INTRODUCTIONS TO NIETZSCHE

Friedrich Nietzsche (1844–1900) is one of the most important philosophers of the last two hundred years, whose writings, both published and unpublished, have had a formative influence on virtually all aspects of modern culture. This volume offers introductory essays on all of Nietzsche’s completed works and also his unpublished notebooks. The essays address such topics as his criticism of morality and Christianity, his doctrines of the will to power and the eternal recurrence, his perspectivism, his theories of tragedy and nihilism, and his thoughts on ancient and modern culture. Written by internationally recognized scholars, they provide the interested reader with an up-to-date and authoritative overview of the thought of this fascinating figure.

ROBERT B. PIPPIN is the Evelyn Stefansson Nef Distinguished Service Professor of Philosophy, and the Chair of the John U. Nef Committee on Social Thought, at the University of Chicago. His publications include The Persistence of Subjectivity (Cambridge, 2005), Hegel’s Practical Philosophy (Cambridge, 2008), Nietzsche, Psychology and First Philosophy (2010), Hollywood Westerns and American Myth (2010), and Hegel on Self-Consciousness: Desire and Death in Hegel’s Phenomenology of Spirit (2010).

Note to the reader

The essays in this volume originally appeared as introductions to the editions of Nietzsche’s works which are published in the series Cambridge Texts in the History of Philosophy. They were brought together in this single volume in order to give the interested reader a rich and wide-ranging overview of Nietzsche’s philosophical thought. The Press is grateful to the authors of these essays for permission to reproduce them. The select bibliography, which is conveniently organized by theme, has been created especially for the volume and aims to offer a useful resource to accompany the essays.
Chronology of Nietzsche’s life and works

1844  Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche born on 15 October in Röcken, in the Prussian province of Saxony

1849  His father dies (at the age of 36)

1858–64  Attends the classics-oriented boarding-school Schulpforta; plays the piano and composes

1864  Enters Bonn University to study classical languages and literatures

1869  Associate professor of classical philology (before even completing his Ph.D.) at the Swiss university at Basel

1870  Full professor at Basel; enlists as a medical orderly in the Franco-Prussian War, contracting serious illnesses

1872  First book The Birth of Tragedy appears (and is met with scholarly derision) – his only major classical studies publication

1873–4  Publishes the first three Untimely Meditations, including the essays On the Uses and Disadvantages of History for Life and Schopenhauer as Educator

1876  Writes a fourth Meditation in homage to Wagner, but his enthusiasm for Wagner cools

1878  The first volume of Human, All Too Human (638 aphorisms) appears; Wagner sends him Parsifal, and their estrangement deepens

1879  Resigns (with pension) from his position at Basel, incapacitated by health problems; begins spending his summers in the Swiss Engadine region, and his winters in northern Italy, living in boarding-houses

1879–80  Writes two sequels to Human, All Too Human, subsequently published as the two parts of its second volume (another 758 aphorisms)
Chronology of Nietzsche’s life and works

1881
Publishes Daybreak (575 aphorisms); alternative periods of depression and exhilaration; first summer in Sils Maria, where the idea of “eternal recurrence” comes to him

1882
The year of his intense but short-lived relationship with Lou Salomé, which ends badly; publishes the initial four-part version of The Gay Science (342 aphorisms and reflections)

1883
The first two parts of Thus Spoke Zarathustra are written and published; estrangement from family and friends; depression; resolves against living in Germany; Wagner dies

1884
Completes and publishes the third part of Zarathustra; breaks with his sister Elizabeth, unable to endure her anti-Semitic, pro-“Teutonic” fiance Bernard Förster (she marries him the next year, to Nietzsche’s disgust and distress, accompanying him to Paraguay where he sought to found a Teutonic colony)

1885
The fourth part of Zarathustra is written, but is only privately printed and circulated; condition worsens

1886
Beyond Good and Evil (296 aphorisms and reflections in nine parts, plus a poem “Aftersong”) is published; new editions of most pre-Zarathustra works are prepared and supplied with prefaces

1886–7
An expanded second edition of The Gay Science is prepared and published, with a new preface and fifth part consisting of 41 additional reflections, and an appendix of poetry, “Songs of Prince Vogelfrei”

1887
On the Genealogy of Morals appears, consisting of a preface and three “essays” (of 17, 25, and 28 numbered sections, respectively); completes orchestral score for Hymnus an das Leben; begins working on magnus opus, to be called The Will to Power

1888
The Case of Wagner is published; and Twilight of the Idols, The Antichrist, Nietzsche contra Wagner, Dionysian Dithyrambs (a collection of poems), and Ecce Homo are all written; The Will to Power project is dropped, in favour of a projected four-part Revaluation of All Values; condition deteriorates

1889
Collapses in early January in Turin, at the age of 44 (never recovers, living his final eleven years in invalid insanity in the care of his mother and sister); Twilight of the Idols is published in January

1892
First public edition of the fourth part of Zarathustra appears

Chronology of Nietzsche’s life and works

1893 Sister returns from Paraguay, and – under the name Elizabeth Förster-Nietzsche – assists their mother in the management of her brother’s affairs
1895 The Antichrist and Nietzsche Contra Wagner are published
1897 Mother dies, leaving complete control of his care – and of his literary estate – to Elizabeth, who exploits his growing fame and fosters the assimilation of his thought to right-extremist political purposes during the next four decades
1900 Nietzsche dies, on 25 August, in Weimar
1901 Sister publishes an arrangement of selections from his notebooks of 1883–8 under the title The Will to Power, and in his name
1908 Ecce Homo is finally published
1910–11 First edition of Nietzsche’s collected works is published under the supervision of Elizabeth – including a greatly expanded edition of The Will to Power
