

Index

- accused
  - as distinct from perpetrator 372–373, 380–381
  - extension of definitions of crimes beyond 372–373, 380–381
  - mental state of, as factor in war crimes 222, 238–239
- ‘acts of genocide’, definition of 153–154, 209
- ‘acts of terrorism’, definition of 247, 248, 309–310
- actual membership of group as element of genocide 147, 173–176
- ‘actus reus’, meaning of 10
- Ad Hoc Tribunals see International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR); International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY)
- Additional Protocol II see under Geneva Conventions
- aiding and abetting see under forms of responsibility
- alternative charging 319–323
- Appeal Chamber’s intervention in sentencing 334, 367–369
- arbitrary deprivation of liberty, elements of 390
- armed conflict
  - and crimes against humanity under ICTY 19, 32–33
  - definition 222, 233
  - distinction between international and non-international conflict in war-crimes law 217, 227–230
- as element of war crimes 233–239
  - grave breaches of Geneva Conventions 223, 243–256
    - knowledge of nature of armed conflict, requirement for 244–250
    - protected persons or property, requirement for 223, 250–256
  - knowledge of conflict as element 221, 236–239
  - nexus between conflict and underlying offences 222, 239–243
  - violations of laws or customs of war under ICTY Statute Art. 3 224–226, 258–263
- specific characteristics of, influence on work of courts and tribunals 380–381
- Armenian Genocide (1915) 20, 21, 140, 145, 378
- ‘attack directed against any civilian population’, definition of 45, 104
- attack requirement as element in crimes against humanity 24, 41–42
- attempt to commit genocide 152, 197, 399
- Belgian Congo, early use of ‘crimes against humanity’ for atrocities in 19, 20
- Bisero (Rwanda), attack on 46, 53, 151–152, 190, 192–193
- bodily harm, causing, and genocide 148, 181–183
- Bosnia see International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY)
- Cambodia see Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC)
- causing serious bodily or mental harm, and genocide 148, 181–183
- Čelebići test
  - development
    - Čelebići Appeal Judgement 321–322, 326–330
    - pre-Čelebići cases 321, 324–326
  - and ‘inter-article’ convictions 322–323, 331–334
  - and ‘intra-article’ convictions 323, 334–335
    - for crimes against humanity 324–325, 335–348
    - for genocide 325–326, 349–354
    - for war crimes 325–349
- charging, cumulative and alternative 319–323
- children
  - conscription of, as war crime 304–310
  - forcible transfer as underlying offence in genocide 150, 187–188
  - mental element 150–151, 188
- civilian objects
  - definition of 241, 286
  - unlawful attack on, as war crime 409
- civilians
  - ‘civilian’, definition of 25, 43–49, 241, 286
  - ‘civilian population’, definition of 26, 49–50
  - ‘attack directed against’ 45, 104
  - unlawful attack on, as war crime 240–243, 285–287, 408
- Common Article 3 see under Geneva Conventions

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87830-2 - Elements of Crimes under International Law

