

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Insufferable	2
1.2	Gender: Excitable Speech	6
1.3	Sexuality: Beckett’s Queer Art of Failure	9
2	Beckett, Gender, Sexual Politics	15
2.1	The Dazzling Whiteness of an Early Tomfoolery: Sex Work in the Early 1930s	15
2.2	Abortive Texts: Gender and the Politics of Humanism	24
2.3	Unbearable Archives: Beckett Amoureux	32
3	Biting, Swallowing, and All This Stuff	39
3.1	Sullied Images	39
3.2	Bleached Dirt	46
3.3	The Filthy Eye of Flesh	51
4	Conclusion	54
	References	57