

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information

Index

- action, definition 50–1
- actor, definition 50
- acts of a reciprocity, nature of 2
- agent, definition 50
- agent-liking 119–20, 124, 129
- agreement failures, reciprocal
 - solutions 168–9 see also
 - market failures
- Akerlof, George 42, 183–4, 327–9, 347
- allocations, in games of reciprocity 285–6
- allocative preferences, in games of reciprocity 285–6
- altruism
 - and public aid 45–6
 - and reciprocal liking 19–22
 - biological influences 229–33
 - conditional 206–7
 - conditional, logic of 213, 214–18
 - effects on market efficiency 183–4
 - motivation for
 - reciprocity as alternative to unconditional
 - unconditional, logic of 212–13, 215–18
- altruistic systems, within a framework of reciprocity 7–8
- analysis of reciprocity see reciprocity analysis
- anger, and balance reciprocity 115
- anonymous giving, motives for 56
- anthropology, and reciprocity
 - concept 13–14, 17–18, 324–6
- associations, ideology of reciprocity 43
- attention, value of being the object of 122–3
- balance (comparative, matching)
 - reciprocity 18–19, 22–3
 - and coordination games 176–7
 - and fairness 143–5
 - and justice 143–5
 - and liking reciprocity 262–3
 - and retribution (retributive justice) 143–5
- anger 115
- basic motives 107–8
- categorical imperative 175
- compensatory justice 107, 143–5
- dependency from imbalance 112–13
- effects of imbalance 112–13
- equality issues 105–7, 143–5
- gratitude 111–12, 113
- guilt or shame from imbalance 111–12
- harm reciprocation 114–15
- inferiority from imbalance 112–13
- intent of the initial giver 108
- intrinsic values 190
- loss of status from imbalance 112–13
- merit or desert as motive 107–8
- moral debt from imbalance 112–13
- moral norm 111–12

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information

Index 379

- motive for correction of market failures 176–9
 - motives 2–3, 4, 97–8, 105–15
 - negative analogues 24–5
 - non-binding constraint 177–8
 - possible origin and explanation 228–9
 - power and domination in the giver 112–13
 - propriety as motive 105–7
 - punishment as balance reciprocity 114–15
 - rationality of equality 106, 107, 109–10
 - refusing a gift 113–14
 - resentment 115
 - retributive justice motive 107–8
 - revenge 113, 114–15
 - reward motive 107–8
 - social norm 111–12
 - talion law 114–15
 - variants 178–9
- balance (comparative, matching)
 - reciprocity analysis 251–61
 - basic concepts 254–6
 - choice 258–61
 - neutrality 256–7
 - sentiments 251–3
 - structures of imbalance 257–8
- Becker, Howard 325–6, 346
- behaviour, definition 50–1
- benefactor-liking (liking the benevolent giver) 120–2, 124, 129
- benevolent giving
 - from compassion 56–7
 - from liking the receiver 56–7
 - motives for 56–9
 - paternalism 57
 - to elicit the receiver's liking 57–8
 - to show and prove liking 58–9
- biological influences on altruistic behaviour 229–33
- Buddhism
 - preferences for social relations 218
 - view on explanations 226–7
- categorical imperative 149–50, 175
- causal likings 119–21, 125, 127–8
- chain reciprocities 4–5
 - across generations 46–7
 - education 197–8
 - in societies 16
 - pensions 197–8
 - structures 79–80
- Christianity, preferences for social relations 218
- Cicero 324
- collective actions
 - reciprocal motives for 171–9
 - solution for market failures 171–9
- communities
 - evidence for reciprocities 43–5
 - importance of reciprocity 14–15
- comparative reciprocity see balance (comparative, matching) reciprocity
- compassion, motive for giving 56–7
- compensation (compensatory justice)
 - and balance reciprocity 2–3, 143–5
 - motive for balance reciprocity 107
 - motives 97–8
- complementarity of mutual liking 125, 126–8
- conditional altruism 206–7
- conditional morality 206–7
- conduct, definition 50–1
- conforming 130–1
 - motive for reciprocity 139
- constraint paradox, in matching reciprocity 177–8
- contagion of acts, attitudes or sentiments 130–1, 132
 - motives for reciprocity 139
- continuation reciprocity 18, 19–20, 22–3
 - and retaliation for deterrence 24–5
 - in extended situations 84
 - motives for 97, 98–9, 134–7
- cooperatives
 - and the good society 199
 - ideology of reciprocity 43
 - role of reciprocity 193–4