Gideon Boas, James L. Bischoff and Natalie L. Reid

Index

More information

436

Index

- conscription
  - of children 304–310
  - definition 246–247, 308–309
- conspiracy to commit genocide
  - elements 151, 188–191, 399
  - incitement to commit 151, 189, 191–197
- contextual requirements for crimes against humanity
  - 1st – underlying offence is part of the attack 30, 53–54
  - 2nd – knowledge that the offence is part of the attack 30, 54–56
- convictions
  - cumulative see cumulative convictions
  - ‘intra-article’ see ‘intra-article’ convictions
  - need for coherence in practice 379, 383–385
- crimes against humanity 16–18
  - and Ad Hoc Tribunals 21–22, 26–31
  - and Armenian Genocide 20, 21
  - in Belgian Congo 19, 20
  - and Čelebići test for ‘intra-article’ convictions 324–325, 335–348
  - comparison with genocide 377–379
  - comparison with war crimes 16, 19
  - definition 16, 18–19
    - ECCC 59, 128–129
    - Rome Statute 44–45, 104
    - SCSL 56, 115
    - SICT 59, 132–137
    - SPSC 58, 120
  - variation between ICTY and ICTR 379–380
- deportation 31, 68–75, 393
  - as form of persecution 394–395
- destruction of property as form of persecution in 396
- and ECCC 59, 128–132
- elements 22–24, 31, 104
  - Ad Hoc Tribunals, unique to
    - armed conflict as jurisdictional requirement for ICTY 19, 32–33
  - discriminatory basis as jurisdictional requirement for ICTR 24, 33–35
  - general requirements 391–392
    - attack requirement 24, 41–42
    - contextual requirements see contextual requirements for crimes against humanity
    - persons who satisfy 24, 35–41
    - targeting requirement 24–25, 42–43
    - ‘widespread or systematic’ 27, 51
  - and ICC 53, 110–114
  - underlying offences see under underlying offences below
- enslavement 31–68, 392
  - as form of persecution 392
- extermination 31, 60–65, 392
- and First World War 20–22
- forcible transfer as form of persecution in 395
- historical development 18–31
- importance for prosecutors 17–18, 19–20, 376–377
- imprisonment,
  - as form of persecution in 395
  - as underlying offence 32–33, 75–78
- and International Criminal Court (ICC) see International Criminal Court (ICC)
- and Internationalised Tribunals 55, 111, 115–137
- ‘intra-article’ convictions 324–325, 335–348
- murder see under underlying offences below
- other inhumane acts
  - forcible transfer 396–397
  - specific requirements 396
  - as underlying offence 99–100
- persecution
  - deportation as form of 394–395
  - destruction of property as form of 396
  - enslavement as form of 394
  - forcible transfer as form of 395
  - imprisonment as form of 395
  - murder as form of 394
  - rape as form of 395–396
  - specific requirements 394
  - torture as form of 395
  - as underlying offence 88–36
- rape 33–34, 78–80, 393
  - as form of persecution 395–396
  - as underlying offence 36–37, 84–88
- relationship to international criminal and humanitarian law 1, 2–4
- and SCSL 55–56, 115–120
- and Second World War 21, 22–26
- and SICT 59, 132
- and SPSC 56, 120–128
- torture
  - as form of persecution in 395
  - as underlying offence see under underlying offences below
- underlying offences 30–31, 36–57
  - deportation 31, 68–75
  - enslavement 31–68
  - extermination 31, 60–65
  - as form of persecution, and superior responsibility 417–418
  - imprisonment 32–33, 75–78
  - murder 31, 57–60, 392
  - murder as form of persecution 394
    - and aiding and abetting 418–419
    - and instigating 420
    - and JCE 415–416, 417
    - and ordering 420–421
    - and planning 419
  - other inhumane acts 99–100
  - as part of attack (1st contextual requirement) 30, 53–54
  - persecution 88–36
  - qualifying as inhumane acts 28, 102–104
  - qualifying as persecution as crime against humanity 44, 97–99
  - rape 36–37, 84–88
  - torture 33–34, 78–80
    - and aiding and abetting 413–414
    - and instigating 414–415
    - and JCE 411, 412
    - and ordering 415
    - and planning 414
  - prohibited purpose requirement 35–36, 83–84

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87830-2 - Elements of Crimes under International Law

Gideon Boas, James L. Bischoff and Natalie L. Reid

Index

More information

Index

437

- severity requirement for torture as element
  - 34–35, 80–83
  - and superior responsibility 412–413
- criminal responsibility and war crimes 228, 262–263
- cruel treatment as violation of laws or customs
  - of war 396
- culture: destruction and damage as war crime 230–231, 268–270, 402
- cumulative charging 319–323
- cumulative convictions 318–319, 320
  - ‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test
    - crimes against humanity 324–325, 335–348
    - genocide 325–326, 349–354
    - war crimes 325–349
  - Trial Chamber’s failure to use 326–330, 354–356
- Cyangugu (Rwanda), imprisonment of refugees at
  - 59–60, 77–78
- Darfur (Sudan), crimes against humanity in 63, 114
- definitions
  - ‘acts of genocide’ 153–154, 209
  - ‘acts of terrorism’ 247, 248, 309–310
  - ‘actus reus’ 10
  - ‘armed conflict’ 222, 233
  - ‘attack directed against any civilian population’ 45, 104
  - ‘civilian’ 25, 43–49, 241, 286
  - ‘civilian objects’ 241, 286
  - ‘civilian population’ 24–25, 26, 42–43, 49–50
  - ‘conscription’ 246–247, 308–309
  - ‘conspiracy to commit genocide’ 151, 189, 191–197
  - ‘crime against humanity’ 16, 18–19
    - ECCC 59, 128–129
    - Rome Statute 44–45, 104
    - SCSL 56, 115
    - SICT 59, 132–137
    - SPSC 58, 120
  - of crimes, factors in drafting of 377, 381–383
  - ‘destroy’ 143, 159–167
  - ‘direct and public incitement to commit genocide’
    - 151–152, 190, 192–193
  - ‘directed against’ 26, 50–51
  - ‘ethnic group’ 146, 171–172
  - extension beyond accused & physical perpetrators
    - 372–373, 380–381
  - ‘forms of responsibility’ 11, 12–13
  - ‘general requirements’ 6, 10–11
  - ‘Geneva Law’ 3, 5
  - ‘genocide’ 152, 198–201
  - ‘Hague Law’ 3, 5
  - ‘imprisonment’ 49–50, 75–76
  - ‘killing’ 147, 178–181
  - ‘mens rea’ 10
  - ‘national group’ 146, 171–172
  - ‘nulla poena sine lege’ 8
  - ‘nullem crimen sine lege’ 8
  - ‘occupied territory’ 224, 254–255
  - ‘perpetrator’ 55, 111, 115–137, 153, 203–204
  - ‘persecution’ 45, 105
  - ‘physical perpetrator’ 11
  - ‘protected group’ 144, 168–173
  - ‘protected persons’ 223–224, 251
  - ‘protected property’ 223–224, 251
  - ‘racial group’ 146, 171–172
  - ‘rape’ 51, 52, 84, 87
  - ‘religious group’ 146, 171–172
  - ‘serious bodily harm’ 181–183
  - ‘serious mental harm’ 181–183
  - ‘serious violation’ 227–228, 262
  - sources of 5–9
  - ‘specific requirements’ 6, 11–12
  - ‘systematic’ 29–30, 52
  - ‘targeted group’ 144, 168–173
  - ‘terror’ 237–239, 283
  - ‘torture’ 51, 78
  - ‘underlying offence’ 3, 10
  - variations in different courts & tribunals 379–383
  - ‘violation of laws or customs of war’ 259
  - ‘wanton destruction’ 266–268
  - ‘widespread’ 28–29, 52
- Democratic Republic of the Congo, crimes against humanity in 63, 114
- deportation 393
  - and crimes against humanity 31, 68–75
    - form of persecution 394–395
    - forcible transfer as 395
  - displacement across international borders as
    - additional element of offence 48, 73–75
  - distinction between legal and illegal displacement
    - 47–48, 71–72
  - forcible displacement, elements of 390
  - forcible transfer
    - of children in genocide 150, 187–188, 399
    - mental element 150–151, 188
    - and crimes against humanity
      - as form of persecution in 395
      - as inhumane act in 396–397
  - as inhumane act
    - forcible transfer as crime against humanity
      - 396–397
  - intention for permanent displacement as element in offence 47–48, 72–73
  - lack of genuine choice by displaced persons 48–49, 69–70
  - lawful presence of persons in area as element in offence 46–47, 70–71
  - underlying offences, mental element in forcible transfer of children 150–151, 188
- ‘destroy’, definition of 143, 159–167
- destruction of property
  - and aiding and abetting 427
  - elements of 390
  - form of persecution in crimes against humanity 396
  - and instigating 428
  - and JCE 424–426
  - and ordering 428–429
  - and planning 427–428
  - and superior responsibility 426
  - and war crimes 263
  - destruction or damage to cultural property
    - 230–231, 268–270, 402

