Index

Africa, 356
agency theory, 63–64
agent-survivors
stress outcomes of downsizing, 296–297
Apple, Inc., 68–69
Argentina, 366
Asia
rise of the middle class, 56–57 attitudes
impact of downsizing, 304–306
Australia, 51, 150, 356, 360, 371–372, 376, 377
Austria, 17, 59, 172, 377 behavioral responses to downsizing, 306–309 behavioral theory, 142
Belarus, 231, 356, 394
Belgium, 17, 58, 59, 84, 172, 370–371, 377, 392
benchmarking
and likelihood of downsizing, 92
as driver for downsizing, 89
board characteristics
and likelihood of downsizing, 85
BP, 56
Brazil, 57, 366
buy-and-hold abnormal returns (BHARs), 204, 212 Canada, 17, 18, 51, 58, 59, 84, 356, 364, 375–376 capability
impacts of threat, 168–169 capitalism
effects of transition towards, 53
Caterpillar, Inc., 56
Central Europe, 365–366
CEO characteristics
and downsizing decisions, 64–65, 87
CEO pay
effects of layoffs, 29–31 CEO turnover
and layoffs, 40–41
Charles Schwab and Company, 15
China, 51, 56, 57, 59, 310, 357, 366, 389 training investment by Chinese firms, 369–370
China National Petroleum, 56
Cisco Systems, 15
Citigroup, 56
citizenship behaviors
effects of downsizing, 307–308
Coca-Cola, 56, 57
coercive downsizing, 92 commitment
impact of downsizing, 146–147, 305–306
conscientiousness personality trait, 105 consultants
influence on downsizing, 93
core social status
threat to, 169
Cornell University, 15
corporate social responsibility (CSR), 189 Côte d’Ivoire, 366
counterproductive work behaviors, 145
CPS Displaced Workers Survey, 4, 7, 8–10, 27
cultural differences
approach to downsizing, 373–374
cultural values
and motivation, 106–107
culture
and response to job insecurity, 310
Index

local and global, 404–405
organizational culture, 107–109
Current Population Survey (CPS), 4, 8–10
Czech Republic, 18, 377, 398 data sources
job loss in the United States, 4–7 debt levels in firms
predictor of downsizing, 80 decision criteria during downsizing, 314 demand reduction
and downsizing decisions, 52–53, 77–78
demand–control model, 170, 182, 184, 185 Denmark, 18, 59, 172, 377, 396 deregulation and downsizing, 53, 82–83 Deutsche Post World Net
impacts of downsizing, 103–104
developing countries
rise of the middle class, 56–57
DHL
impacts of downsizing, 103–104
distributive justice, 145, 147, 298, 299 distributive justice theory, 111, 112–113
downscoping, 346–347
downscoping, 342–346
downsizing
and organizational restructuring, 51–52 as a management fashion, 357
as a management strategy, 89–91
as a mechanism of improvement, 88–89
as a process, 359–360
as a strategy, 359–360
assessing strategic need for, 280–281 causes, 357–358
complexity of the process, 134–135 cconcerns about utility of, 89–91 definition of employment downsizing, 52 definitions, 51–52, 77, 390 effects of economic structure, 365–367 effects on productivity, 119–120
effects on survivors, 117–118, 119–120, 230
effects on victims, 116–117, 230 financial consequences, 358 global management strategy, 51 global perspective, 391–395 history of use, 258, 390 human cost, 358–359
implementation practices, 267–268 implementation strategies, 367–368 individual differences in response to, 120–121 institutional forces or pressures, 79 international scope, 389–390 likelihood of failure, 284 organizational consequences, 358 phases of, 360
planning stage, 281–282
post-downsizing phase, 360
preparation stage, 360
prevalence of, 356–357
reasons for downsizing decision, 88–91
reasons given for, 89–91
socio-cultural costs, 358–359 timescale to see results, 284 voluntary turnover among survivors, 118–119 See also employee downsizing, good downsizing, organizational downsizing downsizing activity
and institutionalization of downsizing, 240–243 executive perceptions, 234–240
feedback effects, 243–245 downsizing antecedents, 77–95
board characteristics, 85
CEO characteristics, 87
classification, 78–79
coercive downsizing, 92
demand reduction, 77–78
deregulation of markets, 82–83 diffusion of management fads, 91–94 drive to improve performance, 80–82
economic cycles, 82
external causes, 82–83
financial crises, 82
firm characteristics, 85–88
firm performance decline, 80–81
future research directions, 94–95 global market pressures, 82–83 downsizing antecedents (cont.)

