CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

Index

1955 system 116, 168

Abe, Kazushige 204–6
Abe, Shinzō 59, 167, 172, 176, 347 abortion 79–80, 87
'Act for the Promotion of Ainu Culture & Dissemination of Knowledge Regarding Ainu Traditions' 72 aged care 77, 79, 89, 136–7, 228–9 ageing population 123, 140 participation in sporting activities 227–8 aidagara (betweeness) 49
Ainu language 71–2
Ainu people banning of traditional practices 71 definition of 72
  discrimination against 23
  homeland 71
  as hunters and meat eaters 304 overview 183
Akitsuki, Risu 245
All Romance Incident 189
amae 41–2, 50–1
Amami dialects 63
Amami Islands 63
Amebic (novel) 209
The Anatomy of Dependence 40 ancestor veneration 160–1 anime 15, 236
anime industry
  criticisms of 237–8
  cultural erasure 364–5 exporting success 361–2 globalisation of anime 254, 364–5 hybridity of products 364 major forms 236–7 size and significance of 236–7, 360
  'soft power' of 237
  transnationalism 364 anti-Americanism 347
anti-authoritarianism 167 anti-globalisation protests 342–3 anti-Japanese sentiment in China 346–7
  in South Korea 345, 347 Aoyama, Nanae 203
art-tested civility 170
Asada, Zennosuke 186
Asian identity 175–6, 214
asobi (play) 218
Astro Boy (Tetsuwan Atomu) 243 audio-visual companies, export strategies 362

Balint, Michael 51
Benedict, Ruth 41
birthrate 81–5, 87, 140, 333–4 Bon festival 221
brain drain 144
'bubble economy' 118
Buddha (manga) 246
Buddhism 57, 59, 136
  background 149
  disassociation from Shinto under Meiji 152–6 effects of disassociation 153, 155–6
  moral codes embodied in practice 157 problems in the study of 151–2
  as a rational philosophy 154 relationship to the state 153–4 role of wives of priests 154 role of women 159
  see also Temple Buddhism buraku culture 187–9
  at a crossroad 195–6 diversity in 190–2
  transformations of 192–5

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

buraku identity formation of 190, 191
  self-contradiction in 189 Buraku Liberation League 111, 186 buraku liberation movements 101, 186, 189, 191 burakumin compared to other minority groups 184–5
  discrimination against 6, 160, 182, 184–7
  as a genealogical minority 182–3 population 182–3
  regional distribution of buraku communities 191 transformation in forms of discrimination over time 187 types of communities 193–5 burakumin category 182

capitalism and stock companies 342–3 Chikamatsu, Monzaemon 170 childcare facilities 88–9 childcare policy 88
children
  of divorced parents 86 legal status of Koreans in Japan 30
  status in ie 77
  and stepfamilies 86
China
  anti-Japanese demonstrations 347 cultural nationalism 345–8
  relationship with Japan 346 status of Japanese orphans and women left during war 31–2 Chinese cultural influences 26
Chinese people, status in Japan 29 Christianity, background 149–50
The Chrysanthemum and the Sword 41
Chūo Kyōiku Shingikai 162 citizenship
  bi-national parentage 32–3 dual 30–1
  Koreans in Japan 29
  naturalisation/de-naturalisation 31 repatriation of Japanese women and orphans from China 31–2 civil society 11
  and voluntarism 122–3 class
  kakusa shakai 2
  middle class mass phenomenon 169 and political ideology 168–9 transformation of public perceptions of 1–2 'working poor' 169
Climate and Culture 40, 48
'closed country' policy 57 collectivism 171
  archetypical analysis of 48–9 during Meiji period 172
  vs. individualism 169–71, 173 vs. Western individualism 45–6, 48 comic culture 360 communitarians 16, 19
commuting 220
componential analysis 39 computer games 15, 139 Confucianism 131, 132, 137
  background 149
  role of women 159
consumerism 130
consumption
  depression of 115
  growth in 117–19
  shift from ascetic to materialist approach to 118, 141
'A Contextual Model of the Japanese' 40, 43
'convergence' debate
'cool Japan' 216
corporate culture
  corporation as family 80–1 three treasures of 2 cosmopolitans 16–17
cultural agents categories of 10
  and culture shaping forces 10–15 cultural analysis
  emic approach to 39
  emic/etic distinction 38–9, 46–8, 52
  etic approach to 39 and use of anecdotal evidence 42–4 and use of native terms 41–2 cultural demography 5 cultural diffusion via emigration 26–8
  via exporting of cultural products 28 cultural exports cultural products 13, 216–17 culturally 'odourless' products 362 exporting strategies 362 history of 352–3
  increase in 14
  international reception 15 Japanese-style management 354–60 popular culture 360
  popularity throughout Asia 134 reluctance to export distinctively Japanese products 366 cultural images exported, changes in 14–15 cultural influences from China 26
  from the West 26, 44