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information380 Index

- Cournot-Nash (equilibrium)
 - solutions 302
 - for games of reciprocity 287–8
 - free riding 172, 173–4
 - matching reciprocity and coordination games 176–7
 - use in games of reciprocity 323–4
- crime, psychology of 37
- cultural evolution of reciprocity see social and cultural evolution of reciprocity
- cumulative sequential exchange, and strict self-interest 173–4
- dependency
 - and balance reciprocity 2–3
 - from reciprocity imbalance 112–13
 - in the receiver 64–5
 - through moral indebtedness 18–19
- Descartes, René, reverse reciprocity 4–5, 12, 37, 78–9, 140, 324
- Descartes effect 78–9, 144, 146
- deterrence see retaliation for deterrence
- direct reciprocity, evidence for 35–7
- disliking
 - effects of 12
 - negative analogue of liking reciprocity 23–4
- distributive justice 146–9
 - overall structure of reciprocity 196–7
 - role of reciprocity 194–6
- domination, in games of reciprocity 286–7, 288–9
- domination-exploitation solution 300–1
- Dumas, Alexandre 36
- duty, motive for giving 60–1
- economic anthropology, role of reciprocity 42–3
- economic aspects of reciprocity, recognition of 13–14
- economic development processes
 - role of reciprocity 349–50
 - systems other than reciprocity 310–11
- economic efficiency
 - effects of pro-social behaviour 218–21
 - effects of reciprocal behaviour 8, 218–21
 - effects of replicative behaviour 218–21
- economic externalities 182–4
- economic systems
 - and reciprocity 222–3
 - exchange 87
 - reciprocity 87–8
 - redistribution 87
 - systems of reciprocity 16–17
- economic transfer, definition 151
- economic transfer modes 151–2
 - comparison and evolution of economies 155–7
 - cultural traits 154
 - economic comparison of societies 155–7
 - exchange 151–2
 - freedom of involved agents 152–4
 - gift-giving 151–2
 - motivation for 154
 - properties 152–4
 - proportions used by societies 155–7
 - reciprocity 151–2
 - smallest number in elementary relations 152
 - taking by force 151–2
 - typology and summary 154–7
- economics
 - contribution to the good society concept 201
 - economic theory of the family 346
 - view of ‘the household’ 38–9
- economics and reciprocity
 - analysis and use of reciprocity concept 17–18
 - applications of reciprocity 13–14
 - development processes 349–50
 - economic theory of the family 346
 - future studies 351–3
 - inequality aversion 331
 - interdependent utilities 329–31
 - labour relations 328–9, 347–8
 - organizational productivity 349