influence of HR management practices, 86–87 influence of industry characteristics, 83–84 influence of ownership structure, 84–85 influence of strategic organization, 86 influence of unionization, 86, 90 internal causes of downsizing, 80–82

introduction of new technology, 81

isomorphic forces, 91–94

lean organization model, 89, 91 mandate from a parent firm, 81

market collapse, 82

mergers and acquisitions, 81–82

mimetic downsizing, 92

moderators of propensity to downsize, 78–79, 83–88

normative isomorphism, 93–94

operational changes, 81

performance improvement goal, 88–89

proactive downsizing, 79, 88–91

profitability decline, 80

reactive downsizing, 78, 80–83

reasons for the decision to downsize, 88–91 restructuring in profitable firms, 77–78 role of institutional forces, 91–94

spread and adoption of downsizing, 91–94

strategic change, 81

top management team characteristics, 87

See also employment downsizing antecedents downsizing consequences

cultural aspects, 401–402

courage positive stakeholder behavior, 398–409 role of values, 402–404

downsizing effectiveness factors, 265–268

frequency of layoffs, 267

implementation practices, 267–268

motive for the downsizing, 265–266

size of the layoff, 266

downsizing implementation practical implications from research, 280–284

downsizing longitudinal study, 268–277 change in market capitalization, 275 dependent variables, 269–270

earnings per share, 273

profit margin effects, 271–272

results, 270–275

return on assets (ROA), 270–271

revenue growth, 274–275

sample, 268–269

downsizing outcomes

disparity among outcomes, 134 economic theory approach, 261–264 factors in success or failure, 258–259 future research on HR perspective, 152–153

HR perspective on impacts, 139–153 impact on employee extra-role behavior, 143–144 impact on employee in-role behavior, 142–143 impact on HR practices, 148–150 impact on human capital, 140–142 impact on managers (executioners), 137–138 impact on organizational citizenship behaviors, 143–144 impact on organizational commitment, 146–147 impact on perceptions of justice, 144–145 impact on social exchange relationships, 145–146 impact on survivors, 138–139 impact on victims, 138

individual level, 137–139 likelihood of adverse outcomes, 277 organization/unit level, 136–137

perceptions of HR practices, 150–151 psychological contract approach, 260–261, 264 resource-based view, 140–142 strategic human resource management perspective, 139–140 theoretical approaches, 259–265 theoretical implications of research, 277–280 violation of the psychological contract, 145–146 downsizing research