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

cultural materialism 39
cultural nationalism 130
  and administration of capitalism and stock companies 342–3 and adoption of a constitutional parliamentary monarchy 341–2 in China 345–8
  in East Asia 343–8
  and the introduction of British cotton 340–1 in Japan 343–4 Japanese examples 340–3 and jimponshugi (humanity first-ism) 343 in Korea 344–5
  relationship to globalisation 336–7, 339–40, 349–50 cultural orientations, forces that shape 12 cultural policy, in early 1980s 49 cultural relativism dilemmas of 6–9
  and the 'name order' debate 9 types of 7
cultural values, and globalisation 348–9 culture
  definition 10
  differing conceptions of 48 typology of 10–12
cute character culture 134 cyber-culture 135, 139

daily life, varied patterns of 26 Dainippon Sumō Kyōkai (Great Japan Sumo Association) 319 dankai 167
Dazai, Osamu 201
dekasegi 126
Democratic Party of Japan 172, 173 Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK) 344 deregulation 120–1
discrimination against foreigners 33 against minority groups 6, 23, 184–7 against women 2 linguistic 23 division of labour 80–1 divorce rate 81, 85–7
Doi, Takeo 40–2, 50–1
Dōwa Council Policy Report (1965) 189
'Dōwa education' 111
DragonBall franchise 253 dual citizenship 30–1 Durkheim, Emile 45

economic development
  basis of rapid development 116 benefits of rapid growth 117–19 conditions for growth 114–15 debates about convergence 114–17 and evolution of work culture 113 nature of 114
  role of government policies in rapid growth 132–3 and social welfare 83, 120 economic downturn 82 economy
  'bubble economy' 118
  globalisation and restructuring 119–20 indicators of change 356 the lost decade 119
  nihonbyō (the Japanese disease) 119–20 in shadow of China 127–8 education
  accommodation of diversity 106–7 basic global features of school culture 96 'bottom-line schools' (teihenkō) 105 changes in school culture over time 105–6 class size 97, 168 collaborative learning process 97 competing narratives of Japanese school culture 94–6 concept of school culture 92–3, 95–6 culture of learning 97 culture of teaching 98
  dentōkō vs. newer elite academic schools 104–5 differing orientations among postwar students 167–8 'educationally difficult schools' (kyōiku kon'nankō) 105 elite academic high schools 103–5 emphasis on effort over ability (ganbarism) 96 evening high schools 103 features of Japanese school culture 93, 96 focus on groupwork (han) 100 high school types 102–3 introduction of compulsory education 70
  Kizuna
    see education, teacher-student relationships 'lifestyle guidance' (shīdo) 97–8, 102 middle schools 102
  minority activism 100, 107 neo-liberal reforms 100–1 non-elite academic high schools 103, 105 organisational and communal skills 97
  'Osaka model' 101

