

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

- access to justice under ‘legal origins’
 - theory 309–10
- acquis* see ‘consumer acquis’; financial services
- advertising see also commercial expression
 - to children see children’s rights
 - of gambling services, control of 227
 - as political expression 325–32
- aggressive practices
 - prohibition by Unfair Commercial Practices Directive 45
- alternative dispute resolution (ADR)
 - see also* online dispute resolution
 - legal framework 89–92
 - use of 72
- ancillary contracts in Czech law 408–10
- anti-competitive behaviour
 - see also* unfair commercial practices
 - definition of 259–60
 - Rome II Regulation provision 273–8
 - Treaty basis for claims of 265
- applicable law to contract terms
 - see* Rome I Regulation
- Argentina
 - constitutional consumer rights 339
- assisted informed consent model
 - transparency issues 148–9
- auction
 - bidding procedure
 - auction as 388–94
 - definition as to legal construction of 389–92
 - definition of parties to 394–5
- Consumer Rights Directive definition
 - difficulties 380–1
 - necessary changes to 389–95
 - necessity 382–5
 - neutrality as to technology and product 392–3
 - provision 379
 - public auction distinguished 385–6
 - terminology issues 386
 - usefulness 380
- exclusion from Distance Selling Directive 378
- growth of online auctions 378
- operation and legal consequences distinguished 386–8
- ‘average (typical) consumer’
 - concept 24, 36, 38–41, 45, 118
 - see also* ‘empowered consumer’
 - concept; rational informed consumer
- banking
 - Icelandic crisis 23, 37
- behavioural studies insights as to consumers see consumer
- bidding procedure see auction
- blacklisted contract terms 151–2
- Brazil
 - constitutional consumer rights 338
- Bulgaria
 - constitutional consumer rights 337
- Business Regulations
 - coming into force 313
 - and ECHR Article 10 335
 - and freedom of expression issues 313–14
 - provisions generally 314–18

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

451

- Cambodia
 - constitutional consumer rights 337
- capability as empowered consumer
 - individual capability 371–2
 - as normative influence 360, 371–3
 - structural capability impairment and general consumer detriment 373
- case law
 - children's rights 171–3, 177–9
 - competition law enforcement 263–4, 269
 - constitutional consumer rights 341–52
 - definition of consumer 125–6
 - freedom of expression 318–34
 - gambling services 205–14
 - human/fundamental rights 345–6
- Cassis de Dijon* test 23, 24, 25
- chapter summaries 437–49
- Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - provision
 - children's rights provision see EU Charter of Fundamental Rights
- children's advertising, regulation of
 - food marketing 194–8
 - marketing to children 188–91
 - Member State Law, strengthening of 198–200
 - partial harmonisation 191–4
 - rationale for 187–8
 - and Unfair Commercial Practices Directive (UCPD) 191–4
- children's rights
 - advertising see children's advertising, regulation of
 - advertising to 164–5
- Commission strategy document 173–5
- competing interests to 175–9
 - as consumers 164
- Dynamic Medien* judgment 177–9
- EU Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - provision 167–71
- EU consumer law and policy
 - development 166–82
- Family Reunification Directive
 - judgment 171–3
- and internal market 175–9, 181
- legislative coherence as to 167
- non-governmental organisations (NGOs) 167
- prioritising in EU policies 179–82
- toy safety regulation 182–7
- Treaty provision as to 166, 175, 177, 198, 200
- UN Convention see United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC)
- choice-of-law rules
 - and Rome I Regulation 250
- class action and 'legal origins' theory 310
- collective enforcement see group actions
- Colombia
 - constitutional consumer rights 337
- commercial expression
 - see also* advertising
 - free speech claims as to 332–4
 - freedom of expression jurisprudence 318–25
- Common Frame of Reference (CFR)
 - see* Draft Common Frame of Reference (DCFR) for Contract Law
- competence see legislative competence
- competition law
 - breaches of, provision against see Rome II Regulation
 - case law as to enforcement 263–4
 - consumer protection under 258–9
 - link with consumer law 257–8, 263
 - private enforcement
 - issues as to 265
 - possibility for 261–3
 - proposals for 264–6
 - tort of unfair competition 266–70
 - self-regulation 48
- conferral principle
 - Treaty basis of 14–15
- conflict of laws rules see Rome I Regulation
- constitutional consumer rights
 - see* consumer rights as human rights
- constitutional courts
 - consumer rights jurisprudence 341–52

