

Index

- Abdrashitov, Vadim, Magnetic Storms 67–8, 70
 adulthood
 initiation into 96–7, 101–2, 103
 rights and responsibilities of 102
 Aivazovskii, Ivan 44–5
 alcohol
 and religious festivals 323
 and young people 108
 alphabets
 Kalmyk Clear Script 202–3, 207
 in post-Soviet Central Asia 158–9, 262, 265, 274
 Anderson, Benedict 18, 150
 see also imagined communities
 antilogy 39–41, 48–9
 anti-Semitism 28
 architecture
 of Elista 193–7
 Islamic 212–31
 of Moscow 171–5; as represented in literature 177–82, 185
 post-Soviet church restoration 308–13
 Soviet treatment of churches 300–7
 see also urban environment
 Armenia, and Soviet historiography 28
 art, visual
 depicting Stalinist construction 173
 and post-Soviet controversy 319
 pre-revolutionary, and ideology 44–5
 Russification of non-Russian artists in USSR 207
 in Soviet ethnographic exhibitions 74, 77–81, 85
 atheism, Soviet campaigns for 300
 and destruction of religious buildings 300–7 effect of in Belarus 344–5, 346; effect of in Kalmykia 196–7
 and festivals 92–4
 role of museums in 84, 85
 and vernacular religious practices 321–33, 336
see also Russian Orthodox Church, and Soviet rule Balabanov, Aleksei 47–8
 Cargo 200, 68–9, 70
 Baltic States, and Soviet rituals 95
 Baranov, Anatolii 243–4
 Bashkortostan 227
 Bekmambetov, Timur
 Night Watch 69
 Day Watch 69
 Belarus
 and attitudes towards Islam 353
 and attitudes towards Poland 351, 352, 355, 359–60
 and attitudes towards West 353, 355
 demographics 343–4
 and independence 342–3
 and language choice 344, 351, 352, 359–60
 and patriotism 342
 relationship to Russian Federation 341, 343, 346, 350–1, 353, 355
 re-Sovietization of 346, 354, 355–6; and Russo-Soviet rule 341–3
 see also Belarusian Orthodox Church; Greek Catholicism; Protestantism; Roman Catholicism Belarusian Orthodox Church 343, 349, 352
 and links with Belarusian state 346, 348–9, 355
 Berkeley school 214, 216
 black market 279
 representation in films 67
 Bourdieu, Pierre 237–8
 Boym, Svetlana 15, 70
 Brandenberger, David 25, 27
 Brezhnev era
 and construction work in Kalmykia 194
 and food shortages 279
 post-Soviet nostalgia for 58, 69
 representation in post-Soviet films 60, 67, 69
 and toleration of nationalist sentiment 30, 31
 Brudny, Yitzhak 29–30