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

education (cont.)
and parental choice 101 primary schools 102 reforms in recent times 108 regional variations in school culture 100–1 school rule violation 103 structure of current system 94 student behaviour 178–9 teacher collaboration and professional development 98–9 teacher-student relationships (kizuna) 99 teacher-teacher relationships 99–100 teachers' unions 100, 101
'Tokyo model' 100–1
urban-rural differences 100
variations at age-graded levels 102 variations at different types of schools 102–4 variations within similarly labelled schools 104 vocational high schools 103, 105 waning aspirational culture 107–8 'whole person education' 97–8 Ekuni, Kaoiri 209
electronic gadgets 134–7 elite culture 10 Emancipation Edict 185, 189 emic concepts of Japan critical appraisals of 40 multiplicity of 47–8 opposition to 'Western theory' 44–6 use of native terms 40–2
emic/etic distinction
in cultural analysis 38–9, 46–8, 52
in linguistics 38 relevance for Japanese studies 39–40 emigration 26–8
enterprise unions 354–5
environmental damage 143 essentialism 25–7, 34 ethnic diversity 1–2, 24 ethnic Koreans 29 activism 100, 107, 111
legal status of children 30
as a minority group 184 passing as Japanese 29–30 preservation of traditions 6
population 184
status of Japanese wives 30 writers (zainichi bungaku) 210 Etō, Jun 201–2
Eugenics Protection Law 79
Exotica japonica 24–5 exports of manufactured goods 28
see also cultural exports
'familism' 48
family culture 76
and aged care 77, 79, 89 balancing family and work 83, 88 changes in eating arrangements 310 and childcare decisions 88–9 contemporary Japanese family 76 emergence of the 'new family' 81 regional variations 86–7 single-parent families 84 structure of postwar family 80–1 as a theme in literature 201–4 variations by socioeconomic class 86–7 see also marriage
family policy
and fertility rates 88 and surrogate mothers 89 and work-life balance 88 family system 76
developed by Meiji state 76–9 family values, and political culture 177–9 food culture chabudai table 310–11
changes in the dinner table 310 changes in ways meals are served 311 composition and serving of conventional Japanese meal 300 decline in meal preparation at home 314 fish consumption 302–4, 315 food compatibility model 312–14 funa zushi 303
gyunabe 305
introduction of dining table 311 lifting of ban on meat consumption 304–5 mochi 301
nigiri zushi 303
nikujaga 306
nori maki 303
popularity of eating out 315–16 post-1960s 309–10
rice as symbolic food 300–1 sake 301
sashimi 302
spread of Japanised Western-style dishes 306–7 sukiyaki 305
sushi 302–3 transformation of 304–10 urban middle class and chabudai culture 307–8 wartime and postwar food shortage 308–9 whale and dolphin 303–4 yamatoni 306
yoshokuya 306–7
zen table 310

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

food industry 315
foreign workers 118
'freeters' 82
Freud, Sigmund 46
Fromm, Eric 51
Fūdo 48
Fujimori, Alberto 30
Fukuda, Yasuo 172–3
Fukumi-warai (Pregnant Smile) 207 furiitaa (freelance worker) 123–5

gaichi 24
  see also naichi/gaichi hierarchy gairaigo 60
ganbarism (persistence) 96 gender and division of labour 80–1 and language 61 globalisation challenge to nation-states 337 and changes to pattern of food production and consumption 338 and cultural adaptation 13 and cultural values 348–9
  in East Asia 347–8
  impacts in Japan 337–9 and labour shortages 337–8 nature and operation of 336–7 relationship with cultural nationalism 336, 339–40, 349–50 and restructuring 119–20 and social inequality 169 Golden Week 221
golf 233
Goodenough, Ward 52
Gorudo Rasshu (Gold Rush) 203
Great Hanshin Earthquake 286, 287 Great Kanto Earthquake (1923) 286
'gunboat diplomacy' 24
Gurando Finale (The Grand Finale) 205

Hamaguchi, Esyun 40, 43, 45, 47, 49–50 han 97
'Happy Monday System' 221
harizu 15
health insurance system 123
'Hello Kitty' Robo 134, 136, 142
'high context' culture 44 hikikomori (social withdrawal) 137–8 hiragana syllabary 66
Hitori Biyori (A Perfect Day for Being Alone) 203–4 Hokkaidō absence from mainstream cultural imagination 23 colonisation by Japan 23, 62 dialects 62
  discrimination against Ainu 23 holidays
  Bon festival 221
  Golden Week 221
  New Year festival 221
  paid vacations 220
  public holidays 221
homogeneity 24, 40
  'Nihon seishin' ('The Japanese Spirit) 132 honorific individualism 170 hot spring spas 228–9 housing codes
  concept of 281
  Japanese 281–2
housing culture
  affordability of homes 288–9, 297–8 architectural design of 'proper' houses in early Meiji era 283 at time of Meiji Restoration 282–3 chair-sitting culture 293–4 changes over time 291–6
  danger of fires 286–7 and emerging middle class 292–3 floor-sitting culture 284, 291–4 furniture 284
  and growth in non-standard households 296–7 home ownership 289, 291, 297–8 international perspectives and problematic stereotypes 285–91 Japanese housing codes 281–2 major transitions in 285 postwar transformation in housing and housing codes 294–6 and privacy for family life 292 rental accommodation 289–91
  'scrap and build' construction practices 288 and seismic challenges 286–8 since 1970s 284–5
  size and condition of dwellings 285–6 variations and stratification 296 wooden dwellings 286, 288 human rights activism 100 hybrid products 141–3, 364 hyōjungo 26–9

I-novels (shishōsetsu) 170, 201 identity
  see Japanese people ie 48–9, 77–8, 125–6, 201
Ie (Domestic Life) 201
Ikkyū, Sojun 170
Imperial Shinto 155
individualism 82–3, 169–71, 173 industrial relations, core feature 354–6