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

452

INDEX

- constitutional courts (cont.)
 - denial of subjective rights 343
 - human/fundamental rights judgments 345–6
- constitutional provisions
 - constitutional principles as norms 340
 - parallel developments in EU law 350–1
 - programme norms
 - nature of 340–1
 - types of 340–1
 - subjective rights as norms 340
 - see also* subjective rights
 - types of 339–41
- consumer see also consumer
 - citizenship; consumer rights as human rights; normative influences of consumer protection
 - acceptance of internal market 45, 127
 - ‘average consumer’ concept 24, 36, 38–41, 45
 - behavioural studies insights
 - anchoring and adjustment heuristic 135–6
 - availability heuristic 134–5
 - bounded rationality 130–1
 - bounded self-interest 131–2
 - bounded willpower 131
 - context of choice situations 136–7
 - general observations 129–30
 - importance for consumer regulation 142
 - linking to economic theory 139–41
 - overconfidence bias 136
 - prospect theory 138–9
 - representativeness heuristic 132–3
 - child as see children’s rights
 - collective enforcement see group actions
 - competition law protection 258–9
 - confidence in internal market 3
 - definition of
 - Czech law 403–4
 - e-commerce 83–6
 - detriment see consumer detriment
 - ‘empowered consumer’ concept 45
 - gamblers see gambling services
 - human rights see consumer rights as human rights
 - information see information provision and consumer empowerment
 - investor or shareholder as 300
 - legal definition of
 - in consumer legislation 124
 - Consumer Rights Directive see Consumer Rights Directive
 - importance of 123
 - as natural person 124
 - rational informed consumers 221–5
 - understanding of contract terms, assisted informed consent model 148–9
- ‘consumer acquis’
 - Green Paper on review of 9–10
 - review of 3, 9–10, 22
- consumer citizenship see also normative influences of consumer protection
 - concept of 354–5
 - and development of consumer protection 355–8
 - ‘empowered consumer’ 364
 - and transformation of internal market 358–67
- consumer credit
 - expansion of cross-border market, regulatory effect of 30–1
 - maximum harmonisation 33
 - right of cancellation 34–5
- Consumer Credit Directive
 - maximum harmonisation 30, 33
 - revision of 33
- consumer detriment
 - concept of 365
 - financial/non-financial 366
 - general 373
 - personal 365–6
 - structural 365–6
- consumer fraud
 - criminal sanctions against 79
- consumer law see also entries at consumer credit

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

453

- access to justice under ‘legal origins’ theory 309–10
- clash with free movement regulation 24–6
- co-regulation see co-regulation
- consumer protection development generally 355–8
- cross-border-only regulation see cross-border-only regulation
- directives see directives
- enforcement see enforcement
- harmonisation see harmonisation
- historical development 7–10
- and internal market 7
- and ‘legal origins’ theory see ‘legal origins’ theory
- legislative competence 29–31
- level of protection under 36–41
- link with competition law 257–8, 263
- as ‘mandatory law’ 7
- national constitutional provisions see consumer rights as human rights
- New Legislative Framework 50–5
- proliferation of laws 9, 21
- responsibility for 6
- self-regulation see self-regulation
- as social regulation 300
- transparency see transparency as legitimising factor
- Treaty basis 7–8, 14–15
- consumer organisations
 - and ‘legal origins’ theory 310
 - participation in standards setting see standards
- Consumer Protection Co-operation Regulation (CPC Regulation) 60–2
- consumer protection networks 58–62
- Consumer Regulations
 - coming into force 313
 - and ECHR Article 10 335
 - and freedom of expression issues 313–14
 - provisions generally 314–18
- consumer rights as human rights see also subjective rights
 - Constitutional Court jurisprudence 341–52
 - as constitutional norms or principles 339–41
 - denial by constitutional court 343
 - European Charter of Consumers 348
 - European Charter of Fundamental Rights 350
 - human/fundamental rights
 - concepts of 343–4
 - Constitutional Court jurisprudence 345–6
 - and private law 344–5
 - role of 346–7
 - and ‘social state’ concept 343–4
 - issue of 336
 - Member State policies 337
 - national constitutional provisions 336–9 see also constitutional provisions
 - and other protected rights 337
 - parallel developments in EU law and national constitutions 350–1
 - protection via other kinds of rights
 - EU law 351–2
 - national constitutional provisions 347
 - rights protection with prescribed limits 338–9
 - rules protecting specific rights 338
 - Second Action Programme 348
 - Treaty provision 347–51
- Consumer Rights Directive
 - auctions see auction; public auction
 - critiques of 44–5
 - definition of ‘auction’ and ‘public auction’ see auction; public auction
 - definition of consumer
 - and harmonisation 124–5, 128–9
 - judicial grounds 125–6
 - political grounds 126–8
 - full harmonisation under 44
 - limitations of 11
 - proposal for 3, 10, 18, 22, 27, 39, 43

