Index

active euthanasia, definitions, 12 active voluntary euthanasia (AVE), 13 vs. physician-assisted suicide (PAS), 304–05 actual causal pathway, 89
Adams, John Bodkin, 207–08
Adams, M., 1, 173, 245, 247–48
Agatha example from John Keown, 51
lack of information about uniqueness as individual, 70, 71 Agent’s Rights Principle, Mary Anne Warren, 39, 40, 48, 146
AIDS patients, and PAS/voluntary euthanasia, 200 Alexander, Leo, 266–67
anencephalic infants, 329–30 capacity for rationality, 135–36
human dignity, 136
Anti-Cruelty Principle, 1
Mary Anne Warren, 39, 47, 146 aspirations, 119
vs. legal obligations, 168–69
assisted dying
and patient communication, 191–92
definitions, 13
demographics of those choosing, 200, 202, 237
model regime, 327–28
prioritising over euthanasia, 328–29 prohibition and suicide reduction, 187–94 requests for, 149
under preferred ethical approach, 161–62 assisted suicide
definitions, 11, 13, see also physician-assisted suicide (PAS) Australia
attitudes toward euthanasia, 283–84
euthanasia practices survey, 173–74 autonomous decisions and prior interaction with others, 104–05 interference with, 112–15 preconditions for, 107–09 which limit future uses of autonomy, 105–07
autonomy
concept of, 95–109, 114–15
definitions, 97, 98, 109, 148–49
preferred approach, 148–52, 329–30 regulation of, 110–15, see also respect for autonomy of others autonomy by concert, 110–11
Ayers Rock, see Uluru/Ayers Rock Bamiyan Buddhas, 38
basic goods, John Finnis, 51, 54–55
Battin, Margaret P., 1, 185, 200
Beauchamp, Tom L., 97–98, 117, 320
Principles of Biomedical Ethics, 118–19, 121–23, 148–49
Belgium
attitudes toward euthanasia, 283–84
euthanasia practices survey, 174 beneficence, 117, 122–25, 127, 152, 321 Bertha example from John Keown, 52
lack of information about uniqueness as individual, 70–71
Beyleveld, Deryck, 23, 131, 132, 137
Biggs, Hazel, 130
bioethicists, counter-intuitive statements by, 5 bioethics controversial nature of, 3–4 importance of usefulness, 6 biographical life, 63
evaluating, 63

342

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-00538-9 - End-of-Life Decisions in Medical Care: Principles and Policies for Regulating the Dying Process
Stephen W. Smith

Index

More information
Index

conflict between past and present preferences, 65 severely disabled newborns, 65–66 when the individual cannot communicate, 64–65 importance of endings, 64
vs. biological, 59–62
as both having value, 66–67
Bland, Anthony, 18
and model regime, 330–31
being alive but not having a life, 59 burden of proof, 30
capacity for rationality, 135–36 case brought to attention of legal authorities because of Hillsborough disaster, 242 central cases, 32–34
expression of wishes prior to Hillsborough disaster, 65, 150–51
human dignity, 136, 140
Human Rights Principle, Mary Anne Warren, 43–44 lethal injection vs. withdrawal of treatment, 19, 162–63, 330–31 moral relevance, 19, 27, 37–38
by Mary Anne Warren’s Principles, 44 by revised Principles, 47 non-treatment vs. euthanasia, 282 personhood, 27
Precautionary Principle, 46 radical capacities, 28, see also Airedale NHS Trust v Bland [1993] 1 All ER 821 bodily integrity, 193–94
Boscher, Hilly, 287–88
Boyes, Lillian, 258–59
Browne-Wilkinson, Lord, 19, 162–63
Brownsword, Roger, 23, 131, 132, 137
Butler Sloss J., 192–93 burden of proof and moral status assignment of, 28–29, 45 evidential requirements, 29–30 ‘camel’s nose’ arguments. See slippery slope arguments capacity, see radical capacity
central cases
as basis for moral status, 32–37
choice of, 33–34
use of, 31–32
charity, giving to, 75, 78, 91, 124–25, see also beneficence children assisted dying, the Netherlands, 288 under two years of age,
see also anencephalic infants;
incompetent patients
dignity, 137
moral status, 27, 30, 38
Childress, James F., 97–98, 117, 320
Principles of Biomedical Ethics, 118–19, 121–23, 148–49
Chris (unnamed example from John Keown), 55–56
lack of information about uniqueness as individual, 71 cloning, and human dignity, 138–39, 140 Compassion in Dying, 249 competent patients
autonomy, 149
harm and benefit, 152–53
human dignity, 156–57
illustrative specific practices, 160–61
moral status, 147
value of life, 154, see also formerly competent patients conscience clauses, 225–26 consequence-particulars, 89 consequences, and moral responsibility, 89–90 consequence-universals, 89–90, 158–59 counseling, for health-care practitioners, 214 ‘cowboy phenomenon’, 217, 221–22 cremation, to cover evidence, 219, 241 Dan example case, 56 death as harm or benefit, 125–26, 127, see also methods of death deathbed conversions, 64 deception, and principled autonomy, 99 dementia, conflict between past and present expressed preferences, 65 denial
Den Hartogh, G., 247 depression and PAS/voluntary euthanasia, 200 depression and psychological screening as part of regulations, 298–99 and suicide, 186
Developing Agents Principle, 48, 146 developing moral agents
autonomy, 149–50
harm and benefit, 153
Devlin, Lord, 237–38, 257–58
Diane, prescribed barbiturates to end life, 79–80
Index