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

industrialisation, and convergence debate inequality 2, 120, 169
Inoue, Hisashi 69
inter-societal cultural relativity 7 internet
  see cyber-culture
intra-cultural relativism 7

Japan
  cultural interpretation of physical entity 22 defining 21, 34
  essentialist definitions 34
  physical extent 23
  ramifications of conservative definitions 34–5
  ramifications of liberal-progressive definitions 35 social and political stratification 22–4 Japan Communist Party 115
Japan Maritime Self-Defense Forces 174
Japan Recreation Society (Nihon Rekuriēshon Kōykai) 223
Japan Socialist Party 168
Japan Society of Obstetrics and Gynecology 89
Japan Statistical Yearbook 223 Japanese character
  interpersonal quality of 45 in literature 40 Japanese culture conceptual and theoretical issues 5–6 de-territorialisation/re-territorialisation 26–9 defining 21, 34
  duality 8–9
  essentialist definitions 34
  in global context 6–7
  monocultural model 1, 24
  nature of 2
  paradigm conflict over 1–6 public discourse on 3 ramifications of conservative definitions 34–5
  ramifications of liberal-progressive definitions 35 relationship to Japanese people 5 'Japanese exceptionalism' 40 Japanese people
  Asian identity 175–6, 214
  criteria for defining 4, 21, 29, 33, 121
  essentialist definitions 34
  and Japanese culture 4 ramifications of conservative definitions 34–5
  ramifications of liberal-progressive definitions 35 Japanese Society 40, 43–4 Japanese spirit 49, 132
  see also wakon yōsai Japanese studies
  and misconceptions of 'the West' 44–6 and relevance of emic/etic distinction 39–40 universality vs. particularity 49–52
Japanese-style management
  see management style Japanisation 15
'japonisme' 24, 28
jimponshugi (humanity first-ism) 343 Journal of the Ministry of Education (Monbushō Zasshi) 70 jus sanguinis 31
jus solis 31

Kagoshima dialect 62
kakusa shakai 2
kamigata rakugo 62
kamigata region dialects 62
Kanehara, Hitomi 209
Kaneshiro, Kazuki 210
kango 60
kanji 59, 65, 66, 68
kanjin (between people) 43, 47, 50 karōshi (death from overwork) 216
katakana syllabary 65, 66
Katsushika, Hohusai 240 Kawakami, Hiromi 204, 208–9 kazoku (family) 78, 126, 201 Kazoku Shinema (Family Cinema) 203 keigo 60
keitai shōsetsu (mobile phone novels) 133, 200 Kicchin (Kitchen) 202
Kimba the White Lion (Janguru Taitei) 243, 246
Kimura, Bin 42
Kirino, Natsuo 209
Kitayama, Junyu 219
kizuna 99
Koe ni dashite yomitai Nihongo 58
Kojima, Nobuo 201
Koizumi, Junichirō 169, 180, 347
Kokoro no Nōto (The Heart and Mind Notebook) 162
Kokugo Chōsa Iinkai (National Language Investigation Committee) 70
Kokugo gannen (National language – year one) 69–70 Kokutai no Hongi (Fundamentals of Our National Policy 48 Koreans
  see ethnic Koreans
koseki (family registries) system 78–9, 83, 85 kyōtsūgo 26–8, 62
Kyūshū dialects 62