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

454

INDEX

- contract law
 - Green Paper see Green Paper on European Contract Law
 - horse sales see horse sales
 - policy options for 11–12
 - scope for application of 12–13
- Contract Law Directive
 - proposal for 12
- Contract Law Green Paper see Green Paper on European Contract Law
- Contract Law Regulation
 - proposal for 12
- contract terms
 - ‘always unfair’ (blacklisted) terms 151–2
 - applicable law see Rome I Regulation
 - consumer understanding of
 - see* consumer; transparency as legitimising factor
 - transparency as legitimising factor
 - see* transparency as legitimising factor
- co-regulation
 - as complement to public enforcement 50
 - concept of 47–8
 - encouragement of 49–50
 - goals for 48
 - increased use of 46
 - and New Legislative Framework 50–5
 - self-regulation distinguished 47–8
- Court of Justice of the European Union (ECJ) see also case law
 - and financial services law 34–5
 - reference to UNCRC 171–3
 - role in European State development 357
 - and Rome I Regulation 252–5
- CPC Network 60–2
- criminal law enforcement
 - see also* Germany
 - relationship with private law and public law 67–8
 - sanctions 76–81
 - and unfair competition law 80–1
 - use of 64–5
- cross-border-only regulation
 - as alternative to directive 15–17
 - as alternative to harmonisation 13–14
 - arguments for 17–20
 - automatic application of 18
 - as complement to national regimes 19–20
 - and Green Paper on acquis review 18
 - right of cancellation 35
 - Treaty considerations 14–15
- cross-border transactions
 - and ‘average consumer’ 38–41
 - consumer interests in 36–8
 - legal definition of 17–18
 - level of protection for 36
- Czech Republic
 - ancillary contracts 408–10
 - consumer contracts generally 402
 - definition of consumer 403–4
 - New Civil Code 398–401
 - travel contracts, damages for loss of joy 410
 - unfair terms provisions 404–8
- Denmark
 - definition of consumer 124
- DG Justice
 - consumer law responsibility 6
- directives see also Consumer Credit Directive; Consumer Rights Directive; Distance Selling Directive; Doorstop Selling Directive; Television Directives
 - adoption of 8
 - definition of consumer 128
 - list of 8
 - transposition of 8, 9, 15–16, 124
- Distance Selling Directive (DSD)
 - exclusion of auctions from 378
- domestic transactions
 - consumer interests in 36–8
 - harmonisation applied to 25–7, 30
 - level of protection for 36
- Doorstep Selling Directive
 - right of cancellation under 34