changing research focus, 76–77 history of, 76–77
practical implications for implementing downsizing, 280–284
DuPont, 57
Dynabil Industries, 16
early retirement
on a part-time basis, 19
early retirement incentives, 15–16, 58–59
early retirement programs, 18–19
earnings per share, 269, 273
Eastern Europe, 51, 356, 357, 365–366
economic cycles
association with downsizing, 82
economic structure
effects on downsizing, 365–367
economic theory
impacts of downsizing, 261–264
effect–reward imbalance model, 170, 184–185 Egypt, 59
employee compensation and benefits
impacts of downsizing, 374
employee downsizing effects of mimicry isomorphism, 218–219
effects on productivity, 217–218
effects on profitability, 213–216 evidence for performance effects, 202–218 extent of organizational downsizing, 199–200
future research directions, 219–221
inter-organizational imitation, 218–219 justifications for, 200 market responses to, 204–213 overestimation of benefits, 218–219
performance improvement goal, 200–202 policy implications of research, 221–222 potential costs, 202
reasons for use by managers, 218–219 shareholder wealth effects, 204–213 employee extra-role behavior
impact of downsizing, 143–144
employee in-role behavior
impact of downsizing, 142–143
employment
effect of work-sharing, 19–20
employment downsizing
definition, 52
institutional actions to prevent, 54–56 employment downsizing antecedents, 52–70, 95 abandonment of institutionalized practice, 54 and HR practices, 65
CEO characteristics, 64–65
changing business methods, 59–60 cloning response, 53–54 decreasing customer demand, 52–53 drive to maximize shareholder value, 60–61 external (macro-environmental) causes, 52–61 firm governance, 63–64
future research directions, 67–69
globalization and global competition, 56–57 industry deregulation, 53 industry factors, 58
institutional theory, 53–54 internal (organizational) factors, 61–65 investments in technology, 59–60
mergers and acquisitions, 61–63
mimicry among rival firms, 53–54
privatization, 53
proactive downsizing, 53–54
regional differences in labor costs, 57–58
research implications for policy and practice, 69–70 resource-based view of the firm, 61–63 stock market incentives, 60–61 workforce demographics, 58–59
See also downsizing antecedents employment status
threat to, 169
environmental moderators of individual responses, 309–310 ethical considerations for managers, 313–314
Europe, 356
European Employment Strategy, 189
European Union, 377, 397
executive pay
effects of downsizing, 374–376
executive perceptions
downsizing activity, 234–240
feedback effects, 243–245
future research, 247–249
institutionalization of downsizing, 240–243 research implications for practice, 249–250 expectancy theory, 121
external environment
causes of downsizing, 52–61, 82–83 ExxonMobil, 56
financial crises, 91, 228, 258, 377
association with downsizing, 82
likelihood of downsizing, 86
financial performance and approach to downsizing, 367–368 consequences of downsizing, 358 in changing economic structure, 365–367 measurement methods, 361 outcomes of downsizing, 361–365
stock valuation effects of downsizing, 361–363
Finland, 18, 84, 180, 377
firm characteristics
fluence on downsizing decisions, 85–88
firm governance
and downsizing, 63–64
firm performance
long-term effects of layoffs, 35–40
short-term effects of layoffs, 31–35
firm performance decline
predictor of downsizing, 80–81
firms
CEO pay and layoffs, 29–31
CEO turnover and layoffs, 40–41 commitment to employees, 86
spread and adoption of downsizing, 91–94
Five Factor Model, 106
Forbes Magazine, 30
foreign ownership
and likelihood of downsizing, 85
Fortune, 92, 270
France, 18, 172, 375, 395, 396
General Dynamics, 37
General Electric, 54, 89
General Motors, 56
Germany, 18, 172, 375, 377, 398 institutional actions to prevent downsizing, 54–56 global downsizing
encouraging positive stakeholder behavior, 398–409 management strategy, 51 multi-level, multi-factor analysis of consequences, 398–409 global market pressures to downsize, 82–83 global perspective on downsizing, 391–395 country- and culture-specific aspects, 395–398
globalization and global competition, 56–57
goal orientation
and achievement motivation, 105
good downsizing
assumptions and limitations, 349–350 creating and capturing value, 335–340 downscaling, 346–347
downscoping, 342–346
features of, 326–329
horizontal downscoping, 345–346
implications for relationships, 340–347 industry evolution perspective, 188–190 leveraging talent and relationships, 335–340 literature review, 329–335 normative suggestions, 340–347 organizational evolution perspective, 188–190 policy implications, 188–190
restructuring, 340–342
strategies for downsizing, 340–347 suggestions for future research, 348–349 vertical downscoping, 343–345
Greece, 172
Gross Domestic Product (GDP), 361
Harvard Business Review, 93
health and happiness effects of job loss, 28–29 Health and Retirement Survey (HRS), 4, 10, 27 health effects of economic change theoretical background, 168–170 hierarchical linear modeling (HLM), 220
Hofstede’s cultural dimensions model, 106, 107, 397
Hong Kong, 51, 389
horizontal downscoping, 345–346
HR practices and downsizing, 65
impact of downsizing, 148–150
influence on downsizing decisions, 86–87 perceptions during downsizing, 150–151 human capital impact of downsizing, 140–144 impact on firm performance, 139–140 human capital theory, 135, 141 human cost of downsizing, 358–359, 371–378
cultural differences, 373–374
employee compensation and benefits, 374
executive pay, 374–376
non-executive employees, 377–378
severance pay, 377–378
survivor syndrome, 371–373
victims, 371
Hungary, 18
India, 57, 59
individual level outcomes of downsizing, 137–139 individual values and motivation, 106 Indonesia, 91
industry characteristics and likelihood of downsizing, 83–84 industry evolution perspective on downsizing, 188–190 industry factors in downsizing, 58 informational justice, 115, 299, 302, 316 institutional actions to prevent downsizing Germany, 54–56 institutional forces influence on downsizing, 91–94 pressure to downsize, 79
institutional theory downsizing antecedents, 53–54
institutionalization of downsizing, 245–247 and downsizing activity, 240–243 evolution of, 232
feedback effects, 243–245
future research, 247–249
research implications, 249–250 institutionalized practice abandonment of, 54 interactional justice, 318 interactional justice theory, 112, 114–115
internal causes of downsizing, 61–65, 80–82
international nature of downsizing, 389–390 interorganizational imitation role in spread of downsizing, 218–219
interpersonal justice, 115, 299, 301–302, 316 Ireland, 18, 228, 390
isomorphic forces diffusion and adoption of downsizing, 91–94
Israel, 59
Italy, 18, 172
Japan, 18, 51, 59, 80, 85, 92, 356, 357, 362, 373–374, 389, 395, 396, 398