- Buddhism
 and architecture 193, 194–7, 207
 in Buryatia and Tuva 196
 in Kalmykia 193, 195–7, 200, 206
 Bukhara 162
- Catholicism see Greek Catholicism; Roman Catholicism
- censorship
 under Khrushchev 136
 during perestroika 238
 and Russian Orthodox Church 314; Central Asia see individual countries
- Chechnya and Chechens 217, 219, 222, 230
 and political rhetoric 244
 and post-Soviet film-makers 45–7
- chernukha* 58, 240
- childhood
 and connection to native land 115, 122
 nostalgia for 56, 68–9
 representation in films 55, 69
see also adulthood, initiation into; children; education; family; fatherhood; motherhood
- children
 and curfews 300–8
 and ‘Gagarin games’ 142–3
 patriotic essays by 123, 172 ‘red christenings’ of 93
 and religion 327–8
see also adulthood, initiation into; childhood; education; family; fatherhood; motherhood; naming of children
- China, cultural influence of 194
- Chudinov, Anatolii 245
- Chukhrai, Pavel, A Driver for Vera 61–3, 66–7
- Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints 229
- churches see Belarusian Orthodox Church; Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints; Greek Catholicism; Protestantism; Roman Catholicism; Russian Orthodox Church
- cinema see film
- citizenship
 bestowal of on young people 91–2, 96–103
 and collective identity 101, 104
 obligations conferred by 47, 97, 100–2, 114, 121, 122, 123
 passport as symbol of 91–2, 96–7, 98–103
- closed shops 286
- corruption, political
 after collapse of USSR 32
 representation in post-Soviet films 68–70
- crime
 criminal argot 241, 242–3, 245–6, 248, 249
 representation in post-Soviet films 60–1, 68–9
see also terror, Stalinist; violence
- deficit see shortage economy
- democracy
 corruption of 33
 and language 238–9, 241, 242–4, 246
 and media 240–1
 and post-Soviet Kalmykia 208
 and Russian Federation 32, 33, 217
see also freedom of speech
- de-Stalinization 30, 137–8
- diasporas
 Kazakh 163
 Kyrgyz 163
 Tajik 163–4
 Turkmen 164
 Uzbek 164
see also ethnic minorities; migration
- dissidence, lack of in Soviet Central Asia 151, 154
- Dobrovol’skii, Dmitrii 243–4
- Dunaevskii, I. 174
- Dushanbe 156, 162
- education
 and Central Asian nation-building 260, 261–3
 and parental choice in Central Asia 255–7, 258, 266–72
 purpose of, according to Soviet ideology 113–14
 and Russification of ethnic minorities in USSR 207, 258 Soviet administration of 257–8
see also textbooks
- Elista
 architecture 192, 193–7
 early history 191–2; in post-Soviet era 193, 194–7, 199–209
 post-Stalin restoration 192–3, 198–9
 public monuments 197–204
 toponyms 205
see also Kalmykia
- emotion
 and cathartic value of swearing 241–2, 245
 and Gagarin cult 135
 and imperial rule 21–2
 and nationalism 19–21, 203
 and patriotic education 118–19, 120
 and post-Soviet identities 33, 120
 and Soviet rule 23, 25, 118
- Erofeev, Venedikt 177
- Erofeev, Viktor 241, 244
- ethnic minorities
 in Central Asia 158, 163, 164–6, 254–73