344
dignity
as aspirational, 129–30
as constraint, 132, 321
as empowerment, 131
death with, 131
requests for, 150
definitional issues, 129
in end-of-life decision-making, 128 need for clarity on, 128–29 philosophical justifications for use as an ethical principle, 133, see also human dignity Gewirthian agency, 137
humans created in the image of God, 133–34
radical capacity for rationality, 134–37
disabled persons
concern over euthanasia legislation, 277
definitions, 195–96
Oregon Death with Dignity Act
(DWDA) reports, 199
‘Do not Kill me’ cards, the Netherlands, 199, 211
doctor–patient confidentiality, and investigation of illegal conduct, 240–41 doctors
autonomy, 151–52
distinguishing rational and irrational suicide, 186–87 increased availability leading to reduced visits, 188 lying and misreporting, 245–50 moral responsibility, 157–60
moral status, 147
serial killers, 207–09
surveys of attitudes,
Oregon/the Netherlands, 272–73
UK, 278
see also health-care practitioners doctrine of double effect, 208, 257
The Netherlands, 281–82
doing vs. allowing, see killing, vs. letting die, act/omission distinction double effect, doctrine of, 208, 257
The Netherlands, 281–82
drowning child example, 77, 90 dwarf-tossing, human dignity, 140–41 Dworkin, Gerald, 96, 97, 110–11, 112, 320
Dworkin, Ronald, 1, 59–60, 61, 67
Ecological Principle, Mary Anne Warren, 39, 40, 48, 146
Einstein (genetically modified golden retriever), 34–37, 47
Emanuel, Ezekiel, 275–76 emergency situations, and conscience clauses, 226 end-of-life decisions as continuum of choices, 316–17
evidentiary sources, 171
Angels of Death study, 1, 178–80, 191, 210, 214–15, 216, 220, 222, 223, 224–25, 236, 241–42
The Netherlands Regional Review Committees reports, 177–78
The Netherlands surveys, 171–75
Oregon Death with Dignity Act
(DWDA) reports, 176–77, 190,
199, 244, 248–52, 287, 294, 299, 303, 323
literature, 2
messiness of subject, 1, 314, 326 need to be done by a health-care practitioner, 315–16, 331–32 need to rely on available evidence, 317 not isolated decisions, 2–3 others’ views, 314–15 plethora of work on, 1
regulation to address problems, 324–25 relevance of ethics, 167–68 standard of evidence, 317–18 Envelope scenario, 124–25
ethical approach to end-of-life decisions, 145
autonomy, 148–52, 329–30
dignity, 155–57
harm and benefit, 152–53
illustrative specific practices, 160–63
moral responsibility, 157–60
moral status, 145–48
terminal sedation, 161–62
value of life, 154–55
withdrawing or withholding life-sustaining treatment, 162–63, 319, 326–27
ethics differences from law, 168–70 individual nature of, 169–70 need for practicality, 317 relevance for end-of-life decisions, 167–68, see also bioethics
EURELD study, 175, 284, 285 euthanasia underground effects of secrecy, 218–20 medical anti-professionalism, 221–23 range of drugs used, 220, 306 trial and error nature of, 220–21 euthanasia, definitions, 11, 12
Index