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

455

- Draft Common Frame of Reference (DCFR) for Contract Law
 - CFR interface with Member States' law 112
 - collective enforcement provisions 116–18
 - content of 99
 - cross-border transactions provision 5
 - development of CFR from 100, 110–11, 119–20
 - Expert Group 10, 100
 - information duties provision 41
 - publication of 99
 - purpose of 99–100
 - resumption of work on 6
 - review of effect of provisions 114
 - unfair terms provisions 100–1, 116–18
 - unfairness test 101
- Dynamic Medien* judgment
 - children's rights 177–9
- e-commerce see also online dispute resolution (ODR)
 - confidence building 88–9, 92–4
 - consumer protection issues 82–3
 - definition of consumer 83–6
 - mass contracting 87
 - non-experts, protection of 86–7
- East Timor
 - constitutional consumer rights 338
- 'empowered consumer' concept 45, 354, 364 see also 'average consumer' concept; consumer citizenship; rational informed consumer
- empowered consumership
 - capability for see capability for empowered consumership
 - motivation for see motivation for empowered consumership
- enforcement see also criminal
 - law enforcement; private law enforcement; public law enforcement
 - choice of sanctions 67–8
 - effective enforcement principle 66
 - to ensure fair competition 67
 - and 'legal origins' theory see 'legal origins' theory
 - Member States' approaches to 64–5 see also Germany
 - need for 66–7
 - networks 58–62
 - by private actors see co-regulation; private actors; self-regulation
 - relationship between private law, public law and criminal law 67–8
- EU Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - children's rights provision 167–71
- EU private law
 - as 'multi-level system' 21
- European Charter of Consumers rights provisions 348
- European Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - consumer protection under 350
- European Civil Code
 - proposal for 12
- European Competition network (ECN) 58
- European Consumer Centers Network (ECC-Net) 60
- European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)
 - freedom of expression provision (Article 10) 313–14, 318–25, 326–7, 329, 330–1, 332–4, 335
 - freedom of expression judgments 318–34
- European Court of Justice see Court of Justice of the European Union (ECJ)
- European Standards Organisations (ESOs)
 - and New Legislative Framework 51, 53
- European state
 - development of market into 357
- Europeanisation see harmonisation
- Family Reunification Directive
 - ECJ judgment 171–3
- FIN-Net 60

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

456

INDEX

- financial services
 - acquis*, limitations of 33
 - approaches to regulation 23
 - and Court of Justice of the European Union (ECJ) 34–5
 - EU regulatory framework 32
 - level of consumer protection 36–41
 - maximum harmonisation 27–9
 - minimum harmonisation,
 - arguments for 29–33
 - problems of regulation 22–3
 - twin-level regulatory approach 35
- Finland
 - gambling services regulation 208
- food marketing to children, regulation of 194–8
- four freedoms of EU Treaty
 - negative harmonisation by 21, 24
- France
 - French Revolution and civil law development 305
 - gambling services operation 204
 - gambling services regulation 217–19, 234
 - mandatory provisions 244, 245
- fraud actions
 - consumer fraud 79
 - limitations of 79–80
 - offers disguised as bills 77
 - premium number frauds 77–8
 - subscription traps 78–9
- free movement regulation
 - see also* internal market
 - ‘average consumer’ concept 24
 - Cassis de Dijon* test 23, 24
 - and children’s rights 175–9
 - clash with consumer law 24–6
 - clash with Member State law 202–3
 - clash with other regulatory priorities 32
 - Dynamic Medien* judgment 177–9
 - regulatory approach 23
- freedom of expression
 - advertising, jurisprudence 318–25
 - claims for commercial expression 332–4
 - commercial expression as political expression 325–32
 - and consumer protection
 - Consumer Regulations and Business Regulations 313–14
 - ECHR provisions 313–14
- fundamental human rights
 - see* consumer rights as human rights
- gambling services
 - advertising control 227
 - case law 205–14
 - consumer protection measures 225–34
 - consumers, nature of 214–15
 - excessive gamblers, regulatory approach to 215–16
 - fragmentation of national markets 202
 - information disclosure, consumer protection via 225–8
 - Member State approaches to regulation
 - France 217–19
 - prevention of addiction 216–17
 - United Kingdom 219–21
 - Member State restriction of 204
 - modes of cross-border consumption 203
 - national regulation and free movement 202–3
 - rational informed consumers 221–5
 - responsible gambling, measures to promote 228–34
 - Treaty provisions 203
- Germany 79
 - children’s rights judgment 177–8
 - constitutional consumer rights 345–6
- enforcement
 - consumer fraud 79
 - criminal law and unfair competition law 80–1
 - criminal law sanctions 76–81
 - criminal law, use of 64–5
 - experience generally 74–5
 - fraud actions, limitations of 79–80
 - group actions 64, 73