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More informationIndex 381

- public sector 350
- rational and powerful
 - representation in studies 333–5
- reciprocity as a market failure 347–8
- reciprocity in a market system 5
- reciprocity in economic life 346–53
- reciprocity in economics 327–8
- remedies for market failures 348–9
- roles, virtues and importance of reciprocity 341–6
- sequential exchange 332–3
- study methodology 333–5
- use of realistic psychology in studies 333–5
- welfare state 350–1
- economics of liking-reciprocity 275–82
 - effects of liking and being liked 277–80
 - gifts and actions 280–1
 - group sentiments 282
 - preferences 275–7
 - reduced forms 281–2
- education and development, in
 - evolution of reciprocity 239–41
- education funding
 - chain reciprocities 16, 197–8
 - intergenerational reciprocities 197–8
 - public funding 46–7, 196
- efficiency wages 42
- egoism, logic of 211–12, 216–18
- equality see balance (comparative, matching) reciprocity
- equilibria in liking and giving reciprocities 131–2
- equilibrium solutions, games of reciprocity 287–9 see also Cournot-Nash (equilibrium) solutions
- evolution of reciprocity see social and cultural evolution of reciprocity
- exchange
 - and self-interest 39–41
 - as an economic system 87
 - definition 2, 51
 - economic transfer mode 151–2
- existential gratitude, and liking reciprocities 121–2
- extended reciprocations, motives for reciprocity 139–41
- extended reciprocities
 - evidence for 37–9
 - structures 76–85
- externalities (economic) 182–4
- facts
 - relations between 74–5
 - varied nature of 74–5
- factual social intercourse in gift-giving 54
- fairness
 - and balance reciprocity 2–3, 18–19, 143–5
 - and reciprocity 143–9
 - motive for reciprocity 97–8
- family
 - economic theory of 346
 - economists' view of 38–9
 - importance of reciprocity 14
 - intergenerational reciprocities 47
 - network of reciprocities 38–9
- feelings, understanding 224–6
- Fehr, Ernst 336
- Festinger, Leon 164
- Foucault, Michel 34
- game theory
 - and reciprocity 336
 - use in reciprocity analysis 246
- games of reciprocity 6–7, 28–9, 246
 - allocations 285–6
 - allocative preferences 285–6
 - concepts of solution for 323–4
 - Cournot-Nash solutions 287–8, 301–2, 323–4
 - differences from general game theory 283
 - domination 286–7, 288–9
 - domination-exploitation solution 300–1
 - equilibrium solutions 287–9
 - gift refusal 298
 - interaction and solution 286–9
 - non-frustration solution 300, 302
 - objects of preferences 283–6
 - procedural fairness 287–8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information382 Index

- games of reciprocity (cont.)
 - process preferences 284 see also logic of process preferences
 - processes 284
 - quantitative case 288–9
 - quantitative case solutions 303–9
 - rationales for solutions 300–2
 - return-gift function 298–300
 - return-gift game 303
 - setting 298–300
 - solution concepts 298–303
 - strategic interactions 283
 - symmetrical reciprocity
 - equilibrium solution 300, 301–2
 - transfer preferences 286
 - transfers 285–6
 - transfers of gifts 298–300
- general reciprocity 38
 - structures 77–8, 82–4
- ‘generalized other’ concept 38, 77–8
- generalized reciprocity 4–5, 12, 38
 - structures 76–8, 81–2
- generosity or wanting to appear generous 61–3
- genetic selection, influences on altruistic behaviour 229–33
- Genovese, Kitty 37
- gift giving
 - as market failure
 - aspect of good social relations 202, 207
 - definition 51–3
 - economic transfer mode 151–2
- gift-induced liking 18, 19–20, 22–3
- gift refusal 54, 113–14, 298
- gifts
 - symbolism 54
 - types and effects 53–4
- giving
 - in order to be liked 129
 - inequality between parties 63–6
 - psychology of 221–2
 - symbolism 63–4
 - see also* motives for giving
- global markets, reciprocal respect for others and their property 15
- global society, importance of reciprocity 15
- good social relations
 - Buddhist preferences 218
 - Christian preferences 218
 - conditional altruism 206–7
 - consequences of preference structures 210–16
 - effects on economic efficiency 218–21
 - gift-giving aspect 202, 207
 - in the workplace 222–3
 - inter-preference comparisons 216–18
 - intrinsic qualities 222–3
 - logic of 210–16
 - moral preferences 218
 - nature of 207
 - psychology of giving 221–2
 - role of reciprocity 202, 207
 - selfishness 205
 - see also* social relations
- good society concept, role of reciprocity 199–201
- goodness, value in society 190–1
- Gouldner, Alvin 325–6
- gratitude
 - and liking reciprocities 121–2
 - and reciprocal liking 125–6
 - and social bonds 2–3
 - from the receiver 111–12, 113
 - motive for reciprocity 4
 - towards society 38
- groups, reciprocities involving 85–7
- guilt
 - and balance reciprocity 2–3
 - from moral indebtedness 18–19
 - from reciprocity imbalance 111–12
- harm reciprocation 114–15
- harming
 - asymmetry with positive counterpart 88–93
 - mutual restraint from 136–7
- health insurance 196, 197, 198
- helping, and putative reciprocity 195–6
- helping behaviour 4–5, 12, 37
- hierarchy reinforcement, motive for giving 65–6
- historical importance of reciprocity 47–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information