family and friends, see societal impact of decisions, on immediate groups farming, and sentence, 24–25
Federal Control and Evaluation Committee (FCEC), 310, see also Regional Review Committees (RRC) Feinberg, Joel, 118, 119–20, 126, 152, 320–21 final practices, see methods of death Finnis, John, 54–55, 62
first-order desires, 96–97 Fischer, John, 87–88, 319 flying spaghetti monster, 6 formerly competent patients
autonomy, 150–51
harm and benefit, 153
Frankfurt-style examples, 86–87 friendships
as basic good, 62, see also societal impact of decisions, on immediate groups
Gardner, J., 31
Gewirth, Alan, 23
Goff, Lord, 75
Good Medical Practice Guide (General Medical Council), 116
Gormally, Luke, 192
Griffiths, J. J., 173, 245, 247–48 guidance control, 87–88, 157 hangovers, moral responsibility for, 79 harm
and non-maleficence, 121–22
as interference with interests, 118–21, 320–21 death and, 125–26, 127 dictionary definition, 117–18
‘do no harm’, 116–17
Harris, John, 136, 197
on newborns with disabilities, 72
Hart, H. L. A., 5, 238–39
health-care practitioners as only maker of end-of-life decisions, 315–16, 331–32 attitude changes resulting from assisted dying practices, 271–85
autonomy, 151–52
behaviour changes resulting from assisted dying practices, 200–01 being absent from scene of death, 218–19 distinguishing rational and irrational suicide, 186–87 distrust of, 209–11
mistakes by, 207
moral responsibility, 159–60
moral status, 147
not just doctors, 205–06
‘playing God’, 205, 206–11, 322–23
Liz’s anecdote, 209–10, 222–23 pressure to take part, 216–18 professional codes of conduct, 223–26 psychological effects of participation, 213–16, 323 secrecy measures, 219–20, see also doctors Hendin, Herbert, 1, 189
Hippocratic Corpus, 116–17
Hippocratic Oath, 116
Hoffman, Lord, 67
holidays, scheduling patient’s death around, 222 hospitals, moral stance of, 242
human dignity, 132–33, 142, 143–44
and autonomy, 140–41
and capacity for membership of social community of being human, 138–40 as a socially constructed value, 143 preferred approach, 155–57
speciesism, 142
Human Rights Principle, Mary Anne Warren, 39, 42–45
Huxtable, R., 1, 257, 282 illegal end-of-life decisions investigation of, 240
prevention of, 323–24
prosecution of, 253–59
inanimate objects, see Bamiyan Buddhas; Uluru/Ayers Rock, moral status incompetent patients
autonomy, 151
harm and benefit, 153
human dignity, 156
model regime, 329–30
moral status, 147–48
value of life, 155
individual autonomy, 99 insurance claims, and reporting systems, 253 intention complexity of, 79–81
differences between law and ethics, 168 problems with, 81–83
interests, 118–20
Interspecific Principle
Mary Anne Warren, 40–41, 44–45
revised, 48, 146
investigation of illegal decisions, difficulties of, 240
346  Index

