

CONTENTS

List of contributors	page ix
Preface	xi
Introduction	1
1 No doctrine more pernicious? Emergencies and the limits of legality	3
VICTOR V. RAMRAJ
PART ONE Legality and extra-legality	31
2 The compulsion of legality	33
DAVID DYZENHAUS
3 Extra-legality and the ethic of political responsibility	60
OREN GROSS
PART TWO Conceptual and normative theories	95
4 Emergency logic: prudence, morality and the rule of law	97
TERRY NARDIN
5 Indefinite detention: rule by law or rule of law?	118
R. RUEBAN BALASUBRAMANIAM
PART THREE Political and sociological theories	143
6 The constitutional politics of emergency powers: some conceptual issues	145
MARK TUSHNET

viii	CONTENTS
7	A topography of emergency power	156
	NOMI CLAIRE LAZAR
8	Law, terror and social movements: the repression-mobilisation nexus	172
	COLM CAMPBELL
PART FOUR	Prospective constraints on state power	199
9	Emergency strategies for prescriptive legal positivists: anti-terrorist law and legal theory	201
	TOM CAMPBELL
10	The ordinary law of emergencies and democratic derogation from rights	229
	KENT ROACH
11	Presidentialism and emergency government	258
	WILLIAM E. SCHEUERMAN
PART FIVE	Judicial responses to official disobedience	287
12	Necessity, torture, and the rule of law	289
	A.P. SIMESTER
13	Deny everything: intelligence activities and the rule of law in times of crisis	314
	SIMON CHESTERMAN
PART SIX	Post-colonial and international perspectives	335
14	Exceptions, bare life, and colonialism	337
	JOHAN GEERTSEMA
15	The struggle over legality in the midnight hour: governing the international state of emergency	360
	KANISHKA JAYASURIYA
16	Inter arma silent leges? Black hole theories of the laws of war	385
	C.L. LIM
Index		408