Table of Contents

Foreword by Professor Ron McCallum
Acknowledgments
List of Abbreviations

Introduction and Methodology
Introduction
A. Scope and Purpose of the Book
B. Content and Structure of the Book
C. Research Methodology
Conclusion

1. Comparative International Trends in Disability Law and Policy
Introduction
A. The Contribution of the CRPD – Understanding the Application of Human Rights in the Context of Disability Law and Policy
1. Conceptualising Disability – the Scope of the Convention
B. The Potential of the CRPD – Innovative Mechanisms for Implementation, Data Collection, and Monitoring at International and Domestic Levels
Contents

1. Data and Statistics – Measuring Successful Implementation of the CRPD 26
2. Monitoring the CRPD – International and National Processes 34
C. Management Literature Perspectives on Success Factors in Implementing and Monitoring National Strategies 41
D. Learning from International Success Factors – the Potential for Ireland’s National Disability Strategy 52
Conclusion 54

2. Regional Perspectives on Disability Strategies and Action Plans 56
   Introduction 56
   A. Council of Europe Disability Action Plan 2006–2015 58
      1. Implementation and Monitoring Processes in the Council of Europe 59
      1. Implementation and Monitoring Mechanisms for the European Union Disability Action Plans and European Disability Strategy 70
      2. The Role of the European Community as a State Party of the CRPD 74
      3. Links to Implementation and Monitoring Mechanisms in Other Areas of EU Policy 77
   C. Regional Decades on Disability – Developments, Achievements, and Examples of Best Practice 79
Contents

1. Implementation and Monitoring Processes in the Asian and Pacific Decade 82
   a. Implementation and Monitoring Mechanisms for the African Decade 89
3. The Arab Decade for Persons with Disability 2004–2013 91
   a. Implementation and Monitoring Mechanisms for the Arab Decade 92
   a. Implementation and Monitoring Processes in the American Decade 94
D. Regional Human Rights Frameworks and their Contribution to the Development of National Disability Strategies 97
Conclusion 99

   Introduction 101
   A. National Disability Strategies as a Product of Societal and Political Transformation – Focus on South Africa and Bolivia 103
      1. South Africa 103
      2. Bolivia 111
   B. Strategies Based on International and Regional Commitments to Promote the Rights of People with Disabilities 119
      1. Slovenia 119
      2. Philippines 124
Contents

C. Challenges and Opportunities in Developing Disability Strategies in Federal Jurisdictions 130
   1. Australia 130
      b. National Disability Strategy – Cooperation between Federal and State Governments 134
      c. Victorian State Disability Plan 143
      d. Disability Act 2006 (Vic) 147
   2. Canada 150
      a. British Columbian Disability Strategy 154

D. National Disability Strategies as Stand-Alone Policy Documents 161
   1. New Zealand 161
   2. Sweden 168
   3. Portugal 173

E. National Disability Strategies as a Combination of Legislative Provisions, Policy Elements, and Funding Programmes 182
   1. England and Wales 182
   2. Ireland 191

Conclusion 195

   Introduction 197
   A. Leadership in Delivering Change – Government and Civil Society Responsibility 201
      1. Public Bodies as Learning Organisations – Learning from Experience of Leadership in the Community Sector in Canada (British Columbia) 206
   B. Consultation and Participation of People with Disabilities 209
Contents

1. New Zealand – Grassroots Participation in the Disabled Persons’ Assembly 211
2. England and Wales: Equality 2025 – Direct Representation in an Advisory Body 214
4. Sweden 218
5. South Africa 219
6. Victoria (Australia) 221
7. Prioritising Key Areas for Action in Consultation with People with Disabilities 224

C. Integrating National Disability Strategies with Domestic Implementation of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities 227
   1. Australia 229
   2. Other examples 233

D. Positive Legal Obligations and Funding Programmes 234
   1. England and Wales 236
   2. Bolivia 238
   3. Victoria (Australia) 240
   4. Ireland 242
   5. Other examples of legal obligations 245

E. Transparency and Accountability 246
   1. Sweden 247
   2. Bolivia – Implementation at the Local Government Level 252
   3. Other Examples 253

F. Mainstreaming Disability Equality – Citizenship and the Lifecycle Approach 255
   1. Disability Proofing 256
Contents

2. Interaction between National Disability Strategies and Other Government Policies 258

3. Public Sector Reform and Disability Awareness 259

G. Independent Monitoring and Review 261
   1. Canada (Ontario) 262
   2. New Zealand 266
   3. European Union 268
   4. Germany 270
   5. Slovenia 272

H. Indicators and Data – Measuring Implementation and Monitoring 273
   1. New Zealand 274
   2. England and Wales 277
   3. Other examples 280

Conclusion 285

5. Identifying the Golden Threads in Irish Disability Law and Policy 287
   Introduction 287
   A. Where It All Began – the Commission on the Status of People with Disabilities Report 1996 288
   B. Disability Legislation Consultation Group – Negotiating a Disability Act 302
   C. DLCG Criticism of the Disability Bill 2004 311

Conclusion 326

6. Achieving Ireland’s National Disability Strategy – A Case Study in Implementation and Monitoring at the Domestic Level 329
   Introduction 329
   A. Vision and Mission of Ireland’s National Disability Strategy 331

xii
Contents

B. Comparative National Strategies at the Domestic Level
   1. A Vision for Change 336
   2. National Children's Strategy 341

C. Implementation and Monitoring Framework for Ireland's National Disability Strategy 348
   1. The Senior Officials Group on Disability 350
   2. The Disability Stakeholders Group 352
   3. The National Disability Strategy Stakeholders Monitoring Group (NDSSMG) 355

D. Sectoral Plans and Departmental Consultative Fora 360
   1. Department of Social Protection 363
   2. Department of Transport 364
   3. Overall Monitoring and Implementation at the Departmental Level 367

E. Data Sources and Statistics on Disability in Ireland 368

Conclusion 377

7. Showcasing Domestic Progress and Achieving International Standards 379

   A. Common Aims at National, Regional, and International Levels 380
      1. Council of Europe Disability Action Plan and Ireland's National Disability Strategy 381
      2. European Union Disability Action Plan and Ireland's National Disability Strategy 385
Table of Contents

3. The Convention and Ireland’s National Disability Strategy
   a. The Scope of Rights for People with Disabilities
   b. The CRPD as a Template for Legislative and Policy Reform
   c. The CRPD – Breaking Down Institutional Barriers to Further Progress
4. The Developmental Welfare State and Ireland’s National Disability Strategy
   Conclusion
8. Structural Ingredients for Furthering National Disability Strategies
   Introduction
   A. The Pragmatist Challenge to Legal Liberalism
   B. The Limitations of Law in Achieving Disability Equality
   C. Implementation Deficit Disorder
   D. The CRPD – Guidance for Structural Reform
   Conclusion
   Introduction
   A. Developing Measurements of Success for National Disability Strategies
   B. Forms of Measurement: Life Outcomes and Implementation Outcomes
   C. Challenges in Measuring the Implementation of Ireland’s National Disability Strategy
   D. Supports for Measuring Progress in National Disability Strategies
Contents

1. Viewing Actors as Learning Organisations in Measuring Progress 441
2. Transparency and Accountability in Reporting Systems to Measure Progress 444
   Conclusion 446

Conclusion and Recommendations for Reform 447

A. Key Findings 447
B. Recommendations for Reform 449
   1. The Need for a Baseline Study of Disability in Ireland 449
   2. Future Directions for Ireland’s National Disability Strategy 452
   Conclusion 454

Index 455