involuntary euthanasia, definitions, 13
It's a Wonderful Life (film), 61, 69–70
James, Daniel, 256
Kant, Immanuel, 134
Kass, Leon R., 211, 223
Keown, John, 50–55, 60, 67, 280, 296 slippery slope argument, 267–69, 285 Kevorkian, Jack, 235 killing
vs. letting die, 19–20, 74 act/omission distinction, 75–78 and moral responsibility, 85, 91–93 as relevant in some cases, 84 as semantic distinction, 74–75 intention/foresight distinction, 78–84
Kinnell, Herbert, 208
Lasagna, Louis, 116
law differences from ethics, 168–70 usually comparing with existing regulatory system, 170 legal implementation of ethical frameworks, 8–9 evaluation of, 9–10, 170–71
evidentiary sources, 171–80
liberal democracy, and the limits of government, 237–39 life
as basis for moral status, 23–24
biological vs. biographical, 59–62, see also biographical life; value of life
as both having value, 66–67
living wills
The Netherlands, 288, see also prior expression of wishes Liz's anecdote of doctor playing God, 209–10, 222–23 managed care systems, 326 McLean, Sheila, 278
medicine, purposes of, 56 Mental Capacity Act (2005), 292, 293 mercy, 100
methods of death
model regime, 329–30
Oregon Death with Dignity Act (DWDA) reports, 303
regulatory mechanisms, 303–06
Mill, J. S., 106, 111–13 minority groups, definitions, 195 mirror self-recognition (MSR), 26
model regime
and Bland, Anthony, 330–31
assisted dying, 327–28
prioritising over euthanasia, 328–29 caveats for specific jurisdictions, 326
methods of death, 329–30
palliative care which shortens life, 326 requirement for health-care practitioner involvement, 331–32
terminal sedation, 326–27
moral community importance of sentiments of, 20–21 view of new approach to valuing life, 66–67
moral responsibility
and consequences, 89–90
and control, 85–89
and killing vs. letting die, 85, 91–93
and omissions, 89, 90
identifying the relevant event, 91 preferred approach, see ethical approach to end-of-life decisions, moral responsibility
moral status, 17
a concept vs. the concept, 17 as necessary to permit action, 21 based on a central case, 32–37 based on ability to feel pain, 24–25 based on being alive, 23–24 based on personhood, 25–28 based on radical capacity, 28 based on species membership, 6–7, 22, 30–31
burden of proof
assignment of, 28–29, 45
evidentiary requirements, 29 importance of sentiments of ordinary members of the moral community, 20–21 importance of substantial consensus, 19–20 preferred approach, 318–19 single criterion per category, 37–38, see also multi-criterial moral status Morrell, Edith Alice, 258–59 multi–criterial moral status based on relationships, 40–41 benefits, 38–39
Mary Anne Warren principles, 39–41 revised principles, 47–48, 146–47 multi-peaked preferences voting scenario, 265 Mustill, Lord, 140
Index

Nazi genocide, and earlier euthanasia policy, 266 necessary/sufficient conditions, 84–85, 268 Nesset, Arnfinn, 208
The Netherlands
concern over specific regulations, 286–87
‘Do not Kill me’ cards, 199, 211 evaluation procedures, 308, 309 interpretation of euthanasia data, 10, 171, 280–82 national surveys, 171–75, 279–80
patient eligibility, 294
psychological screening, 299 public attitudes toward euthanasia, 274–75 Regional Review Committees reports, 177–78 reporting system, 243–44
reporting rate, 245–48
second opinions, 301, see also Oregon/the Netherlands comparison of doctors’ attitudes
New York State Task Force on Life and the Law, 198
New Zealand, euthanasia practices survey, 174
newborns with disabilities
John Harris on, 72
new approach to valuing life, 72
Peter Singer on, 72, see also severely disabled newborns Nietzschean superman, 36 and Einstein problem, 36–37 non-existence, when better than existence, 64 non-maleficence, 117, 127, 152, 321 and harm, 121–22
non-voluntary euthanasia, definitions, 13
Norcross, Alastair, 81–82
O’Neill, Onoro, 99–102, 320
Oregon Death with Dignity Act (DWDA) reports, 176–77
as model, 323
concern over specific regulations, 287
disabled persons, 199
evidence for Posner’s hypothesis, 190
methods of death, 303
patient eligibility, 294
psychological screening, 299
reporting system, 244
usefulness, 248–52
vulnerable groups, 199
Oregon/the Netherlands comparison of doctors’ attitudes, 272–73 Otlowski, M., 1, 172, 258 pain medication, non-lethality, 258 palliative care definitions, 11 which shortens life, 326 passive euthanasia, definitions, 11, 12–13 passive non-voluntary euthanasia, 13 paternalism, 111–14
patient communication and assisted dying, 191–92 involve suicidal ideations, 192–94 patient protection, 203–04 patients
establishing competence, 293–94, see also competent patients;
formerly competent patients;
incompetent patients
Paula scheduling patient’s death to fit holiday plans, 222 persistent vegetative state (PVS), Anthony Bland, 18 personhood and moral status, 25–28, see also Agent’s Rights Principle, Mary Anne Warren as basis for moral status, 25–28 mind–body dualism, 60 physician-assisted suicide (PAS) and depression, 200
definitions, 13
vs. active voluntary euthanasia (AVE), 304–05
'playing God'
health-care practitioners, 205, 206–11
physician-assisted suicide (PAS), 205–06 and depression, 200
and suicidal thoughts, 209–10 precautionary principles, 45–46, 48, 146–47 Price, David, 53, 71
principled autonomy, 99
Principles of Biomedical Ethics
(Beauchamp and Childress), 118–19, 121–23, 148–49 Principles of Medical Ethics (American Medical Association), 116 prior expression of wishes Anthony Bland, 65, 150–51
autonomy, 150–51
dementia, 65
model regime, 329–30
value of life, 154–55, see also living wills
Index