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

457

- individual actions see individual enforcement actions
- offers disguised as bills 77
- premium number frauds 77–8
- private law 64–5
- public law, perspectives on 81
- public law sanctions 75–6
- public law, use of 64–5
- subscription traps 78–9
- gambling services operation 207
- mandatory provisions 245
- unfair contract terms provisions 159
- Green Paper on European Contract Law
 - alternatives to harmonisation within 13
 - policy options within 11–12
 - publication of 6, 10
 - purpose of 10
 - scope of 11, 12–13
- Green Paper on review of ‘consumer acquis’
 - approach to regulation in 18
 - publication of 9–10
- group actions
 - consumer collective redress, proposals for 278–81
 - DCFR provisions 116–18
 - effectiveness of provisions for 115–19
 - issues as to current regime for 118–19
 - limitations of 72–4
 - support for 57–8
 - use of 64
- harmonisation
 - alternatives to 6, 13
 - arguments for 7
 - cross-border-only regulation as alternative to 13–14
 - and definition of consumer 124–5, 128–9
 - by directives 3–4, 8, 13–14, 15–16, 21, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27–9, 30, 111
 - and domestic transactions 25–6
 - by four freedoms 21, 24
 - full (maximum) harmonisation 3–4, 11, 23, 27–9, 30, 33, 44, 80–1, 123, 128–9, 143, 145, 146, 156, 160, 162, 233
 - ‘half harmonisation’ theory 4
 - minimum harmonisation 3, 4, 12, 29, 101, 142, 145, 198, 227–8, 234
 - negative harmonisation 21, 24, 214
 - networks 59
 - New Approach 51
 - non-legislative harmonisation 103–4, 107, 115
 - partial harmonisation 191–4
 - Poland 415–19
 - positive harmonisation 21, 24, 210, 213
 - question of scope of 26–7
 - strategies (table) 5
 - and subsidiarity principle 12, 206
 - transparency issues 144–7
- horse sales
 - as consumer contracts 299
 - defective horse, risk of purchasing 282, 284
 - eighteenth-century jurisprudence 288–95
 - horse ownership, social importance of 282
 - liability for defects, historical development 284–8
 - medieval jurisprudence 285–8
 - nineteenth-century legal developments 295–8
 - teithi*, Welsh doctrine of 286
- human rights see consumer rights as human rights
- Icelandic banking crisis 23, 37
- individual enforcement actions
 - alternative dispute resolution (ADR) see alternative dispute resolution (ADR); online dispute resolution
 - emphasis on 64
 - high-value claims 70–1
 - lack of evidence precluding 69
 - limitations to 68–72
 - low-value claims 69–70
 - psychological barriers to 71
 - situations precluding 69
 - time lapse precluding 69

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

458

INDEX

- individuals see private actors
- information provision and consumer empowerment 360, 365, 369–71
- internal market see also free movement regulation
 - barriers to 103
 - and children's rights 175–9, 181
 - consumer acceptance of 45, 88, 127
 - consumer confidence 3
 - consumer law tied to 7
 - Contract Law Green Paper proposals 11, 12–13
 - development into European state 357
 - ECJ's role as to 3
 - inconsistent regulatory application 24–5, 358
 - and legislative competence 29–30
 - New Strategy* report 19
 - promotion of 27, 32, 45, 56
 - strategy for consumer protection 3
 - transformation of 358–67
 - Treaty provision 256
 - uniform rules and standards 3, 4, 12
- International Consumer Protection and Enforcement Network (ICPEN) 59
- investor as consumer 300
- Italy
 - constitutional consumer rights 346
 - gambling services regulation 208–10
- judicial group action see group actions
- legal norms see constitutional provisions
- 'legal origins' theory
 - application of 301
 - basic theory 301–3
 - critiques of 303–5
 - development of 300
 - differences between common law and civil law systems
 - historical explanation for 305
 - observations of 302–3
 - Roman Law origins 306–7
 - historical context of law, importance for theory 305
 - methodology 301–2
 - outlook for 310–12
 - private law, importance for capitalism 307–9
- legislative competence
 - and internal market policy 29–30
 - Treaty basis of 29
- lex specialis* principle
 - and Rome I Regulation 251–2
- Lithuania
 - constitutional consumer rights 336, 338
- loss of joy, damages for 410
- 'mandatory law'
 - EU consumer law as 7
- market integration see free movement regulation; internal market
- Member State Law see also specific jurisdictions e.g. United Kingdom
 - accession of new members 397
 - children's advertising provisions, strengthening of 198–200
 - constitutional consumer rights
 - see* constitutional provisions; consumer rights as human rights
 - cross-border-only regulation as complement to 19–20
 - definition of consumer 128–9
 - enforcement, approaches to 64–5
 - and free movement regulation 202–3
 - interface with CFR 112
 - pre-emption of see pre-emption of Member State law
 - proliferation of consumer laws 9
 - transposition of consumer directives 8
- Mexico
 - constitutional consumer rights 336
- misleading practices
 - prohibition by Unfair Commercial Practices Directive 45
- motivation for empowered consumership
 - as normative influence 360–4, 373–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

