Contents

Contributors
page vii

Acknowledgments
xi

1. Introduction
Sebastian von Einsiedel, David M. Malone, and Suman Pradhan

THE CONTEXT

2. The Making of the Maoist Insurgency
Deepak Thapa

3. State Power and the Security Sector: Ideologies and Interests
Rhoderick Chalmers

4. The Legacy of Nepal’s Failed Development
Devendra Raj Panday

4.1. A Donor’s Perspective on Aid and Conflict
Jörg Frieden

4.2. Unleashing Nepal’s Economic Potential: A Business Perspective
Sujeet Shakya

5. Ethnic Politics and the Building of an Inclusive State
Mahendra Lawoti

CRITICAL TRANSITION AND THE ROLE OF OUTSIDERS

6. Nepal’s Masala Peacemaking
Teresa Whitfield

Contents

   Frederick Rawski and Mandira Sharma
   175

   Ian Martin
   201

9. The 2008 Constituent Assembly Election: Social Inclusion for Peace
   Catinca Slavu
   232
   9.1. Elections: A Nepali Perspective
       Bhojraj Pokharel
       255

    Aditya Adhikari
    265

Regional Dynamics

11. A Yam between Two Boulders: Nepal’s Foreign Policy Caught between India and China
    Rajeev Ranjan Chatrvedy and David M. Malone
    287

12. Bringing the Maoists down from the Hills: India’s Role
    S. D. Muni
    313

13. A Nepali Perspective on International Involvement in Nepal
    Prashant Jha
    332

Conclusions

14. Conclusions
    Sebastian von Einsiedel, David M. Malone, and Suman Pradhan
    361

Index
383