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

labour force, transition from agricultural to manufacturing workforce 114–15 labour market deregulation 120–1 labour movement, division of 116, 118 labour shortages 337–8 Labour Standards Law (Rōdō kijun hō) 216 labour unions 115, 118–19, 169, 356 language
  bi-cultural literacy 122 characteristics of Japanese language 57–8 Chinese influence on 57, 59 classical Japanese 67
  dialects 61–3
  English as a second language 122
  English language training and proficiency 72–3, 122, 178–9, 358
  English loanwords 59–60, 122 European influences 57 foreign influences on 56–7 and gender 61
  historical overview 56–7 honorific (keigo) 60–1 introduction of modern Japanese 67 Japanese peoples' relationship to 58 modernisation 57 origins of Japanese language 58 regional differences 26–7 sentence structure 66–7
  and social change 56
  spelling system 67
  'standard' Japanese 23, 69–71 strength of connection to people 44 and translation difficulties 42
  use of native terms 40–2
  use of native words in cultural analysis 40–2, 50 use of native words for technical purposes 42 vocabulary 57–60
  see also writing system language policy 67–9
  foreign loanwords committee 41 learn-from-Japan campaign 353–4 Lee, O-Young 50
leisure activities and age of participants 227–8 data on 222–3 economic importance of 223 high cost of 234
  participation rates in activities by gender 224–7 travel and sightseeing 228 types of activities and times when enjoyed 223–4
  urban-rural differences 231
  variations by gender, class and age 229–31 leisure culture academic study of 219
  after industrialisation 231–2 and concept of leisure (rejā) 217–18 concept of play (asobi) 218 in contemporary society 232 cross-cultural comparisons 232–3 debates and controversies 217–20
  golf 233
  paid vacations 221–2
  in period prior to Pacific War 218 in pre-modern period 231 proclaimed lack of need for play or leisure 219–20
  public holidays 221
  'revolution of consciousness' in postwar years 218–19 revolutionary change 216–17 time for leisure 220–2
  'typically' Japanese leisure behaviour 233
Leisure Development Center (Yoka Kaihatsu Sentā) 223
Levellers' Association Movement 189 Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) 83, 168, 172, 173
  1955 system 116, 168
  support for management 116 life expectancy 123, 314, 338
lifetime employment 354
lifology 8
literature
  by writers of non-Japanese origin 210–11 challenges to modernist assumptions 210 distinction between pure and popular 199–200 in early modern period 201 historical perspective 211–12 I-novels 170, 201
  impact of globalisation and development of IT 213–14
  'in-between' literature 200 invasion of the virtual 204–8 in post-1945 period 201–2 relationship between Japanese literature and other Asian cultures 214 relationship to society/culture 199 role of media in popularisation of 200 theme of crossing boundaries 208 theme of the family 201–4 theme of individual rebelling against personal or social environment 204–8 theme of Japanese modernity and Japanese identity 211 women writers 202–3, 208–9
  zainichi bungaku 210

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

Machida, Kō 207
Madame Butterfly 24
management style debate over exportability 356–60 export of 354–60
  and human resource management practices 356 and industrial relations 354–6 willingness of leaders to export 358 Manazuru (novel) 204, 208 manga 15
  academic analysis and debates 255–6 in Australia 360 broadened content in 1960s 243–4 contribution to popular culture 236 contribution to visual art culture 236
  criticisms of 256
  defined 236
  demographic trends and developments 238–40 during early postwar period 241 during prewar period 241 effect on Japanese society 256 expansion of global market 252–3 export of 361–2
  fan-generated content and intellectual property rights management 257–9 gekiga style 242, 246
  history of 240–1
  impact of dōjinshi (fan or amatuer manga) community 254–5 kodomomuke manga 246
  kyōyō manga (academic or educational manga) 252 move into online environments 253 new approach to shōjo manga in 1970s 244 scanlations 361
  shōjo style 246–8
  shōnen style 246–8
  significance to visual art culture 237 spin-offs in other media 243 story form 246 success of children's titles 243 tankōbon (paperback) format 248–9 typology 240
  yokabon (small books) 242 yonkoma convention 246 manga industry 253–5 training for artists 363 manufactured goods pride in 134
  success of 130–1
  see also exports manzai 62
the market, from industrial to cultural capitalism 14–15 marriage
  among peasants and poorer townsfolk 77 difficulty finding partners 85 and discrimination against burakumin 186 in ie 77
  in 'new family' 81
  and remarriage 86 rising age at first marriage 81–5 in salaryman family 81 to non-Japanese 121
  under postwar Civil Code 79
mass culture 10
Matsuura, Reiko 209
Mead, George Herbert 46 Measures for Dōwa Projects 189
Meiji Civil Code 78
Meiji period 26
Meiji state banning of Ainu language and traditional practices 71 and disassociation of Shinto and Buddhism 152–6 English language training 72 family system based on household (ie) model 76–9 policy toward women 78
  shrine merger policy 155
  standardisation of Japanese language 69–70 men difficulty finding marriage partners 85 life expectancy 123
  role in ie 77 stress generated gender role 85
middle class mass phenomenon 169
Ministry of Education 48, 70
Ministry of Education, Sports, Science and Technology 162 Ministry of Labour, Maitsuki kinrō tōkei Chōsa (Monthly Investigation of Work Statistics) 220 Ministry of Public Management, Home Affairs, Posts and Telecommunciations, Investigation on the Work Force (Rōdōryoku Chōsa) 220 minority groups construction of culture 6
  discrimination against 6, 184–5
  social movements 1–2
Misaki, Aki 206–7
Miyazawa Kiichi 216
Mizuki, Shigeru 243
mobile phone manga 253
mobile phone novels 133, 200