- destruction of property (cont.)
  - extensive destruction 263, 401
  - wanton destruction & unjustified devastation 266–268, 401
- destructive conditions of life, infliction of
  - and genocide 148, 183
  - examples 148–149, 183–186
  - mental element 149, 183, 186
- detention see imprisonment
- direct or indirect intent requirement for persecution as a crime against humanity 26, 102
- ‘directed against’, meaning of 26, 50–51
- discrimination ‘in fact’ requirement for persecution as a crime against humanity 43, 91–94
- discriminatory basis as jurisdictional requirement for ICTR for crimes against humanity 24, 33–35
- discriminatory intent requirement for persecution as a crime against humanity 43–44, 94–96
- displaced persons
  - lack of genuine choice in deportation 48–49, 69–70
  - lawful presence in area as element in deportation 46–47, 70–71
- displacement of persons, forcible see deportation
- domestic legal systems’ contribution to international criminal law 8, 9
- Dubrovnik (Croatia), bombardment of 230, 267, 269–270
- East Timor see Special Panels for Serious Crimes (SPSC, East Timor)
- elements of crime 371, 373–374, 381–383, 385 see also
  - general requirements; specific requirements
  - crimes against humanity see under crimes against humanity
  - genocide see under genocide
  - sample combinations with forms of responsibility see forms of responsibility
  - should answer different legal enquiries from elements of forms of responsibility 373–374, 381–383
  - war crimes see under war crimes
- enslavement and crimes against humanity 31–68, 392
  - form of persecution 394
- equal gravity requirement for persecution as a crime against humanity 41, 90–91
- ‘ethnic group’, definition of 146, 171–172
- extensive appropriation as war crime 278–280, 405–406
- extermination and crimes against humanity 31, 60–65, 392
- Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC)
  - and crimes against humanity 59, 128–132
  - and genocide 153, 207–210
  - as a ‘genocide tribunal’ 375–376
  - relative importance of crimes 375–379
  - variations in definitions of crimes 379–383
  - and war crimes 249–250, 312–314
- First World War (1914–18) and crimes against humanity 20–22
- forcible displacement/transfer of persons see deportation
- forms of responsibility
  - as aid in assigning criminal responsibility 373
  - elements to answer different legal enquiries to elements of crimes 373–374, 381–383
  - within structure of crimes 11, 12–13
- forms of responsibility, sample combinations with elements of crimes 410–411
- aiding and abetting
  - extensive destruction of property 427
  - genocide by killing 423
  - murder as form of persecution 418–419
  - plunder as violation of laws or customs of war 432
  - torture as crime against humanity 413–414
- instigating
  - extensive destruction of property 428
  - genocide by killing 424
  - murder as form of persecution 420
  - plunder as violation of laws or customs of war 433
  - torture as crime against humanity 414–415
- joint criminal enterprise
  - extensive destruction of property as grave breach 424–426
  - genocide by killing 421, 422
  - murder as form of persecution as crime against humanity 415–416, 417
  - plunder as violation of laws or customs of war 429, 430–431
  - torture as crime against humanity 411, 412
- ordering
  - extensive destruction of property 428–429
  - genocide by killing 424
  - murder as form of persecution 420–421
  - plunder as violation of laws or customs of war 433–434
  - torture as crime against humanity 415
- planning
  - extensive destruction of property 427–428
  - genocide by killing 423
  - murder as form of persecution 419
  - plunder as violation of laws or customs of war 432–433
  - torture as crime against humanity 414
- superior responsibility
  - extensive destruction of property as grave breach 426
  - genocide by killing 422–423
  - murder as form of persecution 417–418
  - plunder as violation of laws or customs of war 431
  - torture as crime against humanity 412–413
- general requirements see also crimes against humanity;
  - genocide; war crimes
  - within structure of crimes 6, 10–11
- Geneva Conventions
  - breaches of Common Article 3 or Additional Protocol II as war crimes 400
  - outrages upon personal dignity 405
  - definition of ‘Geneva Law’ 3, 5, 224, 251
  - grave breaches as element of war crimes 223, 243–256
  - cruel treatment 404
  - extensive appropriation of property 405–406