- ethnic minorities (cont.)
 and post-Soviet film-makers 48
 in Russian Federation 120, 121–2, 208–9, 216–17
see also Chechnya and Chechens; Kalmykia;
 migration
- ethnogenesis 5
- ethnography
 and Gagarin cult 143
 and Soviet policy on religion 321
see also State Museum of the Ethnography of the Peoples of the USSR
- ethno-nationalism 3–4, 5, 22, 24, 26, 28, 31–2
- Eurasian Economic Community 161
- Eurasianism 32, 217
- family
 as institution 123
 as metaphor for national ideologies 46–7, 139–40
 as modelled by Gagarin cult 137–42, 143–4
 in post-Soviet film 46–7, 62–3, 65, 69
see also childhood; children; fatherhood;
 marriage; motherhood; rituals, Soviet rites of passage
- fatherhood
 and Gagarin cult 139, 141–2
 representation in films 55
see also childhood; children; family; marriage;
 motherhood
- Feuchtwanger, Lion 173
- film
 adaptations of classic novels 56–7
 and artificial approach to past 63–6, 70
chernukha genre 58
 concern with everyday life 58, 60, 61
 and criticism of Soviet past 58–71
 and emotion 61, 63
 and imperialist discourse 45–7, 49, 57–8, 70
 and nostalgia 56–7, 58, 60, 69, 70–1
 during perestroika 57, 58
 post-Soviet attitudes to Soviet films 58
 and Russian national identity formation 57
 science fiction 131–2
 and violence 60, 67, 68–9, 70–1
- First World War 22
- folk culture
 celebration of in post-Soviet Kalmykia 203
 importance in late Soviet period 142–3
 and influence on Soviet rituals 94–5
 and obscenity 239, 243–4
 and Soviet ethnographic museums 79, 80
see also rituals; Russian Orthodoxy, vernacular
 practices of; tradition
- food shortages see shortage economy
- freedom of speech 238–9, 246–8
- Friendship of the Peoples 23, 26
- Gagarin, Aleksei (father of Yuri) 141
- Gagarin, Boris (brother of Yuri) 141
- Gagarin, Yuri
 candid demeanour of 134, 135–6
 charisma 134
 conspiracy theories about 129
 and family life 137–42, 143–4
 as focus of hope for Soviet society 130–3
 media coverage of 133, 134–7
 as object of quasi-religious devotion 133
 post-Soviet views of 144–6
 as quintessential Russian 132, 133–4, 137–9, 140, 142–3
 reactions to cult of 137
- Gagarina, Anna Timofeevna (mother of Yuri) 140, 144
- Gagarina, Elena (daughter of Yuri) 146
- Gagarina, Valentina (wife of Yuri) 140–1
- Gellner, Ernest 42
- Genghis Khan 156, 209
- German, Aleksei Iu., Khrustalev, My Car! 61
- glasnost 238–9, 247
 and film-making 57
- Gorbachev, Mikhail
 and collapse of USSR 24, 238
 and invective 244
 and political reforms 32
- Gorodovikov, B. B. 205
- Gothic aesthetic, in post-Soviet literature 182–7
- Goux, Jean-Joseph 237
- Gradirovskii, Sergei 218, 221–3
- Great Patriotic War
 and Kalmyks 192, 198–9, 204
 in late Soviet culture 135, 139
 memorials to 198–9, 212, 228
 museum responses to 79
 patriotic discourse during 26–8
 and post-Soviet literature 184
 and Russian Orthodox Church 304
 significance for Gagarin cult 143
- Greek Catholicism, in Belarus 351, 358
- Gudkov, Lev 69, 295
- Hastings, Adrian 37–8
- health
 as metaphor in Soviet propaganda 336
 and vernacular religion 324–6, 336
see also physical culture
- heroes
 film portrayals of national heroes 27, 57, 60
 Kalmyk commemoration of 197–205, 209
 in post-Soviet Kazakh culture 156

