social responsibility applied to 66–71
 - critical tax theory applied to 91–102
 - defining 15–22, 184
 - difference model applied to 20
 - effect of tax subsidies 20, 21
 - need for clear goals 15
 - overview 60–80
 - privacy issues 93
- tax rate changes, research 168
- tax reform, tax expenditures as obstacle to 14–15
- tax relief for work related travel 179
- tax scholarship, purpose 11
- tax subsidies
 - difference model applied to 21
 - effect on women 20, 21
- tax system
 - achievement of global economic order through 36–7
 - bias in, tax scholarship as to 11
 - book as targeted demonstration 4–5
 - cause of women's poverty, as 5–6, 17–18
 - encouragement of marriage 185–6
 - exceptions to focus on individuals 111
 - family, and see family
 - forum to address inequality, as 175–9, 186–8
 - gender budgeting, and 3–4
 - identifying areas for change 123–5
 - international tax, and 13–14
 - jurisdiction to tax 163, 165–7
 - limitations as to economic equality for women 1
 - male breadwinner–female housewife model 122–3
 - overhaul 61–2
 - paradox of support for family 189–90
 - potential to affect women 2–3

- recognition of unpaid labour 63–4
- targeting of women's economic choices 179–80
- theory of women and tax law, and 2–3
- vehicle for social policy, as 14
- tax treaties
 - current issues 66
 - defining abuse of 66–7
 - diversity in international tax, and 190
 - effectiveness 67–8
 - formation 67
 - impact on domestic tax law 37
 - OECD Commentaries 66
- taxation
 - bridging public–private spheres 190
 - corporate social responsibility, and see corporate social responsibility (CSR)
 - decline of revenue rule 37
 - disadvantaged groups 71–3, 94
 - effect on women 11–12
 - embedded institution, as 23–8
 - 'framing' of women in 'neutral' tax initiatives 38–9
 - gender equality, and see gender equality
 - gender issue, as 186
 - global issue, as 66
 - Marxism, and 52–3
 - OECD, and see Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - politics, and 51
 - relationship to income 64
 - women's attitudes 15–17
 - 'time budgets', use of 40–1
 - Tobin tax and corporate social responsibility 75–7
 - travel, work related, tax relief 179
 - travelling to work, theory on gender basis of 57
 - Treasury, HM, Gender Analysis of Expenditure' project 31
 - two-worker families, bias against 177–9
- United Nations (UN), gender equality initiatives 38–9
- United States (US)
 - adoption of gender budgeting 44
 - bias in tax system 9
 - child centrism 117
 - definitions of 'discarded material', dynamic systems theory applied to 84–6
 - dynamic systems theory applied to environmental law 84–6
 - Earned Income Tax Credit 111–12
 - 'equal' tax treatment 92
 - federal power to tax, new institutionalist analysis 160
 - feminist materialist theory in 52–3
 - gender equality in legal profession 21
 - gender tax in California 181–2
 - Gender Tax Repeal Act 1995, effectiveness 181
 - Haig–Simons definition of income 70–1
 - income tax laws, new institutionalist analysis 168
 - joint and several liability for spouses 129–33
 - jurisdiction to tax 163, 165–6
 - jurisdictional analysis 4
 - Poe v. Seaborn* 130, 132
 - proposals to promote economic equality 182
 - Reagan Administration tax cuts, new institutionalist analysis 158
 - success of tax simplification 81–2
 - tax credits 118–19
 - tax rate changes, research 168
 - women's economic progress 119–20
- unpaid labour
 - economic integration 40–1
 - marriage and tax 141–5
 - paid market, and 184–5
 - recognition by tax system 63–4, 150–1 see also Arctic Systems case
 - tax policy, and 175–9
 - valuing by society 8–9
 - women as 40–1

- VAT and gender budgeting 49
- Vietnam, gender budgeting in 49
- wealth, redistribution to women see redistribution of wealth to women
- weather forecasting, dynamic systems theory applied to 86–7
- welfare state, ‘cradle to grave’ approach 180
- welfarism and new institutionalist
 analysis 160
- Wilkeley, N., income definition in child support, on 151–5
- Williams, David F., fair tax payment, on 77–8
- women see also tax policy for women
 - assumption of benefiting from tax
 provisions 10
 - assumptions made by tax credits
 system 121
 - attitudes to taxation 15–17, 185
 - bias against see bias against women
 - distinction between public and private spheres of activity
 179–82, 188–90, 192
 - economic choices, targeting by tax
 system 26, 179–80, 186
 - economic equality see economic equality for women
 - effect of complexity of tax system 11
 - effect of tax credits 111–12, 120–1
 - effect of taxation 11–12, 26
 - employment rates 120
 - ‘framing’ by global governance
 38–41
 - lower taxes
 - effect on poverty 9
 - goals 9
 - married see marriage and tax
 - paid market, in see paid market
 - status in economy see economic equality for women
 - tax law benefiting 5–6
 - tax system, and
 - potential to affect women 2–3
 - theory of women and tax law, and 2–3
 - unpaid labour, as 40–1
- Women’s Budget Group (WBG)
 Gender Analysis of Expenditure project, and 31
- independent taxation, and 109–10
- women’s poverty
 - application of tax law 2
 - effect of lower taxes 9
 - extent 49
 - global problem 2
 - impact of tax credits 109
 - limitations of tax law 1, 187
 - link with powerlessness 49
 - research 5–6
 - status, and 5–6
 - tax system as cause of 5–6, 17–18
- work-related travel, tax relief 179
- Working Families’ Tax Credit,
 privacy issues 93
- World Bank report on gender
 budgeting 51