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87830-2 - Elements of Crimes under International Law

Gideon Boas, James L. Bischoff and Natalie L. Reid

Index

More information

Index

439

- extensive destruction of property 401
  - and aiding and abetting 427
  - and instigating 428
  - and JCE 424–426
  - and ordering 428–429
  - and planning 427–428
  - and superior responsibility 426
- hostage-taking 403
- inhuman treatment 403–404
- international armed conflict requirement 244–250
- protected persons or property requirement 223, 250–256
- rape 406
- specific requirements 396, 400
- torture 408
- unlawful confinement 409
- unlawful deportation or transfer 410
- wilful killing 404
- wilfully causing suffering or injury 410
- genocide 139–144
  - ‘acts of genocide’, definition of 153–154, 209
  - Ad Hoc Tribunals, development of law in 141, 153–154
  - against Armenia (1915) 20, 21, 140, 145, 378
  - attempt to commit 152, 197, 399
  - by causing serious bodily harm see under underlying offences below
  - by causing serious mental harm see under underlying offences below
  - comparison with crimes against humanity 377–379
  - conspiracy to commit 151, 188–191, 399
  - by deliberate infliction of eventually destructive conditions of life see under underlying offences below
  - elements 141–142, 154–156
    - attempt to commit 152, 197
    - conspiracy to commit 151, 188–191
    - general requirements 142, 156–157
      - actual membership of group 147, 173–176
      - intent to commit 142, 157–173
      - material destruction 143, 159–167
    - and ICC 201–205
    - underlying offences see under underlying offences below
  - by forcible transfer of children see under underlying offences below
  - general requirements 397
  - Genocide Convention, adoption of 140, 146–153
  - historical development of law of 139, 144–154
  - and ICC
    - elements of crimes 201–205
    - Rome Statute 152, 198–201
  - incitement to commit 399
  - and Internationalised Tribunals
    - ECCC 153, 207–210
    - SCSL 206
    - SICT 156–157, 210–212
    - SPSC 153, 206–207
  - ‘intra-article’ convictions 325–326, 349–354
  - by killing see under underlying offences below
  - by prevention of births see under underlying offences below
  - relationship to international criminal and humanitarian law 1, 2–4
  - underlying offences 147–153, 176–177
    - causing serious bodily or mental harm
      - bodily harm 397–398
      - mental elements 148, 183
      - mental harm 398
      - physical elements 181–183
    - forcible transfer of children 150, 187–188, 399
    - infliction of destructive conditions of life 148, 183, 398
      - examples 148–149, 183–186
      - mental element 149, 183, 186
  - killing 397
    - and aiding and abetting 423
    - and instigating 424
    - and JCE 421, 422
    - mental elements 147, 178–181
    - and ordering 424
    - physical elements 147, 178
    - and planning 423
    - and superior responsibility 422–423
    - prevention of births 149–150, 186, 398
      - examples 150, 186
      - mental element 150, 187
  - genuine choice, lack of (forcible displacement) 48–49, 69–70
  - grave breaches of Geneva Conventions see under Geneva Conventions
  - Hague Conventions
    - definition of ‘Hague Law’ 3, 5, 224, 251
  - hostage-taking as war crime 232, 270–271
    - as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 403
    - as violation of laws or customs of war 403
  - humanitarian law
    - boundaries of 1, 2–4
    - violation as element in war crimes under Article 3 of ICTY Statute 226–227, 260–262
    - ‘serious’ violation, requirement for 227–228, 262
  - imprisonment
    - and crimes against humanity 32–33, 75–78
      - form of persecution 395
    - at KP-Dom detention camp (Bosnia) 49, 75–76
    - at Zasavica detention camp (Bosnia) 49–50, 77
  - incitement to commit genocide
    - definition of ‘direct and public incitement’ 151–152, 190, 192–193
    - elements 151, 189, 191–197, 399
  - inhuman or cruel treatment
    - as crimes against humanity, specific requirements 396
    - and war crimes 233–234, 271–273
      - cruel treatment 404
      - inhuman treatment 403–404
  - inhumane acts
    - as crimes against humanity
      - direct or indirect intent requirement 26, 102
      - forcible transfer 396–397
      - similar gravity requirement 24, 101–102