- in post-Soviet Tajik culture 156
 - in post-Soviet Uzbek culture 153–4, 155
 - Yuri Gagarin as ultimate Soviet hero 129–46
- hygiene see health
- Il'f and Petrov, in Kalmyk culture 201
- Ilyumzhinov, Kirsan (first president of Kalmykia)
 - 195, 200, 201, 208
- Ilyumzhinov, Kirsan (grandfather of first president of Kalmykia) 202, 205
- imagined communities 6, 17, 113
- indigenization policy, Soviet 24, 150
- intelligentsia
 - in Central Asia 154, 158–9
 - and collapse of USSR 31, 32, 33
 - and defence of non-Russian cultures 31
 - as distinct social group 286, 353
 - and freedom of speech 246
 - and obscene language 244–5, 248
 - of post-Soviet Kalmykia 209
 - and religion 299, 304, 307, 312
 - and Soviet culture 23, 30
- interfaith relations
 - in Belarus 343–56
 - between Christians and Muslims 212–31, 353
 - in Russian Federation 212–31, 313–14
- internationalism
 - in Soviet ideology 23, 116
 - late Stalinist rejection of 28
- Internet, and obscene language 248
- Iran, and Tajik nationalism 162
- Islam
 - attempts to Russify 214, 217–19
 - Belarusian attitudes towards 353
 - in Central Asia 159–61, 162
 - hostility towards 212, 213–14, 353
 - radical interpretations of 160, 216–17
 - in Russian Federation 212–31
 - television broadcasts of services 218–19
 - and Vladimir Putin 216, 219, 231
- Ivan the Terrible 173–4
- Jewish Autonomous Region 4
- jokes
 - about post-Soviet life 34
 - about shortages 284, 292
- Kalmykia
 - and Buddhism 193, 195–7, 200, 206
 - emigration from 193
 - and Genghis Khan 209
 - and language 202–3, 206
 - and Lenin 197–8, 200
 - and Orientalism 207–8
 - political life of 194, 196, 200–1, 208–9
 - and post-Stalin return from exile 192–3, 198–9
 - and relationship with Russia 203–4, 208–9
 - and Soviet culture 207–8
 - and wartime deportations 192, 202
 - and westernization 206, 207
 - see also* Elista; Ilyumzhinov, Kirsan (first president of Kalmykia); Ilyumzhinov, Kirsan (grandfather of first president of Kalmykia)
- Karimov, Islam 161, 164, 165–6
- Kazakhstan
 - and aspirations to regional leadership 161
 - attitudes to Kazakh diaspora 163
 - attitudes to Russo-Soviet rule 152
 - celebration of national culture 156
 - language policy of 158
 - policy towards ethnic minorities 164, 166
 - religion in 160
 - see also* virgin lands campaign
- KGB
 - investigation of religious activities 329
 - representation in post-Soviet film 62–3
- Khlebnikov, Boris, Koktebel' 55
- Khrushchev era
 - and condemnation of Stalin 30, 136, 137–8
 - and emergence of nationalist thought 30, 31
 - and impact of first space flight 129–44
 - and meta-ethnic Soviet nationality 4
 - and religion 305–6, 321, 323–32, 336
 - representation of in post-Soviet film 60, 61–7
 - and restoration of Kalmyk autonomy 192–3, 198–9
- Khuzin, Mukhammedgali 220, 221–3
- Kirienco, Sergei 217
- Kobelianskii, Aleksandr 172
- Korolev, Sergei 133, 141–2
- Kyrgyz people, as minority in other Central Asian states 163, 258–60, 265–6
- Kyrgyzstan 319
 - and attitudes to Russo-Soviet rule 152
 - and heritage 155–6
 - language policy and ethnic minorities 158, 258–61, 263–6, 268–72
 - religion in 160
- language
 - and Belarusian identities 344, 351, 352, 359–60
 - Central Asian policies on 157–61, 254–73
 - in Kalmykia 202–3, 206
 - see also* obscenity; Russian language
- Lenin, V. I.
 - funeral of 94
 - and Kalmykia 197–8, 200
 - in late Soviet patriotic education 118–19

- Lenin, V. I. (cont.) mausoleum 171, 200
 monuments to 197–8, 200
 Leningrad
 inhabitants' participation in public rituals 107
 privileged existence in 288
 and Russian Orthodox Church 300–8, 312
 youth curfew 107
 see also St Petersburg
 Levitan, Yuri 135
 Likhachev, Dmitrii 242
 literature
 and anti-religious propaganda for children 327–8
 film adaptations of classic novels 56–7
 and Gothic aesthetic 182–7
 literary reality 177–8, 186
 Moscow; in post-Soviet literature 176–87; in Soviet literature 171–5
 and nostalgia for Soviet past 56–7
 and obscene language 244–5
 and post-Stalin Russian nationalism 30, 38
 Pushkin and Kalmyks 199
 Lukashenko, Aleksandr, views on religion 345, 346
 Luk'ianenko, Sergei
 and attitude to Soviet past 184–5
 and monsters 182–3, 184–5
 and Moscow 176–7, 178–82, 185, 187
 Night Watch 178, 181, 184–5
 Luzhkov, Iurii 175