Index 383

- Hobbes, Thomas 34, 157, 166, 168
 Hobhouse, L. T. 324–5, 346, 352
 Hume, David 123
- imitation of acts, attitudes or sentiments 84–5, 130–1, 132
 motive for reciprocity 4, 139
 individual, definition 50 individual choice and influence, in evolution of reciprocity 234–5 inequality aversion in economics 331 inequality in giving 63–6 see also balance (comparative, matching) reciprocity inferiority, from reciprocity imbalance 112–13
 informing about liking 126, 128–9
 intention and motives 50–1 interdependent utilities in economics 329–31
 interested giving 60
 intergenerational reciprocities 46–7
 education 197–8
 pensions 197–8
 structures 80–1
 intrinsic values of reciprocities 189–91
 introspection, means to understand reciprocity 224–6
- justice, and balance reciprocity 2–3, 143–5
- Kant, Immanuel 149–50, 152, 175
 Kierkegaard, Søren 284
 Kohlberg, Lawrence 240
 Kropotkin, Piotr 200
- labour provided, matching to reward 41–2 labour relations 328–9
 economic theory 347–8
 larger reciprocities 85–7
 Lévi-Strauss, Claude 324–5
 liking reciprocities 18, 19–23
 agent-liking 119–20, 124, 129
 and comparative reciprocity 262–3 and quality of social relations 133 asymmetry with negative counterparts 132 basic phenomena 118
 benefactor-liking (liking the benevolent giver) 120–2, 124, 129
 causal likings 119–21
 conforming 130–1
 contagion of acts, attitudes or sentiments 130–1, 132
 dynamic liking 131–2
 equilibria in liking and giving 131–2 existential gratitude 121–2 giving in order to be liked 129
 gratitude 121–2
 imitation of acts, attitudes or sentiments 130–1, 132
 interdependent liking 131–2
 intrinsic values 189
 liking the giver 124
 mobilizing all liking effects 129–30
 motives for 3–4, 97, 98, 116–33
 negative analogues 23–4
 paternalism 117
 reasons for liking to be given to 118–19
 reciprocal liking 18, 19–20, 21–3, 117–18, 124–9
 reciprocity in giving 117–18
 resentment 132
 responsibility for our sentiments 123–4 simple causal liking 119
 types of 117–18
 value of being the object of attention 122–3 see also benevolent giving
- liking-reciprocity analysis
 interrelations 272–5
 sentiments 263–72
- liking-reciprocity economics analysis 275–82
 effects of liking and being liked 277–80
 gifts and actions 280–1
 group sentiments 282
 preferences 275–7
 reduced forms 281–2

