

Index

- abatement cost 30ff., 587ff.
- accidents 577ff.
- air pollution 30ff., 565ff., 572ff., 589ff., 624
- alternative fuels 199ff.
 - advantages and disadvantages 244ff.
 - current production 242
 - options 200ff.
 - primary energy use 442
- autothermal reforming see hydrogen production

- batteries 236ff. see also electric vehicles
 - charging 239
 - cost 237
 - lead-acid 236
 - li-ion 236ff.
 - nickel-metal 236
 - performance 237, 620
- biofuels 202, 618
 - biodiesel see fatty acid methyl ester, rapeseed methyl ester
 - biomass-to-liquids 201, 206, 215ff., 224ff., 226
 - global potential 160
 - palm oil 210, 246
 - sustainable 245, 246
 - vegetable-oil-based fuels 210ff.
 - 1st generation 245, 618
 - 2nd generation 246, 618
- biomass gasification see also hydrogen production
- bitumen see oil sands
- boil-off effect 330

- carbon capture 168ff.
 - cost 182ff.
 - oxyfuel combustion 169ff.
 - post-combustion 169ff.
 - pre-combustion 169ff.
- carbon dioxide see greenhouse gas
- carbon dioxide (CO₂) capture and storage 168ff.
 - capture see carbon capture
 - cost 182ff.
 - legal and regulatory framework 184ff.
 - projects 181
 - public perception 190ff.
 - storage see carbon storage
 - transport see CO₂ transport
- carbon intensity 9, 13, 17
- carbon storage 168ff., 176ff.
 - cost 183
 - geological storage 175ff.
 - coal seams 176
 - depleted oil and gas fields 177ff.
 - enhanced oil recovery 178
 - liability 189
 - mineralisation 176, 180, 184
 - monitoring and verification 183
 - safety issues 174
 - saline aquifers 179
 - salt caverns 176
 - global storage potential 179, 180ff.
 - ocean storage 176, 184
- clean development mechanism 29
- climate change 8, 16ff., 569, 615
 - adaptation 27
 - impacts 21
 - macroeconomic costs 25ff.
 - mitigation 22ff.
 - policy framework 28ff.
 - stabilisation 24, 27
 - targets 21ff.
- CO₂ emissions see greenhouse gases
- CO₂ transport 172ff.
 - CO₂ pipeline network 173ff.
 - cost 183
- coal 100ff.
 - coal-bed methane 93ff.
 - coal-to-liquids 104, 201, 206, 224ff., 230, 241, 243, 617
 - gasification see also hydrogen production
 - hard coal 101ff.
 - lignite 102ff.

- competitiveness 529ff., 557
- compressed-air energy storage (CAES) 491ff.
- compressed hydrogen see hydrogen
- compressed methane gas 209, 224ff.
- compressed natural gas 200ff., 203, 209, 224ff., 242ff., 619
- congestion 578
- co-production of hydrogen and electricity 386, 398, 496ff.
- Darcy–Weisbach equation 324
- decarbonisation of fuels 36ff.
- diesel 203ff., 208, 224ff.
- dimethyl ether 200, 201, 207, 217ff.
- dried distillers grains with solubles 219
- electric mobility 619–623 prospects 238ff.
- electric vehicle 224ff., 231ff.
battery-electric vehicle 235ff., 620ff.
hybrid-electric vehicle 231ff.
plug-in hybrid-electric vehicle 233ff., 619ff.
recharging 620
- electricity generation see also hydrogen production, co-production of hydrogen and electricity storage options for renewable surplus electricity 485ff., 490ff.
- electrolysis see hydrogen production
- emission standards, passenger cars 575
- emissions trading scheme 29, 190, 192
- employment 530, 541ff., 554, 558, 634
- energy challenge 2, 613
- energy demand, global 46ff.
- energy efficiency 599ff.
2000 Watt per capita society 600 energy-flow diagram 600 obstacles 606
R&D efforts 605, 607ff.
- energy intensity 9, 11, 17
- energy prices historic development 14
scenarios 409, 462
- energy security 8, 12ff.
- energy supply historic development 32ff.
- energy-system model 388ff.
- enhanced oil recovery 83ff., 172, 178, 186
- entrained-flow gasifier 285
- estimated ultimate recovery 55
- ethanol 201, 206ff., 218–221, 224ff., 230, 241ff.
- externalities 566ff., 586ff., 591ff.
- external cost 566–568, 580, 586ff., 591ff.
- extra-heavy oil 73ff.
- fatty acid methyl ester (FAME) 200ff., 210ff., 224ff., 230, 242, 244, 248
- Fischer–Tropsch fuels 201, 617
synthesis 213ff.
- flexible-fuel vehicle 201, 206, 242
- fossil fuels 46ff., 51ff., 109
- Fourth Assessment Report 17
- fuel cells 348ff., 625–626
cost 359
development potential 367ff.
efficiency 352, 362
fuels 358
historical development 348ff.
impacts on the service sector 376ff.
mobile applications 360ff.
portable applications 367 principles 350ff.
sectoral changes 369ff.
stationary applications 363ff.
structural changes in industry 372ff.
targets 359
types 352ff.
- fuel-cell vehicle 255ff. see also hydrogen vehicle
cost 466, 467
efficiency 362
fuel consumption 466
history 256
market penetration 463, 464
- GAMS 391
- gas 85ff.
aquifer gas 96
classification 85
gas hydrates 97ff.
gas-to-liquids 92, 201, 206, 216, 224ff., 243, 617
mid-depletion point 99ff.
natural gas from coal 93
production and consumption 86ff.
reserves and resources 89ff.
stranded gas 85, 91ff.
tight gas 95
trade 89
- gasoline 203ff., 208, 224ff.
- general-equilibrium model 529, 544ff.
- geographic information system 394, 396ff., 407, 472
- global warming 28
- global-warming potential 204
- greenhouse gas atmospheric concentration 20, 25 effect 17, 20
emissions 13, 17ff., 51, 570, 586ff.
reduction 8
- gross domestic product 547, 552, 554