 Maiakovskii, Vladimir, 'Verses on the Soviet Passport' 100
 marriage
 between partners of different ethnicities 206
 as modelled by Gagarin family 140–1
 registration of 92, 97, 299
 representation in films 62–3, 65, 69
 Martin, Terry 26
 Marxism, and national identity 3, 31
 Masov, Rakhim 153
 media
 in Belarus; and religion 341, 348–9, 355;
 restrictions on 348–9
 and Islam 218–19
 and nationalism 41
 and perestroika 238–9, 245–6
 in Russian Federation 34, 240–1, 245–6
 and Soviet atheism campaign 326
 Soviet control of 133, 136, 238–9
 and vulgarity 238–9, 240–1, 245–9
 see also film; Internet; newspapers; radio;
 television
 migration
 impact on rural areas 334

 of Kalmyks 193, 207
 restrictions on 91
 between Russia and Central Asia 159, 254, 262, 273
 Soviet and post-Soviet attitudes towards 119, 122
 see also diasporas; ethnic minorities Mikhalkov, Nikita 39, 48–9
 military
 and claims about Russian national identity 47
 management of Soviet space programme 133 representation of; in educational materials and propaganda 121, 122; in post-Soviet films 46–7, 48, 61–3; in Soviet films 27
 and Yuri Gagarin 139
 see also citizenship, obligations conferred by;
 Great Patriotic War
 Miller, Alexei 40
 Mokienko, Valerii 248
 Mongols
 in Kalmyk culture 209
 in Kazakh historical mythology 156
 monuments
 architectural 303, 306, 308, 312–13
 commemorating Great Patriotic War 198–9, 212, 228
 in Elista 197–204
 in Moscow 171, 175, 212
 in post-Soviet Central Asia 154–7
 as represented in post-Soviet literature 177–8
 Mormons see Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints
 Morozov, Pavlik, contrast with Gagarin cult 139, 143–4
 Moscow
 as heart of homeland 117, 121, 171–3, 212, 218
 places of worship in 212, 218, 300
 post-Soviet development of 175
 in post-Soviet fiction 176–87
 privileged existence in 288
 representation in post-Soviet films 65–6
 in Soviet literature 171–5
 under Stalin 171–5
 motherhood
 as modelled through Gagarin cult 140, 144
 representation in films 62–3, 65
 see also childhood; children; family; fatherhood;
 marriage
 motherland
 allegorical representations 114, 203
 citizens' obligations to 25, 27, 97, 98, 100–2, 114, 121, 122, 123
 as focus of common Soviet patriotism 23, 25, 28, 33, 117–19
 Kalmyk attitudes to concept of 203, 209
 with Moscow at centre 117, 121, 171–3, 212, 218