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org job design
autonomy, 110
feedback, 110
influence on motivation, 110–111
skill variety, 110
task identity, 110
task significance, 110
job fit
and motivation, 110–111
job insecurity
health effects, 182–183
job loss
and tenure of employment, 7 data sources for the United States, 4–7
definitions, 7
effects of layoffs on firms, 29–41 effects on happiness and health, 28–29 effects on individual workers, 22–29 effects on survivors of downsizing, 117–118
effects on victims, 116–117
impact on later employment and earnings, 26–28 reason for layoff, 7
reasons given for, 11–14
short-term effects on profitability, 31–35 job loss alternatives, 14–22
early retirement incentives, 15–16
no-layoff policies, 16–17
short-time compensation (STC) programs, 17–22 time off in lieu of overtime, 16 unpaid time off, 16
wage cuts, 15
work sharing, 17–22
working hours reductions, 16 job loss announcements effects of timing, 22–26
job performance
effects of downsizing, 306–307
job satisfaction
and motivation, 40–41
impact of downsizing, 305
job stability in the United States changes over time, 8–10 Jobs, Steve, 68–69
justice concerns during downsizing, 314 organizational impacts on motivation, 111–115 justice perceptions
impact of downsizing, 144–145
importance of, 318
organizational justice, 297–303
justice theories, 135
Kato Spring, 396
keiretsu membership (Japan)
influence on downsizing decisions, 85
Korea, 56, 85, 215, 398 labour costs
regional differences, 57–58
Latin America, 356
layoff agents
impacts on, 230–231
layoff event
definition, 7
layoffs
and CEO turnover, 40–41
effects on CEO pay, 29–31 effects on firms, 29–41 long-term effects on productivity and profitability, 35–40 reasons for, 7
reasons given for, 11–14
leader–member exchange, 107, 109–110
leadership during downsizing, 315
lean organization model, 89, 91
Lincoln Electric, 16
Longitudinal Employer Household Dynamics (LEHD), 7
Luxembourg, 18
Machiavelli, 319
Management by Values (MBV), 409
management fads
diffusion of, 91–94
managerial interventions
after downsizing, 316–318 attention to the state of survivors, 317 caring for employees, 316 decision criteria, 314
during downsizing implementation, 315–316 ethical considerations, 313–314 importance of perceptions of justice, 318 informational justice concerns, 316 justice concerns, 314, 316, 318
leadership during downsizing, 315 moderators of downsizing outcomes, 312–318 planning for downsizing, 314 post-downsizing care of survivors, 318 preparation for downsizing, 312–314 training for downsizing, 314 understanding social exchange, 318 managerial ownership and likelihood of downsizing, 85 managers
impacts on layoff agents, 230–231 managers (executioners)
impact of downsizing, 137–138
manufacturing firms
likelihood of downsizing, 84
market collapse
association with downsizing, 82
market responses to downsizing, 204–213 market share decline
predictor of downsizing, 81
mastery/learning goal orientation, 105
mergers and acquisitions, 61–63, 81–82, 393
Mexico, 57, 366
mimetic downsizing, 92
mimetic isomorphism
role in spread of downsizing, 218–219 mimicry among rival firms, 53–54
motivation
and human needs, 104–106
and individual values, 106 and national cultural values, 106–107 and organizational justice, 111–115 and personality, 104–106 and work attitudes, 40–41
definition, 103
effects of downsizing on victims, 116–117
impacts of downsizing, 103–104 influence of organizational culture, 107–109
informational justice, 115
interpersonal justice, 115
job design, 110–111
job fit, 110–111
job satisfaction, 40–41
leader-member exchange, 109–110