inhumane acts (cont.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>specific requirements 99–100, 396</li><li>suffering or attack on dignity requirement 44, 100–101</li><li>underlying offences qualifying as 28, 102–104</li></ul>	cumulative convictions and Čelebići test 321–322, 324–326–330 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>effect of failure to use 326–330, 354–356</li><li>‘inter-article’ convictions 322–323, 331–334</li><li>‘intra-article’ convictions 323, 334–335<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>for crimes against humanity 324–325, 335–348</li><li>for genocide 325–326, 349–354</li><li>for war crimes 325–349</li></ul></li></ul> injury, causing, and war crimes 244–290	and genocide 141, 153–154
instigating see under forms of responsibility	elements 141, 154–188
intention to commit as element of genocide 142, 157–173	‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 325–326, 349–354
‘inter-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 322–323, 331–334	as a ‘genocide tribunal’ 375–376 international armed conflict see armed conflict	influence of characteristics of conflict on work of 380–381 international borders, displacement of persons across as additional element in deportation 48, 73–75	relative importance of crimes 375–379 international crimes 1–5 see also crimes against humanity; genocide; war crimes	and sentencing policy 334, 356–359 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>coherence in practice 331–332, 359–363</li><li>hierarchy of crimes 332–333, 363–367</li><li>intervention by Appeals Chamber in sentencing 334, 367–369</li></ul>
definitions <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>extension beyond accused &amp; physical perpetrators 372–373, 380–381</li><li>factors in drafting of 377, 381–383</li><li>sources of 5–9</li><li>variations in different courts &amp; tribunals 379–383</li></ul>	variations in definitions of crimes 379–383 differences in importance of crimes in different courts & tribunals 375–379	and war crimes <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>general requirements 219–263</li></ul>
elements see elements of crime	ICTR Statute <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>statutory provisions 215–216, 217–218</li><li>violations of Common Article 3 &amp; Additional Protocol II under Art. 4 224, 256–257</li></ul>
hierarchy of crimes 332–333, 363–367	‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 325–349
‘inter-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 322–323, 331–334	overview 217–218, 231–232
overview 1–5	underlying offences 219–220, 263–291
relative importance in different courts & tribunals 375–379	International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY)
structure 3, 9–13	Appeals Chamber’s intervention in sentencing 334, 367–369 variations in definitions 379–383	conviction practice, coherence in 379, 383–385
International Criminal Court (ICC)	and crimes against humanity 22–24, 31, 104 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>armed conflict as jurisdictional requirement 19, 32–33</li><li>difference in definition with ICTR 379–380</li><li>general requirements 35–56, 63</li><li>‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 324–325, 335–348</li><li>underlying offences 56–104</li></ul> coherence in conviction and sentencing practice 379, 383–385	and cumulative and alternative charging 319–323
and crimes against humanity <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>elements of crimes 53, 110–114</li><li>Rome Statute 32–33, 104–110</li></ul>	cumulative convictions and Čelebići test <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>effect of failure to use 326–330, 354–356</li><li>‘intra-article’ convictions 323, 334–335<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>for crimes against humanity 324–325, 335–348</li><li>for genocide 325–326, 349–354</li><li>for war crimes 325–349</li></ul></li></ul> definitions of crimes <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>factors in drafting 377, 381–383</li><li>variations in 379–383</li></ul>	and genocide 141, 153–154 and genocide <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>elements of crimes 201–205</li><li>Rome Statute 152, 198–201</li></ul>	elements 141, 154–188
and war crimes <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>elements of crimes 246, 297–303</li><li>Rome Statute 245–246, 291–297</li></ul>	‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 325–326, 349–354
International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR)	influence of characteristics of conflict on work of 380–381
Appeals Chamber’s intervention in sentencing 334, 367–369	relative importance of crimes 375–379 and crimes against humanity 22–24, 31, 104	and sentencing policy 334, 356–359 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>coherence in practice 331–332, 359–363, 379, 383–385</li></ul> difference in definition with ICTY 379–380 discriminatory basis as jurisdictional requirement 24, 33–35
general requirements 35–56, 63
‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 324–325, 335–348
underlying offences 56–104
and cumulative and alternative charging 319–323