459

- national law see Member State law
- natural person
 - consumer as 124
- Netherlands
 - gambling services regulation 204
- networks for consumer protection
 - 58–62
- New Approach to harmonisation 51
- New Legislative Framework 50–5
- non-governmental organisations (NGOs)
 - children's rights 167
- normative influences of consumer protection
 - capability (third level) see capability for empowered consumership
 - hierarchical framework 359–64
 - information provision (second level) 360, 365, 369–71
 - legislative basis of hierarchy (first level) 360
 - motivation (fourth level)
 - see* motivation for empowered consumership
 - operation of 367–8
- norms, constitutional see constitutional provisions
- Norway
 - definition of consumer 124
- online auction see auction
- online dispute resolution (ODR)
 - adaptability of 94
 - adaption of traditional ADR 95
 - automated negotiation systems 96–8
 - change from ADR to 92–4
 - Electronic Consumer Dispute Resolution (ECODIR) 96
 - establishment of efficient system of 94
 - role in building confidence in online transactions 88–9, 92–4
 - typology 94–5
- online transactions see e-commerce
- Paraguay
 - constitutional consumer rights 337
- plain language in contract terms
 - 152–4
- Poland
 - constitutional consumer rights 336, 339, 340, 341–3, 347
 - harmonisation 415–19
 - and Unfair Terms Directive
 - historical background 413–15
 - implementation issues 412–13
 - implementation of abstract review of unfair terms 427–32
 - jurisprudence 422–7, 428
 - legislative transposition 419–22, 427–8
 - political expression
 - advertising as 325–32
- Portugal
 - constitutional consumer rights 338
 - gambling services regulation 210–12
- pre-emption of Member State law
 - doctrine of 3
 - limits to 4
- private actors see also consumer organisations; individual enforcement actions; non-governmental organisations (NGOs)
 - collective enforcement by 55–8
 - competition law enforcement by 261–3
 - directive provisions for 48–9
 - enforcement networks 58–62
 - enforcement role of 43
 - judicial group action 57–8
- private international law
 - competition law enforcement
 - see* competition law
- private law
 - importance for capitalism under 'legal origins' theory 307–9
- private law enforcement
 - see also* Germany
 - class action and 'legal origins' theory 310
 - limitations of 68–74
 - relationship with public law and criminal law 67–8
 - use of 64–5
- proportionality principle
 - application of 4, 12
 - Treaty basis of 4, 14–15, 30

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

460

INDEX

- public auction see also auction
 - Consumer Rights Directive
 - definition
 - adequacy 389–92
 - auction distinguished 385–6
 - difficulties 380–1, 382–5
 - neutrality as to technology and product 392–3
 - provision 379
 - terminology issues 386, 389–95
 - usefulness 380
- public authorities
 - consumer protection network 58
- public interest or safety
 - and applicability of Rome I Regulation 250–1
- public law enforcement
 - see also* Germany
 - perspectives on 81
 - relationship with private law and criminal law 67–8
 - Roman Law 306–7
 - sanctions 75–6
 - use of 64–5
- rational informed consumer 221–5
- ‘reference consumer’ see ‘average consumer’ concept
- regulation, cross-border-only see cross-border-only regulation
- Regulation no. 593/2008 see Rome I Regulation
- Regulation no. 864/2007 see Rome II Regulation
- rights of the child see children’s rights
- Roman Law
 - horse sales, liability for defects 284–5
 - public actions 306–7
- Rome I Regulation
 - adoption of 4
 - consumer protection provisions 240–3
 - harmonised conflict rules 239–40
 - overriding mandatory provisions
 - applicable law limitations 243–6
 - choice-of-law rules 250
 - CJEU’s role as to 252–5
 - concept of 239
 - consumer protection as 246–52
 - and lex specialis principle 251–2
 - public interest or safety as triggers for application of 250–1
 - scope of relevant contracts 252
- Rome II Regulation
 - application of 270
 - coming into force 257–8, 270
 - consumer collective redress 278
 - general applicable law provision (Article 4) 272–3
 - location of parties, importance of 260–1
 - private enforcement of competition law, key issues 262–3
 - provisions generally 257–8
 - unfair competition and anti-competitive acts provision (Article 6) 273–8
- Second Action Programme
 - fundamental consumer rights 348
- self-regulation
 - co-regulation distinguished 47–8
 - competition law 48
 - as complement to public enforcement 50
 - critiques of 46
 - directive provisions for 48–9
 - encouragement of 49–50
 - increased use of 46
 - Report on 47
- Serbia
 - constitutional consumer rights 338
- shareholder as consumer 300
- single market see internal market
- social regulation
 - consumer law as 300
- ‘social state’ concept
 - and human/fundamental rights 343–4
- Spain
 - constitutional consumer rights 338–9
 - gambling services regulation 209, 212–13
- standards
 - consumer organisations’ organisation for dealing with 54