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

mobile phones 134–5 modernity, tension with tradition 130 Morishima, Michio 132
monoculturalists 16, 18–19 multiculturalisation 121–2
multiculturalists 16–18 Murakami, Haruki 15, 170–1, 207–8 Murakami, Ryū 203
music culture absorption of orchestral music 276, 278–9 art music 261–3
  at school 263–5, 275, 277
  at sports carnivals 269 collections of music published for hobby purposes 265 and computer games 270 and corporeality 269–70 dancing songs at festivals 269–70 diversity and types 263–72 folk music 261–3 hōgaku (Japanese music) 261–3, 276–8 importation and absorption of brass brand music 276–8 indoor dance venues 270 international comparison 275–7 J-pop 266
  karaoke 271
  kayōkyoku (popular songs) 265–6 the music industry 276–7 musical activities as hobbies or interests 265–7 musical genre and social strata 272–5 nagashi (itinerant musicians) 271 performance opportunities 267–9 perspectives regarding Japanese music 261–3 playing of instruments by girls 266 popular instruments 265 popular music 261–3
  reappraisal of traditional music 264–5 transformation in consumption 276, 278–9 utagoe undō (singing-voice movement) 271 venues incorporating consumption of food and drink 270–2 yōgaku (Western music) 261–3, 275, 277 Mutō Sanji 219

naichi 24
naichi/gaichi hierarchy 29
Nakane, Chie 40, 43–4, 47, 49
'name order' debate 9
Naruto 252
National Institute for Japanese Language (Kokuritsu Kokugo Kenkyūjo) 59 National Sports Competition, entry of non-Japanese 121 nationalism 48–9
Natsume, Sōseki 169, 201
Net-batsu/new zaibatsu (financial conglomerate) 139–40
New Year festival 221
'Nihon seishin' ('The Japanese Spirit') 132
Nihonjinron 3–4, 25–7
'Nihonrashisa' no Saihakken (Rediscovering 'Japaneseness') 43
niito (not in employment, education or training) 123
Nijūyonen (Year Twenty-Four Group) 244
1955 system 116, 168
Ningen Shikkaku (No Longer Human) 201
Nipponia Nippon (novel) 204–6 NPOs (non-profit organisations) 122–3 nuclear power 141

OEL (original English-language) manga 253–4
Ōgai: Tatakau Kachō (Ogai: The Combatant Head of the House) 201 Ogawa, Yōko 209
Okinawa distinctive identity of Okinawans 65 suppression of local dialects 64
  Uchinaa Yamatuguchi (Okinawan Japanese) 65
Okinawa dialects 63
Okinawan
  see Ryukyuan Okinawan people
  discrimination against 23
  as a minority group 183–4
OL Shinkaron (Office Lady Theory of Evolution) 245–6 omiai 85
omoiyari 178
Ōmotokyō 160
On'in Chōsa Hōkokusho (Report of the Phonological Survey) 70 Order of Cultural Merit 49 oreore sagi 167
Orientalism 238
otaku 123
otherness 24–5
Ozawa, Ichirō 172

pacificism 167
parasaito shinguru (parasite singles) 123
peasant rebellions 115 pension system 123
personal computers 139

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

Pokemon 253
political culture
  1955 system 116, 168
  absence of absolutist culture 172–3 anti-authoritarianism 167
  Asian identity 175–6
  class and political ideology 168–9 collectivism vs individualism 169–71, 173 confidence in state and its institutions 176–7 cultural change since the Meiji era 169–74 defined 166
  during Tokugawa period 171–3 family values 177–9 following Meiji Restoration 171–2 generational variations 167–8 Heisei period 172, 173 international comparisons 174–9 national identity 174–6 pacifism 167
  personalisation of politics 169 satisfaction with the state 177 Showa regime 172, 173 transition from materialism to postmaterialism 168 and variations among classes 168–9 variations and diversity of 167–9 political ideology, and class 168–9 political parties
  see specific party names
popular culture
  growth in 118
  international interest in 28
  see also anime; manga
popular music 261–3
population, ageing 123
populist culture 11
postmaterialism 168
pottery 28
Power Rangers 253 property inheritance in ie 78
  under postwar Civil Code 79
Prost, Antoine 46
public behaviour, comparison with Americans 43
public holidays 221