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87830-2 - Elements of Crimes under International Law

Gideon Boas, James L. Bischoff and Natalie L. Reid

Index

More information

Index

441

- hierarchy of crimes 332–333, 363–367
- intervention by Appeals Chamber in sentencing 334, 367–369
- variations in definitions of crimes 379–383
- and war crimes
  - general requirements 219–263
  - ICTY Statute
    - destruction or damage to cultural property: Art 3(d) 230–231, 268–270, 402
    - extensive destruction of property: Art 2(d) 263
    - violations of laws or customs of war: Art 3 224–226, 258–263, 400–401
    - wanton destruction & unjustified devastation: Art 3(b) 266–268, 401, 402
    - war crimes provisions 215–217
  - ‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 325–349
  - overview 217, 230–231
  - underlying offences 219–220, 263–291
- as a ‘war crimes tribunal’ 375–376
- international humanitarian law see humanitarian law
- International Law Commission (ILC)
  - contribution to international criminal law 9
  - and crimes against humanity 22, 28–30
- international treaties as sources of definitions for crimes 6–8, 9
- Internationalised Tribunals see Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC); Special Court for Sierra Leone (SCSL); Special Panels for Serious Crimes (SPSC, East Timor); Supreme Iraqi Criminal Tribunal (SICT)
  - ‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 323, 334–335
  - crimes against humanity 324–325, 335–348
  - genocide 325–326, 349–354
  - war crimes 325–349
- Iraq see Supreme Iraqi Criminal Tribunal (SICT)
- joint criminal enterprise (JCE) see under forms of responsibility
- judgements, need for specificity 374–375, 384
- Kaznezno-Popravni Dom (KP Dom), illegal detention at 49, 75–76
- Kibuye (Rwanda), attack on 46, 53
- Kigali (Rwanda), killings in 145, 169
- killings and genocide 147, 178–181
  - and aiding and abetting 397, 423
  - and instigating 424
  - and JCE 421, 422
  - and ordering 424
  - and planning 423
  - and superior responsibility 422–423
- knowledge as element of war crimes
  - knowledge of armed conflict 221, 236–239, 244–250
  - knowledge of status of targets of underlying offences 263
- Kosovo see International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY)
- Kurdish people, attacks on 158, 211–212, 251–317
- laws and customs of war, violations of
  - in crimes against humanity 396
  - plunder
    - and aiding and abetting 432
    - and instigating 433
    - and JCE 429, 430–431
    - and ordering 433–434
    - and planning 432–433
    - and superior responsibility 431
  - in war crimes 224–226, 258–263
  - general requirements under ICTY Statute, Art 3 400–401
  - hostage-taking 403
  - murder 404–405
  - plunder 406
  - rape 406
  - slavery 407
  - terror 407
  - torture 408
  - ‘unjustified devastation’ of property 402
  - unlawful attack on civilian objects 409
  - unlawful attack on civilians 408
  - unlawful confinement 409
  - unlawful labour 407
  - ‘wanton destruction’ of property 401
- material destruction as element of genocide 143, 159–167
- mens rea*, meaning of 10
- mental harm and genocide 148, 181–183
- murder
  - and crimes against humanity 31, 57–60, 392
  - as form of persecution 394
  - and aiding and abetting 418–419
  - and instigating 420
  - and JCE 415–416, 417
  - and ordering 420–421
  - and planning 419
  - and superior responsibility 417–418
- elements of 391
- and war crimes 273–275, 404–405
- ‘national group’, definition of 146, 171–172
- non-international armed conflict see armed conflict
- nulla poena sine lege*, meaning of 8
- nullem crimen sine lege*, meaning of 8
- ‘occupied territory’, definition of 224, 254–255
- offences see underlying offences
- ordering see under forms of responsibility
- outrages upon personal dignity as war crime 234–235, 275–278, 405
- perpetrator see also physical perpetrator
  - definition of 55, 111, 115–137, 153, 203–204
  - distinction from accused 372–373, 380–381
  - mental state of, as factor in war crimes 222, 238–239
- persecution (political, racial & religious)
  - and crimes against humanity 88–86
  - deportation as form of persecution 394–395
  - destruction of property as form of persecution 396

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87830-2 - Elements of Crimes under International Law