- in post-Soviet Russia 34, 114, 119–22
 - and symbolism of Gagarin cult 139–40
- Murmansk, religious activity in 227–8
- museums
 - and architectural monuments 312–13
 - in honour of Yuri Gagarin 137, 140, 141, 142–3
 - ideological functions of 73–4
 - see also* State Museum of the Ethnography of the Peoples of the USSR
- music
 - in post-Soviet films 63–6
 - see also* national anthems
- naming of children
 - in post-Soviet Kalmykia 193, 206
 - ‘red christening’ ceremonies 93
 - special Soviet names 65, 93
- national anthems
 - in Russian Federation 34
 - Soviet (1944) 29
- National Bolshevism 25
- nationality, Soviet policy on 3–5, 23–9, 31, 82, 150, 257
 - and internal passports 91, 104
 - legacy in post-Soviet Central Asia 264–5, 267–8
- natural environment
 - as focus of patriotism 115, 117, 120, 142, 145, 161
 - as feature of Gagarin cult 142, 145
 - see also* urban environment; village prose
- new Soviet man, creation of
 - and campaign for atheism 300
 - as seen in post-Soviet literature 185
 - and Soviet rituals 94
- newspapers
 - after fall of USSR 240
 - and Gagarin cult 134, 136, 140
 - and glasnost 238
 - readers’ letters 95, 134, 140
 - role in Soviet atheism campaigns 330–1
 - see also* media
- Niyazov, Saparmurat 153, 157
- nostalgia
 - challenging of 60, 63, 69–71, 346
 - and post-Soviet cinema 56–7, 58, 60, 69, 70–1
 - and religion 346
 - for Soviet period 8, 23, 34, 55–7, 58, 60, 145, 205
 - types of 70
 - and village prose 30
- obscenity
 - cathartic functions of 241–2, 245
 - and intellectuals 244–5, 248
 - in late and post-Soviet media 238–9, 240–1, 245–9
- lexicons of 242–4
 - use by politicians 244
 - see also* emotion, and cathartic value of swearing
- Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), Russian membership of 218, 219
- Parfenov, Leonid 56, 291
- passports, internal
 - appearance of 96–102
 - and discrimination 91
 - distribution and entitlement to 91, 96, 98
 - functions of 91, 96, 103–4
 - and nationality 4, 26, 29, 91, 104
 - retention in Russian Federation 103–4
 - rituals of presentation 91–2, 96–102
- patriotism
 - in Belarus 342, 351
 - and Great Patriotic War 26–8, 79
 - and Stalinist Russocentrism 25, 26–9, 173
 - tension between ethnicity and Soviet patriotism 29
- Peach, Ceri 215–16
- Pelevin, Viktor
 - Chapaev and Emptiness* 176, 179–80, 181, 186
 - and cultural analysis 176, 184, 186
 - Empire ‘V’* 181, 182, 186
 - The Life of Insects* 186
 - and monsters 182–3, 185–7
 - and Moscow 176–7, 178–82, 185, 186, 187
 - The Sacred Book of the Werewolf* 186, 189–90
 - A Werewolf’s Problems in the Central Belt* 185
 - Wizard Ignat and People* 185
 - The Zombification of Soviet Man* 185
- perestroika
 - effect on Russian language 238–9, 242, 247
 - and the media 238–9
 - representation of in post-Soviet films 67–9
 - and status of non-Russian languages 260
- Perm 219–25, 230
- physical culture 94
- pilgrimage
 - in post-Soviet Kalmykia 193
 - in post-Soviet Russia 334–6
 - secular, in connection with Gagarin cult 143
 - Soviet measures against 324–33
- places of worship
 - Buddhist, in post-Soviet Kalmykia 193–7, 207
 - Muslim, in Russian Federation 212–31
 - post-Soviet Orthodox church restoration 308–13
 - Soviet treatment of Orthodox churches 300–7
 - see also* pilgrimage
- Plutser-Sarno, Aleksei 245