reformist organisations 8
regional cultural variations 26 Reiyūkai 155–6, 159, 161
rejā (leisure) 217–18
religion, definition of 150–1 religions development of Buddhist lay movements and new religions 155–6 of Japan 148–50
  new religions in postwar years 156–8 post-1970s 'new new religions' 158 spread of 28
  see also specific religions religious culture
  ancestor veneration 160–1
  changes over time 152–8
  creation of 151–2 debate and controversy in study of 150–2 definition 151
  diversity and variation 158–63 and morals education 162 new spirituality movements 160 pessimistic outlook of new new religions 158 and primacy of action 157–8 relationship of new religions and modernity 156 and religious sentiment 162 and self-cultivation 157
  study of 148
  and vitalistic thought 156–8 religious practice commercialisation of 162–3 gender-based role distinctions 159–60 in post-1970s 'new new religions' 158
  and primacy of action 157–8
  and self-cultivation 157
  syncretic nature of 147–8 religious traditions, invention of 150 Rengō Sōken 220
Republic of Korea (ROK) 345 retirement age 80
'reverse convergence' 352
Ri, Kaisei 210
Risshō Kōseikai 155
robotics 136–7
rōdoku 58
Ryukyu Kingdom 304
Ryukyuan 58, 62–5

Saigo no Kazoku (The Last Family) 203
sake 301
salaryman family 80–1
salaryman lifestyle 80 samurai class 77
Sapir-Whorf hypothesis 41
Sayama campaign 189
school culture see education seasonality 22–3
Second World War, US/Western perceptions of Japan 25 Seijuku to Sōshitsu: Haha no Hōkai (Maturity and Loss: The Collapse of the Mother 201

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

seikatsu concept of 8
  culture 11
  definition of 7–8
seikatsu-gaku 8
seikatsu kyōdō kumiai 8 seikatsusha 7–8
seiki shain (credentialled company employee) 125
Sekai Kyūsei Kyō 28
seniority wages 355–6
Sensei no Kaban (My Teacher's Briefcase) 204 shidō ('lifestyle guidance') 97–8, 102 Shiga, Naoya 201
Shimazaki, Tōson 201 Shinto
  background 148
  creation of State Shinto 154 disassociation from Buddhism under Meiji 152–6 effects of disassociation 154
  problems in the study of 152
  role of women 159
  shrine merger policy 155
Shintoism 132, 136
Shirato, Sanpei 242, 243, 246 shishōsetsu (I-novels) 170, 201
Shotaro, Yasuoka 201
Shrine Shinto 155
shūshoku 125
Snakes and Earrings (novel) 209 social capital, regional variations in 167
social movements
  and minority groups 1–2 reformist organisations 8
social welfare
  and economic development 120
  and economic growth 83 society
  monocultural model 3
  multicultural model 3–4 multi-ethnic composition 1–2 regional differences in kinship and village structures 47 Soka Gakkai International 28 soto (outside) 49
Soviet Union, perception of Japan 25
Spencer, Herbert 45
sport culture
  bukatsu 318, 331–2
  change in walking style and attire 326 changes in sports practice by age 322 as a complex amalgam 317 construction of sports stadiums and facilities 329 current sports practice 321–5 and declining birthrate 333–4 and development of spectator culture 329 disputes over significance of sport 327–9 entry of non-Japanese into National Sports Competition 121 exercises/sports practice by sex and school stage 323 foundation of national sports organisations 327 general participation in sports 227–8 historical changes and disputes 325–30 impact of globalisation 334 increase in participation by women 333 introduction of gymnastics in schools 326 Japan's unique sports 318–21 and the mass media 330–1 moral and spiritual aspects 331–2 number of registered players of most popular sports 323–5 participation by sex 322–3 participation for enjoyment 332–3 participation in non-competitive activities 325 restrictions on foreign sports in 1930s and war years 329–30 sport as culture 330–3 standardisation of rules and skills in jūjutsu 326 sports ekiden kyōsō 321
  golf 233
  high school baseball 319 radio taisō 320
  soft tennis 320–1
  sumo 318–19
the state and determining how Japanese culture is defined 13 fostering of Japan's national culture 12–13 and presentation of Japanese culture abroad 13 transition from imposing uniformity to accommodating diversity 12–13 stepfamilies 86–7 structural-functionalist theory 21
Sukyo Mahikari 28
Sullivan, Henry Stack 45
surrogate mothers 89
Survey on Time Use and Leisure Activities (2001) 228–9 Suzuki, Takao 68