organizational commitment, 40–41 perceived distributive justice, 111, 112–113 perceived interactional justice, 112, 114–115 perceived procedural justice, 111, 113–114 motivation after downsizing
effects on productivity, 119–120
effects on survivors, 117–118
future research directions, 121–123
individual differences, 120–121
voluntary turnover, 118–119
motives for downsizing influence on effectiveness, 265–266 multinational corporations (MNCs), 390–391 approach to global downsizing, 398–409 cross-cultural issues, 401–402 downsizing strategies, 391–395 encouraging positive stakeholder behaviour, 398–409 global and local cultures, 404–405 global and local values, 402–404 role of trust in positive stakeholder behaviour, 406–407 National Longitudinal Survey of Youth (NLSY), 4, 27 needs and motivation, 104–106
negative behaviors
outcome of downsizing, 308–309 neo-institutional theory, 232
Netherlands, 18, 172, 189, 396
New York Times, 78, 92, 204
New Zealand, 18, 51, 139, 214, 356, 364, 372 Newsweek, 92
no-layoff policies, 16–17
non-executive employees
impact of downsizing, 377–378
normative isomorphism
influence on decisions to downsize, 93–94
North America, 356
Norway, 18, 59
occupational health services, 189
operational changes
  and downsizing decisions, 81
organization/unit level
downsizing outcomes, 136–137
organizational citizenship behaviors, 107, 108, 143–144
effects of downsizing, 307–308
organizational commitment, 308
  and motivation, 40–41
impact of downsizing, 146–147
organizational consequences of
downsizing, 358
organizational culture
  influence on motivation, 107–109
Organizational Culture Profile (OCP), 108
organizational downsizing
  causes, 231
consequences, 228–231
evolution of institutionalization, 232
executive perceptions, 232–240
neo-institutional theoretical approach, 232
prevalence of, 228
questioning the rationality of, 232 socio-cognitive theoretical approach, 232 organizational effects of downsizing effects on organizational culture, 368–371
  need for training and development, 369
organizational climate, 368–371
organizational evolution perspective on downsizing, 188–190 organizational factors in downsizing decisions, 61–65
organizational justice
  impacts on motivation, 111–115
  perceptions of, 297–303
organizational restructuring
  and downsizing, 51–52
definition, 51–52
ownership structure
  and likelihood of downsizing, 84–85
Panel Study of Income Dynamics (PSID), 4, 27
perceptions of justice
  impact of downsizing, 144–145
performance
  relationship to human capital, 139–140
performance and downsizing effects on productivity, 217–218
effects on profitability, 213–216
evidence for effects of downsizing, 202–218
managerial overestimation of benefits, 218–219
market returns, 204–213 potential benefits, 201–202
potential costs, 202
shareholder wealth effects, 204–213
performance decline
  predictor of downsizing, 80–81
performance goal orientation, 105 performance improvement driver of downsizing, 80–82
goal of employee downsizing, 200–202
personality and motivation, 104–106 person–organization fit theories, 106 Philippines, 57, 91
planning for downsizing, 281–282, 314
Poland, 18, 56, 57, 398 Portugal, 18, 366
positive stakeholder behavior
  cultural aspects, 401–402, 404–405 factors in MNC downsizing, 398–409 importance of trust, 406–407 importance of values, 402–404 post-downsizing activities, 283–284
post-downsizing phase, 360
preparation for downsizing, 360 private equity firm ownership likelihood of downsizing, 81, 85
privatization
  and downsizing, 53, 83
downsizing as a result of, 365–367 financial impact of downsizing, 365–367
proactive downsizing, 53–54, 79, 88–91
  as a management strategy, 89–91
  as a mechanism of improvement, 88–89
Index