- Poland, Belarusian attitudes towards 351, 352, 355, 359–60
- Popogrebskii, Aleksei, Koktebel' 55
- Primakov, Yevgeny 217
- Protestantism, in Belarus 345–6, 349, 350, 351, 353
- public holidays
- commemorating first space flight 135–7
 - Memorial Day (Turkmenistan) 153
 - Physical Culture Day (USSR) 94
 - private preparations for 282
 - and scheduling of other rituals 99
 - Soviet creation of 92–4, 95
 - in Soviet Kalmykia 201
 - see also* religious festivals
- Purges 25
- representation in films 57
- Pushkin, Aleksandr, in Kalmyk culture 199
- Putin, Vladimir
- characteristics of period of presidency 34, 56, 59, 145
 - and invective 244
 - and Islam 216, 219, 231
 - and Russian Orthodoxy 313
- radio
- broadcast of Gagarin space flight 134–5
 - significance in Soviet life 135
- Rakhmon, Emomali 152, 153, 156, 159
- 'Ready for Labour and Defence'
- programme 94
- religious festivals
- Islamic 218–19
 - Orthodox revival of in post-Soviet Russia 335
 - under Soviet rule 92–3, 94, 323, 328–30
- rituals
- creation of; in early Soviet period 92–4, 336; in late Soviet period 94–6, 98, 336
 - performed by Church 299, 307–8
 - post-Soviet survival of Soviet rituals 103–4
 - Solemn Presentation of the Soviet Passport 91–2, 96–102
 - Soviet rites of passage 92–4, 95, 96–104
 - see also* public holidays; religious festivals; tradition
- Roman Catholicism, in Belarus 343, 345, 349, 350, 351, 352, 354
- see also* Greek Catholicism, in Belarus
- Russian Federation
- internal passports 103–4
 - and Islam 212–31
 - non-Russian population of 32, 104, 120, 121–2, 208–9, 216–17; see also Chechnya and Chechens; Kalmykia
 - and relations with former Soviet states 86; Belarus 343, 346
 - and Russian-language education in Central Asia 261
 - and Russian Orthodox Church 32, 183, 212, 308–14, 334–6
 - territorial stability of 216–17
- Russian language
- in Belarus 344, 350, 352, 353
 - criminal argot 241, 242–3, 245–6, 248, 249
 - to describe new post-Soviet reality 240–1
 - in Kalmykia 206
 - and the media 240–1, 245–6
 - in post-Soviet Central Asia 157, 254–64, 266, 268–72
 - and post-Soviet Russian nationalism 45–7
 - Soviet emphasis on proper usage 239–40, 242
 - as Soviet lingua franca 114, 118
 - and vernacular religion 239
 - Western influences on 240–1
 - see also* obscenity
- Russian Orthodox Church
- and 1917 revolution 299–300
 - and Islam 212, 218
 - in pre-revolutionary society 299
 - in Russian Federation 32, 183, 212, 308–14, 334, 335
 - and Soviet rule 300–8, 322–4, 325, 326, 328
 - Russian Orthodoxy, vernacular practices of 239, 321–36
 - see also* Belarusian Orthodox Church; Russian Orthodox Church
- Russocentrism
- as propagated by Soviet museums 74, 85
 - in Russian Federation 116, 119–22
 - under Stalin 24–9, 116, 132
- St Petersburg, religious buildings and activity in 308–13
- see also* Leningrad
- Saratov, religious activity in 229
- schools see education; textbooks
- science see science fiction; space exploration
- science fiction 131–2
- Scriabin, Alexander 130
- Second World War see Great Patriotic War
- Sergiev Posad 212
- Seton-Watson, Hugh 40
- Shaburova, Ol'ga 66
- Shakhnazarov, Karen, Vanished Empire 67
- shortage economy
- as characteristic of late socialism 279
 - efforts to circumvent 283, 289
 - jokes about 283–4