professional codes of conduct, health-care practitioners, 223–26 prosecution of illegal end-of-life decisions, 253–59 Purdy, Debbie, 190, 254–55
Quality of Life position innocents, 58–59
intention, 58
John Keown, 50–57
life, 59
statements of, 50
Quill, Timothy
prescribing barbiturates to end life, 79–81, 253, 256–57 Rachels, James, 81–82
‘Active and Passive Euthanasia’, 77–78
Smith v. Jones hypothetical, 77, 90 radical capacity
as basis for moral status, 28
definitions, 28, 134–35
rational suicide
differentiation of, 186–87 possibility of, 184–86
rationality, as philosophical justification of dignity, 134–37 Ravizza, Mark, 87–88, 319 Regional Review Committees (RRC), 243–44, 246, 250, 308, 309, 310, see also Federal Control and Evaluation Committee (FCEC) regulative control, 87
regulatory mechanisms effectiveness, 290–91
evaluation
post-event, 308–09
powers of investigating authority, 309–10 pre-event, 307–08
reporting, 310–11, see also reporting systems specially trained investigators, 309 standards required, 317–18 procedural protections, 324 procedures leading to death, 298, 306–07 exhaustion of other options, 299–301 method of causing death, 303–06 psychological screening, 298–99
second opinions, 301–02 waiting periods, 302–03 requests for end-of-life, 298 by other than the patient, 297–98 information provision, 292–93 made in writing, 295–96 patient competence, 293–94
patient eligibility, 294–95
validity, 291–92
witnesses, 296–97
sanctions, 311–12
types of, 180–81, see also reporting systems
Rehnquist C. J., 182
Remmelink Report, 171–73, 279–80
Remmelink, Jan, 172
reporting systems, 242–43
evaluation of, 245
insurance claims, 253
The Netherlands, 243–44
reporting rate, 245–48
Oregon Death with Dignity Act, 244
usefulness, 248–52
perceived adverse effects for doctors, 252–53 requirements, 310–11
respect for autonomy of others, 94–95, 102–03 Respect for Life Principle, Mary Anne Warren, 39, 47, 146 right to death, 325–26
Rights of the Terminally Ill Act 1995 [Northern Territory of Australia], 299 Sanctity of Life position as protecting too little, 67–68
John Keown, 50–57
statements of, 50–51, 58
SCEN doctors, 250, 301, 306, 309
Schiavo, Terri, 229–30
Schweitzer, Albert, 23
Seale, Clive, 174–75
second opinions
model regime, 328–29
requirement for, 301–02
second-order desires, 97
Select Committee Report on the Assisted Dying for the Terminally Ill Bill (2004), 276–79 self-awareness, mirror self-recognition (MSR), 26 Seneca, on suicide, 184–85 sentience
as basis for moral status, 24–25, see also Anti-Cruelty Principle serial killers, doctors, 207–09 setbacks, 120–21
severely disabled newborns evaluating biographical life, 65–66
Index