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information384 Index

- liking-reciprocity interrelations
 - 272–5
 - four synthetic relations 272–5
 - synopsis and graph of the relations 275
- liking-reciprocity sentiments
 - 263–72
 - altruistic basis for individualism 265
 - complementarity of mutual liking 264–5
 - giving and liking 263–4
 - giving for eliciting liking 270–1
 - gratitude 266–7, 268–9
 - informational giving 271–2
 - liking to be liked 264–5
 - reciprocal liking 267–70
- liking the giver 124
- liking the liker see reciprocal liking
- logic of balance (comparative, matching) reciprocity 251–61
 - basic concepts 254–6
 - choice 258–61
 - neutrality 256–7
 - sentiments 251–3
 - structures of imbalance 257–8
- logic of conditional altruism 213, 214–18
- logic of egoism 211–12, 216–18
- logic of good social relations 210–16
- logic of liking reciprocity
 - interrelations 272–5
 - sentiments 263–72
- logic of liking-reciprocity
 - economics 275–82
 - effects of liking and being liked 277–80
 - gifts and actions 280–1
 - group sentiments 282
 - preferences 275–7
 - reduced forms 281–2
- logic of process preferences
 - dyadic processes 294–7
 - general concepts of dyadic processes 294–5
 - general preferences 290–4
 - intrinsic process preference 291–2
 - preferences and intrinsic preferences among processes 293–4
 - process-dependent allocative preferences 292–3
 - quantitative case 295–7
 - transfers, process and preferences 290–1
- logic of unconditional altruism 212–13, 215–18
- macrojustice, structure of reciprocity 196–7
- market efficiency
 - effects of altruism 183–4
 - effects of reciprocities 182–4
- market exchange, definition 2
- market failure remedies
 - collective actions 171–9
 - contribution to public goods 171–9
 - reciprocal behaviour 220–1
 - reciprocal solutions 168–9
 - replicating behaviour 220–1
 - sequential exchange 169–71
- market failures 5, 40–1
- and the public sector 182–3
 - correction by reciprocities 1, 7–8, 348–9
- gift giving
 - reciprocitarian motives for correction 16
 - reciprocity as form of 347–8
- marketplace, reciprocal respect for others and their property 15
- markets, relationship with reciprocity 39–41
- matching reciprocity see balance (comparative, matching) reciprocity
- Mauss, Marcel 11, 47, 88, 200
- Mead, G. H. 38, 77–8
- Meidinger, Claude 336
- merit or desert, motive for balance reciprocity 107–8
- modelling of reciprocities 28–9
 - motives 5–7
 - reciprocity analysis 321–3
- modernisation, loss of traditional reciprocities 42–3
- modes of relation, evolution of reciprocity 235–9
- moral credit, motive for giving 64–5
- moral indebtedness 2–3, 18–19

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More informationIndex 385

- from reciprocity imbalance
 - 112–13
 - in the receiver 64–5
 - towards society 38
- moral norms, balance reciprocity
 - 111–12
- moral obligation 2
- moral praise for being ‘good’ 190–1
- morality
 - conditional 206–7
 - preferences for social relations 218
- motives and behaviour, in
 - evolution of reciprocity 233–4
- motives and intention 50–1
- motives for giving 54–73
 - acknowledgement of status 65–6
 - and inequality between parties 63–6
 - anonymous givings 56
 - benevolent giving 56–9
 - compassion 56–7
 - duty 60–1
 - generosity 61–3
 - interested giving 60
 - liking the receiver 56–7
 - moral credit 64–5
 - neutral giving 59–63
 - paternalism 57
 - power 64–5
 - propriety 60–1
 - reasons to give in return 55
 - reciprocitarian motives 55
 - reinforcement of hierarchies 65–6
 - relative status of the parties 63–4
 - self-interest 67–73
 - sequential exchange 67–73
 - symbolic 63–4
 - to elicit the receiver’s liking 57–8
 - to show and prove liking 58–9
 - variety of motives 54–6, 66–7
 - wanting to be or appear generous 61–3
 - wanting to be praised or praiseworthy 61–3
- motives for reciprocity 2–4
 - balance (comparative matching,)
 - reciprocity 2–3, 4, 97–8, 105–15
 - categories 97–100
 - comparison of three polar motives 137–8
 - compensatory reciprocity
 - 97–8
 - conforming 139
 - contagion of sentiments and acts 139
 - continuation reciprocity 97,
 - 98–9, 134–7
 - extended reciprocations 139–41
 - fairness 97–8
 - graph of reciprocity 102–3
 - gratitude 4
 - imitation of sentiments and acts 4, 139
 - in games of reciprocity 6–7
 - liking reciprocities 3–4, 97, 98, 116–33
 - modelling 5–7
 - mutual restraint from harming 136–7
 - process reciprocities 138–9
 - propriety 97–8
 - psychological analysis 5–6
 - punishment 141
 - relational reciprocities 138–9
 - retaliation for deterrence 136–7, 141
 - revenge 99, 141
 - self-interest 97, 98–9
 - sequential exchange 4
 - six basic reciprocations 104
 - social balance 97–8
 - social sentiments 142–3, 150
 - status reciprocities 138–9
 - structure 100–2
 - symbolic reciprocities 138–9
- Nagel, Thomas 148
- national communities, evidence for
 - reciprocities 44–5
- negative analogues of positive reciprocities 23–5
- negative reciprocation
 - asymmetry with liking reciprocities 132
 - asymmetry with positive counterparts 88–93
- neutral giving
 - duty 60–1
 - generosity 61–3
 - interested giving 60
 - motives for 59–63
 - propriety 60–1