- post-Soviet memories of 279–86, 288–9
 regional variations in 288
 and social identity 284–6, 288–9
 and Soviet social order 279, 285–8
- Slavic culture
 and identity in Belarus 343, 346, 350–1, 352, 355
 and post-war rhetoric 79–80
 and religion 346, 350–1, 355
 as represented in Soviet museums 74, 79–81
- Smith, Anthony 37, 41–2, 43
 Smith, Graham 150, 354
 ‘socialist nations’ 3
- Sokurov, Aleksandr, Aleksandra 46–7
- space exploration
 conspiracy theories about 129
 in early Soviet films 131–2
 as herald of communism 132
 media coverage of first flight 134–7
 secrecy surrounding 133
 and utopianism 130–3
see also Gagarin Yuri
- sport see physical culture
- Stalin era
 and development of Moscow 171–5
 in late and post-Soviet film 57, 60–1
 and nationalities policy 4, 24–9
 and patriotic education 117
 in post-Soviet literature 182–7
 and religion 300–5, 321, 322–3
 and repression of Kalmyks 192, 198–9, 202
 and rituals 94
 and technology 132
see also de-Stalinization; terror, Stalinist
- State Museum of the Ethnography of the Peoples of the USSR ‘aestheticization’ of 80–1
 bias towards Slavic nationalities 74, 79–81
 after collapse of USSR 86
 and colonial perspective on USSR 83–5
 and promotion of unified Soviet nationality 82–5
 and Soviet Russocentrism 74, 85
 state interference in 73–7
 visitor responses to 77, 79, 80, 81
stiliagi, representation in films 63–6
 swearing see obscenity
- Tajikistan
 attitudes to Russo-Soviet rule 152–3
 attitudes to Tajik diaspora 163–4
 celebration of national culture 156
 educational system 258–61, 263–8
 language policy and non-Tajik population 159, 258–61, 263–8
 and religion 160–1
 territorial ambition 162–3
- Tajiks, as minority in other Central Asian states 163–4, 258–60, 265–6, 269–72
- Tamerlane 155
- Tatarstan 227
- television
 broadcasting of religious events in Russian Federation 218–19
 and nostalgia for Soviet past 56, 58, 291
 role in Gagarin cult 135–6
see also media
- terror, Stalinist 173–4
 and post-Soviet literature 182–5
 and religion 322–3
- textbooks
 and non-Russians in Russian Federation 121–2
 in post-Soviet Central Asia 261–6
 in Russian Empire 116, 122–3
 in Russian Federation 116, 119–22, 123
 and Stalinist propaganda 132
 in USSR 116–19, 122, 123
- Thaw see Khrushchev era
- Tlostanova, Madina 39, 41
- Todorovskii, Valerii, Hipsters 59
- Tolstoy, Alexei 172–4
- toponyms, alterations to 114, 151–2, 204–6
 film discussion of 55
 in honour of Yuri Gagarin 137
- tourism
 and Gagarin cult 143, 145
 and religious pilgrimage 334–6
- tradition
 in Central Asian nation-building 154–7
 in post-Soviet Kalmykia 195–6
 revival of in post-Stalin era 307–8
 as sign of backwardness 76, 84–5
see also public holidays; religious festivals; rituals; Russian Orthodoxy, vernacular practices of
- Turkmenbashi see Niyazov, Saparmurat
- Turkmenistan
 attitudes to Russo-Soviet rule 153
 language policy 158–9
 nationalist literature 157
 policy towards Turkmen diaspora 164
 religion in 160
- Uniate Church see Greek Catholicism
- urban environment
 of Elista 192–207
 in post-Soviet literature 176–87
 in Soviet propaganda 171–5
 utopianism

370 utopianism (cont.)

 and heroism 133
 and Moscow 173–4
 and patriotic education 113–14
 and technology 130–2
 Uyghur 163
 Uzbekistan
 alleged aggression against Tajiks 152–3
 and aspirations to regional leadership 161
 attitudes to Russo-Soviet rule 153–4
 attitudes to Uzbek diaspora 164
 cultural wealth 154–5
 educational system 258–60, 261–3, 272
 language policy 158–9, 260, 261–3, 272
 and non-Uzbek population 163–4, 165–6, 263, 272
 and religion 160
 and Tajik territorial ambition 162–3
 Uzbeks, as minority in other Central Asian states
 164, 258–60, 264, 265, 266–9, 270–1
 vampires, in post-Soviet literature 181–7 Veresaev, V. V. 93
 village prose 30, 38
 violence
 against religious believers, in Russian Federation 212, 227
 in post-Soviet film 67–9, 70
see also crime; terror, Stalinist
 virgin lands campaign 132
 Vladivostok, religious activity in 228–9

Index

war see First World War; Great Patriotic War;
 military
 West
 Belarusian attitudes towards 353, 355
 influence in Kalmykia 206
 influence on Russian-language culture 239, 240–1, 246–7
 and post-Soviet film-makers 47–9
 and post-Soviet media 240
 Stalinist hostility to 28
 Wierzbicka, Anna 246
 women
 role of according to Soviet propaganda 140–1
see also family; marriage; motherhood
 xenophobia
 and post-Soviet film-makers 38
 under Stalin 28
 Yeltsin, Boris 34, 244
 and freedom of speech 246–7
 Yevtushenko, Yevgenii 23
 young people
 and age-restricted activities 96
 and physical culture 94
 and sectarian violence 212, 227
see also adulthood, initiation into; childhood;
 children; youth culture
 youth culture, film representations of 63–6
 Zaya Pandita 202–3
 Zhel'vis, Vladimir 241–2, 245, 246
 Zhirinovskii, Vladimir 243