- Hubbert peak 83
- hybrid-electric vehicle see electric vehicle
- parallel hybrid 232
 - serial hybrid 232
- hydrogen
- and the electricity sector 482ff., 632, 633
 - as by-product 278, 299ff.
 - as energy store 485ff., 490ff., 503
 - as energy vector 624
 - as industrial gas 298ff.
 - captive see hydrogen production
 - compressed gaseous see hydrogen compression
 - corridors 507ff.
 - demand
 - Europe 406
 - Germany 406
 - USA 463
 - World 440
 - discovery 271
 - embrittlement 327ff.
 - emissions impact 586ff.
 - energy density 275, 315
 - global scenarios 439ff.
 - history 34ff.
 - Hydrogen and Fuel-Cell Technology Platform 385
 - industrial surplus 299ff.
 - industrial use 298
 - liquid see hydrogen liquefaction
 - macroeconomic impact 529ff., 633, 634
 - merchant see hydrogen production
 - occurrence 271
 - penetration scenarios 402ff., 440, 534
 - phase diagram 274
 - properties 272ff.
 - regulations, codes and standards 267
 - roadmaps 260ff.
 - R&D budget 533
 - safety 318, 319
 - scenarios 635
 - social acceptance 264
 - stationary pathways 246ff., 363, 625
 - subsidy 552
 - supply outlook, 2050 430ff.
- hydrogen compression 317, 322
- hydrogen economy 2, 37ff.
- perspectives 37ff., 623, 636ff.
- hydrogen infrastructure 258ff., 443ff.
- analysis 385ff.
 - Europe 434ff.
 - Germany 410ff.
 - USA 454ff., 468ff., 476, 477
 - SSCHISM model 462, 467ff.
 - STM model 462, 472ff.
 - build-up 405ff., 443ff., 630ff.
- CO₂ emissions 431ff., 472, 474
- cost 469, 470
- fuelling-station network 403, 408
- integration of hydrogen and electricity generation
- 482ff., 485ff., 496ff., 632, 633
- investment 438, 440, 471, 472, 475, 536, 635
- MOREHyS model see MOREHyS
- penetration scenario see hydrogen
- production mix 439, 470, 471, 472, 627, 628
- reduction in conventional fuel 473
- hydrogen liquefaction 317, 329ff.
- Joule–Thomson effect 330
 - ortho–para conversion 331
- hydrogen production 277ff., 627, 628
- autothermal reforming 294, 295
 - biological 296
 - biomass gasification 222, 288ff.
 - captive 278, 279
 - CO₂ emissions 305, 306
 - coal gasification 222, 283ff., 497ff.
 - co-production of electricity 247, 285–287, 496ff., 633
 - cost 304, 305, 466
 - electrolysis 233, 290ff., 499ff., 540
 - alkaline water 291
 - high-temperature 293
 - polymer-electrolyte membrane 293
 - from intermittent renewable energy sources
 - 482ff., 490ff., 632, 633
 - global 279
 - Kværner process 295
 - merchant 279
 - overview of production processes 277, 278
 - partial oxidation 294
 - photoprocesses 296
 - primary energy use 441, 460
 - resources 457ff.
 - steam reforming of natural gas 221, 280ff.
 - thermochemical methods 295
 - with CCS 282, 286
- hydrogen purification 296ff.
- pressure-swing adsorption 297
 - temperature-swing adsorption 297
- hydrogen refuelling stations 259, 338ff.
- compressed-hydrogen stations 339ff.
 - booster-dispensing concept 341
 - multibank-dispensing concept 340
 - liquid-hydrogen stations 344ff.
- hydrogen storage 309ff., 626
- at fuelling station 318
 - hybrid storage systems 316
 - in solids 314ff.
 - chemisorption 314
 - hydrides 315
 - physisorption 314