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-01301-8 - European Consumer Protection Theory and Practice

Edited by James Devenney and Mel Kenny

Index

More information

INDEX

461

- consumer participation
 - funding 55
 - recognition 54–5
- lack of awareness of role in
 - consumer protection 53–4
- New Legislative Framework 50–5
- subjective rights
 - as constitutional norms 340
 - denial by constitutional court 343
- subsidiarity principle
 - and harmonisation 12, 206
 - Treaty basis of 14–15, 30
- suretyship contracts
 - comprehensive approach to
 - consumer protection 112–15
- Sweden
 - children's advertising provisions,
 - strengthening of 200
- Television Directives
 - children's advertising provisions
 - 187–200
 - minimum harmonisation 198
 - partial harmonisation 191–4
- Thailand
 - constitutional consumer rights 338
- tort of unfair competition 266–70
- Towards a Strategy on the Rights of the Child* (Commission Communication) 173–5
- toy safety regulation 182–7
- transparency as legitimising factor
 - 'always unfair' (blacklisted) terms
 - 151–2
 - approaches to 147–51
 - assisted informed consent model
 - 148–9
 - bank charges 152–4
 - commercial practices 159–62
 - and harmonisation 144–7
 - importance for consumer
 - regulation 144
 - key issues 143–4
 - meaning of transparency 147–8
 - plain language in contract terms
 - 152–4
 - rejection of 149–51
 - and unfairness test 154
- travel contracts, damages for loss
 - of joy 410
- Treaty freedoms
 - negative harmonisation by 21, 24
- Treaty provision
 - anti-competitive behaviour claims
 - 257–8, 265, 279
 - children's rights 175, 177, 198, 200
 - conferral principle 14–15
 - consumer collective redress 278
 - consumer human rights 347–51
 - consumer law generally 7–8, 14–15
 - consumer protection 356
 - gambling services 203
 - internal market 256
 - as to legislative competence 29
 - private enforcement of competition
 - law 261
 - proportionality principle 14–15, 30
 - subsidiarity principle 14–15, 30
- 'typical consumer' see 'average (typical) consumer' concept
- Unfair Commercial Practices Directive (UCPD)
 - and 'average consumer' concept 45
 - and children's advertising regulation
 - 191–4
 - prohibition of misleading practices
 - and aggressive practices 45
 - self-regulation provision 50
 - transparency issues 145–7
- unfair competition
 - Rome II Regulation provision 273–8
 - tort of 266–70
- unfair terms
 - and 'average consumer' concept 25
 - collective enforcement against 115–19
 - Czech Republic 404–8
 - DCFR provisions 100–1
 - Directive 3, 4, 8, 30, 66, 67, 116
 - unfairness test 101
- Unfair Terms on Consumer Contracts Directive (UTCCD)
 - and Polish law see Poland
 - transparency issues 144–5, 146–7
- United Kingdom
 - application of future CFR 112

United Kingdom (cont.)	private enforcement of competition law 261–2, 265, 275
children's advertising provisions, strengthening of 198–200	tort of unfair competition 266–70
children's rights judgment 177	unfair contract terms provisions 151, 156–60
consumer information provision 369–70	unfairness test 101
enforcement, approaches to 64	United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC)
freedom of expression 313–14, 318–25, 332–4	balancing of competing interests under 175–6
gambling services operation 204, 208	ECJ reference to 171–3
gambling services regulation 205, 207, 219–21, 227, 229, 234	provisions 165, 168–71
Glorious Revolution and common law development 305	United States
horse sales see horse sales	conflict of laws rules 249
judicial group action 57–8	'legal origins' theory
mandatory provisions 247–9	and class action 310
	development of 300, 301