Taisho period 72, 115
Taiwan, Japanophile groups 15

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

Takashi, Sāito 58
Takeuchi, Naoko 244
Tamotsu, Aoki 237
Taro, Aso 237
Tate Shakai no Ningen Kankei (Human Relationships in a Vertical Society) 43–4 Tawada, Yoko 209
technological culture
  changes over time 132–7
  'culturally odourless' products 142 dealing with diversity and variation 137–41 driving forces behind innovation 133–4 and 'economic miracle' 133 and environmental damage 143 and gender stereotypes 138–9 influence of US 141 innovation 103
  and Japanese creativity 133 and national pride 134
  nature of 130–1
  and new ideas about time 134
  relationship between Western technology and Japanese cultural traditions 130 relationship to broader culture 131 rise of hybrid products 141–3 and socio-economic inequality 138–9 and technology transfer 140 see also manufactured goods; wakon yōsai (Japanese spirit, Western technology) technology, transnational nature of 141–2 Temple Buddhism 153–4, 160–1
Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examinations 73
Tezuka, Osamu 242–3, 246, 367
Thaksin, Shinawatra 169
The Special Measures for Regional Improvement Law (1969–97) 111
Tōhoku dialects 62
Tokugawa period 67, 115, 133, 170–1, 182
Tonarimachi Senso (War with the Town Next Door) 206 tourism (outbound) 118, 228–9 Toyō no dōtoku, sieyō no geijutsu, (Eastern morality, Western Techniques) 131 tradition, tension with modernity 130 traditional performing arts 62 Tsugaru dialect 60, 61

uchi 49
Uchinaa Yamatuguchi (Okinawan Japanese) 65 Ueda, Kazutoshi 70–1
ukiyoe 28
UN Declaration on Women 81
United States, changing perceptions of Japan 24–5 value orientations competing cultural orientations to the state and the market 17 macro-demography of 16–19 video games 139, 143

visual art culture academic analysis and debate 255–6 distinctiveness of 236 significance of anime industry 236–7, 254 significance of manga 236, 254
  'soft power' of 237
  see also anime; manga
voluntarism 11, 122–3

wago 60
wakon kansai (Japanese spirit, Chinese skills) 131 wakon yōsai (Japanese spirit, Western technology) debate and controversy 131–2 overview 130–1
  success of 132–7
WAP (Wireless Application Protocol) 135 'War on Terror', support for 346–7 Watsuji, Tetsurō 40, 48–9, 132
'the West', misconceptions about 44–6
White Paper on the National Lifestyle (2007) 89
Whitebook on Leisure 223
Why Has Japan Succeeded: Western Technology and the Japanese Ethos 132 women citizenship status when married to ethnic Koreans 30 contemporary pattern of employment 83 and custody of children 86–7 discrimination against 2
  economic opportunities 79, 81 and gendered division of labour 80–1 importance of managerial skills 78, 115 internet use 135
  life expectancy 123
  managerial responsibilities in ie 77 manga artists 244
  Meiji policy toward 78 participation in technological culture 138–9 political equality and universal suffrage 79 repatriation from China 31–2 rising education and delayed marriage 84 role of the 'good wife' 83 roles as mothers and educators of next generation 78 roles in various religions 159–60
  status in ie 77
  traditional low status 76 use of language 61

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88047-3 — The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture
Edited by Yoshio Sugimoto
Index
More Information

work culture and ageing population 123 and consumption 117–19 dependence on foreign workers 118 deregulation of labour market 120–1 and economic development 113
enterprise unions 354–5
evolution of 113–14
furiitaa (freelance worker) 123–5
globalisation and restructuring 119–20 ideological tension in postwar years 116–17
lifetime employment 354
mobilisation of Japanese to generate surplus 114
multiculturalisation 121–2
and new ideas about time 134
niito (not in employment, education or training) 123
parasaito shinguru (parasite singles) 123
seiki shain (credentialled company employee) 125
seniority wages 355–6
shūshoku 125
towards a national work culture and consumption 117–19 transition from rural to urban labour force 114–15 and work ethic 134 work values and the Japanese household 125–6 working hours
changes over time 220–1
introduction of 40-hour week 216, 221
karōshi (death from overwork) 216
writing system
Chinese characters (kanji) 59, 65, 66, 68 complexity of 65–7
hiragana syllabary 65, 66
katakana syllabary 65, 66
sentence structure 66–7 simplification of script 67–9 spelling system 67, 68

xenophobia 33

Yaeyama dialects 63
Yamazaki, Masakazu 201
Yanagita, Kunio 49
Yang Yi 211
Yonagui dialect 63
Yonaguni 63
Yoneyama, Toshinao 47
Yoshimoto, Banana 202–3 youth culture 216–17
Yū, Miri 203, 210

zaibatsu firms 115
zainichi bungaku 210
Zainichi Koreans
see ethnic Koreans
Zen 28

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org