Gideon Boas, James L. Bischoff and Natalie L. Reid

Index

More information

442

Index

- persecution (political, racial & religious) (cont.)
  - enslavement as form of persecution 394
  - forcible transfer as form of persecution 395
  - imprisonment as form of persecution 395
  - murder as form of persecution 394
  - rape as form of persecution 395–396
  - specific requirements 394
  - torture as form of persecution 395
- definition of ‘persecution’ 45, 105
- specific requirements for persecution as crime
  - against humanity 53, 89–90
  - discrimination ‘in fact’ requirement 43, 91–94
  - discriminatory intent requirement 43–44, 94–96
  - equal gravity requirement 41, 90–91
  - underlying offences qualifying as 44, 97–99
- physical perpetrator
  - in crimes against humanity
    - involvement in attack as contextual requirement 30, 53–54
    - knowledge of attack as contextual requirement 30, 54–56
- definition 11
- extension of definitions of crimes beyond 372–373, 380–381
- pillage and war crimes 278–280
- planning see under forms of responsibility
- plunder
  - as violation of laws or customs of war
    - and aiding and abetting 432
    - and instigating 433
    - and JCE 429, 430–431
    - and ordering 433–434
    - and planning 432–433
    - and superior responsibility 431
  - and war crimes 278–280, 406
- prevention of births
  - and genocide 149–150, 186, 398
  - examples 150, 186
  - mental element 150, 187
- Prijedor, attack on 46, 51
- prohibited purpose requirement for torture as element in
  - crimes against humanity 35–36, 83–84
- ‘protected group’, definition of 144, 168–173
- protected persons or property requirement as element of
  - war crimes 223, 250–256
- ‘racial group’, definition of 146, 171–172
- rape
  - and crimes against humanity 36–37, 84–88, 393
  - form of persecution 395–396
  - definition 51, 52, 84, 87
  - elements of 391
  - and war crimes 235, 280
    - as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 406
    - as violation of laws or customs of war 406
- ‘religious group’, definition of 146, 171–172
- Rome Statute
  - and crimes against humanity 32–33, 104–110
  - and genocide 152, 198–201
  - as source of definitions of crimes 7–8, 9
  - and war crimes 245–246, 291–297–303
- Rwanda see International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR)
- Second World War (1939–45)
  - and crimes against humanity 21, 22–26
  - and genocide 139–140, 144–146
- sentencing 334, 356–359
  - content and context 370–375, 377
  - and cumulative convictions 318–319, 320
  - hierarchy of crimes 332–333, 363–367
  - intervention by Appeal Chamber 334, 367–369
  - need for coherence in practice 334, 356–359, 379, 383–385
- serious bodily harm
  - definition of 181–183
- genocide by 397–398
- serious mental harm’
  - definition of 181–183
- genocide by 398
- ‘serious violation’, definition of 227–228, 262
- severity requirement for torture as element in crimes
  - against humanity 34–35, 80–83
- Sierra Leone see Special Court for Sierra Leone (SCSL)
- similar gravity requirement for persecution as a crime
  - against humanity 24, 101–102
- slavery as war crime 235, 281, 407
- Special Court for Sierra Leone (SCSL)
  - and crimes against humanity 55–56, 115–120
  - and genocide 206
  - influence of characteristics of conflict on work of 380–381
  - relative importance of crimes 375–379
  - variations in definitions of crimes 379–383
  - and war crimes 304–310
  - as a ‘war crimes tribunal’ 375–376
- Special Panels for Serious Crimes (SPSC, East Timor)
  - and crimes against humanity 56, 120–128
  - and genocide 153, 206–207
  - relative importance of crimes 377, 381–383
  - variations in definitions of crimes 382
  - and war crimes 247–249, 310–311
- specific requirements see also crimes against humanity;
  - genocide; war crimes
  - within structure of crimes 6, 11–12
- Srebrenica (Bosnia), attack on 45–46, 49, 144, 145, 146, 165–167, 168–169, 170, 172–173
- Sudan, crimes against humanity in 63, 114
- suffering
  - causing, as to war crimes 244–290
  - suffering or attack on dignity requirement for persecution as a crime against humanity 44, 100–101
- superior responsibility see under forms of responsibility
- Supreme Iraqi Criminal Tribunal (SICT)
  - and crimes against humanity 59, 132
  - and genocide 156–157, 210–212
  - relative importance of crimes 377, 381–383
  - variations in definitions of crimes 382

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-87830-2 - Elements of Crimes under International Law