- liquid hydrogen 312, 313
 pressurised hydrogen 312 regenerative off-board system 316
 targets 309, 310, 313
 underground storage 318 hydrogen transport 322ff., 629
 gaseous trailer transport 329, 337, 338 liquid trailer transport 334, 337, 338 maritime hydrogen transport 336 pipeline transport 323ff., 337, 338 transport in natural-gas pipelines 327ff.
 hydrogen vehicle 254ff. see also fuel-cell vehicle
 cost 466, 467
 fuel consumption 401, 466
 market penetration 403, 463ff.
 HyFLEET: CUTE project 257
 HyWays 434ff.
- input–output model 529, 537ff.
 integrated coal-gasification combined cycle 285, 286, 497ff.
 Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change 17 internal-combustion engine 203, 207, 224ff., 255
 International Energy Agency 49
 ITER 132ff.
- Joint Oil Data Initiative 55
- Kaya identity 11
 Kondratiev 565
 Kyoto protocol 28, 189
- lead market 530ff.
 life-cycle analysis 205
 ligno-cellulosic ethanol 201ff., 220, 246 linear programming 388, 394 liquefied natural gas 216 liquefied petroleum gas 200, 207ff., 224ff., 242, 619 liquid hydrogen see hydrogen lithium 234, 238
 low-carbon fuel standard 455
- macroeconomic impact 529ff., 633, 634
 ASTRA model 549ff.
 ISIS model 537ff.
 PACE-T(H₂) model 544ff.
 material efficiency 602ff.
 McKelvey diagram 52
 methanol 201, 214ff., 217ff., 224ff., 226 MOREHyS (Model for Optimisation of Regional Hydrogen Supply) 390ff.
- natural gas (see gas) compressed see compressed natural gas
- liquefied see liquefied natural gas production see gas reforming see hydrogen production reserves see gas
- natural-gas liquids 56, 86 noise 576, 625
 nuclear fuels 120–122 fast-breeder reactor 121, 122 fuel cycle 120, 121 plutonium 120, 121 recycling 122 resources inferred resources 127 reasonably assured resources 127 spent fuel 120
 thorium 130, 131
 unconventional uranium 129, 130 uranium 120, 122ff.
- nuclear fusion 131–133
 nuclear power 115ff.
 boiling-water reactor 119 growth scenarios 117 pressurised-water reactor 119 public acceptance 133 reactor generations 119, 120
- oil 34, 56ff.
 classification 56ff.
 conventional 56
 mid-depletion point 81ff., 614
 optimists, pessimists 82
 production and consumption 58ff.
 reserves and resources 60ff.
 strategic ellipse 63
 trade 61
 unconventional 56, 65ff., 108, 616, 617
- oil sands 65ff., 616 oil shale 74ff., 616
 optimisation model see energy-system model
 OSPAR 188ff.
- partial oxidation see hydrogen production patents 533 peak oil 614
 photovoltaic see renewable energy platinum 592
 plug-in hybrid-electric vehicle see electric vehicle power-train technologies 203 pressure-swing adsorption see hydrogen purification
- rapeseed methyl ester 202, 228, 230
 regenerative braking 232

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88216-3 - The Hydrogen Economy: Opportunities and Challenges

Edited by Michael Ball and Martin Wietschel

Index

More information

646 renewable energy 135ff.

 electricity yield per ha 143 European potential 144ff.
 global potential 136ff.
 installed power-generation capacity 139 intermittency 482ff., 485ff.
 potential categories, definition 136 share of world primary-energy supply 138 storage of surplus electricity 485ff., 490ff.
 stranded resources 484ff.
 types 162ff.
 use in the transport sector 502ff.
 wind energy 485ff.

reserves, classification 51ff.

reserve growth 54

security of energy supply see energy security sequestration see carbon storage

solar energy see renewable energy

static lifetime 55

steam methane reforming see hydrogen production

Stern review 25ff.

sustainable transport 563ff., 623ff.

synthesis gas 200, 213

Index

synthetic liquid fuels 200ff., 213ff.

system dynamics 388, 549

transport-demand management 615 transport policy 243ff., 582ff.

ultimate recoverable resources 55

unconventional oil see oil underground coal gasification 105

United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change 28

United States Geological Survey 83 uranium see nuclear fuels vehicle-to-grid 238ff.

virtual power plant 366

well-to-wheel analysis 204ff., 224ff., 231, 388, 616, 636 wind energy see renewable energy

World energy outlook 49, 613, 614

World energy scenarios 49

X-to-liquids 201, 226, 245