Sherman (domestic pet dog), 18–19, 19–20, 24, 26, 28, 29, 31, 32–33, 34, 36, 38, 41, 43, 46–47, 71 self-awareness, 26
shifting goalposts, 190–91
Shipman, Harold, 171, 207, 208
Singer, Peter, 136 argument that all individuals ought to be treated the same, 33 barred from speaking in Germany, 3 criticised for positions not actually held, 4
on newborns with disabilities, 72
one test per category, 37 treatment of own mother with dementia, 6, 27–28 website, 4
slippery slope arguments about end-of-life decisions as becoming more accepted, 285–86
concern over specific regulations, 286–87 leading to changes in attitudes, 271–85 Nazi death camps, 266
voluntary leading to non- and involuntary, 267–69, 285 confusions about, 261
definitions, 261–62
empirical argument, 269–88 problems of finding evidence, 269–70 empirical vs. logical, 263 evidence from the Netherlands, 10, 171 logical argument, 265–69 mechanisms, 264–65
overview, 264
slipperiness, 262–63
stronger considerations in legal frameworks than ethical, 8 social community membership, 43–44 societal impact of decisions need to consider, 228–30 on immediate groups, 230–36, 323
definitions, 230–31
detrimental effects, 232–35 difficulties introduced by illegality, 235–36 opportunity to say good-bye, 235 positive involvement, 231–32 where regulation might be useful, 232 on regional, national or international groups, 236–39 Socrates, suicide, 184
sorites paradoxes, 264

species membership, as basis for moral status, 6–7, 22, 30–31
speciesism, 22–23
and central cases, 33–34 sufficient/necessary conditions, 84–85, 268 suicide
and prohibition of assisted dying, 187–94, see also assisted suicide; rational suicide decriminalization, 183 prevention, 194–95, 321–22 state interest in, 182–84, 203, 321–22 Suicide Act (1961), 13, 183
terminal sedation, 326–27
definitions, 11
‘thin end of the wedge’ arguments, see slippery slope arguments Tooley, Michael, 31
Transitivity of Respect Principle, Mary Anne Warren, 40–42, 48, 146 ‘true’ life, 64
UK
attitudes toward euthanasia, 276–79
DPP prosecution guidelines, 254–56
euthanasia practices survey, 174–75
opinion poll data, 237
ultimate goals, 119
ultimate interests, 121
ultimately comfortable, 220
Uluru/Ayers Rock
moral status, 24, 38, 41–42
Unger, Peter, 123–25
uniqueness of the individual, lack of protection by Sanctity of Life position, 68–71 universal health-care systems, 326 universal rules, and principled autonomy, 99–102 USA
implications of managed care system, 326
opinion poll data, 237
public attitudes toward euthanasia, 275–76, see also Oregon Death with Dignity Act (DWDA) reports value of life, 7–8, 49, 72–73
involvement of family members, 55–57 new approach to, 62–66 benefits of, 66–72
value of life (cont.)
preferred approach, see ethical approach to end-of-life decisions, value of life sanctity versus quality, 50–54 van der Maas, P. J., 172, 173
Van Tol, D. G., 247
Vintage Sedan scenario, 123–24
Vitalism, 50–54
Volohk, Eugene, 265
voluntary euthanasia definitions, 13 leading to non- and involuntary, 267–69, 285 vomiting, 220–21
vulnerable groups adverse impacts from end-of-life decisions, 196–98 available evidence, 198–201
definitions, 195–96
protection for, 202–04, 322 argument in favour of assisted dying practices, 201–02

Re W (a minor) (medical treatment) [1992] 4 All ER 627, 193, 292 Wackenheim, Manuel, 141 waiting periods, after end-of-life request, 302–03 Warren, Mary Anne, 19, 39–41 welfare interests, 120
Weyers, H., 1, 173, 245, 247–48 withdrawal of treatment definitions, 12, see also ethical approach to end-of-life decisions, withdrawing or withholding life-sustaining treatment withholding of treatment definitions, 12, see also ethical approach to end-of-life decisions, withdrawing or withholding life-sustaining treatment witnesses, for end-of-life requests, 296–97 Wolfenden Report, 237–38
wronging another, 119
Wyatt, Charlotte, 71