concerns about utility of, 89–91
reasons given for, 89–91
procedural justice, 111, 113–114, 145, 298, 299–301 Procter & Gamble, 54
productivity
effects of downsizing, 119–120
effects of employee downsizing, 217–218
long-term effects of layoffs, 35–40
productivity decline
predictor of downsizing, 80
profit margin, 269, 271–272 profitability
effects of employee downsizing, 213–216
long-term effects of layoffs, 35–40
short-term effects of layoffs, 31–35
profitability decline
predictor of downsizing, 80
psychological contract theory, 135, 328
impacts of downsizing, 145–146, 260–261, 264
reactive downsizing, 78, 80–83
reciprocity
influence on motivation, 109 reduction in force (RIF), 52, 137 reengineering movement, 89
regional differences in labor costs, 57–58
relationships
impact of downsizing strategy, 340–347 resource-based view of the firm, 61–63, 135, 139, 140–142
restructuring
health effects, 184–187
in profitable firms, 77–78
retrenchment, 340–342
return on assets (ROA), 80, 203, 213, 269, 270–271, 361 return on equity (ROE), 80, 203, 213, 361 return on sales (ROS), 203, 213 rewards
threat to, 169
Royal Dutch Shell, 56
Russia, 171, 231, 301, 356, 394
sales decline
predictor of downsizing, 81
SAS Institute, Inc., 65
Saudi Arabia, 59
self-determination theory, 106 self-monitoring personality trait, 105
severance pay, 377–378, 397
shareholder expectations
pressure to downsize, 60–61
shareholder value decline
predictor of downsizing, 80
shareholder wealth
effects of downsizing, 204–213
stock market incentives for downsizing, 60–61
stock valuation effects of downsizing, 361–363
strategic change
and downsizing decisions, 81
strategic human resource management model, 135, 136, 139–140, 142, 149 strategic need for downsizing, 280–281 strategic organization
influence on propensity to downsize, 86
strategies for downsizing, 340–347
stress outcomes of downsizing