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information386 Index

- neutral giving (cont.)
 - wanting to be or appear generous 61–3
 - wanting to be praised or praiseworthy 61–3
- non-frustration solution 300, 302
- nontuism 152, 155, 184
- organizational efficiency/
 - productivity and reciprocity in trust 185–9
 - and relational capital 188–9
 - effects of pro-social behaviour 218–21
 - effects of reciprocity 8, 349
 - importance of reciprocal support 220–1
- organizations
 - evidence for reciprocities 41–2
 - matching labour to reward 41–2
 - network of reciprocities 38–9
 - quality of workplace social relations 222–3
- overall distributive justice see distributive justice
- Pareto, Vilfredo 330–1, 351
- Pascal, Blaise 207
- paternalism 57, 117
- pension systems 46–7
 - chain reciprocities 16, 197–8
 - intergenerational reciprocities 197–8
- person (as agent/actor), definition 50
- personality, influence on actions and relations 164–5
- Piaget, Jean 240
- Polanyi, Karl 156, 324–5
- power, motive for giving 64–5
- power and domination in the giver 112–13
- praise, as motive for giving 61–3
- preference, definition 50–1
- preference structures
 - consequences for social relations 210–16
 - inter-preference comparisons 216–18
- prisoner's dilemma 211–12, 216, 219–20
- pro-social behaviour, effects on economic efficiency 218–21
- process preferences, in games of reciprocity 284 see also logic of process preferences
- process reciprocities, motives for 138–9
- processes, in games of reciprocity 284
- productivity, effects of pro-social behaviour 218–21 see also organizational efficiency/productivity
- propriety
 - motive for giving 60–1
 - motive for reciprocity 97–8
- psychology of reciprocitarian behaviour 221–2
- public aid 45–6
- public goods
 - reciprocal motives for contribution to 171–9
 - response to market failures 171–9
- public health insurance 196, 197, 198
- public sector 350
 - causes of failures 182
 - dealing with market failures 169
 - remedies for failures 182–3
- public services 44–5
- punishment
 - as balance reciprocation 114–15
 - motives for 141
 - see also* retribution (retributive justice)
- putative reciprocity 195–6
 - and the welfare state 198
 - in public aid 45–6
- quantitative case
 - in games of reciprocity 288–9
 - logic of process preferences 295–7
 - solutions 303–9
- Rabin, Matthew 336
- Racine, Jean 123
- reciprocal behaviour, effects on economic efficiency 218–21
- reciprocal fairness 145–6
- reciprocal liking 117–18, 124–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More informationIndex 387