Gideon Boas, James L. Bischoff and Natalie L. Reid

Index

More information

Index

443

- and war crimes 250–251, 314–317
- ‘systematic’, meaning of 29–30, 52
- ‘targeted group’, definition of 144, 168–173
- targeting requirement as element in crimes against humanity 24–25, 42–43
- terror
  - ‘acts of terrorism’, definition of 247, 248, 309–310
  - and war crimes 236, 281–284, 407
- torture
  - and crimes against humanity 33–34, 78–80
  - and aiding and abetting 413–414
  - form of persecution 395
  - and instigating 414–415
  - and JCE 411, 412
  - and ordering 415
  - and planning 414
  - and superior responsibility 412–413
- definition 51, 78
- elements of 391
- and war crimes 239–240, 284–285
  - as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 408
  - as violation of laws or customs of war 408
- transfer of persons, forcible see deportation
- Trial Chamber, failure to use cumulative convictions 326–330, 354–356
- Uganda, crimes against humanity in 62–63, 113–114
- underlying offences 390
  - arbitrary deprivation of liberty 390
  - crimes against humanity see under crimes against humanity
  - destruction of real or personal property 390
  - forcible displacement 390
  - genocide see under genocide
  - ‘intra-article’ convictions and Čelebići test 325–326, 334–335, 349–354
  - murder 391
  - rape 391
  - within structure of crimes 3, 10
  - torture 391
  - war crimes see under war crimes
- unjustified devastation as underlying offence in war crimes 266–268, 402
- unlawful attack on civilians or civilian objects as war crime 240–243, 285–287
  - civilian objects 409
  - civilians 408
- unlawful confinement as war crime 242, 287–288
  - as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 409
  - as violation of laws or customs of war 409
- unlawful deportation or transfer as war crime 242–243, 288
  - as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 410
- unlawful labour as war crime 407
- violence to life and person and war crimes 243, 288–289
- wanton destruction as underlying offence in war crimes 266–268, 401
- war crimes
  - breaches of Common Article 3 or Additional Protocol II 400
  - and Celebici test for ‘intra-article’ convictions 325–349
  - comparison with crimes against humanity 16, 19
  - and criminal responsibility 228, 262–263
  - and distinction between international and non-international armed conflict 217, 227–230
  - destruction of property see under underlying offences below
  - elements 220, 232
    - general requirements 220, 221, 232–233, 399–400
    - existence of armed conflict 233–239
    - grave breaches of Geneva Conventions 223, 243–256, 400
    - knowledge of nature of armed conflict requirement 244–250
    - knowledge of status of targets of underlying offences 263
    - mental state of accused and perpetrator 222, 238–239
    - nexus between underlying offences and armed conflict 222, 239–243
    - protected persons or property requirement 223, 250–256
    - violation of humanitarian law under ICTY Statute Article 3 226–227, 260–262, 400–401
    - violations of Additional Protocol II and Common Article 3 224, 256–257, 400
    - violations of laws or customs of war under Article 3 of ICTY Statute 224–226, 258–263
  - and ICC 246, 297–303
- extensive destruction of property as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 401
- historical development 216–217, 219–232
- hostage taking see under underlying offences below
- and ICC
  - and elements of crimes 246, 297–303
  - Rome Statute 245–246, 291–297
- and ICTR
  - general requirements 219–263
  - overview 217–218, 231–232
  - statutory provisions 215–216, 217–218
  - underlying offences 219–220, 263–291
- and ICTY
  - general requirements 219–263
  - overview 217, 230–231
  - statutory provisions 215–217
  - underlying offences 219–220, 263–291
- inhuman or cruel treatment see under underlying offences below
- and Internationalised Tribunals
  - ECCC 249–250, 312–314
  - SCSL 304–310
  - SICT 250–251, 314–317
  - SPSC 247–249, 310–311
- ‘intra-article’ convictions 325–349

war crimes (cont.)	plunder 406
murder and wilful killing see under underlying offences below	rape 235, 280
outrages upon personal dignity 234–235, 275–278, 405	as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 406 plunder, pillage or extensive appropriation see under underlying offences below	as violation of laws or customs of war 406 rape see under underlying offences below	slavery or unlawful labour 235, 281 relationship to international criminal and humanitarian law 1, 2–4	slavery 407 slavery or unlawful labour see under underlying offences below	unlawful labour 407 terror 236, 281–284, 407	terror 236, 281–284, 407
torture see under underlying offences below	torture 239–240, 284–285
underlying offences	as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 408 destruction of property 229, 264	as violation of laws or customs of war 408 destruction or damage to cultural property 230–231, 268–270, 402	unlawful attack on civilians or civilian objects 240–243, 285–287
extensive destruction 229, 264, 401	civilian objects 409
wanton destruction & unjustified devastation 266–268, 401, 402	civilians 408
hostage-taking 232, 270–271	unlawful confinement 242, 287–288
as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 403	as grave breach of Geneva Conventions 409
as violation of laws or customs of war 403	as violation of laws or customs of war 409 inhuman or cruel treatment 233–234, 271–273	unlawful deportation or transfer 242–243, 288, 410 cruel treatment 404	violence to life and person 243, 288–289
inhuman treatment 403–404	wilfully causing suffering or injury 244–290, 410
murder and wilful killing 273–275	‘widespread’, meaning of 28–29, 52
murder 404–405	‘widespread or systematic’ requirement as element in crimes against humanity 27, 51
wilful killing 404	wilful killing as war crime 273–275, 404
other underlying offences 245, 290–291	wilfully causing suffering or injury as war crime 244–290, 410
outrages upon personal dignity 234–235, 275–278, 405	Yugoslavia see International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY)
plunder, pillage or extensive appropriation 278–280	Zagreb (Croatia), shelling of 241, 286–287
extensive appropriation 405–406	Zasavica (Bosnia), illegal detention at 49–50, 77