citizenship behaviors, 307–308
decision criteria for managers, 314 environmental moderators for individuals, 309–310
ethical considerations for managers, 313–314
impact on levels of trust, 304–305 individual attitudes, 304–306 individual behaviors, 306–309 individual commitment, 305–306 individual outcomes, 297–309 individual perceptions, 297–303 individual-specific moderators, 310–312 job performance effects, 306–307
job satisfaction, 305
justice concerns for managers, 314 managerial interventions as moderators, 312–318
moderators of individual outcomes, 309–312
negative behaviors, 308–309
organizational citizenship behaviors, 307–308
perceptions of organizational justice, 297–303
perceptions of support, 297–303 potential to minimize, 318–319 primary casualties (victims), 294–295 range of groups affected, 293–294 secondary casualties (agent-survivors), 296–297
secondary casualties (survivors), 295–296
target similarity model, 297
voluntary turnover, 307
workplace violence, 308–309
structural equation modeling (SEM), 220
support
perceptions of, 297–303
Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP), 4 survivor disease
and macroeconomic change, 170–173
and microeconomic change, 174–187 effects of restructuring and work stress, 184–187

health effects of job insecurity, 182–183
impacts of downsizing, 174–187
survivor health outcomes implications for practice and policy, 188–190
notion of threat, 168–170 research challenges, 187–188
survivor syndrome, 117–118, 148, 371–373
survivors
effects on motivation, 117–118
effects on productivity, 119–120
impact of downsizing, 138–139, 230
impact on capability, 168–169 individual differences in response, 120–121
managerial attention to problems, 317
post-downsizing care, 318
stress outcomes of downsizing, 295–296
threat to core social status, 169 threat to rewards, 169 voluntary turnover rates, 118–119
Sweden, 59, 171, 172, 357, 371–372, 377, 394
Switzerland, 18, 172
systems perspective, 139, 142
Taiwan, 51, 92, 389, 395
target similarity model, 135, 137, 144, 297, 308
technology introduction
and downsizing decisions, 81
technology investments impact on jobs, 59–60
Thailand, 91
threat
impact on survivors of downsizing, 168–170
impacts on capability, 168–169
timing of job loss announcements, 22–26
top management team
features which influence
downsizing, 87
total quality management, 89
Toyota, 89
trading hours for jobs, 19
Index

training
attitudes of Belgian firms, 370–371 employee needs following downsizing, 369 turndown after downsizing, 118–119 turnover intent effects of downsizing, 307

values
and motivation, 106–107
cultural, 106–107
individual, 106
local and global, 402–404
vertical downscoping, 343–345

victims
impacts of downsizing, 138, 230
stress outcomes of downsizing, 294–295

violence in the workplace
effects of downsizing, 308–309
vividness heuristic, 54
voluntary turnover
effects of downsizing, 307

wage cuts
alternative to job loss, 15

Wall Street Journal, 4, 11, 13, 14, 30, 32, 92, 204
Wal-Mart, 56
Welch, Jack, 54

work attitudes
and motivation, 40–41

work stress
health effects, 184–187

worker–firm relationship, 41–42

workers
effects of job loss, 22–29 effects of timing of job loss announcements, 22–26 employment and earnings impact of job loss, 26–28
workforce demographics, 58–59
working hours reductions alternative to job loss, 16
work-sharing, 17–22
early retirement on a part-time basis, 19
early retirement programs, 18–19 effect on employment, 19–20 effects of the 2008–2009 downturn, 20–22 progressive retirement, 19
trading hours for jobs, 19
types of programs, 18–19

Trumpf, 55

trust
impact of downsizing, 304–305
role in positive stakeholder behavior, 406–407

Turkey, 18
turnover after downsizing, 118–119

UAL, 56
US Postal Service, 56

Ukraine, 231, 336, 394

unionization
influence on downsizing decisions, 90
influence on propensity to downsize, 86

United Kingdom, 51, 59, 172, 356, 362, 396

United States, 398
approach to downsizing, 373–374
changes in job stability over time, 8–10 creation of jobs overseas, 56–57 extent of downsizing research, 356 health impact of economic change, 171 job loss data sources, 4–7 jobs lost to downsizing, 389 labor costs, 57–58
response to job insecurity, 310
severance pay, 377
stock market response to downsizing, 362
survivor syndrome, 371–372
workforce demographics, 59