- and gratitude 125–6
- causal liking 125, 127–8
- complementarity of mutual liking 125, 126–8
- informing about liking 126, 128–9
- intensity of 126
- liking the liker (reciprocal liking) 18, 19–20, 21–3
- reactions and interactions 127–8
- reciprocal structures 75–85
 - basic structure 75–6
 - chain reciprocities 79–80
 - continuation reciprocities in extended situations 84
 - extended reciprocities 76–85
 - general reciprocity 77–8, 82–4
 - generalized reciprocity 76–8, 81–2
 - imitation 84–5
 - intergenerational reciprocities 80–1
 - reverse reciprocity 76–7, 78–9, 82
 - vendetta 76–7
- reciprocity
 - and economic systems 222–3
 - and fairness 143–9
 - as a social system 87–8
 - as an economic system 13–14, 16–17, 87–8
 - asymmetrical negative counterparts 88–93
 - compared with other processes 310–11
 - economic transfer mode 151–2
 - effects on market efficiency 182–4
 - evidence for existence 11–13, 32
 - forms of 11–13, 32
 - framework for altruistic systems 7–8
 - in economic life 346–53
 - in economic processes 5
 - in giving 117–18
 - intrinsic values 189–91
 - methods of understanding and explaining 25–32, 224–6
 - nature of 1–2
 - origins and explanations 226–9
 - reflective analysis 25–32
 - relations between facts 74–5
 - roles, values and importance in economics 341–6
 - scope and role 33–4
 - social values 189–91
 - studies 29–30
 - varied nature of facts 74–5
- reciprocity analysis
 - concepts of solution for games of reciprocity 323–4
 - distinction from various motives and sentiments 320–1
 - further studies 318–19
 - general methodology 245–50
 - modelling 321–3
 - remarks on methodology 319–24
- reciprocity concept, use in various disciplines 13–14, 17–18
- reciprocity games see games of reciprocity
- reciprocity in social science 13–14, 324–38
 - anthropology 324–6
 - economics 327–35
 - game theory 336
 - recent experiments 336–8
 - social psychology 326–7
 - sociology 324–6
- reciprocity of respect in markets 39–41
- reciprocity of sentiments 18, 19–20, 21–2
- reciprocity of trust, effects on organizational efficiency 185–9
- reciprocity types
 - balance (matching, comparative) reciprocity 18–19, 22–3
 - continuation reciprocity 18, 19–20, 22–3
 - gift-induced liking 18, 19–20, 22–3
 - liking reciprocity 18, 19–23
 - liking the liker (reciprocal liking) 18, 19–20, 21–3
- redistribution, economic systems 87
- refusal of a gift 54, 113–14, 298
- relational capital
 - effects on organizational productivity 188–9
 - from reciprocity in trust 188–9
- relational reciprocities, motives for 138–9
- relational values in reciprocity 85–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More information388 Index

- replication (replicating behaviour)
 - 213
 - and good social relations 222–3
 - effects on economic efficiency
 - 218–21
- resentment 132
 - and balance reciprocity 115
- respect
 - and generalized reciprocity
 - 4–5
 - effects of being respected 165–7
 - mutual 1
 - reciprocity in markets 39–41
- retaliation, asymmetry with
 - positive counterpart 88–93
- retaliation as deterrence 11, 13
 - and continuation reciprocity
 - 24–5
 - motives for 136–7, 141
- retribution (retributive justice), and
 - balance reciprocity 2–3, 107–8, 143–5
- return-gift function 298–300
- return-gift game 303
- revenge 11, 12, 13, 113, 114–15
 - asymmetry with positive
 - counterpart 88–93
 - motive for reciprocity 99
 - motives for 141
 - negative analogue of balance
 - reciprocity 24–5
- reverse reciprocity 4–5, 12, 37, 144, 146
 - structures 76–7, 78–9, 82
- reward, motive for balance
 - reciprocity 107–8
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 192
- Sahlins, Marshall 233, 324–5
- Saint-Simonians 200
- Sartre, Jean-Paul 284
- self, sense of 3–4, 19–20, 22
- self-interest
 - and continuation reciprocity
 - 22–3
 - and exchanges 39–41
 - and reciprocity 39–41
 - cumulative sequential exchange
 - 173–4
 - motivation in sequential
 - exchange 67–73
 - motive for action 173–4
 - motive for reciprocity 97, 98–9
- selfishness in social relations 205
- sentiments
 - control over 123–4
 - reciprocity of 18, 19–20, 21–2
 - role in reciprocity 25–32
 - understanding 224–6
 - see also* social sentiments
- sequential exchanges 13, 18
 - definition 52–3
 - in economics 332–3
 - motives for 4
 - motives for giving 67–73
 - solution for market failures
 - 169–71
- shame, from reciprocity imbalance
 - 111–12
- Simmel, Georg 325–6, 346, 352
- simple causal liking 119
- small groups, traditional
 - reciprocities 42–3
- Smith, Adam
 - moral sentiments 351
 - pleasure from others' pleasure
 - 330
 - pleasure of communion of
 - sentiments 130
 - reverse reciprocity 4–5, 12, 37, 78–9, 140, 324
 - self-interest in an exchange 39, 216
 - use of reciprocity concept 13, 216
- sociability, reasons for 165–7
- social and cultural evolution of
 - reciprocity 233–41
 - choice and influence 234–5
 - education and development
 - 239–41
 - efficiency and values of modes of
 - relation 235–6
 - motives and behaviour 233–4
 - social selection of modes of
 - relation 236–9
- social balance, motive for
 - reciprocity 97–8
- social existence, sense of 3–4, 19–20, 22
- social groups, steady relations of
 - reciprocity 85–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-88265-1 - Reciprocity: An Economics of Social Relations

