

Contents

List of Illustrations	page ix
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction: Poetry, Modernity, Crisis	i
PART I HISTORICAL MATERIALISM AND THE MATERIALS OF HISTORY
1 Thinking with Things: Language, Commodities, and the Social Ontologies of Objects in Louis Zukofsky’s “A”-8 and -9	25
2 New Ways of Seeing: Muriel Rukeyser’s “Book of the Dead” and the Politics of Documentary Photography	45
3 Pieces of the Body Torn out by the Roots: Charles Reznikoff’s 1934 Testimony and the Idiom of American Violence	72
PART II ETHNOGRAPHIC MODERNITY AND ITS DISCONTENTS
4 Vernacular Technologies: The Folksong Collector, the Phonograph, and Blues Authenticity in Sterling A. Brown’s Southern Road	95
5 Interlopers out of a Pale Land: Norman Macleod’s Ethnographic Regionalism and Antimodernism in New Mexico	118

viii	Contents
6	Object Lessons: Ethnographic Surrealism and the Poetics of Detachment in Lorine Niedecker’s New Goose	141
	Coda: The Poet as Consumer	162
	Notes	172
	Works Cited	204
	Index	219