Serge-Christophe Kolm

Index

More informationIndex 389

- social improvement, importance of reciprocity 17
- social insurance systems 45–6
- social intercourse in gift-giving 54
- social norms, balance reciprocity 111–12
- social psychology, and reciprocity 13–14, 17–18, 326–7
- social relations
 - and liking reciprocities 133
 - effects of reciprocity 1–2, 8
 - see also* good social relations
- social science and reciprocity 13–14, 324–38
 - anthropology 324–6
 - economics 327–35
 - game theory 336
 - importance of reciprocity concept 17–18
 - recent experiments 336–8
 - social psychology 326–7
 - sociology 324–6
 - use of reciprocity concept 13–14
- social scope of reciprocity 14–18
- social selection of modes of relation 236–9
- social sentiments
 - and reciprocity 142–3, 150
 - and the values of reciprocity 192–3
 - formation of 192–3
 - see also* sentiments
- social structures of reciprocity 2, 4–5
- social thinkers, ‘good society’ concept 199–201
- social value of reciprocity 14–18
- social values of reciprocity 189–91
- societies
 - economic comparison 155–7
 - economic evolution 155–7
- society
 - general respect and sociability 165–7
 - influences on the individual 164–5
 - mutual respect for rights 194–5
 - reciprocity and good social relations 202
 - role of reciprocity in peace and freedom 194–5
 - role of reciprocity in sustaining
 - general rules 194–5
 - value of ‘goodness’ 190–1
 - values of reciprocity 165–7
 - sociology, and reciprocity 13–14, 17–18, 324–6
 - Spinoza, Baruch de 268
 - status acknowledgement, motive for giving 65–6
 - status inequality in giving 63–4
 - status loss, from reciprocity imbalance 112–13
 - status reciprocities, motives for 138–9
 - strict self-interest see self-interest
 - Sugden, Robert 328
 - Swaney, James 328
 - symbolic gifts 54
 - symbolic reciprocities, motives for 138–9
 - symbolism of giving 63–4
 - symmetrical reciprocity
 - equilibrium solution 300, 301–2
 - taking by force, economic transfer mode 151–2
 - talion law 114–15
 - Thurnwald, Richard 324–5, 352
 - traditional culture and reciprocities 42–3
 - transfer, definition 151
 - transfer modes 151–2
 - comparison and evolution of economies 155–7
 - cultural traits 154
 - economic comparison of societies 155–7
 - exchange 151–2
 - freedom of involved agents 152–4
 - gift-giving 151–2, 298–300
 - motivation for 154
 - properties 152–4
 - proportions used by societies 155–7
 - reciprocity 151–2
 - smallest number in elementary relations 152
 - taking by force 151–2
 - typology and summary 154–7

390 Index

- transfer preferences, in games of reciprocity 286
- transfers, in games of reciprocity 285–6
- trust and trustworthiness 12
- trust reciprocity
 - and organizational efficiency 185–9
 - and relational capital 188–9
 - characteristics of the relation 186–8
- universalization principle, categorical imperative 149–50, 175
- values of modes of relation, in evolution of reciprocity 235–6
- values of reciprocity 161–5
 - formation of social sentiments 192–3
 - general respect 165–7
 - sociability 165–7
- vendetta 76–7
- vengefulness 24–5 see also revenge
- voluntary actions in reciprocal systems 7–8
- wages, matching to labour provided 41–2
- Weber, Max 224
- welfare state 1–2, 350–1
 - role of concepts of reciprocity 197–8
- Wicksteed, Philip 152, 155, 184
- workplace reciprocities 15, 38–9